Summarized Revelation Notes

Introduction

This commentary on Revelation begins with an abbreviated set of notes, which provides a simplified version of the Revelation study notes. The abbreviated notes will allow anyone studying to get a general knowledge of the book or specific passages without extensive reading. The abbreviated commentary does not contain the lengthy reasoning and scriptural evidence that is explored in the full study notes—although you will find that the abbreviated commentary is a book all by itself. The full version is located after the abbreviated commentary. In an extensive study of a particular verse or set of verses, it might be best to look at both the summarized and the complete notes, because there may be information that is in one, that is not in the other.

There may be a benefit to reading the simplified version of the notes first, because the simpler version will be much easier to follow than the more complex and long drawn out part of the explanation. Once you have studied the simplified version of what we believe Revelation is showing us, when you study the more complex version of the notes you will hopefully be able to understand it much better. The more complex version also contains much more explanation than what would probably be needed by a Bible Student, but that explanation is necessary if someone who isn't a Bible Student decided to read this book. Even Bible Students, will probably need some of the extra explanation in the places where the traditional view is different from what the Study Group concluded in the study. As you go through the more complex version afterward, then you will be able to gain an even greater understanding of Revelation, because of all of the other scriptures and prophecies it contains, which ties Revelation and all of the rest of the Bible together.

There is much more information in the detailed portion of the book that follows, especially in some of the harder to understand Chapters. When a reference is made to an Old or New Testament cross reference, the study notes also explain the context of the other passages and their relationship to the Revelation passages. Even though it makes the study notes larger, that extra interpretation fleshes out the understanding of God's word in both scriptural areas, while at the same time making the correct interpretation of Revelation much surer. The way the book of Revelation is written, we find that it is indexed to other parts of the Bible, especially to the Old Testament. That linkage back and forth, helps to interpret Revelation, and Revelation helps to interpret the rest of the Bible.

We have added historical documentation in the detailed part of the book that enhances the Revelation material, by showing when it was fulfilled historically. Because almost 2000 years has past, you should expect that most of Revelation has already been fulfilled, and that is exactly what you will find in these notes. There may be things happen with the remnants of the church state system, which may affect us yet before the kingdom comes, but we can only watch and wait on that. All the information that the detailed notes contain, is intended to make the commentary into a comprehensive story that shows us the extreme tribulation of the Gospel Age that the church had to go through. After the fall of the church-state system, the explanation then follows the history of that system to the beginning of the fulfillment of the Divine Plan during the Millennial Age. As much as possible, we have used the comprehensive notes to attempt to bring forth more evidence regarding the Divine Plan of the Ages, and the two salvations that the Divine Plan makes possible. Our hope is that we can make this book understandable enough, so that even the people of the world will be able in the future to understand what the book is revealing to us—even though the book was written especially for the benefit of the church.

The scripture on scripture method of interpretation that we used in the study, helped to keep the Study Group from making private interpretations that were not correct. In the detailed notes, we tried to quote the complete scripture citations as much as we could, because having the actual text of the quotations right in the notes, makes the interpretation easier to understand. We also as much as we could, explained the context of any scriptural references—we did that so that we could show that we were not taking them out of context. Doing that helps to make this a more complete explanation of not only Revelation, but also the other areas of the bible that we were quoting from.

If there is disagreement with what the abbreviated commentary is presenting, the interpretation should not be rejected without studying the detailed portion of the notes. That is because Revelation is a difficult book that should not be subjected to private interpretation, as is sometimes unintentionally done. Some sections of the abbreviated commentary, such as Chapters 12, 13, 16, and 17, contain much more detail about those Chapters. The extra information was a necessity because of the history and other important things that have to be explained in order to bring out what the Study Group believed was the correct meaning. Some of the explanation will be non-traditional, but again don't reject what is being said without looking at the detailed portion of the notes. We also hope that if there is anything lacking, that others will add to these ideas, correcting anything that is found to be in error.

Some might not want to study something that will indicate a different view of some parts of Revelation than what is found in the Reprints or the traditional thought. But before you reject the book, you should be a true Berean Student and at least look and see if what it has to say makes scriptural and historical sense. What a lot of brethren don't realize, is that the so-called seventh volume had a big influence on the current Revelation interpretation that most brethren have, and a lot of that book has serious problems. The other problem is that a lot of what Bro Russell had for his understanding of Revelation came from Adventist sources. Some of those thoughts were good, and some of them he even said that he wasn't sure about. In 1916, he even said that he didn't understand all of Revelation, and that he would not write the Seventh Volume until he understood it. Those who wrote it after his death ignored what he had said about not writing it until it was understood.

“SEVENTH VOLUME--Re Time to Understand.

Q645:3:: QUESTION (1916)--3--Since Revelation was discussed according to the program yesterday, are we to understand that the time has come for Revelation to be understood? If so, please explain Rev. 20:10: "And the Devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are the beast and the False Prophet, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever." Of what does the torment consist? Who does the tormenting?

ANSWER--The fact that we discussed certain features of Revelation yesterday does not imply that all the speakers understood everything written in the Book of Revelation. So far as these seven Churches are concerned, we have written about them in The Watch Tower in 1880 and 1882. The seven Churches were then mentioned, and those features were discussed from time to time. But there are certain things in Revelation which I do not understand, and for this reason I do not write the Seventh Volume. Therein I do not wish to give any guesses. Whenever I write the Seventh Volume on the Book of Revelation, I will have a satisfactory understanding of the teachings of that Book. Until then, I will not write it. With respect to my understanding of Rev. 20:10, I think you will find a satisfactory dissertation upon this text in the "Hell Tower." You all have the Hell Tower; and if you have not you can use the Fifth Volume, in which this text is treated quite fully. In this way you will find a much better treatment of this text than I could give you at this time."

End of quote.

The book that we are presenting here, fully supports the Divine Plan of the Ages and the two salvations, and gives even more evidence that shows that the kingdom is fast approaching. When we look in detail at the Chapters that contain the vision of the New Jerusalem coming down to the earth, we will see that the concept of two salvations, the heavenly and earthly salvations that Bible Students have long believed in, definitely are true. We will see the kingdom of God pictured as coming down to the earth with the completed church, and it will have salvation that is for all men upon the earth—those who are willing to accept it.

In other words, the message in this book will be similar to what you have already studied, but it will give some additional information that will show that more of the prophecy regarding church and state has been fulfilled than what is generally understood. It will indicate that we are much further along than what we had thought, and that a lot of what some have thought must happen before the kingdom comes, may have already happened. We will also explain that even if there is a great deal of church and state fulfilled already in this prophecy, we cannot rule out more persecution by the fallen churches. Something like the John the Baptist picture, or cooperation between the churches and government could still be what is going to happen—we need to watch to see if anything develops.

If you don't look at this commentary, then you may be missing out on a blessing, or you may be stumbled later if the course of history does not go the way that you think that it should. This book will give you additional options to look at regarding what might happen or what might not. If you look and don't agree, then you will not have lost anything except the time it takes to look. Even if you don't agree, and later on events don't go as expected, then you will have this extra information to look at to see if offers an explanation.

Technical Introduction

This section contains important information on things we need to know in order to interpret Revelation, so that we can get the intended meaning of the prophecy. There are several important concepts and methods of interpretation that are explained in this abbreviated introduction. It's recommended that that this section be read in its entirety, but this is only a summary of what is discussed in the detailed introduction in the larger part of the book. If there are any questions that are not covered well enough here, the detailed summary in the beginning of the main book will have much more information.

Connection between Old Testament Prophecy and Revelation

One question that might be asked is, how can the scriptures that are quoted out of the Old Testament and which had originally applied to natural Israel, now apply to the Gospel Age? The answer is that many of the Old Testament prophecies have at least a double application, one for Israel and one for the Gospel Age—and some may have three applications. The 1845-year parallel that we discuss in the forward to the detailed comments, shows us that what happened 1845 years ago to Israel, is happening again to the nominal Christian house on this end of the age. Apostle Paul even tells us that we should look to the Old Testament scriptures for information on what not to do, because the things that they did wrong are the same kinds of things that we should not do wrong.

1 Cor 10:11 Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. NASU

A lot of the visions in the book of Revelation are also found in the Old Testament, and that scriptural parallelism helps us to interpret both Revelation and the Old Testament prophecies. Daniel, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and other prophecies all contain parallel cross references to Revelation. As we will see, almost all of Revelation is linked to Old Testament references that will help us to understand Revelation, and to also help us to understand the Old Testament verses.

The history of Israel was written for our edification and instruction, and so we find that many of the things that happened in Old Testament times, pictured events that were going to happen again during the Gospel Age. Those events also help us in our interpretation of Revelation, as we will show when we get into the detailed portion of the book. The corrupted Pagan religious practices that crept into Israel in the Old Testament times, have occurred a second time during the Gospel Age, where we saw many Pagan doctrines being brought into the church very early on. For that reason, a good understanding of how Israel was corrupted in the same manner, helps us to see how the faithful church was corrupted by Paganism. Regarding history and understanding of Revelation, it's important to understand how Elijah pictures the church fighting against doctrinal corruption, and how Jezebel and Ahab, picture the church and state system that came into power during the Gospel Age. Just as Jezebel and Ahab tried to kill Elijah, we see that the same thing happened again when the evil church and state system tried to kill off the true church during the Gospel Age.

The history of Babylon is also important in understanding who Great Babylon is in Revelation. Just as Israel was taken captive to Babylon, we see that Great Babylon captured the true church, carrying it away into oppression and error, and would not permit the publication or study of the true Gospel. That is why in our study of Revelation, we will see the two prophets who represent the Old and New Testament lying dead in the streets of the Great City—in Chapter 11. The relationship between the Great City and Great Babylon, seems to be that the Great City started out with the Papal system, and that is the meaning of the Great City. Great Babylon contains the Great City of Papacy, but it also contains all of the Daughter Systems that have sprang off from her, propagating the same false doctrines. Great Babylon is like the ancient Babylon, in that it was made up of the many countries it had conquered, yet it contained the central city called Babylon—which is the Great City of Papacy.

The plagues of Egypt and the escape from Egypt, are also very important topics that will help in our understanding of Revelation.

Revelation is Historically Fulfilled during Gospel Age

Revelation is not all fulfilled in the past, nor is it all fulfilled in the future as some think. Both of those false interpretation methods, past and future, were put forth by the Catholic Church to hide the fact that this book points directly at them—showing them as being the great falling away and the Harlot riding on the beast. We believe that Revelation follows the history of the church from the beginning of the Gospel Age, to the time of the kingdom after Satan's system is defeated.

Book of Symbols

Revelation is a book of symbols, and to understand the book, you need to figure out what the symbols mean. A lot of the symbols are defined by other scriptures, but for those that are not, we need to determine the meaning from the context or from what the symbol is in the natural world. If the symbols are privately interpreted, especially if we do that without using the scriptural definition that is given for each symbol in the Bible, then wrong conclusions will be arrived at. In other words, if the Bible tells us what a symbol stands for, don't change its meaning to something else, because then you will not get the correct meaning of the prophecy.

Bible Chronology needed to Understand the book

Revelation cannot be correctly understood without understanding the Second Volume, Studies in the Scriptures chronology! The day for a year concept regarding the 1260, 2520 years, and the 1845-year harvest parallels, and other chronology, gives us the framework to hang the prophecy on. Without that framework, it would not be as clearly seen that Revelation is providing us with a historically fulfilled prophecy regarding the Gospel Age—that was written in advance. That the 6000 years was up in 1874AD, shows us that date was the beginning of the seventh day and the seventh church. Where we placed each of the pieces of prophecy that are contained in Revelation on the chronology framework, was sometimes difficult to determine. Some brethren don't see as much of the prophecy fulfilled, and others see more fulfilled, and so where to put the pieces was discussed in great detail in the study and the reasons for the final conclusions recorded in the detailed notes. As time went on in the study, the views of the Study Group merged or came much closer together, because we always went back and looked at a questionable area more than one time.

Need to recognize breaks, which separate different visions

It's also very important to know that when Revelation uses "I saw" or "I heard" or something similar, that the previous vision has ended and that a new vision has begun, which may not historically or chronologically follow the previous vision.

Abbreviated Notes on Revelation

All biblical quotes will be in NASU, unless otherwise noted.

Chapter 1 Abbreviated

Rev 1:1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show to His bond-servants, the things which must soon take place; and He sent and communicated it by His angel to His bond-servant John,

Jesus Revealed God's Plan and Soon to Happen Future Events to John

Jehovah revealed his full Divine Plan, and the events needed to accomplish it to Christ, after he had proven himself faithful on the cross and had been resurrected.

The message that was revealed in Revelation, was soon going to “begin” to come to pass in John’s time. Jesus sent it to John through his angel. Who the angel was is not revealed, because the angel is only a servant and did not want to take any credit for God’s Plan. We see that same humble concept explained later in Revelation, regarding the angel or messenger that John wanted to twice fall down too and worship. It’s not certain, but if we had to guess, we would suspect that the angel in verse one is Gabriel, and he possibly is even the other angel we see later on in Revelation, who as Micheal’s helper has been used before to deliver messages of God in the book of Daniel, Zechariah, and to Mary in Luke 1:19, 26. The reason that we suspect that he might be the same angel, is because he was doing major revealing’s of very important things to John, when John tried to fall down at his feet. That is the same thing the angel that Jesus sent to John, as described in this verse, was doing. We see Gabriel being used by Michael in the book of Daniel, to reveal major prophecies to Daniel, and for that reason it would seem reasonable that our Lord is still using him to do that same thing in the Gospel Age.

Rev 1:2 who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw.

John Passed on to the Church Everything that He Saw

When John received the message from the angel, he testified about everything that he was shown regarding the message from God and Jesus. That testimony is the book that we are examining. This is another reason that the vision of the judgment of the harlot, the New Jerusalem coming down, and the waters and the tree of life, are all most likely being revealed by this same angel.

Rev 1:3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it; for the time is near.

Those Who Read and do the Things in the Book Will be Blessed—the Time is Near

We are told that those who read the book, those who understand the book, and those who do the things written in the book, will be blessed.

That the time is near, is not saying that the vision was going to be completely fulfilled in the time of John, as some claim, but it’s saying that it would “begin” to be fulfilled in the time of John. The reason to be concerned so quickly, was because the extremely bad things that were going to be coming upon the church were not very far away at the time that John received this vision. Those who understood what was in the book, would be helped and protected by that knowledge—which would help keep them from falling away from the faith.

Rev 1:4-6 (4 John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood — 6 and He has made us to be a kingdom, priests to His God and Father — to Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

John's and the Heavenly Greeting to the Church

The message is to seven churches that symbolically represent the seven time-periods of the entire Gospel Age. We have good reason to believe that churches 2-6 are each 360 years in length, the theory of which we have explained in more detail in the detailed notes and in the appendixes.

The greeting is from the Heavenly Father, and the seven spirits that are before his throne. It is also from Jesus Christ, who is called the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

The one who is, who was and who was to come, is Jehovah. While he will be present and unseen in the next age, his coming is actually through Jesus, who is his representative.

We are also told that Jesus loves us, and that he has freed us from our sins by his blood, and that he has made us to be a kingdom of priests to serve God his Father. We will see later in Revelation, that our Lord and the church are destined to rule over the earth in the Millennial age—so that all who are willing during that age will be restored.

To God be the power and glory forever and ever. As we will find described later in Revelation, God deserves the power and glory, because it is his plan that has made it all possible.

We are not kings and priests as some think this is saying, but we are to be a kingdom of priests to God.

Rev 1:7-8 (7 BEHOLD, HE IS COMING WITH THE CLOUDS, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn over Him. So it is to be. Amen.

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

The Alpha & Omega, Jesus Will Be Coming & Every Eye Will See Him

Our Lord comes with the clouds, which means storms and trouble for those who are not doing what they should, but the clouds can also represent refreshing rain or truth to those who are doing good and watching.

That every eye shall see him, began to be partially fulfilled from 1799AD and afterward. There appears to be at least two phases to our Lord's coming, the first from 1799 to 1874AD, which brings us up to his second presence as seen in Matt 24:30. The final phase of trouble as seen in Luke 21:27, is a second phase of trouble which applies from the end of the times of the gentiles in 1914, to the start of the kingdom. The complete fulfillment of our Lord's coming, when every eye can see him, will not take place until he comes in his glory with the entire church. Even then it's not clear if the world will see him, or if they will only perceive the results of his coming with the church. At the time of the kingdom, it will be Christ head and body that comes, because the church will be complete.

Those who pierced our Lord, can symbolically represent the apostate church that also pierced his body members, as well as the nation of Israel who literally did that to our Lord. During the time from 1799 and onward, some of the people could see or understand that our Lord was coming on the clouds of trouble, because of the worldly events and they began to be afraid as we will see described in the sixth seal.

Those who literally pierced our Lord, were the Jews and they will eventually see and understand that they did kill their Messiah. That will occur just before and at the beginning of the kingdom, especially when the Ancient Worthies come back.

Zech 12:10 & the First & Last Letter of the Alphabet

"Those that pierced him" comes from Zechariah 12:10, where we find something very interesting in the Hebrew text. This information is found in Reprint 1948:4.

'They shall look upon ME whom they have pierced.' They will not admit that it is Jehovah whom they have pierced, hence the dispute as to who is meant. Mr. R. points out that the word used consists of the first and last letters of the Hebrew alphabet, Aleph Tay, and adds: 'Do you wonder, then, that I was filled with awe and astonishment when I opened to Rev. 1:7,8, and read these words of Zechariah quoted by John, 'Behold, he cometh... and every eye shall see him, and they also that pierced him,' and then heard the glorified Lord saying,...'I am the Alpha and Omega.' Jesus seemed to say to me, 'Do you doubt who it is you have pierced? I am the Aleph Tay, the Alpha Omega.'"

For a great deal more information and proof as to why Jesus must be the Alpha and the Omega, you will need to look at the detailed notes for Rev 1:8, because there is too much information to put into a summery. Some make Jehovah the Alpha and Omega here, and Jesus the Alpha and the Omega in the other places that phrase is used later in Revelation, but the Study Group did not think that it was correct to use that same term for both Jesus and Jehovah, and we in the end settled on the conclusion that Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega.

Rev 1:9 I, John, your brother and fellow partaker in the tribulation and kingdom and perseverance which are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

John on Patmos

While it does not exactly say so in Revelation, tradition has it that John was on the isle of Patmos because he had been arrested for witnessing the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus. The question that comes up about this, is whether he went there voluntarily to witness, or if he was arrested and sent there to get rid of him so that he was not witnessing about Jesus in the Empire. Barnes notes thinks he went there voluntarily, because there is nothing that says he was arrested and sent there.

Rev 1:10-11 (10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like the sound of a trumpet, 11 saying, "Write in a book what you see, and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea."

John is to send the Message to the Seven Churches

The words: “I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest”, are not found in the Sinaiticus. All modern translations drop it out of the text.

John being in the spirit on the Lord’s Day, is like Paul when he saw visions of the third heaven. Just as Paul was not sure if he went to the third heavens bodily or in the spirit—the same thing was true of John.

That this was occurring on the Lord’s Day, would seem to prophetically indicate that the message of Revelation would not be fully understood until after the start of the seventh thousand-year day in 1874AD. John had to turn and look back to see who was speaking to him, and that would seem to show us that on this end of the age, that we need to look back over history to understand the prophecy of Revelation. That is exactly true in that without understanding and knowing fulfilled history, we would not know how to interpret some of the symbols—especially the day for a year chronology that is contained in the book.

Rev 1:12-16 (12 Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands; 13 and in the middle of the lampstands I saw one like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and girded across His chest with a golden sash. 14 His head and His hair were white like white wool, like snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire. 15 His feet were like burnished bronze, when it has been made to glow in a furnace, and His voice was like the sound of many waters. 16 In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; and His face was like the sun shining in its strength.

Vision of Jesus & Seven Candlesticks

When John turned to see who was speaking to him, he saw the Son of Man in the midst of the seven candle sticks. The title Son of Man belongs to Jesus, and we know that because he used that title regarding himself in the Gospels at the First Advent.

The robe that reached down to the feet, reminds us of the robe of a High Priest “Ex 28:4, 39:29”. That description fits Jesus very well, since he completely fulfilled and abolished the literal sacrificing for all ages “Heb. 7:11, 27, 9:28, and 10:12”, and became our spiritual high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

A golden girdle represents righteousness and faithfulness “Isaiah 11:5”. That the girdle is made of gold shows that he was carrying out the Divine will, with Divine authority.

The white hair on his head, shows that he has discernment and wisdom. White is also used to represent purity. Jesus has inherited from his Father the wisdom and righteousness necessary to be the judge of the earth—See Dan 7:9.

The statement, "and his eyes were as a flame of fire", shows us that nothing can be hidden from his sight, and that he can see through the motives of the heart, “Heb. 4:13”.

The “voice of many waters”, is also found in Ezek 1:24 and 43:2, where it tells us that the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. That is a very good picture of Jesus coming from the east or sun rising, with increased Gospel light to take possession of his kingdom of glory.

Here we see the seven stars that he has in his right hand, but we are not told until verse 20 that they represent the seven angels for the seven churches.

The double-edged sword that comes out of his mouth, is not explained here either, but we see it later in Revelation, when our Lord rides out on the white horse and begins attacking and removing the remnants of Satan's system. The double-edged sword of the mouth, represents the sword of truth, and it has two edges, because it symbolizes the Old and the New Testament truth.

That our Lord's face was shining like the sun, represents the glory of the Gospel of Christ, which is much brighter than the fading glory that Moses covered up with the veil, See 2 Cor 3:7-11.

That his feet were like burnished bronze when it is heated in a fire, does not mean that it says that the feet are made from bronze, because the word only means shining brightly. We can understand that the feet are bronze if we look at the parallel scriptures from Daniel Chapter 10, where we see the description of an angel where the word used there was bronze, and we are told that it was like polished bronze. Bronze or polished brass symbolizes human nature—which shows us that Christ had a perfect human nature while he was walking on the earth. He had gone through the furnace of affliction and temptation, and had come through perfect and without sin, as we see in Heb. 4:15

Rev 1:17-18 (17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. And He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last, 18 and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades.

That John fell at his feet and had to be raised up, is like what happened to Daniel in Chapter 10. Mortal man cannot stand before a heavenly being without help.

Jesus in one sense was the first and the last, in that he is the first and last of God's creation, because God created all other things through Jesus.

In a second and very important sense for the church and the world, is that he is the first and last in the sense that he was dead, and he was the first and only one that Jehovah brought back to life. He is the last one that is resurrected by the Heavenly Father, because the son will be the one doing the resurrecting of everyone else.

The second meaning of first and last, is the one that is intended here, because it says that he was dead and that he is alive forever and ever. That is why he tells us that he holds the keys of death and Hades. Those keys give him the right to resurrect everyone else, when the beginning of the kingdom comes.

Rev 1:19-20 (19 "Therefore write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after these things. 20 "As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Mystery of Seven Stars & Seven Lampstands

John is then told to write the things that he has seen, and what is now, and what will take place. In other words, John was to not only write about what was going on at that time, but he was also to write about everything that was being revealed about the future.

We are told that the seven stars represent seven angels, and that the seven candle sticks represent the seven churches. The stars or angels are messengers to the seven different churches of the Gospel Age.

The seven angels are seven key men, who bring messages of truth and help to each of the seven historical time-periods at the beginning of each church. There is still an unresolved question by some Bible Students regarding the messengers, which is whether the key individual at the start of each church is all that there is to the message, or if others afterward in that church period can continue and enhance the original work. It seemed clear to the Study Group that others could add to the message that the messenger brought to each church, but any addition should not detract from the core of the message that was originally delivered at the start of each church.

When you look at what our Lord says to the angel or messenger of each church, it appears at first glance that the message about what is being done wrong, is being directed against the messenger—with only a few translations directing it against the whole church. That did not make sense to our Study Group, and the conclusion that we came to was that the message was given to the angel, but it was not directed against him, but it was against the entire church. We saw that it was being given to him, to broadcast the warning about what was being done wrong in the church. At the end of each message to each church it is said, “He who has an ear, let him hear what the spirit says to the churches”, which confirms that the message is to everyone in that church. In other words, the message comes to the messenger and through him to the church, and the entire church is admonished to pay attention to it. The specific warnings of error or corruption that were given to each church, can also be understood to apply to all seven churches, in the sense that all of the churches need to avoid the same errors.

Seven Churches

Church One 32.25AD-73.75

Chapter 2 Abbreviated

Rev 2:1-3 (1 "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: The One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands, says this:

2 'I know your deeds and your toil and perseverance, and that you cannot tolerate evil men, and you put to the test those who call themselves Apostles, and they are not, and you found them to be false; 3 and you have perseverance and have endured for My name's sake, and have not grown weary.

Ephesus Means First or Desirable Warning About False Apostles

Verse one repeats the information about the seven stars and lamp stands. Each of the messages to the seven churches repeats key statements from Chapter one.

Even in the first church, there were many who were who were claiming to have special knowledge, but who were actually leading the church away from Christ. That was not only those who wanted to keep the church under the law, but it was also those who were mixing Pagan doctrines with the truth.

He commends this church for persevering and enduring great hardships for his name. The first church was persecuted by both the Jews and the Romans, and suffered great hardship while they were witnessing about Christ.

Rev 2:4 'But I have this against you, that you have left your first love.'

Warning About Leaving First Love

Despite the good things that they have done, he criticizes them for losing their first love. We are to love one another as Christ has loved us "John 13:34", and that needs to be agape love, and not just "brotherly love". One possibility regarding them losing their love, could also represent that they had lost their full appreciation of what Christ had done for us, which in turn resulted in a lack of actual love for each other. This is the greatest test for the saints—do they love one another? 1 Cor 13:3 And if I give all my possessions to feed {the poor} and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing. (NAU)

John 13:35 "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." (NAU)

One other thought was that it was the great love and zeal we have for the truth, which is a lot of times the most evident when we first come into the church. That love gradually cools off, and we see that this happens to almost everyone to a certain extent throughout the age, especially if we suffer trials or persecution. We all need to continue to build upon our love and zeal as we progress in the way, so that our love does not grow cool or cold.

Rev 2:5 'Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent and do the deeds you did at first; or else I am coming to you and will remove your lampstand out of its place — unless you repent.'

Repent or Lose Your Lampstand

One indication that this might be that they had cooled off from the zeal and love of the truth that they first had, is that he tells them to remember the heights from which they had fallen, and to repent. If they wouldn't do that he would remove their lamp stand from its place, which shows that this was considered by our Lord to be a serious problem.

Rev 2:6 'Yet this you do have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.'

Warning About Nicolaitans

One very important thing that he commends them for, is that they also hate the Nicolaitans, just as he does. The Nicolaitans were those who were taking forceful control over the people of the church. They are mentioned again, later in the third church, showing us that the problem did not go away, but that it got worse. The corrupt bishops began taking away the freedom of the church, and that is what led later to the oppressive church and state system that was controlled by Papacy, who took all kinds of freedom away, both civil and religious.

Rev 2:7 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will grant to eat of the tree of life which is in the Paradise of God.'

Overcome & Get to Eat of Tree of Life—Immortality

He who has an ear let him hear what the spirit says to the churches, is found at the end of each of the seven churches.

Our Lord says that whoever overcomes will have the right to eat of the tree of life which is in the paradise of God. This is not just the leaves or the fruit which is what the world gets—but it is the actual tree which represents immortality. All the promises that are given in each church apply to all the other churches, as well as all the warnings.

Church Two 73.75AD-433.75AD

Rev 2:8 " And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life, says this:

Rev 2:9 'I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy by those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

Praise for Faithful Warning about False Brethren

Smyrna means bitter affliction, which was definitely occurring during this church, with the severe persecution that came at the beginning of this church.

Our Lord repeats the message from the first Chapter, that he is the first and the last, and that he died and has come back to life again. That is appropriate encouragement, because that tells them that if they were killed in the persecution that was occurring during the second church, they would also be resurrected.

Jesus tells them that he knows their afflictions, of which they had many during the early part of this church, and he knows their poverty which was an actual lack of the world's goods. But he tells them that they are rich, not of the things of this world, but in spiritual riches.

In the latter part of this church, they began to have other problems. In Revelation, the word Jew was a symbol that represented true Christians. They had individuals that were claiming they were Jews, typifying faithful Christians, but they were not true Christians. These were not actual Jews, because our Lord was not dealing with the Jews anymore at that time. Those who were said to be not Jews, were not true Christians anymore, but they had been taken over by Satan and his errors, and because of that our Lord calls them a synagogue of Satan. These were those who were corrupting the doctrines of Christ at the church councils that began in the latter part of this church—the first of which was the Council of Nicaea in 325AD.

Rev 2:10 'Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

Ten years of Severe Persecution

Our Lord warns the church that they were going to be entering a severe time of persecution, and that some of them would be cast into prison to test them and that the persecution would last for ten days. At a day per year, that was ten-years and history shows that a ten-year persecution did happen in the early part of this church, 303-313. If they would be faithful even until the point of death, our Lord said that he would give them the crown of life.

Rev 2:11 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.'

Overcome & Second Death Will Not Hurt You

Again, we have the admonition, that those who have an ear to hear, should hear what the spirit says to the churches.

We then have the promise that he who overcomes, will not be hurt by the second death—this promise applies to all the churches. The implication or warning is that if you don't overcome, that you could be hurt by the second death, and that warning applies to all seven churches.

Church Three 433.75AD-793.75AD

Rev 2:12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this:

Rev 2:13 'I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.'

Mention of Satan's Throne & Faithful witness

Pergamum means earthly elevation, and that fits the time-period of this church exactly. This was the time that the Papacy was beginning its climb to power starting in 539AD.

Our Lord repeats the message of the first Chapter, regarding the fact that he has the sharp two-edged sword, which represents the Old and the New Testament. This is evidently a warning to this church about the major erroneous changes in doctrine that the church councils had made during the last of the second church, and the beginning of this church. This church was beginning to ignore and reject the two-edged sword—which represents the Bible. This church, is also the time that the bible began to lay dead in the street of the Great City of Papacy, because they were keeping the bible from the common people by this time in the church. See the detailed notes for why the two witnesses of the Old and the New Testament were killed here during the entire 1260, and not just 3.5 years at the latter part of the 1260 years, as is commonly believed.

Our Lord tells them that he knows that they live where Satan has his throne, but that they have remained true to his name anyway. Satan on his throne was ruling over the church, because they had accepted the union of Rome and the church.

The Lord commends those who remained faithful to our Lord, even when Antipas was put to death in their city. Antipas means anti Papa or in a symbol Anti Pope, and represents all of those who opposed the Popes rise to power during this church, and they were being persecuted and killed during this church. Around 539, Justinian gave the Pope of Rome, control over the doctrine of both halves of the Empire, which was the beginning of the Papal system of control over the church.

Rev 2:14 'But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who kept teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit acts of immorality.'

Warning About Pagan Doctrine Being brought into the Church

Balaam and Balak were Pagans involved in teaching the Israelites to eat things that had been sacrificed to literal idols. The idols that were involved in this church, were idols of doctrine, and they were Pagan doctrines that were being fed to the true church. Not all Christians were agreeing to the doctrinal changes that were going on at that time, but some were and so we have the complaint from the Lord that they were accepting this error. Evidently they should have been resisting the corrupt doctrines more than they were. The sexual immorality may have been literal, but the Lord was most likely using that as a picture referring to the union of church and state, which was occurring in this church, because of cooperation between Papacy and the Roman Empire.

Rev 2:15 'So you also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans.'

Second Mention of Nicolaitans Who Have Taken Full Control of This Church

The problems with the Nicolaitans are mentioned again for a second time in the third church. In the first church the Nicolaitans were limited to the church leaders that began oppressing people in the church, but in this church, they have grown stronger, and they are cooperating with the civil power of the Empire. Since they have the backing of the civil power of Rome in this church, that backing has given them the power to demand that all must agree with the so called orthodox doctrines or be severely punished.

Rev 2:16 'Therefore repent; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth.'

Repent or the Lord Will Come Against Them

This church is told to repent, or the Lord will come and fight against them with the two-edged sword of the truth.

Rev 2:17 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, to him I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and a new name written on the stone which no one knows but he who receives it.'

Faithful get Hidden Manna—Immortality

Again, we have he who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

The promise that is given here to those who overcome, is that he will give them some of the hidden manna. This is the manna that never corrupts or decays, and represents immortality. Again, the promise of blessing is to all the churches.

The white stone that has a new name on it that no one will know except the one who receives it, guarantees that no one else will be able to get the reward except those who have actually overcome.

Church Four 793.75AD-1153.75AD

Rev 2:18 “And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: The Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like burnished bronze, says this:

Rev 2:19 'I know your deeds, and your love and faith and service and perseverance, and that your deeds of late are greater than at first

Praise for Good Deeds Which Have Grown

The name Thyatira means sweet perfume of sacrifice.

Our Lord reminds them that he is the son of God, which has been forgotten by this time because of the Trinity doctrine. That his eyes are a blazing fire, reminds them that he can see what is going on in this church. That his feet were of burnished bronze, indicates that he was a perfect human when he walked on the earth, and not God. The symbol of burnished bronze which represents perfect humanity, is in direct contrast to the idea that he was God, and part of a Trinity while he was on the earth.

Evidently there were some that were doing more regarding love, faith, service, and perseverance in this church, in contrast to those who were doing bad things in the time of this church.

Rev 2:20-23 (20 'But I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and leads My bond-servants astray so that they commit acts of immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 'I gave her time to repent, and she does not want to repent of her immorality. 22 'Behold, I will throw her on a bed of sickness, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds. 23 'And I will kill her children with pestilence, and all the churches will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts; and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

Warning About Tolerating Jezebel

But our Lord was not happy that they were not firmly resisting the symbolic Jezebel, who was claiming to be a prophetess, but she was the harlot of Chapter 17. She was leading the church into the immorality of full church and state, and she was forcing the church to eat corrupted spiritual food, which were false doctrines that were being offered to idols. This church is where the symbol Jezebel pictures the corrupt church, and Ahab pictures the civil power of the kings who are joined together with Papacy, and together they began ruling over the Roman Empire after 799-800. The 539AD date that starts the 1260 years, marks the beginning of the climb of Papacy to power, which was where he began to jointly work with the civil power, and that led to him being able to take control in 799-800AD. See the detailed notes for the full history of what happened during this time, and how Papacy managed to gain control over the civil power, even against the opposition of some who realized that the grab for power was wrong.

Our Lord had given Jezebel time to repent, but since she did not repent by the ending time of this church, our Lord was going to do three things to her. We believe that those three things were going to happen one by one to each of the next three churches, through the woe trumpets. This is more fully explained in the detailed notes.

Three Punishments 5th-7th Churches

The bed of suffering was the doctrinal controversies that came about in the fifth church, starting with Peter Waldo and then gaining strength with Wycliffe, who started to bring many scriptures to the people.

The suffering of those who committed adultery with Papacy, started during the sixth church, when the church split into two camps during the Reformation, and then the suffering became especially painful upon her when the power of the kings was separated from her in 1799AD. The kings were the ones that had committed spiritual fornication with the Papal church, and at the end of the 1260 years, their support was removed from her.

The killing of her children with death, came in the seventh church, with the casting and spewing out of the firstborn who did not repent after 1878AD.

Because of those three punishments, our Lord says that all the churches will know that he searches the hearts and minds, and that he will repay each according to their deeds. This will be obvious when they do not get a reward, but they will suffer their shame for what they did.

Rev 2:24-25 'But I say to you, the rest who are in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not known the deep things of Satan, as they call them — I place no other burden on you. 25 'Nevertheless what you have, hold fast until I come.

Rev 2:26-28 (26 'He who overcomes, and he who keeps My deeds until the end, TO HIM I WILL GIVE AUTHORITY OVER THE NATIONS; 27 AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON, AS THE VESSELS OF THE POTTER ARE BROKEN TO PIECES, as I also have received authority from My Father; 28 and I will give him the morning star.

The Overcomers Will Rule With the Lord in the Kingdom

The rest of those who were not holding to the teachings of Jezebel, and who did not hold the deep secrets of Satan, our Lord was not going to put any further burden on them. They only needed to hold fast to what they had until he comes.

The promise is that he who overcomes and does his will until the end, will have authority from the Lord over the nations. This promise is very fitting here because this is the place in history that the church was at the height of its illegal power over the kings, and those who didn't fall into that temptation, would in the Millennial age receive the reward of the true reign Millennial reign with Christ. The church with the Lord will rule over the nations with a rod of iron, and the authority for the Lord Jesus together with the church to do that in the next age, comes from Jehovah.

The morning star is generally thought to be Wycliffe, and he was being used of the Lord to bring light to the church almost immediately after this church period ended. The Lord is the true light bringer, but he uses earthly individuals like Wycliffe to distribute light and truth to his saints.

Rev 2:29 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

Again, we have the admonition that those who have an ear to hear, need to listen to what the spirit says to the churches.

Church Five 1153.75AD-1513.75AD

Chapter 3 Abbreviated

Rev 3:1 “To the angel of the church in Sardis write: He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars, says this: ‘I know your deeds, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.

Rev 3:2 ‘Wake up, and strengthen the things that remain, which were about to die; for I have not found your deeds completed in the sight of My God.

Rev 3:3 ‘So remember what you have received and heard; and keep it, and repent. Therefore if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you.

Time to Wake Up

Early Reformers Bring Truth

Sardis means that which remains. By this time there is not much truth or many faithful saints remaining. Those who had been or were trying to be faithful, were being killed during this church—as is shown by the vision of the dead under the altar in the fifth seal.

Our Lord reminds this church that he holds the seven spirits of God and the seven stars, and that he knows their deeds. He tells them that they are supposed to be alive, but in reality, they are spiritually dead. That harsh judgement is because they are not stopping the killing of the faithful saints during this time.

He tells this church to strengthen the things that remain—which have been thoroughly corrupted by this time in history. There is nothing in this church that is acceptable to the Lord or to the Heavenly Father, but ones like Peter Waldo and then Wycliffe began to restore the truth during this church.

Remembering what they had first received, meant that they should turn back to the scriptures—which is the source of all truth. Once they had returned to the scriptures, then they needed to live up to what they found written within that Holy Book, and resist the Papal system.

If they did not wake up and return to the scriptures, then they would not know when the Lord returned like a thief. The churches that turned back to the scriptures, were prepared when the Reformation came upon them in the sixth church. If the Reformation churches in turn continued to study the scriptures, then their members were awake when the Lord came in the seventh church.

Rev 3:4-5 (4 ‘But you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their garments; and they will walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. 5 ‘He who overcomes will thus be clothed in white garments; and I will not erase his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

The Few Faithful

Will be Rewarded

Despite the poor condition of this church, the Lord says that there are a few that have not soiled their garments, and that they would walk with the Lord dressed in white.

Anyone who is like those who have overcome and are worthy, will never have their names blotted out of the book of life. The Lord will acknowledge their names before the Father and his angels.

Rev 3:6 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

Again we have the admonition that those who have a hearing ear, needs to heed what the spirit says to the churches.

Church Six 1513.75AD-1873.75AD

Rev 3:7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: He who is holy, who is true, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says this:

Rev 3:8 'I know your deeds. Behold, I have put before you an open door which no one can shut, because you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not denied My name.

The Open Door of Reformation Opportunity

Philadelphia means brotherly love. Here we have an important repeat from Chapter one, where the Lord reminds this church that he is holy and true, and that he has the key of David. If he opens a door, then no one can shut it and if he closes a door, then no one can open it. The reason that he is reminding this church of that, is because this church thinks that they can sell indulgences for money, telling the church that the merit of the indulgences can get anyone into heaven no matter what crime they have committed. They are being told by Jesus that they can't do that, because he controls who is admitted to heaven and who is not.

The Reformation church was given an open door of opportunity, with which they were able to break free of the mother church. They kept his word by going back to the Bible, which they were starting to use at that time as the standard and source of truth, instead of having church councils set doctrine.

Rev 3:9 Behold, I will cause those of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie—I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and make them know that I have loved you.

The corrupt Church will Have to Bow at feet of the Faithful in the Kingdom

Rev 3:10 Because you have kept the word of My perseverance, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that hour which is about to come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

Hour Testing, in Sixth or Seventh Church?

The Papal church did not reform and they will in the end fail, and they will bow down before those who were faithful and have to admit that they were wrong. The testing or trial that was going to come upon the whole world, was most likely not the test or trial that was going to come in the seventh day, but it was the test of whether you were going to stay with the mother church or not. Those who joined the Reformation movement succeeded, and those who decided to stay with the Papal system were on dangerous ground. In the detailed notes, we explain how the testing could be to either the sixth or the seventh church, but that we preferred the explanation that the sixth church was kept from the test by being faithful, while at the same time acknowledging that it could be referring to the seventh church. The important thing to recognize was that there was a testing occurring during both churches.

Rev 3:11 I am coming quickly; hold fast what you have, so that no one will take your crown.

Rev 3:12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will not go out from it anymore; and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God, and My new name.

Hold Fast to Reformation Truth

Even if they broke free of the Papal church, it is still possible to fail for other reasons, so hold fast to the restored truth you have received, and use it to help you to win the race. That he is coming quickly, shows that this is the last church before he comes in the seventh church.

Several Names of Authority Church part of New Jerusalem

The church will be in symbol a part of the New Jerusalem, and the names that are written on them will show that they are accepted as a part of God's government, and that they have the Lords authority backing them.

Rev 3:13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

Again, we have the message from the Holy spirit, that we need to pay attention to the messages that it is giving to the churches. They are all important.

Church Seven 1873.75-?AD

Rev 3:14 "To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: The Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God, says this:

Jesus is Faithful & True Witness

Jesus is the true and faithful witness, and he was the first creation of God. This is a repeat statement from Chapter one.

Rev 3:15 'I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot; I wish that you were cold or hot.

Wish You Were Neither Hot Nor Cold

He tells them that he knows their deeds and that they are neither hot nor cold. He says that he wished that they were either hot or cold. Either they should be zealous and pursuing after the truth with all their heart, or they would be better off to be cold and doing nothing. At least then they could go into the kingdom without being guilty of the things that he is about to describe to them.

Rev 3:16 'So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth.

Many will be Spewed Out in this Church

So, because they don't fit into either category, our Lord is going to spew them out. In other words, failure to repent and do what they need to do to become faithful Christians, will result in their losing their chance for the high calling and their becoming Great Company. This is an exact parallel to what happened to the Jewish house at the First Advent, and now at the beginning of the Second Advent the same thing is going to happen to the apostate Christians.

Rev 3:17 'Because you say, "I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have need of nothing," and you do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked,

You Are Not Rich You Have Many Failings

This church thinks that they are rich in not only earthly riches, but they think that they are rich in spiritual things. They believe that their earthly riches and the doctrines that their church councils and theologians have supplied them with, are all that they need. Our Lord is telling them that they are not rich in either way, but that they are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked. They are poor in the spiritual things that they have, because their doctrines are doctrines of devils, and not from the Lord. Because of that they are really spiritually blind, and they are spiritually naked, because they don't understand the salvation that the Lord supplied to the church at the First Advent. Even if they are using the bible, they read into it what they want to see, and they ignore what it is saying. They are naked because they don't have the robe of righteousness that our Lord has supplied to all true believers, nor do they understand that there is going to be another earthly salvation for the unbelievers. They believe that God is going to send all unbelievers to a mythical hell. Because of that they are walking naked, and all their faults are in plain sight, because they are not covered by Christ's sacrifice. That is one of the reasons that they are going to be cast out of the wedding feast. They do not understand, nor have on the white robe of righteousness, as we see in the next verse.

Rev 3:18 I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire so that you may become rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness will not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see.

Rev 3:19 'Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline; therefore be zealous and repent

The Harvest Truth Supplied During this Church, if Accepted will Save Them

The following things that our Lord offers them are things that they need to buy, or in other words they are going to have to work to get them. He tells them that they need to buy "spiritual" gold from him, that has stood the test of time by being tried in the fire that tests all things: 1 Cor. 3:10-14. The white robe that he is offering them is the robe of righteousness, that is supplied to all true believers so that their shameful human failings are covered. The eye salve that he is offering to them, is designed to remove their spiritual blindness so that they can see the things of God, and to understand his plan of salvation. As history shows, only those who were truly zealous for the Lord and the truth, accepted the new Harvest time doctrines that became available at that time, and those who did that rejected the doctrines of men and devils.

The Lord will Reprove & Discipline Help Those Who Will Accept that Help

Those I love, are those who want to know the truth. They are the ones that our Lord can work with and who will pay attention when he brings trials upon them, so that they will wake up and repent as he asks them to do in this verse.

Rev 3:20 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me.

The Lord is Present,
Those Who Want to Overcome
Must Open the Door to Him

That he is standing at the door here, shows us that he is actually present during the time of the seventh church. This is the time of judgment that the church had been warned was going to come. That he is standing at the door and knocking, shows us that those who are in this church, are going to have to make a decision. They must get up out of their nominal creed bed, and answer the call of the Lord. If they don't do that, they will lose out and they will be amongst those who are spewed out.

Those who answer the door, will receive a rich blessing of the harvest truth that was due in the seventh church. Our Lord came in and sat down with those who were seeking after truth, and they received a rich blessing of spiritual food. Through the work of the Seventh Messenger, they received the Harvest Truth that contained knowledge of the Divine Plan of God and how that plan is going to bless all the families of the earth. The knocking on the door by our Lord goes beyond the 40-year harvest time, because he is still calling for any who have a hearing ear or a seeing eye. Make sure that you answer the door if you hear that knock, because the opportunity he is offering will soon be gone!

Just as we will see in Chapter 10, when John ate the scroll, it was sweet in his mouth, but it was also bitter in his stomach. Not only was there information regarding God's Plan, but there was also information about God's judgment that was occurring during this church. That judgment was going to result in the spewing out of those who failed to heed our Lord's message of truth—which would have freed them from the Apostate system, and the evil doctrines that they believed in.

Rev 3:21 'He who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

The Church Must Overcome
Just as the Lord Did

Again, there is a closing message of blessing to those who overcome in this church, and all the other churches. Those who overcome will receive the right to sit on our Lord's throne with him—just as he overcame and sat down on his Father's throne.

Rev 3:22 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

Even in the last of the seven churches, we receive the admonition to hear what the spirit says to the churches.

The Throne Scene
Chapter 4 Abbreviated

Rev 4:1 'After these things I saw a door open in heaven, and the first voice came to my ears, like the sound of a horn, saying, Come up here, and I will make clear to you the things which are to come. BBE

The Open Door Is Showing Existing Salvation Before Christ's Sacrifice

John next sees a door set in heaven, and he hears a voice that tells him to come up here, and the voice tells him that he will be shown what is going to occur next. What John is going to be shown, are not things that were going to occur after the seventh church, but he will first see what existed prior to Christ's sacrifice on the cross. Then in Chapter 5, he will see things that will occur throughout the entire Gospel Age after Christ is faithful on the cross. Then we will see things that were going to occur during the time of the seven churches and the Gospel Age.

The reason we can recognize a break in this prophesy and back up to John's time again, are the words, "I saw". We need to pay attention to those kinds of breaks in the prophesy as we go through Revelation, or we will wind up with a wrong idea regarding which time frame is being shown to us. Most of the time, the key phrase will be "I saw", but sometimes it can be "I heard". There can be places that the vision stops and restarts without those kinds of phrases, but they are not very many, and they will need to be determined by an obvious change of a switch from one vision to another vision. This break here, will be obvious after we see the time frame that the fourth Chapter covers, and the time frame that the fifth Chapter covers. The fourth Chapter begins before the First Advent, showing us the situation as it was before the death of Christ on the cross—where the blood of the Lamb that saves us all, was shed by Christ. We will see the securing of the blood of Christ in the fifth Chapter.

Rev 4:2 Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was standing in heaven, and One sitting on the throne.

In the Spirit, Indicates That This is a Vision

That John was in the spirit, tells us that this is like the time that Paul was taken up to the third heaven. He didn't know if he went there in spirit or in actuality. We believe that John is seeing this through the power of the Holy spirit. This is like the visions that Ezekiel and Daniel had in the Old Testament.

What he first sees is a throne in the heavens, and on that throne he sees one sitting. This is obviously a vision of the Heavenly Father sitting on his throne, like what Daniel, Isaiah, and Ezekiel saw in their visions of the throne. Each of those visions represents a different vision of truth and revelation, but we are not going to cover those visions in the summery section, but only in the detailed notes.

Rev 4:3 And He who was sitting was like a jasper stone and a sardius in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance.

Jasper Stone

The Jasper stone was not a precious stone, and because of that many commentators say that it was a diamond instead that is meant here. The Sardine is our cornelian which is fiery red. Later in Revelation in the New Jerusalem, we find that the diamond was clear and transparent, allowing the light of God's truth to shine forth to the world. The fiery red stone would seem to point in symbol to the ransom doctrine, that is the center or main feature of God's Plan.

Green Rainbow Shows Promise of Life & Abrahamic Covenant

The rainbow that is seen here, represents the Abrahamic covenant, and that it is green represents the promise of life for both the church and for the world that is contained in that covenant. God gave Noah the rainbow Covenant, but how it was going to save all Mankind did not get revealed until the promise to Abraham. The promise of the stars of heaven, indicates the heavenly salvation of the Gospel Age, and the promise to the sand of the sea shore indicates the earthly salvation that will come to the rest of the world in the Millennial age.

Abrahamic Covenant Not Able to Save Until Christ

This vision in the fourth Chapter, is indicating the status of God's Plan prior to the sacrifice of our Lord on the cross, and we will see the proof of that in the next Chapter. God's Plan is waiting for the promised seed of the Abrahamic promise to come in this vision, and that is why the rainbow is green with the promise of life. As the vision progresses into Chapter 5, we will see the promised seed of the Abrahamic covenant symbolically shown as being the Lamb of God. In the fifth Chapter, the seed is described in a picture as the lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, and he is also called the Lamb of God. After the time of the cross and onward, the Abrahamic covenant began to be actually fulfilled because of the blood of the Lamb, which had paid the price which was necessary before it's fulfillment and blessing could begin.

Rev 4:4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones; and upon the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments, and golden crowns on their heads.

24 Elders = All Books of Bible

Despite several interesting possibilities given by others, the Study Group believes that the 24 elders that are arranged around the throne, best represent God's entire Old Testament word. They are pictured by the 24 courses of singers that they had in Solomon's temple. In the original study, we were told in the Companion bible that there were 24 books of the Old Testament in the time of Christ. Since then we have been told that there were on 22, because of 22 Hebrew letters, and that it was only later on that it was changed to 24 books, because of their being 24 letters in the Greek language. Since the singers above define them as the books of the Old Testament, it still is the same definition. Another thing is that the Greek scriptures were being used at the time of Christ, and the text was made up of 24 letters, even if they had not divided up the books that way yet.

The white garments on the 24 elders', shows that God's word is inspired, and that God has protected it so that it is not corrupted. That they have crowns on their heads, shows that they are superior to all other writings, and that all other religious writings must refer to them as being the ultimate authority. They in turn bow down and throw their crowns down before the Heavenly Father, recognizing him as being the ultimate authority and source of all their truth.

Rev 4:5 Out from the throne come flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God;

Flashes of Lightning

Flashes of lightning represent light or enlightenment that comes from God. The rumblings and thunder are those truths echoing back and forth in the spiritual heavens.

Seven Lamps

The seven lamps are the seven spirits of God, which bring enlightenment and reveal truths to the seven different historical areas of the churches. Those same lamps would have also supplied light to the Jewish age, and that is what they are doing in this Chapter. We are told at the end of each message to the seven churches, that we should pay attention to what the spirit says to the churches, and it seems reasonable that this is referring to these seven spirits. God's Holy spirit has seven different characteristics as seen in Isaiah 11:1-4.

Rev 4:6 and before the throne there was something like a sea of glass, like crystal; and in the center and around the throne, four living creatures full of eyes in front and behind.

Sea of Glass

The sea of glass that we see in this Chapter, shows us that we are looking at the heavenly tabernacle that Moses was to copy and to build an earthly version of it for the Israelites. The literal sea that Moses had on the earth, was a bronze one that had water in it, but here instead of water we have glass. In the earthly tabernacle, the water symbolically represents the truth of God's word that we cleanse ourselves with in our walk of consecration. The sea of glass in the heavens represents truth also, but there we see it as being clear and frozen, because it is unchangeable truth.

Four Living Creatures

The four-living creature represent God's four attributes of wisdom, love, justice, and power. Those four attributes are in perfect balance with each other. In other words, God is not all justice or judgment, but he tempers that with love, providing a way that we can satisfy justice through his wisdom and power. The four living creatures are most of the time seen together with the 24 elders, showing that God's word is in complete harmony with his four attributes.

Rev 4:7 The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like that of a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle.

Symbolism of Four Living Creatures

It's obvious that the symbol of the lion represents power. The ox represents justice, because that symbol points us back to the tabernacle where oxen were sacrificed to God in order to satisfy justice. The face of a man, points us to the love of Christ, in that he was willing to die for us even though we were sinners. The eagle represents wisdom, because an eagle is far-sighted and thus shows us that God can see all things and knows all things.

That they all four have eyes shows that God can see and know all things.

Rev 4:8 *And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within; and day and night they do not cease to say,
"HOLY, HOLY, HOLY is THE LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY, WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME."*

Six Wings Represent Bible Chronology

The six wings that the living creatures have in this vision, in symbol represent chronology that shows us power of dominion or who has the right to rule. The chronology pattern that pictures this vision, are made up of several 1260 and 2520-year chronology time-periods—which includes the chronology of the Second Volume. In a symbolic sense, as seen in the “Midst of the Years Chronology” book, the chronology circles also make up the emerald rainbow that is around the throne, and that in a picture represents the promise of the Abrahamic covenant. In order to see how that is so, it will be necessary to look at the detailed explanation for these verses. A detailed and more comprehensive explanation is also found in the book titled “Biblical Midst of the Years”, which is book one of the Divine Plan and its Chronology.

Three Holies

Since the four attributes of God are all in perfect balance, we can see that God is indeed “holy”. His plan is perfect, and nothing is missing from it. That the adjective holy is repeated three times during each utterance, is done for emphasis. In other words, there is no doubt that God’s truth and Divine Plan shows us that he is indeed holy, and that all should worship him because of the magnificence of that plan. That it is said three times, indicates that it is about God, since three is God’s number. The Sinaitic manuscript has holy given eight times, instead of three, which symbolizes a new beginning. We are not sure we can prove which number is correct, but we believe that the number three is correct for the above reason.

Rev 4:9-11 (9 And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever, 10 the twenty-four elders will fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and will worship Him who lives forever and ever, and will cast their crowns before the throne, saying, 11 "Worthy are You, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and because of Your will they existed, and were created."NASU

The Scriptures Give the Glory to God the Author of the Divine Plan

The 24 elders, who represent all of the books of the Old Testament, throw their crowns down before God’s throne. That they are doing that, is showing us that the scriptures are admitting that they only have their authority from God. That is why all the scriptures point to God as being the one that is worthy of glory, honor, and power.

The Old Testament scriptures tell us that God created all things, and that it is through his will that they all exist. That is why we see the 24 elders, who represent the Old Testament scriptures telling us that very thing.

Chapter 5 Abbreviated The Change in the Throne Scene

Rev 5:1 I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a book written inside and on the back, sealed up with seven seals.

The Book with Seven Seals

The scroll that we see here, represents knowledge of God’s Plan and information about what was going to transpire during the Gospel Age. After the Abrahamic promises were given, no one knew how those promises were going to be carried out. Even when the law was given, it was still not clear what needed to happen before God's Plan to bless all nations could be implemented. This book is sealed to the casual observer, because Satan would like to defeat God's Plan of salvation. In one sense, some of what is hidden in this scroll is the book of Revelation itself. As each seal is removed one by one, we see more of the hidden things of God revealed, but even then, the book is written in code. Only those who study diligently, and who have the Holy spirit, are ever able to get an understanding of what it is showing us, to the unbeliever and the apostates it is largely sealed.

When the scroll is unsealed one seal at a time, we will see visions of future events that will show us the downfall and corruption of the Gospel Age church and its doctrines. The unsealing, will also show us the rising-up of the power of church and state, the downfall and the judgment and punishment of those who fell away, and who supported this evil system.

Rev 5:2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book and to break its seals?"

Mighty Angel of Verse 2 Has Standard of Testing No One Has Passed

The mighty angel that is seen here represents the standard of justice that must be satisfied before anyone could begin to see what God's Plan was going to be. The Abrahamic promise, had promised to bless all the families of the earth, and that prophesy said that the blessings would come through Abraham's seed. This angel is indicating that whoever would be that seed, would need to be worthy and be able to pass inspection, to be able to fulfill that role. That the angel is asking this question, shows us that ever since the time that the Abrahamic promise had been given, justice was searching for one who would be worthy to carry out that role.

Rev 5:3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the book or to look into it
Rev 5:4 Then I began to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look into it;

No One Was Found Worthy To Open the Scroll Prior to Christ

Up until the time of John, no one had been found worthy to become the necessary seed of promise, and to open the scroll that is in God's hand.

That John is seen weeping here, confirms that the vision of Chapter 4 is prior to the time of the crucifixion. Up until the time of Christ, the promises contained in the Abrahamic covenant were dormant. So, there was great sadness regarding God's Plan, because it appeared that nothing was happening, and that no one would ever be found worthy to open the scroll.

Rev 5:5 and one of the elders said to me, "Stop weeping; behold, the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so as to open the book and its seven seals."

Christ has Overcome

The lion of the tribe of Judah and the Root of David, are key phrases that point us back to Old Testament prophecies. Those are the prophecies that had pointed to Christ as the one who was going to come and fulfill the role of these prophecies.

We are told in this Chapter that the Lamb was found worthy, and that he was now able to unseal the seven seals that were on the scroll that was seen in God's hand—John was told not to weep because Christ had satisfied the requirement. We know that he was the promised seed of Abraham, and because of that the first phase of the Abrahamic promise could begin to be fulfilled. There were two parts to the blessing promised to Abraham—the first was to the stars of heaven, and the second was to the sand of the seashore. The Gospel Age blessing could begin, because Christ was the promised seed. The sand of the seashore part of the blessing is still waiting for the completion of the church, and then the entire world will be blessed starting with Israel, and then afterward it will include all the people of the world.

Rev 5:6 *And I saw between the throne (with the four living creatures) and the elders a Lamb standing, as if slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.

Christ is the Passover Lamb

The sacrifice of Christ on the cross was central to God's Plan. When Christ was able to keep the law perfectly, and to pass inspection by justice, then John was told that the candidate that had passed the test was the Lamb of God. That we see the Lamb pictured as slain, shows us that the death on the cross was a necessary part of God's Plan.

The Lamb was Successful & is Now on the Throne

That the Lamb is standing in the midst of the throne, confirms that he had faithfully completed his mission on earth, and because of that the Heavenly Father has elevated him and placed him next to him on the throne. Other scriptures tell us that he is on the right hand or the favored side of the Father, and that he will rule for the Father until the end of the time of restitution, and then he will turn the kingdom back over to the Father.

Seven Eyes & Horns

That he has seven eyes, confirms for us that he can see all things, just as the Father can. The seven horns represent the complete control and power that has been given to him by the Heavenly Father. They are described in this verse as being the seven spirits of God, and they are evidently Jehovah's method of control in the earth—because it says that they are sent forth into the earth. Isaiah 11:1-4, describes the same seven spirits, and tells us there that they are the spirit of Jehovah that he has given to the root of Jesse.

Rev 5:7 *And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

The Lamb Receives the Scroll

That our Lord Jesus could take the scroll out of the right hand of the Father, shows that the Heavenly Father recognized that he had been found worthy, and for that reason gave the scroll containing his plan to him. Jesus now has the authority to carry out the Father's plan for him.

Rev 5:8 *When He had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

The Blood of the Lamb Causes the Vision to Change

That the four Living Creatures and the 24 elders fell down before the Lamb, shows that our Lord has and is supporting the same four attributes that God has. It also shows that he has been given an elevated position next to the Father on the throne, and that he is counted as being worthy of worship. The hidden types and shadows in the scriptures all confirm that our Lord is the one who is carrying out God's Plan of salvation.

That the 24 elders are now seen with 24 golden bowls of incense, instead of 24 judgment seats, shows that our Lord's success has generated this incense and the incense is what makes all the prayers of the saints acceptable. The 24 judgment seats, have now been replaced by incense that covers our imperfection, so we are acceptable to the Father. Instead of our sins being seen and judged by the Heavenly Father, they are now covered by the incense and we are given white robes, which are made possible because of the blood of the Lamb. The incense also symbolizes that the Mosaic Law has been replaced by the New Law, which is the spirit of the law and not the letter, which kills. That this incense is seen with the 24 elders, confirms to us that all the prayers of the Old Testament prophets, will also have been answered by the time that the plan of God is completed.

Rev 5:9 And they sang a new song, saying,

"Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.

New Song of Salvation the Lambs Blood Purchases the Church from the Earth

The New Song that is sung here, is the song of salvation that had been hidden in the Old Testament scriptures and types. This is the song of Moses and the Lamb, as described later, and this shows that the song of the New Testament is derived from the Old Testament. This song is about the New Covenant, that our Lord has secured for all by his death on the cross, and that is what makes the plan of God possible, and allows it to proceed in the Gospel Age.

Those who have been purchased out of the earth with Christ's blood and who are described here, are not the world, but they are the church who receive their salvation first—the stars of heaven. As it says here, they are to be made a kingdom and become priests, and they will rule on the earth. We will see the vision of them assuming that office, when we see them begin to live and reign with Christ for the 1000 years in Chapter 20.

Rev 5:10-13 (10 "You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign upon the earth."

Angels Exalt the Lamb

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands, Rev 5:12-13

12 saying with a loud voice,

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing."

13 And every created thing which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying,

"To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever."

All Faithful Angels
Recognize the Lamb
As Worthy to be Worshipped

In the heavenly sphere, we see the angels which are found in uncountable numbers, the living creatures, and the 24 elders, all giving worship to the Lamb. This worship started at the beginning of the Gospel Age when Christ succeeded on the cross, and it will continue forever.

These two verses, broaden the worship to include “all” in the heavens and in the earth. That will not be completely true, until the kingdom has restored all who are willing back to the life and perfection of Adam—those life rights had lost in the garden.

The four living creatures are saying amen or “so be it”. They are satisfied that the Lamb is worthy, and all four attributes of Jehovah will be working together with our Lord, so that the blessings of the kingdom can be accomplished. Even after all has been accomplished, the scriptures will continue to worship and point to the Lamb, as the only one who was able to carry out the Father’s plan of salvation.

Chapter 6 Abbreviated
The Seven Seals
Seal One

Rev 6:1-2 (1)Then I saw when the Lamb broke one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, "Come." 2 I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

The Lion of Power Shows us the Problem

As each seal is opened, we see visions that reveal the step by step corruption of the church. The living creature that opened the first seal, is most likely the one that represents power—which is symbolized by the lion. This vision is going to show us the early abuse of power.

White Horse & Rider
Satanic Conqueror Not Jesus

The rider on the white horse, is not our Lord as some think, but is representative of some in the early church who were seeking wealth and control over others. The word “conquest” that is used to describe the rider, is the same word that is used in Chapter 13 to describe the terrible beast that conquers. The beast that was to overcome the saints in Rev 13:7, is the same word “conquer” that is used here.

Rev 13:7 He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. NIV

Chapter 13, is where we see that the beast was said to have “conquered” the saints. So, we believe that the rider on the horse represents some in the early church that had started the early beginnings of that conquest. To begin with it was a spiritual conquest, but later on in the later churches, it became very physical. The horse is white, because the doctrines of the early church were still fairly pure. The rider is the one that is doing wrong, as shown by his wearing a crown, which he should not have had on, and carrying a war bow. The church is not to use physical force, or to take forceful control of the church, but is to conquer only with the spirit of the Lord.

Seal Two

Rev 6:3-4 (3 When He broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come." 4 And another, a red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to take peace from the earth, and that men would slay one another; and a great sword was given to him.

Wisdom shows us a Worse Problem

The living creature that opened the second seal, is most likely the flying eagle which represents wisdom. We originally tried to keep the same order of the Living Creatures given in Chapter 4, but the order we present here seems to be what is intended. The second rider, is shown corrupting the truth and wisdom that the early church had gotten from our Lord and the Apostles. The horse has lost its white color by this time, and we see that it is red, showing that by the end of this church period that Satan had made great inroads into corrupting the doctrine of the church. We know that red is Satan's color, because that was the color of the great dragon that pictures him in Rev Chapter 12. We will also see that the sea was turned to blood in the second trumpet, showing the substantial inroad of Satan and the worldly spirit into the church by this time.

The Rider has the Sword

This rider was given the sword which represents the Old and the New Testament, which was compiled into one book in this church. The big problem that occurred in this church, is that even though they had compiled the Bible, they began to go against the truth that was contained in it late in this church, by overriding that truth with church councils. The councils invented their own doctrines that were not based on scripture at all, or they twisted the scriptures in order to support their false doctrines.

Civil Peace

The civil peace that was taken from the earth, was the physical attacking of the faithful church, by those who were advocating the Trinity doctrine. Some think that Arius was poisoned by those who were trying to get the Emperor to support their false doctrine of the Trinity. Eventually the Trinitarians won out, and it was made unlawful in 381AD for anyone to disagree with that doctrine, or any other so-called orthodox doctrines. In the next church after this one, Papacy was able to ask for the use of the civil power of the Empire to put down those who opposed the false doctrines that he had brought into the church. That use of the military occurred in 539AD, and after that Rome was able to turn its military might against anyone who disagreed with the apostate church.

Peace With God Was Being Lost

The peace of God, that was secured by Christ when he died on the cross, was being removed in this church, because the early doctrine of the mass was implying that Christ had not done enough, and that they had to sacrifice him over and over again in the mass. The full doctrine of the mass did not exist yet in this church, but its early beginning was here. This is most likely the most important peace that was lost, because we have peace with God because of the blood of Christ, and that is what Satan was trying to remove.

Seal Three

Rev 6:5-6 (5 When He broke the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come." I looked, and behold, a black horse; and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. 6 And I heard something like a voice in the center of the four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not damage the oil and the wine.")

The Ox Complains Justice is Corrupted

The third living creature is the Ox, which represents justice. God's justice is being corrupted in this church, and we see that the horse has turned black, showing the complete loss of truth and light by this time. The prices given for wheat in this seal are very high, showing that healthy spiritual food is scarce and hard to get. The barley is an inferior food, showing that even if there was spiritual food, it was of a poor quality, which would not lead to a healthy spiritual life.

Rider given Understanding of Ransom Shown by Balance Scale He Had Losing it Because of Mass

The rider had a balance scale in his hand, which shows that he had been given the doctrine of the ransom, but as history shows the doctrinal changes in this church were instrumental in erasing the knowledge of what Christ had done for our salvation, and those changes replaced the doctrine of the of the blood of Christ saving all—that especially happened because of the doctrine of the mass. That is the equivalent of substituting false weights, for use on the balance scale. In other words, they replaced the Lord's sacrifice with false doctrines which became what is still called the Mass. Adam was no longer exactly balanced and redeemed on the scale anymore. Because of the Trinity doctrine, they could not say that they believed that Christ came as a man, and redeemed Adam and the entire race back from the grave. The mass makes it appear that what Christ had done on the cross was not good enough, but we know that what he did once, was good for all time and all ages.

Lord is Helping Those Who still Resist Fallen System

The Lord was protecting the faithful who still had the truth, and who were caught in the midst of this evil church, because the command was given that the wine and the oil were not to be harmed. The oil represents the Holy spirit, and it was to be available to anyone that was still resisting the evil system. The same thing was true of the wine, which represents true doctrine, in that the scriptures were not allowed to be destroyed, even though they lay dead in the city by this time and the two prophets of the Old and the New Testament could only preach outside the Great City. As we will see in Chapter 11, they were to be protected until the time that they would be raised back into prominence, and brought back into use in the spiritual heavens.

The relationship between the Great City and Great Babylon, seems to be that the Great City started out with the Papal system, and that is the meaning of the Great City. Great Babylon, contains the Great City of Papacy, but it also contains all of the Daughter Systems that have sprang off from her, propagating the same false doctrines. Great Babylon, is like the ancient Babylon, in that it was made up of the many countries it had conquered, yet it contained the central city called Babylon—which is the Great City of Papacy.

Seal Four

Rev 6:7-8 (7 When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come." 8 I looked, and behold, an ashen horse; and he who sat on it had the name Death; and Hades was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by the wild beasts of the earth.

Color of Horse Shows Total Corruption of This Church

The fourth horse was sickly green in color, showing that true Christianity was completely corrupted, and near death by the time of this church. That is why the rider on this horse is named death and Hades—because anyone following him was not going to get spiritual life, but was doomed to failure. The living creature that is showing this to us is love, which had completely disappeared from this evil system by this time, just as had been predicted. Matt 24:12 "Because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold. NASU

Bad Elements from Previous Seals Are All Found in Fourth Seal

This rider was given the power to kill by the sword, the famine, and the plagues, and by the wild beasts of the earth. The sword was from seal two, the famine was from seal three, and the conquering wild beasts were from seal one. That the evil from all four seals was represented here, is showing us that none of the evil had gone away, but that this rider was still using all earlier aspects of evil, besides adding his own corruption into the church. The plagues are not shown in the earlier seals, and so that is a new addition to this seal.

One Fourth Earth

The one-fourth of the earth, could be an actual literal amount of the earth that this rider had conquered by this time, but it is also very likely that it is symbolic. The one-fourth, may be indicating to us that this is the fourth and most terrible beast of the four that Daniel saw in his vision of Daniel Chapter 7. It represents the time by which the fourth beast had lost three horns to Papacy, who was taking control of the Roman beast in this church.

In this church which began in 1158, Papacy had gotten full control over the kings by 1178, and by 1184, they had begun the inquisition, murdering the saints. That is why we see so many dead under the altar in seal five.

Wicked Popes!

(1895—1965)

Papal power was maintained by the Inquisition. The Inquisition, called the "Holy Office," was instituted by Pope Innocent III, and perfected under the second following Pope, Gregory IX. It was the "Church Court for Detection and Punishment of Heretics." Under it, everyone was required to inform against Heretics. Anyone suspected, was liable to torture, without knowing the name of his accuser. The proceedings were secret. The Inquisitor pronounced sentence, and the victim was turned over to Civil Authorities to be imprisoned for life — or to be burned! The victim's property was confiscated, and divided between the Church and the State.

In the period immediately following Pope Innocent III, the Inquisition did its most deadly work against the Albigenses — but also claimed vast multitudes of victims in Spain, Italy, Germany and the Netherlands.

Seal Five

Rev 6:9-11 (9 When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained; 10 and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, will You refrain from judging and avenging our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11 And there was given to each of them a white robe; and they were told that they should rest for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brethren who were to be killed even as they had been, would be completed also.

Faithful Being Murdered in Inquisition

Those who we see slain under the altar in the fifth seal because of their testimony, shows us what was going on in this church. This is the time of the early inquisition and the murdering of all who would not agree with this evil system. They are given a white robe, showing that they are justified and saved by our Lord regardless of what the system had said about them. It's also true that some Bible truth and the doctrines that relate to what Christ had done for salvation, were just beginning to be restored in this church by the early reformers, which is part of the reason that so many were being killed in this church period. The apostate church was trying to suppress anything that was a threat to them, and which exposed their doctrines as being untrue and corrupt. That there were many more to be killed is mentioned here, showing us that the sixth church was also going to have many killed, which would also be because of their witness for the truth.

They Will Be Avenged by Lord After a Time

They are promised that the Lord is going to avenge them, but they are also told that it would not happen immediately. On this end of the age, in the seventh church, we have come to the time that this vengeance is being carried out. That is why we now see the completion of the breaking up of church and state, the removal of the kings, and the new harvest time light that is exposing the systems false doctrines. We are still waiting for the battle of Armageddon to finish the destruction of the remaining elements of Satan's system.

Seal Six

Rev 6:12-17 (12 I looked when He broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood; 13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind. 14 The sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the commanders and the rich and the strong and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; 17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

Great Earthquake

In the sixth seal, we first see a great earthquake, and the great earthquake represents the great upheaval that occurred in the Papal system at that time. The first work of the earthquake was the Protestant Reformation, which split the church into two camps. This earthquake then continued its work of destruction over a considerable period of time, because the earthquake also caused the French Revolution, which caused a great shaking in the nations of Europe. Those events then led to the kings withdrawing their support from Papacy, starting in 1799AD and shortly afterward.

Heavens Rolled up Like Scroll

The above explanation is why the rolling up of the scroll cannot be church and state getting back together, because no such thing happened in the sixth church. Notice that this is the sixth church period, and because of that we should not be looking for some event in the seventh church to fulfill the rolling up of the scroll! The scroll being rolled up describes exactly what happened to the Papal system at that time, in that the corrupt heavens were rolled up like a scroll by the Protestant Reformation. The rolling up, was a gradual process by which the Protestant side of the heavens was re-creating a true biblical heaven, because their side of the heavens could use the Bible. The corrupt Pagan side of the heavens began to be rolled up and gradually removed, as more and more people saw that it was not representative of God's truth.

Protestant Heavens Elevate Scriptures Back into Use

The process of removing the corrupt heavens will not be fully accomplished until the time of the kingdom, but the Protestant side did manage to elevate the scriptures into the heavens around the time of 1799AD and afterward, because by that time the scriptures were being seen as the only standard of truth, and the Papal doctrine was seen as false by them. We will see that shown to us in the eleventh Chapter, where the two prophets which represent the two testaments, were taken up and restored into the ecclesiastical heavens. The scripture regarding the scroll in Isaiah Chapter 34, agrees with and confirms that conclusion regarding the corrupt Papal heavens being removed, as shown in the detailed notes.

Mountains & Islands Moved Out of Place

That the mountains and islands were moved out of their places, is exactly what happened in the French Revolution, but we notice that they were not destroyed at that earlier time. Later, in history on this end of the age, during the seventh bowl of wrath in the sixteenth Chapter, we will see that they are going to be completely removed.

Sun Turns Black & Moon to Blood

The sun being turned black and the moon red, shows that during this time, the light of the Papal system was shown to be darkness. The moon turned to blood, has a couple of possibilities. The first one that we selected in the study, was the thought that the moon being red, revealed that the canon law of that system was shown to be unfair and bloody. Since the study, another idea has presented itself, and that is that the canon law of the evil system, was during the time of the Reformation shown to be in error, and they rediscovered that the blood of the Lord had replaced the literal law—hence the moon or law was turned to blood red, showing that the blood of the ransom was the only true salvation. The stars falling from the heavens like unripe figs, in a picture indicated that the pulpit stars of Papacy were corrupt and spiritually immature, and that they did not have any true standing in the spiritual heavens. They were shown to be worldly and not spiritual at all by the truth that was coming out at that time. The strong wind of trouble caused them to fall, and that strong wind was both the physical as well as the spiritual trouble that came upon the Papal system during the sixth period of the church.

All Aspects of Society Hide in Fear

That all the kings, mighty men and, etc. hid in the caves, and called for the mountains to fall upon themselves, shows that they were looking for society to protect them from the things that were happening. The events were so momentous that the people of the time had recognized that only Jehovah and our Lord Jesus could have caused them.

Rev 6:16-17 (and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; 17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?" NASU

Time for Judgment

That Jehovah and our Lord are shown sitting on a throne, shows that this was a time of judgment—which is the hour of testing we saw mentioned earlier in the message to the sixth church. This is said to be the great day of Jehovah and our Lord's wrath, and the question is asked—who can stand? In the next Chapter, we will find out who could stand and who did not! At the end of the sixth church, the Lord was sitting on his throne, and the day of Judgement had fully arrived.

Chapter 7 Abbreviated The Interlude of the 144,000 & The Great Company

Rev 7:1-3 (1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God; and he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, 3 saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads."

Four Angels Holding Back the Destructive Winds

While not certain, it seems likely that these four angels represent the control of four different aspects of society, civil, social, ecclesiastical, and financial. These four different aspects of society are being controlled, so that the winds which represent destructive powers, can't fully blow until all the saints are sealed in their foreheads. They may be the same four angels that we will see later in the sixth trumpet, which were to be released from being bound in the Euphrates at that time. When we say that the four winds can't blow with full destruction until the saints are sealed, that does not mean that they cannot blow at all. They have partially blown, several different times, but the final full four winds of destruction will not happen until the church is at least sealed, if not on the other side of the veil.

Sealing the Saints

The saints were to be sealed with the seal of God, which would show that they belonged to Christ. The four angels are told not to harm the sea or the trees with the four winds, until the saints were sealed in their forehead. The sealing does not mean that the saints have completed their walk here on earth, but it means that they have an intellectual understanding of God's Plan, and that they are working to implement that plan. This is a good mark, which shows that they are in harmony with God's Plan. The mark of the beast is opposite to this mark, in that the mark of the beast shows that they are in sympathy with Satan's plans. This mark of the seal, is the same one that the individual clothed in linen that has the writer's inkhorn, is putting on those who sigh and cry about the things that are going on. We believe that the individual is Christ, because the prophesy in Ezekiel is pointing to the ones who need to be sealed in the entire age, and not just the ones who are sealed at the end of the age. Our Lord is using the different messengers, and especially the seventh one during the harvest time to accomplish that work on the earth.

The sea that was not to be harmed is representative of the masses of mankind. The trees that were not to be harmed, can either be ecclesiastical organizations or they can represent civil power or governments or even their leaders.

The 144,000

Rev 7:4-8 (4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: 5 from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, 6 from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, 7 from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, 8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

Vision of 144,000 & 12 Spiritual Tribes

We are told that the total number that was sealed was 144,000, and we see that there were 12,000 taken from 12 different tribes. While it is generally understood that the winds could not blow until all the 144,000 are sealed, it actually does not say that the saints have finished their walk on this earth when that happens. It just says that the wind could not blow on the sea or the trees, until all had been sealed in their foreheads. One question that came up in the study, was whether the winds could blow on the harvested out nominal system after the 40 years, because the saints with crowns should have been out of her by that time? If that's true, then the winds could blow on the church and state system in the 1914-18 war, but they would not harm any of the saints.

The entire 144,000 would not even have to be complete for that to happen, but it would only be necessary that all who had crowns in that system would have had to of come out, or to have lost the crowns before the winds could blow. Even if that thought is correct, the final blowing of the four winds as shown in Daniel Chapter 2 that takes down all of Satan's evil system, will not occur until the church is complete and on the other side of the veil. The reason that we mention this, is that what the brethren are looking for regarding the winds is essentially correct, but we should realize that the final trouble could still come and start on the evil system, even if the 144,000 are not physically complete yet. In the detailed notes, we will show that there have been winds blowing on Christendom from 1914 and onward, with the final and worst wind still waiting to come yet.

Two Missing Tribes Picture Great Company & Second Death

In the list of tribes that we see in this Chapter, we see that Levi and Joseph replaced Dan and Ephraim. Dan is a picture of the second death class, and he is spoken of as being a serpent, because of his having caused riders to fall off their horse. In other words, he caused many saints to fail in their spiritual walk on earth. Ephraim is a picture of the Great Company, because the ten tribes were not faithful, and they had created their own place of worship when they not supposed to.

Great Multitude

Rev 7:9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands;

John then saw a Great Multitude that no man could number, standing before the throne and the Lamb. That they had on white robes shows that they had been covered for their imperfections and faults. The palm branches that they had in their hands, symbolized victory or overcoming.

Rev 7:10-11 (10 and they cry out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb." 11 And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, NASU

They Recognize That They only Have Salvation Because of Lamb's Blood

They cry out, stating that they only had salvation because of what both God and the Lamb had done. That they stand before the throne shows that they are not on the throne as the 144,000 will be, and as we will find out, they are not on the throne because of their failures. They recognize that even though they are a failed class, that they have received salvation from Jehovah and Christ. Without the salvation that our Lord has provided, they would not be standing there with palm branches in their hands. That is why it says that they have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb. Without that washing they would not have any salvation. One thing that is different than what is normally understood by the brethren about the Great Company, is that we see that it does not say that they washed or cleansed their robes in the tribulation—but that it only says that they cleansed or removed their sins because of the blood of the Lamb. In other words, it is only the blood of the Lamb that saved them—not the tribulation. That does not mean that they won't get tribulation, which would be designed to wake them up to the fact that they are or have failed.

Rev 7:12-17 (12 saying, "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?" 14 I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 "For this reason, they are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them. 16 "They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any heat; 17 for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes."

Ezekiel Chapter 44 & Great Company

One of the 24 elders asked John who these were and where had they come from? John says that he didn't know, but he told the elder that he knew that the elder knew. That this elder is one of the 24 elders or the 24 books of the Old Testament, tells us that we should find one of the books of the Old Testament giving us the information about who the Great Company is.

The book that explains who the Great Company is, in great detail, is the book of Ezekiel. In Chapter 44 of Ezekiel, we find that the ones that committed transgressions that caused their failure, are symbolized by the Levites who had committed many offenses and had brought in much corruption into the congregation. Because of that they are not allowed to come before God, but we are told that they will still have the work of the service of the people in the temple. In that same Chapter of Ezekiel, we find the faithful Levites who symbolize the 144,000, and they are named Zadok, and they can come before God. That Chapter also shows us the Ancient Worthies and the people that are saved from the earth.

Great Company Coming out of Tribulation

In Revelation, we are told that the Great Company came up out of the great tribulation. That is generally understood to be the tribulation that comes at the end of the age, and that is where the idea comes from that there will be a great multitude that will still have to come out of the churches right at the very end. Our Study Group determined that thought is not the correct way to look at this, and that the great tribulation that they came out of, was the tribulation that was during the entire Gospel Age, and not just at the end of the age. Because the tribulation occurs throughout the entire age, the Great Company fell during that entire time, and that is why we won't see large numbers of the Great Company coming out of the system at the end.

The reason is that the Great Company that we see in Chapter 7 of Revelation has come out through the tribulation of the entire age and not just at the end. The original thought would have made sense in Pastors time, but now that we are over 100 years past the harvest time, the original thought has no reasonable way of happening, because the spirit-begotten who had been in the fallen system, have been harvested out already. It should be obvious that the large number of Great Company seen in the vision, does not come from only the end of the age, but that they had to come from the tribulation of the entire age. Yes, there will be Great Company come out at the end of the age, but there are only small numbers left compared to the entire age, as we have been seeing happen since 1914-18.

God's Tent of Salvation

That God is going to spread his tent over them, shows that they are covered under God's Plan of the Ages because of the Lamb's blood, and that tent over them is symbolic of heavenly salvation. The expanded tent in the prophecy of Isaiah 54:2, represents God's salvation that came through the fulfillment of the Abrahamic Covenant, which had to wait until Christ came and provided the blood of the covenant before it could go into operation. Isa 54:2 "Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, NIV

Not Hungering or Thirsting or Sun Beating Down on Them

That these do not hunger or thirst, or that the sun won't beat down on them, is another reason that this class must be a spiritual class and not an earthly class. If they were still on the earth, they would be subject to all those physical things.

The salvation of the Lamb is what leads them to the springs of living water. God will wipe every tear from their eyes, even the tears that they have for failing to measure up to the standards of the 144,000.

Chapter 8 Abbreviated Seventh Seal-Judgment

Rev 8:1 (When the Lamb broke the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Seventh Seal & Judgment Has Arrived

When we see the seventh seal opened, it tells us that there is silence in heaven for the space of about a half an hour. After a lot of discussions, the Study Group concluded that the silence in heaven was indicating a time of judgment, and that the verdict was rendered in 1878AD. In the main commentary, we list many scriptures that refer to the guilty being silent before the judge. In support of the judgment interpretation, we also found judgment in the seventh message to the churches, and in the seventh trumpet. Since we believe that the seventh seal has brought us to the end of the age, we believe that we are also at the time that the harvest parallel of the 1845 years had run out. Since the message to the seventh church and the seventh trumpet indicate judgment, we should expect the seventh seal to do so also.

Half an Hour of Silence

One thing we notice is that every time we come to an hour in Revelation, we are coming to an hour of judgment. Since an hour of judgment would fit with the conclusion that we have arrived at regarding the judgment of 1878AD, that raises the question of why a half an hour? One thing about this verse is that the word that means half, means to divide in two. What are the two 1845 year periods, but equal periods of judgment?

There are also some other possibilities regarding what the half hour of silence represents—see the detailed notes regarding a full explanation of this verse. There we explain a way in which we can symbolically get approximately 40 years out of the symbol of a half an hour. In other words, after the 1845-year judgment, there was approximately 40 years of silence, and then the punishment began in 1914-1918—which was very loud.

Seven Trumpets

Rev 8:2 (And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

Seven Angels With Seven Trumpets

We are shown the seven angels with trumpets first, and then we are shown the angel at the incense altar.

One argument is that these angels cannot be the same as the earthly messengers, because they stand before the God of heaven. A good example showing that these are literal angels, is this reference: Luke 1:19 The angel answered, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news. NIV. So, if that is true, the angels with the seven trumpets cannot be literally the same as the earthly messengers to the churches—they must be actual angels.

When we looked at the idea that some might have, believing that the seven angels with the seven trumpets were the earthly messengers, and that the seventh one was Pastor Russell, we ran into a serious question that needed to be explained, because earthly beings could not stand before God in a literal sense.

If we assume that they each messenger stood before God, one at a time, each in his own age, then the seven angels that sounded the trumpets, could be the same seven earthly angels with the bowls, and that would make them the same as the seven messengers to the churches. The reason that we believe that they could be the same angels, is because each bowl of wrath is related back to its corresponding trumpet, as we will show later on. That they stood before the God of heaven in order to receive the trumpets, and they later on come out of the temple after they were given the seven bowls of wrath, shows us that the punishment came directly from God, in both the trumpets and the bowls.

An alternative way of looking at this is that these angels are only in the Ecclesiastical heavens, and that they are not literally standing before God, even though the scripture says that they are. It is also true that the word used for God is Theos, which is not necessarily Jehovah. We would then have to look at the seven stars in Jesus hand, as being the seven angels that stand before Jesus who was a Theos.

Incense Altar

Rev 8:3-5 (3 Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer; and much incense was given to him, so that he might add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there followed peals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

Our High Priest Jesus Offering Much Incense

The angel with the golden censer, who had much incense to offer, represents our Lord Jesus who is now our high priest in the heavenly tabernacle that was not built with hands. The much incense, makes the prayers of all the saints acceptable—just as the incense that was offered in the earthly tabernacle was to help make the Israelites prayers acceptable. This incense is now available, because of our Lord having successfully completed the 3.5 years of his ministry, that led up to his sacrifice on the cross. The golden censer was only used on the Day of Atonement, and so that tells us that the anti-typical Day of Atonement has begun. That the anti-typical Day of Atonement had begun, shows us that our Lord the high priest, had successfully carried out what he needed to do to make the saints and their prayers acceptable to the Heavenly Father. The symbolic Day of Atonement began at the beginning of the Gospel Age—as shown by the sacrifice of the bullock that represented our Lord Jesus. That bullock was for himself and for the household, who represents the church, and that was what made the Gospel age possible.

A Second Altar

In verse 5, we see another altar mentioned, that is the bronze altar, because it does not tell us that this one is golden. The other thing is that the coals of fire that are used to burn the incense, were always taken off the bronze altar, and that is what the angel did when he cast the coals of fire into the earth. We see the same thing pictured in Ezekiel, and there the vision shows that the coals were taken off the sacrificial altar. Since the bronze altar is where our Lord's sacrifice symbolized by the bullock was burned, those coals of fire represent the ransom doctrine. That doctrine is what everyone in the Gospel Age will be tested by. We will especially stress the ransom as a key test in the detailed notes.

Ezek 10:2 And He spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, "Enter between the whirling wheels under the cherubim and fill your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And he entered in my sight. NASU

Ezek 10:6-7 (6 It came about when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," he entered and stood beside a wheel. 7 Then the cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire which was between the cherubim, took some and put it into the hands of the one clothed in linen, who took it and went out. NASU

Coals of Fire Cast into the Earth

When the angel took the coals of fire off the altar and hurled it into the earth, causing peals of thunders, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake, we are seeing the start of the testing by fire that is mentioned by Paul in 1 Cor Chapter 3. We will see the same symbol of fire several times in Revelation, and anyone who is in opposition to the ransom doctrine represented in those coals of fire, will fail the testing. This fire fell upon the Jewish system first, because most of the nation had rejected the ransom and the salvation that Christ had revealed at the First Advent. Later in Revelation, we will twice more see lightning, thunder, and an earthquake again, and that time it will be the fallen Christian system that is being judged. We are not sure about third time, but the remnants of the church must pass that test also, and even the world must accept the ransom doctrine at the time of the kingdom if they want salvation. The fire that is cast out over the city in Ezekiel Chapter 10, symbolically pictures the judgment of natural Israel, as well as spiritual Israel—1845 years apart.

Seven Trumpets

Rev 8:6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them.

Trumpets and One Third Taken Away = 666 Left

This verse tells us that the angels with the seven trumpets are preparing to sound them, which as we will see, is going to show us a vision of the great falling away—step by historical step.

In the following calculations, some might object to using  $1-.333=.666$  as a decimal number, because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah, we find this: Zech 13:8-9 (8 "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD IS my God.'" NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire, he is defining as good. To prove that, we see that they are refined as gold and silver in Zechariah. So, when you see us use the decimal number of one third or two thirds anywhere in this book, Zechariah Chapter 13:8-9 is the principle behind that calculation.

Trumpet One

Rev 8:7 The first sounded, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

Trumpets Are Showing How Church Corrupted into 666

We believe that the trumpets are bringing out truth in a sense, but it is not a restoration type of truth, but it is the truth about what was going wrong or bad in each of these church periods. The trumpets are following a similar pattern to what we saw in the first four seals, and the same types of problems are being shown, but with different symbols. The fifth through the seventh trumpet, being woe trumpets are different, and they are going to begin to punish and weaken the evil system. They do that so that the faithful church can break free from the church and state system that developed from the falling away that we are being shown here. That is why it shows us the one third being destroyed out of each of the symbols that are seen in the first four trumpets, for a total of ten symbols. Once we have arrived at the close of the fourth church, we will see that the entire church system has become 666.

That is symbolically pictured by the plagues of Egypt, where the plagues were designed to get Pharaoh to let his people go. When we get to the bowls of wrath, we will see that each of them is punishing the symbol that was being corrupted in each trumpet. That is why there is a direct correspondence from the trumpets to the bowls of wrath.

Corruption of All Religious Society

In the first trumpet, hail mixed with fire was hurled down on the earth, and a third of the earth, a third of the green trees, and all the green grass was burned up. In the full explanation of the trumpets, we outline how the first four trumpets correspond to the four waves of locusts in Joel, which destroyed all of Israel in four waves. In the full notes, we have a parallel table that shows an exact correspondence to Joel Chapter 1 and 2, with all seven trumpets. In Joel, all the trees and pastures were burned up, and in Revelation we see that a third of the earth and a third of the trees were burned up. Those scriptures are showing us in both places that all the trees were being converted into 666 or Satan's evil system. See the Zechariah Chapter 13 reference above. As we will see, by the end of the first four trumpets, Satan will cause all of God's church and the society it existed in, to be completely corrupted and turned into the 666 system of Satan. In God's sight that amounts to the same thing as being totally destroyed, like what we saw in Joel.

The earth represents all of society, and while it was not all corrupted immediately, by the end of the fourth church period, the entire church and society was corrupted and turned into 666. The same thing was true of the trees, which in this place most likely represented individual churches. Trees can represent governments, and even leaders, and they were also eventually corrupted by this system, but we think that churches are most likely what was intended here in the first trumpet. There is some thought that trees could be leaders, and that would also fit because the leaders of the church were beginning to be corrupted even during the early part of the church.

Green Grass Destroyed Is Removal of Nation of Israel For 1845 Years

We had a lot of discussion in the study about the green grass and whether it was a spiritual class or the Jewish house. We eventually decided that the green grass which was all destroyed at the First Advent, pictured the removal of the Jewish system that had failed the test of the coals of fire off the incense altar. They did not accept the Lord or his sacrifice on the cross. Because of that they were removed for 1845 years, and after that they are gradually being restored on this end of the age. See the full notes for more proof and information about that.

Trumpet Two

Rev 8:8-9 (8 The second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea; and a third of the sea became blood, 9 and a third of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died; and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Rome Takes Control of Church Corrupting It

In the second trumpet, we see a huge mountain burning with fire fall or being thrown into the sea. Some believe that the mountain that is burning with fire that is thrown into the sea, is the Roman Empire, but we think that there is a different idea that fits better, but which is still related to the Roman Empire idea.

One false doctrine that came into existence in the church during this time-period, was the idea that because Rome had accepted Christianity as its main religion, they thought that the mountain or kingdom of Christ had arrived, symbolized by it being thrown into the sea of people. That the kingdom had come, seemed like a logical conclusion when the Roman Empire converted to Christianity, and the church was not persecuted anymore, and the church had gained great power because of the support of Rome. But it was not long before the faithful found out they had made a pact with Satan.

Sea Turned to Blood = Influx of Worldly Spirit

Unfortunately, that brought a worldly spirit into the church which turned them away from spiritual things. That worldly spirit was the water that was symbolically turned to blood, spiritually poisoning the members of the church. That is a direct correspondence to the water being turned to blood in the plagues of Egypt, and that is why the water being turned to blood cannot represent the blood of Christ. The blood of Christ, was the blood of the Lamb that was placed on the door posts, in order to protect the First Born from the angel of death. The water that was poisoned by being changed to blood, cannot be the blood of Christ, because that brings life and this blood cut the Egyptians off from water, which you cannot live without.

A serious problem that occurred because of Rome recognizing Christianity, was that this false kingdom or mountain, used the power that it had gotten to force false doctrines on the church. There was a lot of civil controversy and religious disagreement going on in the Empire at that time, because of some who were trying to change key doctrines in the church. That is the reason that this false kingdom was burning with the fire of controversy as it was thrown down into the sea of people. These false doctrinal changes brought conflict and persecution upon those who were trying to keep the doctrine in the church pure. It was in the latter part of this church period in 381, that the decree of Theophilus made it illegal for anyone to disagree with what was supposed to be correct doctrine, the Nicæan Creed, but which was not. That has caused the church to be under the sway of false doctrines, all through the rest of the Gospel Age.

Missionary Work was Corrupted By False Doctrines & Worldly Spirit

We see that a third of the sea was turned to blood, and a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed. Again, we see that,  $(1 - .333 = .666)$ . Satan was converting more and more of the early church into his false system as time went on. The sea being turned into blood, meant that the sea or people were being corrupted, and turned towards error with the worldly spirit. The death of the living creatures, would indicate that even some who had a real spiritual life were losing their crowns, because the spiritually corrupted water or doctrines was poisonous to true Christians. The destroying of the ships, symbolically shows us the missionary effort being corrupted, since ships travel over the sea spreading the Gospel. When the Gospel was corrupt, the true and faithful Christian ships were symbolically destroyed because of that corruption.

Trumpet Three

Rev 8:10-11 (10 The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters. 11 The name of the star is called Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

Satan Corrupts Truth, by Papacy & Councils Deciding Doctrine

In the third trumpet, we see the great star that had fallen upon a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. We will see later in Chapter 12, that this star which represents Satan, had actually fallen at the start of the Gospel age because of what Christ had accomplished on the cross, but that the rivers and springs of water symbols were what he was corrupting at this point in history. Satan was using Papacy as a main tool to corrupt church doctrines in this church, because Papacy was given full control over the doctrinal difference in both East and West churches by Justinian in 534AD. Some believe it was a few years later that he gave Papacy that power, but we think that the army being used at Ravenna in 539AD to eliminate the Arians who didn't believe in the Trinity, shows that he had it at the earlier date as the Adventists believe.

It is sometimes hard to determine if the star was Satan, or Papacy, because Satan was using Papacy to carry out his evil work. The reason for Papacy's full control over the church, was because Emperor Justinian wanted Papacy to end the controversy over the Trinity and other doctrines, and he decided that force was needed, and he gave that power to Papacy.

Another fallen star will be seen again in the fifth trumpet where it is shown as having taken control over the symbol of the earth. Originally in our study we thought that star was the same as this one, but we have since concluded that star is different, and is a good star that was cast out of the spiritual heavens. The name of the star in this trumpet was wormwood, which means bitterness, and he turned a third of the stars to 666 or to wormwood. That is another difference in the star in trumpet five, in that he is not called wormwood, and so he is a good star or messenger.

In Chapter 12 of Revelation, we will see that the angry dragon is the one who is destined to attack both the sea and the earth, and we are being shown here that he was destined to do it through the use of Papacy. So, it should be obvious that the star is Satan, who is corrupting the sources of water or truth, so that anyone who was drinking of the bitter corrupted doctrines that he was inspiring Papacy to put out, would die a spiritual death. With Papacy as the only source of doctrine, Satan only had to corrupt him, and he had control of the entire church. By the time of the third church, the spiritual sources of truth like church councils were completely corrupted, the truth having been mixed with error. Again, we see that one-third of the sources of water or truth had been made bitter or turned into 666, ( $1 - .333 = .666$ , see Zechariah Chapter 13 about the removal of one third).

Trumpet Four

Rev 8:12 The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and the day would not shine for a third of it, and the night in the same way.

All of Church System is 666 10 Items Converted to 666

In the fourth trumpet, we see that the last of the remaining items of creation, the sun, the moon and the stars, are reduced by one-third, making them dark. See the detailed notes for the meaning of the symbols. It also tells us that causes one-third of the day and the night to be dark. Again, this is Satan causing the church and society to be corrupted by error and spiritual darkness, ( $1 - .333 = .666$ , see Zechariah Chapter 13 about the removal of one third). By this time in history, the entire church and state system was corrupt and under the influence of Satan, because the fourth trumpet had changed the last of the 10 symbols making up God's system, into 666 or Satan's system.

Three Woe's Revealed

Rev 8:13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in midheaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

Three Woes Upon Fallen Church

In this verse, we see an angel who announces woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the three trumpets left to blow. This announcement indicates that there is going to be an important change in the trumpets, and as we will see, our Lord will begin to actively punish and reduce the power of the evil system, step by step by using these last three woe trumpets to weaken that evil system. These are woes against the apostate system, and not against the faithful church, which is going to be helped by the woes. The angel is said to be in the mid heavens, and if we look at the time frame of where the fourth church ended and the fifth began, that midpoint in time is exactly correct using the 360-year time frame for the second through sixth church.

Chapter 9 Abbreviated Trumpet Five

Rev 9:1-2 (1 Then the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven which had fallen to the earth; and the key of the bottomless pit was given to him. 2 He opened the bottomless pit, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

Peter Waldo Cast out of Heaven by Papacies Rejection of Him

The fifth trumpet required a lot of thought and study to determine how to interpret it. We initially thought that the fallen star was Satan, because of the fallen star in the third trumpet, which is Satan or Satan working through Papacy. But we later noticed that the star in the third trumpet was a great star, and that it fell burning as a torch, where this star only fell from heaven. The star in the third church was called wormwood, while this one is not named at all.

Because of that, we then considered the possibility that this fallen star was something or someone good. One thing that was looked at in that regard as to what this star represents, was the casting of one-third of the stars out of heaven by the dragon in Chapter 12. In Daniel, we also found that the stars that had been cast out were trampled by the beast, proving that they were the good saints. The conclusion that we came to was that this star was cast out of the Papal ecclesiastical heavens, because of the star being in opposition to Papacy. So, then the question became, who is this star?

The blowing of the trumpet, caused us to see a vision of the falling star, and we believe that the angel first blew the trumpet through Peter Waldo, who started the early reforming of the church. That early reformation then led to Wycliffe, who used the key of scriptural knowledge given him, and he greatly expanded the work of exposing the darkness in Papacies doctrines and system. The original conclusion that we came to regarding who was the messenger to this church, is still the same, and that is that it was Peter Waldo who began exposing and showing that Papacy was not preaching God's true word, and he was showing that Papacies dictatorial control over the church was not sanctioned by God. Waldo rebellion began when he wanted to preach to the people and he was refused the right to do that by Papacy, but he did it anyway, handing out portions of scriptures to the people. The early reformation work that he began by handing out scriptures, led to Wycliffe who expanded upon it handing out even more scriptures. Wycliffe began to show that Papacies doctrines did not agree with the bible, and he was symbolically cast out of the ecclesiastical heavens by Papacy.

Wycliffe Opened the Abyss Exposing the Spiritual Darkness

That was when Wycliffe used the key of knowledge to open the abyss, which revealed to us the terrible spiritual condition that the Papal system was in. It was seen that the ones in that system had their spiritual eye sight obscured by the cloud of dense and terrible smoke, which darkened the sky and the sun. In other words, the Papal system was full of darkness, and its Gospel sun was shown to be darkness with no light in it. In this church, we see an interesting thing, in that when the locusts come out of the smoke or darkness. That is when the Wycliffe movement is being shown breaking free of the evil system, and even more so, exposing Papacy. Since Papacy was not able to kill Wycliffe during his life time, they excommunicated him instead. Wycliffe, is the one who began to torment Papacy as seen in the symbol of the stinging locusts in this same trumpet. The locusts coming out of the smoke and darkness represented

Wycliffe and his followers coming out of the spiritual darkness and trouble of that evil system, and into the light of the true Gospel of the scriptures.

Wycliffe was Morning Star

Waldo started that process and Wycliffe picked up the work after him and carried it out. In other words, this trumpet shows us more than one key individual operating in this church, both the angel with the trumpet and the fallen star. We believe that Wycliffe is the morning star, since he was the one that restored the most Gospel light during that church period. See the full notes for the reasoning behind these conclusions.

Rev 9:3-5 (3 Then out of the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4 They were told not to hurt the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. 5 And they were not permitted to kill anyone, but to torment for five months; and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a man.

Locusts Sting the Fallen System

Out of the smoke or confusion that darkened the system, came locusts that can torment only those who do not have the seal of God on their forehead. In other words, these locusts are doing the work of God, and that is confirmed by the statement in verse 11, that says that they have the king of the abyss over them, who we will see is in the detailed notes is Jesus. This is Wycliffe and his followers, who caused Papacy a major problem at that time, and he disturbed them so much that they dug up his bones afterward and burned them.

That again shows that the king of the abyss must be someone that is good, since the locusts are ordered not to attack the grass of the earth, or any green thing or any tree. The conclusion that we came to that may be surprising, is that the king of the locusts had to be Jesus, since we see him later in Revelation with the key to the abyss. It is not for sure who the grass of the earth is here, but Isaiah tells us that the grass represents people. Another possibility is that any green thing represents anything that had life, which we would take to mean anyone with true spiritual life like the faithful church during that church period. Any tree would represent any faithful organization or church that was doing good.

Locusts for 150 Years

That they were to do this for 5 months, symbolically represents that this was to be done for 150 years, calculated by  $5 \times 30 = 150$  at a day per year. From the time that Wycliffe began his work, until the time of the Reformation, it was almost exactly 150 years, and so that confirms that these spiritual locusts that came out of spiritual darkness, were doing God's work by attacking the evil system.

Joel & Trumpets

In our study, we looked at the Lords Great army in Joel, and compared what we found in those Chapters to the trumpets, and that confirmed what we see here in Revelation. The four waves of locusts that destroyed Israel, corresponded to the first four trumpets where Satan reduced everything by one-third, converting it all into 666. Starting in Chapter two of Joel, we then noted that the trumpet that was blown corresponded to the fifth trumpet. There we saw that Jehovah was taking control of that army, and he was going to use it against the system. The events found in the sixth and the seventh trumpets are seen there also, but because this is only a summary we are not going to go into that great of detail here. In Joel, the events of the fifth and the sixth trumpet, seem to be grouped together under the symbol of one trumpet—but it's also possible that the fifth and the sixth trumpet may be separated by the voice of the Lord that calls to the Great Army, which then matches trumpet six which has a Great Army. We recommend that you look at the detailed notes, for the information found there that proves that there is an exact parallel between Revelation and the Chapters of Joel.

Rev 9:6 And in those days' men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death flees from them.

Men Try to Escape from Papacy But it is too Strong Yet

That men seek to find death and can't, is symbolic and does not say that they actually try to kill themselves. If they wanted to kill themselves, it should be obvious that they could have. We believe that what this is telling us, is that they were trying to remove themselves from the evil systems control and consecrate to the Lord in the symbolic sense to death, but that they could not because of the evil power that the fallen system still had at that time. To confirm this, we will see in the sixth trumpet, that one-third were killed. One-third is .333, which is God's number showing that in the sixth church, men were then able to separate from Satan's system and to join God's true church. That is telling us that the release of the four angels will not be literally killing those individuals, but that they would be released from the power of the system and be able to consecrate their lives to the Lord. We consecrate our earthly lives to death, and we receive a new life through Christ. The remaining .666 that didn't get killed or removed from the power of that system, were still a part of Satan's system, and still had his number. See Zechariah Chapter 13, where we see God remove a faithful one third.

Rev 9:7-10 (7 The appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads appeared to be crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men. 8 They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions. 9 They had breastplates like breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to battle. 10 They have tails like scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men for five months.

Locusts Like Horses Doctrines Against Darkness

That the locusts looked like horses, shows us through that symbol, that they represented doctrines and ideas that were attacking the Papal system. Some of the ones attacking could also have been some secular people who were trying to gain support for the ideas of the Renaissance, that was in full sway during this time. That they were prepared for battle, shows that they were going to attack the Papal system, no matter what Papacy tried to do in return. The gold crowns would seem to signify that they were under a Divine commission to torment the apostate system. That they had faces like men, might indicate that there were more than religious people represented in these locusts. In other words, there may have been some that were simply fed up with the oppressive system, who did not belong to the true church. There would also have been those who wanted to reform the fallen church. That they had hair like women, would seem to indicate that some of them belonged to faithful Christians.

Some Civil Power Help

That they had the teeth of lions, represents the historical fact that they had some help from the heads of civil power at that time. But that there were only the teeth of a lion, shows that it was a limited help. Later, in the sixth trumpet, we will see that the teeth have turned into the full heads of lions, indicating more and stronger help from the kings, who can severely bite if challenged at that later time. That they have breastplates of iron in this church, shows that they were partially being protected by the civil governments during this church period. We get the interpretation of the symbol iron from the mixture of the clay and iron in the feet of the Image, where the clay was the ecclesiastical power and the iron was the civil power. The sound of the wings that sounded like chariots, shows that there were both secular and ecclesiastical organizations that were against Papacy during that time. Islam was even attacking the area that Papacy controlled, and so while we are not sure if they belong as part of the locust's symbol. Revelation is most likely not showing us Islam, but the book of Joel may be showing Islam in its broader interpretation.

Rev 9:11 They have as king over them, the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek he has the name Apollyon.

Jesus is The King Of the Abyss

The king over the abyss is defined in Revelation as being our Lord Jesus. The ones that define the king of the abyss as Satan, think that Abaddon and Apollyon are bad symbols, because the Greek words mean a destroying angel and destroyer. But when we look up who is going to be doing any destroying during the time of the end, we find that it is our Lord Jesus who is destroying Satan's system. See the full notes for a list of scriptures in the detailed notes, that prove that thought is correct. In other words, what we see happening here is the same kind of angel as the destroying angel that came during the Passover, and who destroyed all who did not have the blood of the lamb on the doorposts. Only those who are faithfully reading the scriptures, recognize that it is Christ and his blood alone that brings true salvation, and that nothing in the Papal mass or any other doctrine of men has any salvation in it.

Rev 9:12 The first woe is past; behold, two woes are still coming after these things.
We are told that the first woe is past and that there are two more woes coming.

Trumpet Six

Rev 9:13 Then the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

Rev 9:14-15 (one saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates." 15 And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released, so that they would kill a third of mankind.

Major Doctrinal Trouble Comes Upon Papal System

In the sixth trumpet, we hear a voice coming from the four horns of the golden altar, which is the incense altar. A very important reason that we see the altar at the beginning of this church, is because the sixth church was instrumental in re-discovering through the Reformation many ideas that helped to restore the doctrine of the ransom. Luther had rediscovered that we are saved by grace, and not works. The 95 theses that Luther nailed on the church door, was against the idea of the indulgences that made a mockery of God's true salvation.

Those false doctrines had suggested to the people, that the fallen church had the right to sell you forgiveness for a sum of money, no matter what you had done wrong!

The voice from the horns of the altar, tells the sixth angel with the trumpet to release the four angels who are bound at the river Euphrates. There are several possibilities regarding what the release of the angels could mean. At the very least, we see that the Reformation was the result of the release of the four angels.

Four Angels Released Trouble Starts at Reformation Includes French Revolution

When we look at the symbols used regarding when those angels were going to be released, and what others have thought about them, there have been quite a few different thoughts as to what it means to release them, for the hour, day, month, and year.

The Study Group concluded that the release of the angels started at the time of the Reformation. It was also decided that the release of the angels started events that reached to at least the end of the 1260, and included the major events that happened there such as the French Revolution in 1787-1799AD, and the breakup of church and state shortly after 1799AD.

One Third Killed Equals Consecration to Lord Not Death

The release of the four angels was to kill a third of mankind, and that is not a literal killing as most in the world think. There is a very important symbolic lesson that is contained in that number. If we take the number one, and we subtract one-third from it, we are left with .666. The one-third killed are .333, and since three is Gods number, that is telling us that the release of the four angels will not be literally killing those individuals, but that they would be released from the power of the system, and they would be able to consecrate their lives unto the Lord. We consecrate our earthly lives to death, and we receive a new spiritual life through Christ. Those who remained in the fallen system, would still be 666, because they refused to give up their support of the corrupt and evil church,  $1 - 1/3 = .666$ .

In the above calculation, some might object to using  $1 - .333 = .666$  as a decimal number, because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah, we find this: Zech 13:8-9 (8 "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'") NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire, he is defining that part as good. To prove that, we see that they are refined as gold and silver, which symbolize Divine things. So, when you see us use the decimal number of one third or two thirds anywhere in this book, Zechariah Chapter 13:8-9 is the principle behind that calculation.

Rev 9:16 The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them.

Not Chinese Army Symbolic of Reformation & Great Army

This is not a Chinese's army as some think, and the number is not necessarily 200,000,000, although it could be, it can also mean a large number or uncountable number. In the detailed study, we continued with our parallel to the prophecy of Joel, and we saw that this army was the same army as the Lord's Great army, that Jehovah had uttered his voice before in Chapter 2! That means the same thing that we saw in the fifth trumpet, where we concluded that the Lord had made himself commander over this army by the time of the sixth church, and that army has gotten bigger and bolder. That the Lord Jesus is commanding this army, does not mean that it is always doing everything that is right, but our Lord can use it to accomplish his purposes in tearing down the evil system. By the time that the army gets to the seventh church, we find in Joel that the Lord is promising to remove that army if the people repent. So, it's obvious that some major elements of this army are not doing good and proper things, but it historically did accomplish our Lord's purpose in weakening and destroying that evil system. This army was originally all bad, and it started out bad with the four waves of locusts, and it only became Jehovah's and the Lord's army when he began to command it in the fifth trumpet.

Rev 9:17-19 (17 And this is how I saw in the vision the horses and those who sat on them: the riders had breastplates the color of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone; and the heads of the horses are like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceed fire and smoke and brimstone. 18 A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and with them they do harm.

Great Army Attacks With Spiritual Weapons

The horses again represent doctrines or ideas. The horses had breastplates the color of fire, hyacinth, and brimstone, and so the breastplates had the same colors as the fire, smoke, and sulfur which came out of the horses' mouths. That they were the same colors indicates the unified purpose of both horse and rider, in that they both are trying to accomplish the same things. The breastplates would indicate a form of protection for these riders, and that fits, because in the sixth church the civil power has joined the battle against the Papal system. It doesn't say that these are breastplates of iron, which would indicate civil power protection, but they would need protection against false doctrines and Satan's arrows of persecution, and is probably what these breastplates accomplish. Since the breastplates are on the horses, that shows us that the doctrines had gotten stronger and harder to defeat or refute.

Bigger Lion's Head With Teeth Now

If we compare the complete lions' head in this Chapter with the lions' teeth of the locusts in the fifth trumpet, we see a full lions head here, and that is indicating a great increase in strength of civil power over what the fifth church had. The symbol of a head is also used to indicate a leader, as shown in Isa 9:14-15. Since the Reformation leaders were allied with the civil power of some of the kings, the symbol of the lion regarding the heads of the horses seems to fit very well with what happened historically. During the Reformation, many of the kings used their civil power to help the Reformation, and that is what helped it to succeed.

Regarding a second thought, if we look a little further we can expand upon this idea even more. The ultimate and full lion will of course be the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, who will rule over the earth with unlimited strength. He will be a full-fledged lion with no parts missing in the next age. That is why we can see another possibility in the lion's heads here, in that this symbol may be showing us that the leaders of the Reformation were looking to Christ as being their head or leader, and that recognition grew stronger as time went on. The Faithful Church acknowledges the headship of Christ before the world, but in the end, everyone in the world must recognize Jesus as their leader.

In the same sense that "a good defense is a good offense", the ideas and doctrines this army had were destructive to those who opposed them. That the fire and brimstone came out of their mouths, along with smoke, suggests that these were words that were exposing and destroying the Papal churches errors. When we see smoke, it's a good indication that something has been symbolically burned or destroyed, as seen in 1 Cor Chapter 3.

Three Primary Colors

Many translators and commentators feel that the description of the rider's armor given here, represent color more than anything, and if that's correct, we see that the three colors represented here would be the primary colors. We would have red from the fire, blue in the jacinth or hyacinth, and the yellow of sulfur.

Seeing that the three primary colors can be mixed to form any other color—so it was with the doctrines that came out in the Reformation. These new ideas were eventually studied and mixed together so well, that it became the harvest message of the next church. Pastor Russell never claimed originality for all the thoughts that he had, but he said that he gathered many of them from others that had come before him. Many of the ideas that we have today, came from the period of the Reformation, which included the Ana-Baptists, and the Adventist movement.

Red would strongly indicate the doctrine of the ransom. That is because the blood of the ransom is red in color.

Blue is generally understood to represent faithfulness. The upper robe of the high priest was blue.

The yellow of sulfur seems to call to mind the color of Gold, which represents divine things or the Divine nature. Sulfur which is yellow stinks to fleshly men, just as divine things don't appeal to them either.

The Tails Continue to do Damage to System

It seems likely that what we see here are the tails or followers of the Protestants continuing to inflict damage on the Papal system, which continued even after the split between them and the mother church. Historically that is true, in that the sixth church continued to bring out many Bible helps, all the way up until the time of the seventh church. At that time, the Lords spirit seems to have left the Protestants, and went to the harvest time church and most of what the Protestants bring out now is of limited value.

That a third of mankind was killed, is the same as what we saw above, in that it is symbolic of those who won free of the evil system.

Rev 9:20-21 (20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so as not to worship demons, and the idols of gold and of silver and of brass and of stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk; 21 and they did not repent of their murders nor of their sorceries nor of their immorality nor of their thefts.

Remaining Two Thirds Were Still Doctrinally Corrupt

The symbolic application of the death of the one third as being the consecration of the saints, is confirmed when we are told in verse 20, that the rest of mankind did not repent of their evil, even though they had been punished by means of the attacks of the great army. It tells us that they did not repent of their sorceries, which are evil doctrinal ideas. All the symbols mentioned in these two verses, literally applied to those who remained in error, in that they were worshipping devilish doctrines and not the Lord. The Lord saw their doctrines and ideas, as being in the same category as the literal idol statues that the heathen had made in the Old Testament times of Israel. They were guilty of erecting literal statues of the saints in their churches and praying to them, although the idols of the heart are the most grievous errors that they had. Those literal statues were even made of the materials mentioned above in verse 20, and so we should not have any doubt about what church system is being shown to us.

It's also true that they did not repent of their murders, which they have always been quick to carry out, if they thought that they could eliminate a heretic. They were not as easily able to kill after the Reformation, but they did attack Protestantism with literal armies, trying to bring the people back into their fold.

The thefts that they didn't repent of, we suggest is where they have tried to climb up to heaven by another way than by Christ. They have not come to Christ for salvation even now, but have chosen to keep their own invented way to what they think is salvation.

John 10:1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

They didn't repent of their sorceries, Satanic doctrines or even of their fornication—which was symbolic of their alliance with the civil power.

The Angel With the Rainbow Chapter 10 Abbreviated

Rev 10:1 I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire;

Jesus Began Coming After 1517

The angel that we see here, represents the Lord, and it's likely that the vision starts at beginning of the sixth church. That he is "clothed with a cloud", shows that trouble is coming to those who are in support of the apostate system, but we could also say that he is going to bring refreshing rain of truth to those who are true Christians.

Bringing Message of Salvation

That he has a rainbow on his head, indicates that he has a message regarding the Divine Plan and the New Covenant which made it possible for the Abrahamic Covenant to begin to be fulfilled. That his legs are like pillars of fire, points us back to Chapter one of Revelation, where we see our Lord described with legs like that. That the legs are pillars of fire, represents the judgment that is going to come to the sea and the land that he is seen standing on in verse two. That fiery judgment will be just like the judgment pictured in 1 Cor Chapter 3, where all bad things will be burned up, and only the gold and silver will be of value.

His face, “prosperon”, representative of favor or disfavor shined like the sun—the light of which is a symbolical revealing of Gospel truths. That shining is like when Moses came down from the mountain and his face shined brightly with the light of the Mosaic Law. When he did that, he pictured or symbolized Jesus at the First Advent, and here we see our Lord coming from 1517-1874AD with the same light. We as body members see the light of the Gospel, as well as the even brighter light of the New Covenant, and we in turn reflect this light to others. The message of the New Covenant is much brighter than the Old message of the Law Covenant that it replaced.

Rev 10:2 and he had in his hand a little book which was open. He placed his right foot on the sea and his left on the land;

Bringing Book Which is still Little Yet

The little book that he has in his hand, will be seen to be the same scroll that the Lamb had received from Jehovah in Chapter 5. When the scroll is first seen here, it is not fully unsealed yet since the vision starts at the time of the sixth church, and it is described here as a little scroll because of that. As the vision progresses through Chapter ten, and we arrive at the days of the seventh angel with the trumpet, we will see the scroll become the full scroll or book at that point in the Chapter. One change that we discovered since the time of the original study, is that the book in verse 8 is still the little scroll, and so the things described in that section of the prophecy, are occurring from 1517-1874AD. We had originally thought that the vision began in 1799, but the prophecy of the 390 and 40 days from Ezekiel, has to apply to this because of the scroll seen in that vision.

He Begins to Take Control Of Society & People

That he places his right foot on the sea, and the left on the earth, shows that he is coming to judge the earth and the people, and take control of the system. If we look at Chapter one and Daniel Chapter 10, we see that his feet are fiery brass, of which the fire symbolizes judgment. That he is going to make the earth a footstool for his feet, means that he is going to take control away from Satan and establish his kingdom in its stead. So, that shows us that he is taking control over the people, and we see that the people begin to demand that their rights be given to them. That helps to tear down the fallen system in preparation for the kingdom.

Rev 10:3-4 (3 and he cried out with a loud voice, as when a lion roars; and when he had cried out, the seven peals of thunder uttered their voices. 4 When the seven peals of thunder had spoken, I was about to write; and I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken and do not write them.")

Cries Like Lion

That he cries out like a lion, shows that he is the lion of the tribe of Judah, which symbolically represents Christ. The figure of the lion represents a strong ruler, and that is exactly what Christ is going to be in the next age.

John Not Allowed To Write Seven Thunders Until 1874

As seen here in the latter part of the sixth church, the seven thunders uttered their voice. We believe that the seven thunders represent biblical information and truths that had come out of the Reformation. See the detailed notes for some thoughts on what the seven thunders represent. John is told not to write down what the seven thunders said. We believe it was too early to reveal the information that was in the seven thunders prior to 1874AD. Many different elements of the truth existed at that time, but they were not to be placed into the complete package of the Divine Plan yet at that time. The statement in verse 6 is that the information would be fully revealed in the days of the seventh angel with the trumpet. That seventh angel, revealed the message of the trumpet to the star or messenger of the seventh church, who was Bro Russell, and he broadcast it to the seventh church. See the detailed notes for possibilities of what the seven thunders were.

Rev 10:5-7 (5 Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to heaven, 6 and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, WHO CREATED HEAVEN AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE EARTH AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE SEA AND THE THINGS IN IT, that there will be delay no longer, 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as He preached to His servants the prophets.

Mystery of God Finished in Days of Seventh Angel

The angel raised his right hand and swore that there was to be delay no longer, but that in the days of the voice of the seventh angel when he was about to sound, that the mystery of God would be finished. That there was going to be time no more, is referring to the fact that the time times and a half a time that had been revealed to Daniel had just passed. That especially agrees with the time frame here, if we consider the 1290 and the 1335 days that are a part of that prophecy, because the 1335 reaches to 1874AD. The time had run out and the judgment and punishment was rapidly coming. The time had run out in 1799 for the kings, but the full opening of the understanding would take more time, in that we still had the 1290 and the 1335 days to go through yet.

“When he is about to sound”, indicates that the understanding of God’s mystery would come just before the seventh angel was due to sound. Since the seventh trumpet began to sound in 1874AD, that would indicate that the understanding would have to come just before that date. That is the time that the small study group, which included Bro Russell, came up with most of the doctrines that were a part of the harvest message. That was also the time that the understanding of the Divine Plan, God’s mystery, was revealed.

1 Cor 2:6-7 (6 Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are mature; a wisdom, however, not of this age nor of the rulers of this age, who are passing away; 7 but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God predestined before the ages to our glory; NASU

The Raising of the Right Hand

There is an interesting point in regard to the raising of the right hand when he swore, in that when we look at the angel above the waters in Daniel Chapter 12, we see that he raised both hands. While it's not certain, one suggestion is that the angel in Daniel had to swear with both hands because there were two ages left to go through in the Daniel prophecy, where Revelation only had one left. The other possibility, is that the reason for the two hands, is that Chapter 12 of Daniel has two meanings, one for the church and the other for Israel. The message that God had preached to his servants the prophets is the entire Old Testament, which does contain the Divine Plan of God when it is properly understood.

Rev 10:8-11 (8 Then the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard again speaking with me, and saying, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land." 9 So I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book. And he said to me, "Take it and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey." 10 I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and in my mouth it was sweet as honey; and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. 11 And they said to me, "You must prophesy again concerning many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.")

Bitter and Sweet Equals Severe Judgment & Truth Revealed

John is told to take the book out of the hands of the angel and to eat it—here it is again the small book, showing that this vision is before 1874AD. He is told that in his mouth it will be sweet as honey, but it will make his stomach bitter. The message of the Divine Plan was a sweet message, especially when it was realized that there was going to be salvation for two ages.

Bitter Judgment

The reason that it was bitter was because the information in the scroll also contained a message of judgment. It was revealed that just as there was a judgment in the time of Christ, there was going to be another judgment and a punishment exactly 1845 years later. In the full study notes, we went to Ezekiel Chapters 2-3, where we saw a similar scroll that gave us more information about that judgment, and there the vision went further forward in time to 1878, 1914. We also looked at Chapter one, which symbolically indicated the 1845 year parallels in the vision seen there. In Chapter 4 we also found a 390 and 40-year triple parallel that showed a triple parallel between three ages—the time of Babylon, the First Advent, and the Second Advent. See the detailed notes for more information.

John Prophecy Again Equals Harvest Message

That John was to prophecy again through the truth of the harvest parallel concerning many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings, is exactly what has happened with the publishing of the harvest message which still goes on today. In the harvest message, we are told about the kingdom blessings and about what judgment that was going to happen to peoples, nations, and kings in the time of trouble. We are also told about Israel and how the world of mankind will receive their blessings through that nation and the Abrahamic Promise.

The Two Witnesses

Chapter 11 Abbreviated

Rev 11:1-2 (1 Then there was given me a measuring rod like a staff; and someone said, "Get up and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship in it. 2 "Leave out the court which is outside the temple and do not measure it, for it has been given to the nations; and they will tread underfoot the holy city for forty-two months.

Measuring the Temple And Worshippers

The measuring rod was given to John so that he could measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship in it. This rod is a symbol of the testing of the spiritual class, because the ones being tested are in the temple. We will see a similar measuring rod later, which will be used to test the world of mankind in the next age. There it is said to be a golden rod, and it is used to measure the wall of the New Jerusalem and the city.

They are to measure or test those who are spirit-begotten in the temple, and who are running for the high calling. While most churches believe that everyone must be a part of the church, we see here that the outer court or the court of the Gentiles, was not to be measured or tested at this early time. Later when we examine the New Jerusalem, we will see that those who were not called to the church during this age, will be called to an earthly salvation. They will symbolically be in the courtyard where the trees of life and the water flowing down the street are located.

Gentiles Trampling Holy City

That the Gentiles will trample the holy city for 42 months, points us to the prophecies in Daniel and Revelation. These prophecies predict a time of severe persecution, which comes from “the beast with ten horns”, and “the Image”. We find the same count of time regarding the beast with 10 horns in other places where it uses 3.5 x 360, 1260 days, and 42 months, which at a day per year represents 1260 years. That time-period runs from 539AD to 1799AD, which historically was the most severe time of trouble that the church had to go through.

That this time-period is mentioned at the beginning of this Chapter, shows us that the main events that are going to be shown to us in this Chapter will be fulfilled during that entire 1260-year period of time, and not just during 3.5 years as most churches believe.

Rev 11:3 "And I will grant authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for twelve hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

As strange as it may seem, we will find that the two witnesses which prophesy against the Great City of Papacy, will be able to continue to prophesy outside the city, while they lay dead at the same time in the streets of the Great City. That may seem impossible, but the two olive trees and the two candle sticks are not actual people, but they are symbolic of God’s Holy spirit and the Old and New Testament word.

Common Mistakes in Interpretation of Chapter 11

(1) It is a mistake to think that the two prophets are the church, when you try to interpret this prophecy.

The two prophets are used by the church, but they are not the church.

- (2) Another problem is to think that the prophets finishing their testimony in verse 7, is the same thing as prophesying in verse 3. Those are two different words, with totally different meanings. Failure to see that will lead to a wrong conclusion in regard to the interpretation of this chapter—we will explain the difference later in this explanation, for now we will say that they mean different things, and they apply at different times and to different things.
- (3) We believe that the 1260 days in verses 3-6, are the same time period as the 3.5 days of the rest of the chapter, but the prophetic viewpoint is giving us two different visions of what is going on—one viewpoint in the city, and one viewpoint outside the city. Again we will explain that more fully, before we are done, explaining how 3.5 days can equal 1260 years.

Vison of Two Witnesses Equal Old & New Testament

That the two witnesses are to prophesy for 1260 days, again points us to the same 1260-year time-period. That they are clothed in sackcloth, is what many of the Old Testament prophets did when they came to prophesy against Israel's idol worship and harlotry. Sackcloth indicates that their message was warning about and pointing to a time of judgment and punishment that would come after the 1260 years expired, like what Elijah did to the prophets of Baal.

The two prophets represent the message of the Old and the New Testament, which does contain a message of judgment and punishment—as well as a message of salvation for both ages. One of the prophet's pictures Moses, who is the author of the Old Testament law that all the other prophets followed. The other prophet pictures Elijah, who represents the Gospel message that the saints of the Gospel age have. He as a prophet in the Old Testament, was hiding from Jezebel the harlot, and she symbolically represents the Papal harlot of Chapter 17. Jezebel wanted to kill Elijah, and in this picture, he represents the New Testament scriptures and those who use them. Papacy definitely wanted to kill both the scriptures and the church that was trying to use them. The two prophets do not picture the nation of Israel or the Gospel Age church, but they are the scriptures that supported both of those ages. In the Gospel Age, the church has the use of both prophets, since both prophets are in agreement about God's Plan of the Ages.

Rev 11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

Two Lampstand And Two Olive Trees

The two olive trees that stand before God, feed the two lamp stands with olive oil, which symbolizes the Holy spirit. The two lampstands, are the lamps that enlightened both the Jewish and the Christian houses. In Zechariah Chapter 4, we see a parallel reference to two olive trees, but we only see one lamp stand, which represents the light to the Jewish house, because the Christian house did not exist yet. That there were two olive trees, shows that God's Plan was already prepared for the next age, even at the time that only the Jewish house existed. That the olive trees stand before the God of the whole earth, shows us that the light that they supply to both ages comes from God.

Rev 11:5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire flows out of their mouth and devours their enemies; so if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way.

Scriptural Fire Burns up their Enemies

Anyone that tries to harm God's word, will fall under a fiery judgment. That judgment is along the line of 1 Cor Chapter 3, where we see that those who do not base their work upon God's truth, will suffer loss. Those who do base their work on God's word, will get a reward. That the fire comes out of their mouths, shows us that the weapon that they use against their enemies, is God's word. We are not to use carnal weapons on our enemies, but only the truth.

Rev 11:6 These have the power to shut up the sky, so that rain will not fall during the days of their prophesying; and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.

Picture of Moses & Elijah And 1260 Years—No Rain

That it does not rain during the time of their prophecy, reminds us of Elijah, who is a picture of the church during the 1260 years. During his time as a prophet, there was a 3.5-year drought during which he was fed by ravens. Those 3.5 years symbolically represents the 3.5 times 360 of the Daniel prophecy, which results in 1260 years. Jezebel symbolically represented the false church, and Ahab represented the civil power of the kings that tried to kill Elijah. Historically that is exactly what the church and state system tried to do to the faithful church during the 1260 years. That there was not rain, indicates that for those who were not following the scriptures, that there was a drought concerning God's truth. What little truth the evil system had, they had lost during that dark time. Those who had the truth, were pictured by Elijah who was fed by ravens and who later lived with the widow, and who miraculously saved her and her child. The widow may symbolize the Jewish house, who were widowed from the Lord during the Gospel Age.

Water Turned to Blood Like Plagues of Egypt

The turning of the waters into blood, shows symbolically that the scriptures were not going to be of any spiritual use to the apostate system, because it was a sealed-up book to them. They would not be able to quench their spiritual thirst from God's word, because of their corrupt doctrines and ideas. Since they did not have the Holy spirit, if they were using the scriptures at all, they were interpreting the scriptures literally, which does not give the full or correct meaning of them. So, the turning of the waters into blood, guaranteed that they could not understand what they were reading and get any spiritual benefit from it.

Plagues on Earth Like Plagues of Egypt

The striking of the earth, with any kind of plague during the time of their prophesying, shows that the two prophets would be able to deliver their message of condemnation about what was going on in the church all during the Gospel age, even if it wasn't believed. The prophets are the two testaments of scripture, but they can deliver their message through the faithful saints that use the scriptures.

Rev 11:7 When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them and kill them.

3.5 Periods of Time
= 3.5 x 360 = 1260

They are attacked and killed by the beast, just as they are finishing their testimony. When did this occur? Many take this as being a literal time-period of 3.5 years just before the Reformation, or 3.5 years just before 1799AD.

3.5 Years
During French Revolution
Doesn't Fit History

The 3.5 years just before 1799AD has some problems, in that it does not fit this prophecy at all. The first problem is that it was only France that was outlawing religion for that 3.5 years, which only affected France, and this needs to be something that was system wide and which included all the nations that were a part of Christendom. The other problem with that time fulfilling those 3.5 years, was that those events caused great harm to Papacy, and that would not fit with the rejoicing of the Great City at the death of the two prophets.

Same Problem before Reformation
There Was Only One Country

The idea of the 3.5 years just before the Reformation fits better, and we would be tempted to go with that, if there was not something even better, which we will bring out last. The Papal council, called for any existing Reformers to come forward and present their case in the one country under examination, about 3.5 years before the Reformation, but they were all too afraid and no one showed up. That caused Papacy to declare that those who were fighting against her were defeated.

Two Prophets are the Scriptures

The first thing that we need to remember, is that the two prophets are not the true church or the reformers, but they are the scriptures. The scriptures were not defeated then, because they were being printed and distributed to the faithful all during that time, and the same thing was true in 1799AD. Even after the scriptures began to be printed, we see that they were not allowed to be used in the Papal system, and they had not been for a long time before that time. That should be a big clue as to where and when we should be looking for the actual fulfillment of the two-prophet's death. The faithful church uses the scriptures, and so they are related to them, but the scriptures as a symbol stand on their own.

A Beast Did Not Rise-up
At Time of Either Suggested Fulfilment

The other problem is that the beast did not rise-up out of the abyss at either of those times, but it had been out of the abyss for quite some time already, as we will see. The beast that comes up out of the abyss, is the same one that we will see in Chapter 17 that was and was not, but will be. We also believe that this is the same beast that came up out of the sea in Chapter 13, and which then continued in power for 42 months. That, of course, is the 1260-years of the power of the church and state system. Did that system defeat the scriptures? Historically, we can see that it did defeat the scriptures in the Catholic Church, in that they were not allowed to be used by the people during that entire time of 1260 years. All doctrines were being decided by Papacy and church councils, during that entire 1260-year period. See the historical evidence in the detailed notes.

Edict of Theodosius

The edict of Theodosius in 381AD, was an early attempt by Rome to get control over the doctrine of the church. Those who did not believe in the Trinity, which was contrary to the scriptures, were to lose their status as churches. That meant that they could be taxed, and it was decreed that they would be smitten by Divine Vengeance, and by retribution of hostility that the Empire would assume in accordance with Divine judgment. At that point in time, not believing in the Trinity was not generally fatal, and so it did not stop the belief in Arius's ideas. So, when did the Empire put a final and permanent stop to those beliefs in the Western Empire, thus stopping the use of the scriptures?

Papacy Given Control Over all Doctrine in 534

In 539AD, which was a few years after the Western Empire had collapsed in 476AD, Justinian was using his army trying to put the Western Empire back together again under the power of Rome. In order to help put the Empire back together again, we see that he was working with Papacy, because Papacy could give him some influence with some of the areas that had broken away from Rome during the collapse. Papacy, had been given control over all doctrine in both the East and West, by Justinian in 534AD, and the reason that he had done that, was so that Papacy could put the end to the controversy over the Trinity doctrine, which he felt was dividing the Empire. The Adventist give the date 534 for Papacy being given that control just before 539AD, which may have been in a letter and not written into law yet. The letter appears to have been written into the codified Justinian law when it was completed.

The city of Ravenna was taken in 539-540, and that defeat of the leaders meant that the Arian doctrine was soon defeated in the Western Empire. From that point onward, Papacy could call on for help from the Roman army to attack anyone that disagreed with his false doctrines. That power existed until 1799AD, when the kings separated themselves from Papacy, and he lost the means to use the civil power to kill those whom he considered heretics.

Scriptures Defeated in 539

That defeat of the Arians in 539, was in effect the death of the two prophets, because the scriptures were not allowed to be used for sure after that time to establish correct doctrine, unless they were used out of context by the fallen church. Anyone that tried to bring out the truth, soon found themselves under severe persecution, and if they did not cease to use the scriptures and to try to bring out the truth, they were soon robbed of all their belongings or they were killed. The church and state system after that time saw no problem with getting rid of heretics with the use of civil power, even against whole nations if they thought that they needed to do that.

Answering Objections

There is a couple of questions that need to be answered about this, if this is correct. One is, when did the two prophets complete their prophesying? That was a question that puzzled the Study Group for awhile, until we got a very good suggestion from someone outside of our Study Group. It was suggested that the two witnesses had begun their witnessing, from at least as early as when they had been canonized into the Bible that we have today. We could say that they began their witnessing as soon as the Apostles had written down what they had learned from the Lord and from the Holy spirit. That would have been very early in the first church period, and the writings were copied and sent to all the churches all over the world during those first few years.

Some commentators say that finishing their testimony should read when they are “perfecting” their testimony. So besides getting the scriptures into an accepted volume, many writers were using them to give warning about the great falling away was going to come upon the church—more information on this in the detailed notes.

As to this being the time when they had finished their testimony, we can point to the fact that the scriptures were accepted as canonical by most churches, just about the time of the decree of 381. Those who were using the scriptures at that time, continued their witness against the Trinity doctrine and other heretical doctrines, until they were captured after the city of Ravenna fell. After that time, the scriptures lay dead in the streets of the Great City of Papacy, not being believed or used by that system. Only those of the church, who could separate themselves from that system like Elijah, were able to use the scriptures at all. The witness regarding the salvation that Christ had secured on the cross, had been preached to the entire known world by that time.

As to how the 3.5 days represent 3.5 times, we will explain that when we get to it in verse 9. A big hint is that it’s the same method of how we get 3.5 times out of Elijah’s 3.5 years.

Rev 11:8 And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which mystically is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

Scriptures Not Allowed To Be Used in Great City

That the bodies of the scriptures lie dead in the street of this city, in symbol is telling us that the scriptures were not being used to establish doctrines after 539, and they are being counted as not having the final authority. The Pope or the church councils could establish doctrine or laws after that time, without having to agree with the scriptures.

Sodom & Egypt

Here in this verse, we find the evil system first named as being the Great City. That the Great City of Papacy is said to be Sodom and Egypt, represents just how evil and bad this city was. Sodom is a symbol of the corrupt religious system and Egypt represents the corrupt civil power in that city. In the scriptures, Sodom was destroyed because of the evil sins that they were committing, and Egypt was always where Israel was trying to get help from the civil power when they were not supposed to. That is the same mistake that the early church made when they got involved with the Roman civil power, which Egypt is a symbol of in the original type.

Historically, we can see that the evil church and state system, committed many grievous sins that were even worse than what Sodom had done. They were torturing and murdered the saints all during that dark time, and even today we see the corruption and terrible sins that they are committing, while they claim to be representatives of God. Initially the Great City was just Papacy and the civil power of the Empire. As time went, that system broke up into several religions, and separate parts of the Empire, and at that point in time, the system began to become a part of Great Babylon, which included Papacy as well as the daughter systems.

The relationship between the Great City and Great Babylon, seems to be that the Great City started out with the Papal system, and that is the meaning of the Great City. Great Babylon, contains the Great City of Papacy, but it also contains all of the Daughter Systems that have sprang off from her, propagating the same false doctrines. Great Babylon, is like the ancient Babylon, in that it was made up of the many countries it had conquered, yet it contained the central city called Babylon—which is the Great City of Papacy.

This the Same Symbolic City Where Our Lord Died

That this is defined as where our Lord has died, is because we are to follow our Lord outside the camp to suffer and die with him, at the same time that we are counted as being heretics, and are being forced outside the established system.

Rev 11:9 Those from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not permit their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.

3.5 Periods of Time = 1260

Here we find that they lay dead in the Great City of Papacy for 3.5 days. Does it make sense that this is only 3.5 days at a day per year? It didn't make sense to the Study Group, because historically the scriptures lay dead in the city for the entire 1260 years—which was the time of their prophesying. They could be dead in the city and still prophesying outside the city since they were not people—they were the Old and the New Testament. They could be used outside the city by the faithful church, but they were not allowed to be used in the city, and because of that they lay dead or unused in the city. That is the same thing as not being able to buy or sell in that evil system, as we will see described in Chapter 13.

This is one of the more difficult areas to explain, in order to show that we could get 1260, but we have a few different possibilities. One possibility is that when we look up the meaning of the word day, we see that it can mean a day, it can also figuratively represent an unspecified period of time, especially in Revelation, which is definitely made up of figurative language. So, using that definition as a guide, we can see that this could be 3.5 periods of undefined time, not necessarily days.

NT:2250 ἡμέρα hemera (hay-mer'-ah); feminine (with NT:5610 implied) of a derivative of hemai (to sit; akin to the base of NT:1476) meaning tame, i.e. gentle; day, i.e. (literally) the time space between dawn and dark, or the whole 24 hours (but several days were usually reckoned by the Jews as inclusive of the parts of both extremes); figuratively, a period (always defined more or less clearly by the context):

KJV - age, * alway, (mid-) day (by day, [-ly]), * for ever, judgment, (day) time, while, years.

(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright © 1994, 2003, 2006 Biblesoft, Inc. and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

We also see that the same word is translated year in two verses in Luke. Which if we used that figurative definition, we would have  $3.5 \times 360 = 1260$ !

Luke 1:7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in years.

NASU

Luke 1:18-19 (18 Zacharias said to the angel, "How will I know this for certain? For I am an old man and my wife is advanced in years." NASU

If we were to assume that the term days is being used in a figurative manner, then we should look for something in the context, that would define what the 3.5 periods of time should be. The translators are assuming that this is days, but there actually is nothing that defines this as 3.5 days, except the assumption that is what it is, because that is what that word is normally used as, except for the examples above where it is used as years. We are first going to give one explanation, using 3.5 periods of figurative time which we believe should be 360, and that was the original explanation from the study. Then we will offer a second solution, based upon the 3.5 years of Elijah, which also pictures the 1260 years, and it may be that is the more correct solution.

3.5 Figurative Solution

But before we can conclude that 3.5 figurative periods of time are the correct solution, we need to see if there is anything that would point to a figurative interpretation. We believe that there is something that indicates that this should be three and a half, 360 year periods, although it is not obvious. When we were looking at the chronology that defines how long the beast was going to be able to torment and kill the saints, we found an important thing. It is right in plain sight, but it is partially hidden by the idea that the 3.5 days that the prophets lay dead in the city, was only 3.5, 24 hour days. If this was 3.5 years, such as in Luke, we would then prophetically have  $3.5 \times 360 = 1260$  years, which completes chronology witness number one, as we will see when we come back to this. First we will look at chronology witness number two.

There is a chronology witness number two, which defines the chronology witness for us. In chapter 12, in verse 6, we have (1) 1260 years. In verse 14, we have (2) 3.5 times. In chapter 13, we have the third and final element of the chronology witness in verse 5, of (3) 42 months. So in those two chapters we have three different symbols defining the 1260 years of persecution. We will call this set of chronology witnesses, number two.

The reason that we are calling those three different chronology symbols witness two, is because there is a witness number one. Beginning in chapter 11, we have in verse 2, (1) 42 months, and in verse 3, (2) 1260 days. That means that in order to complete chronology witness one, we are missing a (3) 3.5 times. If we look all over the New Testament, including the rest of Revelation, it appears at first glance that we do not have a complete chronology witness number one—how can that be, since God proves all things by at least two, if not three witnesses. In this situation, we believe that there are three complete witnesses given by God, as we will show.

If we look at the 3.5 days of chapter 11 with a prophetic eye, we then can see that the two prophets could have been dead for 3.5 times 360 days or 1260 days, which would be 1260 years. That would complete the first set of chronology witnesses, giving us two complete witness sets of 1260, 42 months and 3.5 times in Revelation. Some will probably claim that the 3.5 days can only be 3.5 years, and so they will not accept the 3.5 times 360. For that reason, we will give a second way of arriving at 1260 years for that time period below, based upon Elijah, who actually is one of the prophets in this chapter.

There is a third chronology witness in Daniel, but there we only have 3.5 times 360 twice. In Dan 7:25 we have 3.5 times, and in Dan 12:7 we have 3.5 times. But notice that unless we prophetically determine that the 3.5 times 360 = 1260, the New Testament would then only have one complete witness of 1260, 42 months and 3.5 times. If we accept the prophetic interpretation for the 3.5 days, then we would have two complete witnesses in the New Testament, and One complete witness in the Old Testament, which gives us a total of three witnesses. In the next section, we are going to give another method of arriving at 1260 years.

3.5 Years of Elijah Pictures 1260 Years

A second and possibly the best solution, although both methods could be correct, is that another solution is found in the amount of time that Elijah spent in the wilderness hiding from Jezebel, which was 3.5 years. We should realize that the 3.5 years derived from the original Adventist calculation regarding the 3.5 days, actually matches the prophetic 3.5 years that Elijah spent in hiding. Since Elijah is one of the two prophets in this Chapter, the 3.5 years of his hiding from Ahab and Jezebel, symbolized the entire 1260 years.  $3.5 \text{ years} \times 360 = 1260$  symbolically derived years. There are several reasons that we say that is the answer, besides the fact that it fits historically with what happened during that dark time. That entire period of 1260 years, was when the scriptures were not given any authority in the fallen church, effectively killing them. That fits exactly, because history shows that the Laity of the Papal church were not allowed to use the scriptures for the entire 1260 years, not just 3.5 years at the close of the 1260!

Another reason that we conclude that Elijah's ministry symbolizes 1260 years, is that we find that James tells us that Elijah is mentioned as the prophet that kept it from raining for 3.5 years, creating the desert condition that the woman fled into in chapter 12. Many brethren have given talks, explaining that the plight of Elijah, symbolizes the church's plight during the 1260 years of the dark ages, and to prove that, we only have to look at the upper half of the Chapter, where we find that the two prophets prophesy outside the city like Elijah, for 1260 years and 42 and two months, which equals 1260 years. See the notes below about David Rice's talk on the symbolism of the 3.5 years of Elijah. That is symbolic of the same period of time that we have here in this prophecy, which is  $3.5 \times 360$ . We notice that the two prophets could stop it from raining, just as the original Elijah did in the Old Testament times, and here in our Revelation account.

James 5:17-18 (17 Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. 18 Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops. NIV

That the two prophets could issue fire to burn up their enemies, as is stated in this Chapter, is also found in both the time of Moses and in the time of Elijah, with the captains of 50. We see in the message to the fourth church, that Jezebel is mentioned as being the one that was feeding food to our Lord's church that had been sacrificed to idols, and so there should be no doubt that we need to be looking at the life of Elijah, and what he did in the fight against the false God's that Jezebel had brought into Israel.

Inside the city, it uses a different symbol that symbolizes 3.5 years, but as we explained above, the 3.5

years of Elijah actually symbolizes the entire 1260 years. Outside the city, they were plaguing the evil system for 1260 years, and inside the city the two prophets lay dead for 1260 years. Elijah and the events of his life picture the struggle of the church, and the eventual overcoming of evil.

This is Not a Double Application of a Day Per Year

The above method is not a double application of the day per year method as some think, because we get the 3.5 years of Elijah's drought, from the 3.5 days at a day per year in Rev Chapter 11, and then we use the picture of the 3.5 years of Elijah hiding from Ahab and Jezebel, to get the 1260 years. Just like here in Revelation, Elijah was not able to prophecy in the city of Jerusalem without being killed during that entire time, and Obadiah had to hide the other prophets of God in a cave to save them during that same time. Elijah was able to live by the brook, and be kept alive by being fed by ravens, and then he was later fed miraculously with the widow. We see that same miraculous feeding of the church pictured in Rev Chapter 12, where the woman fled into the wilderness to be fed for 1260 years. The prophetic pictures are all linked together!

In the third year of the drought, Elijah went to see Ahab. Using 360 days per year, the third year would start in 1259AD, and it would end in 1619, of which 180 years left would seem like a reasonable time for the prophets of Baal to be confronted at the altar, and then be killed by 1799. That would correspond to the time of the early reformers, and the Reformation. That evil system is pictured by an angry Jezebel, who chased after Elijah trying to kill him, and the chronology associated with that chase brings us up to 1874-1914 as explained below.

Bro Rice's Presentation on Elijah

Bro. David Rice has a very good presentation, showing the timing, and the events picturing the church, and the chronology of that flight from 1799 to 1914. He has 1799 as the destruction of the priests of Baal. Stopping at the juniper tree and resting, he is fed twice there. The first time is at 1829, which was when there were a lot of solid kingdom type doctrines brought out. Then he ate again in 1843-1848 at the time of the Miller movement. He then fell back asleep until the end of the 1335 days, which brought us to 1874AD. The angel then woke him again, and had him eat again, picturing the harvest truth, and then he went 40 days and 40 nights to the mount of God, which is 1914. He then hid in a cave until the Lord came to him, and showed him the wind, the earthquake, and the fire, and a gentle calm. Those symbols represent war, revolution, anarchy, and the blessing of the kingdom, which all occur after 1914.

Elijah & the Widow

As we read in 2 Kings, we see that God fed Elijah and kept him alive with Ravens at a brook, and then he later lived with the widow and kept her alive with miracles until it was time for the end of the drought and famine. Those experiences are a picture of the church, and how it was going to have to struggle to survive during the dark time of the 3.5 times of the 1260 years. We will see that very thing shown in Rev Chapter 12, where we see the woman flee into the wilderness away from Satan—where she was to be fed by God.

Does Widow = Jewish System?

One suggestion about the widow and Elijah, which is not certain, but which makes sense, is that the widow could represent the Jewish system. The widow is widowed from the Lord, because they have been cast off and divorced by God for the 1845 years of the time of their punishment. The widow's child, which died and which was brought back to life by Elijah, would in that picture represent the hope of an earthly seed.

Perfecting Their Testimony

Another question that comes up about this, is how were they perfecting their testimony just before 539. Besides the canonization of the scriptures in 397, the arguments of truth that the faithful saints were using against the error of the fallen system, were being taken from the scriptures. That is the reason that the fallen church did not want the church to have the use of the scriptures—they were using the scriptures to fight against the Trinity doctrine.

That they had completed their prophesying just before the beast killed them, is also better rendered perfected their testimony. In the Horae Apocalypticae, Elliott shows that “perfected their testimony” is a better meaning for the Greek phrase that has traditionally been translated as “finished their testimony.” The two prophets had been perfected in 397, when they were canonized and put into one book, and they were being used and perfected against the error of the system, by the faithful of the church.

Difference Between Prophesying & Finishing

There is also a major difference between the two words in this chapter, prophesying (propheteuo) in verse 3 and finishing or perfecting (telo) their testimony in verse 7. They are totally different words, which mean totally different things, and any interpretation that make the finishing of the testimony, the finishing of their earlier prophesying the same, as most do, will be coming to a totally wrong conclusion. We consider this problem, in a detailed examination of those two words, in the detailed notes.

Every Person, Tribe Language, and Nations

That this was men of every person, tribe, language, and nations, points us to Rev 17:15, where we see that the waters that the Harlot was sitting on, are defined by the same symbols: people, tribes, languages, and nations. That tells us that those who are making up this Great City, are the same ones that are supporting the harlot in Chapter 17.

Not Allowed Burial

It's not exactly clear what is meant by them being refused burial, but the scriptures were not done away with completely, in that they sat in plain sight of the people in the church, but they were not used. We suspect that the Lord and the faithful church successfully argued for keeping the dead bodies of the scriptures around, and not destroying them. It's also possible that the evil system kept them around to take them out of context, in order to prove to the superstitious people that they needed to give more money, or to make the people think they were using the scriptures correctly in other matters. Another reason that they were dead and could not speak, is because they were in dead languages and not translated into the language of the people until much later, when the 1260 years was getting close to drawing to a close.

Rev 11:10 And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and celebrate; and they will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

Gifts = Reasoning
On how to Enrich Themselves
Like Indulgences

It tells us here that those who make up this great city are glad that the scriptures were dead and not used, because they had been used as a witness against them. Because of them being dead, they sent gifts to one another. It's not clear exactly what those gifts were, but perhaps it was arguments and doctrines that allowed them to persecute anyone that did not agree. They also could be arguments about ways to enrich themselves at the expense of the people, that would not have been allowed by the scriptures.

Rev 11:11 But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God came into them, and they stood on their feet; and great fear fell upon those who were watching them.

Scriptures Came to Life Gradually With Early Reformers, Then Reformation

After a long time, the spirit of God energized the scriptures, and they stood on their feet. Before the end of the 1260 years of the church and state system, the Holy spirit entered into the faithful and the reformers began to restore the use of the scriptures. This started gradually with the early reformers and by the time of the Reformation the scriptures were being used again. That the scriptures were being used again in a symbolic picture, corresponds to their coming to life and standing on their feet. The Papal system and those who belonged to it were fearful, because they thought that they had gotten rid of the power of the scriptures, which conflicted with their false doctrines.

Rev 11:12 And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." Then they went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them.

They Saw the Enemies of Themselves

After 1799, the scriptures were elevated to a place of heavenly prominence in the faithful church, which in a picture, was the same as being elevated into the spiritual heavens by the command "Come up here". There is an interesting wording in the Greek text regarding this verse. The translators thinking that this was two individuals, render this as their enemies saw them being taken up into heaven. In the Greek text, it says "they saw them, "the enemies of themselves." So, while this is not for sure, it may be saying that when they were elevated into heaven where they were being used again, that they then saw who their true enemies really were. In other words, when the scriptures became widely used again, it was seen in the Bible that the great falling away that they were escaping from, had been previously predicted in prophecy. That they went up to heaven in a cloud, shows that when the scriptures came back into prominence, it was a troublesome time as symbolized by the cloud.

Rev 11:13 And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

French Revolution
1/10 Great City Fell
When France Fell Away

The severe earthquake that occurred at that time, was for sure the French revolution, but it most likely started at the Reformation, which led up to a final climax of trouble at the time of the French Revolution. That one tenth of the city fell at the end of the 1260 years, is a historical fact, in that one of the ten kings removed itself completely from Papal control. The French Revolution led to the removal of France from the control of Papacy, when Napoleon arrested the Pope and cast him into prison where he died.

7000 Killed

The seven thousand that were killed at that time, were not literally killed, but they most likely are the same as the one-third of men that were killed in the sixth trumpet, which is the same time frame as this is. In other words, they were removed from the power and control of Papacy. This is directly related to the seven thousand that God had kept clean from the influence of idol worship during the time of Elijah. They were not killed, but their death symbolically represents their consecration to the Lord, and historically we see that many at that time had left the Papal system, so that they could follow God's word, and re-discover his truth.

That the rest were frightened and gave glory to God, does not mean that they rejected the Papal system and turned to God. It just means that they realized that such a major overturning had to be from God, and that was what frightened them, but they were still superstitiously attached to the evil system.

Rev 11:14 The second woe is past; behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

That it tells us in this verse that the second woe is past and that the third woe is coming quickly, shows us that the events that we just considered are part of the sixth trumpet, which is the second woe trumpet. The sixth trumpet had chronologically reached up to 1874AD, which is where our next verse starts with the seventh trumpet.

Seventh Trumpet

Rev 11:15 Then the seventh angel sounded; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying,

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever."

Seventh Trumpet Christ Begins to Reign

The seventh trumpet is the third woe trumpet, and the events described here began in 1874AD. This is the same seventh trumpet that is mentioned in Revelation Chapter 10—it's now time for it to be sounded. That the kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord God and Christ, shows us that Christ is present at the time of the fulfillment of this vision. He began his reign, by judging and beginning to take control of the nation's away from Satan. The process of overcoming Satan and his system, will take an unknown amount of time. This is also the time that the 1845-year harvest parallels points to, and this time is the judgment of the nominal Christian house. The 2520 years of gentile power for the church and state system, was going to be overturned at the end of the 40-year harvest, and history shows that it was.

Rev 11:16-18 (16) And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17 saying,

"We give You thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, who are and who were, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign. 18 "And the nations were enraged, and Your wrath came, and the time came for the dead to be judged, and the time to reward Your bond-servants the prophets and the saints and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

Time to Reward Saints

The 24 elders, represent the Old Testament scriptures, as seen in Chapter 4 of Revelation. That they are making these statements, shows that all this information and prophecy is found in the Old Testament. The first important statement that they make, is that this is the time of God Almighty's reign. That statement is not implying that God himself is going to reign, but we know that his son Jesus will be his representative and will sit on the throne until all the work of restoration is accomplished. Then the kingdom will be handed back over to the Father, 1 Cor 15:25.

WW1 Began Process of Removing Kings & Taking Control

We are told that the nations will be angry during this time, and history shows that the 1914AD war was the beginning of the time of trouble. That trouble will go on until all nations kiss the son, and bow down to him. We see that the events of this trumpet, point us back to Ps Chapter 2, and the kings of the earth resistance to our Lord Jesus taking control. No matter how powerful they are, the Lord is much stronger than they are. All of the traditional kings were removed in WW1, and all of the other leaders of the nations will in the end have to bow down to the new king, which will be when the New Jerusalem comes down to the earth.

Resurrection of Sleeping Saints in 1878

This is also the time that the dead start to be judged, and that judgment begins with all those who had professed to be Christians during the Gospel Age. The reason that the judgment starts there, is because it's time for the resurrection of the sleeping saints—those who rise from the dead to join the Lord in the heavens. The rest of the church follows as they complete their earthly walk, one by one after that, until the full 144,000 are complete. The servants the prophets here, are not the Old Testament prophets, but are those who were prophets of the Christian church. The saints mentioned here are those who were the faithful of the church during the Gospel Age. The rewarding of those who fear thy name, shows that anyone who serves God during the Gospel Age, will receive a reward. That these are to be the great and the small, shows that there will be a difference of greatness in those individuals—like the scriptural example of a star differs from a star.

Destroy Those Who Corrupt Church

To destroy those who destroy the earth, has both a symbolic and a literal meaning. Those who are destroying God's true religious system, and those who are destroying the literal earth, will both be stopped. The word destroy does not necessarily mean a complete destruction, but it can mean that those who do these things, will be revealed and exposed and they will rot away gradually.

Open Temple

Rev 11:19 And the temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple, and there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

Open Temple in Heaven

That the temple was seen in heaven, shows that at the time of this trumpet, that the full kingdom had not come down to the earth yet, because at the start of the earthly kingdom, the New Jerusalem will have come down to the earth. The temple being open in heaven, shows that there will be more information about God's Plan of salvation available at the time of the seventh trumpet. That is indicated symbolically by the Ark of the Covenant, which is seen in the temple in the heavens. Symbolically the ark contains information about God's New Covenant, which was more clearly understood at the time of the seventh trumpet.

Flashes of Lightning & Thunder = Harvest Truth

The flashes of lightning, represent truths that were broadcast out into the spiritual heavens at that time, and those truths were like thunders, which were reverberating back and forth in the spiritual heavens. A major part of the truths that were being revealed, was the doctrine of the ransom. In Chapter 8, when the angel took coals of fire off the altar and cast them into the earth, that was the first set of thunders and lightnings, which tested the Jewish house. Most of Israel failed that test, because they refused to believe in the Messiah, and the blood of the ransom that he provided. Here on the end of the age, the same test has fallen on the nominal house of Christianity, we again see that just like Israel, most have failed the test. The earthquake that occurred at the time of the seventh trumpet, was the overturning of the civil power of the kings and their Empires at the end of the 2520 years. The great hail storm, represents hard truths that also punished the church systems at that time.

Same Symbols Used in Bowls of Wrath More Intense Final Destruction at That Time

All the above symbols of lightning, thunder, earthquake, and hail, continue in the seventh bowl of wrath, showing that there will be a more intense and a final and blow against Satan's entire system, that will be like what is occurring here in the beginning of the seventh trumpet, and the time of trouble that began in 1914. The third and last time will be designed to finish off Satan's worldwide system. We will cover that in more detail when we discuss the bowls of wrath—especially the last three bowls of wrath.

The Woman in the Heavens

A Scripture Upon Scripture Interpretation

Because this is a totally different interpretation than the traditional Bible Student one, we recommend that the detailed and full explanation be read before a final judgment about this interpretation is rendered. In the full explanation, we start out with a scripture upon scripture table, that shows that the interpretation is derived from the scriptures, and that it is not a private interpretation. There we go into a detailed verse by verse explanation, as to what the Chapter is showing us. In the detailed explanation, you will see that what Chapter 12 is showing us, is the salvation that comes from the covenants of God, starting with the Abrahamic Covenant. The woman will be seen to have all other covenants that God has made with mankind with her, as accessories—the sun, moon, stars and etc. We will also see the battle between Satan and the seed of the woman, and we will find that the seed can overcome him because of the blood of the Lamb. After the man child, who is Christ is born, the woman splits into two versions, one on foot and one flying—showing the two salvations, heavenly and earthly. In other words, this Chapter will be revealing the Divine Plan of the Ages to us.

In the full version, we explain that if it is later determined that the woman is not split into two different pictures of salvation, we explain that it does not make any difference to the rest of the interpretation. The two salvations would still be in the covenants that are seen in the Chapter, but the two salvation would have to come from the symbol of the woman. That is because her symbol is Sarah, and she represents the Abrahamic Covenant, and the Abrahamic Covenant has a stars of heaven blessing and a sand of the seashore blessing. To keep the explanation simple, we will proceed here as though the concept of the two women being the heavenly and earthly salvation is correct. We believe that is correct, but we can't prove it absolutely—hence the alternate explanation which shows the two salvations in either interpretation.

The following summary which we are giving here, does not present the complete scriptural proof, but it only presents a summary of what the Chapter is showing us, but without much scriptural proof. So again, read this first, but don't make a judgment until you have read the full explanation.

Chapter 12 symbol definitions

The vision of the woman, is showing us a completed picture of all of God's covenants that will restore mankind. Before she gives birth to the man child, she does not have the final version of the covenant accessories yet. They will be magnified and completed for her, because of the birth of the man child—who is Abrahams seed of promise. In the paragraph below, we provide the explanation of what the symbols she is seen with, represent before the crucifixion—the symbols change to the use they have now in the Gospel Age—because of the blood of the Lamb. For example, the law was the mosaic law, but now it is the new law, which provides us with the spirit of the law which we can keep. The 12 sons of Jacob, are first pictured by the 12 stars, but they change to the 12 apostles in the Gospel Age.

Symbols Meanings Before & After

(1) Woman = Abrahamic Covenant with stars of heaven, sand of seashore promises of blessing-only change is the fulfillment of the covenant promises.

- (2) 12 Stars = sons of Jacob prior to birth of seed Christ, after sacrifice of Jesus = 12 Apostles
- (3) Sun = Gospel--Woman does not have the gospel light until sacrifice of Jesus, but there was a lesser fading light of the Old Testament as seen in the face of Moses.
- (4) Moon = Aaronic Law covenant = New law or spirit of law after ransom sacrifice of Jesus.
- (5) Heaven = Ecclesiastical heavens either age, but with different promises.
- (6) Woman in labor = Due time promised of seed Christ to be born—Midst of seventieth week pointed to correct time. Nation in expectation.
- (7) Faithful Gospel Age Church, will be the faithful seed of the woman, but they were to be plunged into the Great Tribulation and tested as part of Christ Head & Body.
- (8) Dragon = Satan—the accessories he has, are heads, horns, and they picture different Empires & civil power he controls during his history, as well as the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth.
- (9) 7 heads = Empires he has and will control—6th Pagan Rome was in existence at time of John. Seventh is so called Christianized Roman Empire.
- (10) 10 crowns = 10 kings = total symbolic civil power as defined by Bullinger. Not limited to any particular time—there were literally ten at the restoration of the empire in 539.
- (11) 7 crowns = 7 Empires or 7 different forms of governments of Rome up to Apostate Christianized Rome, all of which at first had total & central control. The seventh lost central control, and the crowns moves to the 10 horns-see the explanation of the 10 horns and crowns. The eighth head is not a dragon or beast head, since it is a Papal controlled government. Became eighth head when Papacy got control over kings in 1169AD. The first seven heads were Roman, but the eighth head was not a Roman government, but it had sprang up from German tribes. That is why the vision of the original Roman beast, only had seven heads on it, the eighth was not Roman.
- (12) 10 crowns = After Rome was restored by 539, the restored kingdoms kept a measure of their civil power. The crowns were moved from the heads or central control, to the civil power of the kingdoms.
- (13) 1/3 Stars = First application = Faithful Jews being cast out of Jewish system, by apostates
1/3 Stars = Second application = Good Christians being cast out of Great City of Papacy, by apostates.
- (14) Earth = All of society—Good stars which were cast down from above, were persecuted and killed by this system in the earth—pictured by Elijah, 3.5 years = 1260.
- (15) Man-Child = Promised seed of Abrahamic Covenant— which is Christ Nations = Nations making up Empire of Rome-Might also include outside Barbarians who came into the Empire in some applications?
- (16) Rod of iron = Christ's Sheppard rule over kingdom. Ps Chap 2, Psa 110:2, 89:32, 1Cor 4:21, Heb 1:8
- (17) Wilderness = Desolate spiritual condition caused by Abomination of Desolation—Gradually restored as shown in Isaiah 35, by the springs of water which appear after the 1260 years expires.

Rev 12:1A a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;

Woman = Sarah of Abrahamic Covenant Accessories = all other covenants

In verse 1, we see the woman Sarah as representing the Abrahamic Covenant, and the promises that are in that covenant, see Isaiah Chapter 54 and Galatians chapter 3 and 4. All the accessory symbols seen with her, represent “all” of the covenants that God has made mankind that are necessary to restore all of mankind back to perfection, which are vitalized or magnified to their full meaning, after the Man-Child is born. The child that the woman is about to give birth to, is the seed that was to bless all the families of the earth, as was promised and looked for in the Abrahamic Covenant. The woman is Sarah, who as a type, represents the Abrahamic Covenant—which shows us in a type the salvation that will come to both ages, through the symbols of the Stars of heaven and the Sand of the sea shore. The other accessory symbols that are seen with the woman, represent all the other covenants that God has made, that work together with the Abrahamic Covenant to restore all of mankind back to perfection.

One complaint that is given regarding the Abrahamic Covenant interpretation, is that it is said that at the time of the birth of the man Child, that the symbols seen with the woman in Chapter one, would not fit that time frame because she would not have had the Gospel yet, and she would not have had the 12 apostles. That is correct, but the symbols that she is seen with have different meanings, depending on when they are seen with the woman, as we have listed in the table above.

The birth of the seed of the promise and the blood of the covenant, is what makes the full meaning of the symbols available to the woman. After the seed of the promise is born, and Jesus provides the ransom price, then the Abrahamic Covenant starts to be fulfilled. It had waited for over 2000 years, and the coming of the promised seed is what began the fulfillment of the Covenant. Another major point is that Paul says that the two women represent two Covenants, he names the Law Covenant and the Abrahamic Covenant is understood from the context he is talking about, and from the prophecy he quotes from in Isaiah Chapter 54. Gal 4:23-24 (24 This is allegorically speaking, for these women are two covenants: one proceeding from Mount Sinai bearing children NASU

The traditional view believes that the woman must be the Gospel Age church, and that is why that view is forced to change the meaning of the Man-Child. We will explain later, why the view that the symbol of the woman is Sarah who represents the Abrahamic covenant, with the other covenants as accessories, is much to be preferred and that it gets us out of many difficulties. When we look at it that way, we will find that this Chapter then shows us the Divine Plan of the Ages, and it shows us the two salvations of that Plan.

One thing we wish to make note of here, is that some believe that the woman here cannot represent a covenant, and that she must represent a church, because there is another woman in Revelation that represents a church, although its admitted the second woman is shown as being a bad church—a harlot. In defense of the woman in Chapter 12 being a covenant, we can only say that the Bible describes her in that manner, as shown in Isaiah 54:1, where we see the woman Sarah picturing the Abrahamic Covenant. The Apostle Paul also defines her as being a covenant as we mentioned above. There is no doubt that is what she symbolizes, because it is stated that the sons of the desolate, Sarah, will be more than the sons of the married one, which was the Jews married to Jehovah through the law.

So, to answer the objection, we can only state that there is no doubt that is what she represents, because we have a parallel scripture from the Old Testament, that shows her as the Abrahamic covenant at the time it was beginning to be fulfilled at the First Advent, and Paul also directs us to that Chapter from Galatians. As to why the symbol is not the same as the evil woman, is perhaps because of all the other covenant symbols that she is seen with. In other words, this good woman has a package of accessories with her that changes the meaning of what she represents. The other important thing that we get from Isaiah 54:5, is that Jehovah is her husband.

The other evil woman's accessories, such as the beast and the ten horns and the golden cup full of abominations and unclean things of her immorality, is what defines her as being different, and an evil harlot.

She might also be looked at, as those who originally had the covenant promises that came from the blood of Christ, but who sold their birthright for the wealth and power that came from the union of church and state.

Rev 12:2 and she was with child; and she cried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth.

Expectation of the Birth Of the Seed of Promise

In verse 2, that she was in pain and about to give birth, shows us that the birth of the child of promise was imminent at the time of the First Advent. The Jewish nation was in expectation at the time, and that was because of Dan Chapter 9 and the 70 weeks. The Sarah part of the Abrahamic Covenant, that had been barren for over 2000 years, was about to bear the promised seed that we see here in the symbol of the Man-Child. That child was the seed that had been promised in the covenant that had been given to Abraham by God, which was going to bless all the families of the earth, both the heavenly and the earthly. For that reason, we have placed the sighting of her, when she was about to give birth, just prior to the close of the Jewish age or just after, if we include what happens to the Man-Child when he is snatched up to God, away from Satan's attempt to kill or destroy him.

We have included the Galatians reference here, because understanding that reference and Isaiah Chapter 54, will prove to be the keys to this Chapter, because Paul's quote from Isaiah, shows that we need to be looking at the woman as being Sarah, picturing the Abrahamic Covenant, who is representative of the very important promises for the church and for the world that had been given to Abraham.

Gal 4:21-27 (21 Tell me, you who want to be under law, do you not listen to the law? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the bondwoman and one by the free woman. 23 But the son by the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, and the son by the free woman through the promise. 24 This is allegorically speaking, for these women are two covenants: one proceeding from Mount Sinai bearing children who are to be slaves; she is Hagar. 25 Now this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem above is free; she is our mother. 27 For it is written,

"REJOICE, BARREN WOMAN WHO DOES NOT BEAR; BREAK FORTH AND SHOUT, YOU WHO ARE NOT IN LABOR; FOR MORE NUMEROUS ARE THE CHILDREN OF THE DESOLATE THAN OF THE ONE WHO HAS A HUSBAND." NASU

Rev 12:3 Then another sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads were seven diadems.

Description of the Great Red Dragon

In verse 3, we see our old enemy Satan, who is pictured by the dragon. The dragon in its pure form is Satan, but we see that the seven heads and the ten horns, are his accessories, and they show us the earthly organization of Pagan Rome, through which Satan was exerting his influence at the time. The symbol of the beast will appear in the next Chapter, when Rome is Christianized—the dragon still exists after that happens, because the core of the dragon is Satan. Dragon = equals Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth. As seen in the beginning of Chapter 13, the beast and the dragon exist together at the same time. The reason for that, is that the dragon has given his power, his throne, and great authority, to the new Christianized beast, and so we will see a new beast, with the same ten horns and the seven heads, but Satan still exists as the dragon at that time, but without the heads and horns, as seen in the latter half of Chapter 12, 13:1, and 20:1-3. We fully explain the reasons for that difference in the detailed notes. The ten kings that this beast had, is what resulted in the doctrine of the Divine right of Kings being adopted, which was done to give the civil power legitimacy.

Some, like Constantine, thought that they had defeated the dragon, when they had defeated Pagan Rome. Those who think that, run into a problem when they get to chapter 13 and they find the dragon alive and well.

Christ's Kingdom Was Not Established at the Time of Constantine.

The ones that believe that the kingdom was established, think that the church taking control of the Empire was a good thing, and that Paganism and Satan were being cast out of the Empire, so they could establish God's kingdom. That scenario was exactly what Constantine believed, and many churches are still believing it today—hence the title Christendom. What really happened was that the sixth or Pagan controlling head on the dragon was removed, and so that aspect of the dragon power was gone, but the seventh Christianized head was then developing and coming into power—the dragon was giving the new Christianized beast the throne and power and great authority, which transferred the heads and horns of Rome onto the new beast. The dragon or Satan himself, was not removed by the fall of the Pagan head, and that is why we still see the dragon in Rev 13:1. The heads and horns are accessories on the dragon, and in chapter 13 we see that he transferred them to the beast, and we see the dragon or Satan as a separate entity.

A look at what happened historically, after the dragon was supposedly cast out, should make it clear that Constantine's thought was not a correct interpretation. Chapter 13 has the dragon standing on the sand of the sea, and it tells us about the persecuting power of the Apostate Christianized beast that was being restored back out of the "sea". It also tells us that it would be in power during a 42-month period, which prophetically is the 1260 years, which is 539 –1799AD. That beast and what it did to God's people, is described in that Chapter as a terrible persecuting power that made all nations follow it. History confirms that what was predicted there, actually happened during that time, to both the church and the world.

The thing that happened to Satan that made him mad, was that the Lord paid the ransom price for us and covered us with the robe of righteousness. As long as we keep our belief in that blood, he cannot spiritually defeat us. That is why his attacks became very physical against the faithful church, and he also works day and night to defeat the knowledge of what Christ really did on the cross.

Rev 12:10-11 (10 And a great voice in heaven came to my ears, saying, Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: because he who says evil against our brothers before our God day and night is forced down. 11 And they overcame him through the blood of the Lamb and the word of their witness; and loving not their lives they freely gave themselves up to death. BBE

1 Peter 3:20-22 (21 Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, after angels and authorities and powers had been subjected to Him. NASU

What these verses are saying, is that the faithful church will be able to overcome because of the blood of the Lamb, and that the real kingdom and authority of Christ has taken charge of the spiritual heavens, just as 1 Peter 3:20-22 says. Because of that same blood, and Satan being blocked or "forced down" from accusing us in heaven—but the kingdom did not come down to the earth yet at the time of Constantine—that is why the earth and the sea is warned about him coming against them! Our Lord sits at the right hand of the Father and intercedes for us, so that Satan cannot accuse us in heaven anymore.

Rom 8:33-35 (33 Who will bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one who justifies; 34 who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, yes, rather who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? NASB Heb 10:12-13 (12 But Christ offered himself as a sacrifice that is good forever. Now he is sitting at God's right side, 13 and he will stay there until his enemies are put under his power. CEV

The time that Christ's enemies will be placed under his control, is in the next age after the church is complete, and that is when he will come down to the earth with the 144,000.

Meaning of Satan

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

"This article is about the figure who is labelled "Satan". For the general concept of devils, see Devil. For other uses, see Satan (disambiguation).

Satan (Hebrew: שָׂטָן Satan, meaning "enemy" or "adversary";<sup>[1]</sup> Arabic: شيطان shaitan, meaning; "astray", "distant", or sometimes "devil") is a figure appearing in the texts of the Abrahamic religions<sup>[2][3]</sup> who brings evil and temptation, and is known as the deceiver who leads humanity astray. Some religious groups teach that he originated as an angel, or something of the like, who used to possess great piety and beauty, but fell because of hubris, seducing humanity into the ways of falsehood and sin, and has power in the fallen world. In the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament, Satan is primarily an accuser and adversary, a decidedly malevolent entity, also called the devil, who possesses abhorrent qualities."*

The Christianized beast, is descended from the Pagan Rome symbol that Satan is represented by here, and we will see that it has all the same heads and crowns—with Satan in control. That the crowns are on the heads here in this verse in Chapter 12, shows us that this is at the time that Rome still held central authority—not like in Rev 13:1, where the crowns are moved to the ten horns. After the collapse of 476AD, Western Rome had come back together as an Empire, but it had no strong central authority. After that time, the Empire was broken up into separate countries, that were loosely joined back together into the Roman Empire, and that is the reason that the crowns were moved to the horns, instead of on the heads in Chapter 13.

Because of the importance of understand this symbol, we are going to insert some information from the detailed notes.

Dragon

The symbol of the dragon, is like the woman's symbol, in that the vision of the Dragon in verse 3, covers the entire history of the dragon. The dragon has seven heads, which represent seven different Empires, that have ruled over Israel's land and people, with seven different forms of government. In Chapter 17, we will present two different methods of showing who the heads are, but they both arrive at the same conclusion, in that the sixth head was in power at the time of Apostle John, just as the angel tells us in Chapter 17.

Ten Horns

There were ten countries at the time of 539AD that had crowns on their money, so that was the only literal time that there were ten countries . If we look at the symbolic meaning of ten horns on the dragon, we then can fit the dragon into any point in history. The horns and heads, are actually moved from the Pagan Dragon, to the Christianized beast, showing that they symbolize different types of Empire rule and the civil power of the kingdoms. That transfer of power, is a good example of why the ten horns have to be the total power of the Empire, no matter if it was Pagan Rome, or if it was the Christianized beast. The Dragon still equals Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he transfers his throne to the Christianized beast.

“E.W. Bullinger- PART II ITS SPIRITUAL SIGNIFICANCE-Ten ANTICHRIST'S WORLD-POWER

is comprised in the ten kingdoms, symbolized by the ten toes on the feet of the Image of Nebuchadnezzar's dream (Dan 2:41), and by the ten horns of the fourth beast of Daniel's vision (Dan 7:7,20,24, etc.; Rev 12:3, 13:1, 17:3,7,12).”

If we take the meaning that is given by Bullinger, we then find that the ten horns will fit into history at any place where that evil system had control over the nations. In other words, the ten horns symbolize the full civil power that Satan’s system had at any point in the dragon’s existence. If we see the dragon at the time of the early church, the ten horns would be the power of the Pagan Roman Empire. When we see the dragon in Chapter 13, he has transferred the horns and heads onto the Christianized beast, which was the Roman Empire after 381AD. At that time, the Dragon still equals Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he transfers his throne to the Christianized beast. If we see it at a later time, then they are the kings of the church state system that Papacy got control of during the time of 799-1179AD. To prove that the ten horns have to equal the total civil power, we point to Dan 7:7-8, we see that the beast is described as having ten horn, and that description was given before the little horn came up, and so the prophecy has to include the time that the beast was a Pagan beast, which had ten horns also. So unless we want to think that the Pagan Roman Empire only had ten kingdoms, we need to see that ten represents the total civil power.

History of New Beast And the Dragon

Further along in Revelation, we will see the dragon give his throne to the beast, and at that time the beast will then have the same symbols of the heads and horns that we originally saw on the dragon in Chapter 12, but there is no mention of the horns or heads on the dragon at that later time in Chapter 13, because they were transferred to the new Christianized beast when Satan gave that beast his throne. At that time, the Dragon still equals Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he transfers his throne to the Christianized beast. The other thing is that he is still controlling the throne of the Christianized beast, as we will see by the description of what he does in this Chapter and the next. The throne he gave to the new beast, was the civil power of Pagan Rome, and those symbols of the heads and the horns continued with the new form of the Empire when Rome became Christianized.

That beast lasted in one form or another, until all the Protestant kings were destroyed in WW1, but a lot of the kings earlier on had deserted Papacy in 1799AD. When he gave the power of the throne to the Christianized Roman Empire, Satan retained the dragon symbol for himself, and we see that same symbol used all through the rest of Revelation, but it’s not described with the seven heads or the 10 horns anymore after Rev 12:3, even though we believe that he is still controlling the ten horns of power on the beast all through the age.

In Rev 12:3, the dragon symbol with the heads and the horns represents Pagan Rome, but what we need to recognize is that the dragon symbol without the heads and horns as he is seen later in Revelation, is still Satan. The seven heads and the ten horns that the dragon had in Revelation 12:3, were placed onto his Dragon symbol, to show that he was controlling the civil power of the Pagan Roman Empire, which was at the earlier time when he was standing before the woman. Later, we will see the Christianized beast with the heads and horns on it instead, which was after Satan had given the power of his throne to the Christianized beast. The church had failed their test, and they had accepted the use of the civil power of the Empire.

In Rev 12:3, the dragon is symbolic of Satan and Pagan Rome that he was controlling. The crowns were still on the heads at that time, showing that central Rome was in full control. This is the Roman dragon that existed at the time of the First Advent. At the time of John at the First Advent, chapter 17 tells us that the sixth one was in power. The traditional view moves the sixth head to the time of the John class on this end of the age after 1799, and we don't believe that it is correct to do that.

The central symbol of the dragon represents Satan, but the heads and horns are symbols of the civil power of the Roman Empire. After the dragon gave Papacy his throne, in Chapter 13 we no longer see the horns and heads on the dragon symbol, but they appear on the beast instead, although we know that Satan still controls them. The heads are seven different forms of governments that Rome and the other Empires had in history since the time of Daniel—the seventh head came into existence because the Pagan form of government changed to a Christianized Empire.

The ten horns are symbolic of the civil power the Roman beast had. About the time of 539, there were ten countries that had crowns on their money, which pointed to 539AD as a special date, but the ten horns don't have to be limited to those ten countries, because in an expanded sense, the ten horns represent the total civil power of the beast as we explained above. That expanded sense, is like what happened to the symbols on the woman, in that they represented 10 literal countries at first, but then later on they represent a larger interpretation where they are the total civil power of the beast. There were different numbers of countries that were a part of the beast during the time of its existence, and the expanded view of the ten horns fits better with the total history, because you don't have to have a set number—the 539 identification is there to show what power we should be looking at. The ten kings that this beast had, is what resulted in the doctrine of the Divine right of Kings being adopted, which was done to give the civil power legitimacy.

The Eighth Head

The seventh head of the beast that was to come after the time of John, was the Apostate Christianized beast that began in 313-381BC, which fell in 476 with the collapse of Rome, and then it was restored in a couple of steps, the first starting in 539AD after Rome's collapse, and later on the Image of the original Roman Beast was formed in 799. The eighth head was not formed until later, which was when Papacy got complete control of the Image of the beast in about 1122-1179, and that is the same beast that is seen in Chapter 17 with the harlot riding it. Chapter seventeen starts at a later time than the latter half of 13—but both Chapters cover the time of the killing and murder of the saints. Seventeen takes you further down the stream of time, to the time that the ten horns of the kings take their power back in 1799AD, and begin to burn the harlot with fire. The first seven heads were Roman, but the eighth head was not a Roman government, because it had sprung up from German tribes.

Rev 12:4 And his tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child.

Faithful One Third Cast Out Equals Church Changed to 666

In verse 4, we see that his tail drew a 1/3 of the stars and threw them to the earth. This is the casting out of the spiritual heavens, those who were standing up for God and his truth. One of the reasons that we have that understanding, is because we see that  $1/3 = .333$  and  $2/3 = .666$ . So, we see that the one-third or .333 percent cast out of the heavens, represent God's followers, and the .666 percent that are still left are Satan's followers. By getting rid of God's true followers, represented by the .333, Satan had corrupted and taken over the remaining part of the church, turning it into a .666 system. The one-third of the stars being cast out here, agrees with what the system did to the faithful church in the first four trumpets. In the first four trumpets, Satan corrupted ten different symbols, by removing one-third from each of them, turning them into 666. See the notes on the trumpets for more information on that.

Zechariah One Third

In the following calculations, some might object to using  $1-.333=.666$  as a decimal number, because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah, we find this: Zech 13:8-9 (8 "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD IS my God.'" NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire he is defining as good, at least in the sense that they can be refined further. To prove that, we see that they are refined as gold and silver, which represents Divine things. So when you see us use the decimal number one third or two thirds, anywhere in this book, Zechariah Chapter 13:8-9 is the principle behind that calculation.

Daniel & Trampled Stars

Another reason for the conclusion that the one-third cast out were the good stars, is that in the book of Daniel, we see that the ones cast out were trampled underfoot by the beast, thus proving that those being cast out, were God's servants, and not those who fell into error. We think that it's possible that the casting out of the faithful stars started in the Jewish age, and that is because the Jewish age pictures that Satan will do the same thing to the faithful saints in the Gospel Age. As we will discuss in detail later, we are not sure of the correctness of including the Jewish age, into the throwing down of the faithful stars in Revelation Chapter 12, but there are a few reasons why that may be more correct, one of which is that Isaiah Chapter 66 shows that happening to the Jews. We for sure know that the apostate church system did cast out the Faithful Church and it tramples them, and that is the main lesson of this Chapter. But we don't want to leave out the Jewish age, since Satan had corrupted that system in a similar manner, and they were to be an example to us. We will also see further along in this Chapter, that Michael and his angels were battling Satan and his angels in the heavens for sure during the Jewish age, and even earlier.

Birth Man-Child

Rev 12:5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.

Man-Child is Born, and Is Abrahamic Seed of Promise

In verse 5, we see the Man-Child born, and because of many other scriptures that show us that this is Christ, we see no alternative but to interpret that symbol that way. Christ is elsewhere described as both a child and a Man-Child, and so we don't see any reason to change the meaning of the symbol. The traditional view is forced to change the man-child to Papacy, because they think that the woman is the church, but since she is Sarah of the Abrahamic Covenant, we don't have that problem. Only if it had said that he was like a Man-Child, as it does with the two-horned beast in Chapter 13, where it says it was "like a lamb", then we would agree that the Man-Child could be different than the obvious meaning of the symbol of the Man-Child. This verse does not say that, but it says that this child was caught up to "The God", God has Ho Theos. When the scriptures use the Greek term "Ho Theos" or "The God", it's almost always talking about Jehovah, although some argue against that. If you do a study on this, you will find that there are a very few places that are an exception to that rule, and some of them are suspect. So, while not conclusive, we can see that "The God" is a very heavy weight on the scale of evidence in this Chapter for who the Man-Child is.

See the detailed notes, for even more evidence proving who this Man-Child is, and why it cannot be the rise of Papacy to power!

The child is the promised seed of Sarah, who is Christ at the time of his being taken up to heaven. To prove that this is not the Papal church or even the body of Christ, we find that "the symbol of the Man-Child is singular in the Greek". We will also find in the detailed notes, that "it is also singular in the Hebrew text", when we look at the parallel scripture verses in Isaiah Chapter 66, where it also talks about the Man-Child. Christ is the one destined to rule the nations with a rod of iron, as described in Psa Chapter 2, 89:32, 1Cor 4:21, Heb 1:8, and so we see that he has actually been caught up to "The God" and his throne, just as we are told elsewhere in the New Testament by many other scriptures. There are no other scriptures that say that anyone else other than Christ and the faithful church, are those who will rule the nations with the rod of iron. Papacy tried to do that illegally, but he was a counterfeit of the real king, who is Christ, and this verse does not say that it's talking about a counterfeit, but it clearly states that this was "The Man-Child", and it says that he was caught up to "The God".

If we look at the word caught up or snatched, NT:726, we see that it implies that the Man-Child was taken by force or plucked or pulled up and away from Satan. The root word that it is derived from, NT:138, means to take for oneself, to prefer. Both words taken together fit exactly with what the Heavenly Father did, bringing Jesus up from the grave, up to be seated on God's right hand side. That is also the same word that is used when we are told that the remaining church would be caught up to meet the Lord in the air. Being snatched away from the dragon Satan, does not fit with Papacy being raised to power!

The birth and sacrifice of The Man-Child, makes possible, both the heavenly and the earthly salvation, as the book of Hebrews tells us. Christ secured both salvations, with one sacrifice on the cross, and does not need to do anything more, even for the Millennial age. We will see both salvations pictured before we are done with this Chapter.

Heb 9:28 so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. RSV

The woman, just before this point in history, did not have the full meaning of the symbols of her accessories yet—see the explanation above, at the beginning of the notes on Chapter 12. After the Man-Child completed his sacrifice, then the full meaning of the symbols of the sun, the 12 heavenly stars, and the spirit of the law, were added to her, by the paying of the blood of the covenant, which is seen in verse 11—the Man-Child or seed provided that blood on the cross. The vision of her in verse one, is showing the complete salvation provided by God’s covenants, which are going to restore all mankind, the church first and then the world—the stars of heaven and the sand of the seashore.

Vision of Two Women, Two Different Salvations

The woman seen in the heavens, the Abrahamic Covenant, contains two different blessings, the stars of heaven and the sand of the sea shore. The stars of heaven represents the blessing of the spiritual class of the church, and the sand of the sea shore represents the blessing that will be for Israel and the world in the next age. We believe that this chapter shows us both of those salvations, because we see two different women appear after the Man-Child completes his sacrifice. The first one is on foot, and we believe that she is the promise of the earthly salvation, and she is symbolized by Hagar, the nation of Israel under the Mosaic law, who had rejected the Messiah. Her blessing will not be able to begin, until she accepts the New Covenant at the start of the kingdom, and then her symbol will change to Keturah. She has to change to Keturah, because the Jews will not be saved by the law covenant, but by the New Covenant, which is the spirit of the law, not the letter. The world will be able to be saved through that same blessing, by being adopted in as Israelites.

The woman that is given the two wings, represents those who accepted Christ and the blood of the covenant, and they are the result of the stars of heaven blessing. This woman is the one that Satan is especially worried about, because he knows that if the church is completed, then he will be cast into the pit. That is why he becomes so angry, and tries to kill this woman or corrupt her.

Woman on Foot

Rev 12:6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness where she had a place prepared by God, so that there she would be nourished for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Woman Running on Foot Pictures Earthly Salvation

In verse 6, we see that the woman flees into her place in the wilderness, where she is to be protected for 1260 years. Since we believe that we are looking at a covenant, that has an earthly seed and a heavenly seed, we believe that this woman is “running or fleeing on foot” in this verse, and because of that, her flight to safety represents the earthly portion of the covenant—the sand of the seashore promises. Some complain that the verb “to flee” does not mean that she is running on foot. That is correct, but in what other manner would she be able to flee, because she does not have the wings, and Strong’s definition does include the thought of running away?

This woman on foot at the time of the wilderness is Hagar, the Jewish nation as it had existed during the time that they have been cast off. The woman on foot, is the promise of salvation to the sand of the sea shore, which comes from the Abrahamic Promise, and which is not dependent upon the law covenant that Israel was under at the time. The Jewish nation, will bring the earthly salvation of this part of the covenant to the world, once they accept the truth about Messiah in the kingdom. When they accept the New Covenant, the symbol of Hagar, will change to the symbol of Keturah because then they will be under the new law, or the spirit of the law, and not the Mosaic law. The New Covenant makes the Mosaic law, change to the new law, or the spirit of the law, which is what Israel and the world will be under in the next age.

NT:5343 φεύγω pheugo (fyoo'-go); apparently a primary verb; to run away (literally or figuratively); by implication, to shun; by analogy, to vanish:

KJV - escape, flee (away).

That promise of salvation will come to the Jewish nation in the next age, and start there after the church is complete. That is why this verse, does not describe in this Chapter any of her seed or children as having been born at this point in history. This part of the covenant, will not give birth to her seed until the Millennial age, when she accepts the New Covenant, and this Chapter does not go that far forward in history. As Paul tells us in Romans, once the fullness of the gentiles has come in, then all Israel will be saved—with the Gentiles added to the promises. The Jews will be grafted back into the root of the Abrahamic Covenant at that time, because of the promises to the Fathers, and the world will also get earthly salvation through them, by also being adopted in.

Not Hagar, but Keturah When Earthly Seed is Born

In the interpretation, which includes two women, we had first thought that what we were seeing with the woman on foot, was the Hagar or Jewish portion of the woman in this Chapter, which is the Jerusalem below that is described by Paul in Gal Chapter 4. But we eventually realized that cannot be exactly true without some change at some point, because Hagar represents the Jews under the law, and Paul tells us that the blessing will not come from the Mosaic law.

The spirit of the law, instead of the literal law, was made possible because of the blood of the Covenant that Christ had secured on the cross. When the earthly blessings begin in the next age, it will be the nation of Israel that the pouring out of the spirit will first come to before it goes to the world, but the blessing will not come from the law covenant, it will come from the blood of the New Covenant. Because of that, the woman on foot in the vision represents the earthly salvation and Israel, but she has no children yet. The first woman represents the promise the sand of the sea shore, which is the earthly blessing of the Abrahamic covenant, and that is the salvation that Israel will get after she accepts the blessing of the New Covenant. Hagar or Israel, will then be changed to Keturah. She will be the channel of the earthly blessing at the time of the kingdom, and for that reason the Jews also have to be preserved through the 1260 years—but to get that blessing they will have to accept the New Covenant.

The symbol of Hagar, will change to the symbol of Keturah at the start of the kingdom, because the Old law covenant will not be in effect anymore—the New Law covenant which is the spirit of the law has replaced it. Israel must accept that change, and accept the New Covenant at that time. The woman on foot, represents the Abrahamic Covenant blessing that will be for the world in the next age, and since Israel as a nation will be a key and needed part of that blessing, they will also be preserved through that dark time. The situation with Israel, is like the situation with the woman with the two wings, in that she does not represent the church, but the church carries and preaches about the knowledge of the heavenly covenant that the woman with wings represents.

Once Jerusalem was destroyed, and the Jews were scattered all over the Empire, Satan didn't do that much to the Jews, until much later in history, in that most of the time they were allowed to practice their religion freely—without the temple, because Christ had replaced all of the sacrifices of the temple. Satan evidently recognized that they were no longer being used by God at that time, and so he didn't concentrate much effort against them until much later in history, which was when he realized that they were going to be the nucleus of the soon to come earthly kingdom. That is why the woman is allowed to flee into the wilderness where she was to be protected for the 1260 years, which we will see is the same place or time of protection that the other woman with the two wings has.

The Woman Flying With Two Wings

The woman in verse 14 is different, and has two wings, and she “flies into her place”, and therefore she represents the heavenly portion of the covenant, and through the promise of the Abrahamic Covenant, she carries the “stars of heaven part of the covenant”. We see that her seed is being born at the same time that she is seen flying, because they are mentioned in verse 17, where it tells us that they are those who keep the commandments of God, and who hold the testimony of Jesus.

We believe that the flying woman being pursued by the dragon is a historical fact, as we will explain shortly. Some think that because Satan was pursuing the woman that she cannot be a covenant, and that she must be the church. Notice that the woman, and the seed of the woman are two different symbols. The seed of the woman are the children of the covenant, and they are those who are being faithful to Christ—the Gospel Age church. That the Gospel Age church is already represented in the symbol of the seed of the woman, should show us that the woman cannot symbolize the church, but she has to be the stars of heaven part of the covenant, that gives birth to the seed of the covenant— which is the church!

Satan Trying to Destroy Knowledge of Salvation

So, how do we answer the objection that Satan could not chase after a covenant? It's a quite simple explanation, in that Satan did try to do away with the knowledge of the New Covenant. That was his first tactic, in that he began to try to corrupt the knowledge of the covenant, with superstition, Gnosticism, and arguments from Paganism. Unfortunately he succeeded in the church, corrupting many of the salvation doctrines.

When the Roman Empire accepted Christianity, that opened up the way for the dragon or the Roman Empire, to directly pursue after and attack the knowledge of the covenant, and Satan was then able to call for church councils, that with out a doubt corrupted the knowledge of that covenant. At that time, the Dragon still equals Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he transfers his throne to the Christianized beast. The Trinity doctrine, and the beginnings of the doctrine of the mass, were forced on the church by those councils, starting in 325. The flood of Pagan Doctrine, was destroying the knowledge of faithful Christianity, and the salvation that had been brought to the early church, as is described later in this Chapter. The decree in 534-539 by Justinian, that gave Papacy control over the doctrines in both halves of the Empire, forced the faithful church to go into hiding, like Elijah, and forced some to even leave the Empire. As we will see, when Satan found that the corruption of the church could not fully defeat the understanding of the covenant, that is when he became angry, and he began to directly pursue and try to kill the seed or offspring of the woman, which is the church.

He also used the power of the Roman Empire against the church, during the first couple of centuries, trying to literally kill it off.

War in Heaven

Rev 12:7 And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels waging war with the dragon. The dragon and his angels waged war,

War in Heaven Fought Since fall in Garden Was Won With Blood of Cross

In verse 7, we see that the war in heaven, which was between the dragon “Satan” and Michael and his angels, had to have begun prior to the crucifixion. The reason for the idea that the war had begun before the crucifixion, is that the context of the description of the battle, indicates that the war was won because of the blood of the Lamb—which was supplied on the cross in 33AD, Rev 12:11. The angels battling for Michael, would therefore include the Ancient Worthies, prophets, even angels, and all who fought for righteousness throughout the time of the patriarchs and the Jewish age. The war would likewise include the events of the time of the ministry of Christ and the Apostles. The important thing to recognize here, is that the war was won when Christ paid the price for us on the cross. In a sense, the war in heaven began in the garden of Eden, when Satan deliberately deceived the woman, and it has continued ever since.

There are several other reasons for the conclusion that this war occurred prior to the time of Christ’s ministry. One important point, is that Michael is the name that Christ was using before the crucifixion, and he was not called Christ until afterward. He is still called Michael in Rev 12, because prior to the crucifixion during the time of the war with Satan, that was his name! We are told in this prophecy, that they overcame Satan by the blood of the Lamb, and we will see later in the detailed notes, that this victory was won or guaranteed upon the cross, when the blood of the New Covenant was provided. The victory didn’t mean all of God’s enemies would be defeated instantly, but it meant that their defeat was certain, and that the final overcoming and victory for the church was certain. The blood of Christ guaranteed that the struggle of the church through the entire Gospel Age, would be successful. There are many scriptures that tell us that very same thing in the New Testament, which we will quote in the expanded explanation of this Chapter. That is why this section of verses says that, “now is come the salvation of God”, because the salvation that nullified Satan, was immediately available for the church after Pentecost.

All Power & Authority Given to Christ Because of Victory

Likewise, the power and kingdom of God, and great authority were given to Christ, because of what he had accomplished at the First Advent. The scriptures tell us, that he was placed in authority above all other beings in the heavenly realm, at the First Advent. It’s true that he didn’t begin to exercise kingdom power on the earth yet at that time, but the promise of that future power, was given to him after he was resurrected, and he is waiting for the time that the earth will be made the footstool for his feet. See detailed notes for the actual scriptures that say that.

Satan is only Defeated in the Ecclesiastical Heavens

Because the war in heaven was won, doesn't mean that Satan was totally defeated. It only meant that he was not able to accuse us in the Ecclesiastical heavens before God anymore. The reason is that we now have Christ sitting on the right hand of the Father pleading our case for us, and he is providing the robe of righteousness for us. That is why it is very important, that we recognize that it was Christ who was caught up to God and his throne. That Satan was figuratively cast into the earth, shows us that while our heavenly salvation has been won and made sure, Satan is going to do his best to trip us up, and to get us to renounce our salvation. History shows that even though he is only able to work on the earth now, he has unfortunately defeated a large portion of those who have tried to follow Christ.

That is what he was doing when he was chasing after the woman, trying to eradicate the knowledge of the covenant with the flood of error, and even with physical violence. He was trying to get the church to renounce or forget the salvation that was provided by Christ, and unfortunately many did. He has never given up trying to accomplish the corruption of the true knowledge of salvation, and he also does not hesitate to kill the seed or offspring of the woman when he can. He has been very successful in covering up the true knowledge of what Christ has accomplished for us all through the Gospel Age. As we will see in Revelation Chapter 13, he was going to use the power of Rome to persecute and kill the saints throughout the entire age. Even worse, he caused many to fall into error, and then he used them to persecute and kill the other faithful saints who still held the truth.

Rev 12:8 and they were not strong enough, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Satan is Figuratively Cast Out of the Ecclesiastical Heavens

In verses 8-9, where we see that Satan is cast out, the first temptation was to view this as happening on this end of the age, either in 1799 or 1874 or 1914 or even later. There is a contextual problem that keeps us from doing that, that is found in verses 13-14, which shows that after Satan was cast out, he "then" persecuted the woman who "then" flew into the wilderness, where she was to be nourished and protected "for 1260 years". Because of that context, we see that the casting down had to of occurred before the 1260 years, which began counting in 539AD. Look at the full explanation, where we have many other scriptures, that tell us the casting out of Satan happened at the First Advent in 33AD. Satan being cast out of heaven figuratively, means that as long as we keep our faith in the blood of Christ, he is blocked from accusing us before the Heavenly Father, like he did to Job.

We will also find that the four attributes of Satan named in these verses, are the exact evil opposites of God's four glorious attributes. Those four different evil characteristics of Satan, are used separately in different places in prophecy, and their usage gives us clues as to what he is doing wrong in each place.

Rev 12:10 *Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,
"Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, he who accuses them before our God day and night.*

Rev 12:11 "And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death.

The dragon being cast down, was not Pagan Rome being knocked out of power. That was an idea that Constantine had, where he said that he had defeated the dragon, or Pagan Rome. That wrong idea is what led to a church and state system later on, where they thought that Christ's kingdom had come, because Satan was cast down. Pagan Rome did lose its power from 313 to 381, but that was not what the casting down of the dragon was. The fall of the dragon, was referring to the core of the dragon symbol, which was pure Satan without his heads and horns, and his fall was from what Christ did with the blood of the Lamb, which was protecting the church from 33AD and onward. That is why Constantine was wrong, and we can prove that by looking at Rev 13:1, where we again see the dragon symbol, which is pure Satan. Satan who is our enemy, was waiting for Western Rome to come back together, at least to the point where he could take control of it again, and attack the church. At that time, the Dragon still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast.

The Blood of Christ If We Keep Faith In It Guarantees Our Success

In verses 10-11, we see that this victory brought the salvation and strength and the kingdom of God, and the power of Christ. This is said to be because Satan had been cast down and the victory won, because of the blood of the Lamb. We will see later that a major part of what was accomplished by the blood of the Lamb, was that Satan could no longer accuse us before God. Because Christ is sitting at God's right hand and pleading our case for us, figuratively Satan is cast out of the heavens. The only way we can fail and wind up in the Great Company, is if he gets us to give up the knowledge of what Christ's blood has done for us, which unfortunately has happened to many during the time of the Gospel age, which was when they accepted the doctrine of the mass or other doctrines that have diminished the value of the blood of Christ. We pray that we do not do the same thing in a more subtle manner, and that we keep the knowledge of Christ's blood in front of us always, with nothing in our theology to detract from what Christ has done for us and the world.

Rev 12:12 "For this reason, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has only a short time."

Since Satan Can't Corrupt the Faithful He Resorts to Physical Violence

Verse 12, gives us a warning and an indication as to what Satan was going to do next. Because he can no longer accuse us before God if we are faithful to the blood of Christ, he then begins an actual and even more terrible literal war against "the seed" of the woman. For that reason, we see that the "earth" and the "sea" are warned of the terrible woes that were going to come against them. We will see in great detail, the fulfillment of those extreme woes and trouble later in Rev Chapter 13, where we see the seven-headed beast come up out of the "sea", and again later where the two-horned beast comes up out of the "earth". The two-horned beast helped create the Image of the Beast in 799-800, which over time grew an eighth Theocracy head, and that eighth head murdered as many of the saints as it could.

The Flying Woman

Rev 12:13 And when the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. 14 But the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she could fly into the wilderness to her place, where she was nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. 15 And the serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood. 16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and drank up the river which the dragon poured out of his mouth.

Two Different Types of Water Used to Attack

We notice that the attacks with the flood of water, symbolically describes both kinds of attacks in this Chapter, because it uses both the symbol of the serpent who is the deceiver, using false doctrines and lies, and the symbol of the dragon which is Satan's civil power that he controlled. The deceiver part was trying to corrupt the knowledge of the covenant with Pagan error, and the dragon part was using the power of Rome, as well as different hordes of Barbarians to literally try to wipe out the faithful saints. The deceiver part of water, was never swallowed up as we explain in the detailed notes, but the civil power of the dragon part was swallowed up by the earth. The error created by the deceiver part still exists today.

Protecting the Woman With Two Wings

In verses 13-14, we see that after Satan realized that when he no longer had a standing or the ability to accuse us before God anymore, he tried to drown out the knowledge of the covenant. That was the time that the woman was given the two wings, with which she was to fly into the wilderness, so that she could be nourished and protected for the 1260 years, along with her seed or children of the covenant. The Roman Empire was under the control of a Pagan Emperor in 303AD, and they tried to kill off all the Christians that wouldn't denounce their faith. That persecution lasted until 313, which was when Constantine recognized Christianity. That was the earth or society opening up its mouth and rejecting the persecution and killing of Christians. In that manner, the flood of Pagan doctrine and the Pagans that had been killing the church, were swallowed up, by stopping them from doing anything against the church anymore at that time. Those who tried to continue those attacks were arrested or killed.

The two wings are not only the Old and the New Testament, but we believe that the Holy spirit is a big part of the help that the woman with the two wings received. The verb here actually means "to fly", where the one in verse 6, means to "run on foot or flee". For that reason, we are believe that this verse is showing us the heavenly or stars of heaven part of the Abrahamic covenant, and the persecution that the seed of the church has definitely received during the entire Gospel Age.

The Developing of the Jerusalem Above

She is the Jerusalem above in the heavens, which is the mother of us all, as Paul tells us in Chapter 4 of Galatians. The earlier vision of the woman fleeing on foot, is showing us the earthly part of the Abrahamic covenant, or the sand of the seashore part, which is still going to be offered to Israel, but that will be only in the future when they are fully restored to favor with God. The world will then be able to be grafted into that salvation, and receive the earthly blessing also. That portion of the covenant also has to be preserved and protected all during that terrible and dark time, so that it will be available when the church is completed.

The Jerusalem above, is being assembled by the addition of each faithful member, until it is complete. Then it is shown coming down to the earth, ready to bless all who will accept the kingdom help and restoration that is due then.

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wishes take the water of life without cost. NASU

In the beginning of Chapter 13, which is pointing us to just before 539AD, we see the start of a new attack against the seed of the woman, that was to be worse than the persecutions that had just ceased. The reason was that the beast that came up out of the sea, with the head that was healed in 539AD, was the return of Rome to power just after it had been overrun by Barbarians in about 476AD. We will explain in more detail later in the full notes, why this vision must be happening just before 539AD, but essentially the context of Chapter 13 tells us that the beast's head was healed before the 1260 years of the power of the beast could begin. The scriptures tell us that after it was healed it was given the 42 months of power, which is 1260 years from 539 – 1799AD. From 799-1179AD onward, we will later see that there was an eighth head created, which lasted until 1799AD and we will explain that history in the full Chapter 17 notes. The first seven heads were Roman, but the eighth head was not a Roman government, but it had sprang up from German tribes. The eighth head was a theocracy, because Papacy had taken control over the Emperor and the kings in 1122-1179.

The terrible problem that we will be shown in Chapter 13, is that we will see Papacy eventually able to use the power of the Roman beast, and the internal persecutions that this union of church and state brought, was much worse than what had occurred from civil Rome!

Chapter 13 Abbreviated Terrible Beasts

Rev 12:17 So the dragon was enraged with the woman, and went off to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

First Beast

13:1 And the dragon stood on the sand of the seashore.

Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns were ten diadems, and on his heads were blasphemous names.

Restored Roman Beast With Seventh Head Coming out of Sea of Mankind

The beast is seen here, coming up out of a chaotic and unstable society, which was because the Roman Empire had collapsed and there was no stable government.

Because Satan was not able to defeat the woman, who symbolized the knowledge of the covenant, he then became angry and began a new attack, trying to defeat or kill her seed—the seed of the Abrahamic Covenant.

Satan had not defeated the church up to that point in time, and so he decided to make Christianity the main religion of the Empire. The beast that John saw coming up out of the sea, was the result of the events that started when Constantine recognized Christianity in 313AD—starting to bring the seventh so called Christianized head into existence and power. The church did not have much power and influence with the new beast yet at that early time, but it wasn't long before it gained more power.

In 381, Theodosius completed the development of the seventh Christianized head, by banning all religion, except the so called Orthodox religion in the Empire. Paganism was banned and so was the Arian doctrine, which was all who were fighting against the Trinity at that time. That is the seventh head, that John later sees as having been smitten, which happened in 476AD, which was when Rome was overran by barbarians.

In Rev 13:1, when John see the beast coming back to life, that is when the smitten head was healed, which was in 539AD. Some commentaries say that the head was actually slain, and then restored. That is actually true, since Rome was completely disintegrated at the time. Rome and Ravenna, were reconquered by the Roman army and that removed the Arians out of the city of Rome, and out of the Empire—leaving no one to restrain Papacy anymore. Since Papacy was in the seat of power of the old Roman Empire, which was the city of Rome, that was when that evil system began its climb to power. The climb to power later led to the making of the image of the beast in 799-800, and the eighth head in about 1179. The image became even more evil, when Papacy took control of it in 1122-1179, and it began to kill what it considered to be heretics.

After the Chapter identifies the beast, as having some of the different elements of all four of the beasts that Daniel had seen. The view that John has, is looking backwards into history: he first sees the Roman Empire, then he sees Greece, then Media-Persia, and Babylon. The beast seen in Revelation, has elements and attributes adopted from the three previous empires.

Verse two then tells us that the dragon gave the beast his seat, power, and authority. At that time, the Dragon still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. That is exactly what Satan did over a period of time. He first recognized Christianity as a legal religion, and then he gave it control and “authority” over all of the religion in the Empire, by codifying and giving Papacy control of all of the doctrines in the Empire. Papacy could then call on the “power” of the army to enforce his doctrinal control, which was corrupted with Pagan doctrines. After Rome had fallen and then recovered, Papacy then had control of the “seat” of the Old Roman Empire. Being in that seat, and having been given the authority over all doctrine, is what created Papacy and elevated him over all of the other bishops.

History up to Eighth Head

Over the course of time, Satan gave more and more power over to the Christianized beast, because Constantine had transferred the Capital of Rome to Constantinople, and left Papacy in control of the original seat of power in the West. Once Papacy had the seat of power and the Arians were gone, he gradually over time got more and more power and control over the city and the surrounding countryside. After 799-800, when he crowned Charlemagne, he kept working until he had all the original power and authority of the Pagan Dragon in 1122-1179. The Dragon still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. Once Papacy had all that power, that is when the Image of the Beast, acquired the eighth head. The new head was a Theocracy, because Papacy was controlling the civil government of the beast. We will go into more detail regarding that, as we explain more of this Chapter, especially in the detailed notes.

2 Thess 2:8-11 (9 that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and <sup>8</sup>signs and false wonders, 10 and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. NASU

When it tells us that the Christianized beast had a head smitten and then healed, that fit’s exactly with history—the smitten head existed from 476 to 539AD, when it was healed. The mouth speaking great things, was added to the beast, when Papacy was made the spokesman and the decider of religious doctrine for the entire East and West church, just prior to 539AD in 534AD. From 539 and onward, is where the 1260 years began, and it ended in 1799AD.

The New Christianized Beast Satan Was Using

Because Rome between 313 and 476AD had become Christianized, that changed the symbolism we saw earlier in Chapter 12, from a dragon to a beast. We are not saying that the dragon of Satan did not exist anymore, because we see it pictured as a separate symbol from the beast that was coming up out of the sea. At that time, the Dragon still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. The dragon which is Satan, married the civil power to ecclesiasticism which was largely Pagan in doctrine, which it never lost through its entire history. All four aspects of Satan are still at work, corrupting truth and controlling the world. The difference is that Satan had switched in 313AD from controlling the Pagan Roman Empire, to controlling the Empire that had a Christianized government. As we just explained, there were several steps after 313, like 381, the head smitten in 476, and then the restoration of the head and beast in 539. Satan had corrupted the church with false doctrines so that it was doing his work, and it was attacking the faithful Arian saints, and it was killing and driving them out of the Empire because they wouldn't submit.

For that reason, the symbol being used, changed from a Pagan dragon, to a terrible Christianized beast. It still had all of Satan's original accessories of the horns, heads, etc. on the new beast, because Satan had given the Christianized Empire the power of his throne. The new beast was symbolizing the Roman Empire, but in a Christian form, instead of a Pagan form. We know that Satan was behind this new beast, and that it had descended from the Pagan dragon, because it tells us that Satan who is represented by the dragon, had given the new beast his seat of power, which was the old Pagan Roman Empire's original capital. After he did that, we see the seven heads and the ten horns on the beast, and that shows us the transfer of the power of Satan's throne.

Rev 13:2-4 (2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority. 3 I saw one of his heads as if it had been slain, and his fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast; 4 they worshiped the dragon because he gave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who is able to wage war with him?" NASU

Crowns Move From Heads to Horns

In Chapter 13, we see the dragon which is Satan, restoring the Christianized Roman beast back into existence out of the sea or people. The seventh head, which was a new form of Roman government, was seen as having been smitten in this Chapter, and then its described as having been healed when it came back into existence by 539AD. We know what this beast is, because of the description of the 10 horns and seven heads. One important thing that we see here, is that the crowns are not on the heads anymore after the recovery of Rome, but that they have moved to the ten horns. That is an important historical difference, because the heads represented seven different forms of governments, the seventh being Christianized Rome.

The resurrected seventh beast, is different now than it was before it was overran by Barbarians, because the crowns moved to the horns. The reason for that is that the central government of Rome was not in total unified control of the Empire, but the Empire was now made up of individual governments that were unified around Rome for protection, but who had kept a certain amount of independence. Rome had lost some of the central control before it was overran, but after the restoration the central control was gone, because there was no Emperor, and there would not be one until 799-800AD, when Charlemagne was crowned Emperor by the Pope. Another interesting thing is that the horns are named first, and then the seven heads are named last. As the beast came up out of the water, the horns would have appeared first, and then the heads. That is exactly what happened, in that the shattered Roman Empire developed separate countries first, before the healing of the seventh head was accomplished.

We are again, going to insert more information about the dragon and the beast from the detailed notes, because of the importance of understanding those symbols and what they are showing us.

Dragon

The symbol of the dragon is the same as the woman, in that the vision of the Dragon in verse 3, covers the entire history of the dragon. The dragon has seven heads, which represent seven different kingdoms that will have ruled over Israel's land and people, and those heads each represented a different kind of government. The dragon symbol by itself, is Satan, and that is why, when the dragon is thrown down, we are seeing the pure Satan symbol being defeated—which is why it says that they overcame him with the blood of the lamb. The Pagan part of the dragon that fell, is the sixth head, which was the Pagan government—that only made room for the seventh head, which was the Apostate Christianized beast. That is why we can see the pure symbol of Satan, who is our enemy, waiting for the Apostate Christianized beast to come back up out of the sea of mankind, because he wants to make sure he has control of the seventh head again. In Chapter 17, we will present two different methods of showing who the heads are, but they both come to the same conclusion, in that the sixth head was in power at the time of Apostle John, just as the angel tells us in Chapter 17.

Ten Horns

If we look at the symbolic meaning of ten horns on the dragon, we then can fit the civil power of the beast into any point in history.

“E.W. Bullinger- PART II ITS SPIRITUAL SIGNIFICANCE-Ten ANTICHRIST'S WORLD-POWER

ANTICHRIST'S WORLD-POWER, is comprised in the ten kingdoms, symbolized by the ten toes on the feet of the Image of Nebuchadnezzar's dream (Dan 2:41), and by the ten horns of the fourth beast of Daniel's vision (Dan 7:7,20,24, etc.; Rev 12:3, 13:1, 17:3,7,12).”

If we take the meaning that is given by Bullinger, we then find that the ten horns will fit into history at any place where that evil system had control over the nations. In other words, the ten horns symbolize the full civil power that Satan's system had, at any point in the dragon's existence. If we see the dragon at the time of the early church, the ten horns would be the power of the Pagan Roman Empire. When we see the dragon in Chapter 13, he has transferred the horns and heads onto the Christianized beast, which was the Roman Empire after 333AD. At that time, the Dragon still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. If we see it at a later time, then they are the kings of the church state system that Papacy got control of during the time of 799-1179AD. The only time that there were ten literal countries, seems to be at the 539 time.

To prove that the ten horns have to equal the total civil power, we point to Dan 7:7-8, we see that the beast is described as having ten horn, and that description was given before the little horn came up, and so the prophecy has to include the time that the beast was a Pagan beast, which had ten horns also. So unless we want to think that the Pagan Roman Empire only had ten kingdoms, we need to see that ten represents the total civil power.

Satan Gives his Throne To the New Beast

In Chapter 13, we will see the dragon give his throne to the beast, and at that time the beast will then have the same symbols of the heads and horns, that we originally saw on the dragon in Chapter 12. There is no mention of the horns or heads on the dragon at that later time in Chapter 13, because they were moved to the new Christianized beast when Satan gave that beast his throne. Satan is still controlling, the Christianized beast as we will see. The throne he gave to the new beast was the original civil power of Pagan Rome, and the symbols of the heads and the horns continued with the new form of the Empire when Rome became Christianized. The seventh head was formed, by the change of government, which occurred when Rome became Christianized, probably at the 381 date. That beast lasted in one form or another, until all the Protestant kings were destroyed in WW1, but a lot of the kings earlier on had deserted Papacy in 1799AD. When he gave the power of the throne to the Christianized Roman Empire, Satan retained his dragon symbol for himself, and we see that same symbol used all through the rest of Revelation, but he's not described with the seven heads or the 10 horns anymore after Rev 12:3, even though he is still controlling the ten horns of power all through the age.

In Rev 12:3, the dragon symbol with the heads and the horns, represents Pagan Rome, but what we need to recognize is that the dragon symbol without the heads and horns, as he is seen later in Revelation, is still Satan. At that time, the Dragon still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. The seven heads and the ten horns that the dragon had in Revelation 12:3, were placed onto his Dragon symbol, to show that he was controlling both the civil power of the Pagan Roman Empire, and the later version of the Empire which was the Christianized version.

In Rev 12:3, the dragon is symbolic of Satan and Pagan Rome that he was controlling. The crowns were still on the heads at that time, showing that central Rome was in full control. This is the Roman dragon that existed at the time of the First Advent. At the time of John at the First Advent, the sixth one was in power. The traditional view moves the sixth head to the time of the John class on this end of the age, and we don't believe that it's correct to do that.

Seventh & Eighth Heads

The seventh head of the beast that was to come after the time of John, was the Christianized beast that began in 313 BC, and which fully developed its head by 381. It was smitten when Rome fell in 476, but it was restored in 539, and Papacy began his climb to power at that same date. The Image was formed when the Pope crowned Charlemagne in 799-800, but Papacy was not able to control image until the time of the eighth head. The first seven heads were Roman but the eighth head was not a Roman government, but it had sprang up from German tribes. The eighth head of the Image of the Beast was formed in 1122-1179, which was when Papacy gained the upper hand over the Emperor, and that is the same beast that is seen in Chapter 17 with the harlot riding it. Chapter seventeen starts later than what we see in the latter half of 13, where the image was shown being formed—both Chapters overlap and they both extend to the time of the killing and murder of the saints. 2 Thess 2:8-11 (9 that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, 10 and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. NASU

The supremacy of the Papacy was started in motion, when Charlemagne was crowned by the Pope, but as history shows, it took some time for that control and power to become a reality, which again was about 1122-1179. Chapter seventeen takes us further down the stream of time, to the time that the ten horns of the kings took their power back in 1799AD, and begin to burn the harlot with fire.

Rev 13:2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority.

Rome Adopted Characteristics of All Previous Empires It Conquered

That the beast was made up of parts of a leopard, bear, and lion, shows us that it had adopted several characteristics from the three previous Empires of Babylon, the Medes and Persians, and Greece. Those are the characteristics that Daniel saw on the four beasts that were seen coming up out of the sea. That the dragon or Satan, had given the beast his power, throne, and great authority, shows that Satan was supporting and controlling this so called Christianized beast. The revived Empire, was going to be the next and the most terrible weapon against the seed of the woman. In the previous Chapter, the sea and the earth were warned of the great woe that was coming, because of Satan having come down to them. That this first beast is coming back out of the sea, gives us the indication that this is the sea part of the warning that was given in Chapter 12. We will see the earth part, when we see the two-horned beast later in this Chapter.

The Slain Head

Rev 13:3-4 (3 I saw one of his heads as if it had been slain, and his fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast; 4 they worshiped the dragon because he gave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who is able to wage war with him?"

Smitten Head Equals

If Conclusion is After 1799AD Then Wrong Interpretation About What will Happen is Created

If we ignore that context, and place the smiting and healing of the head after 1799AD, then we find ourselves looking for the fulfillment of all of these Chapters future, rather than during the 1260 years where they have already been fulfilled. Those who are waiting for the beast to come back to life after the loss of the kings in both 1799 and 1914, probably don't think about it, but they have been waiting for that to happen for 218 years at the date of this writing in 2017AD. That it has not happened yet should be an indication that something is being looked at incorrectly. We will find a similar problem with the historical location of the heads in Chapter 17, which is causing a wrong prophetic expectation.

Satan Was Supporting The New & So Called Christian Empire

When they were worshipping the Roman beast, they didn't know that they were worshipping Satan, who had given his power and throne to it. Once the Roman Empire had come back together again, there was no power that was able to resist it after that. It gradually took control over the surrounding nations again, especially with the help of Papacy who was supporting it. The sixth head of Pagan Rome had fallen, and Satan had a new and willing candidate, which was the seventh head of the Apostate Christian church.

Rev 13:5-6 (5 There was given to him a mouth speaking arrogant words and blasphemies, and authority to act for forty-two months was given to him. 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, those who dwell in heaven.

Justinian Gave Papacy Doctrinal Control of Church in 534 According to Adventists

The mouth that was given to this beast, was Papacy in 534. At the point in time that we are looking at, prior to 539AD, Papacy did not have control over the beast as he did later, which is shown symbolically by the harlot riding and controlling the beast in Chapter 17. So, all the power he has in 539AD, is a voice with the Emperor, where he could ask for support from the Empire, such as the attacks against the Arians in Ravenna, or he could give his support to the Emperor in return. He also had control of what doctrines were to be held by the entire church, and that control began in about 534AD or shortly afterward.

Rev 13:7 It was also given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them, and authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation was given to him.

Daniel Describes the Same Evil Power And the War Against the Saints

From early on in its history, Papacy was uttering blasphemous doctrines, and he was speaking against those who dwell in heaven. That he was against those who dwell in heaven, was not only against God and our Lord, but was against all who dwell in the spiritual heavens, including the faithful church. That is the time-period during which Papacy began to physically attack those who were resisting the doctrinal changes, that were leading the church into darkness—using the Roman Empire’s armies to force those doctrines on to the people. The date 538-539AD, is exactly when Papacy and the Emperor attacked the remaining Arians, who were against the Trinity doctrine with the army. That event marks where the church began to use civil power to enforce the adoption of their erroneous doctrines, and that is one reason why the 1260 years begins to count from there. That is the beginning of the new attacks that we were warned about in Rev 12:17.

The beast with the mouth speaking great things, is the same beast that we see in Chapter 7 of Daniel, that was said to be making war with the saints, and Daniel was told that the beast would be overcoming the saints for 3.5 times or 1260 years. That tells us, that there should be no doubt about what church system and doctrines are guilty of warring against the faithful saints.

Papacy was given authority in 534AD, over all tribes, people, tongues, and nations, and that is exactly what history confirms happened, because according to the Adventists, starting in 539AD, he requested the Roman army to take control of the Arians, and remove them from the Empire. From that date onward, Papacy began his rapid rise to power.

Rev 13:8 All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been slain.

The Worship of the Evil Beast

It is a historical fact, that everyone that lived in that Empire worshiped it, except those who knew that it was the great falling away that had been predicted to come. It was a self-perpetuating system, and as time went on, those who were in power in both the ecclesiastical and the civil power, did not want to have anything change because it was bringing them wealth and power.

Rev 13:9-10 (9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10 If anyone is destined for captivity, to captivity he goes; if anyone kills with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is the perseverance and the faith of the saints.

Warning to Those with Spiritual Hearing

If anyone has an ear to hear, is the same admonition that is given after the end of each of the messages to the seven churches. This message is given here again, because of the danger of the system that was just described. If you do not pay attention to this warning, you can lose your crown and wind up in the Great Company, or even worse in the second death.

Keep Faith in the Blood of the Lamb

They are warned that if they don't pay attention, they will wind up in captivity to this evil system. The captivity is because of the use of corrupt doctrines that come from Satan's flood of symbolic water that he has sent out trying to destroy the knowledge of the covenants. We also need to stay faithful to the blood of the Lamb.

The saints are not to use carnal weapons like a sword, because killing is not God's way for the church. That is why it tells us that faith is the patient endurance of the saints. No matter what they do to us, we need to have faith that God will avenge us, and make everything right for us in the end, Rev 6:11. These warnings are not only about the beast of Chapter 13, which is an outline covering the entire history of the evil system, but they are also about what we are going to see in the second half of this Chapter.

Two-horned Beast

Rev 13:11 Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb and he spoke as a dragon.

Don't Miss That This is Another Vision

This beast is coming up out of the earth, which represents a stable government, and is shown growing in power within that government or society.

The "I saw", breaks this section from the previous vision. In other words, this is not something that happens after the 1260 years, that was described in the previous section. This section is going to show us new, worse, and more detailed events that are going to occur during the 1260 years.

Some believe that this is England and Ireland, but we don't agree. This beast exercises all of the power of the first beast, which was Rome, and England never did that. See the detailed notes for the reasoning as to why that is not correct.

Another important point here, is that this beast spoke like a dragon. In Rev 16:13-14, we see three evil characters, the beast, the false prophet, and the dragon, uttering three unclean spirits. We will present evidence later on, that the three unclean spirits are three lies from the dragon Satan, the beast or civil power, and the false prophet or false doctrines of the evil system. Those lies continue all of the way to the end, where the false system will be removed in chapter 19. Those three lies will draw this evil system to the final battle of Armageddon. We will discuss what the lies are in the explanation of those verses of chapter 16.

What are the Two Horns When Does this Beast Exist

The next beast that we see, has two horns like a lamb, and he speaks like a dragon. This beast is a vision about the next step up in power for the Papal system. It claims to be lamb-like or Christ-like, but it speaks like a dragon, which tells us that it is controlled by Satan, and that it has civil power. The Dragon still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. When did Papacy get the civil power horn added to its ecclesiastical horn? In Daniel 7:8, we see that the little horn, that was in the midst of the other 10 horns, plucked up three of those horns. Those three horns were the Heruli, Vandals, and the Ostrogoth's. Some of the territory that belonged to those three countries, was later given to Papacy by Pepin in 754-756AD, and that is why Daniel tells us that those horns were plucked up by the little horn, which symbolizes Papacy. The plucking up of three horns, left seven horns on the beast. When Papacy took control of the lands, he had acquired a civil power horn, and that is why this beast is at that time seen with two horns—an ecclesiastical horn and a civil power horn. There is only one more step up in power left, which we will see in the latter half of this Chapter. When Pepin gave Papacy the gift of lands, that started the growth of the second horn. As time went on, that horn became so powerful, that it took control of all of the land of the symbolic ten kings. That was when the Woman began to ride the beast. With the little horn in the midst of the remaining seven, what was created was a counterfeit kingdom, of church and state.

Two Horns of Papacy

The two powers of Papacy were represented by the Papal symbols of two swords and two keys, which in symbol stated that Papacy had control over both the church and the civil power. They actually had two swords and two keys made, that symbolized that doctrine. Papacy claimed both powers, because he claimed to be the Vicar of Christ. Most significantly, the bull proclaimed, "Extra Ecclesiam nulla salus": "outside of the Church, there is no salvation". It is an form of the concept known as plenitudo potestatis (plenitude of power); it declares that those who resist the Roman Pontiff are resisting God's ordination. The bull declares that the Church must be united and the Pope was its sole and absolute head: "Therefore, of the one and only Church there is one body and one head, not two heads like a monster."

The Bull also states, "We are informed by the texts of the gospels that in this Church and in its power are two swords; namely, the spiritual and the temporal." The swords being referred to are a customary reference to the swords yielded by the Apostles upon Christ's arrest (Luke 22:38; Matthew 26:52). Early theologians believed that if there are two swords, one must be subordinate to the other. This then became a spiritual hierarchal ladder, the spiritual judges the secular "on account of its greatness and sublimity, while the lower spiritual power is judged by the higher spiritual power, etc. Thus, it was concluded, the temporal authorities must submit to the spiritual authorities, not merely on matters concerning doctrine and morality: "For with truth as our witness, it belongs to spiritual power to establish the terrestrial power and to pass judgment if it has not been good." The bull ends, "Furthermore, we declare, we proclaim, we define that it is absolutely necessary for salvation that every human creature be subject to the Roman Pontiff."

Rev 13:12 He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. And he makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.

How Did Papacy get Control Over the Roman Empire

That he exercised or had control over the beast with the healed death stroke that was described at the beginning of Chapter 13, is a historical fact. The Emperor at that time, only had full control over the Eastern part of the Empire, but not so much in the West. That is why Papacy was able to get control and influence in the Western part of the Empire, because of the power vacuum that existed at that time, and the fact that he was located in the city of Rome. Papacy had influence with the Eastern church and Empire, because of religious superstition, but he did not directly control the civil power of the Eastern Beast. The superstitious control is why it he says that he exercised the authority of the first beast in his sight. He eventually crowned Charlemagne, and that event gradually gave him more and more control over the Western Roman power, and that is the Image that we will see in a couple of verses. The eighth head was created in about 1122-1179, when Papacy completely won out over the civil power, and took control of the Empire, which then became a theocracy. The East and the West cooperated for a while, but eventually both halves had a falling out and went their separate ways.

Papacy supported the Western Empire, because it helped to support his position of control over the entire church, helping him to enforce the corrupt doctrines. Since the Empire supported him, Papacy supported the Empire, and that caused the people to support the beast or as it says, worship it.

Rev 13:13 He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down out of heaven to the earth in the presence of men.

Fiery Papal Judgments Against the People And the Kings

The making of fire to come down from heaven upon the earth, is symbolic of the Papal authority to judge and bring severe retribution upon anyone in that society that did not agree with the doctrines or with Papal authority. By this time in the Empire, he had the ability to call upon the Roman army to enforce his will upon the people. That was one of the signs that he could do in the presence of the people that made up the Roman beast.

Image of the Beast

Rev 13:14 And he deceives those who dwell on the earth because of the signs which it was given him to perform in the presence of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an Image to the beast who had the wound of the sword and has come to life.

What Formed The Image of the Beast

Because he had the authority to control the armies and to enforce his will, it appeared to the people that he had God's backing. The people had come to believe that the church and state system that was in control at that time, was the kingdom of God.

Because of that superstition, Papacy was able to convince Pepin's son Charlemagne, that he should be crowned the Emperor of the West by Papacy in 799-800AD. At that time, there was no Emperor in the West, but only in the East, where there was a woman Emperor named Ilene. There was actually a plan to have Charlemagne to marry Ilene, but she was assassinated before that could happen. That crowning brought about a new Roman Empire in the West, where none existed at that time which was more strongly controlled by Papacy, although full control took until after 1122-1179—that is when the Image with an Eighth head appeared.

Beast & Wilderness, 799 or 800?

That we see the harlot sitting on the Western Roman beast, helps us with our definition of the Image of the Beast in Chapter 13, that was created in 799-800, since that is part of the same territory that Papacy sat on or ruled over. The chronology points us to 799, but historians point us to 800, what is the correct date? We believe that the answer is that Papacy began taking control of the city and surrounding area of Rome in 799AD, by making deals with Charlemagne. That was when he was resisted by a couple of church individuals who filed charges against him, one of which may be the messenger to this church.

The Pope fled to Charlemagne, who he had made offers to previously, about a protection agreement between him and Charlemagne regarding Rome and the surrounding territory, which previously had belonged to an aristocratic class of rich rulers. In the latter part of 800, the Pope and Charlemagne came back to the city of Rome. The two who had resisted Papacies attempt at taking control of all of the civil power of the area of Rome and the land surrounding it, expected that their charges would be heard. The Pope was allowed to stand and swear that none of the charges were correct, and the two accusers were not allowed to present their side of the charges. Their supporters were immediately all killed and those two were banished. Two Days later, the Pope crowned Charlemagne, and 1000 years of the image of the beast began! See the detailed notes at the beginning of the message to the fourth church, which mainly come from Sir Isaac Newton's notes, about what happened. 2 Thess 2:8-11 (9 that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, 10 and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. NASU

That this new Western Roman Empire looked like the original, but it was not, is one reason that the Bible calls this new Empire an "Image" of the beast—it looked like it, but it really wasn't.

Rev 13:15 And it was given to him to give breath to the Image of the Beast, so that the Image of the Beast would even speak and cause as many as do not worship the Image of the Beast to be killed.

Papacy Was Able to Make the Image Kill Anyone That Didn't Support Him

Papacy gave breath or life to the Image of the Beast, by supporting it doctrinally, claiming that it was God's kingdom and that the restored empire was from God. It could speak, because of the claim that it was a theocracy, and it claimed that all of its judgments were from God, especially after it took control of the civil power. So, whenever there was anyone that it felt was a heretic, or someone who did not support the church and state system, it could take all their property and banish them. After Papacy got control of the kings, that system established the Inquisition and began to torture the so called heretics until they confessed, and then they were handed over to the government who executed them. History matches exactly what this verse says, in that anyone that did not worship or support the Image of the Beast was killed during that dark time. That was in action from about 1184AD and onward, which was the date that they established the Inquisition. That date was only about 5 years after they took full control of the kings. 2 Thess 2:8-11 (9 that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, 10 and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. NASU

The Mark of the Beast

Rev 13:16-17 (16 And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, 17 and he provides that no one will be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

A Symbolic Mark of the Beast

The mark of the beast is not a literal mark as some think. It is like the mark in their foreheads that the 144,000 are sealed with, proving that they are the Lord's. The faithful church gets a mark from the Lord on the forehead, and that symbolic mark identifies the one so marked as being a faithful follower of the Lord. The mark of the beast in the forehead, identifies the one with the mark as intellectually supporting the church and state system, and they unknowingly belong to Satan. The mark in the hand, indicates that the one that has it, works for the system, and supports it with his labor. Anyone that lived in that system, had to support it intellectually and with his labor, or they were not allowed to literally buy or sell in it. They were not able to buy or sell in the spiritual marketplace either, unless they supported that evil systems doctriners and methods. Again, the facts of history match exactly with what has been said about the evil system in this Chapter.

Rev 13:18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for the number is that of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

There are several different ways to show that the number 666 belongs to the church and state system. For a full treatment of those different ways, see the complete notes. There is too much to duplicate in this summary.

Chapter 14 Abbreviated Christ and the Completed Church

Rev 14:1 Then I looked, and behold, the Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads.

Completed 144,000

This vision is a completed picture of the Lamb (Christ), and the 144,000. They have the name of the Lamb as well as the name of the Heavenly Father written upon them. The 144,000 are the faithful ones, who are contrasted with the ones in the previous Chapter, who belonged to the great falling away and who had the name of the beast written on their forehead. The 144,000 have overcome, and won the crown of life.

Rev 14:2-3 (2 And I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, and the voice which I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps. 3 And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased from the earth.

A Song of Salvation for All

The 144,000 are singing about the New Covenant, and the message of salvation for all, that only they have learned, because the rest of the fallen church was not concerned about the salvation of anyone else, but the 144,000 are. They have been developed and trained by the Lord and the Holy spirit, so that they can work with the fallen race and restore them in the next age.

Rushing Water of Truth & Thunder

The sound of rushing water, pictures the bringing forth of truth. The sounds of harps are the harps of the 24 elders, who were each seen with a harp in Chapter 5 after the Lamb was found worthy to open the scroll. The 24 elders are the scriptures as we saw in Chapter 4. The 144,000 do not play any old tune from the bible, but they play and sing the song of salvation for all.

The peal of thunder would come from lightning, that represent the revealing of bright and strong truth, in the ecclesiastical heavens. They were singing the new song that represents the message of the Divine Plan and the New Covenant that will bring salvation to the world at the beginning of the Millennial age. That they sang the new song before the four living creatures, shows that the plan of God is perfectly balanced with the four attributes of God—which are wisdom, justice, love, and power. That they sang it before the 24 elders, shows that the Old Testament scriptures are also in harmony with that song of salvation. That only the 144,000 could learn the song, shows that there is a very difficult and high standard that must be met for anyone to be selected for the 144,000. See the detailed notes, for the list of seven attributes that are spelled out at the beginning of this chapter.

Rev 14:4-5 (4 These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they have kept themselves chaste. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased from among men as first fruits to God and to the Lamb. 5 And no lie was found in their mouth; they are blameless.

Not Literal Virgins and Redeemed from the Earth

These are virgins, should not be understood literally as the Catholics seem to have done. These are virgins, because they have not married themselves to any church or an organization, but they only follow the Lord wherever he leads them.

That these were redeemed from the earth, shows us that they are the spiritual church as seen in Chapter 5 of Revelation, where we find it stated that these were those who are purchased from among men. That they are first fruits to God and to the Lamb, shows that they are the firstborn who were saved during the Gospel Age, and they have offered themselves as first fruits to God. There were no lies found in their mouths, but they only spoke the truth. They are without fault before God and the Lamb, not because they were perfect, but because they held firm to their belief in the blood of the Lamb, which cleansed and covered them for all faults.

Three Warnings-First Angel

Rev 14:6-7 (6 And I saw another angel flying in midheaven, having an eternal Gospel to preach to those who live on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people; 7 and he said with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come; worship Him who made the heaven and the earth and sea and springs of waters.")

There is a question about the three angels seen in the midst of heaven in Rev chapter 14, one of which is bringing forth knowledge about the everlasting salvation and the other two are giving warnings to the faithful church about the fallen church system. The question has to do with whether those same three angels are later on added to the other four angels at the end of chapter 14, making a total of seven doing the punishing and harvesting at the time of the destruction of the vine of the earth. The total of seven angels of judgment and punishment, would then parallel the count of seven angels in the prophecy of Ezekiel chapter 9, which has the man with the writers inkhorn and the six others with slaughter weapons. The six men in Ezekiel chapter 9 with slaughter weapons, slay all who did not receive the mark of the Lord in their foreheads—with the man with the writers inkhorn being the seventh, who is symbolic of the Lord Jesus, and he is marking the faithful in the forehead with his mark all through the Gospel Age.

If we can show that there is a total of seven angels working through the entire age, and that they are not only at the end of the age where we see the judgment and punishment taking place, then we will be proving that the Man with the Writers Inkhorn, and the six with slaughter weapons, is an exact parallel of this chapter, and we will see that picture will then fit with the seven bowls of wrath. It's easy to show that there are seven angels involved in this chapter, if we count the first three angels as being included in the punishment, because if their warnings are ignored, then they will be three of the men with slaughter weapons.

For a detailed look at how these seven angels are link directly to the Ezekiel vision of chapter nine, you will need to go to the detailed notes. In the detailed notes, we also show that the messengers to the seven churches, are most likely the same angels that we see here. In this chapter, we believe that the three angels that we see in the midst of heaven, are angels one, two, and three, of churches, one through three. The four angels starting with our Lord on the cloud, that are found at the closing scenes of this chapter, are also most likely related to the seven angels who are given the bowls of wrath to pour out. The only difference is that the seven angels that are given the seven bowls, are most likely the same angels as the seven messengers, but when we see the bowls brought out, that is after the messengers had completed their earthly work, and they are on the other side of the veil at the time of judgment and punishment.

We believe that these first three angels, are three of the seven angels, but there is some explanation needed regarding how these three angels who are seen at a much earlier time, are able to participate as being members of the seven punishing angels at the end of the age. All three angels that we are looking at now, issued several warnings to the church about the worsening corruption of the church, and the faithful were told what not to do or go along with. Because the fallen church system during the time of their 1260 years of power over the faithful church, had violated the warnings from all three angels, then at the end of chapter 14 we see that their sinful violations brought the harvest time punishments upon them—which is shown by the casting of the vine into the winepress.

One difficulty that is causing a problem for the interpretation of this chapter, is because of how chapter 14:6-12 is being looked at by many brethren. A lot of brethren are still waiting for the creation of the image of the beast. Our understand is that the Christianized Roman beast came into existence during the time of 313-539 AD, just before the start of the 1260 years that the system was to be in power. The beast wounded by the sword, was the Western Roman beast, which was overran by barbarians in 476 AD. We also saw that the image came into existence later on, when Papacy symbolized by the two horned beast had talked Charlemagne into creating a new Western Empire in 799 AD. Because of that understanding, we don't feel that those symbols are still going to come into existence like many brethren do. The Christianized Roman beast still existed in the East at the time of the creation of the image, as is actually stated in the later part of chapter 13, where it is said that the image was created in the sight of the first beast. Rev 13:14 And those who are on the earth are turned from the true way by him through the signs which he was given power to do before the beast; giving orders to those who are on the earth to make an image to the beast, who was wounded by the sword, and came to life. BBE

Another difficulty, is that most brethren believe that when the second angel says that Babylon has fallen, they believe that the message about Babylon falling is the same thing and at the same time of the complete falling and destruction of Great Babylon in chapter 18. We see in chapter 14, that what is meant when it says Great Babylon has fallen, is that she had fallen morally and not literally—you can fall either literally to your destruction or you can fall morally which we understand from the B metaphorical definition from Thayer's Lexicon.

NT:4098 b. metaphorically,

α. to be cast down from a state of prosperity:

β. to fall from a state of uprightness, i. e., to sin: opposed to hestanai, 1 Cor 10:12

γ. to perish, i. e., to come to an end, disappear, cease: used of virtues, 1 Cor 13:8 (from Thayer's Greek Lexicon, Electronic Database. Copyright © 2000, 2003, 2006 by BibleSoft, Inc. All rights reserved.)

We have also noticed that Chapter 18 has added more adjectives to the description of the fall of Great Babylon, showing us that she was even more corrupt at the actual literal fall than she was at the time of the metaphorical chapter 14 fall! Another important difference that we have noticed, is that the angels in chapter 14 are seen while they are still in the midst of heaven—implying a different and earlier time. The angel that announces that Great Babylon has fallen in chapter 18, does so after the angel is said to be coming down to the earth, showing that it is at a later point in history, and the context of the chapter shows us that this coming down to the earth was when the Lord was coming to judge the fallen system, and to take his power in 1874 and to begin to reign.

An Examination of the Three Angels

Another important question is: when did all three angels give their messages and warnings, and how do we date them? As we have looked at this chapter, we have had several different thoughts on the timing of the three angels. The answer once seen, actually turned out to be a very simple one—the timing is given in the context of the messages of all three angels.

Another point we are going to make, before we look at the messages of the three angels, is that if anyone ignores the warnings given by the three angels, those same three angels will be the ones that come and punish them at the end of the age, which is shown to us at the end of the chapter, with the harvest of the vine of the earth, and the throwing of it into the winepress.

When we look at the latter part of the chapter, we will explain how the other four angels seen at the end of the chapter, also gave their messages of warning before the corruption of the church happened. It would do no good to wait until the church had fallen, and then give the warnings—the same thing is true regarding the first three angels and their message of warning that we are going to look at next.

First Angel

Angel one was said to have a mission to preach an eternal message of salvation to all who live on the earth, and it was to be over every nation, tribe, tongue, and people. In Rev chapter 17:15, we see that those are the same symbols of society that the harlot sat on, showing us that the Harlot later on, had illegally taken control of the peoples and nations before the time of the kingdom. The answer regarding the timing of this angel, is found in a simple question which asks: when was the church given the mission to spread and preach the eternal gospel? The answer is that the early church was given the mission to preach the eternal gospel to all peoples and nations at Pentecost.

Some believe that the mission of the first angel will begin in the next age for the world of mankind, but there is a context problem with that if we look at all three angels messages. The warning given by the first angel, was given with symbols that pointed to the serious problems that were going to be coming against the faithful church very early on in the gospel age. The early church was warned about the coming apostasy, and we see that there were symbolic warnings hidden in the statement that the angel made about the heaven, the earth, the sea and the springs of water. The angel told the faithful church, to fear God and to give him glory, because the hour of his judgment had come, and to worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of water. The last three symbols named by the angel, were symbols from the first three trumpets that were going to be corrupted in the first three churches, and they were named in the exact same order that the corruption occurred in in the first three trumpets—the corruption of the spiritual heavens that was named first, is pointing to the fourth trumpet, which names all of the symbols of heaven.

Some think that the renewed preaching command that is mentioned in Revelation chapter 10, is the same as the first angel's Commission, but there is a problem in the wording of the command given in that chapter that does not agree with that thought. In Rev chapter 10, the church is told that they have to preach the gospel "again", which is not the same as the command to "begin" to preach the gospel. The beginning of the preaching was what was accomplished by the first angel in Rev chapter 14—the second and different round of preaching at the time of the seventh angel had become necessary because of the failure of the fallen church to reform. The 1845 year judgment parallel that pointed to 1878 AD, had removed many of the ones that had lost their crowns, and they were going to need to be replaced. The 1845 year parallel brought about the judgment of the evil system, because they had failed to heed the first three angels admonitions and the admonitions of the other four angels seen at the end of the chapter. Great Babylon at the end of the Gospel Age, had fallen not only spiritually by that time, but the evil system was going to fall completely and be destroyed, as seen in chapter 18.

One complaint that some will probably make about this interpretation, is that they believe that the hour of judgment was coming at the time of the end, in either 1799 or in 1878 AD. But in actuality the hour of judgment was all through the entire age, in that the hour of judgment has to be passed by everyone, starting from the early church until the last member of the 144,000 has been selected and proven faithful. The final judgment that occurred at the 1878 date, was the rendering of a verdict for every member of the church that had fallen asleep since the early church, and that is what the brethren who believe the hour of judgment was at the harvest time are looking at—but it is only the final verdict of a process that had gone on during the entire Gospel Age for the sleeping saints. Those who passed that judgment in 1878 AD, and all other faithful who have died after that time, are resurrected immediately.

Second Angel

The second angel gave his message and warning later on in the history of the church. There are two clues for the dating of that message, the first being that this is most likely during the third church, since the message of the first angel in chapter 14, mentioned the corrupted earth of church one, the corrupted sea of the second trumpet the springs of water of the third trumpet, and the corrupted heavens of the fourth church.

What historical event would cause them to be called a spiritually fallen Babylon the Great in the third church? The angel says that they had caused the nations to fall because of the wine of the passion of their immorality? In other words, they were complicit in the carrying out of the idea that Rome and the church should begin to work together as a church and state system, starting in 313, and becoming fully in partnership with Rome by 539. The scriptures consider that to be harlotry, because they were not being faithful to their first husband, who is our Lord Jesus. The nations of the earth began to drink the wine of her immorality fully at that time of 313-539, and that caused the corruption of both the church and the nations. That process of corruption is described in Rev 13:2, which was where the so called Christian church was given three important things by the dragon Satan—and those events made them into the Papal church.

The three things given them at the date of 539 AD, was the use of the power of the army to enforce doctrine, the throne of the beast, and great authority—they were not to have accepted any of them. The power was when the bishop of Rome was recognized as the head of the church over the entire Eastern and Western Empire by Emperor Justinian, just before the 539 date—it was encoded into law later on, and that is when he began to be called the Pope. The literal Roman throne was given to them when they gained control of the city of Rome in 539 when the Arians surrendered to the Roman army, and after that date the literal civil throne of Rome became Papacies throne, even though the other half of the Empire was still in power in the East. That throne of power is what started the church down the historical road to try to gain full control of the Empire, which they did actually accomplish later on—the woman riding the beast as seen in chapter 17. The other very important great authority they were given at that early time, was the ability to control the armies of Rome, which allowed them to force their will on everyone that did not agree with the Pagan doctrines they were bringing into the church.

Angel Three

The third angel, warned the church not to worship the beast and the image. This warning is fairly easy to understand, in that the original Christianized beast still existed in the Eastern part of the Empire in 799 – 800, but there had not been a Roman Empire in the West since Rome had fallen to the barbarians in 476 AD. When Papacy talked Charlemagne into being crowned Emperor of the West in 799-800, that was when the “image” of the original Western Roman beast was created. It was not an actual Western Roman beast, because it was made up of German tribes and not Roman power, and for that reason it was called an “image” of the beast”. It looked like the original Roman beast, in that it was imitating the original Roman beast with its traditions and laws, and that imitation made it an image because it pretended to be a restored Rome. The new Western image of the beast, was created by the false arguments of the two horned Papal system—the two horns were created from the civil and ecclesiastical power that Papacy had acquired when he gained control of civil land, both the city of Rome and especially the Papal States. That historical event of creating the image, later on turned into the terrible system of a theocracy of church and state in the Western Empire. The warning given by this angel was to not worship the “Eastern Roman Beast” or the newly created Western “image”, and if that warning had been heeded the new evil system that killed many, would not have come into existence.

The Seven Angels of Destruction

Below is the description of how all seven angels come together at the end of chapter 14, to complete the seven fold punishment and destruction. See the more detailed notes for a more complete description of how the seven angels work together, to both warn the church against violating the laws and truth that they represented, and then to punish at the end of the age when they were violated.

Angels 1-3: The sins caused because the fallen church had ignored the three angels messages and warnings, and that is what has caused many of the members of that evil system to lose out and fall with Great Babylon in the above seven pictures of destruction—they had the 666 stamped into their forehead and on their hands, and they did not have the Lords mark of sanctification like the true church has. The man with the writers inkhorn, “Christ” is the one putting the Lord’s mark onto the forehead of all who are fighting against that evil system. The three angels that gave the original messages and warnings, are three of the six with slaughter weapons, and they take down all who had ignored and disobeyed their warnings—note that the six doing the slaying, symbolically denotes the number of man or Satan, which indicates they were slain because of their earthly and Satanic ideas, the 666.

Angels 4-5: The angel that came out of the temple, cried out with a loud voice for the Lord on the cloud to harvest the earth. Each place a loud voice is used in Revelation, signifies a command to do something or is a judgment or both. Matt 13:30; but gather the wheat into my barn. ”””

Angels 6-7: The angel who had the power of destructive fire, 1 Cor 3:10-15, came from the altar, and he commanded the sixth angel that had come out of the temple with a sharp sickle to harvest the vine of the earth, and that angel did that and he cast the vine into the winepress, where its lifeblood was crushed out— $313-14 + 1600 = 1914$ .

Final Judgment and Verdict

We have now seen how the first three angels gave their warnings and how they came down to this end of the age, and they participated in the destruction of those who had ignored the warnings that they had given. The question that this generates, is when did the other four angels give their warnings.

Angel Four

Rev 14:14 Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one like a son of man, having a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand. NASU

The angel on the cloud, which is our Lord Jesus, has given the church many warnings throughout the entire age. There is the messages of admonition and warnings to the seven churches. The entire book of Revelation is also filled with many warnings, which our Lord gave to John to give to the entire church. So there is no question that our Lord Jesus will be involved in deciding who was faithful and who was not, since he is the one who has marked the church in the forehead with his seal, all through the age.

Angel Five

Rev 14:15 And another angel came out from the temple, "crying with a great voice" to him that sat on the cloud, Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

14:16 And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.

The great voice that we see here, symbolizes that there is an important judgment taking place at this time. Every time in Revelation that there is a "great voice" or a "loud voice", there is a judgment or an important announcement or a decision taking place. We see what is most likely the same angel "with a Loud voice" earlier in Revelation chapter 5, where we see that our Lord Jesus pictured as the Lamb of God, was judged and found worthy. So this angel has to represent the judgment regarding which individuals were going to be found worthy at the harvest of the Gospel Age. That is why he has the authority to command our Lord Jesus to take his sickle and harvest the earth, which is the harvest of all the faithful who had attained the mark of the Lord on their forehead.

Angel Six

Rev 14:17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.

NASU

It is not exactly clear who this angel is, except that he came out of the temple, and that he had a sharp sickle which cast the vine of the earth into the winepress, which symbolizes those who did not follow the spirit of the law. In order to get laws that this angel was concerned with, we need to look at the seventh angel, who has several symbols associated with him, that tells us what important doctrines the sixth angel was in charge of. All who belong to the church, while freed from the literal mosaic law, must still be able to follow spirit of the law, which they would have been able to do, as long as they believed in the blood and sacrifice of Christ. To violate the Spirit of the Law, would result in exactly what we see happening here, in that the evil system is rejected and cast into the winepress.

That the angel of the fire of the altar does the commanding is what especially points to this angel as being directly related to the coals of fire of the altar—the ransom, and the blood of the sacrifice of our Lord.

Angel Seven

Rev 14:18-19 (18 Then another angel, the one who has power over fire, came out from the altar; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "18Put in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe." NASU

Rev 8:5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there followed peals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake. NASU

The angel with the fire of the altar, had cast the coals of fire of the ransom into the earth at the start of the Gospel Age, and those coals symbolically represented the ransom doctrine which all believers need to believe in, in order to receive salvation from Christ. Isa 6:6-7 shows us the meaning of the symbolism of the coals of fire off of the altar.

Anyone who threw out the ransom doctrine in exchange for the Abomination of the mass, would have fallen in the judgment of 1878-1918, because they were not believing in the saving power of the Lord's blood. They will be replaced by those who see the true salvation of the blood of Christ. Matt 13:30 Allow both to grow together until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather up the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them up; ""

Anyone who did any of the above things wrong, literally fell in the final judgment of Great Babylon on this end of the age in 1878-1918.

Rev 14:12 Here is the perseverance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.

Endurance of the Saints Keeping God's Commandments & Belief in the Blood of Jesus

That this is the perseverance of the saints, means that these warnings are some of the tests that the church must overcome. In Rev 13:10, we saw the same warning about perseverance and they applied to the terrible beast that John had just been shown.

Rev 14:13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "so that they may rest from their labors for their deeds follow with them."

Daniel's Blessed Ones Who Came to 1874-78

This verse brings us to 1874-1878AD, which is the date that the final judgment against Babylon occurred. That the dead that die in the Lord from this point onward are blessed, confirms that the resurrection of the sleeping saints began in 1878AD. The "blessed" date is the 1335 year from Daniel Chapter 12, which uses the same word "blessed"—the 1335 days reached to 1874AD.

Vision of Returned Lord

Rev 14:14 Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one like a son of man, having a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.

The Blessed Date Was when the Lord Returned

That we see the Lord on a white cloud, with a crown on his head, and a sickle in his hand, also confirms the time that we are looking at from this point onward. The white cloud and crown confirms that this is the time of his second presence, and the crown confirms that he has come as a king. The sickle he is seen with, shows us that this is the long-awaited harvest time, and that the time to separate the wheat from the tares had come.

Harvest

Rev 14:15-16 (15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying out with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Put in your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is ripe." 16 Then He who sat on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

The System is Guilty & The Time to Separate Faithful Has Come

Another angel came out of the temple, and he commanded the Lord on the cloud to harvest the earth. That this angel had a loud voice, symbolically indicates that he represents the justice that had judged the system guilty in 1878AD, and he says that it was the time for the harvest, which was when the wheat and the tares were to be gathered and separated. Our Lord then carried out the separation of the 40-year harvest, which was due at that time. The faithful wheat during that harvest time of 1878-1918 are gathered into the barn. We appear to be in the gleaning phase of the harvest since that time, which won't finish until the 144,000 are complete. See the earlier insert of notes in this chapter about how the seven angels accomplish this work.

Wine Press

Rev 14:17-18 (17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle. 18 Then another angel, the one who has power over fire, came out from the altar; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Put in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe.")

Gathering the Guilty Tares to Destruction

Another angel came out of the heavenly temple, who also had a sharp sickle, and the angel who had charge of the fire of the altar called out with a loud voice to the second angel, to harvest the vine of the earth, because her grapes were ripe. In other words, it was due time for the beginning of the removal of the tares from the earth. The destruction of the tares began in 1914, and eventually they will all be removed and will have to give up hope that they are of the faithful. In a sense, they were all removed from the true heavens and bundled after 1918, and the fire that destroys them and their spiritual hopes has been lit. That is the smoke and fire of destruction that we will see in Chapter 18.

Rev 14:19-20 (So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and gathered the clusters from the vine of the earth, and threw them into the great wine press of the wrath of God. 20 And the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood came out from the wine press, up to the horses' bridles, for a distance of two hundred miles.)

The Winepress of Destruction

The angel thrust his sickle into the earth and harvested the vine of the earth, and cast it into the winepress of the wrath of God. That this is said to be the wrath of God, links this destruction of the vine with the seven bowls of wrath, which are said to be the completion of the wrath of God. This is a picture of the removal and destruction, of Great Babylon, and the seven bowls of wrath will give us more detail about that destruction.

That the lifeblood of the system was squeezed out so that the blood came up to the horse's bridles, shows that the doctrinal horses of that evil system will perish through lack of air, which symbolizes God's spirit—see the seventh bowl of wrath. That the blood came out to 1600 furlongs seems to indicate that this system had been gathering wickedness since the time of the Edict of Milan in 313AD.  $313 + 1600 = 1913-1914$ , which was the last year before the system was plunged into the winepress of WW1 in 1914AD. There are some indications, that the Edict of Milan took some time to be distributed into the Empire, and that would make the 1600 years come out to exactly 1914.

Ezekiel Chapter Nine

That there are three angels before we see the Lord on the cloud, and then there are three more angels after we see him, that makes six angels total. The Lord, who is the man with the writers' inkhorn makes the seventh. The six men with the slaughter weapons and the judgments and slaughter of all who did not have the mark of the Lord, pictures what was going to happen with the 1878AD judgment, and the 40 year harvest. All who did not come out by 1914-18, and who kept the mark of the beast, were to be symbolically slaughtered—lose their crowns. See the full notes for more information on how that Ezekiel picture applies to what we see happening here.

Chapter 15 Abbreviated Seven Angels and Seven Last Plagues

Rev 15:1 Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels who had seven plagues, which are the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished.

The sign in heaven of seven angels with seven last plagues, is very important because it brings us to the time that Satan's system is going to begin to be destroyed. These plagues will lead to the final and complete end of that system that must be destroyed before the kingdom can begin the restoration of all who are willing. These bowls of wrath are the wrath of God that was mentioned in the last Chapter.

Rev 15:2-4 (2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had been victorious over the beast and his Image and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God. 3 And they sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are Your works, O Lord God, the Almighty; Righteous and true are Your ways, King of the nations! 4 "Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy; For ALL THE NATIONS WILL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE YOU, FOR YOUR RIGHTEOUS ACTS HAVE BEEN REVEALED."

A Vision of Harvested out Saints Just Before the Bowls are Used

We notice that this vision, unlike the Chapter 14 vision, does not show us the completed 144,000. The most likely explanation for that is that this is a different time-period, and that the 144,000 are not complete yet at the time of this vision, which is where the seven bowls are going to be poured out. That would make sense, because we believe the bowls began to be poured out in 1914, and we believe that the church was still here after that time. What the vision is showing us, is those who have overcome the beast, the Image, and the number of the beast. That overcoming was because of their separation from the fallen system, and for that reason it is pointing us to the end of the 40 year harvest time, which is when these who are seen in this vision had been separated out of Great Babylon.

It is not for sure, but we believe that the saints pictured here could be on both sides of the veil, helping to carry out the judgments written, from both here on earth, and in the heavens. See Psalms 149.

Sea of Glass Mixed with Fire

That they are standing on a sea of glass mixed with fire, shows us that they have been harvested out of the system, and that they are standing above the fiery events that began punishing the church and state system starting in 1914—the ones seen here, could be on both sides of the veil. This vision is additional proof that the harvested out church is not affected by the seven last plagues. That is why this vision is inserted here, because the fire was seen inside or under the sea of glass, and that fire of destruction and punishment began with the seventh trumpet, Rev 11:19. The glass is clear, because the harvested-out church was uplifted into the spiritual heavens, and they are standing on clear and hard truths.

Song of Salvation Again

That they have harps and can sing the song of Moses and the Lamb, shows us that they know and understand the Bible. They do not sing just any song, but it is the song of Moses and the Lamb, which reveals to us the Divine Plan of the Ages. The plan of God has been hidden in the Old Testament types and shadows, and in the New Testament writings. On this end of the age, it has become much clearer, and the church can now see that God has had a wonderful plan all along.

The message that they sing in the song, is that God's works as seen in the Divine Plan are marvelous. They tell us that all will fear and glorify God's name, because all nations are going to come and worship before him—because of his righteous acts that are becoming apparent at this time in history. This is the kingdom message that the church had been bringing forth during the 1874-1918AD harvest, and afterward. The people will eventually come to that kingdom, because of the wonderful and marvelous salvation that they will see when God brings his salvation into full light.

Rev 15:5-6 (5 After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened, 6 and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in linen, clean and bright, and girded around their chests with golden sashes.

Rev 15:7 Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever

Seven Bowls of Wrath Given to the Angels

We then see are shown the seven angels with the seven last plagues coming out of the temple of God. That they come out of the temple, shows that the judgments that are about to begin come from God. The seven angels that are seen here coming out of the temple, are in their garments of glory, showing that they have made their calling with the Lord.

It's not known for sure who the seven angels are that are given the seven bowls of wrath, but we saw earlier that they stood before the God of heaven in order to receive the trumpets, and they now come out of the temple after they were given the seven bowls of wrath, showing that the punishment comes directly from God. If we assume that they each had stood before God, one at a time, each in his own age, then the seven angels with the bowls could be the same seven earthly angels that sounded the trumpets, and the same as the seven messengers to the churches. The reason that we believe that they could be the same angels that had the trumpets, is because each bowl is related back to its corresponding trumpet, as we will show later in this section.

The living creature that gave the seven angels the seven bowls of wrath, has to be the one that represents the Divine attribute of justice. The bowls are made of gold because this is a Divine judgment.

Rev 15:8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

Wrath is to be Finished Before Church Can Enter Glory

That no man could enter the temple, until the seven last plagues were to be finished, shows that until God has satisfied his anger against the fallen church and state system, then the saints seen at the beginning of the chapter cannot come in to the glory of the wedding of the Lamb. At one time we thought that this statement pointed to the men of the coming earthly kingdom not being able to come in until everything is accomplished, which is true for them also. The problem with that interpretation is that this is the inner sanctuary of the Holy and the Most Holy, and the world will not enter into that part of the temple, they will only enter into the courtyard as we will see later on in this commentary.

Those of the church who are completed during this end time, can be resurrected, but they cannot enter the temple to carry out kingdom duties for the people, until the time of trouble is over. Once the plagues are finished and the church is completed, then the church can enter into glory with the Lord, and the wedding will take place, which starts the kingdom. That world can then enter into the courtyard of the temple, but not into the part that is named here, which is the Holy and Most Holy.

Chapter 16 Abbreviated The Seven Bowls of Wrath

Rev 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God."

Great Babylon is Going to be Destroyed by the Seven Bowls

That this is a loud voice, shows that the punishment is coming because of a negative judgment and verdict against this evil system. The seven bowls of wrath could not be poured out before 1878AD, which is where the 1845-year judgment parallel points to the system having been judged. What the Study Group concluded, was that the harvest parallel punishment against Great Babylon did not begin until 1914AD, because of the 40-year harvest which gave all who had crowns time to accept the harvest message and get out before the punishment would begin. That is why the gathered out saints seen in chapter 15, are pictured as being above the fire and destruction that is going on below them. That is exactly like the judgment and pronouncing of punishment at the First Advent time, which occurred in 33AD, but which was not carried out until 69-73AD—those two sets of events are an exact 1845 year parallel. The breakup of the Old-World order during WW1 and after and the destruction of the kings, is a major part of the bowls of wrath that we are going to consider—but there is also a destruction of Satan's worldwide system also.

Three and Four?

Before we look at bowl five, we need to consider again about how the three woes and the seven bowls of wrath fit together with God's plan of the destruction of great Babylon. See the diagram in the explanation of 16:1, where we looked at this idea in detail.

When we did our study on the bowls of wrath, we considered the possibility that they were divided up into four bowls and then three bowls, because that was the same pattern that we saw in the trumpets, with the last three trumpets being called woe trumpets. The woe trumpets were different, in that they weren't showing us things getting doctrinally worse as the first four trumpets were, they showed us that the Lord had begun to punish and weaken the evil system, starting in the first woe trumpet of the fifth church.

At the same time, contrary to that way of looking at it, it has been pointed out that the first three bowls of wrath were poured “into” the symbols that they were striking, and the last four bowls are poured “upon” the symbols that they were striking. That suggests a three four pattern versus a four three pattern. To show that there is an actual division because of “into” and “onto”, we find that the angel of the water in the third bowl, is saying that the fallen system had been punished by the events that had just transpired in the first three bowls, as had been promised earlier in Revelation in the fifth seal. That gives the first three bowls an important role in the judgement and punishment of the fallen church and state system, because after those three bowls, the angel says that the punishment had been carried out.

The last four bowls of wrath are where we find that the symbols being struck in each of those bowls, are not shown being fully destroyed in the description given in chapter 16. Contrary to that, we noticed that the first three bowls punishment and destruction are shown as being fully completed in chapter 16. The punishment and destruction of the last four bowls of wrath, are not shown being completed until the events of chapters 18 and 19. That suggest that the first three bowls were fully carried out against the fallen church state system in 1914-18, in order to keep the promise to the saints under the altar. They were to be struck by the pouring out of the last four bowls at the time of 1914-18, but they were not scheduled to be full removed until just before the kingdom, as is shown in Rev chapters 18 and 19.

Four and Three?

One of the possibilities that implies that there could also be a four three pattern, is that we see that same pattern described in the ten plagues of Egypt. When seven of the plagues had been poured out on Egypt, Pharaoh’s advisers told him that the entire nation had been destroyed already, which is parallel to three woes plus four bowls on this end of the age. Satan did not listen to the advisers, and for that reason there were three more plagues, which then totally removed him and his kingdom.

The only difference that we can see which would create a four three pattern, is in what is being struck in each bowl. The last three symbols match the three evil creatures that are uttering unclean spirits like frogs. The fourth bowl of wrath is the light of the sun, which does not match up with those evil creatures. The fifth bowl is on the throne of the beast. The sixth bowl is on the water of the Euphrates, and the seventh bowl is on the spiritual control of the air by Satan. Those last three bowls of wrath are attacking the three beings in the parentheses, that utter the three unclean spirits.

Ex 10:7 Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not realize that Egypt is destroyed?” NASU

Pharaoh still did not let the Israelites go after the seven plagues had destroyed the nation, and because of that there was three more plagues, locusts, darkness, and the death of the first born in the tenth plague. Just as in that picture, Satan again is not letting the people go free after the 1914-18 destruction of his system.

It's going to take the full and utter destruction of the last three bowls of wrath on Satan’s system, to bring about the release of the people of the world, so that they can enter into the kingdom. After the seven plagues of the Gospel Age had completed their work in 1914-18, everything was destroyed of Satan’s church and state system. But he still had his worldwide control over everything in the earth, and that is still keeping the people in bondage to his evil system. The last three plagues are going to destroy that system and his control over the earth, and that will free the people so that they can cross over the Euphrates dry shod, and go and worship Jehovah in the kingdom.

Destruction of Seven Parts of Satan's System

The seven bowls of wrath, are designed to destroy seven different elements of the evil Satan's System. Bowl one, is the earth and those who worship the beast and the Image. Bowl two, is the loss of their crowns of the spirit begotten in Great Babylon, who do not accept the harvest truth and come out to the Lord. Bowl three poisons all their evil doctrines, so that their worldly doctrines become even more destructive to them, because they did it to the faithful churches doctrines very early in the Gospel Age. Bowl four scorches them and their false doctrines with the light of truth. Bowl five darkens the throne of the beast, because they no longer have the full throne of Satan helping them anymore after the kings are destroyed. Bowl six dries up the Euphrates, which represents the river of support for Satan's system. When the water of support is all dried up, the way of the kings of the East becomes a highway that leads across into the kingdom for the world. The seventh bowl hits the power of Satan, and the different elements of his worldwide system, destroying them step by step. The seven bowls, are most likely poured out not too long after 1914, but the destruction they cause takes some time, and that is especially true of the last three bowls. When all seven elements of that evil system are struck, then the earthly kingdom will come.

Bowl One-On Earth

Rev 16:2 Bowl 1 So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth; and it became a loathsome and malignant sore on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshipped his Image.

One interesting thing, is that all seven bowls were to be poured into the earth, each hitting a particular element of that system, but we see that the earth itself was hit in bowl one. We believe that the reason for that, is that bowl one was poured out on the earth symbol, but what was being hit was those who had the mark of the beast and who worshipped the image—they were given loathsome and malignant sores, that would have been obvious to others.

The first bowl was poured out on the symbol of the Earth, which represents the social, civil, financial, and religious society that had been supporting the church and state systems. The earth, is the same symbol that we saw being corrupted in the first trumpet, and that was the beginning of the evil system during the early church. The apostle Paul warned us that it was even happening in his time, but it would get much worse with grievous wolves after the apostle were gone. In trumpet one, we saw that one-third of the earth was burned up, which showed that it was already being changed into a 666 system— $1-1/3=2/3=.666$ , see the trumpets for an explanation. The evil system had small beginnings back then, but those early small errors were what led to the full church and state system later on by the time of the fourth church, and that's when the full 666 applied to the entire system. We also saw in the message to the first church, that there were Nicolaitans in the midst of the church, even at that early time. Their attitude of seeking after power and trying to lord it over the Lord's people, was what led to the evil oppressive system that is being punished in this bowl. The system that is being punished here, includes both the Papal system as well as the daughter systems.

Grievous sores and boils

The pouring out of bowl one in 1914, caused them to develop grievous sores and boils. That happened because the fallen churches had lost a great deal of the power that they had because of the destruction of the kings during WW1, and because of that they could no longer command kings and governments. History also exposed them as being an extremely evil system after that time. The harlot that we will see riding the beast in Chapter 17, had lost the support of the kings after 1799, and especially by 1914-18, and she also continued losing the support of the people, because of the evil things that people saw that she had done during the height of her power. The upper class that belonged to that system had also lost a great deal of prestige and wealth because of WW1, and the common people no longer believed that the upper class deserved all of the advantages that they had gathered to themselves. The common people wanted a share of that wealth, and a say in the governments that came into existence after the war. They no longer wanted to be ruled by kings, because the claim of the Divine Right of Kings had been proven to be false, which happened by 1918 because of the war removing all of the kings, which was when all of the nations and Empires that had claimed that privilege and used that argument to keep their subjects under control, were destroyed. Those who had been benefitting from that system at the expense of the common people, are some of those who received those sores and boils, crying over the advantages that they had lost, and the evilness of the system that had been exposed—as will be shown in chapter 18.

The Beast and the Image

So how do we still say that there was still a beast and an Image of the Beast in 1914, if both halves of Rome had disintegrated politically earlier? The answer is that they did not exist anymore after 1918, or because there was only pieces of those empires left after the war. Before 1914, there was much more to those Empires than just political control. Each Empire was held together by a combination of social, financial, ecclesiastical, and political elements. So even though the Roman power of each of those Empires had originally disintegrated into individual nations, they still existed as Eastern and Western power blocks, that were held together by the social, financial, ecclesiastical, and the individual civil power elements of the beasts that cooperated with each other, and which had descended from the break up of the Roman Empire. That original combination of church and state is what the people were warned not to worship in Chapter 14. That definition is also why we see the beast still in existence, and being captured in Chapter 19, which is after the church is completed.

The False Prophet

Papacy and her daughters are symbolized by the False Prophet now, instead of being a part of the two-horned beast, because they all lost the civil power horn by 1799-1870, and for sure by the end of WW1 at the destruction of the kings. The daughters systems are included in the False Prophet, because they were all a part of the two-horned beast when it was just Papacy at the time it was formed. The daughters took all of the pagan doctrines that Papacy had inserted into the church with them when they split off from Papacy, and because of that they also are a part of the false prophet. The Protestants and the Eastern churches kept their cooperation with each part of the Empire that they lived in, therefor remaining church and state systems.

In looking at the territory of the original Roman Empire, we had decided in the study that the symbol of the earth should include the nations of both the Eastern and the Western Roman Empire. Both halves of the Empire were in existence and were one power at the time of the first through the fourth trumpet—which was when the corruption of the entire church had occurred, changing everything into 666, as we showed in the first four trumpets, with the removal of one third from each symbol, leaving .666. That both sides of the original Empire were destroyed in WW1 would seem to prove that conclusion is correct.

There appears to be at least one final time trouble coming yet, as shown to us in the latter part of Chapter 19. That final trouble will finish off the remaining elements of what's left of the beast, and the false prophet, and usher in the kingdom. That is when the people will get the blessings that are needed, and that is when the power of the evil system will be completely removed.

In summary, bowl one was designed to remove the entire society of the Old-World Order, which included both halves of the original Empire. Those who were ruling very harshly over their fellow men were dealt a major blow when the system that had supported them for ages, was destroyed in WW1.

Bowl Two-On Sea

Rev 16:3 Bowl 2 The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood like that of a dead man; and every living thing in the sea died.

The meaning of the sea in the second trumpet, is the same as what we see here. It's tempting to say that the sea represents only earthly people, but the problem with that idea is that in the second trumpet, the sea symbolized spiritual Christians who were attending church. As we noted in the comments on the second trumpet, the Christians that were represented by the sea were believers, but they would not necessarily all have been those who had offered themselves as living sacrifices, as Paul recommended in Romans 12:1. The ones that would have offered themselves as living sacrifices, are represented by the symbol of the creatures that had life in the sea, and those are the ones that the influx of Satanic error destroyed.

All Spiritual in System Lost Life Because the Sea was Turned to Blood

In the seventh church, the Lord had threatened to spew out those who did not buy from him gold refined in the fire, white garments and eye salve for their eyes, so that they could see. The gold is the Divine truth that had become readily available during the harvest. The white garment was a belief in, and understanding of the ransom, and the eye salve was so that they could clearly see spiritual truths. The ones represented in this sea, are those who did not heed that advice, and this bowl is designed to poison them with a worldly spirit. The harvest message had warned those who were still in the system, that they needed to get out, and as we see described in this bowl of wrath, all of the creatures that originally had life in the sea died. When God takes his Holy spirit away, and a worldly spirit takes control, the spiritual life is quickly lost.

When we look at the water being turned into blood, we can see that would cause them to not be able to drink it, and that would cause them to spiritually die of thirst. Some say that the blood must represent the blood of Christ, because all the symbols in the Bible must be consistently interpreted, but we don't agree with that argument, because in the original plagues, the blood that was put on the door post represented the blood of Christ, but the water being turned to blood so that the Egyptians could not drink it, was a different thing, and that is what we see here. The only way that could be the Lord's blood in the water, is if they could not drink the water because they refused to believe in the true blood of the ransom, and for that reason they would not drink the water of truth. The nominal house was actually guilty of that, because they refused the message of the ransom. The only other reason that we still hesitate to think about this blood in that manner, is what we will see in the third bowl of wrath, where the blood definitely appears to be poisoning their doctrines.

Because God has withdrawn his Holy spirit from that system, that has allowed the worldly spirit and Satan's spirit to take complete control of it, and that has caused higher criticism and many other worldly ideas to come into the apostate church. Those who are still in that system at this time, are now a worldly church, of which most don't study hardly any nourishing biblical doctrine, but they go to church because they like the social atmosphere or the entertainment that they get while there. Many of the churches that still exist, do so because they have been changed into social institutions, or they preach a social Gospel. Of the ones that do study the Bible, most have lost their spirituality, and they read the scriptures as if they were all literal.

There are still a small group of those who desire after truth, and those are the ones that the Lord stands at their door knocking, and those are the ones that we still call out to with our witnessing.

Bowl Three-On Rivers & Springs

Rev 16:4-7 Bowl 3 (4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of waters; and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "Righteous are You, who are and who were, O Holy One, because You judged these things; 6 for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. They deserve it." 7 And I heard the altar saying, "Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments.")

In the third trumpet, the fallen church had poisoned the rivers and springs of water, which symbolically represented the faithful churches' sources of truth. Back in the early church, it would have been the leaders of the church, the bishops, or elders, that were to interpret doctrine for the other members of the church. When Papacy was given ecclesiastical control over both halves of the Roman Empire in 539AD, that made it easier for Satan to mislead the church, and he began to corrupt the church's doctrines at a much faster rate. The main source of truth which the leaders were supposed to be using was the Bible, but as things got worse the Bible was more and more ignored and the church councils were making new doctrines without consulting the scriptures. The fight about the Trinity doctrine is what caused the fallen church to ban the laity from having access to the scriptures. When Papacy in 534-539 was given the power to set doctrines for both halves of the Empire, and he did not need to use the scriptures, then the bible lay dead in the street of the Great City of Papacy—not being used. The Great City of Papacy refused to let their people use the scriptures during the entire 1260 years and even after, but the Protestants and the early reformers began to use the scriptures around 1200AD.

In doing the same thing to them that they had done to his church, the Lord had the third bowl of wrath poured upon the rivers and fountains, which on this end of the age are symbolic of the religious schools, seminaries, and theologians. The social doctrines, the fundamentalist doctrines, the prosperity Gospel, and others erroneous doctrines that came upon the church after 1914AD, are a big part of the third plague. That plague has caused the sources of nominal doctrines, like the seminaries and the colleges of theology, to begin to teach ideas that have caused the loss of any true doctrine of salvation that would have secured their place in the faithful church. The ideas being taught by them have caused them to become worldly churches, instead of spiritual. Most of the doctrines that are being preached today, are not grounded in a correct understanding of the scriptures, and that has led the churches into even deeper darkness. They have lost the chance to be a part of the 144,000, because of the worldly doctrinal error that they have filled the churches with.

Retribution and Justice For Saints Under Altar

The altar in verse 7, says that it was true and righteous that the doctrinal fountains and rivers were turned to blood on this end of the age. See the comments about the blood in bowl two. The angel of the waters is Christ, the messenger of the covenant, and the bringer of God's truth. The Lord God has judged them through his word, and it's seen that it's right that they are being punished for what they did wrong. Why was that punishment true and righteous? One of the big reasons is that they were guilty of killing the faithful saints all through the age, especially when they had tried to reestablish and bring corrected doctrines back into the church. That happened, because the nominal house had polluted and corrupted the Faithful Churches doctrines, starting in 325AD at the Council of Nicaea, and again in the decree of 381AD, and especially after Papacy had the right to set doctrines in both halves of the Empire after 539AD. After accepting the Pagan errors, the fallen church continued through many other church councils, plunging further into darkness. They began to kill or persecute anyone who would not go along with those corrupt changes, and is why this is called the Dark Ages. Rivers and springs

We also make a note here, that this is the last bowl that was poured into the object that it was destroying. After this they are all poured onto the symbols that they are destroying. The difference in the first three bowls from the last four bowls, is that the first three bowls were totally destroyed by 1914-18, but the last four bowls were not totally removed by the 1914-18 time frame. The last four did their destructive work on the church and state system, but Satan's worldwide system is still left yet to be removed. So we see that there will be further work of destruction out of the last four bowls, but it will not be shown in chapter 16, we will need to look at chapters 18-20 in order to see the full destruction of those symbols. See the full notes on these verses for a more complete explanation of how this all works and fits together. Chapter 16 is only concerned with showing us the punishment and destruction of the apostate church and state system.

Bowl Four-On Sun

Rev 16:8-9 Bowl 4 (8 The fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun, and it was given to it to scorch men with fire. 9 Men were scorched with fierce heat; and they blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues, and they did not repent so as to give Him glory.

As Paul explains in 1 Corinthians, the Day of Judgment which is the seventh day, will test all things by fire. The harvest truth that was brought forth for the harvest time, was proven to be correct when the war broke out exactly where it had been predicted, but that system still failed to accept it. Only those who built upon the true foundation of Christ survived the test of fire that this bowl brought. All those who ignored it, lost their reward after 1918 unless they repented and went back to the true source of doctrine, which is the Scriptures. That does not mean that the Lord does not accept anyone from that system, but it means that they have to open the door of opportunity to him, and let him in as is shown in the message to the seventh church.

The Light of Truth

The light that is especially being talked about here, is the truth and Gospel light that has attacked the error of the ecclesiastical system on this end of the age. The reason that we say that it is the religious system that is especially being hit here, is because they blasphemed the name of God. They blasphemed God by refusing to believe and accept the restored Gospel light that offers life to not only the church, but also the rest of mankind. They would rather claim that God intends to throw everyone into a fiery pit of hell if they don't accept their false doctrines, or go to their particular church, rather than accept the idea that God intends to save all if at all possible.

We also see that the sun in this bowl, is also bringing light to bear upon all of the evil things that society has been doing wrong, even though its main mission is against the false doctrines of the Apostate church. The day is going to reveal all the evil of society, but it's especially going to reveal the evil of the Apostate Church. Because of the bright light of truth which is exposing sin and error during this time, those who are doing things wrong in society now, have a hard time keeping it from becoming public knowledge. The news media is constantly looking for politicians, church leaders, or rich executives, or others who are cheating on their wives. They also look for those who are cheating their employees, or the public. The way things have been going lately, they haven't had to look too hard to find those kinds of things. 1 Cor 3:13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. KJV

The ones doing these things, still do not want to admit that are in error for the things that they are doing wrong, but this plague causes them to be scorched by the heat and light of truth.

As we mentioned earlier the last four bowls of wrath do not fully accomplish their full work in this chapter, the concept of the light of truth destroying error is not shown fully accomplished in this chapter. But before we finish the book of Revelation, we will see the forces of darkness fully defeated and the full light of truth shining upon the world.

Four & Three

Besides the three four pattern that we mentioned at the end of the third bowl, we also considered the possibility that they were divided up into four and then three, which is the same pattern as what we saw in the trumpets, with the last three being different than the first four. We believe that is also correct, and that there is a different difference between the first four and the last three bowls. The first four bowls seem to have completed most of their work upon the church and state system shortly after WW1. Since that time, their mission has been to keep those same elements of the system from coming back into existence. See the diagram and the detailed notes on Rev 16:1. In other words they completed their work regarding the punishment of each element of the system, but they still continually are working against the evil systems attempts at trying to get back into power, and those attempts are still occurring even at the time of this writing. As we know from other scriptures, the Lord may allow that evil element to get back into control long enough to finish off the true church, but only time will tell if that is how the church closes.

One other important observation that seems to have a bearing on this continuing aspect of the last three bowls, is that if we look at the prophecy of Mathew 24 and the parallel prophecy of Mark, and then we compare them to the prophecy from Luke, we find an interesting difference. The Mathew and Mark accounts, appear to be focused on the church-state system during the dark ages, and the prophecy brings us to the time of the end, where we see the Son of Man coming on the clouds with great glory. Then we see the harvest and the trouble that separates the faithful from the unfaithful.

When we look at Luke, we get a different picture that seems to be centered more on events that apply to the nation of Israel on this end of the age. In Luke, we are taken to the end of the Gentile times, which was in 1914, and then after that we see another vision of the coming of the Son of Man, and it says that men were in great fear at that time—this second coming would have to be to Israel and the world, the first was to the church. During that later time period, the church is finishing out, as Israel is being restored. That appears to be the time that we are in at the present time.

Luke 21:25-26 (25 "There will be signs in sun and moon and stars, and on the earth dismay among nations, in perplexity at the roaring of the sea and the waves, 26 men fainting from fear and the expectation of the things which are coming upon the world; for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. NASU

After that, it tells the church to lift up our heads because the redemption is drawing nigh.

So if we are looking at those two prophecies correctly, they are showing us that there are two phases to the time of trouble, and that is most likely what we have in the twofold or continuing application of the last three bowls of wrath. The first phase takes care of the church and state system, and the second phase of trouble is what removes Satan's entire evil worldwide system.

Bowl Five Summery

Bowl five is one of those which only shows the destruction of the church and state system at the 1914-18, but we also know that there will be more to happen with this symbol of the throne of the beast in chapter 18-20. Starting at the fifth bowl, we see that the last three bowls are different, in that in bowl five we have individuals hit, namely the kings and those who were supporting them, especially those who are ruling over the people with the power and evil methods of the Nicolaitans. Because of the 2520 years, we see that there was an immediate effect upon the kings that had ruled over the nations, with them being removed by the end of WW1. As we look at history after that time, we see that even though the kings were gone, that the throne of the beast has evolved into different forms of government, most of which are still beastly—which shows that they are all evil and bad. Since all of these governments are against the coming kingdom, and because of their beastly nature, they will also need to be removed or changed. That seems to be shown in the repeating pattern of 1256-2520, which is shown in the book Divine Plan and its Chronology, which shows that there is more than one 2520 year cycle, but it shows that the last one is pointing to 1989, which was the destruction of the soviet Union, and the return of the Jews from that system to Israel.

The breakup of the Soviet Union is a good example of a beastly system that was taken down in 1989AD, which is a key date in history. It is also an end of another and last 2520-time-period, as shown in the book the Divine Plan and its Chronology. Since that time, Russia has been trying to put the Soviet Union back together again, and it most likely will not completely succeed, but it is causing a lot of concern in the world with the trouble that it is causing. It will most likely be successful enough, so that it can be involved in the final battle against the nation of Israel.

Bowl Six Summery

In regard to the sixth bowl, we see that the people were partially freed from the power of the system with the destruction of the Old-World order, but they are still supporting the governments and churches that are the remnants of that system. Likewise, all the Pagan type religions need to be removed at the start of the kingdom.

Bowl Seven Summery

Looking at the seventh bowl, we see that even though Satan lost a great deal of the control that he had over the world, when the Old-World order was still in control, he has re-established a lot of that control with the remnants of that system. So, we see that there will need to be more done in regard to Satan's civil power control of the governments. Eventually, we see that he will be entirely removed from any control that he had over the people, and he will be bound for the Millennial age. That's when the last of the support for his old system will be removed. The seventh bowl, has a step by step list of events that starts with the 1914 war and the breakup of the Great City of Papacy, which then goes onward until the final removal of the fallen system. It also appears that some elements of bowl 5 and six are included in bowl seven, but with different symbolism, which brings the evil system to its conclusion. As we mentioned earlier, bowls 5-7 do not show the complete destruction of their symbols, only the beginning of that destruction. Further visions of Revelation chapters 18-20 do show that final removal of that system.

Another important observation, is that what is being attacked in the last three bowls, are the lies of the same three characters we see croaking like frogs in the parenthesis of bowl six, the beast, the False Prophet, and the dragon. So, there is more to do regarding drying up the waters of the Euphrates, and again we will see the final destruction of Satan's system in chapter 18-20. In the battle of chapter 19, which started in 1874-1914, the angel of the sun, which is Christ, will defeat Satan's system, as represented by the beast and the False Prophet, and in Chapter 20, we will see the third character, Satan himself bound and cast into the abyss, so that he can't affect anyone during the Millennial age.

Bowl Five-On Throne of Beast

Rev 16:10-11 Bowl 5 (10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became darkened; and they gnawed their tongues because of pain, 11 and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they did not repent of their deeds.

The throne of the beast, is the civil or governmental part of that combination of powers that had descended from the original Roman Empire. The throne of power was darkened because all of the kings were removed by the time of the end of WW1. Even though the Old-World kings are gone at this time, Satan still has control over the governments. The types of government have changed after the kings lost their crowns, but unfortunately we see that many of them are still oppressing the people, and they will have to be removed or changed at the time of the kingdom.

Initially, the throne of the beast was only the civil power of the Roman Empire, but later it also included the civil power of the Image of the Beast, which was the restored Western Roman Empire. Since the Image of the Beast inherited its civil power from the original Roman beast, the pouring out of this bowl struck both the Eastern and Western kings. The throne of the beast that Satan gave to this system, was the power of the kings that ruled over the governments that descended from the original Roman system. They were falsely claiming that God had given them the Divine Right of Kings, and that it was their right to rule over the nations. That was a lie, in that God had not given them that right, but it was Satan who is the ruler of this world who was supporting their kingdoms. We will see the removal of the kings in a more detailed step by step process in the seventh bowl.

Civil Power of the Kings is Removed

At the time of WW1, the Western part also included the Protestant part of the Empire that had split away from Papacy. They are included in this prophecy, because those countries were a part of the original Image of the Beast, and they still had part of the throne of the beast under their control. They did not give up the church and state systems that they had inherited from their mother when they split from her, and so the kings that they had kept in their systems needed to go. That WW1 removed those kings, shows that they also received the blow on their portion of the throne of the beast that this bowl was designed to remove. The Papal, Protestant, and the Eastern Orthodox systems, all gnawed their tongues after WW1, because of the loss of power that the removal of the civil power caused them.

But as we see looking at history, the nation's now still have Satanic controlled civil power yet, even though the governments have changed after the time of the Kings. Because of that change, the kingdom of the beast was darkened by the blow on the throne, but all civil power was not removed. That is why the fifth bowl as shown in chapter 16 is one of the last three bowls that only partially finishes off the civil power.

Did they repent from their harlotry, and realize that they were not supposed to have formed a church and state system? No, just as it says in this bowl of wrath or plague, they didn't repent, and since then we see that at least Papacy and even some Protestants have been trying to regain control or influence over civil governments so that they can get their power back. That is why the final phase of this bowl, will be to remove any civil power that is corrupt and being controlled by Satan, especially any that is trying to re-establish a church and state system.

Besides the removal of the kings in WW1, as shown in the seventh bowl of wrath, all colonial Empires were removed after that time. The breakup of the Soviet Union in 1989 into multiple nations, is another good example of civil power of large national blocks being reduced. Eventually, there will be a final whirlwind that will blow all the pieces away, as shown in the book of Daniel. We notice that the seventh bowl seems to remove the remaining large governments completely, and so we can see that it does seem to show us a more complete destruction—Rev chapters 18-20 shows the system being finished off.

Bowl Six-On Euphrates

Rev 16:12 Bowl 6 The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates; and its water was dried up, so that the way would be prepared for the kings from the east.

The river Euphrates that is seen here, is the same river that was described in the sixth trumpet. That was the same river where the four angels were to be released from being bound in that river in the sixth trumpet—starting to remove the control of the civil, social, ecclesiastical, and the financial from the system. The destruction which started at that release, began to happen during the time of the Reformation, and by 1799AD the kings had separated from the church and state system. All other aspects of society were also changed by that time, since the four angels represented civil, ecclesiastical, social, and financial control.

The Drying up of the Euphrates Equals Support of the People

That the river was to be dried up here in the sixth bowl, shows us that the river of support for that evil system, was to be dried up after 1914-18. Some of that has happened already with the events that began in 1914AD, but much more needs to happen yet. The drying up of most of the support for Satan's evil system, needs to be accomplished in time for the kingdom—but there will be some time for any who have questions and doubts, to be shown what is better about our Lord Jesus's kingdom.

The drying up of the Euphrates, points us back to the time of Cyrus, where his army diverted the Euphrates and they were able to walk into the city of Babylon and take control of it. Cyrus is a picture of Christ, and by diverting the support of the people, the city of Great Babylon will completely fall. In one of the histories that we looked at regarding the fall of Babylon, it said that the common people welcomed the Meds and the Persians. When the kingdom comes, that picture seems to indicate that the Lord will arrange things, so that the people will be glad to get rid of the oppressive governments that they have now.

In Chapter 19, we see the fall of the system pictured by our Lord riding out on a white horse, with the armies of heaven beginning to take the kings down in 1914, and in that picture we see that Satan's evil system is gradually destroyed and completely captured in time for the kingdom. The hard hail in bowl seven, finishes off the support for this evil system, again showing that the support of the people for the evil system will be removed by the time of the kingdom.

Way of the Kings of the East

The Kings of the East, represent Christ and the completed church that will come from the rising of the Millennial day sun. Mal 4:1-3 See the full notes for more information about the concept of the highway through the Euphrates—the highway of holiness.

The Highway!

The word way, that is used in prepare the “way” for the Kings of the East in the sixth bowl of wrath, means: HIGHWAY, HIGHWAYSIDE

Isa 35:8 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. (KJV)
The earthly people, will eventually be able to flee Great Babylon by “the way or highway”, that is opened up for them by the sixth bowl of wrath. The Golden Street or the broad way in the New Jerusalem, also pictures that same highway of holiness.

Escape from Egypt

The drying up of the sea, is the same thing that had happened to literal Israel, when they were in bondage to Egypt. Pharaoh or Satan didn't want to let the people go, but God forced him to let them go. The Red Sea was dried up so that the Israelites could cross over and escape, and we see the same thing happening in the sixth bowl, where the reduction of the power of the evil system, resulted in a highway being opened up, first for the church and then for the worldly people so that they can also escape Satan's system. Just as the ten plagues of Egypt prepared the way of escape for all the Israelites, the three woe trumpets and the seven bowls of wrath, are doing the same thing here. The church escapes first from Satan's system, and then after the 144,000 are complete, the world will also escape so that they can enter the blessing of the Millennial age. As we remember, the priests went into the water and stood in the middle of the river Jordan holding the water back, until the people had crossed into the promised land. That crossing pictures the people being saved from Satan's system during the kingdom.

Josh 3:17 And the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel crossed on dry ground, until all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan. NASU

Three Unclean Spirits

Rev 16:13-16 Bowl 6 (13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the False Prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs; 14 for they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty. 15 ("Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who stays awake and keeps his clothes, so that he will not walk about naked and men will not see his shame.") 16 And they gathered them together to the place which in Hebrew is called Har-Magedon.

The war that begins here, is the battle of Armageddon, and it will not be completed until the close of Chapter 19. We believe that some elements of this war began in 1914, but the largest and final climax of Satan's forces, will be at the very end. If those days would not be shortened, there would be no flesh saved alive.

In the full notes, we have explained that the three unclean spirits, began their evil work with the early church and the kings of the Empire. The three unclean spirits is what brought the church and state system together into one big Empire, which eventually split into several Empires, that on this end of the age began to make war upon one another. In the full notes, we explain that the three unclean spirits, are lies that are the same as the three testing's that Satan tried to tempt our Lord with. He passed the test and refused the offer of Satan, but the church did not refuse and because of that, the worst evil system that the world has ever seen, came into existence. That is what the Lord is coming to destroy. In the next few sections, we will give a partial summery of what we see happening, but the full notes will contain much more detail.

Return of the Lord

The Lord came like a thief in 1874AD, and after judging that system in 1878, he then waited for the end of the 40-year harvest for the punishment that was due upon that evil system. The time that he could begin to punish the religious system, was at the point that the war began in 1914. We know that our Lord's presence began in 1874AD, because of the second volume chronology. The two dates of 1874 and 1914, are derived from the harvest parallels. During the First Advent, we saw the religious system judged first in 33AD, and then we saw the nation itself destroyed in 69-73AD. The 1845-year harvest parallels point us to the parallel dates of 1874, 1878, 1914, and 1918 on this end of the age. Our Lord is warning the church to stay awake, as shown by the parable of the wise and foolish virgins, and not to fall asleep. If they don't heed that advice, they will be found spiritually naked, not covered by the robe of Christ's righteousness, and in the end they will be ashamed.

At this point in the prophecy, we notice that we have an "I saw", which tells us that there is a break in the prophecy or a parenthesis. So, because of that, it doesn't necessarily follow that this section continues onward from the same historical place of 1914 and afterward that we have been discussing. We think that it backs up in time, and it's going to show us how the kings were gathered to the war of the great day of God Almighty, which began in 1914 on the civil part, and still continues onward until all of the evil parts of Satan's system are removed. Satan has used the same unclean spirits or lies that we are going to describe, during the entire 1260. That is actually how he managed to create the system, that oppressed the church all through the age. He seems to have redoubled the pushing of the three lies after 1799AD because his church and state system was breaking up, and losing power. After the kings seperated from the beast after 1799, the three lies were being told to all three elements of the system even more so, because they were trying to bring the Old-World order back under control.

We originally had limited the three lies, as starting after 1799, but we realized when we were editing this, that the three lies actually began way back in history, at the time of the early church. The three evil spirits or lies are what Satan tempted the early church with, and as we will see they are the same three lies and temptations that he tried to tempt Jesus with. Jesus passed his test, but the early church fell for all three lies. As history shows us, those lies eventually led the kings to WW1, where the existing church and state system was shattered. That war was also the end of the Gentile times, which was ended at the end of the 2520 years. The three lies are continuing on, and they will bring about the final battle.

The battle of Armageddon started in 1914 and it continues yet, and there will be a final gathering of the nations on the mountains of Israel, where Jehovah will defeat them, to show them that he is God. That battle is the one that most brethren see as the battle of Armageddon, but we believe that it has already been happening, but it just hasn't reached its climax yet, which will happen with the nation of Israel being attacked. In the full notes, we explain that the eighth head came into existence when Papacy gained control over the kings in about 1179. All of the civil power existed in the ten horns at that time, and because of that Papacy was riding on the beast at that time.

The next section is going to be somewhat lengthy, because there is a lot to explain. The full notes have more information than this summery does, but we tried to make it as complete as we could, without going into more than is needed.

The Dragon (Satan)

The unclean spirits, that the dragon or Satan put forth out of his mouth, and the ones that he caused to come out of the mouth of the beast and the False Prophet, are full of lies, deception, and falsehood. Those lies are how he brought the church and the kings together in the most evil system that the world has ever known. See the detailed not for more detail on how that happened. He was especially involved in bringing Pagan doctrines into the church, and getting the bible banned from the lay people.

The symbol dragon is usually thought to be only the Pagan Roman power, and while that was true at that earlier time, Satan controls all the civil power in the world on this end of the age, Matt 4:8-10. We also need to realize that when we see the dragon, we are looking at much more than just the civil power that he uses to control the world. He uses deception and lies, he's a false accuser, he uses civil power from behind the scenes. The Dragon symbol, still equals Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. He was an adversary to the church, especially trying to corrupt or hide the truth of God's restorative covenants, by substituting Pagan doctrines—he doesn't want anyone to know that God has a wonderful Divine Plan. As we noticed in Chapter 12 in the full notes, Satan uses his four different aspects of power to control the world, but his four aspects are the opposite of God's. He also physically attacked the faithful church, as shown in chapters 12 and 13, trying to eradicate the true church.

The beasts and horns that represent the kingdoms and kings that he controls, have four different elements to them, Social, Financial, Ecclesiastical, and the civil power in them. When our Lord defeats Satan, he won't just defeat the civil power part, but he will overthrow all of the other conniving and corrupt things that Satan supports. He is behind many other kinds of sins and corruption, such as greed and the idea that a nation can take what it needs to enrich its citizens. The greed factor is one of the big reasons that the nation's went to war in 1914AD, and that is why wars continue even yet today. When he was taking control of the early church, greed and corruption was among the many tools that he used. Church officials wanted to make money and to get power over others, and that eventually led to the terrible time of 1260 years.

The Beast (Civil Power)

The symbol of the beast that we see here on this end of the age, would have to be the remnants of the combination of both the Eastern Roman society and the society of what had been the Western Image of the Roman beast. That the dragon gave his throne unto this beast, as we saw in Chapter 13, shows us that Satan had put his throne and civil power support behind the Christianized Roman Empire that Papacy had created in about 381-539. The Dragon symbol still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. As time went on, Papacy himself got control of some civil power, which was called the Papal states. Shortly after that, Papacy crowned Charlemagne, which caused the image of the beast to be formed. That was the civil power beast that Papacy is seen riding in chapter 17, and that picture of Papacy riding the beast occurred when the kings gave their crowns unto that beast, which gave Papacy control. See the detailed notes for more information about the history involved in that evil system. Even though most of the civil power of the Western part of the Empire, separated from Papacy in 1799AD, the Image still partially existed yet up until WW1, because the Protestants still had civil power, but after WW1 Papacy and the Protestants lost all of their civil power, because the kings were gone. That church and state power is what they would like to get back, and that is why the three unclean spirits continue to utter their unclean lies.

Papacy had been separated from its civil power in 1799, but the Protestant and the Eastern Orthodox kept control of theirs until the end of WW1. The Papal religious system had been working the entire time after its loss in 1799AD, trying to restore the control of the civil power back to itself, and it had been partially successful by that time. If it would have been given enough time, the evil system may have been able to take full control of the Empire again, but the Lord had other plans. When the world's Empires collapsed after WW1 and the kings fell, there was no way that Papacy or the other churches were able to put the Old-World order back together again, because the kings that they had controlled were gone forever. The churches are still trying to get power with the new governments that were formed after WW1, but that has had limited success. We are still waiting to see how those efforts turn out in the time remaining, before the kingdom begins.

Here in the parentheses of bowl six, we see that all the nations in the original system, were combined together with the symbol of the beast, which was made up the kings of the Roman Empire that still existed at that time. Both the Eastern and Western Empires, were made up of individual nations, but they had treaties and agreements that unified them politically. Those are the power blocks or monarchies that came to the battle of WW1, and they began to war against one another. The ones that completely fell after WW1, were the Austria-Hungary, the Ottoman (Turkish) Empire, the Russian Empire, and the German Empire

So after WW1, the beast that represents civil power still exists, but it's in an even more modified form since the social, financial, ecclesiastical, and civil elements all changed after that war. The society of the Old-World Order was the one that existed just before the war began, and it's that Old-World Order that was changed or mostly destroyed by WW1. All those changes have made it impossible for Papacy and the other churches to go back to the same system that they had during the 1260 years, but they have continually tried to get their civil power back. What is left of the modified power structure of the beasts that came into existence after WW1, is what we believe will go down in the final whirlwind that comes at the end of the age. The final phase of the last three bowls of wrath, are guaranteed to accomplish the final destruction of this beastly and evil system.

The False Prophet (Christianity)

The two-horned beast, which was Papacy with the territorial land that was given to him by Pepin in 750AD, is the beast who had given the breath of life unto the Image of the Beast with his apostate doctrinal arguments in 799AD. The false prophet was the Papal system, and it is hard to define exactly where to start it, but it definitely was when Papacy was given religious control over both halves of the Empire. The two horned beast was when the false prophet of Papacy had gotten civil power at the donation of Pepin.

The civil power of the Papal States that Papacy originally had control of, are what created and which defined Papacy as being the two-horned beast, but without that civil power it's now called the False Prophet. All of Christianity that holds to the false doctrines that came from the Papal system, belong to the same symbol of the False Prophet, including Papacy. The reason for that conclusion, is that at the time that Papacy made the statements regarding the Image of the Beast that are in Chapter 13, it was the only so called Christian religious system that existed at that time. So yes, the False Prophet as seen in Chapter 19 also includes the Protestant and the Eastern Orthodox systems, because they are descended from the original two-horned beast that called for the formation of the Image. The remnants of all of the original Christian religious systems, are now collectively called the False Prophet, and that False Prophet represents the religious doctrines and lies that this entire religious system still propagates.

The False Prophet or the entire religious element of pre-war society, played a major factor in bringing the nations to war against each other in 1914AD. On both sides of the conflict, they were telling the soldiers that God was for them and that if they got killed in a battle, that they would go immediately to heaven. We don't know of the different churches exact motivations, but it's possible that they had hoped that the war would bring about a change of fortune for them, restoring their civil power back to them, especially if they blessed the efforts of the kings as they sent the armies to war.

Three Lies

The three temptations of Christ seem to give us the pattern as to what the three lies most likely are. The reason for that conclusion, is because if we look at the three temptations that Satan tempted Christ with, we see that he also tempted the church with the same temptations the church failed on. It also stands to reason that he continued to corrupt the church with the same three lies after he lost control of his church state system, hoping to restore it again. This time the Lord is present, and the final outcome will not be to his liking.

(1) Unclean spirit or Lie number one. The beast utters this lie, because of the temptation of having civil power over others. Fall down and worship me, and I will give thee all the kingdoms of the world. Jesus knew that it was not the time for him to take control of the civil power at the First Advent, and he rejected Satan's offer, because we are not to worship anyone else but Jehovah. The early church didn't reject the offer of union with civil power from Constantine and Charlemagne, and that is what caused the terrible system that Daniel had predicted was going to come into being.

The misuse of civil power by the kings, is what caused all the other universal Empires to come into existence, as shown by Daniel. The creation of those kingdoms and control over others, is the origin of the false idea of the Divine Right of Kings. In modern times, after the end of the 2520 years, that lie has taken the form of nationalism and political power and control over others, and can even represent financial control of people, which enriches some at the expense of others. Corruption of power is descended from the actions of the Nicolaitans that oppress the people, and they are those who we were warned about twice in the messages to the first and third churches.

We have had modern nations that decided that they were going to conquer other nations, so that they could enrich themselves and have control over others. Some examples were Hitler, who took over Germany and tried to conquer all the rest of Europe. The Soviet Union is another good example of an attempt to conquer most of the continent or even the world. Even those countries that have not physically taken over other countries, are still being guilty if they have economically enslaved other countries for cheap labor.

(2) Unclean spirit or Lie number two. The different elements of this lie, help show that the False Prophet at this time in history is more than just Papacy, as we discussed earlier. This lie is uttered by most of the clergy, which states that only they can interpret scriptures for the people. Satan's temptation to Jesus, was that he should jump off the temple to demonstrate his spiritual power and the backing of the Heavenly Father. Jesus knew that doing what Satan wanted was not God's way at that time.

The apostate churches fell for this lie very early in the history of the church, believing that they had to follow and believe the religious leaders, no matter what. And even now, many believe in the fake miracles of the clergy that are designed to convince the people that they are the true spiritual leaders from God. At the time of Papal power, they also proved to the people that they had the power of judgment over the people, by being able to condemn the people and have the civil power execute them. They also used the lie about hell fire to frighten the people into submission. Those are some of the false signs and miracles that would deceive all but the very elect, if at all possible. Pentecostal or Charismatic speaking in tongues and the consulting with the dead, are just some of the Satanic things that they do on this end of the age. They also claim to be able to heal the sick and the lame, and to cure all manner of disease, just by the laying on of hands and praying for them. We know that will only happen when the kingdom is fully here.

Another big lie, is the claim that only the clergy can speak for God, and interpret the Scriptures for the people. The Papal church was the first to use this lie, to hide the fact that what they were teaching was not from God. They go out of their way to argue that the scriptures are not the only word of God, and that only the Pope can guide and instruct the church, since they claim that he represents Christ here on the earth. That is the lie that the clergy have the ultimate authority of the interpretation of doctrine. The Pope has claimed infallibility for himself. These ideas are the root of the doctrinal thought, that says we are right about God's word and everyone else is not. The people are also told that they must get the so-called sacraments from the church in order to be saved.

Some of the other churches have that same problem, in that many claim that they have false revelations of what they call "receiving a word of knowledge", which are said to be from God, but which are not from him or the Bible, Matt 12:39. The faithful church should know that if it doesn't come from the actual word of God, which is the Bible, it's a lie from Satan. Isa 8:20 To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

That the people believed those lies, helped to bring the apostate system to the battle of the great day. The people were told in church that they should believe anything that the clergy or their leaders was telling them without question, because they claimed to represent God. The clergy were at the time of WW1, telling the people that they could go to war for God and he would protect them, and even if they died they would go straight to heaven. They were being told that they were fighting for God and his church and state system, or even for the Empire. Each side claimed that their part of the religious Empire was the only part that was being supported by God.

Even today, the enemy is a lot of times portrayed as being out of harmony with God or even common decency, and that they deserve to be punished. This lie continues yet, and it will lead the people to the final battle of Armageddon, which is still going to come at the end of this day of judgment.

(3) Unclean spirit or Lie number three. Use Gods power to turn stones into bread for yourself. This lie also directly from the dragon or Satan himself. Selfishness is one of Satan's great lies, and he tries to convince people that greed is good. The early church fell into that trap when the priests and bishops demanded a salary, so that they did not have to work. That practice continues yet today in most churches.

The dragon, which is Satan, controls all elements of society from behind the scenes, throughout the entire world, religious, social, financial, and civil power. He is known as the father of lies, which is one of his favorite tactics which he has used to lead the people astray. He is also the accuser of the brethren, in that he is always trying to claim that the saints are sinners and not worthy for one reason or another. In the dark ages, he was always behind the scenes, supplying the reasons as to why the saints should be tortured or killed by the evil system. His main goal is to defeat the church, so that he won't be bound by the Lord and lose control over the earth.

One of the lies of Satan to Jesus, was that he should use God's power that was intended to be used for the people, to turn stones into bread for himself, and forget what anyone else needed. The power that Jesus had from the Heavenly Father, was not given for that purpose, but it was only to further the witness of God's coming kingdom. The greed that Satan brought into the church, caused many to fall, because they were overcome by the wealth and the power that could go with a high position in the false church. We can see that in the large cathedrals and the gold and silver that they collected to themselves. They also claimed that God would forgive the people's sins if they gave a large enough amount of money to the church.

Because of this kind of lie, the ministers of today build huge churches, and burden the people with the cost of them and the ministers support.

Jesus says Matt 4:4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. (KJV)

Luke 4:4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. (KJV)

This lie is very obvious now in the world, as we see that greed is being promoted to the point of satisfying your hunger at the expense of others. Greed brought the nations to WW1, because even at that time, they were all working to get control of raw materials. The other problem, is that the large nations are in control of setting the economic policies of the world, and the weaker nations are being taken advantage of by the more powerful who make the rules. The financiers of wars, have because of their greed, helped to bring about the conflicts between nations by loaning money to all sides of the conflict. The only important thing to them, was whether they could make money or not. The industrial engines of the nations, also helped with their greed, because they wanted the business of making war material, to enrich their corporate profit margins. These same things are still going on yet today, and that is going to result in the final whirlwind of trouble.

Another big lie of Satan, is the idea that you are entitled to all material things, even if you must take them from someone else. The lie of individualism tells you to do what is right for yourself. Satisfy your own self-interest, and that everyone should be out for himself. The form of capitalism that has taken control of the world today, is based on greed, and has no mercy on anyone that lacks the essentials for life. It's claimed that anyone who isn't doing their part, is a part of the problem and that they don't deserve any help, because that would cut into profits. That idea is the reason that the warning of James Chapter 5 exists, which is a warning to those who would take advantage of others. Capitalism and Democracy can be good ideas, but they will only work properly when everyone's thoughts are turned towards doing good unto all men.

The three lies continue, and will eventually bring the conflict to a final conclusion, in which the beast, the False Prophet, and the dragon all go down together in the final whirlwind at the battle of Armageddon.

Armageddon

Verse 15, sets the time frame for the gathering of all to the battle of Armageddon, or at least the beginning of it. Many brethren still think that the battle of Armageddon is future yet, but the Study Group came to the conclusion, that it is not just a single battle, but it's a series of events that are designed to remove Satan's system. The battle of Armageddon on this end of the age, is pictured by the original mount of Megiddo, where many of the important battles of the Bible occurred. We think that this battle has already begun, and that part of that battle was when the kings that had been associated with the harlot were destroyed in 1914-

18AD. The destruction is not limited to those kings, in that all the other bad elements of society are being changed or removed in this series of battles. In the final end of the age all bad things will be shaken out, and only good things will remain as we are told in Hebrews 12:26-28. That destruction is also the melting of the elements of society, mentioned in 2Peter 3:10-12. See the full notes for a more complete explanation about this battle.

Bowl Seven

Rev 16:17 Bowl 7 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl upon the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne, saying, "It is done."

It is Finished

When we examined the Greek meaning of the word finished, we found that it was not the same word as was used by our Lord on the cross, as some think. When he said that it was finished on the cross, he was using the word 5055 which means it is completed. Here the word finished is word number 1096, which means to cause to be, which indicates to us that the final destruction that was about to begin here, was going to be caused by the pouring out of this last bowl.

Rev 16:17 Then the seventh angel poured his bowl into the air; and a loud voice came out of the sanctuary from the throne, saying, "Everything is now ready." Weymouth

Weymouth may have a more correct thought, by saying it is now ready, rather than saying it is done. It seems better to look at the pouring out of the seventh bowl as being the last thing needed, so that the final destruction of the evil system could be completed step by step. That thought seems to be borne out by the series of events that begin to happen after the bowl is poured out. This seventh and last bowl of wrath, is one of the last three that seem to have an extended application, where they first destroy the power of the evil church and state system, and then in their final phase of destruction, they destroys Satan's worldwide system of things.

The Air

Eph 2:1-2 (1 You were dead through the trespasses and sins 2 in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient NRSV

That this bowl is poured out on the air, shows that it's poured out on the Satanic spiritual powers that have controlled the world, especially the part that controls the apostate Christian church system.

The many symbols used in this bowl, are not fulfilled by a single event, but we are shown a series of events that accomplish that destruction step by step. The removal of Satan's system of control over the world, will be a process that continues until the evil system is weakened and destroyed enough, so that the people of the world can escape across the Euphrates.

Rev 16:18-19 Bowl 7 (18 And there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder; and there was a great earthquake, such as there had not been since man came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake was it, and so mighty. 19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nation's fell. Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of His fierce wrath.

Lightning & Thunder

The flashes of lightning and the thunders that we see described here, are truth that is being revealed. The lightning and thunders which started on this end of the age, were shown to us in the seventh trumpet, but here we find that the seventh bowl is going to give more detail and it will show us the final destruction of the system with the hard hail of truth. Since the harvest message began in 1878, the truth that was revealed has been echoing back and forth in the heavens. The light from those flashes exposed the sins of Great Babylon, and foretold of her judgment and destruction. The lightning, thunder, and earthquakes that came when the angel of the altar threw the coals of fire into the earth, are again working against those who do not believe in the ransom that comes from the blood of Christ. That message of salvation is not believed by most in that evil system, just as Israel didn't believe Jesus provided a ransom for them at the First Advent. A major part of the lightnings and thunderings, are the truth about what Christ accomplished on the cross.

When the angel in Chapter 8, took coals of fire off the altar and cast them into the earth, we saw the first set thunderings and lightnings, and here we have the third and last set of them. Those three sets of thunderings and lightnings, show us that a major part of the test during the entire age has been and still is: do you understand and believe in the blood of Christ and the ransom. The Jews did not accept that knowledge, and the nominal house threw that knowledge away, and instead invented the mass, which is an abomination. The revealing of the ransom doctrine that came because of the seventh trumpet, is being strengthened and further proclaimed here in the seventh bowl of wrath.

Satan began to be removed from power with this bowl, since he controls the system from behind the scenes. The pouring out of this bowl during the harvest, with the trouble coming shortly after 1914AD, doesn't mean that he has been completely bound yet, but it means that he is beginning to be bound, and to lose control to the new king. He is being bound by the chain of Revelation Chapter 20, link by link. The harvest truth was one of those links, and the casting of the remnants of the Roman civil beast into the fire of trouble after 1914AD, is another major link in the binding process. All of the elements of society that he uses to control the people, are going to be gradually removed from his control, one by one.

One of the symbolic events that occurred in this bowl, is described as a great earthquake, in which the city is split into three parts. What Great City was this? This city was the great false religious city of Papacy that had killed the two prophets in about 539AD, who in symbol represented the Old and the New Testament. In Rev 17:18, the harlot riding on the beast is also called that Great City, proving that it is Papacy. In Chapter 18, we will see that the daughter systems, as well as Papacy, are at this time a part of the new symbol called Great Babylon, and so all of the false churches are being punished here by this bowl. The punishment that is described here, came upon the entire religious system in 1914AD, and it will continue as we will see in this bowl, until it finishes off this evil system. God does not care that they are divided into different religious branches—they are all descended from the original harlot, bringing their false doctrines with them—especially the doctrine of the mass.

Three Parts of the City

The city being split into three parts is a description of the evil system being divided back into the three parts from which it had originally come from. The question becomes, what were those three parts? It should be obvious that whatever the three parts of the city were, the Great City of Papacy would have contained those same parts through all of the 1000 years of its power. We believe that the three parts are directly related back to the three evil characters that are shown in the parenthesis of the sixth bowl of wrath, which are the dragon, the beast, and the False Prophet. The three parts of the city, were those three evil characters and their combined and unified power is what created the evil system with its of its power and terror.

The Dragon

The dragon Satan, is shown separate from the beast, because Satan is the actual power behind the beast. He also uses all four of his attributes besides civil power, to deceive, accuse etc. He also controls all of the spiritual powers of the air. In Chapter 12, the dragon which pictured Satan's control of Pagan Rome, is pictured with the ten horns and seven heads, but later when we get to Chapter 13 where we see the Christianized beast, we notice that Satan had given the beast his throne, and that is why the seven heads and ten horns move from the dragon to the beast at that time. The Dragon symbol still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. He still is controlling the beast, but we see him as a separate entity, which proves that we have an actual being who is called Satan, who is out to get us.

The dragon which is Satan, controls all elements of society from behind the scenes, throughout the entire world, religious, social, financial, and civil power. All of those elements of society were used by the dragon Satan, in order to bring the evil system into existence, and now those elements are being remove from that system, helping to separate the system back into the original three parts.

He is known as the father of lies, which is one of his favorite tactics, which he uses to lead the saints astray. He is also the accuser of the brethren, in that he is always trying to claim that the saints are not worthy for one reason or another. In the dark ages, he was always behind the scenes supplying the reasons as to why the saints should be tortured or killed by the evil system. His main goal is to defeat the church, so that he won't be bound by the Lord and lose control over the earth for 1000 years.

Satan is still active in trying to defeat the church, but he can't use the physical attacks as much without his church and state system, so he is trying to corrupt the saints mentally. Unfortunately, we see historically that some have fallen, but we know that the 144,000 will be completed no matter what, and then he will be fully bound after that. He has also tried to have the Jews exterminated, so that they couldn't return back to their homeland, but our Lord turned that around on him, using those attacks to bring the Jews back to Israel. The attempt to push Israel into the sea, is still going on, but evidently he thinks he can ignore the scriptures that tell of his defeat. At this time, he is also trying to restore his lost church and state power, but we don't know if he will succeed and use that to end the church.

The Beast

The beast that we see described in Rev 16:13, was the original Roman Empire beast from Chapters 12 and 13. The beast that we see described in verse 13, is a combination of the nations of both the East and West halves of the Empire. That is the system that eventually was split into an East and a Western Roman Empire. Papacy eventually was able to take control of the Western Part which was called the image of the beast at the time. Eventually the Eastern and Western parts began to break up into individual nations, which joined into different power blocks. See the detailed notes for more information.

The combined civil power of what was left of the Eastern and Western Roman Empire, just prior to 1914, is what made-up Babylon the Great. That the remnants of both the Eastern beast and the Western Image of the Beast, still existed on this end of the age, up until at least 1914, is shown in bowl number one, where we see that those that had the mark of the beast and those who worshipped the Image of the Beast, had developed ugly and painful sores from the bowl. At the time of the harvest, the remnants of the Image still existed, but after WW1 was over, it was gone. Those who were worshipping it, wanted to put it back into the power that it originally had when the system had been a full church and state system, but we believe that is not going to be allowed.

The seventh bowl is designed to destroy the remaining civil power of both the beast and what was left of the Image of the Beast, once and for all time. We saw a direct hit on the throne of the beast in the fifth bowl of wrath, which affected the beast or civil part of the city. The sixth bowl affected the ecclesiastical or False Prophet part of the city, and the seventh bowl affects the dragon or Satan part of the city. The seventh bowl is also starting at the events of WW1 like the others do, but it then takes us forward in time through the events that have to happen, step by step, before the kingdom can begin, showing as we will point out in the full notes, that the last three bowls are different, in that they are designed to not only remove the church and state system, but they go after Satan's worldwide system of control.

The kings of the Western Image of the Beast, that Papacy had controlled during its reign of terror, were shattered by WW1—as were the kings of what was left of the Eastern part of the original Roman Empire. That destruction is pictured by the breaking up of the entire Image of Daniel in 1914 into pieces, by the blow of the stone. All of the kings that still made up both the beast and the Image at that time, were overthrown in WW1, and their governments were replaced by different forms of government. Those governments are all that are left of the beast and the Image, and they still need to be removed. They in turn will be completely removed by the whirlwind that will blow, just before the end of the time of trouble—that is why the last three bowls continue their destruction and grinding up of Satan's system, to the point where the final wind can carry it away.

The False Prophet

The first world war, made it impossible for the False Prophet that is made up of all of Christendom, which includes both the Papacy and the Protestants, and even the Eastern Orthodox parts, to regain control of the civil power that they had control of through the kings they controlled for 1000 years. As we showed earlier, the ones that make up the False Prophet, are directly descended from the religious system that was represented by the two-horned beast, which was Papacy during the time that he had religious control of the entire church of both East and West Empires, and of the civil power of the Papal States. For that reason, we see that the daughter systems are also descended from the same apostate religious system, and thus they are a part of the False Prophet. The Eastern churches are included in the False Prophet symbol, because they also got their corrupted doctrines from Papacy. These different church systems, are united in the belief of the same false doctrines that they all hold in common, like hell fire, Trinity, and different forms of the Mass, which negates what Christ had accomplished on the cross.

Even after 1799AD, with the first blow on the feet of the Image, that separated the iron and the clay of the feet, which was when the kings withdrew their support from Papacy, that evil system still felt that it could win control back and put the Great City back together again, if it waited and manipulated long enough. Some of the kings did fall back under the control of Papacy for a time, and that is why the Image existed at the start of WW1, but not afterward when the second blow of the stone shattered the entire Image.

The Protestants had kept the kings in power, that belonged to their system during that time also. WW1 and the loss of almost all kings who had been a part of the original church and state system, have made the restoration of the same church and state system impossible. WW2, and other wars have broken up even further what was left of the original beast, into even smaller pieces yet, which makes it even harder for the evil system to get back together. That doesn't mean that they won't be able to get limited control of some governments and perhaps persecute the last of the church. It just means that they won't be able to restore the original church and state Empire, and put the Great City back together again, as it was during the time of its great power.

The Result of the Breakup

So what has happened in this bowl, is that the three parts that had made up the church and state system of Great Babylon, are after WW1, separated into their individual components. We have the dragon or Satan having lost control of the church and state system, and the Old-World order that it had supported. He used to be able to have anyone that disagreed with his system, persecuted or even killed, but in most Christian countries, he does not have that option anymore at this time. Some of the Islamic countries, still do that to their people and even to Christians that are under their control, especially since the advent of ISIS. It appears that Satan is trying to put the radical Muslims in control, where they can remove the last of the saints. Anything that comes from that effort, must also be shattered and removed before the kingdom.

The civil power that had been the beast and the Image of the Beast, has been shattered into smaller pieces that will be destroyed in the final whirlwind, just before the kingdom starts. The same thing is true of the Christian religious system that made up the third part of the unholy alliance. They still follow Satan's errors, but they do not have the civil power backing them up, like they did during the 1260 years of power.

Whirlwind of Destruction

To give unto her the cup of the fierceness of his wrath, represents the final severe punishment that fell on the fallen religious system, starting in the time of WW1. See Jer 25:15-16. That Great Babylon came into remembrance before God, represents all apostate Christian religion and not just the Papal system. See Isaiah 13:1-13, regarding a description of the fall of Babylon, that fits with the downfall of Great Babylon. While they were punished in WW1 with the loss of their civil power, that evil religious system still exists and it has to be removed so that the people are freed from the chains of superstition. As soon as they were given that cup to drink, that is when we see that the mountains or Empires were removed, and we were shown that the Isles or smaller kingdoms were also fleeing away.

Rev 16:20-21 Bowl 7 (20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And huge hailstones, about one hundred pounds each, came down from heaven upon men; and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because its plague was extremely severe.

What is not as clear, is how to look at the mountains that are not found. It could be that the fleeing away of the mountains is showing us what happened after WW1, which was when the kings were overthrown and when the big colonial Empires were broken up as some brethren believe. If that's true, we can then say that the pieces of the Empires that are still in existence now, are the isles that are fleeing away.

The Colonial Empires being gone is a much more likely fulfillment of the removal of the mountains, because the cities of the nation's falling may represent the kingdoms that were destroyed in 1914, and the mountains may better represent the colonial and other big empires that have gone down since WW1. While those Empires could be all that the Lord intended with the description of the mountains being gone, we are not completely sure if that is all there is to it, because even though the colonial Empires don't exist anymore, we see that there are large blocks of nations that are formed into power blocks that still exist. Because there are still large nations and Empires that exist yet, perhaps more has yet to happen. Time will tell on that question. We do know that all nations who don't go along with the coming in of the kingdom, will be removed as seen in Psalms Chapter 2.

That the mountains are not found, could also represent the larger kingdoms breaking up—such as what occurred with the colonial Empires and also during the recent situation with the breakup of the USSR. The date of 1989, which is marked by the 1260-2520 chronology patterns we will see later in the full explanation section of Chapter 4, may indicate that the collapse of the Soviet Union was the last major mountain or Empire to go.

At the same time, since there are no more chronology circles past that date, it could also indicate that date as being start of the final removal of all the big powers that are still causing trouble in the earth. Time will tell in that regard, but the larger countries that still exist will fall for sure if they get involved in the attack against Israel at the final end.

What we know for sure, is that as described in the sixth seal, we saw that the mountains were moved out of their places by the French Revolution and other events, but they were not destroyed. At this end of the age, the time has come that the mountains or large kingdoms are going to be removed completely. The smaller nations or isles that still exist, are for sure now having a hard time keeping their nations intact and prosperous, and so that is most likely what is meant by their fleeing away.

Great Hail

The very last thing we see, is the hard hail that is about the weight of a talent. Great hail upon men from heaven, represents hard and strong truths that falls upon the apostate Christians and all false religion. It represents the destruction of lies, deceptions and, etc. In Lev 26:14, we see that stoning to death was the punishment for spirits, mediums, wizards, or blaspheming God's name, etc. and that punishment appears to be occurring here in the symbol of the hail coming down on the evil system.

Every hailstone was about the weight of a talent. This is the only place this word is found, which is Strong's number 5006. The word for money is 5007. The root of 5006, which is the word talent is: 5007 talanton (tal'-an-ton); neuter of a presumed derivative of the original form of tlaō (to bear; equivalent to 5452); a balance (as supporting weights), i.e. (by implication) a certain weight (and thence a coin or rather sum of money) or "talent": KJV-- talent.

In 1 Kings, we see that there is also a description of one man's life for another man's life, and if the man that was to have been protected had died, it would have been the life of his guard or it would cost him one talent of silver. That Old Testament passage, seems to show that one talent, was the equivalent of a man's life. I King 20:39

We believe that the hail about the weight of a talent that came down upon men, especially represents the ransom doctrine, but most likely even more than that, because all other doctrines and truths must agree with that central foundation of the ransom. In other words, the great hail that we see here is not only the ransom doctrine, but it would include all other doctrines that revolve around that central concept, because without the blood of the Lord, we would have no salvation. UBS says that a talent was between 80-120 pounds. So we see that a talent is about the weight of a small man, and as shown in the Old Testament our Lord's human life was the equivalent of a talent of silver. That the talent is equal to the weight of a man, reminds us of the balance scale that we see representing the ransom doctrine. On one side of the balance we see Adam, and on the other side of the balance we see Christ, who is uplifting Adam and the whole race back up out of sin and death. Water is truth and hail is the hard-frozen truth that God has saved until the end of the age.

*The perfect man Adam sinned.
The perfect man Jesus offered
"a corresponding ransom"*

Rom 5:18-19 (18 Consequently, just as one trespass resulted in condemnation for all people, so also one righteous act resulted in justification and life for all. 19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous. TNIV

Blaspheming God

Men blasphemed God because of the hail. The revealing of the error of the system by the harvest message, has caused them pain and problems, as well as brought just punishment and destruction upon them for what they had done. As time has gone on, they have continued to blame God or others for the very problems that they have brought upon themselves.

They blasphemed God because they refused to believe in the salvation of the Ransom for all, that God has provided. That salvation is the cornerstone of the Divine plan, and of the harvest message that was rejected by the evil system at the end of the Gospel Age. They refused to believe the truth and they made it even worse, by saying that God didn't provide salvation for all men, but that he was going to burn sinners and heretics and all others that don't agree with the evil system, in hell forever.

That they have not repented here, shows that this is not a picture of the final fall of the system. We will see that shown as a complete destruction in Revelation chapters 18-20.

The Harlot Riding the Beast

Rev 17:1-2 (1)Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed acts of immorality, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality."

Who is the Angel?

There are two possibilities regarding who these angels are. This angel is one of the angels with the seven bowls of wrath, and so it could simply be that the angels that poured out the bowls of wrath, were actual angels.

A second and more likely thought, is that the messengers to the churches, the angels with the trumpets, the angels with the bowls of wrath, are the seven earthly messengers. If that is correct then when they delivered their messages to the churches and they blew the seven trumpets, they were earthly pastors. At the time they delivered the bowls of wrath, they were on the other side of the veil, having made their calling and election. This angel is the messenger that delivered the truth about the fallen church system, showed us the coming kingdom, and many other truths. That could only be the seventh messenger—in this vision, the truths that were going to be revealed by the seventh messenger, are being delivered to the church in a vision by Jesus's angel, through Revelation. What is being revealed, points to the message that the seventh messenger was going to deliver to the church on the seventh day.

What we are going to see in this vision is a major reason for the punishment of the bowls of wrath. While this Chapter was of difficult interpretation, we believe that what is presented here fits the historical facts as we know them. It's not a future system as many still think, but its main fulfillment was during the time of the height of the power of Papacy. It's the time that Papacy had risen high enough in power, that it could take over and control the civil power of much of the Western Roman Empire—symbolized by the harlot on the beast. The more extensive proof that this Chapter is already fulfilled, will be found in the more detailed notes.

The Harlot

That this harlot sat upon many waters, is telling us symbolically that she was supported by many different peoples, nations, and tongues. Historically, we see that is an exact description of the Papal system at the height of its power. Papacy had gotten greater influence over the civil power of the Western Empire in 799AD when it created the image of the beast, by restoring what looked like was the Roman Empire, but it actually was not because Papacy did not have any legal right to crown Charlemagne as Emperor of Western Rome. In addition, the new Empire was not a Roman Empire, because it had been constructed out of German rulers. After the restoration of the Western Empire, the Papal system also retained religious control over both the Eastern and Western Empire until 1054AD. The full control over the kings of the West did not get finalized until about 1122-1179, and that is when it became the eighth head of the beast.

The woman that we see here is a harlot because she was not faithful to her covenant with our Lord. The Christian church was not to have formed a union of church and state with the kings of the earth, which we see that this harlot did, just as is described in verse 2. See also verses 2, 15, and 16, 18:3, 19:2. Being shown as an unfaithful woman, the harlot is a picture of the unfaithful and fallen Papal church system. As we have already seen in previous Chapters, she is also guilty of shedding the blood of the faithful saints.

Those who belonged to that evil system were made spiritually drunk, which caused them to be guilty of doing dreadful things in the name of Christianity. They thought nothing of torturing or murdering those who tried to disagree with that system, or its doctrines.

In the detailed notes, we present three or four different methods of defining who the heads on the beast are. They all arrive at the time of John the apostle, at the time of the sixth head, just as he is told by the angel. All three or four methods, place the sixth, the seventh, and the eighth heads in the same place or time. Which does not point to a future beast, but which shows that those beasts already had their fulfilment in history already. We do not believe that the moving of the seventh and eighth heads to this end of the age is a correct interpretation, and it leads to brethren looking for something that is never going to come—it has already been here.

Rev 17:3 And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns.

Beast & Wilderness, 799 or 800?

That we see the harlot sitting on the Western Roman beast, helps us with our definition of the Image of the Beast in Chapter 13, which was created in 799-800. The chronology points us to 799, but historians point us to 800, so the question is what is the correct date? We believe that the answer is that Papacy began taking control of the city and surrounding area of Rome in 799AD, by making deals with Charlemagne. That was when he was resisted by a couple of church individuals, who filed charges against him, one of which may be the messenger.

The Pope fled to Charlemagne, who he had made offers to previously about a protection agreement between him and Charlemagne, regarding Rome and the surrounding territory which previously had belonged to an aristocratic class of rich rulers, but this Pope had deposed them and took control of the city for himself. In the latter part of 800, the Pope and Charlemagne came back to the city of Rome. The two who had resisted Papacies attempt at taking control of all of the civil power of the area of Rome and the land surrounding it, expected that their charges would be heard. The Pope was allowed to stand and swear that none of the charges were correct, and the two accusers were not allowed to present their side of the charges. Their supporters were immediately killed and they were both banished. Two Days later the Pope crowned Charlemagne, and 1000 years of the image of the beast began! See the detailed notes at the beginning of the message to the fourth church, which mainly come from Sir Isaac Newton's notes about what happened during that time.

In this summary, as we go verse by verse, we will give some reasoning as to why we believe that the beast with the eighth head developed out of the Image of Chapter 13. The time in history that they were both the same, was at the point in time that Papacy took control of the 10 kings of the Image of the Beast, and they gave their crowns and power unto the beast, which was about 1122-1179. The area that the harlot controlled was the Western Roman Empire, and at the height of her power it included what was called the Holy Roman Empire—which wasn't holy at all. The actual Empire at the height of its power, controlled more than just the part known as the Holy Roman Empire, because Papacy had considerable influence over the surrounding Empires as well, and even over the Eastern Roman Empire.

As we have studied Revelation, we have broadened our interpretation of the beast to include more than just the civil power. We now say that the symbol of the beast represents not only the civil power of the beast, but that it includes several other elements, such as the financial, and the social support of the people. The harlot was the ecclesiastical, or religious part of the society that made up this evil system, but because the people were religious, we could also say that the beast she was on had a strong religious element to it, because it was a theocracy. In the earlier vision of the beast in Chapter 13, we saw the religious part as a mouth speaking great things in the Empire, but here Papacy has grown much more powerful, and because of that we see the harlot pictured separate, riding, and controlling the beast. The time that she is killing the saints in this Chapter, is the same time as the killing that we saw in the later part of Chapter 13.

Papacy Taking Control Step by Step

That the beast had ten horns, identifies it as being related to the dragon representing Satan's Pagan governments in Chapter 12. It transformed from the Pagan dragon in Chapter 12, when Rome adopted Christianity, and it then became the Christianized Roman beast that we saw in Chapter 13. That beast had a smitten and healed head because Rome had fallen to the barbarians in 476, and then it had partially recovered by 539. The dragon vision was showing us a Satan controlled Pagan Roman Empire, before Christianity became the official religion of the Empire in 313AD. The vision of the beast coming out of the sea in Chapter 13, is showing us the Christianized Roman beast just before 539AD—when it was coming back into existence after having been overran by barbarians. Satan is of course behind and controlling all those different versions of the beast. The Dragon symbol still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. The "Image" we saw towards the end of Chapter 13, shows us a further development, which was when Papacy had managed to restore the Western Roman Empire—creating a new Empire, with him working to get control of it. When he eventually got control over the ten kings, that is when the theocratic eighth head was formed—about 1122-1179.

Papacy Riding the New Empire Beast Had an Eight Head, Which Equals Theocratic Government

Here in this Chapter, we are seeing the Roman Empire at the time which was after the Pope had crowned Charlemagne in 800AD. When the Pope did that, he in effect had created a new Roman Emperor in the West, where there had previously only been one in the East since the time of Constantine. That event is what formed the Image of the beast, and after a number of years the eighth head was developed, which was when the Papacy took control over the 10 kings in about 1122-1179, starting with the investiture agreement. The Image of the Roman Empire that was created by the crowning of Charlemagne lasted for 1000 years until 1799AD. The previous seven heads, were different beastly forms of Empires that had existed since the time of Assyria. See the diagram in the detailed notes, regarding how our Bible Student chronology defines who all eight heads are. This vision is showing us the history of the church and state system, after Papacy had gotten a great deal of control over the civil government—which happened about 1179AD.

2 Thess 2:8-11 (9 that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, 10 and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. NASU

When the seventh head had been restored on the beast and was back in power after 539AD, Papacy was then given control over the entire Christian church of the Roman Empire—which was both the East and the West Empire. That created a time in which truth was not allowed in the Empire, and the bible was not used to determine doctrine anymore—the Pope did that through decrees and church councils. Later, when he crowned Charlemagne an Emperor in the West, he in effect started a process that eventually created a beast with an eighth head that he could ride or control. It took Papacy awhile to get that kind of control, but when he did that was when things got extremely bad—with torture and death awaiting anyone that disagreed, as is described in the latter part of Chapter 13 and in this Chapter.

We will discuss the heads further when we get to the part about the eighth head, but it's important at this point to know that the sixth and the seventh heads, were the Chapter 12 and 13 dragon and beasts we just discussed. They were Pagan Rome and Christianized Rome. If there is any doubt about that, we find it stated in verse ten, that five Empires had already fallen in the time of John, as described by the angel and that the sixth one, the Pagan Roman beast, existed at the time of the First Advent. Some say that John is seeing this vision during the time of the seventh church, and that is why they believe that the other heads are still future. There is nothing in those verses that would allow us to move these events into the future, and we believe that doing so results in an erroneous interpretation of the Chapter. We will see as we go further through the Chapter, that this vision was completely fulfilled during the 1260 years of terrible power. In the Daniel prophecies regarding this terrible beast, there is nothing that shows this beast coming back into power after the end of the 1260 years—it instead shows it being gradually consumed by fire, and that is the time that we are in now. But again, we can't rule out a John the Baptist type persecution and death for the close of the church, but it would not be any of the beasts we are discussing in these Chapters.

Names of Blasphemy

The names of blasphemy were created by Papacy making false claims, saying that he was representing our Lord Jesus here on earth, and claiming that all the evil things that this church was doing, were condoned by our Lord Jesus. He also claimed that the doctrine of transubstantiation was a correct doctrine, and that the mass changed the bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ—denying the power of Christ's salvation. Papacy claimed that the kingdom that he ruled over, was God's kingdom, even though it was filled with murder and oppression. God's kingdom will be a time of blessing and uplifting, and not the worst time of oppression and trouble ever in the history of the world, which was what this system was. The blasphemy also included the many claims of false doctrines that were not from God, such as the eternal torture of hellfire, and the Trinity doctrine, which makes it impossible to understand the ransom doctrine.

Ten Horns

The ten horns, represent the civil power and the nations that made up the Western beast. There are certain times in history, like around 539AD, where it's possible to identify 10 actual countries that made up the Roman Empire, but because the beasts must fit into several different places in history, we think that there is also a symbolic application to the ten horns, that makes a more complete picture. If we look at the ten horns as being the total civil power of the Empire, and not just ten literal countries, then we have no problem fitting any of the beasts into history. The ten kings that we see in this Chapter, would then represent the civil power that this Empire had at any time in its history. See Bullinger's notes, on the interpretation of the number ten in the detailed notes. The beast that the woman is riding on in this Chapter, is not shown with the crowns on the ten horns like we saw in Chapter 13, and that is because the ten kings had given up their kingly power to the harlot at the time of this vision, which would be after about 1122-1179. The ten kings that this beast had, is what resulted in the doctrine of the Divine right of Kings being adopted, which was created in order to give the civil power of the kings legitimacy.

Rev 17:4 The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her immorality,

Purple and Scarlet Points to the Sins of the Harlot

That the woman was dressed in purple, shows us that she considered herself to be in charge of the Empire. Purple was the color that only the rich, government officials and Roman Emperors could wear. That she also wore scarlet, shows that she was very sinful, as implied by the scripture in Isaiah that talks about Israel's sins being like scarlet. It's very interesting that the Catholic Church made it illegal for anyone but Popes and cardinals to wear these colors—making the Popes above the Emperor. They don't seem to realize that by so doing, they are making it easy to identify who this harlot is, and that they are condemning themselves by providing some of the evidence for their judgment.

That she had gold and precious stones, and pearls, shows the wealth that she gathered to herself at the expense of the people. Besides being literal jewelry, the gold, and precious stones, and pearls, they could also symbolically represent Gods truths, which the evil and apostate system had misappropriated. The truths belong to God, but she falsely claims to be the fountain and source of all knowledge.

Golden Cup

That she had a golden cup in her hand, shows a couple of things. One thing the cup represented, was that she was claiming the right to judge and punish, just as God had used the symbol of making the nation's drink from the cup in the Old Testament, to indicate judgment on Israel and the surrounding nations. That original drinking of the cup in Jeremiah, had pointed to the destruction and punishment that was coming upon Israel and the surrounding nations because of their sinful ways. In a similar manner, as what we see the harlot doing here, the Babylonian king Belshazzar misappropriated the gold vessels from the temple in a drunken feast, just before Babylon's destruction. See Dan Chapter 5.

That Chapter in Daniel, is a very good picture of the situation, in that they had misused the cups from the temple at the feast. When the hand appeared and wrote on the wall, they were frightened and called for Daniel. Daniel reminded the king of what had happened to Nebuchadnezzar, and told him that the days of his kingdom had been numbered. In the detailed notes, we show how the numbers on the wall indicate 2520 years, which pointed directly to WW1 and 1914AD where the kings of the church and state system were destroyed.

The lesson in Chapter 5 of Daniel, seems to settle the question of whose cup the woman had in her hand. The harlot had misappropriated the Lord's cup, and then mixed the true Gospel in it, with all kinds of Abominations and unclean things. The cup was clean on the outside, but filthy inside like a white-washed sepulcher. The Abominations, filthiness, and intoxicating portions, were her false teachings, and sinful practices that she advocated. That would be for example the mass, hellfire, Trinity, and the gross misrepresentations of Gods character, and of his kingdom, etc. Those doctrinal errors, are part of what was in the cup she gave the nations to drink.

Rev 17:5 and on her forehead a name was written, a mystery, "BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."

Name of Mystery

The above title was written into her character, and was plain to see for all who look with understanding. Written on her forehead, shows that her bad name was inscribed indelibly into her every word and deed, and even her thinking. She falsely thinks and claims that she is God's church on earth, but she is not, and she is the root and cause of the apostasy of Babylon the Great. Just as literal Babylon took actual control of natural Israel, Babylon the Great had taken forceful control over the faithful Gospel Age church in the same manner.

This Chapter gives us a great deal of information and a detailed description, so that those who diligently study the scriptures would be able to recognize the evil system that Paul had predicted would come.

Mother of Harlots

That she is the Mother of Harlots, shows us that the Roman Catholic System begat all the "Daughters", which are Protestantism, the Eastern Orthodox, and the other branches that have developed since the time of the Reformation. Most of them, are likewise harlots and follow in her footsteps, in that they also entered into illicit union with earthly kings and institutions. The Eastern churches can also be thought of as daughters, because they received their doctrines from her when she controlled both sides of the Empire. They attended and agreed to the same church councils, that corrupted all of God's truth by substituting Satan's doctrines in their place. The Great City of Papacy, became a part of Great Babylon when the mother church split into different factions.

The Faithful Church in contrast, is symbolized as being a virgin, who follows the Lord no matter where he goes, and she has stayed separate from worldly organizations as best that she can. The Abominations, represent the many false doctrines that all the daughter systems still follow yet to this day! Most of her offsprings still adhere to a form of the mass, which is an Abomination to God because they attempt to sacrifice Christ over and over again. They also believe in hell fire, the immortality of the soul, the Trinity, the Divine Right of Kings, and the many other Abominations that came from her. In Matt Chapter 24, we are given the warning that the Abomination of Desolation was going to come, and historically we see that it did. Daniel tells us that from the time that it was set up, until it would begin to come to an end, would be 1260, 1290, and 1335 years—which ended in 1874AD.

Rev 17:6 And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered greatly.

She is a Spiritually Drunken Woman

That she was "drunk with the blood of the saints", is confirmed by the history of that evil system. The Papal system killed and tortured millions who disagreed with it, and who were trying to restore the true testimony of Jesus. As they killed the saints, they were bragging about how they were keeping God's doctrines pure, as they were eliminating those who they claimed were heretics. When John saw the vision of the woman, he became greatly astonished by what he saw.

Rev 17:7 And the angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

The angel then told John, that he would explain to him the mystery of the beast with the seven heads and the ten horns, and the woman who was riding it.

Rev 17:8 "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go to destruction. And those who dwell on the earth, whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come.

The Beast that Was But is Not And Will Come

The beast that was and is not and will come “out of the abyss or the sea”, shows that there was something different about the beast that the harlot is riding. We have added a couple of references into that statement, to help show that there are some other places in the scriptures that define who this system is. At one time, the Study Group thought that it “was not”, because Papacy had taken control of the Roman civil beast and turned it into a theocracy. While that is not a bad answer, we now think that there may be an even more important meaning behind the phrase, “the beast that was, but was not”. It gives us a very important clue when it says it’s about to come up out of the abyss, and that it will eventually go into perdition or destruction. That it’s coming back up out of the abyss, is giving us a major hint that we need to look back at Chapter 13 and Chapter 11, where we see what we believe is the same beast, coming up out of the abyss and the sea in both of the other places.

In Revelation 13:1, we saw the original Christianized Roman Empire, just as it was coming back into existence, as symbolized by it coming up out of the sea like the beasts Daniel saw coming out of the sea. We believe that we see the same thing in this Chapter, but here it’s described in a different symbol, which is that it is coming up out of the abyss, instead of coming up out of the sea. In this Chapter it’s showing us the same thing, but with a different symbol. The beast was to come again, and that is after it had received the head wound and then recovered. That is why it says that it was and is not, and it tells us that it is about to come up out of the abyss and go off into destruction. That it goes off into destruction, is what Daniel also tells us was going to happen to the beast he saw after the 1260, 1290, 1335 days.

Dan 9:27 And he shall make a strong covenant with many for one week; and for half of the week he shall cause sacrifice and offering to cease; and upon the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed end is poured out on the desolator.” RSV

In other words, it was the Christianized Roman Empire at the time that it had existed previously, and for a time “it was not”, and that was when it was in the abyss and did not exist as an Empire anymore, as described here in this Chapter. The reason that it was in the abyss, was because Rome had become so weak that the Barbarians hoards had overran it in 476AD, and they had sacked Rome and destroyed the Western part of the Empire. When it’s seen coming back up out of the abyss and the sea, is when it comes back into existence again. The Roman Emperor Justinian, restored some of the Western power of Rome shortly after the collapse, and he was also the one who gave Papacy ecclesiastical control over both halves of the Empire at that same time.

Second Description of a Beast Coming out of the Abyss

Besides the Chapter 13 account, we find one other place where it tells us that the beast comes up out of the abyss, and that is in Chapter 11. There we see that when the two witnesses are perfecting their testimony, the beast comes up out of the abyss and attacks and kills them. See the full notes on Chapter 11, to see why the finishing or completing of the testimony, was the completion of the New and Old Testament Bible, and the witness of God’s true Plan of Salvation that was given to the known world just before 539AD by the faithful church. We believe that explanation makes much more sense than a 3.5 year time just before the end of the 1260. Papacy was given power and partial control over that beast, when he was given charge of the doctrine of the entire Empire. The bible was also denied to the laity at that time, because they wanted to stop any debate over the Trinity doctrine, which was being disputed by the Arians.

Some might complain that two of the places that the beast comes out of, use abyss rather than the sea. But a close examination of the word, shows that it can be used for an ocean or flood of water, in other words something deep and so this can be an abyss of the ocean or the sea.

NT:12 ábyssos [abyss] A term for the underworld as a. the prison of the disobedient (Luke 8:31; Rev 9:1) and b. the realm of the dead (Rom 10:7).

Originally an adjective for an implied "earth," ábyssos is used in Greek for the depths of original time, the primal ocean, and the world of the dead. In the LXX it denotes the original flood, then the realm of the dead (e.g., Ps 71:20).

The Entire World Wondered About the Beast

In verse 8, we see that the entire world wondered how Rome could have collapsed, and then how it could be restored to great power, with the Papal system as a partner. The same statement is made in Chapter 13, where we see that it says in verse three, that the whole world was astonished, confirming that the timing is the same, and that it is the same Roman beast that we see in that Chapter.

Rev 17:9-11 ("Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits, 10 and they are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. 11 "The beast which was and is not, is himself also an eighth and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction.

The Mystery of the Beast

This Chapter then makes another statement regarding the beast in verse 11, telling us that it is also an eighth beast, and that it comes “out of” the seventh beast. That is the same thing that we saw regarding the Image of the Beast in Chapter 13, in that the Image was not the same thing as the original Roman beast that had been restored from the Barbarians collapse. It was made to look like the original Roman beast, but it was not because it was a new Western Roman Empire that had been created by Papacy when he had crowned Charlemagne. It also was not a Roman beast, because it was made up of German tribes. It tells us in Chapter 13, that it was created in the sight of the other or original beast, which was historically correct, because the Eastern Roman Empire still existed at that time. So, we are now able to see that the Image and the beast with the eighth head, are the same things—but from two different scriptural viewpoints and times—we know that we have to be looking at the image at the time that Papacy had taken control of the 10 kings, which was when the eighth head was formed. The first seven heads were Roman, but the eighth head was not a Roman government, but it had sprang up from German tribes.

This is the Eighth

The beast that the woman is riding on in this vision, is not the same beast that was seen coming out of the abyss or out of the sea in 539, because the image of the beast was created in the West, 799-800. The Image of the Beast, was formed when Charlemagne was crowned by the Pope, but the crowning did not give Papacy control over the image until much later. In Chapter 17, we see the image with an eighth head, and the image had grown out of the seventh or Christianized seven headed beast. The eighth head, was created by the Pope getting control of the civil power in 1122-1179AD, which formed a new eighth head on the beast, because the type of government changed—it was then a theocracy.

The angel was telling John, that “at the time of the Apostles”, that 5 had fallen and that the sixth one was “then in existence”. He was also telling John, that the seventh would come later and only exist for a little while, and that the one that the woman was riding on would be the eighth. Many interpreters, as well as most Bible Students, move the placement of the sixth head after the end of the 1260 years, which is after 1799AD—believing that the John class of the seventh church is the one receiving the prophetic statement about the sixth head being in existence at the start of the seventh church. We believe that is a mistaken interpretation, and that the sixth head of the Pagan Roman Empire actually existed in John’s time just as was said, exactly where the angel said that it was in existence, and there is no authority to move it contrary to scripture anywhere else later in history. The idea to do that we believe came from the Adventists, and that was a mistake.

The seventh head began to come into existence, replacing the Pagan sixth head, when Christianity was recognized as the religion of the Empire in 313AD, with the edict of Milan. The seventh head was not fully formed until 381, when all other religion in the Empire were forbidden, and only the so called Orthodox religion could exist. It’s also very interesting that you will find in the detailed notes, that every one of the eight heads is defined and placed in the proper place in history by our Bible Student chronology. See the full notes for a table, with all eight heads and the chronology associated with the heads.

Counting the Eight Heads

Departing from the traditional Bible Student view, and according to the original Study Group thought, we believe that the seven heads of the beast are the seven major Empires that have ruled over the Lords people throughout history: (1) Assyria, (2) Egypt, (3) Babylon, (4) Medes and Persians, (5) Greece, (6) Pagan Rome and (7) Christian Rome. In the detailed notes we also give Bro Jim Shuckers alternate view which may also be correct, except for perhaps his interpretation of the seventh head. We will explain all of that in the detailed notes.

Seven Hills

Rome is situated on 7 actual literal hills, which shows us who is fulfilling this Chapter. For that reason, what this is telling us is that the woman Papacy is sitting on and using the power of the Roman Empire, at the time of the fulfillment of this vision. Papacy the harlot, sat on the seventh Empire or mountain of Rome, but since all the Empires conquered each other in succession, she sat on the combined might of all seven Empires. That is why the early church could call Rome Babylon, since Rome was a successor of the original Babylonian power that had carried Judah away to Babylon. When she is shown sitting on the beast controlling it, that is when the eighth head was formed.

Out of the Seventh

If we read Rev 17:11 in the Diaglott, on the Greek side, we find that it says, "even he an eighth is and out of the seven is." This is exactly how the so-called theocratic Holy Roman Empire came to be, it grew up out of the old seventh head or Christianized Roman Empire, and it became the eighth head, which was a different form of government on the Roman beast. The reason that it was different, was because Papacy created a new Roman Empire in the West, called the image in 799AD. The eighth head was when he had gotten control over the civil power of the Western Empire, and he was no longer just a partner with the new Western Emperor, because after that he was controlling the Empire starting in about 1122-1179. The first seven heads were Roman, but the eighth head was not a Roman government, because it had sprang up from German tribes. That is why the vision of the Roman beast, only had seven heads on it.

That it was yet to come in verse 10, shows that it was something that didn't exist yet at the time of the writing of Revelation in John's time, but that it would surely come there was no doubt, because Daniel had also prophesied about it. This was the great falling away that had been prophesied to come by the Apostle Paul, and he was also looking at the Old Testament book of Daniel when he made that prediction.

That this beast was going to go to its destruction, is exactly what we see described in Daniel 7:11-12, 25-26, where the beast is gradually destroyed after the 1260 years, and the faithful saints are given the kingdom.

Rev 17:12-14 (12 "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour. 13 "These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast.

14 "These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful."

The Ten Horns

In Rev 17:12, we are told that the ten horns received power with the beast for one hour. The crowns were not on the horns at that time, because they had given Papacy control of their civil power during that 1000 years. The ten kings of civil power that this beast had, resulted in the creation of the doctrine of the Divine right of Kings which was created to give the civil power legitimacy. The image that was formed in 799, lasted for 1000 years from 799 - 1799AD. Papacy started working to get control of the beast from that point onward, but it wasn't until about 1122-1179 that he finally succeeded in getting full control. After 1799AD, most of the kings abandoned the harlot, with only a few of them rejoining her later. That brief restored partnership only lasted until the end of WW1, and then all the kings that had supported her and the Eastern Orthodox, and the Protestants, were destroyed, or their governments were turned into other types of governments.

As it says, the Lamb would defeat them, because he is Lord of Lords and King of Kings, and that defeat happened at the exact time he started to take his kingly control over the earth in 1799-1914. One other reason that they were all destroyed after WW1, was because the 2520 years of the gentile powers ran out in 1914AD. Most governments that have gotten free from the church and state system, do not want anything to do with the harlot anymore, and if they do anything, they attack her like the Communist governments did. As Daniel Chapter 7 said, the rest of the beasts were allowed to exist after that for a set period of time, but we aren't told how long that will be. We pray that it will be as short as possible.

Rev 17:15 And he said to me, "The waters which you saw where the harlot sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

The Waters that Support the Harlot

The angel gives us more information regarding the waters that the woman sat upon, so that there would be no doubt as to who she is. "The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages.”

Rev 17:16-17 (16 "And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire. 17 "For God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

At the Time of the End The Horns turn Against the Harlot

After 1799AD, some of the kings began to burn her flesh with fire, as was prophesied in verse 16. When the civil power abandoned the harlot, they began to attack her doctrines, and murders, finally recognizing that they should not have been associated with her in the first place. This especially happened with France, who outlawed the Papal system, but it wasn't long before others rejected her, and many kings rejected the church and state cooperation with that evil system. That happened almost immediately, in that after 1799AD many governments that had been associated with that system no longer wanted anything to do with the religious church and state system. Many of them such as France about 10 years earlier, went out of their way to ban participation in religion after the bad experiences that they had while under her power. France is the most famous and well-known example of this rebellion, but most of Europe to a greater or lesser extent, had turned against the Papal system shortly after France did.

There were many people that hated the harlot before 1799, but the church had too much power, and they didn't dare openly resist it. Sir Isaac Newton is a good example of that, because he didn't dare publish his biblical writings while he was still alive. After the decline of her power, many began to rebel openly against her. During that time, there were many scientific discoveries that were made, and that led many to abandon the churches superstitious doctrines, because they saw a scientific explanation for many things that the church had claimed supremacy over. This was also the time of the theory of evolution, before which the superstitious doctrines of the church didn't stand a chance. The secular schools began to teach science that disagreed with the church, and that weakened their hold on the people even more. That especially happened in the schools of higher learning, and many of those so exposed to the new ideas became atheists.

The countries that were going against her, were in a sense burning her flesh with fire, because they were taking members that were loyal to her, and they convinced them that they needed to support the state instead. There were also many that were advocating different ideas like communism and other strange ideas that were pulling people away from the religious systems. We know that there were ones like Voltaire and others that were publishing against the religious system during that time—by exposing the evil of the system.

Rev 17:18 "The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

The Woman is the Great City

Here we find that it tells us that the woman is the "Great City", which is Papacy—which is where the prophets had been killed in Chapter 11. The angel wants us to have all the evidence that we need to understand who the woman is, because as we are warned elsewhere in this book, we are not to worship the beast or the Image. So, if we don't see that this woman existed during the 1260 years, and we are waiting for it to get into power, we have overlooked a great deal of the evidence regarding the evil dark age system.

The Destruction of Babylon

Rev 18:1-3 (2)After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined with his glory. 2 And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird. 3 "For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality."

Bowl seven is Poured Upon The Unclean Demons and Spirits That We See in Great Babylon.

This angel represents our Lord Jesus, who came in his second presence in 1874AD, Dan 12:1. One thing that proves this vision is much further along in time than chapter 14, is that this angel is coming down from heaven, where in chapter 14 that angel is flying in the midst of heaven. Jesus is coming to exercise his power and to take charge of his kingdom, and to finish destroying the remnants of Great Babylon and its power. The process of standing up and coming, appears to be from 1799 – 1874AD. We will see that some of the events pictured in this Chapter, date from 1799 and afterward. The reason that we think that is correct, is because of the hour that is mentioned in this Chapter, which is most likely the same hour that the ten kings gave their crowns unto the beast, which was 799-1799. There appears to be different periods of time labeled one hour in the scriptures, and this one is defined by the time that the kings were in power with the beast—which was from 799-1799. There was only a limited control over the beast by Papacy in 799, but that started a step by step attempt to take control by Papacy, which switched back and forth for many years, until Papacy finally won out in about 1122-1179. That they created a church and state system, is why it says that the nations committed adultery with her. That the merchants became rich because of her, is a historical fact, in that they had exclusive rights to her markets as long as they supported her. They were the ones that were allowed to buy and sell both spiritual, as well as earthly goods.

The events that occur after the 1799 breakup of church and state, bring us up to the vision of our Lord arriving in 1874AD, and the judgment in 1878AD, which we will see in this Chapter also.

Babylon Has Fallen

Earlier in Revelation 14:8, we saw a similar statement regarding Great Babylon, stating that she had fallen. In our study for that section, we felt that was the beginning of the fall of Great Babylon, and that downfall most likely started during the time of the first woe trumpet or for sure by the second woe trumpet. The reason we felt that was the beginning of her fall, was because she still existed in power yet at that point in time, because the Faithful Church is warned in that Chapter not to have anything to do with her. In Chapter 14, she had fallen from grace and had not yet fallen in actuality as she has here, where she is going down in physical actuality. Later in Chapter 14, where we saw the Lord on a cloud coming to judge and punish that system, that point in time is where we are at in this Chapter. Chapter 14 showed us the beginning of that fall, and this Chapter is going to show us the final events of her fall and destruction.

In Chapter 18, we see that more has been added to the statement concerning her fall than what we saw in Rev Chapter 14, in that here she is said to be a prison house of every unclean and hateful bird. Every hateful bird is not translated as well as it could be in the King James, in that the word hateful means detestable. The word unclean, also has an interesting meaning, in that it means impure or ceremonial or morally unclean. The reason the entire system has fallen, is because it's so bad that it is not able to be used of the Lord anymore, and for that reason it is cast off or spewed out, as our Lord had stated in the message to the seventh church. The period of the seventh church was warned about this coming punishment, which was going to come if they did not repent and reform.

The name Great Babylon, is because of the composite nature of this system at the end of the age. We think that even though the Protestant system was split off from the Catholic system in earlier times, the Lord still considers them guilty of the same things, because many of them continued the same evil practices and doctrines of the mother church. For that reason, the Lord does not see any difference between the daughters and their mother, and for that reason they are a part of Great Babylon at this point in history, and are subject to the same judgment and destruction as the mother system. The Eastern Churches are also guilty of some of the same things as the Papal system, and so we believe that they are included in this title.

If it weren't true that the name Great Babylon, included more than the Papacy, we wouldn't have any place that would be showing us the judgment of Christendom, which we know did happen in 1878AD. The judgment at that time had to include the entire Christian system, because it's a parallel of the Jewish system's judgment.

Rev 18:4-5 (4 I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues; 5 for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.

Come Out of Her in Harvest

Bowl 2

Cuts Off the Inhabitants of Babylon From Being a Part of the 144,000.

That this is the point in time that the church is called to come out of her, dates this prophesy for us. This point in time, is the time of the harvest after 1878AD, when the call to come out of her was being issued to all who had a hearing ear and a seeing eye. That her sins have piled up to heaven, and that God has remembered her crimes, tells us that she had been judged and found guilty. That judgment is defined by the harvest parallels, which pointed to 1878AD.

Rev 18:6 "Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back to her double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her.

1845 Double

The double here could have several possibilities, but the most interesting and likely one, seems to point to the 1845 year double. The 1845 year double started with Jacobs's death, and continued until it was mid-pointed during the Jewish harvest and the judgment, which occurred there in 33AD. From there it went another 1845 years to the harvest parallel of 1878AD, which is the date of the judgment of Christendom. Just as the Jewish 40-year harvest came upon the Jews and they were found guilty and punished, the same thing was going to happen on this end of the age with Christendom. See the second volume "Studies in the Scriptures", for information regarding the 1845 double.

Rev 18:7-8 (7 "To the degree that she glorified herself and lived sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, 'I SIT as A QUEEN AND I AM NOT A WIDOW, and will never see mourning.' 8 "For this reason in one day her plagues will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

This is the Earth or Society of Bowl One Being Destroyed

They had been warned against worshipping the beast and the Image, and they did it anyway. God was going to unseat both the Papacy and her daughters, from the civil power that they had, and historically that happened during the period of time from 1799 to 1918AD. By the end of that time in 1918AD, both Papacy and the daughter systems totally lost their civil power. When Communism took control in the East, that was the end of the cooperation between the civil power and in the Eastern churches, and it wasn't too long after that, that the Communists system began to forbid participation in the church. As we look at history, we see the tremendous amounts of splendor and wealth that this system had amassed to itself, while the people were starving and being oppressed. God was going to hold that system accountable for those excesses.

That Great Babylon saw itself as a queen, shows that she didn't see herself as the evil system that she was. She didn't think that she would be rejected by the Lord, but as we will see, that system has been rejected and is being punished because of the many things that they had done wrong. Christendom has always claimed that they were God's system, but God is going to show them that they were wrong, and that he didn't ok the excesses that they justified in his name.

Rev 18:9-10 (9 "And the kings of the earth, who committed acts of immorality and lived sensuously with her, will weep and lament over her when they see the smoke of her burning, 10 standing at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.

Bowl Five Where the Throne of the Beast, the Kings Are Separated From Christianity

When the system began to go down, from the time of the French Revolution, the kings stayed back away from the Papal and Protestant churches as much as they could. The reason was the people were losing faith in that system, and they wanted freedom and change for the better.

Without the power of the kings, the throne of Babylon the Great was being darkened. When the 1260 years were completed in 1799AD, the world was shocked to see Papacy lose its civil power after the revolt of the people in France. The rest of the kings saw that as their chance, and they also separated from that system as much as they could. They had expected a Divine judgment to fall upon France, and when nothing happened, they felt safe and especially revolted against the Papal control. The full separation of the power of the kings, did not occur until they all were removed from power in WW1.

The one hour that it took for her judgment to come, was the same hour that the kings had been in power with the Western church and state beast, which was from 799 -1179– 1799AD, Rev 17:12. The hour starts in 799, because Papacy claimed power over the kings at that date when he helped to create the image of the beast, but 1122-1179 is where Papacy finally won out over the kings, taking full control, as we explained above. After that hour, they could see the symbolic smoke of her burning, as the wealth and power she had, began to leave her.

Rev 18:11-19 (11 "And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargoes anymore — 12 cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and every kind of citron wood and every article of ivory and every article made from very costly wood and bronze and iron and marble, 13 and cinnamon and spice and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and slaves and human lives. 14 "The fruit you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them. 15 "The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, 16 saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls; 17 for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!' And every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and as many as make their living by the sea, stood at a distance, 18 and were crying out as they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city?' 19 "And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea became rich by her wealth, for in one hour she has been laid waste!')

Bowl Six

The Drying up of her Wealth and Popularity and Those Who Support Her

Bowl Four

Where the Gospel Light of the Sun Beats Down On Them

Of all the great wealth that we see here, we see that it was both literal and spiritual goods that were being lost. Just as it says in Chapter 13 of Revelation, you had to have the mark of the beast in your hand and forehead, or you would not be allowed to buy or sell in that system. That buying and selling was about literal goods, as well as spiritual ideas. The faithful saints were not able to bring truth and nourishing doctrines into the Great City of Papacy, because she refused to hear them, and tried to kill all that would have reformed her.

The merchants of the earth were literally enriched by their association with her. All the countries that were part of that religious system, had been able to trade with each other and to make money. As this system is being broken up, the opportunity to make wealth from her was being greatly diminished.

Many of those who had been associated with Great Babylon, had gone along with the oppressive system, because they had shared in her wealth and power. The variety and number of things described above, show how rich she was, in that she had everything that could be imagined at the time. All that wealth and power is gradually being removed from her, and there is no wealth to share with others anymore.

Rev 18:20 "Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and Apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced judgment for you against her."

The saints are told to rejoice over the destruction of this evil system, because they had tortured and killed those who had the true testimony of Jesus.

Mill Stone Tossed into Sea

Rev 18:21-23 (21 Then a strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "So will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence, and will not be found any longer. 22 "And the sound of harpists and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer; and no craftsman of any craft will be found in you any longer; and the sound of a mill will not be heard in you any longer; 23 and the light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer; and the voice of the bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you any longer; for your merchants were the great men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery.

Bowl Three Her Doctrines are Poisoned and She Can't Grind Out New Spiritual Food

The angel demonstrates her destruction, by throwing the millstone into the sea—which pictures how Great Babylon was to fall and be swallowed up by the sea of mankind and not return. In Jer 51:63, we see the scroll that is tied to a rock and cast into the midst of the Euphrates, and it symbolizes the same thing, in that it predicted the destruction of Great Babylon, and her false doctrines.

This is going to be a total destruction, and there will not be any craftsmen left to rebuild her. There will not be any gaiety and singing in her, because all of the joy and both the literal and spiritual musicians will have left her. All of these things are gone, showing that she is being destroyed, and none of these things will exist in her anymore. The sound of the mill being gone, is because of the above vision, where we saw the millstone cast into the sea, and that guarantees that she will not be able to supply corrupted and polluted spiritual food to those who are in her.

The light of Christ will not be found in her anymore, because he has left her, and he has called for his people to leave her as well, as we saw earlier in verse 4. The lamps that our Lord is seen with in the midst of Chapter one of Revelation, will not supply any true light to her anymore. Both the bridegroom who is Christ and the bride which is the Faithful Church, are not in her anymore because of her judgment and the call to come out of her my people. The bride has come out of her, so that she won't have to partake of Babylon's plagues. The bride's flight to safety was during the harvest time, which was from 1874 – 1914-18AD.

Rev 18:24 "And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

She is Guilty of all of the Murdered Saints

In one way or another, Great Babylon has been guilty of all the evil in the earth, during the Gospel Age. Great Babylon was guilty of killing all those who opposed that evil system and the murder she committed especially happened to God's true saints, because they tried to warn her and reform her. That was why the time of her power was one of the worst times for the people on the earth.

Just as Israel was guilty of the blood of the prophets during the Jewish age, as seen in Matt Chapter 23, the same thing is true of this evil religious system, in that they are guilty of all the slain saints of the Gospel Age. Israel was destroyed as a nation because of her killing of the prophets, and likewise here we see that Great Babylon was judged and is being destroyed because of her being guilty of the death of the Lords saints.

Just as the blood of all the prophets and the early Christians came upon the Jewish system in 69-73AD, the same thing was going to happen to Christendom in 1914-18, because of all of the saints that they killed during their reign of terror.

Chapter 19 Abbreviated Visions in heaven

Rev 19:1-2 (1)After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying,

"Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God; 2 BECAUSE HIS JUDGMENTS ARE TRUE AND RIGHTEOUS; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and HE HAS AVENGED THE BLOOD OF HIS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER."

This is the same Great Crowd as what was seen in Chapter 7. That we see the Great Crowd in heaven here proves that they are a spiritual class, and not an earthly class. We also see that the great harlot has been judged at this point in the scriptures, and that God has avenged the blood of his servants. That statement is another indication that the 144,000 of the church are complete at this point in the vision, and have gone to their glory. God is given praise, because of his salvation, glory, and power that has become obvious to everyone at that point in time.

Rev 19:3-5 (3 And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! HER SMOKE RISES UP FOREVER AND EVER." 4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!" 5 And a voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you His bond-servants, you who fear Him, the small and the great.

All are Happy That Great Babylon is Destroyed & Her Smoke is Going Up Forever

The Great Multitude in verse one, utters the first hallelujah, then the 24 elders and the four living creatures do so next, and then the voice from the throne utters a hallelujah, which could be from our Lord or the 144,000 or both. It's clear that the harlot is done, because it tells us here that the smoke of her burning goes up forever—which means her complete destruction, and that all will remember her evil forever. Everyone is to praise God, both the small and the great, which means all classes of mankind.

Rev 19:6-9 (6 Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying,

"Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

7 "Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready." 8 It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

9 Then he said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he said to me, "These are true words of God."

The Great Company Says Hallelujah The Marriage of the Lamb Has Come

The Great Company then tells us to rejoice, because our Lord God is reigning. This is the full reign of our Lord and the 144,000, which occurs after the church is complete. That is confirmed by the Great Company telling us that the marriage of the Lamb has come, and that the bride of the Lamb had made herself ready.

The 144,000 were given fine white and clean linen, that shows that they are able to be there because of their righteous acts that they did during their walk on the earth. In Ps 45, we see that they have decorated their garments with gold and intricate needlework, which is symbolic of the extra things they did, and their Christian works of love that they did to help complete the Fathers plan while on earth.

We are told that everyone who is invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb is blessed. The wedding supper always occurs after the marriage ceremony, and so this is after the marriage of the Lamb. Who will be able to attend the marriage supper? That is not clear, but it would for sure include all of those who attained a heavenly salvation—including the Great Company. It's not clear if the world would be included in the marriage supper or not, but it seems likely that they are included in the picture as receiving the benefits of the supper.

Falling before the Angel

Rev 19:10 Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Do Not Worship an Earthly Or Even a Heavenly Messenger

Prove all things by the scriptures, no matter how high up the one is who reveals things or explains doctrine to you. Who is the angel in this verse? It seems clear that this angel is the same one that was introduced in Chapter 17, where we saw the judgment of the Great Harlot. There it tells us that this was one of the seven angels with the seven bowls of wrath.

There are two possibilities regarding who these angels are. This angel is one of the angels with the seven bowls of wrath, and so it could simply be that the angels that poured out the bowls of wrath, were actual angels.

A second and more likely thought, is that the messengers to the churches, the angels with the trumpets, the angels with the bowls of wrath, are the seven earthly messengers. If that is correct then when they delivered their messages to the churches and they blew the seven trumpets, they were earthly pastors. At the time they delivered the bowls of wrath, they were on the other side of the vail, having made their calling and election. This angel is the messenger that delivered the truth about the fallen church system, showed us the coming kingdom, and many other truths. That could only be the seventh messenger—in this vision, the truths that were going to be revealed by the seventh messenger, are being delivered to the church in a vision by Jesus's angel, through Revelation. What is being revealed, points to the message that the seventh messenger was going to deliver to the church on the seventh day.

No matter who this angel is, John who symbolizes the spiritual class or the church, is warned not to worship this angel, but only God. In other words, even heavenly angels are not to be worshiped, because they are only carrying out God's work for him. So, the lesson is that the actual messenger is not as important as the message is, and that is the very thing that this angel tells us here and again in Chapter 22. Don't worship the messenger, but worship God, the one who sent the message. Just as Pastor himself told us, don't follow me if you see that the scriptures teach something else than what I have told you, then you must follow the scriptures and not me. That means that even if someone is showing you great things from God, it is God who deserves the credit, and because of that don't worship the messenger for bringing it out. Worship God, not the messenger is what this angel is warning us about in this Chapter, so pay very serious attention to what he is saying, so as not to fail the test! Prove all things by the scriptures! Since the warning is given twice, it is going to be on the test.

That the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of the prophecy, should be a clue to us that what Jesus brought during his ministry and through the Apostles, is what helps us to understand the Old Testament prophecies. The message that we are receiving here in the book of Revelation, is very important, and it's the key to unlocking the Old Testament. Everything that we are being shown here in Revelation, is confirmed in the Old Testament. Revelation not only helps us to understand the Old Testament, but the Old Testament helps support what Revelation is telling us.

Vision of Lord & Resurrected Church

Rev 19:11-16 (11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who sat on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war. 12 His eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many diadems; and He has a name written on Him which no one knows except Himself. 13 He is clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. 14 And the armies which are in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses. 15 From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty. 16 And on His robe and on His thigh He has a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.")

The Church & Jesus Begin to Remove Satan's Followers & Their Sinful Influence

That the heaven is open here, shows that the Lord has returned and that the heavens are going to start intervening in the affairs of men. That the rider is faithful and true, confirms that this is Jesus, since that title is given to him in Rev 3:14. That he wages war with justice and righteousness, also confirms his identity, since those are going to be key characteristics of our Lord's reign. The horse is white, because he is coming with pure doctrines and ideas that are not corrupted like the doctrines of the apostate system. That he has many crowns, shows that he is going to rule over all aspects of the Millennial society. That he has eyes like blazing fires, shows that he sees through all things, and that nothing is hidden from him.

God Gave Jesus Authority From the Name that No one Can Know

The name that no one knows, is not the names given in verses 13, 16. To have God's name written on you, shows that you belong to him, and that you have his authority. The name that God has written on Christ, is most likely the same name that we see mentioned in Exodus 23:21, and Judges 13:18. The angel of the Lord was Michael, who was Christ in his pre-crucifixion role, and we believe that he still has God's original name that no one can know, showing that he is acting with God's authority in this judgment and punishment, and that no one else has that authority, and they cannot illegally try to take that power like Papacy did.

That he is dressed in a white robe dipped in blood, points us back to Isaiah 63, where we see an Old Testament prophecy that shows him coming to destroy his enemies and to take control of his kingdom. There we see the wine press, which represents the destruction of the evil system. It seems that there are two different phases to the winepress given in Isaiah, the first one that began in 1914AD, and the second one that is indicated here by the lake of fire, which is where we see the final destruction of the system. Isaiah 63 shows us both phases of the winepress, if it is read carefully.

Since there is an “I saw” again at the beginning of this section, we are not certain exactly where this is in the stream of time. At one time we assumed that the this pictured a completed church because of the armies in heaven clothed with linen. But we now see that does not have to be a completed church, it would only have to be a resurrected church, from 1878 AD and onward. When we look at the events that are described in this portion of the chapter, we can see that the events described seem to fit with events that began in 1914. In other words, the resurrected saints are on the other side of the veil, helping the Lord bring down the evil system, as is shown in Psa 149. The saints are told to execute vengeance on the nations, punishment on the people, to bind the kings with chains, and their nobles fetters of iron. The punishments that are described in that Psalms, are events that began to happen in 1914.

Ps 149:5-9 (5 Let the saints exult in glory: let them sing for joy upon their beds. 6 (Let) the high praises of God (be) in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand; 7 To execute vengeance upon the nations, and punishments upon the peoples; 8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; 9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honor have all his saints. Praise ye Jehovah. ASV

The Sword of Truth Is the Main Weapon of the Kingdom

The sword that comes out of his mouth, is the truth of both the Old and the New Testament, because it is a two-edged sword. A great deal of the destructions that falls upon the remnants of Satan’s systems, will be the truth that will overcome error. The iron scepter that he will rule with, is found earlier in Revelation where Jesus promises that he will share that iron scepter with the church, and the ruling with a rod of iron is shown in Ps Chapter 2, where the kings are warned to kiss the son before his anger is kindled.

That he has the name King of Kings and Lord of Lords, confirms again that this is our Lord Jesus coming as King and Lord to take control over his kingdom. In Rev 17:14, we were also told that the Lamb is King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Angel in Sun at Midst of Heaven

Rev 19:17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to all the birds which fly in midheaven, "Come, assemble for the great supper of God,

Because we have an “I saw” in this verse, shows us that it’s another vision, and does not have to occur at the same time as the previous vision, but we assume the two go together because of the white linen that is described in both visions. That the angel is standing in the sun in the “midheavens”, backs us up in time. The same vultures that had begun to attack the society of that earlier time while the evil system still had great power, churches 5-6, are now going to be attacking what they perceive as the same problems on this end of the age. In other words, they are anarchists and all elements of society that we see in the news every day, that are unhappy with the existing system and the Lord is calling them to come against the evil system, to finish it off. The attacks against the system began again in 1914, and they are directly related to the seven bowls of wrath which were poured out at that same time.

In order for the Lord to begin to attack the evil system, he calls for the vultures of heaven that had started their work back in the time of the midst of the heavens in the fifth church, as seen in the fifth trumpet, and they again begin to wear away at what's left of the system on this end of the age—they are the Lord's Great army as seen in Joel. In Joel, after the wording that points to the seventh trumpet, we see that the Lord eventually turns the Lord's Great army away from Israel, and we begin to see kingdom blessings.

As we have looked at this vision in more detail, we eventually saw that the wearing down of the system began back in the midst of heaven, but the final defeat that is pictured here is being shown starting in 1914, and then going to the very end of the age. The vultures have returned, and this time they are going to finish off the evil system. Matt 24:22 Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather. NASU

We see very similar symbolic language in the battle description of the defeat of Gog and Magog, that is exactly like what we see here in this Chapter. When we cover Gog and Magog in Chapter 20 in the detailed notes, we will show that not all of verses of Ezekiel 38 and 39, refer to the final literal battle with Israel. All of Chapter 38 does, but a part of Chapter 39 refers to the battle of Armageddon and the time of our Lord coming to his kingdom, and what is going to happen then. Because of that, we see that some of the verses of the first part of Ezekiel Chapter 39, deal with the elimination of the church and state system and are thus parallel references to Chapter 19 of Revelation. That the scripture from Ezekiel Chapter 39 is quoted in this part of the prophecy, seems to indicate that this vision includes the events of Ezekiel 38 and 39, and that those who are defeated in that prophecy are included in the picture of the ones that are defeated in this picture. In other words, we are seeing the prophetic defeat of the fallen church, and then we also see the removal of the civil powers that will come against Israel.

The birds we see in Chapter 19, and in the Ezekiel Chapter 39 reference, are Communists, anarchists, socialists, nihilists, and all those who think they have a better way, that tear down the old order of things starting in 1914. That these birds were originally seen in mid-heaven in Revelation, points us back to the same birds in mid-heaven, that announced the three woe trumpets, showing that the same kind of birds that finish the system off, began attacking the system from the time of the fifth church and onward. Now on this end of the age, we are going to be entering the final battle, where the birds will help remove all of the evil systems. We see the same kinds of groups rising-up again at the time of this editing, and they are going to try to overthrow the established order of things again, thinking that they have the better solution. We also have radical Islam thinking that they are going to take over the world and convert it to Islam, again thinking that they have the better solution. The end time attempt by radical Islam, appears to be a final effort by Satan to try to reestablish his control over the earth and the people.

Even if they don't have a viable solution, all of these groups want the old order gone, because they see how corrupt that it is. As history has shown, no matter how good the intentions every revolution results in corruption and greed taking over afterward. That kind of failure of the vultures to improve the situation, will result in anarchy, that will cause the old order to be swept completely away. Then the Lord will establish a system that cannot be corrupted, because he will be in charge. The vultures that are consuming the remnants of the system in Matt chapter 24, are the same vultures we see here, working to destroy the existing order.

Rev 19:18-21 (18 so that you may eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of commanders and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them and the flesh of all men, both free men and slaves, and small and great."

19 And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies assembled to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army.

20 And the beast was seized, and with him the False Prophet who performed the signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his Image; these two were thrown alive into the lake of fire which burns with brimstone. 21 And the rest were killed with the sword which came from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

The Battle of Armageddon

The battle that we see here, is the one that was called for by the beast, the false prophet, and the dragon, in Rev 16:13-14—the battle of Armageddon, which started in 1914, and still goes on yet.

The beast and the kings of the earth, are seen here fighting against the Lord with their armies, trying to keep their control and power over the world. These armies, are those who have been deceived into supporting Satan's system of things. That deception has occurred, because of the three unclean spirits that were uttered by Satan, the beast, and the False Prophet, which we saw in the sixth plague, nationalism, greed, and Ecclesiastical supremacy of their Pagan doctrines. That these armies will eventually be defeated, does not mean that the people will be destroyed, but it means that they will be freed from the power of the system, as symbolized by the complete drying up of the Euphrates that we saw in the sixth bowl of wrath.

The False Prophet was the one that had deceived those who received the mark of the beast and worshiped his Image in Chapter 13. That confirms that this character was originally the two-horned beast that was seen coming out of the earth in that Chapter, because Chapter 13 says that is the same thing that the two-horned beast did, in that he deceived the people into accepting and making the Image of the Beast. The reason that the symbol of the two-horned beast has been replaced by the symbol of the False Prophet, is because Papacy has lost all his civil power after 1914, and for that reason he and the rest of the daughters of Christendom are not a two-horned beast anymore. Papacy became the two-horned beast when he had received the donation of Pepin, which gave him civil power and control over actual nations—thus making him into a beast with a horn that controlled a civil government, as well as a horn that controlled ecclesiastical matters. The daughter nations and churches of the Empire were a part of that two-horned beast, and for that reason they are also a part of the false prophet.

The Lake of Fire

That they are thrown into the lake of fire, is what happened to the terrible beast that Daniel saw in Chapter 7:11, where it was cast into the fire. That shows that it was going to be completely destroyed, and that any reward that those who supported it thought they were going to receive, will not happen because of their doctrines and ideas having been built upon hay and stubble and not on the foundation of the Lamb, as explain in 1 Cor Chapter 3. That they are in the fire, shows that this system will not be coming back into power. We do not see Satan cast into the fire here, but we will shortly see him cast into the Abyss for a 1000 years in Chapter 20.

That the rest of the armies were destroyed by the sword of God's word, shows that the truth will overcome Satan's error, and the people who make up those armies that oppose the Lord will be freed from that evil system and can come into the kingdom, if they are willing to accept the salvation that will be made available at the time. That the birds gorged themselves on their flesh, shows that those who are dissatisfied with society, will help destroy Satan's system.

Chapter 20 Abbreviated Binding of Satan

Rev 20:1-3 (1 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he laid hold of the dragon, the serpent of old, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; 3 and he threw him into the abyss, and shut it and sealed it over him, so that he would not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed; after these things he must be released for a short time.

The angel that has the key to the abyss is Jesus, who comes to take control of the earth away from Satan. The chain that Satan is bound with, represents several different methods that our Lord uses to take control of the earth away from him. A couple of examples would be the truth that was brought out in the harvest message, and the removal of the kings in the 1914 war. Those kinds of things gradually limit what Satan can do. It's likely that this binding process has been going on since at least 1874AD, and that when it is complete is when he is cast into the abyss for the 1000 years.

Satan's Four Methods of Deception Are Cast into the Abyss with Him

All 4 names that were used regarding Satan earlier in Chapter 12, are again mentioned here. Those four names represent different methods of deception and control that Satan uses to control society, and all four of those methods will be cast into the abyss with him, so that the nations and people will not be deceived during the Millennial kingdom.

Regarding Satan being released again at the end of the 1000 years, the Greek says "he must be released." Even though it is obvious that no one would like to release him again, it's necessary to test everyone during the little season.

Vision Church on Thrones

Rev 20:4 Then I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or his Image, and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

The thrones and those who sat upon them, are the Lord and the 144,000. They had received that honor because they did not worship the beast or his Image, nor did they receive the mark in the forehead or in the hands. In other words, they didn't support the evil system at all. The beheading that is mentioned regarding their testifying for Jesus, could have been literal or symbolic or both. That they came to life, shows that this vision would be after the last of the 144,000 were resurrected.

Some believe that these thrones are not the church, and that they represent the fallen system being judged. While that judgement happens to the fallen system now, we don't believe that is what is being shown here, because if we go back to Daniel Chapter 7 where we see the vision of the Heavenly Father on the throne, the thrones that were set up there are the same ones we see here, and they are the ones doing the judging of the fallen system.

Rev 20:5 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection.

Restored to Moral Health?

It's obvious that the rest of the worldly dead, could not wait until the end of the millennium in order to be brought back to life, since the church will be reigning over them and bringing them back into perfection during the 1000 years. There are two possibilities regarding this verse. One is that it's spurious and was not in the original text, although one of the older manuscripts has it. The other possibility is that the word which means "brought to life", as used in the King James text, is a different word and it means to bring back to a moral perfection, which is exactly what the kingdom will do. The more accepted Greek texts do not use that word, but even then the word that is used "to bring to life" could still be understood in that manner. So either way, we see that the world will start to be resurrected as soon as the kingdom is established, and then they will be gradually restored to moral perfection. See the detailed notes for more information.

Rev 20:6 Blessed and holy is the one who has a part in the first resurrection; over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with Him for a thousand years.

Blessed & Holy Are Those Who Take Part In the First Resurrection

The 144,000 who are brought to life in the first resurrection, are indeed blessed. They will not have to fear second death, because they will have life in themselves. They will be priests for God and Christ in the heavenly temple which Moses saw, and which brings blessing and life to the world. They will reign during the 1000 years. It's not certain if they reign for a full 1000, or only during the balance of the 1000 years that is left after the kingdom is fully established.

Rev 20:7-8 (7 When the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison, 8 and will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together for the war; the number of them is like the sand of the seashore.

The Release of Satan From Prison

When the 1000 years are over, Satan "must be released" as it said in verse 3, and he goes forth to deceive the nation's again. It's not clear exactly what the testing will be, but it's obvious that some will not have learned their lessons, and they will be deceived into going back to some of the old evil ways. Some think that because those who are attacking are like the sand of the sea, that indicates that there will be a large number, but the symbol of "sand of the sea" only indicates that they are earthly in nature and that symbol does not indicate how many there will be that come against the city—which is the government of the kingdom. We pray that it will not be a large number. It's the job of our Lord and the church to make sure that as many as possible makes it and that they pass the test at the end of the millennium.

Rev 20:9 And they came up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, and fire came down from heaven and devoured them.

Attack Against the Kingdom

That they come against the city of God, shows symbolically that they are outside of and against the kingdom arrangement of God. The New Jerusalem represents God's government on earth and is not a literal city. That fire comes down upon them, shows that they will be destroyed, and that they will lose their life because of their fighting against God's arrangement. There is no salvation or life without God past the end of the 1000 years.

One interesting thing that we see here, is that of the four different aspects of Satan that were sealed into the abyss for 1000 years, only three of them come back here. The dragon aspect does not appear, and that is most likely because he is not given time enough to take control of the world and get civil power, because he is thrown into the lake of fire before he can do that.

Satan Destroyed

Rev 20:10 And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the False Prophet are also; and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

This time Satan is thrown into the symbolic fire, which represents his final destruction, and there is no coming back from it. The beast and the False Prophet were thrown into it before the beginning of the Millennial age, and that was the last time that they were ever seen in the scriptures.

That they are to be tormented day and night is not literal, but the word for torment means touchstone or to test. That symbolically means that the evil systems will be remembered, and will be a test against which all future things will be compared—so that nothing bad will arise again.

Great White Throne

Rev 20:11-13 (11 Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat upon it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled away, and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged from the things which were written in the books, according to their deeds. 13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged, every one of them according to their deeds.

Institutions are Under Judgment Not Individuals Yet

In verse 11, we see our Lord dealing with the former system of things, both the heavenly and the earthly institutions or the old heavens and earth. That the Old Heavens and Earth flee away, shows that beginning with 1914, they are not able to stand up to standards of the new judge and king, and that they begin to disappear or change to make way for the New Heavens and Earth. In verse 11, the institutions of mankind are under judgment, but the individuals are not under testing until verse 12, which happens after the church is complete. Verse 11 describes more of the situation that we have been in since 1874-1914AD, in that the evil system is judged and is being gradually destroyed piece by piece as a system after 1914, but the people of the world are not yet under judgment.

Individuals Come Under Judgment

In verse 12, which is after the 144,000 are complete, we then see our Lord ruling and judging over individuals during the Millennial kingdom—which is when individuals must begin to make progress on the highway of holiness, as seen in Isaiah Chapter 35. The events of verse 12, will not occur until the 144,000 are completed and in power with the Lord. Even then, the individuals of the world will not be judged or destroyed until they have failed to take an advantage of the restitution of all things. That time of restitution is described by Peter in Acts, where he told the Jews that Jesus would remain in heaven until the time of restitution or restoration of all things.

When he comes out of the heavens at the start of the kingdom, he comes as Christ head and body. That is the time that the individuals must listen to the prophet like Moses, or they will perish from the people.

As seen in Revelation Chapters 21-22, Jesus does not come down to the world with the church until the 144,000 are complete, and then he comes down when the New Jerusalem comes to the world and the kingdom. Then the people are under judgment as seen in verse 12, but before the sentence of death is carried out, they are restored from sin and death by the New Covenant. They are first restored to perfection by that covenant, and through the writing of God's laws in their hearts, and then in the little season they are tested to see if they have learned their lessons. If they pass the test of the little season, is what determines if they are cut off from the people or not. There is good reason to believe that those during the Millennial age who refuse to make any progress, and who may be doing harmful and damaging things to others, will be cut off before the end of that age—most likely the 100 years of Isaiah 65:20.

Jer 31:33-34 (33 "But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days," declares the LORD, "I will put My law within them and on their heart I will write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 34 "They will not teach again, each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them," declares the LORD, "for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more."

Acts 3:21-23 (21 He must remain in heaven until the time comes for all things to be made new, as God announced through his holy prophets of long ago. 22 For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will send you a prophet, just as he sent me, and he will be one of your own people. You are to obey everything that he tells you to do. 23 Anyone who does not obey that prophet shall be separated from God's people and destroyed.'
 TEV

The words "great and small" in Rev 20:12, shows us that this judgment is for everyone regardless of their station in life—no one is exempt regardless of who they are, and those words indicate that we need to look at the message about the New Covenant in Jeremiah. Jeremiah 31:31-34 says that everyone will be involved in the kingdom from the least to the greatest, and it also tells us that God's law will be written in the hearts of all of those who come under that covenant. In other words, the people of the world will need to be under the New Covenant and be restored before they can be judged and receive life, or they will be cut off in the final judgment at the end of the millennium.

The dead that we see in verse 12, are those of the world that didn't receive life yet during the Gospel Age. This would be all of those of the world who did not achieved life yet before the beginning of the kingdom. As all of them are gradually brought back to moral and physical perfection—they are in a picture being given up by the sea and the grave as they are restored. The dead in the sea are those who are physically alive, but who are not morally upright at the start of the kingdom, and we see that they are those of the world who are to be restored. Those who are in the grave, are those who have already died and are at that time resurrected to life, but they also need to be restored to a moral and perfect life.

The understanding of God's truth and plan as symbolized in the books of the Bible, is symbolically shown by the books being opened. According to their "works" or "deeds", is the word ergon which carries the connotation of working. What this is saying is that they are not judged by the things written in the book about what they did when they were ignorant of God's laws, but they will be judged by the laws and principles that are written in the books after they have reached perfection. They will need to be able to keep those laws and principles after they are restored to life and perfection by the end of the kingdom. The work of the kingdom is to bring them to that perfection. The perfect standards of the opened books doing the judging, is shown by the golden rod that measures the city in Chapter 21. The rod that was seen earlier in Chapter 11, is the one that measured the developing church.

Rev 20:14-15 (14 Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. 15 And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Only Those Who Fail the Little Season Get the Second Death

After the test of the little season, all who do not have their name written in the book of life, will be cast into the lake of fire. That lake symbolizes second death, from which there is no return. That is the same lake that the beast, the False Prophet, and Satan are thrown into—proving that it's not a literal hell, but it's symbolic of total destruction. That death and Hades are thrown into that same fire, shows that death and the grave will no longer exist after that time.

Chapter 21 Abbreviated The Vision of the New Jerusalem

Rev 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and there is no longer any sea.

This verse should have been a part of the previous Chapter, because the old heavens and earth that had passed away, are the old heavens and earth that were in existence during the Gospel Age. It takes the entire Millennial age to replace the old heavens and earth, with the New Heavens and earth that comes into being because of God's kingdom blessings.

Rev 21:2 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband.

Vision of the New Jerusalem Coming Down to the Earth

The New Jerusalem that is coming down to the earth here is the Jerusalem above, that Paul talked about in Galatians. The reason that we see it coming down to the earth here, is because the central part of this city is composed of Christ head and body, which includes the 144,000. That is confirmed by the statement that she is adorned as a bride, which indicates that the bride of Christ is complete at the time of this vision. The church has been striving through the entire Gospel Age to complete that spiritual temple, and now that it is complete, the entire city which symbolizes God's government, is coming down to the earth to establish the government of the kingdom.

Rev 21:3-4 (3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be among them, 4 and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away."

Removal of Tears & Death

In these verses, we are being told that the dwelling of God as represented in this city, is going to be with men, and he is going to live with them. It seems obvious that just as in the Old Testament tabernacle, the people will not see God directly, but they will have the Ancient Worthies, the church, and Christ in that order, mediating or dealing with God for them. Because God and his government will have come to the earth at that point in time, all tears will be wiped away, and death and mourning will be done away with. That will not be fully true until after the final testing of the Millennial age is finished.

Rev 21:5 And He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." And He said, "Write, for these words are faithful and true."

Christ Makes all Things New

The one sitting on the throne is Christ, and just as is described elsewhere in Revelation, we see that it says that he is trustworthy and true. That he is going to make all things new is what the kingdom is designed to do, because this is the time of restoration of all things, Acts 3:19-21.

Rev 21:6 Then He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning, and the end. I will give to the one who thirsts from the spring of the water of life without cost."

The Giving of the Water of Life

Christ is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning, and the end. See the full notes for the complete proof that he is the Alpha and the Omega. That he is going to give the water of life to those who are thirsty, is what he told the disciples in John 7:38, and that scripture is another proof that the church is involved along with the Lord in giving the water of life. We will see that water being offered to the world at the close of Chapter 22. There is no cost for the water of life, but it's offered freely by God to all who will accept it.

Rev 21:7-8 (7 "He who overcomes will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son. 8 "But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

The Overcomers Inherit Life Those Who Fail get Second Death

All the messages to the seven churches, talk about him who overcomes, and those who overcome in the seven churches are obviously the faithful church. But here we see that the world will also have to overcome and be restored from their fallen state during the kingdom. Just as the literal nation of Israel was chastened and disciplined during their earlier time as a nation, the same thing will apply again during the kingdom, and will include the rest of the world who will be adopted into the nation.

Those who do not overcome, will wind up in the second death, losing their lives completely. In the full set of notes, we give examples of how one could commit the sins that are listed here. There is both a literal application and a symbolic application for these sins.

The Bride = Description New Jerusalem

Rev 21:9 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

Rev 21:10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Rev 21:11 having the glory of God. Her brilliance was like a very costly stone, as a stone of crystal-clear jasper.

That this is one of the angels that had one of the bowls of wrath, shows us that this is the same angel that has been showing John different visions, ever since at least Chapter 19 and perhaps before. He is now going to show John the bride who is the wife of the Lamb.

Instead of a human bride, we see a mountain and the Holy City New Jerusalem, which represents the government of God. The mountain that we see is the mountain that is described in Daniel 2:35. There we were shown a vision of a rock which is Christ, which smote the Image and shattered it. When it becomes a great mountain is when the 144,000 are complete, and have become Christ head and body. That is when the mountain represents the kingdom of God, and it begins to grow as it takes control of the earth. That is what is happening here, when we see the New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God in this vision.

That it is shown with the glory of God, shows that God is coming down with it, although the world will not see him directly. That it's clear as jasper, shows that God's kingdom is going to come with full clarity, since this jewel is most likely a clear diamond that can be seen through. Knowledge in the kingdom will not be murky or uncertain, but all things will be clearly seen and understood.

Rev 21:12-14 (12 It had a great and high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names were written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel. 13 There were three gates on the east and three gates on the north and three gates on the south and three gates on the west. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundation stones, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.

Description of the City And Gates, and Walls

The wall around the city had 12 gates in it, with an angel for each gate. It seems likely that each gate may represent a different means of entering the city, which would accommodate all who have different personalities or problems. Each gate would be equipped to handle each different personality type or the different kinds of fallen humanity, so as to maximize the success of all who enter the city.

That there were three gates on each side, is the same layout as Ezekiel's temple, indicating that to get the full understanding of this city, and how it indicates different features of the kingdom, we need to compare it side by side with Ezekiel's temple. See the full notes for that comparison. The twelve foundations of the wall, with the apostle's names on them, indicate that this city is supported by the 12 Apostles of the Lamb and the scriptures that they wrote.

Rev 21:15-17 (15 The one who spoke with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city, and its gates and its wall. 16 The city is laid out as a square, and its length is as great as the width; and he measured the city with the rod, fifteen hundred miles; its length and width and height are equal. 17 And he measured its wall, seventy-two yards, according to human measurements, which are also angelic measurements.

The Golden Measuring Rod & Measurements

The cube of the city measures 12,000 cubits on a side, or  $12 \times 12,000 = 144,000$ , which shows us that the completed church is making up the cube of the city. The outer wall of the city is not a part of the wall of the cube, but it goes around the city forming a courtyard in which the trees of life and the water of life are flowing. That is not obvious in Revelation, but it is much clearer to us when we examine Ezekiel's temple, which shows us that is how we should be looking at this city and temple. The world will not be allowed in the cube of the city where God is, but only into the courtyard, where they can get the water and the trees of life. The golden street or Broadway is there, which is the highway that they must get upon that is shown in Isaiah Chapter 35. We see the innermost interior of the temple described in Ezekiel Chapter 44, where only the great company and the sons of Zadok can come before God, and the rest of the people are in the courtyard.

The wall being 144 cubits, is most likely both 144 high and 144 wide, as shown in the wall of Ezekiel's temple—but with different symbolic dimensions. The number 144 is written as 100, 40, and 4 in Greek. Using the prophetic 25-inch cubit, which is what the angel measures with here, we find that  $25 \times 100 = 2500$  or the 50 x 50 of the Jubilee cycle.  $25 \times 40 = 1000$  equals the length of the Millennial age.  $25 \times 4 = 100$  which is the maximum time allotted in Isaiah 65:20 for the incorrigible.

The measuring rod which is made of gold, is most likely the same rod that is seen in Ezekiel Chapter 40. In the full notes, we explain how we derive 25 inches at an inch per year for that measuring rod—which is a handbreadth larger than the largest normal cubit. This golden rod is like the one in Chapter 11 of Revelation, where we saw it measuring or testing the church. Here its role has changed, and it is now testing and instructing those of the world who enter this city, so that they can withstand the final test at the end of the millennium.

Rev 21:18 The material of the wall was jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

The Material of the Wall

We again see that the wall was made of Jasper, which was said to be clear as described in verse 11. Those who are on the outside will be able to look through the wall and see the benefits that those who have entered the city are receiving. It will be a crystal-clear view as to what is happening to those who have gone into the city, and all who are outside will see no reason or excuse why they should not accept the provisions of salvation that will be available in the kingdom.

The city being of pure gold, indicates that it is of Divine origin. It also was clear like glass despite being made of gold. In nature, gold is not normally clear, so that shows us that this gold is symbolic.

Rev 21:19-20 (19 The foundation stones of the city wall were adorned with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation stone was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; 20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.

The Foundation Stones

The foundation stones and the foundations of the city, had many kinds of jewels in it. It may be that these are the same stones that were found on the breastplate of the high priest, but there is too much uncertainty regarding what jewels were used in either place. In the full notes, we find that this picture points us back to Isaiah Chapter 54, where we see the fulfillment of the Abrahamic Covenant described—both the heavenly and the earthly parts. The city is described in that Chapter along with the jewels that we see here.

Rev 21:21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the gates was a single pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

The 12 Gates & Streets

The gates were of pearl, which represents the severe trials and difficulties that the church had to go through during the Gospel age. Just as an irritant is what makes a pearl, we see that the lives of the saints are represented in the pearls that make up these doors. The things the church learned regarding overcoming sin and while going through their trials, is represented in the pearl of those doors. Each door may represent a different obstacle that the saints represented in that particular door had to overcome, and thus those of the world who have the same affliction may enter in by that particular door to receive the best help for their affliction. Those who have overcome a similar sin or problem, will be best equipped to help others do so. That is the major importance of the sin offering that the church participates in, because of the lessons they learned in suffering and their walk upon the earth, and those lessons will be used to help the world in the next age.

That the streets of the city were of pure gold, shows in a symbol that this city is of Divine origin, and that those golden streets are the highway of holiness. That symbolism points us to the highway of holiness that is found in Isaiah Chapter 35, which the world of mankind must walk up on to attain the full benefits of the kingdom.

Rev 21:22-23 (22 I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. 23 And the city has no need of the sun or of the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the Lamb.

Glory of God Illuminates City & the Lamb is it's Lamp

This city is a place to worship God, but it doesn't need a physical temple, because God and the Lamb are there and the 144,000 and the Lord are the temple for the next age. In the world, the most prominent building in a city was always the church building, but here you don't have that because it has been provided by the building of a spiritual temple during the Gospel Age of Christ head and body. An earthly temple without God and the Lamb would be nothing, but if you have God and the Lamb and the 144,000, then you have the earthly temple. In the original temples they always had an inner room to conceal God from the people whether he was there or not, but in this city, God, Jesus, and the 144,000 will be there in the cube and will be able to answer questions or issue instructions. Just as in the original tabernacle, the earthly people will not be allowed into the part of the city where they can directly see God. Only Christ and the 144,000 will be able to approach him directly in the cube, just as Moses did in the original tabernacle, and they will bring any communication from God out to the people, just as Moses did. They will take off their garments of glory and put on their earthly garment when they come out.

Where would the people be in the Revelation picture? As we have studied this, it appears most likely that the world will not be in the cube part of the city at all. That thought is contrary to what most think, but the cube part is reserved for Jehovah, the Lord, the 144,000, and the Great Company. Even the Great Company will not be allowed to come directly before God and be on the throne, but they will only be able to be before the throne. It doesn't say that the nations will enter the cube of the city, but it only says that they will walk by the light of it. By the city, we are talking about the cube-shaped part of the building, and not the court which is inside the wall and between it and the city. We think that the people will be in the courtyard of the city and protected by the wall. In the courtyard, will be the river of water of life that is flowing from the throne, and the trees of life that will be growing on either side of the banks of the water. The water as seen in Chapter 22, is flowing down the golden street or highway, and again that is the highway that the world must walk up during the kingdom. The world will only have access to the fruit and the leaves of the tree and not the full tree itself which pictures immortality. Only the 144,000 will have full access to the tree. In agreement with the above thoughts about where the people are, we see in Ezekiel's temple that the people can come into the inner courtyard next to the holy and Most Holy, but they are not allowed into the innermost part of the temple, which corresponds to the cube-shaped part that we see here in Revelation.

The sun as the Gospel light, won't be needed because the church will have the light of both God and Christ to explain all things that are necessary. The scriptures will not be needed to try to decipher what is going to happen, because it will be clear what is happening. God and Jesus will be able to answer any question or issue any instructions necessary at the time. The world will be able to get the answer to all their questions, but they will most likely have to go through the Ancient Worthies, who will be the earthly representatives of the kingdom.

The moon as respecting the law will not be needed, because we will have the true light of God's New Law of the New Covenant from its source, who is Jehovah. Jehovah and the Lamb are the original source of the scriptures, and you can't do any better than getting the word directly from them as the source. It will be made plain at that time as to what the rules and laws of the kingdom are. Whatever the laws are, they will be reasonable and beneficial and based on not only the law of love, but they will be from a well-balanced combination of God's four attributes. Those laws will be written in the people's hearts, so that they will automatically be able to know what is right and what is wrong.

Rev 21:24-27 (24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. 25 In the daytime (for there will be no night there) its gates will never be closed; 26 and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it; 27 and nothing unclean, and no one who practices abomination and lying, shall ever come into it, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

The City Provides Light to the People

That the nations will walk by the light of it, means that they will get their understanding and knowledge of God and his Divine Plan from the spiritual light of the city as they walk up the golden highway of holiness. Everything necessary will be revealed during the kingdom.

In the detailed notes, we show that Isaiah Chapter 60 is parallel to much of Rev Chapter 21. In Isaiah, we see that the kings of the earth will be forced by the people to come to the city. Evidently those who are in power will not want to give up their control over the people, but the people will want the benefits of the kingdom. In Rev 21:24-25, we see that the kings and the people come into the city, and they bring their wealth and honor into it. The kings are those who were forced in the Isaiah prophecy to come in.

Solution to Question on Verses 26-27

There is a problem in these verses if we include verses 26-27, because in those verses it tells us that only those who are clean and who practice no Abomination will come into it. Regarding the world entering that would make sense, because they also must rid themselves of all evil practices. What does not make sense in verses 26-27, is that we know that the Gospel Age kings of the earth will not be written in the Lambs book of life—which only belongs to the church. The world will not be written in the Lambs book of life, but only in the general book of life for the world—only those who have attained to the 144,000 will be in the Lambs book.

So, the question becomes, are those who are talked about in verses 26-27, the same as those being talked about in 24-25. The answer is no. Verses 24-25 are talking about the individuals and kings of the world that comes into or up to the cube of the city, through the gates in the wall, entering the courtyard. Verse 27 adds another word that the translators do not bring forward, that indicates that those who are being talked about and who represent the 144,000, actually enter fully “into” the city—which is the cube of the city, and not just the courtyard of the city. See the detailed notes for a full explanation of these verses.

The Tree and Water of Life

Rev 22:1-2 (1 Then he showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of God and of the Lamb, 2 in the middle of its street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

The River of Life

In this Chapter, we see the river of life that flows from the throne, which will bring life to the world. That this water is clear as crystal, shows that there is no imperfections or corruption in it, like there was with the polluted water that came from the apostate system. This water is directly from God, and is intended to bring everything back to life. We see this water described more fully in Isaiah Chapter 55, and it is mentioned again in verse 17 in this Chapter, where it is offered to all who are thirsty for life.

The Trees of Life & Fruit

The trees of life that are seen here bring us full circle, in that the tree of life that was in the Garden of Eden, is now multiplied by the trees that are seen on both sides of the river of life. The leaves and the fruit of the trees are to be used for the healing of the nations. Only the church will get the full benefits of the trees of life, as promised by Jesus in Rev 2:7, where they will be able to eat of the actual tree itself. That symbolizes full immortality for the church, but the world does not get that.

The river and the fruit of the trees, are shown in great detail in the section of Ezekiel Chapter 47, that describes the temple and its surroundings. As the world of mankind walk up the golden street or highway of holiness that we see in the courtyard of the city, they will have access to the leaves and the fruit of the tree, which symbolizes the healing and the restoring of them back to full perfection and life rights.

Rev 22:3-4 (3 There will no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve Him; 4 they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads.

The Curse From the Garden of Eden Is Removed

In the garden, we see the curse placed upon mankind, but here we see it lifted forever. That has been the ultimate intent of the Divine Plan, which God foreknew from the foundation of the world. The curse will be completely lifted at the end of the 7000 years that will have passed since the fall in the garden.

The word translated “serve” in King James, can mean to worship him. The servants that serve him here are the 144,000 of the church. The promise is to the faithful church in regard to our Lord’s name being written on their forehead. The Great Company will not be on the throne or in the Most Holy because of their errors, but they will have salvation and will be able to work to help the people. See Ezek Chapter 44:10-14

Rev 22:5 And there will no longer be any night; and they will not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign forever and ever.

God Provides the Light to the Church

The church will not need any other source of light other than what our Lord Jesus supplies them with. All things will be revealed, and they will see him as he is. That they will reign forever is true, even though the Millennial reign ends at the end of the 1000 years. Our Lord and the church will always be there to help govern mankind so that they remain perfect and sin free. Mankind will get back the ability to rule over their affairs when they reach perfection, but they will always be subject to higher authority. Perhaps that is what a part of the test of the little season will be about.

Rev 22:6 And he said to me, "These words are faithful and true"; and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His angel to show to His bond-servants the things which must soon take place.

The Angel of Jesus Was Sent to Reveal Soon to Come Events

Some translations try to make the Lord the God of the prophets into Jehovah, but we see that there are several translations and punctuations that make this into the Lord “Jesus”, who is the God of the spirits of the prophets. Fenton, NAS, NAU, NIV, RSV agree with that thought. That removes the conflict with verse 16, where we see it definitely stated that it was the Lord Jesus who had sent the angel. Those who would try to make Jesus into Jehovah would favor the other translation, but that would definitely not be correct. In trying to prove the Trinity they would have one verse say that Jehovah sent the angel, and the other verse would say that Jesus sent the angel making them the same being.

Jesus was the angel of the prophets, as shown in the Old Testament. After Israel had sinned regarding the golden calf, we see that Jehovah didn’t go with Israel himself, but he sent his angel who was the pre-crucifixion Jesus to go with them. After that time, in dealing with Israel, he used his angel or the Logos to communicate with them. It seems evident that the angel was Michael, who is now our Lord Jesus after he completed his earthly mission at the First Advent.

Rev 22:7 “And behold, I am coming quickly. Blessed is he who heeds the words of the prophecy of this book.”

First of Three Statements About Jesus Coming Quickly

The words “I am coming” mentioned in this verse, is the first of three times in this Chapter. This first time represents the coming of our Lord as a judge in 1874AD, in his invisible presence. The second is most likely in 1914, which was when the final punishment and the destruction of Satan’s system began. The last will be the coming or revealing to the world at the beginning of the kingdom.

John Falls Down a Second Time

Rev 22:8-9 (8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things. 9 But he said to me, "Do not do that. I am a fellow servant of yours and of your brethren the prophets and of those who heed the words of this book. Worship God.")

This is the second time that John fell down at the feet of the angel, and again he is instructed not to worship the angel, but to worship God. Any real angels or even fellow servants who are helping us or showing us wonderful things regarding God’s Plans, are not to be worshiped. It is God’s Plan, and he is the one that should be worshiped. We also need to make sure that anything we receive from a messenger is verified in God’s word, which is where all truth and knowledge of God’s Plans come from.

Don’t Worship Messenger

Is this angel an earthly messenger? There are two possibilities regarding who these angels are. This angel is one of the angels with the seven bowls of wrath, and so it could simply be that the angels that poured out the bowls of wrath, were actual angels.

A second and more likely thought, is that the messengers to the churches, the angels with the trumpets, the angels with the bowls of wrath, are the seven earthly messengers. If that is correct then when they delivered their messages to the churches and they blew the seven trumpets, they were earthly pastors. At the time they delivered the bowls of wrath, they were on the other side of the vail, having made their calling and election. This angel is the messenger that delivered the truth about the fallen church system, showed us the coming kingdom, and many other truths. That could only be the seventh messenger—in this vision, the truths that were going to be revealed by the seventh messenger, are being delivered to the church in a vision by Jesus’s angel who is most likely Gabriel, through Revelation. What is being revealed, points to the message that the seventh messenger Bro Russell was going to deliver to the church on the seventh day.

So, even if the angel is an actual heavenly messenger, then we see that we are being told not to worship him, but to worship God. We believe that the lesson given here, is telling us that the actual messenger is not as important as the message is, and that is the very thing that this angel tells us here. Don’t worship the messenger, but worship God, the one who sent the message.

This message is there for being delivered to us through the book of Revelation, and it was also delivered in person by the seventh messenger. So no matter who the message comes from, from a literal angel or an earthly pastor, we should worship him, but we are to worship God, the one who’s plan this is. Pastor himself told us that we were not to blindly follow him. He said that if you see that the scriptures teach something else than what I have told you, then you must follow the scriptures and not me. That is exactly what this angel is warning us about in this Chapter, so pay very serious attention to what he is saying! Prove all things in the scriptures and give all the credit to God, who is the one that has planned and established the Divine Plan. It does not matter if this angel is a real angel or not, we are not to worship him, but only God. Again, the important lesson here is, that the same lesson would apply to any important earthly leader that we have, because they are not the ones that designed the Divine Plan—they have only revealed God’s plan to us.

Rev 22:10 And he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

The Book of Revelation Is Not to be Sealed Up

This warning especially applies at the end of the age, but it has a general application to the entire age. Pay attention to the warnings in the book and listen to God’s son, Matt 25:9, Hebrew 1:1-2, 2:1-4. The warnings in this book would do no good if they were not able to be understood. So even from the time of the early church, the Apostles were warning about the great falling away that was coming. The book of Revelation is a history book that was written in advance—showing what was going to happen during the Gospel age.

Rev 22:11-12 *(11 "Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and the one who is filthy, still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous, still practice righteousness; and the one who is holy, still keep himself holy."
12 "Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to render to every man according to what he has done.*

The Second Statement About Coming Quickly

I come quickly is found in Rev 2:5, 3:11, 22:7, 12, 20, Matt 25:6 >. This second promise of “coming quickly”, points to 1914AD where the punishment came upon the church and state system, who did not heed the earlier warnings of the scriptures and the book—especially the book of Revelation. The punishment that began in 1914, continues until Satan’s system is totally destroyed.

This message is to those in the previous verse and is to both the faithful and the fallen church. He is not saying go ahead and continue to sin or be bad, but he is saying that if you continue to do so, I am coming quickly, and you will be punished, but if you are found to be doing good you will get a reward. This is like 1 Cor 3:10-15, where those who have not built on a good foundation will not get a reward. Those who have built properly on a foundation of gold and silver will get a reward.

Rev 22:13 "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."
See the detailed notes on Rev 1:8, for proof that Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega

Rev 22:14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city.

Blessed Are the Faithful Who Wash Their Robes

See Rev 7:14 and the detailed notes, for how the Great Company had problems washing their robes during their life on earth. Those who wash their robes here are the faithful of the church and are not the Great Company. That is because these are the ones who have direct access to the tree of life, which our Lord only promised only to the faithful church in the seven messages to the churches.

We don't always think that the faithful church must wash their robes, but they actually do. We are all sinners, and so the difference between the faithful church and the great Company, is that the faithful church comes before the throne of grace as soon as they can, and they ask for help in washing and overcoming their faults. The Great Company doesn't always keep their robes cleaned in a proper and timely manner, and at some point in time in their life they are forced to confront their error and to wash, but by then it is usually too late to get the reward of the 144,000.

Rev 22:15 Outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the immoral persons and the murderers and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying.

Warning About Not Washing Your Robes

This is another warning to those of verse 11, for what will happen if they continue to practice their evil deeds. These are those who are not doing the Lord's will during the Gospel Age. The nominal system during their reign of terror has done all of these things wrong. The first warning and punishment in verse 11, was designed to destroy the institutions of evil. The second warning given here is telling them that if they do not repent after their institutions are destroyed, that the next and final thing destroyed will be them.

That those who are outside are considered to be dogs, would indicate that they are not of the faithful church. Just as the Jews considered the gentiles to be dogs and outsiders, the same thing is eluded to here in that the ones that have these faults cannot be a part of the faithful class and are outsiders.

Rev 22:16 "I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

Jesus Did Send an Angel To Reveal Revelation to the Church

In the study, we had concluded that the angel in verse one, is most likely the same angel as seen in Rev 1:1, and is most likely Gabriel. We also had originally concluded that Jesus's angel, is probably not the same angel as the one that John tried to fall down at the feet of, as far as we could determine, but with further study we aren't able to say that original thought is correct—there is a possibility that the two descriptions of the angel are the same. See the detailed notes for more information on this question. This is still a question at this time.

Offer of Water of Life

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wishes take the water of life without cost.

Here we see that the bride of Christ with the Holy spirit, is going to bring the message of the salvation of the kingdom to the world. Our Lord will use the spirit and the bride to call to the world to get them to accept the kingdom. The Lord is going to do it through the bride, because the world will be more willing to accept the call of the kingdom from those who had once been of the earth. If the call came from just our Lord alone, they might question if they would have the ability to do what he wants, or resist him because he is from the heavenly realm. But the fact that the earthly church has already done it under poorer conditions, would be proof to the world that they can also do it. That the call is coming through those who have already made it during the Gospel Age, would indicate to them that it's possible to do what is necessary to begin the walk up the highway of holiness. They will have until the end of the millennium to accomplish their walk, while the Gospel Age church had to do it in the short lifetime that we have now. They will also have the advantage that Satan will be bound during the Millennial age. The water of life does come directly from our Lord, as we see in Revelation 21:6, but here he is using the spirit and the church to bring it to the world.

The portion of the verse that says “let him who heareth say come”, indicates that many of those who accept the kingdom early on, will then call to others and tell them about the benefits of accepting the kingdom. These are those who first recognize the value of what is being offered. As soon as they receive the restitution blessings, they will rejoice and gladly spread the message of joy. This process is like how the early church spread the message, but this time it will be completely successful in eventually calling all who are willing to the benefits of the kingdom.

Rev 22:18-19 (18 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues which are written in this book; 19 and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the tree of life and from the holy city, which are written in this book.

Do Not Add or Take Away From God’s Word

If you add things to God’s word, he will bring the plagues upon you. If you take things away from his word, God will take away your right to the tree of life. That it’s the tree of life that will be taken away, shows that the warning is to the church. This must be the church because the world will not need this warning in the next age, because the truth about God’s salvation will be fully known.

The fallen church and state system did not heed this warning, and tried to eliminate the entire Bible. The reason that they did that was to take the spotlight off their wrong behavior, because the Bible was pointing right at them. Those who fall on this point are most likely not second death, but they lose their crown or right to the tree of life.

This warning does not mean that you can’t have mistaken interpretations, but it means that you cannot make intentional changes to God’s word to support your wrong doctrines.

The warning about the plagues falls upon the entire age, because even though the system is only judged guilty at the end of the age, the plagues or punishment fall on the guilty of the entire age. The plague that comes upon them is the loss of their reward or their crown.

Rev 22:20-21 (20 He who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I am coming quickly." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen. NASU

The Third and Final Statement About Coming Quickly

This is the third time in this Chapter that Jesus says “I am coming quickly,” verses 7, 12, 20. When something is important, or the speaker wants to emphasize what he is saying, the important part is usually repeated three times. These references to coming seem to be marking three phases to his coming on this end of the age—starting with his presence in 1874AD, then 1914, and then the kingdom. There is the judgment of his presence, the punishment and destruction of the systems of the church and state system, and Satan's evil systems, that began in 1914AD, and then the actual coming to the world after the church is complete.

The third time that he says that he is coming quickly, is just after we see the spirit and the bride offer the free gift of the waters of life. That is what will happen at the third and final phase of the coming when our Lord comes to the world after the church is complete.

We pray that our Lord comes quickly with the complete 144,000, and that Satan's system is quickly removed, and the blessings of the kingdom begin to restore all who are willing.

2 Peter 1:20-21 20 But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is {a matter} of one's own interpretation,

21 for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy spirit spoke from God. (NAU)

Prov 25:2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

Forward to Full Revelation Notes

This is a work in progress, and so we would like to encourage anyone with constructive suggestions to let us know what they are. We don't claim to have the only correct interpretation of Revelation, and we admit that as we have studied this book, that we have had to back up and make changes along the way. Since the first edition of this work, there have already been many changes and edits that have been suggested by other brethren, and our Study Group would like to encourage that process even more, since we have found the proverb above regarding multiple counselors excellent advice.

We can only look at things that we see in the scriptures and try to determine the most likely interpretation. Being of a human frame, our spiritual vision is not always perfect, and we admit we could be missing some important things. That is why we think that just as we have stood on the shoulders of others in this work, we hope that if nothing else, we have improved the understanding of Revelation to the point where others can use our thoughts to make further improvement.

Because of the learning process, in this edition we have changed some of our understanding from earlier versions in the area of the trumpets and the bowls of wrath. When we got into the bowls of wrath, we found that we had to back up and reconsider some of our earlier work in the trumpets, because the trumpets are directly related to the bowls of wrath. We have also changed the understanding regarding the beast and the Image slightly, so that those symbols agree with their later descriptions in Revelation. By doing that we are now able to trace the history of those symbols to our time, and to explain how they either still exists or what the remnants of the original symbols are at this time. That clearer understanding, is important in helping us to see what still exists of that evil system on this end of the age.

In looking at the prophecy in this book, we see Revelation's description of the falling away of the church, as showing us the church getting step by step more corrupt during the first 4 church periods, and then we see the Lord bringing trials and punishments against the last three church periods. One of the Lord's reasons for bringing punishment on the last three churches, besides trying to reform them, was to weaken the power of the evil system so that the faithful church could more easily separate from them. Once the 2520 years was completed in 1914, then we see that the final punishment and destruction came upon the evil system. The seven bowls of wrath that will complete the wrath of God, first had the mission of destroying Satan's church and state system, and then secondly they have the job of freeing the world of mankind from Satan's evil system by the time of the kingdom, so that the people can get up on the highway of holiness. The three woes and the seven bowls add up to ten, which is the same number of plagues that were used to free Israel from Egypt—showing that those original ten plagues are a type of what was going to happen on this end of the age.

What the Study Group has put forth on the following pages should be considered to be suggestions only. Our intention has been to get the most accurate and correct an understanding of Revelation as we can. If we can be shown by others that we have to change any opinions and ideas that we have put forth in this writing, we will do so if the changes can be supported by scripture and reason.

Since what we have found out along the way has influenced later thought, we suggest that this work should be read from the front to the back if at all possible, in order to get the full arguments involved. Some areas may stand by themselves, but others may be dependent on earlier thoughts and explanations for their interpretation.

These notes are from a study in which several brethren were involved. The purpose of this study was to come to as close to an understanding of Revelation as we collectively could. We agreed from the start that there might still be different views even after we had finished our discussions. As much as practical when that has happened, these notes reflect both opinions. This was so that the flow of study would not be interrupted or stopped completely by differences that couldn't be resolved immediately. By leaving all of the unresolved questions for later, it was hoped that later study or world events might settle the issues. We also decided that we would consider the traditional interpretation first, but if a better thought presented itself, we would not hesitate to accept the better idea, because the aim of the study was to determine what the Lord's original intent was. A lot of the places where there were questions have resolved themselves as the study has proceeded, and we have learned more about Revelation. In most of the places where there may have been multiple thoughts in an earlier edition, you will only find one thought now. Where there are still questions, you will find more than one prophetic solution if the Study Group wasn't sure which was correct. In the places that we were not sure of, we tried to cover all the possibilities, with the thought in mind that others may know or see something that we didn't, and that they would be able to narrow the selection down to a final selection, or to add their own.

As we began our study, we found that historically there have been several opinions regarding where Revelation has been or will be fulfilled. Even among Bible Students, there are at this time several opinions as to which parts of it have been fulfilled or which are yet to be fulfilled. So not everyone that reads this commentary will agree with all the conclusions, but we can state that our Study Group has written down what seemed to be a scriptural and historical interpretation to us. We can only ask that you consider all the biblical and historical evidence, and decide from that what is correct. Time will tell if what we have seen in the book of Revelation will stand the test of time.

There are several schools of thought regarding Revelation in the worldly churches.

(1) Preterist

Some commentators think that the book has been completely fulfilled during the conflict between the Jewish system and the Roman Empire, back at the time of the early church in 69-73AD. Our Study Group rejected that view because there are too many prophetic descriptions in Revelation that don't fit that time area. It also seemed obvious that God's intent for writing the book had to involve more than just a few years at the beginning of the Gospel Age. Like the next view, the question about this would be, why did God neglect the entire age and only give a prophecy about a short period of time at the end of the Jewish system?

(2) Futurist

Others think that most of Revelation is still to be fulfilled at some future time in history, especially during a literal 3.5 or 7 years at the end of the age. They are still waiting for a literal man of sin to appear—while we will present evidence in this work, that he has already appeared, but is not recognized by most. The ones that advocate the future view, usually use a literal day for a day and a year for a year method of counting time in the Bible. Since we have seen a great deal of evidence in our studies, that God uses a day for a year method to map out time in prophecy, their method of a day for a day was seen to be incorrect by the Study Group.

The other problem with that view, is that it still waits for all things to happen in the future, while the Study Group sees that the apostate church and state system of the dark ages, has already exactly fulfilled the prophecies of Revelation that cover the great falling away. The extreme future view, has the same major unanswered question as the Preterist view, why would God forget all about the severe persecution and tribulation the church had during the Gospel Age, and concentrate on only the last 3.5 or 7 years at the end? If that view is correct, then we would have had almost 2000 years of evil and severe attacks against the church that were ignored or not predicted ahead of time. It would also look like the Lord had ignored and looked the other way while millions were killed by that evil system during the Gospel Age.

(3) - General

A third view is that Revelation doesn't apply to any particular age or time, but that it only gives a general message against evil and other advice to the church. The Study Group conceded that yes there was a general message for all ages that contained useful information, but we all felt that such a general interpretation was not the only or main intent of Revelation. There does seem to be a moral message given, especially in the messages to the seven churches, but there is obviously much more to the book than that.

(4) Historical

A fourth view that the Study Group agreed was the most likely method of interpretation, was that Revelation has a message that applies historically to the entire Gospel Age, and for that matter even reaches events in the beginning of the Millennial age. It's in a sense a history book written in advance, that has its fulfillment starting before the beginning of the Gospel Age, and mostly ending at the end of the Gospel Age—with some fulfillment which occurs at the start of the Millennial age.

The historical account given in Revelation, shows the rise to power of the apostate church and state system, and its final judgment and defeat by Christ and the Faithful Church. The last few Chapters of the book show the completion of the Gospel Age church and God's kingdom coming to earth to restore the world of mankind back to the original perfection and harmony with God that Adam had lost in the garden. In Chapter 20, we see all those who had won out over the apostate church system—the 144,000 who will be living and reigning with the Lord for the 1000 years.

Most importantly in Chapter 22, we see that the tree of life that was lost in the fall in the garden, is shown restored and multiplied into many trees in the last Chapter of the book. While all of what we see in that Chapter is symbolic and not literal, it represents a real-world solution to the fall in the garden, which will restore all of mankind back to the original perfection of Adam before God—but with all having life’s experiences regarding the snares of sin. We see the symbolic river of life flowing from the temple and through the trees of life along its banks, supplying leaves and fruit for the physical healing and spiritual blessing of mankind. The river is said to be flowing down the midst of the Golden Street or broad way that is seen in the New Jerusalem. That is the highway of holiness from Isaiah Chapter 35, that the world of mankind must get up on in order to be restored to perfection. They will receive spiritual nourishment and life from the leaves and the fruit of the trees as they walk on the highway, and they will have the water of life to drink from the water flowing out of the temple. The curse that mankind has been under will be lifted by the end of the Millennial age, and mankind will be restored back to perfection and harmony with God.

Day for a Year

Many Revelation interpreters, claim that it’s not possible to write an interpretation of Revelation that covers the entire age, which makes historical sense. The ones that make that claim, are usually the ones that want to put the fulfillment all in the past or all in the future. Our Study Group believes that we have been able to absolutely prove them wrong, and that most of Revelation has been historically fulfilled!

The Study Group saw no problem with the traditional Bible Student understanding, that sees that much of Revelation is divided into seven historic time-periods of churches, seals, and trumpets, that step by step follows the history of the church. The general outline of Revelation, together with the day for a year chronology as described in “Studies in the Scriptures”, gives us a general idea of where to look for the fulfillment of each feature. We all agreed that the day for a year chronology is the key to understanding Revelation, and to locating where in history the events were fulfilled. By using chronology as a guide, we are forced to keep ourselves from trying to read the fulfillment all future, or from trying to place it all in the past as some do. We know for example that six seals had to of been opened, and that six of the trumpets must have been blown prior to 1874AD—since that is where we believe that the seventh one-thousand-year day began.

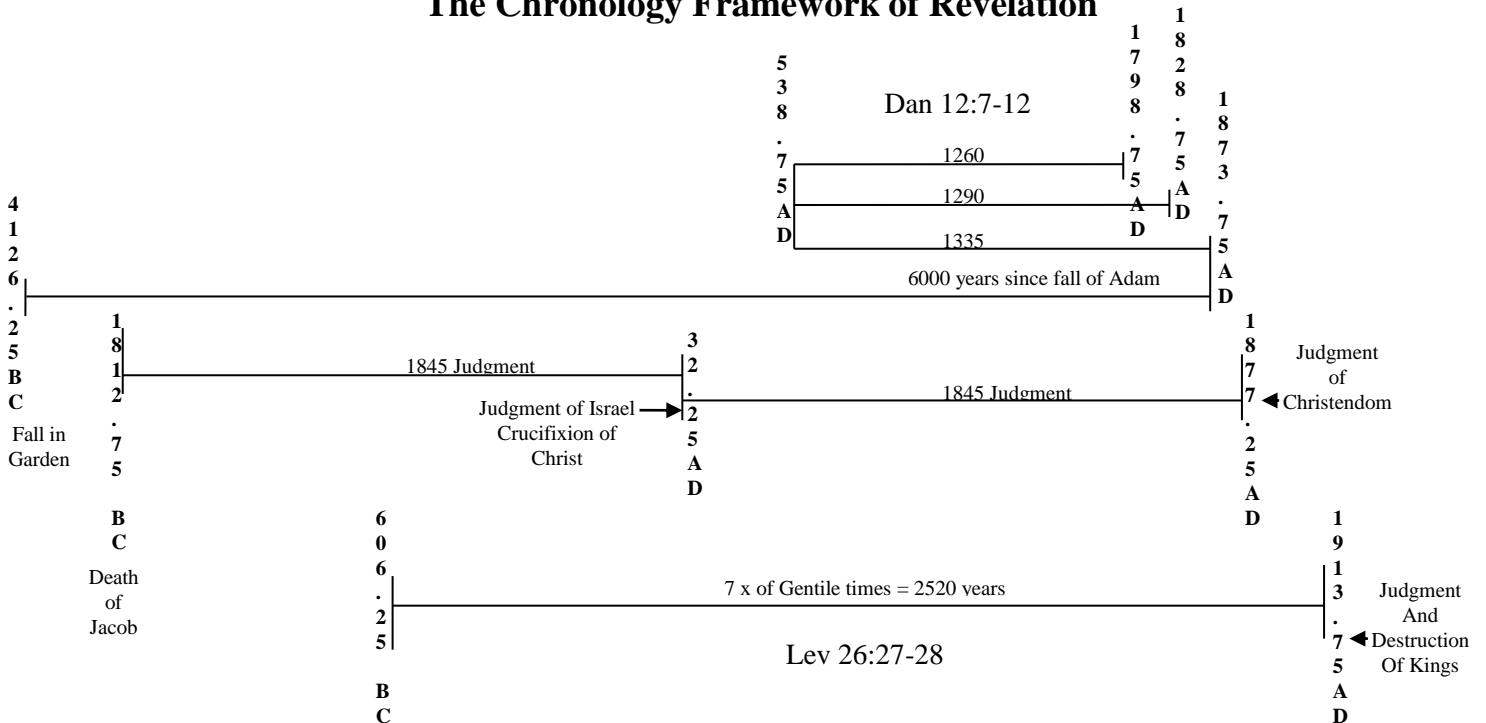

The year 1874AD, is where 6000 years of history has passed since the fall in the garden had occurred. The Lord’s Day is the seventh 1000-year day, and that is shown in Revelation by our Lord’s return. The proof of the Lord’s return is all the prophecy that has been fulfilled—including the punishment that came upon the apostate system during the early part of that day. It should then be obvious, for the same reason that the first six churches, seals, and trumpets, and the events described in them, must have happened or at least had a major portion of their fulfillment prior to 1874AD, because the seventh church began at the 1874AD date. We will later in this work, reveal a chronological system for the seven historical periods of the church, that will confirm that we have been in the seventh or last church since 1874AD. We have written two separate books that confirm the basic Second Volume Chronology, “The Divine Plan and its Chronology”, and “The Biblical Count of the years”, self-published in one Volume.

The chronology system as found in “the Studies in the Scriptures”, indicates that the fulfillment of Revelation should cover the entire Gospel Age, from the beginning to the end, and not just at the start of the Gospel Age or at the end as most other interpreters believe today. Many of those who attempt to interpret Revelation, don't see that the time-periods of 1260 days, 42 months, etc. are not literal time-periods. For that reason, they think that many of the events fall into a future 3.5 yr. time frame. Time in Revelation is interpreted symbolically, and it should be as a rule computed at a day for a year. We believe that the Lord used the day for a year method to hide the predictions of the prophecy from the evil system and from Satan. Only on this end of the age has it become possible to unlock the prophecy of Revelation, and that is only because enough history has passed that the time lock can now be opened. God made some perfectly clear statements in the prophetic record of the Old Testament, that had made it possible to unlock the time features when the time came for them to be understood on this end of the age, but not before. For that reason, we see that Revelation is prophetically hung upon the 1260-year time frame that is mentioned in several places in Daniel. As we will see later in this book, the 2520 years of the seven times of Daniel are important, as well as the 1845 year parallels, the 40-year harvest, and the 2500-year Jubilee. There is also an unknown space of time that we are in now, which is from the end of the 40 years harvest, until the church is complete and the Marriage of the Lamb.

What we have drawn below, is the framework that the Divine Plan and the book of Revelation are hung upon. There is actually more to this framework, and because of that we have drawn on the next page the parts that apply to Revelation and enough of the other parts, so that we can see how the entire plan applies to the 7000 Years. The parts that especially apply to Revelation are the 2520 years that go from 607 BC to 1914AD and the 1260 years that goes from 539AD to 1799AD. The 30, 45-year link to 1874AD is important, since that is the 1290, 1335, of the Daniel Chapter 12 prophecy. The 6000 years and the Jubilee cycle point to 1874AD. The two 1845's that reach from 29 - 69AD and which go to 1874 – 1914AD, are the 1845 judgment parallels from the Second Volume, and they show that just as the Jewish system came under judgment at the First Advent, the nominal house or Apostate system came under Judgment at the Second Advent. After 40 years, we arrive at the date 1914, and the evil system could begin to be punished, and history shows that WW1 broke out right exactly on time. The 2500 years that goes from the midpoint of the years to 1874AD, with one year left over, shows that we have been in the times of restitution since 1874AD. The one year left over symbolizes the 1000 years of the Millennial age. The 2500 years from the start of the flood to the baptism of Jesus in 28.75AD, shows us that was the time that the stars of heaven class would begin to be blessed.

The Chronology Framework of Revelation

MORE COMPLEX VIEW OF CHRONOLOGY

It might be helpful to imagine the chronological framework that we see on the two pages above, as being a strong and solid framework that we can use to hang the various parts of the Revelation and other prophecy upon. Where we place the pieces in the chronological framework, is sometimes a question and sometimes not.

For example, when we see the women fleeing into the wilderness, we know that the flight to protection happens before the 1260 years, because of the chronology associated with the 1260 days and the 3.5 times that are mentioned in the prophecy. That question may be a little more complicated than what it appears on the surface, as you will see when we study Revelation Chapter 12, because we will find that there are actually two different women fleeing into the wilderness—one on foot and one flying, which we will explain when we discuss that Chapter. The beast in the first part of Rev 13:5, fits into the time frame of the second volume chronology again, because of the 42 months associated with its reign of terror. The questions after that become—where do we place the two-horned beast, the Image of the Beast, and the beast with the eighth head on our chronology framework? There are different opinions on that amongst Bible Students, and we will give our opinions on those matters, but they may not always be the traditional view.

Those are very important questions that this book will attempt to answer. The answers to those questions will make a great deal of difference in how we view prophecy. One way of looking at it would place a lot of the book future, and another way of looking at it would place a lot of the book into fulfilled history. That question of the proper placement in history, is what our Study Group worked very hard at trying to determine correctly.

For those who are not as familiar with the day per year chronology, we recommend reading the second volume of Scripture Studies. You can also consult the book “Biblical Midst of the Years B1”, and “Biblical Count of the Years B2”, for a very detailed discussion of Bible chronology and its importance, but you would need to understand the Second Volume chronology before you do that. For those who are somewhat familiar with chronology, we are going to next mention some basics that confirm that the day per year concept is valid.

A Day per Year

Below we have listed three prophecies that are interpreted at a day per year, two of which declare a day per year as the method, and a third that proves itself by predicting the time of the Messiah.

Num 14:34 For forty years--one year for each of the forty days you explored the land--you will suffer for your sins and know what it is like to have me against you. NIV

Ezek 4:4-8) 4 "Then lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel upon yourself. You are to bear their sin for the number of days you lie on your side. 5 I have assigned you the same number of days as the years of their sin. So for 390 days you will bear the sin of the house of Israel.

6 "After you have finished this, lie down again, this time on your right side, and bear the sin of the house of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year. 7 Turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem and with bared arm prophesy against her. 8 I will tie you up with ropes so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished the days of your siege NIV

Dan 9:24-26) 24 "Seventy 'sevens' are decreed for your people and your holy city to finish transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy and to anoint the Most Holy. 25 "Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One, the ruler, comes, there will be seven `sevens,' and sixty-two `sevens.' It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of trouble. 26 After the sixty-two `sevens,' the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing. The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood: War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed NIV

*Dan 9:27 He will confirm a covenant with many for one week. But in the middle of that week he will bring sacrifices and offerings to a halt. On the wing of Abominations will come one who destroys, until the decreed end is poured out on the one who destroys." ### 40 Years at Day Per Year

The 40 years in the wilderness is very easily understood, because the Bible even tells us that those 40 days were to be punished at a day per year, and the written history of that punishment showed us that it was for 40 years. All the spies that came back and gave a bad report, were allowed to die out before those 40 years were up. The only ones that were still alive at the end of that time were Joshua and Caleb.

390 & 40 at Day Per Year

The 390 and the 40 days from Ezekiel, likewise were said to be fulfilled at a day per year, and if we count from the split in the kingdom, the 390 years reaches right to where the siege of Jerusalem began in Zedekiah's 9th year. Two years later the city fell and at the date that it fell, it was 40 years back to where Jeremiah had begun to preach about the coming destruction of the nation. The date that Jeremiah began to preach at was right at the midpoint of the years in 626.25 BC—which is 3500 years after the fall in the garden, and 3500 years before the restoration of all who are willing at the end of the 7000 years.

Daniel 7 x 70

The total amount of time from the decree in Daniel, was to be “seventy-sevens”. The word sevens can be translated week or weeks, but we believe that the NIV has it more correct as sevens. In this prophecy, time is also applied at a day per year, for a total of 490 years. The start point for the 70 weeks is very complex to establish, so we won't explain that here, except to say that there are many different opinions on how to determine that. The method used in the second volume of Scripture Studies has had some questions raised against it, because the understanding of history has been revised since Pastors time, but we believe the corrected date of 455 BC is valid, although a different method must be used to derive it. See the pyramid book where the Edgers calculate and point out in Volume 2, section 51, page 245, that the correct date had to be 455 BC. See also the book “Biblical_Count_of_Years-B2”, and the section on the 70 weeks of years of Daniel, for a method of calculating the exact time of the coming of the Messiah from the 70 weeks' prophecy, using the Jubilee cycles and the Sabbath years which also point to 455 BC as being the correct date, even if the decree was actually in 458 BC as some believe.

Word Cutoff Means to Covenant

In the prophecy above in verse 26, we see that Messiah did come exactly at the end of the 69 weeks in Oct 29AD, and that he was to be “cut off”. The word for “cut off”, can mean “to covenant”, and that is exactly what he did at the river Jordon when he was baptized, and the Holy spirit in the form of a dove came down upon him. At that point in time, he made an agreement with the Father that if he was successful during the next 3.5 years, that he would win the right to a New Covenant that would be able to save the world of mankind. Most translations say that he would have nothing after he is cut off, but they probably translate it that way because they don't understand that what he did during his ministry was to establish a New Covenant that would replace the Old Law Covenant, by the cutting off of himself as a sacrifice. We can't say that our Lord had nothing at the time of the cross, because he accomplished everything that was needed for salvation at that time when he sealed the agreement or covenant that he had made with the Father. One possibility that has been suggested regarding why he had nothing, is that he had nothing at the time of death regarding his kingdom, which must wait for the church to be completed before it can begin. While that is true, we think that the idea that he cut a covenant is the most important aspect of what he accomplished on the cross.

It's also possible that the translators and commentators get the other thought, because the word for covenant has the implication of destroy or consume. We find in the scriptures that the killing of an animal was always done at the establishing of a covenant. The actual meaning regarding a sacrifice, is that it should say that he covenanted to death—he offered to lay his life down for the covenant that was going to remove the sins of the world, Heb 9:15-17. The Heavenly Father showed that he accepted the terms of the covenant that our Lord made, by sending the Holy spirit down to the disciples at Pentecost. Then in the last part of the verse, just as what happened in history, the prince or the Roman general came and destroyed the city in 69-70AD.

Last Three & Half Years Is Not Future!

Many want to move the last week in verse 27 future from our Lord's time, because the translators have messed up the translation of that verse and so we have selected the NET translation that we believe is more correct. We see that the "he" in verse 27 is our Lord, and not some future anti-Christ, and that it refers to the previous verse regarding the Messiah, and that confirms that this is not talking about the prince who destroys the city. Viewed that way, we see that in the middle of the last week, Jesus confirmed the carrying out of the covenant on the cross in 33AD with the many, "the church", that he had made at the river Jordan 3.5 years earlier, Heb 9:28. The confirmation of that covenant came on the day of Pentecost, when the Holy spirit came down upon the heads of the assembled disciples. The last 3.5 years, was fulfilled by the 3.5 years of exclusive favor to the Jewish nation that they had to accept Christ, before it went to the Gentiles. Because he replaced all the sacrifices of the literal tabernacle with the better blood of his covenant sacrifice in 33AD, all the Jewish sacrifices ceased in the sense that they were no longer recognized or needed by God to forgive sin.

Coming of the Abomination of Desolation

The one coming on the wing of the Abominations in the later part of verse 27, is the one who makes desolate, or is the one that establishes the Abomination of Desolation. As we go through the book of Revelation, we will see that the Abomination is at first the Romans that destroyed the city. Then secondly it was Papacy that got control of the power of Rome, and he established the tyrannical power of the Abomination of Desolation in 539AD, and is not some future anti-Christ as many believe. That was close to the time that the Pope gained the power with Justinian to have the Empire use military force to silence all who didn't agree with the false doctrines that were being brought into the church at the time. In 539AD, the Pope convinced the Emperor Justinian to send the army to Ravenna to silence the Arians, who were fighting against the false doctrine of the Trinity. From that time onward, the Pope didn't hesitate to have those who didn't agree, silenced through the use of force. That terrible power to persecute and kill, continued for 1260 years just as was prophesied in Daniel Chapter 12. Almost exactly at the end of the 1260 years, Papacy lost the support of the kings, and so lost most of its power to persecute. The even worse part of this Abomination, was when Papacy established the Mass, which sacrifices Christ over and over again, not recognizing that nothing else was needed for salvation, because Christ accomplished it all on the cross.

Heb 9:25-28 (25 Christ did not have to offer himself many times. He wasn't like a high priest who goes into the most holy place each year to offer the blood of an animal. 26 If he had offered himself every year, he would have suffered many times since the creation of the world. But instead, near the end of time he offered himself once and for all, so that he could be a sacrifice that does away with sin. 27 We die only once, and then we are judged. 28 So Christ died only once to take away the sins of many people. But when he comes again, it will not be to take away sin. He will come to save everyone who is waiting for him. CEV

So, we can see that we have three scriptural areas that show us the day for a year method, and the last one regarding the 70 weeks is a key reference that establishes the dating for the coming of the Messiah exactly. As our Lord has said, all things shall be established by two or three witnesses, and we have those in the scriptures above. Those who argue against the historical method, usually argue against the day for a year method. They claim that God only used the day for a year method in the three places, and that the rest of the Bible is a day for a day.

Because of our understanding of day for a year chronology, we are able see that the 42 months, 3.5 times, and the 1260-day time-periods in prophesy, all point to the apostate church system that was in power from 539 to 1799AD. In other words, we see a 1260-year prophetic time-period, rather than 1260 literal days. Doesn't the above interpretation of the 70-week prophecy make much more sense, than having the last week moved almost 2000 years into the future, for a 3.5 or 7-year rise of an anti-Christ, when we already have had a terrible and evil anti-Christ during the entire 1260 years, and he still exists yet, but without his civil power. Because of the nominal church system moving the 3.5 or 7 years' future, they don't see that it was our Lord Jesus that finished establishing the promise of the New Covenant in the midst of the week. They have also clouded over the prophetic description of who the anti-Christ was going to be, by looking for a future 3.5 or 7 years. They don't see that he has already come and that he has been in power for most of the Gospel Age, and that they are a part of that anti-Christ system without even knowing it. The above-mistranslated scripture on the 70 weeks, is where some interpreters get the 3.5 or 7 years that they think is a literal or future time-period, and that is why they are still waiting for the anti-Christ and the man of sin to rise to power. We see that the trouble from the man of sin and the Abomination of Desolation, has already occurred and that it was in its greatest power, especially from 539AD to 1799AD. The only question remaining, has to do with whether church and state will rise back into power again for a short time, before the close of the age. That question can only be answered completely and for sure by fulfilled history.

Most Present Time Churches Have Lost the Day Per Year Concept

At the present time, the Bible students are one of the few groups that still support the day for a year view—but that was not always true. The view of a day for a year goes all the ways back to the early church, and was supported by various others at different times throughout the age. The early church understood that method of counting time, because of the 70-week prophecy and even Sir Isaac Newton used it in his commentaries, but he was not sure where to start counting some of the chronology from, because not enough history had passed yet to establish the start point. That is the time lock that was keeping the chronology sealed up until the end times we are in now. Even as short a time ago as 1850AD, this method was still being debated and discussed with large numbers of supporters advocating the day for a year principle. See the full set of Barnes notes on Revelation, Editors Preface—Year day principle which argues for the validity of that method of chronology interpretation.

The principle of a day for a year, is regrettably not believed by most Protestant churches or even the Seventh Day Adventists anymore now. There has also been a great decline of knowledge and truth in the churches in our day, because of the spewing out predicted in the message to the seventh church and that spewing out has caused most of the churches to move to a more literal interpretation of the scriptures. That literal view will prove to be deficient and false in the end.

Double Application of Old Testament Scriptures

One question that might be asked, is how can the scriptures that are quoted out of the Old Testament and which had originally applied to natural Israel, now apply to the Gospel Age. The answer is that most of the Old Testament prophecies have a double application—one for Israel and one for the Gospel Age. The 1845-year parallel that we discuss in the forward to the detailed comments, shows us that what happened 1845 years ago to Israel, is happening again through the parallel to the nominal Christian house on this end of the age. The Apostle Paul even tells us that we should look to the history of Israel for what not to do, because the things that they did wrong, are the same kinds of things that we should not do wrong.

1 Cor 10:11 Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. NASU

The Day For a Day Theory Came From Papacy.

The churches today don't realize that the theory that they accept at a day for a day, is being promoted by the church that has the most to hide. At about the time that the evidence of the day for a year principle was beginning to gain wide acceptance, at least two officials in the Papal system put forth the idea that the time prophecies in Revelation and Daniel, should only be interpreted as a literal 3.5 years. We find that the Jesuit Aleassar wrote the Preterist or past view in 1614AD. We also find Jesuit Ribera advocating the Futurists view in 1585AD. Aleassar tried to fulfill Revelation entirely by 70AD, and Ribera put it all off into the distant future. Both methods are designed to take the heat off Papacy as being the fulfillment of the persecuting power described in Revelation—one interpretation to the future and the other to the past. They want you to take your pick, future or the past and forget about the Papal system as being the most likely candidate to historically fulfill this prophecy during the entire Gospel Age!

Since that time, the fallen church system has either claimed that Revelation was still going to happen sometime in the future, or that it had already happened at the beginning of the age, and that it doesn't have anything to do with them. Unfortunately, at the present time, the futurist theory has gained acceptance by most modern day churches, and is taking most of the heat off the Papal system. Since most don't see anything as having happened yet, they don't see who their enemy is anymore! In other words, they have forgotten what the Protestant movement was all about, and that is a dangerous condition to be in. That lack of spiritual vision has prompted many to talk about reunification with the same Catholic System that their forefathers escaped from with great difficulty, and much persecution and death.

A Book of Symbols

Most of the churches don't understand Revelation at all. If they have any ideas about the book, they usually describe something that is literally interpreted, and they think that when the events happen that are described in the book, they will be something that will be obvious. We think that most of what is in Revelation is hidden from the casual observation by symbolism. Revelation is a book that is sealed up by being written in code, like the way nations send secret messages to each other—just as it actually states in Revelation 1:1, where it uses the word "signified" to describe the message. That is Strong's word # 4591, which Vine's has defined as, "to express by signs". Revelation is a prophecy that was written in symbols that are impossible to understand, unless you search out what they stand for. Only through the Holy spirit are the faithful saints able to understand what Revelation is showing us.

Some of these symbols to the natural man, seem to have a sense to them, i.e., horses, and lambs. The problem is that when the symbols are taken out of context with other scriptures, and when they are interpreted literally, they paint an untrue and impossible picture of what is supposed to happen. For example, we don't expect to find literal dragons and ten-horned and seven-headed beasts running around! The Bible interprets some of its symbols for us, which gets us around that problem. In Revelation 12:9, we are told that the dragon is the serpent or Satan. In Daniel 7:17, 23, we are told that the beasts are earthly kingdoms or Empires.

Bible Defines Most of the Symbols In Revelation

Regarding the symbols, as much as possible, we will attempt to find the places in the Bible that interprets them for us. In the places that we can't find an interpretation defined in scripture, we trust that the natural sense or the context will give us a clue as to the prophetic meaning. By natural sense, we mean that we will look for a common sense meaning that is related to the real-world use of the symbol. For example, we see that light brightens things and makes them easier to see. In that sense, light regarding the scriptures, indicates that you can see clearly what's happening regarding God's Plan. Having darkness or lack of light, means that you can't see or understand what's happening.

There Are Separate Non-Continuous Visions

One very important thing that needs to be considered, is that Revelation, as well as most of the Old Testament, cannot be read straight through without breaking up the prophecy into separate visions. Revelation is made up of a series of visions, and we need to be careful not to read two separate visions as if they were one. In most places, we can easily see where a message starts and ends, because most of the time when Revelation starts, another vision, it uses phrases like "and I saw", or "a great sign was seen", or I heard, etc. We will find that there are not very many places that are not so clearly marked, and we will consider them and the reasons that we would break the vision in a particular place that doesn't have those clearly marked spots when we come to them. As we will see in Chapter 11, there is one place that appears to not the break in the prophecy at all, but then we finally see that instead of a break, there is a switch of the vision from outside the city to inside the city.

If we don't recognize the divisions, Revelation can fool us, and where we expect the message to continue in chronological order, the narrative may back up in time and give us another view of the same thing we had just seen, but from another prophetic angle or viewpoint. If we are not careful to properly divide the word, it can result in a contradiction, confusion, and misunderstanding.

One major place that has caused confusion, is when we see the two-horned beast in Chapter 13. Some see the two-horned beast as coming after the 1260 years, because they don't recognize that when it says "I saw" a two-horned beast, that "I saw" is a break from the previous prophecy, and it does not necessarily follow in chronological order after the beast with the smitten head, that was to continue for 1260 years in power in the first part of Chapter 13. If you see that as a break in the prophecy, then you can recognize that the two-horned beast is something that could have happened during the time of the 1260 years of power of the previous beast, and not afterward. If you don't see that, then you are looking for a two-horned beast, and an Image of the Beast to be formed after the 1260 years, and so far, you have been waiting 218 years with no results. We will give an alternate opinion, which will show that both of those beasts have already existed during the 1260 years.

Outline of the Book

There are many different schemes for outlining how the book of Revelation should be divided. We are going to give a brief outline of what we think is the proper way to divide this book up. First of all, we see Chapter 1 as an introduction to the book. Almost all the verses that are found in that Chapter, if they are not repeated in the messages to the seven churches, they are repeated at least once again later in Revelation. We have included a table that shows that repetition in appendix G.

The messages to the seven churches, shows us seven historical time-periods that began at the time of the Apostles, and which end at the close of the seventh church—which is the historical time we believe we are in now.

Messages, Seals, Trumpets Run Concurrently With Each Other

We believe that the seven seals, follow along with the same seven historical periods as the messages to the seven churches. There is a possibility that some of the seals are opened shortly before the beginning of each church, but we are not sure about the exact timing regarding that if that is true. We see that for sure, regardless of where each seal is opened, that the first four seals are giving us a vision of what is being done wrong in each church period, or what declined in that church. The last three seals appear to be the opposite; in that they begin to attack the system or at least promise to do so as the fifth one does. The events shown in each church period, are not necessarily limited to the beginning of each church period, but they can be fulfilled through the entire church period. We also see that the problems found in the earlier seals can accumulate, as we will see in the fourth seal, where the bad events of the first three seals still existed, and added to the seriousness of the situation in the fourth church. So, what that means, is that in most of the visions we see that the type of decline that occurs in a certain church period is not limited to that church. In other words, when a church began to do a particular thing wrong, the next church continued the practice—continuing and worsening the decline. That situation remained bad, until the early reformers began to bring out truth again—the bringing out of truth increased greatly from the time of the Reformation onward.

We think that the seven trumpets fall one to each church, just as the seals do, and that the last one, the seventh trump, is the last trump mentioned elsewhere in the scriptures. The events that are described in the trumpets, begin in the early part of each church that they belong to, but the events described cover a longer period of time during each church. We see the same pattern as what we saw in the seals, in that the first four trumpets show the downward decline, and the last three begin to afflict punishment and trouble upon the evil system. The fifth trumpet is a good example of that, where we first see the darkness caused by the smoke of a great furnace of trouble, and then we see locusts come out of the smoke. The darkness of the smoke shows the spiritual darkness of the first part of that church and then the stinging locusts of Wycliffe's followers that come out of the smoke, are then described as existing during the last 150 years of the fifth church period. In other words, the events described by the trumpets cover the entire period of that church, and not just what happens at the beginning of that church. That is the same regarding how the seals work.

Seven Last Plagues Poured Out In Seventh Church Period

The seven last plagues are directly related to the seven trumpets, in that if you examine each plague with each corresponding trumpet, you will see that they are dealing with the same type of symbolic objects and events. The seven plagues are an exception; in that they don't begin to be fulfilled until the time of the seventh church. The earlier time-periods that revealed messages to the churches, the seals, and the trumpets, had some power and help for those who understood their message at the earlier times, and they plagued the apostate church and state system because of that truth. That earlier truth about the evil system, was not enough by itself to destroy the fallen system, and so God has provided more, and that is why the seven bowls of wrath are saved until the end. The seven bowls of wrath are designed to destroy the evil system after 1914, so that the church can be completed and that the rest of the world of mankind will be freed from Satan's system in time for the kingdom. We will find in our study that the three woe trumpets helped to free the faithful church from the apostate system by 1914, and it appears that the last three bowls of wrath are designed to free the entire world from Satan's evil system in a similar manner. See the diagram and explanation regarding the plagues in the full notes on Rev 16:1.

We understand that the seven last plagues began to be poured out after the 40-year harvest time, and that was from 1914AD and onward. The reason that they had to wait until then, is that the judgment of the unfaithful system was accomplished in 1878AD, and that is shown by the 1845-year harvest parallels. Since the bowls of wrath are what complete God's wrath against the unfaithful system, it seems reasonable that they could not be poured out on that evil system until after the 1878 judgment had occurred, and the heavenly court had found them guilty. Then the evidence of that guilt was published in the harvest message, so that any saints that were still in the apostate system could examine it to see if it was scriptural", and come out. The call of the 40-year harvest, also gave any saints that were still in the evil system after the pronouncement of judgment, time to get out before God began to punish and destroy the system.

Who Wrote the Book?

Not all commentators agree that the John who is named here, is the same John that wrote the Gospel and the three epistles. There is no positive historic proof of that one way or the other, but the Study Group agreed that the author was most likely the John of the Gospels, because he would have needed the Holy spirit to write it. Eusebius in 325AD wrote in his history, that he felt that it was John the Apostle who wrote the book, since there was testimony from some previous authorities that said that it was that John. This may be what Jesus was referring to, when he said that John would not die until he would come. John stayed alive until Jesus came to him through the power of the Holy spirit, and he then gave him the message of Revelation.

John 21:22-23) 22 Jesus said to him, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!" 23 The saying spread abroad among the brethren that this disciple was not to die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he was not to die, but, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?"(RSV)

Genesis, Revelation and God's Restoration of Creation

As we can see in the table below, there is an interesting thing about Revelation, in that it has certain things in common with Genesis and the fall of Man. One of the most important correspondences is that we see man driven out of the Garden of Eden and away from the tree of life in Genesis, and in Revelation in the last Chapter, we find mankind restored back to perfect conditions, with access to the leaves and the fruit of the tree of life, where there will be no more death or sorrow "Revelation 21:1-4, 22:2".

The Cherubim are first seen in Genesis, where they are placed at the gate to block the way back to the garden and the tree of life, and they are last seen in Revelation 19:4, which is at the time that the church is completed. Just as we saw how sin entered the Garden of Eden, in Revelation we see how sin will be removed and the curse lifted. The curse that was placed on the earth, will be lifted in the next age as we are told in Revelation 22:3. Just as God created the heavens and earth in Genesis, we will get a new heavens and earth in Revelation 21:1.

In Genesis, we have the sun to govern the day and darkness called night, while in the New Jerusalem we will have no need of the sun, as seen in Revelation 21:23, and no night there as seen in Revelation 22:5. The Garden of Eden had a river to water it, and in Revelation 22:1-2, we find the river of life coming out from the throne of God and the Lamb.

As the first Adam had a bride provided for him, in Revelation we find the marriage of the Lamb to the church. In Genesis, we are told that the seed of the woman was to bruise the serpent on his head. In Revelation, we find the serpent Satan first bound and cast into the pit and then destroyed after the little season—he is finally defeated and destroyed by Christ head and body, which had been developed during the Gospel age. He is not destroyed until the end of the millennium, because he must test the world during the little season after he is released from the abyss. We would prefer that he be destroyed right away, but God in his infinite wisdom has designed his plan so that he is still available to test the perfection and faithfulness of the world of mankind at the end of the millennium, and that he would then be destroyed after that—never to cause trouble again.

In Gen. 22:17, we find that God promised Abraham that his seed would possess the gate of his enemies, and in Revelation 20:1-4, 6, that will become a reality when “Christ head and body”, become priests and will reign with the Lord over the earth. We also see in Revelation Chapter 20, that Christ has the key to the Abyss, into which he casts Satan and seals him in. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, and we see that accomplished in Rev 21:1-4.

The bow of promise that God placed in the sky after the flood, we again find in Revelation 4:3. The green rainbow that we see in Revelation Chapter 4, represents the Abrahamic promises that are to bless all the families of the earth, and that blessing is made possible because of the New Covenant that Christ obtained for us on the cross.

In other words, all the problems that came into existence with the fall in the garden, are to be removed in the Millennial age, and that removal is described to us in the book of Revelation. In Revelation, God shows us how he is going to restore the world back to the same fellowship with him that Adam had before he sinned.

Acts 3:18-21 (18 But the things which God foreshowed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

19 Repent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord;

20 and that he may send the Christ who hath been appointed for you, (even) Jesus:

Old Testament & Revelation

In our study of Revelation, we found that a large amount of the verses or phrases are taken from the Old Testament. Some commentators say over half, but we think it's even higher than that if we take into consideration those verses that are not direct quotes—but which are allusions to Old Testament verses. Besides direct quotes, we will find many illusions or pictures taken from for example the Exodus out of Egypt. The plagues that are found in Exodus, picture the three woe trumpets and the seven bowls of wrath of Revelation—with a similar intent, “Let my people go”.

The layout of Revelation's trumpets and bowls of wrath, also seem to be pictured in the downfall of Jericho, as well as in the escape of Israel from Egypt. We will find that many areas of Old Testament prophecies such as Joel, Zechariah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel, that will shed more light on what the Revelation text are showing us, and that this will be a two-way street with Revelation helping us with Old Testament interpretations. Failure to recognize that the bible interprets itself, and that it supplies the interpretation of the symbols in the book of Revelation, is what has led many to wrong conclusions about Revelation's message.

We see that Babylon, who was an oppressor and destroyer of God's people in the Old Testament, is a type of the oppressor and destroyer of the Faithful Church in Revelation. In Revelation, it's called Babylon the Great, and there are many parallel scriptures from the Old Testament that apply to both Babylon's.

In the Old Testament, we see Elijah as a picture of the Faithful Church during the 1260 years, being chased by Jezebel and Ahab, who wanted to get rid of him. Jezebel is a picture of the apostate church—the harlot of Chapter 17, and Ahab represents the civil power side of the problem—the civil power of the ten kings of Revelation. We will find Jezebel mentioned by name in Revelation, and we will see several events in Chapter 11, that prophetically matches things that Elijah did historically during Jezebel's reign of terror. Jezebel symbolizes the apostate church, who is teaching Paganism and who is living illegally with the kings of the Roman Empire. We will see the downfall of all the above symbols in Revelation, and the installation of God's true kingdom which replaces them as we come to the closing Chapters of the book.

With these thoughts in mind, we offer these study notes, which come from several brethren that were a part of the Study Group. We pray that the Heavenly Father will bless this effort and this study, and grant a blessing to any others that might read these notes. We pray that those who read these notes, would have their faith and understanding greatly increased. It's likely that others may be able to improve upon these notes, with knowledge that we did not have. For that reason, we state that if anyone has a scriptural interpretation that is better than ours, we are willing to change our thoughts to the better interpretation. We are not saying that we will accept a different view point without evidence that it is better, but we will consider all alternative viewpoints, and accept any that present scriptural evidence that is better than our thoughts.

If we are almost at the end of the age, as most Bible Students agree, we believe that we will show that more of this book has been fulfilled than most think. If more has been fulfilled than what the church has understood in the past, then it's important that this work be studied to see if what it has in its pages will be helpful to the church, and even to the world in the next age, as a witness to how much prophecy God had revealed ahead of time.

Even if this work should prove to be lacking in some respect, we believe that it should receive consideration, because we believe that some parts of it will be a great help in understanding Revelation. In other words, just as we stood on the shoulders of others to advance our understanding, we believe that this work has several parts to it that could help others to advance the understanding of Revelation even further—with the hope that it will eventually be completely or at least better understood than what we have presented. We have done the best that we can to arrive at a complete understanding, and we definitely believe, “that through many councilors the matter will be determined.” The parts that we are unsure of, are parts that could change or be confirmed as more history unveils itself further.

Revelation and the Divine Plan

“Revelation” was revealed directly from God, and for that reason we can conclude that this vision is intended to unfold and reveal God’s “Divine Plan” in more detail than what had previously been known. That is one reason that the complete set of study notes, is much more extensive than what you would expect in a normal book. In writing the explanation of each vision of Revelation, we found that in order to render a complete explanation, we had to explain a lot more material and concepts than what are found in Revelation itself. We decided to do it that way, because the book of Revelation does contain a revealing of God’s Divine Plan, and since we are not sure of where and who this book might reach, we felt that a full explanation was needed. If it is read by anyone that does not have knowledge of the Divine Plan, and the two salvations contained therein, then we wanted to make sure that it has as good an explanation about God’s Plan that we could provide. So while this is a complex and detailed book, we pray that it will be a blessing to anyone that makes the effort to read it in its full detail. If you do that, we guarantee that you will know much more about God’s Plan than when you started. We pray that this book will be a blessing to anyone that takes the time to do that.

Chapter 1 Revelation 1:1-2

Revelation 1:1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show to His bond-servants, the things which must soon take place; and He sent and communicated {it} by His angel to His bond-servant John, Revelation 1:2 who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, {even} to all that he saw. (NAU)

In verse one, we find a simple yet important statement. It says that this was a Revelation of God to Jesus, and that this vision of things was shortly going to begin to take place, and it was to be given to his bond-servant John, who was to give it to the church. The word "Revelation" means, "Revealing, uncovering or disclosure". It's interesting that the book is named the book of Revelation, but the only place that we find that name is in this verse. The phrase "to show", means "to present to view", and as we will see, it was going to be about events that were shortly going to "soon begin" to take place, and that those events would describe the entire Gospel Age—not just a few years at the beginning or the end. This "Revelation", was revealed directly from God to Jesus, as seen in Chapter 5, and for that reason we can conclude that this vision is also intended to unfold and reveal God's "Divine Plan" in more detail than what had previously been known.

Revelation reveals our Lord Jesus to us, and he is shown in the book as providing the salvation of his blood, which provides the means necessary for the carrying out God's Plan. This verse also implies that since God gave this Revelation to Jesus, it was something that Jesus had not previously known. Jesus proved faithful, without knowing the full scope of God's plan, because he trusted his Father, and he knew that the Father would provide a way to save the world. We will see that shown even more so in Chapter 5, where the Lamb, which symbolizes Christ, was found worthy to open the seven seals on the scroll. The events of the Gospel Age, both good and bad, are also revealed through the gradual opening of the seals of that scroll.

The phrase, "shall shortly come to pass", means either "quickly" as to speed, or "soon" as to time. Both definitions seem to be true here, as we will see. In other words, the fulfillment of Revelation was not going to wait for a distant future time, 2000 years away, but was to "begin" to be fulfilled right then at the time of the early church. It's not saying that it would all be fulfilled in the time of the Apostles, as some falsely claim, but it would begin its fulfillment there, and we will show in this study that the fulfillment is intended to cover the entire Gospel Age.

Who Sent the Angel?

As we mentioned above, it was clear that God gave this revelation to Jesus. But despite that, there is one interesting question that comes up when we examine this verse, "Who sent the angel"? It's not immediately clear whether the angel was sent from God or Jesus, especially because of some later verses with angels in Chapter 22 confuse the issue. This was a question over which we had many discussions in the study, with differing views on both sides to begin with, but eventually we settled for what the Study Group thought was the most likely answer.

We saw in Revelation 22:6, that there it tells us that it was the Lord God of the spirits of the prophets who sent his angel, and at first glance this seems to indicate that this was Jehovah's angel. Contradictory to this, we found in Revelation 22:16 that it says that Jesus sent his angel to testify unto you these things in the churches! Those seemingly contradictory statements made this question more difficult to answer. The conclusion that we eventually came to, is that 22:6 is not translated correctly in a lot of Bible versions. We found that there are several translations which correctly add punctuation, that makes verse 6 read: “the Lord Jesus, who is the God of the prophets”, which makes Jesus the one sending the angel in both places. See the notes on that verse for more information. Looking at it that way, we see that the message came to Christ from God, and then from Christ through his angel to John, and then to the church.

Who is the Angel?

Some believe that it was Jesus that came to John with the message of Revelation, but the main difficulty with that, is that it does not say that, and so we favor the idea that Jesus did send an actual angel with the message. If that is correct, "Who is the angel that this message is sent through, since it does not name him?" The conclusion that the Study Group came to, was that the angel in this verse was simply just an angel, and not symbolic of anyone else. So, if this angel is just an angel, who is it? One likely candidate suggested was the angel Gabriel, who is mentioned several times in Daniel 8:16, 9:21, 10:5-6, 11-14, 19-21, and in Luke 1:19, where he says, "I am Gabriel that stands in the presence of God". In the book of Daniel, we see Michael and Gabriel working together, and we see that Michael was higher in rank, because he was the one who was telling Gabriel to reveal things to Daniel. Since Gabriel was previously used in the same manner as a messenger in the examples just given, for that reason it's a very good possibility that he was still being used in that same manner in the time of John. When Michael became Christ, it seems reasonable that he would keep the same faithful angel that he had worked with in the past. The biggest question about this view is, if this was Gabriel, why is he not named here? A suggestion in that regard is that the angel was not named because the messenger is not important, but the message is important, “see Revelation 19:10, 22:9” where it tells us that is the way we should view all messengers—regardless of if they are earthly or heavenly angels.

John witnessed faithfully to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus, and to all the things that he saw in the vision of Revelation. That tells us that nothing was left out of the message—he recorded everything or “all” that he saw. In this vision, both the words of God and the testimony of Jesus, were then to be given to the rest of the church by John.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it; for the time is near. (NAU)

Contrary to what some would like to claim, Revelation is important and should be studied. It's not good enough just to read the message, but you must hear or pay attention to the message, and heed it or do the things written in it once you understand it. The Diaglott translation on the Greek side, seems to emphasize this by saying: "Blessed the one reading, and those hearing the words of the prophecy, and keeping strictly the things in it."

That we could hear, but not be doing what God requires, should be a concern to all of us. While we would probably claim that we aren't guilty of this problem, history is full of examples of those who wouldn't leave their churches or friends, even though they knew or suspected they were completely out of harmony with God's message of truth. Starting very early on, all kinds of problems and errors gradually crept into the church, despite the Faithfull's attempt to keep the doctrine pure. Over a period of time, the church was gradually worn down, and the evil apostate system came into existence, and it began persecuting and killing those of the faithful church who resisted them.

Dan 7:25 'He will speak out against the Most High and wear down the saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. NASU

God is looking for those who are willing to follow the Lamb wherever he may go!

Revelation 14:4 These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among men and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb. (NIV)

Sometimes we are reluctant to tell others what we believe, because we are afraid of losing friends, or of persecution. That is a human tendency or weakness that we need to resist if we wish to follow the Lord. We also need to make sure that we are not just following a man and his doctrines, and that what is being taught in the church is from the Lord and the scriptures.

Time Was Near-360?

That the time was near, was especially true for the early church. The great falling away was already starting, even at the time of the Apostles. This verse is saying that the time was near for the vision to begin to be fulfilled.

We do see one other possibility, in that the word "time" used here is (Kairos), and is the same word used in time, times, and a half. This verse might therefore be suggesting, that within the space of one time, or 360 years, the great falling away would be well underway! Historically that was true, in that Constantine was already interfering in church affairs by 325AD, when he called a church council to settle doctrinal disputes. The other church councils that followed that first one, led the church into even deeper darkness, especially by the time of the council of Chalcedon in 450AD. There is also the possibility that since we believe that John is the messenger of the second church, that he may have delivered the message of Revelation at the beginning of the second church, which would have been around the time of Oct of 74AD, according to our theoretical calculations of 360-year church periods for church's 2-6. See appendix A.

One problem in determining the time frame, is that there are many different opinions about when the book of Revelation was written, which start as early 68AD, and go as late as 95AD. Some of the later dating that is put forth, is because they believe that John had to know about the destruction of Jerusalem, before he could write the book. The ones that prefer the later dating, do so because of the persecution that is mentioned in the book, and so they believe that John had to have been alive when it started. Whatever happened to this being a Revelation from God who knows the future, and the understanding that this Revelation is not from John, but that it comes from the Heavenly Father who knows all things? Our date of 74AD, is in between the two sets of dates, and there doesn't appear to be anything obvious in between the two extremes of the dates that would keep us from claiming that 74AD is approximately right.

This Book Was Used by the Reformers To Convict the Apostate Church

Those who read and understand and do the things written within, are those who have been blessed throughout the age by the study of the book. That especially applies to the reformers and their followers, who used this book to gather evidence against the Papal system, so they could prove that they had to resist it or leave it, and follow the Lord on their own. This book, as well as this verse, applies to all of us, in that we now see who the apostate church system is, and what they had been doing wrong. Seeing who they are and what they did, we should then be able to better keep from making the same mistakes ourselves. The book of Revelation also strengthens the faith of us who are on this end of the age, because we can now see all the events that it foretold, and how they were exactly fulfilled—just as was predicted long ago!

It's not necessary to literally read and interpret the message only by ourselves, but we could actually have someone read and explain what it's saying to us. That was how the early church and others later on had to get the message, since many of them couldn't read. Once we understand the message, no matter how we got the information, we then have the obligation to keep the things written in it.

James 4:17 Therefore, to one who knows {the} right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin. (NAU)
James 1:22-25) 22 But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; 24 for {once} he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was. 25 But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the {law} of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does. (NAU)

Revelation 1:4-5

Revelation 1:4 John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, Revelation 1:5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood-- (NAU)

Seven Churches

Verse 4, sends greetings to the seven churches in Asia. While we might understand the messages to the churches in Revelation, as being literal messages to seven original churches, we don't think that that is God's intention. We find that there were more than seven literal churches in Asia at the time anyway. It may have been that there were seven churches that had the very problems that are described here, but regardless it seems most likely that the Lord intended the message to have a much broader application to the entire age.

The fact that there are seven churches here, implies that this book is a message to the entire Gospel Age, because seven represents completeness, especially when dealing with spiritual things. Our study concluded that the traditional Bible Student view was reasonable regarding the thought that the seven churches stretch chronologically one after another, from the first church in the time of the Apostles, up until the seventh at the end of the age where we are now.

The word "Asia" means "muddy or boggy". That is a fitting description of what happened to the waters of truth, during the great falling away that occurred in the church. Pagan doctrines were mixed with the true doctrines of God, until the original doctrines were not recognizable, and the waters of truth became murky or muddy.

The term "Grace be unto you and peace" is found at the beginning of most of Paul's books. For example, it is found in Romans 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:3; 2 Cor. 1:2; Gal 1:3; Eph. 1:2; Phil. 1:2; Col. 1:2; 1 Thes 1:1; 2 Thes 1:2; 1 Tim 1:2; 2 Tim 1:2; Tit. 1:4; Phlm. 1:3. This evidently was a common form of greeting in the church. The identity of the one who says "which is and which was and which is to come", must be Jehovah, since the seven spirits of God and Christ are mentioned together with him in the same sentence.

Jesus is the ruling one in this verse, not a just ruler. Some try to make Jesus the preeminent one in 3:14, to get around the Trinitarian conflict, which tries to make Jesus a part of God. It's obvious from the context here that Jesus and the Heavenly Father are two separate beings, and are not a part of a Trinity.

Seven Spirits of God

The seven spirits of God are found again in Revelation. 3:1, 4:5, and 5:6.

Rev 3:1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars, says this: 'I know your deeds, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. (NAS)

Rev 4:5 And from the throne proceed flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder. And {there were} seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; (NAS)

Rev 5:6 And I saw between the throne (with the four living creatures) and the elders a Lamb standing, as if slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.

Isaiah 11:14 & Seven Spirits

In Isaiah 11:1-4, we find a description of Jesse or Jesus, in which seven spirits are listed as having been given to him by Jehovah.

Isa 11:1-4(1 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. (KJV)

The seven spirits that are listed in the scripture above are: (1) Wisdom (2) understanding (3) council (4) strength (5) knowledge of the Lord (6) fear or Reverence of the Lord and (7) the breath or spirit of his lips. Just as God has given Christ help and power through the Holy spirit, the Holy spirit also helps the church throughout the entire Gospel Age, as we will see in the messages to the seven churches. The seven different aspects of the spirit, are necessary helps that the Holy spirit has imparted to the church all through the age. This help is given through individual instruction by the Holy spirit, and through the messages given by the spirits to the seven messengers to the seven churches.

Zech 3:9 "For behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave an inscription on it,' declares the LORD of hosts, "and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. (NAU)

Zech 4:10 "For who has despised the day of small things? But these seven will be glad when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel-- {these are} the eyes of the LORD which range to and fro throughout the earth." (NAU)

Revelation 5:6 Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. (NIV)

These references seem to show, just as we saw in Isaiah Chapter 11, that God has given his Holy spirit or the seven spirits to Christ, so that he can carry out God's Plan.

At the end of the message to each of the seven churches, we find an admonition or attempt to alert us to listen: "hear what the spirit saith unto the churches."

Who is to come?

There is a big question in this verse, because many think that only Christ is going to come. In our study, we found that when it says "God is going to come", that is exactly what it means. As we will see, that does not have to be a personal coming, but it can be accomplished through his representative or Logos, who is Christ.

In Revelation 1:4, we find that "the one who is, who was, and who is to come", can only represent God in this verse, since it mentions Jesus later in the same sentence, but with a separate description. Some try to say that this scripture should be translated differently, so that instead of "and from Jesus Christ", it says "also or even Jesus Christ." That is because they are trying to resist the idea that Jehovah is going to come. The change that they advocate, is not very likely, since this is a linking word, and the most likely and common translation of this word is "and". If we do make this word "also", it still does not refer back to "the one who is, who was, and who is to come", since the seven spirits before the throne are in between it and this phrase. This seems to be a twisting of the sense by some to try to make this scripture say what is wanted, but we don't want to get into violation of Revelation 22:19, and so we will leave this verse say exactly what it says.

That still leaves the question as to what it means when it uses the wording, "the one who was, who is and who is to come"? We generally don't think of God as coming, or at least not in the same sense that Jesus is to come. The word "come" used here is not presence, but is Strong's word #2064 erchomai, the most frequently used verb, "to come or go".

To help prove that this is God, we find another scripture later in Revelation that uses this same phraseology, and which we know for certain is Jehovah, if we look at the context of the area. In Revelation 4:8, we find: "and the four living creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and within: and they have no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, (is) the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come". (ASV)

In that verse, there is no doubt that must be Jehovah, because if we look at the context of that area, we find that it is Jehovah on the throne, and that he has a scroll in his right hand, and he is going to give it to Jesus in the next Chapter, who is symbolized by the Lamb. Revelation 5:1 "And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back, close sealed with seven seals". (ASV)

If you were to claim that the one to come in these verses was Christ, you would run into a major problem, because the Lamb or Christ in Chapter 5, takes the scroll out of Jehovah's hand. The Lamb that was found worthy to open the scroll, is obviously our Lord Jesus—but he was found worthy, only after he had paid the ransom price for us.

Revelation 5:4-6) 4 And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look thereon: 5 and one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not; behold, the Lion that is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath overcome to open the book and the seven seals thereof.

6 And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth. (ASV)

The only conclusion that we can come to, is that Revelation 4:8 is Jehovah, and he is being described as “coming”, the same as we see in Revelation 1:4.

God Really is Coming

There is another consideration, which we think is the correct one regarding this verse. While we don't normally think of God as “coming”, we think that we can demonstrate that he does. We know that it will be God who is in the New Jerusalem, which is coming down from heaven, and that he will tabernacle amongst men.

Revelation 21:3 And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, (and be) their God: (ASV)

We see the same thing in Zech. Zech 2:10-13) 10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for lo, I come and I will dwell in the midst of you, says the LORD.

11 And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

12 And the LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem."

13 Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy dwelling. (RSV)

Isa 40:10 Behold, the Lord Jehovah will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him: Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. ASV

The word LORD in this verse is definitely Jehovah: 3068 Yehovah (yeh-ho-vaw'); from 1961; (the) self-Existent or Eternal; Jehovah, Jewish national name of God: KJV-- Jehovah, the Lord. Compare 3050, 3069. The scriptures above are speaking of Jehovah coming and dwelling in the midst of Jerusalem, but as we look closer, we also see in verse 11 that someone else is speaking, saying: “the LORD of hosts has sent me to you”.

We also see that his arm shall rule for him, and we know that the arm is Jesus. The only conclusion that we can come to, is that the one being sent here is Christ—coming in the name of the Father.

Zech 14:5

In Zech 14:5, it tells us that the Lord God will come and all the holy angels with him, but in Rev Chapter 19, which appears to be a parallel reference, we see that it's Jesus who comes for him, with all the saints with him. *Zech 14:5 You will flee by the valley of My mountains, for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel; yes, you will flee just as you fled before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD, my

God, will come, {and} all the holy ones with Him! (NAU)

It's true that Christ will be coming in his Father's name, but in the full sense his coming will be from the Father—as his representative and with his power. Mark 8:38 "For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels." (NAU)

Isaiah 26:21

In Isaiah 26:21, it's Jehovah who comes to punish the inhabitants of the earth. Isa 26:21 For behold, the LORD is about to come out from His place To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; and the earth will reveal her bloodshed and will no longer cover her slain. (NAU)

Malachi 3:1

In Malachi 3:1, we find that Jehovah is going to send the messenger of his covenant Christ, before him. Mal 3:1 "Behold, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; and the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming," says the LORD of hosts. (NAU)

The scripture in Malachi has an application at the First Advent, and again at the Second Advent. That Jesus comes as the messenger of the covenant, applies to both the First Advent and the Second Advent. The New Covenant is testified to and paid for with Christ's blood at the First Advent, but the salvation from the New Covenant is not applied to the world until the church is complete, and that is when we see the New Jerusalem come down to the earth in Revelation Chapter 21.

Christ Comes As Fathers Representative

Christ comes as the Fathers representative, but it's still considered to be Jehovah's coming when all has been said and done; because he comes from the Father with his power and might backing him. So, in one sense we can say that God comes through the implementation of his Plan of Salvation, even though we know that it is Christ that implements it for him. We see the same thing in Revelation 6:16-17, where it's said, "the great day of their wrath has come" and Revelation 11:15-18, where we see the kingdom of our Lord and his Christ has come.

We also know that when the last enemy death is destroyed, Christ will turn the kingdom over to the Father, since it's the Fathers kingdom "1 Cor 15:24-28". The scriptures sometimes use the term right hand or arm of Jehovah, and we think that refers to Jesus carrying out the plan for the Father. We have included the Isaiah 40:10 verse that we quoted above, which also referred to Jehovah's arm ruling for him.

The intent of this reign will be to restore the world back to the condition of perfect life that Adam had lost, starting with Israel and then grafting the rest of the world into the promise. Matt 18:11 "For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost. (NAU)

There are many scriptures that tell us Christ loved us and died for us, and that it was his blood that washed and released us from our sins "Rom 8:35-39, Eph 3:19, 5:25, 1 Tim 1:14, 2 Tim 1:13, Revelation 3:9". He gave his life not only for us, "but also for the world", which is an important point missed by many! That he was the first to be brought back from the dead, holds out the sure promise to both the church and the world, that they will also be resurrected.

Variance in Text

There is a variance in the text regarding washing or being loosed from our sins. Washed is the most likely rendering, since there was most likely a letter dropped which has caused the text to use the word loosed, and it's more likely that a letter would be dropped out by a copyist, rather than one would be added. The Sinaitic has loosed, but it a lot of times is the more questionable text.

Revelation 1:6

Revelation 1:6 and He has made us {to be} a kingdom, priests to His God and Father-- to Him {be} the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. (NAU)

Church a Kingdom of Priests

We see that the church has been made to be a kingdom of priests, because of the payment of the blood of the Lamb as shown in Chapter five.

Revelation 5:9-10 9 And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood {men} from every tribe and tongue and people and nation. 10 "You have made them {to be} a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign upon the earth." (NAU)

In Revelation 20:4, the reign of the church is not due to happen until the Millennium, but since that is God's intent, we know that it will come to pass without failing and so we see it described as an accomplished fact. Revelation 20:4 Then I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I {saw} the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. (NAU)

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy is the one who has a part in the first resurrection; over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with Him for a thousand years. NAU)

1 Cor 6:2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? (KJV)

Who is the church going to judge and reign over if it's not the world?

Office of Kings and Priests Made Sure

Some translations make the reading say, "He has made us to be a kingdom to his God". While others twist it to say "He has made us to be a kingdom of priests to our Lord. The main problem with the first example, is that it could be construed to mean that the kingdom of God is here, which is what most of the nominal churches believe now, and is also what they believed shortly after 313. It's not clear which is correct in the text here, but if we look at Rev 5:10, we see that it says they will reign, and it is future tense in the Greek. That makes it clear that the reign will be future. Rev 5:10 "You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign upon the earth." NASU

In Rev 1:6, the word that is translated kingdom can mean kingdom or it can mean royalty.

NT:932 basileia (bas-il-i'-ah); from NT:935; properly, royalty, i.e. (abstractly) rule, or (concretely) a realm (literally or figuratively):

(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright © 1994, 2003, 2006 Biblesoft, Inc. and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

The Study Group believes that the “office of kings and priests” is what has been made sure, but it has not yet been decided as to who will fill the positions. Some brethren think that this says that they will be kings and priests, but that is not a correct translation according to the best manuscript authorities. The selection process has been going on throughout the entire Gospel Age, and will not be finished until the entire 144,000 are tested and selected. Instead of literal priests, the church is a spiritual priesthood, and in the next age, they as under priests will be able to help the world of mankind back to perfection. They will have the high priest Jesus as their leader, and he will be able to save all persons that are willing to accept the salvation that comes through the New Covenant that he secured with his death on the cross. Despite what many churches think, there will be no need for a literal third temple, because Christ head and body, will be the spiritual temple that the world will come to in the next age.

1 Pet 2:4-5) 4 And coming to Him as to a living stone which has been rejected by men, but is choice and precious in the sight of God,

5 you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (NAU)

Revelation 3:12 "He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will not go out from it anymore; and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God, and My new name. (NAU)

God Deserves All Glory for Plan

All the glory and beauty of the plan belongs to God, and no one else. Indeed, Jehovah and Christ, will both have and deserve all the glory and praise forever, from all who are saved. The dominion will always belong to God, no matter if Christ exercises it for him. In the end, the power and control of the perfected kingdom will be given back to God.

1 Cor 15:22-24 (22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, after that those who are Christ's at His coming, 24 then comes the end, when He hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when He has abolished all rule and all authority and power. NASU

As we will see described in Revelation, those who have reigned ahead of time without the Lord, are the counterfeit church, the great falling away, and are elsewhere described as tares and sons of the devil.

Revelation 1:7

Revelation 1:7 BEHOLD, HE IS COMING WITH THE CLOUDS, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn over Him. So it is to be. Amen. (NAU)

Similar to Daniel 7

This is a parallel scripture to Dan 7:13 "I kept looking in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven One like a Son of Man was coming, and He came up to the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him. (NAU)

Dan 7:14 "And to Him was given dominion, glory and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations and {men of every} language might serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion which will not pass away; and His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed. (NAU)

The "mourning" that we see in Rev 1:7, is pointing us to another parallel reference: Matt 24:30 "And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF THE SKY with power and great glory. (NAU)

Even those who pierced him and they that mourn takes us to: Zech 12:10 "I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplication, so that they will look on Me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him like the bitter weeping over a firstborn. (NAU)

Coming & Presence

The word "coming" used in this verse, is not finished until after the church is complete, because as we see in the Daniel account, there is a process of destruction after the first blow on the beast—which happened after the 1260 days was completed in 1799AD. There was a second blow against the beast in 1914AD, after the 2520 years was up, and after that we see that the pieces of the beast's kingdom are being ground up so that they can be blown away, just before the kingdom begins. Dan 7:21-22) 21 "I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and overpowering them

22 until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom. (NAU)

Dan 7:25-27) 25 "He will speak out against the Most High and wear down the saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. (1260 years)

26 "But the court will sit {for judgment} and his dominion will be taken away, annihilated and destroyed forever.

27 "Then the sovereignty, the dominion and the greatness of {all} the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom {will be} an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.'" (NAU)

The word "coming" used here, is not the same as if the one coming had arrived, such as in "presence", but it is the act of coming.

COME, CAME (SEE ALSO COMING) 1. erchomai ^2064^, the most frequent verb, denoting either "to come, or to go," signifies the act, in contrast with heko, which stresses the arrival, as, e. g., "I am come and am here," <John 8:42> and <Heb. 10:9>. See BRING, B, Note (1), FALL, GO, GROW, LIGHT, PASS, RESORT. (from Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words) (Copyright (C) 1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

Consequently, we see through the eye of faith, that there is a gradual coming and fulfilling of some events from 1799AD and onward. The ones who saw him with the eye of faith, were ones such as William Miller, who recognized the signs of the returning Lord as described in Matt Chapter 24. He and the church at the time, saw that our Lord was “coming”, through the different signs and events that were occurring then. See the definition of the word “see” below. He misinterpreted those signs, thinking that our Lord was going to arrive literally in his time.

The Lord’s Second Coming

The actual coming to the church was in 1874AD, and that was when the Lord came in his presence. He came to judge the church, and to prepare for the time of trouble that would break the power of the church and state system, by removing the kings. The time of the first part of presence is to the church, and the world does not recognize that he is here. The signs that he is here, are all spiritually discerned, and the world does not see or understand spiritual things.

There is a second phase of him coming as shown in the Luke Chapter 21 account, where he is going to secondly come to first Israel and then to the world of mankind to establish his kingdom. Our Lord in his glory will be seen by Israel first, and eventually the entire world will see him or at least recognize that he has returned, and that he has taken control of the world away from Satan. The world will see or perceive that he has returned, but only after the church is complete. There are several steps, or things that happen in the presence of the Lord, and the last one is when he destroys the remnants of Satan’s evil system, and establishes the kingdom.

Ever since we have been in the time of the end after 1799, and even more so after 1874AD, there have been signs in the heavens and the earth that the world has seen, that indicate that we are in the end time. The church recognizes the earthly troubles that have been going on as signs that we are in the end time, but the world looks on those events with fear, because they do not know what they mean or what the final outcome will be. It will not be until the church is complete and the kingdom has begun, that the world will begin to understand that Christ has come, and that the kingdom has begun. Then every eye will really see or discern him, which may actually be Christ head and body at that time.

Similar to Matt 24:30-31

We find a similar scripture that describes the Lord coming in Matt Chapter 24.

Matt.24:30 and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory.

Matt.24:31 "And He will send forth His angels with a great trumpet and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other. (NAS)

The word “coming” in verse 30 is again not presence. That “coming” is a process which was from 1799AD onward, with the actual presence of the Lord in 1874AD—which was reached in verse 31 at the blowing of the trumpet. Though our Lord is present for the final gathering of the church since 1874AD, every eye of the world does not see or perceive him yet.

The Word See is Not Literal

The words shall “see” him, while they can be used literally, are not always used in a literal sense, see example (b) in the definition below.

APPEAR, APPEARING 6. optomai ^3700^, "to see" (from ops, "the eye"; cf. Eng. "optical," etc.), in the passive sense, "to be seen, to appear," is used (a) objectively, with reference to the person or thing seen, e. g., <1 Cor. 15:5-8>, RV "appeared," for KJV, "was seen"; (b) subjectively, with reference to an inward impression or a spiritual experience, <John 3:36>, or a mental occupation, <Acts 18:15>, "look to it"; cf. <Matt. 27:4,24>, "see (thou) to it," "see (ye) to it," throwing responsibility on others. Optomai is to be found in dictionaries under the word horao, "to see"; it supplies some forms that are lacking in that verb. (from Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words) (Copyright (C) 1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

The Matt 24:30 reference above, seems to apply especially to the time of 1799-1874AD. They saw signs that he was coming, but that was only through the eye of faith. The Luke 21:24-27 account is different, in that it seems to place the signs of the coming after 1914AD, which was after the end of the Gentile Times. We believe that both accounts are correct, and that Matt is giving a history that follows the Christian church more closely, and Luke is giving the history showing more of what is happening to Israel. In other words, the church sees the Lord coming with the eye of faith after 1799, and they recognize that he has arrived in 1874AD. The nations and Israel after 1914AD, see the trouble and the signs that he is coming, but they don't know for sure what they are seeing, and even if they did, there is no way to know at what point in time he will arrive to take full control of his kingdom. When he fully arrives, it may be that the world will see even more positive evidence that he has arrived, but we are not sure exactly how that will work.

At this point in time, we don't literally see the Lord present, but we discern him through the eye of faith, and by the things that have been happening. The process of coming will continue even after the church is complete as shown by Luke, and eventually the world will also see or discern that he is here. Their seeing what is happening at that time will be more evident, since it will not be necessary to hide what is happening after the church is complete. They in a sense see him coming even now, by the events that are happening, but they don't recognize the signs that they see. Later they will be able to look back and recognize that the signs were there all along.

The Clouds

The clouds seem to represent the troubles that occur at the end of the age, especially upon the apostate church system. That is shown in Revelation Chapter 14:14, where we find our Lord upon a cloud, and there we see that he has come to judge, harvest, and punish. The storms that they bring, will bring destruction down on the evil system. At the same time, the clouds bring rain that can be a blessing to those who have a seeing eye and a hearing ear.

Zeph 1:15 A day of wrath is that day, a day of trouble and distress, a day of destruction and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, (NAU)

Joel 2:2 A day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn is spread over the mountains, {so} there is a great and mighty people; there has never been {anything} like it, nor will there be again after it to the years of many generations. (NAU)

Ezek 30:3 "For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near; it will be a day of clouds, a time {of doom} for the nations. (NAU)

Joel 2:23 So rejoice, O sons of Zion, And be glad in the Lord your God; For He has given you the early rain for your vindication. And He has poured down for you the rain, The early and latter rain as before. NASU

We see what appears to be a similar picture of the Lord coming, from 1799AD up to the time of the second coming later in Revelation.

Revelation 10:1 I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire; (NAU)

Vision of Chapter 10

That vision in Chapter 10, as we will see later in this commentary, is a picture of the Lord coming from about 1799AD onward, and the message of the New Covenant or covenant of peace, is pictured with him in the symbols of the sun and the rainbow. The sun represents the Gospel of peace or good news, and the rainbow represents the blood of the New Covenant he has secured for the church and the world. The cloud represents trouble upon God's enemies, and is happening to that evil system from about 1799AD onward, but there is hope even for God's enemies, because the rainbow or the New Covenant is the moderating influence that eventually establishes peace between God and man. The earthly enemies, as well as those who were spirit-begotten, will be saved if they repent after the trouble is over.

2 Cor 3:5-10) 5 Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as {coming} from ourselves, but our Adequacy is from God, 6 who also made us adequate {as} servants of a New Covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 7 But if the ministry of death, in letters engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, fading {as} it was, 8 how will the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory? 9 For if the ministry of condemnation has glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness abound in glory. 10 For indeed what had glory, in this case has no glory because of the glory that surpasses {it.} (NAU)

Clouds & Refreshing for the Church

As we mentioned above, one other possible interpretation of the symbol "clouds", is in representing the moisture of refreshing truth that was due to come at the end of the age.

Zech 10:1 Ask rain from the LORD at the time of the spring rain-- the LORD who makes the storm clouds; and He will give them showers of rain, vegetation in the field to {each} man.

Joel 2:23 So rejoice, O sons of Zion, and be glad in the LORD your God; for He has given you the early rain for {your} vindication. And He has poured down for you the rain, the early and latter rain as before. (NAU)

Isa 45:8 "Drip down, O heavens, from above, and let the clouds pour down righteousness; let the earth open up and salvation bear fruit, and righteousness spring up with it. I, the LORD, have created it. (NAU)

History shows that refreshing showers of truth, were prominent features of the Reformation onward, and especially at the time of the harvest message, which began in 1874AD. This truth was refreshing to the faithful saints, but it was nothing but trouble to the apostate church systems that resisted it. That same principle is demonstrated in Joel, where in 2:2 we see trouble, but in 2:14, 23-25 we find God will bring refreshing to Israel and mankind through the rain.

The statement in Revelation 1:7, that those who pierced him would see him, and that all the tribes of the earth would mourn over him, is pointing to Zech 12:10.

Zech 12:10 "I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplication, so that they will look on Me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him like the bitter weeping over a firstborn. (NAU)

In its primary meaning, this refers to the Jews who crucified Jesus, but in a secondary sense it refers to anyone who has persecuted his body members throughout the age! All who have been guilty of persecuting either Christ or his church throughout the age, will eventually come to recognize what they have done wrong and realize that they are guilty.

Revelation 1:8

Revelation 1:8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty." (NAU)

Alpha & the Omega

We think it's necessary to show that all the reference to the "Alpha and Omega", either all apply to Jesus or to Jehovah. It would be inconsistent with common sense to say that the same names refer to two different beings, even if you believe in the Trinity doctrine. Even among men, when they name a father and the son with the same name, they use the term Jr. after the son's name, so that it's possible to know who is being talked about. We don't think God would have neglected such a simple thing. There was much discussion over this question when trying to place this interpretation, both with the traditional Bible student view that this is Jesus, or with the view that this was Jehovah.

In an earlier version of these notes, we had concluded that the Alpha and the Omega had to be the Heavenly Father, because of the several titles in the verse that are elsewhere used of Jehovah. Since then we have found new information, which has made us reject that conclusion, and we are now convinced that the Alpha and the Omega is Jesus. We will also show later in Revelation, that the final conclusion of the Study Group fits with the scriptures much better, if all the Alpha and the Omega titles belong to Jesus.

Since the earlier time that we had done this study, we listened to a talk by Bro. Richard Doctor, who showed us some textual evidence that shows that the text in this area may have been tampered with. He also showed us the information about the "Alpha Tay" in the Hebrew text in Zechariah Chapter 12, which points to Jesus as being the Alpha and Omega. Here are his notes from that talk, and the picture of the Hebrew manuscript which shows the Alpha Tay in Zechariah.

Bro Richards Notes on Alpha & Omega

The text in Rev 1:8 has problems for both the Trinitarian view and the Non-Trinitarian view. This adds to the suspicion of tampering, especially as we will see that the older manuscripts differ with each other.

Trinitarian problem phrases

"...Alpha and the Omega"
"...the beginning and the ending"
"...which was"
"which is to come"

Non-Trinitarian problem phrases

"...saith the Lord [the God]"
"...the Almighty"

The Emperor Constantine convened the Council of Nicaea in 325A.D and it made a great deal of effort towards establishing the Trinitarian belief as Orthodoxy

The scholarship is clear that some scriptures were changed after the council such as Matthew 28:19

Mathew 28:19 – before the Nicene Council

"Go ye and make disciples of all the nations in my name,

Mathew 28:19 – after Nicene Council

“Go ye and make disciples of all the nations in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy spirit,

“...the beginning and the ending” is a problem phrase for the Trinitarians because God does not have a beginning and an ending.

While the Latin Vulgate Bible and hence the King James contain this phrase in Rev. 1:8, the discovery of the Ephraemi Codex in the 1830s resulted in it being removed from the scholarly recessions of the Greek text. This phrase had presented Trinitarians with the greatest challenge so they were glad to see it go.

The text of Revelation 1:8 regarding “Alpha and Omega” clearly appears to be tampered with. The Sinaiticus and later Alexandrian have distinctly different readings.

The copyist had Trinitarian leanings as seen in the abbreviation of “Spirit.”

The non-Trinitarian phrase in Rev 1:8: “beginning and end” appearing in the Sinaiticus was dropped from the Alexandrian. In Sinaiticus Rev. 22:13 “the beginning and the end” emerges. This suggests tampering.

In the Sinaiticus there are 6, or 7 uses of “the” but No definite article precedes “Lord” (kurios). But this is followed by a definite article “the” preceding “God” (theos). The use of “the” (ho) looks suspicious.

As in John 1:1, “a god” is the rightful title of Jesus when contrasted with Jehovah. All this is consistent with 1 Corinthians 15:27-28

One other important thing that helped was the following reprint that Bro Richard pointed out.

Reprint 1948- “questionings and controversies about the meaning of Zech. 12:10: 'They shall look upon ME whom they have pierced.' They will not admit that it is Jehovah whom they have pierced, hence the dispute as to who is meant. Mr. R. points out that the word used consists of the first and last letters of the Hebrew alphabet, Aleph Tay, and adds: 'Do you wonder, then, that I was filled with awe and astonishment when I opened to Rev. 1:7,8, and read these words of Zechariah quoted by John, 'Behold, he cometh... and every eye shall see him, and they also that pierced him,' and then heard the glorified Lord saying,...'I am the Alpha and Omega.' Jesus seemed to say to me, 'Do you doubt who it is you have pierced? I am the Aleph Tay, the Alpha Omega.'”

The scriptural link to Zechariah 12:10 has been missed and misunderstood by most. Hence the textual amendments for “clarification” by early church dogmatists

If “Alpha and Omega” is intended as the Hebrew Aleph-Tay then Revelation 22:12-13 should be understood to say: “Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to render to each man according as his work is. I am the very one, the Alpha and the Omega.”

See the Hebrew alphabet and the text of Zechariah 12:10 on the next page, where the circles are pointing out the two letters that are the first and the last letters of the Hebrew alphabet. From Bro. Richard’s talk. We think we have gotten the correct letters circled, but word had messed the diagram up, and we are not sure. We need to check with Richard, to make sure we have placed the two circles in the text correctly.

Additional Information From Study

Here is some additional information the Study Group discovered in our Revelation study. “Even I” is missing after the word Alpha, but it’s in the Sinaitic. I am the Alpha “even I” the Omega. This seems to be referring back to Jesus in the previous verse.
I am the Alpha (even I) and the “Omega” [a] beginning and [an] end says [a] “K-S” = Lord the “TH-S” = God the “one being” and the “one who was” and the one coming the ruler-of-all

Sinaitic Most Likely Modified by Trinitarians

The Sinaitic does contain the words “beginning and the ending”, but not the article “the” in front of “Lord” which is supplied by the translators. The copyist also appears to have supplied the word “the” in front of God, which does not belong to the text at all. The addition of “the” before God would raise a big question about whether this is Jesus. In Bro Richard’s talk, he showed a picture of the original text, which shows the word “ho” appearing to have been written in afterward with quite a bit smaller letters. That is exactly what you would see if someone came back to a manuscript, and made a change that would support his Trinitarian view. That is the only thing that we have no way to know for sure about, because we don’t have the original manuscript, but the rest of the evidence points directly to Jesus being the Alpha and the Omega.

God Almighty

“The God Almighty”, is usually Jehovah, but we notice in the interlinear text, that is not what it says, in that it actually says “Lord the God”, and the Almighty is separated from “Lord” by the phrase “which is, and which was, and which is to come”. So, we do not have the title “the Lord the God Almighty”, which would be a problem for this being Jesus, but we have “Lord the God”, and “the Almighty” as separate titles. The word used for Lord is defined as supreme in authority, but that would be true of either Jehovah or Jesus. The word used for God means deity, which is ok because Jesus is a deity. That the word “the” is added to the text in front of it, makes it appear that this is Jehovah, but as we mentioned above, that appears to be a very suspicious addition. Almighty without “the” in front of it, is not a problem title for Jesus, because he is Almighty.

Faithful & True 4X

The final deciding scripture that convinced the Study Group that Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega, is the statement Jesus made when he said that he is “faithful and true”. The words “faithful and true”, by which Jesus identifies himself in Rev 3:14, is found in four other places in the book of Revelation. Rev 3:14, 19:11, 21:5, 22:6,

- (1) In Rev 3:14, we see that Jesus identifies himself as being “faithful and true”.
- (2) In Chapter 19, we see that it is Jesus again, and he is again called “faithful and true”.
- (3) In Chapter 21 and 22, we see that it is “the words” that are faithful and true and we see that they are faithful and true, because they come from the one “that is faithful and true”.
- (4) In Chapter 21, the words faithful and true are again identified with the one that is called the Alpha and the Omega; thus, confirming Jesus as being the Alpha and the Omega.

Rev 3:14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; KJV

Rev 19:11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. KJV

Rev 21:5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. KJV

Rev 22:6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. KJV

In Rev 2:8, Jesus says that he is the First and Last, which is also found in Rev 1:17, 22:13. The 22:13 reference, ties that title to the Alpha and Omega, and again to our Lord Jesus. In Rev 1:11 it’s spurious.

In addition, we note that in Chapter 21:6, the Alpha and the Omega is going to supply water without cost to anyone that wants it. In Revelation 22, we see that the water comes from the spirit and the bride. In the book of John, we see that it is Jesus that is going to supply the water of life, first to the church and then to the world after them. Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.
John 4:13-14(13 Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, 14 but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." NIV

That the words “faithful and true”, tie those four places together, and that Jesus identifies himself as faithful and true in Chapter 3 of Revelation, has settled the question for our Study Group, and we now have no doubt that Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega.

The only problem we have now, with the tampering theory for Rev 1:8, is that there are no actual ancient texts from before the point in time that this tampering could have occurred, which would show us what the verse originally contained. We believe that the tampering theory is correct, but it's hard to know what was in the actual text without earlier evidence, and we hope that an older text is discovered someplace that shows what we know to be true. In the meantime, enough evidence has been presented that this question has been satisfied as far as the Study Group is concerned. If it was tampering with, in the kingdom it will be revealed who did the tampering, to the detriment and shame of the one who did it.

The reason that the question of the Alpha and the Omega came up again in our study later on, was because in Chapter 21 of Revelation, we see the same title used again, and it appears to be much easier to explain the context of that Chapter if it is the Lord Jesus. The same thing is true of Revelation Chapter 22, where it again appears to be much easier to explain the Alpha and the Omega as being Jesus. For that reason, we went back to this verse in Revelation and took a much more comprehensive look at it.

The term “The Almighty God”, was one of our original concerns, until we considered Isaiah 9:6, where we saw that Jesus was to be called Mighty God. As we mentioned already, a careful examination of that phrase in the Greek text, shows that is not a correct rendering of the Greek anyway.

Isa 9:6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (KJV)

We also see that Jesus was to receive all power in heaven and earth, and so we can see why Isaiah calls Jesus the mighty God. Matt 28:18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. NIV

So, our final conclusion is that the Alpha and the Omega, fits much better with our Lord Jesus—especially with the Zechariah evidence saying the same thing.

Revelation 1:9

Revelation 1:9 I, John, your brother and fellow partaker in the tribulation and kingdom and perseverance {which are} in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. (NAU)

John in Prison & The Tribulation of the Entire Age

John tells us that he was on the Island of Patmos, a prison colony at the time of the giving of Revelation. Evidently he had been arrested and sent there for witnessing to the truth, as it states in this verse. It had been predicted that the church was to endure tribulation, and John was no exception to the rule, having been arrested for preaching the word of God and about Jesus. The tribulation that occurred in the beginning of the church, was not “the great tribulation”, as is claimed by those who want to force the entire fulfillment of Revelation into the past. It was only the beginnings of tribulation, as we are told in Matt 24:8-10, and it was to continue and get worse all through the entire age, until the time of the end.

Matt 24:6-11) 6 "You will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for {those things} must take place, but {that} is not yet the end.

7 "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be famines and earthquakes.

8 "But all these things are {merely} the beginning of birth pangs.

9 "Then they will deliver you to tribulation, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name.

10 "At that time many will fall away and will betray one another and hate one another.

11 "Many False Prophets will arise and will mislead many. (NAU)

Matt 24:20-21) 20 "But pray that your flight will not be in the winter, or on a Sabbath.

21 "For then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will. (NAU)

The trouble in Revelation 1:9, is referring to the general tribulation that the church was to experience, but as we see from the scriptures, it was predicted that there would also be times of extreme persecution very early in the church's history. We see that the phrase "patient endurance", is mentioned again in Revelation 13:10, 14:12. The church needs to be patient under severe persecution, and wait on the Lord. In the end, the persecuting powers will be defeated, punished, and the church will be established in power over them.

Most commentators agree that John was a prisoner on the island. E. W. Bullinger disagrees with that, saying that is only tradition and that John was there voluntarily. He is right in noting that this verse does not actually say that John was a prisoner, only that he was there because of the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus. So just from the verse itself we couldn't determine whether John was on the island voluntarily or not.

Patmos was a small island on which there were mines in the time of the Apostles. It was mostly barren, and had very few inhabitants then as well as now, so it would be hard to imagine why anyone would go there voluntarily, unless it was to witness to the miners. Anyone who was exiled there would be considered to be of no threat any more, since they would find it difficult or impossible to get off the island.

Revelation 1:10

Revelation 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like {the sound} of a trumpet, (NAU)

In the Spirit

To be in the spirit, was to be in a trance, and when it uses that terminology in the scriptures, it seems to indicate that the message received is to be a vision and symbolic. In other words, when you are in the spirit, the things that are seen are not literal, but would need to be viewed as a vision and deciphered like a code. The term "in the spirit", is found in three other places in this book, where we also find symbolic visions, "Revelation 4:2, 17:3 and 21:10". Some suggest that it's possible that these mark off four major divisions in the book, but as we have worked our way through the book, it appeared to the Study Group that is not correct, because the phrase "in the Spirit", doesn't appear in the places where we would divide the book into sections. Some other examples of being in the spirit and having a symbolic message, are found in Ezekiel 2:2, 3:12, 14, 8:3, 11:1, 37:1, 43:5, 2 Cor 12:1.

That the voice sounded loud like a trumpet, indicated that this was going to be a very important announcement. In Old Testament times, a trumpet was used to announce important events. A trumpet gives a loud clear note, which would indicate that the message was to be loud and clear.

The Sabbath Day

That the voice was behind John, and that it was on the Lord's Day or the Sabbath, may be important in a symbolic sense, since the Sabbath can represent the seventh one-thousand-year day. We would then have to view John as looking at the vision from a completed standpoint, at this end of the age. He would be looking back at the seven candlesticks, which represent the seven churches, from a completed perspective. In other words, he would have been shifted forward to our time in the vision, and then he would have been looking back over the seven stages of the church. Since John was at the beginning of the age, this verse seems to be telling us symbolically that the church at the end of the age on the Sabbath day, must look back across the Gospel Age and the historic events that happened to fulfill the events that Revelation had predicted ahead of time. The vision started with John receiving the book of Revelation, and it was going to cover the entire age, up to the seventh church, which is the Sabbath day. A great deal of what was to happen as was prophesized in the book, has already happened by the seventh day, especially regarding the great falling away that was to occur.

Historical Events

Place Revelation

Into the Proper Time Frame

Many Millennial age events are still to happen yet, since they will be completed on the seventh day or by the end of the 7000 years. For that reason, a complete understanding of this book could not occur until at least the time of the end, which started in 1799AD, and probably not fully until the seventh day which occurred in 1874AD, since the events foretold in the book would have to happen first, so that we could see how to interpret the symbols. We will see that more clearly as we go through the book, when we are placing the events of the prophecy into history that has already occurred. Without fulfilled history and chronology regarding the book of Daniel and the rest of Old Testament, we wouldn't know what to make of many of the symbols or visions.

That was what stopped Sir Isaac Newton from being able to link the Bible chronology to a fixed time-period, because he did not have enough fulfilled events to link it to. That is why he suggested several different linking dates for the 1260 years, in an attempt to figure out where that end-time-period was located. In agreement with that, we see that the book of Daniel says that the vision was to be sealed up until the time of the end. That is the same thing that we see in Revelation, in that enough history has had to of happened for the book to become unsealed. We will also find that illustrated in the seven seals of the scroll, that Jesus received from the Father in Chapter five. When he unseals each seal, the visions begin revealing what was going to happen in the church, one seal or one step at a time.

Revelation 1:11

Revelation 1:11 saying, "Write in a book what you see, and send {it} to the seven churches: to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea." (NAU)

Revelation Chapter 1:10-13

Spurious Text

The words: “I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, what thou seest”, are not found in the Sinaitic, which is the only complete text of the three oldest manuscripts. Most modern translations agree that those words should “not” be in the text, and it should read as we see above.

The Trinitarians try to use the spurious portion of this verse to prove that Jesus is God incarnate in the flesh, because there are a couple of places that use the title “first and last” regarding Jehovah, and some that do the same regarding Jesus. Jehovah is described in the Old Testament, as being the first and the last in a different sense than Jesus, and so we don’t see that as a valid argument anyway.

Revelation 1:12

Revelation 1:12 Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands; (NAU)

The message of the book that was to be sent was not limited to the seven literal churches named, but symbolically was to be sent to the entire church or Gospel Age.

We believe that the seven lampstands are different than what we would have found in the tabernacle, where the seven lamps were on one stand, “Ex 25:31-37, 37:23”. Here it seems more likely that they are each a separate lamp stand, although the symbolic meaning of them representing the seven churches would work either way. The reason that we think that they are separate, is because later in the messages to the churches, we see Jesus threatening to remove one of the lamp stands. Those lamps provide light, truth, and admonition to each of the seven stages of the church. We will see that admonition later in Chapters two and three, where the seven angels or messengers give messages of encouragement and warning to the churches.

One exception to the tradition of seven lamp stands is Solomon’s temple, where he had 10 lampstands which is an earthly number, “1 Kings 7:49”. Seven is spiritual completeness, and since Revelation is given to the church, that is why we see seven lamp stands here.

Revelation 1:13-15

Revelation 1:13 and in the middle of the lampstands {I saw} one like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and girded across His chest with a golden sash.

Revelation 1:14 His head and His hair were white like white wool, like snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire.

Revelation 1:15 His feet {were} like burnished bronze, when it has been made to glow in a furnace, and His voice {was} like the sound of many waters. (NAU)

The title “son of man”, is used of Jesus in Revelation 14:14, and in Daniel 7:13. Jesus even refers to himself as the son of man in the Gospels numerous times. For that reason, we see that the son of man must be Jesus. Verses 13-15, are providing a symbolic description of our Lord Jesus, which carries some important lessons.

The robe that reached down to the feet, reminds us of the robe of a High Priest, “Ex 28:4, 39:29”. This description fits Jesus very well, since he completely fulfilled and abolished the literal sacrificing for all ages, “Heb. 7:11, 27, 9:28, and 10:12”, and became our spiritual high priest after the order of Melchizedek. Because there was a change of the priesthood, that made it necessary that there be a change in the law, and because of that we now have the promise of a New Covenant that is much superior to the old law covenant, Heb 7:12-22. Since we have the blood of Christ, we are not under the letter of the law anymore, but we are under the spirit of the law. That he is now our high priest in the heavenly tabernacle, is explained very clearly in the book of Hebrews in several places.

Rom 7:6 But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code. NIV

A golden girdle represents righteousness and faithfulness, “Isaiah 11:5”. That the girdle is made of gold, shows that he was carrying out the Divine will, with Divine authority.

The white hair on his head, shows that he had discernment and wisdom. White is also used to represent purity. Jesus has inherited from his Father the wisdom and righteousness necessary to be the judge of the earth, “See Dan 7:9”.

The expression "and his eyes were as a flame of fire", shows us that nothing can be hidden from his sight, and that he can see through the motives of the heart “Heb. 4:13”, “Revelation. 2:2, 9, 13, 19, 3:1, 8, 15, 19:12”. The angel in Dan 10:6, also had eyes like flaming torches. In Revelation 5:6, we see that the Lamb of God has 7 eyes, which indicate that he can see everything, as well as having perfect spiritual sight. See also Zech 4:10, 2 Chron 16:9. In Zech 4:10, the seven eyes in the first sense of the prophecy, belong to Jehovah. In the book of Revelation, we see that God has given those same seven eyes or all seeing ability to Jesus, and that is the second fulfillment of the prophecy of Zech.

That his feet were like burnished bronze, when it was heated in a fire, does not mean that it says that the feet are real bronze, because the word only means shining brightly. We can understand that the feet are really bronze, if we look at a parallel scripture from Daniel, where we see the description of a similar angel, where the word used was actually bronze for his feet, and we are told that it was like polished bronze. Bronze or polished brass symbolizes human nature, which would show that Christ had a perfect human nature while he was on the earth. He had gone through the furnace of affliction and temptation, and had come through perfect and without sin, as we see in Heb. 4:15.

Dan 10:6 His body also was like beryl, his face had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a tumult. NASU

The “voice of many waters”, is also found in Ezek 1:24 and 43:2, where it tells us that the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. That is a very good picture of Jesus coming from the east or sun rising, with increased Gospel light, to take possession of his kingdom of glory. In Dan 10:6, he has the voice of a multitude.

Daniel 10:5-6, says he had a garment of linen, and Revelation agrees that he has one, but doesn't say what it's made of.

The golden girdle in Revelation, is very like the belt of gold in Daniel. Both Daniel and Revelation say that he had “eyes of fire” or “torches”.

Daniel says that his appearance was like “lightning”, where Revelation says that it was like “the sun shining”.

In Revelation, his words were like “the sound of many waters”, and in Daniel they were like “the sound of a tumult”. From these descriptions, we can see that the two beings that are being described are almost the same.

Michael & Gabriel

When we had originally done this study, the first time through, we had concluded that the angel in Daniel Chapter 10 could not be our Lord or Michael in his pre-human form, even though the description is almost the same. Since then we have taken a more detailed look at that question, and while not sure, we can see where the being in the first few verses of Daniel Chapter 10, may indeed be Michael. Michael in the Bible is the pre-human Jesus, and we also see him named in both Chapters 10 and 12 of Daniel. In Dan Chapter 10, we have concluded that it’s possible that the first angel that Daniel fell down in front of, is not the same one that reached out his hand and lifted him up a few verses later. In discussing this, we need to notice that the prophecy in Chapter 10 -12, is all one prophecy.

We have wondered if the first angel that Daniel saw could be Michael, who is the being above the waters in both Chapters 8 and 12, and in proof of that we also see in Chapter 8, that Michael commands Gabriel to explain the vision. He is therefore higher in rank than Gabriel. Gabriel then explains the vision of Chapters 8 and 9, and a large portion of Chapters 10-12.

Dan 8:16 And I heard the voice of a man between {the banks of} Ulai, and he called out and said, "Gabriel, give this {man} an understanding of the vision." (NAU)

Dan 12:6 And one said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long {will it be} until the end of {these} wonders?" (NAS)

The vision of the being at the beginning of Chapter 10, up to verse 9 where Daniel fell down, may not be Gabriel, but is the one that gave Daniel the vision that caused him to pass out. In verse 5, we note an important thing regarding the first angel’s identity, in that it says he was clothed in linen, and we see the same description of linen regarding the one above the waters in Dan 12:7, who we believe is Michael, as is mentioned in verse one of that Chapter.

Dan 12:1 “Now at that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise. And there will be a time of distress such as never occurred since there was a nation until that time; and at that time your people, everyone who is found written in the book, will be rescued. NASU

Dan 10:5 I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with gold of Uphaz. (RSV)

Dan 10:7-9 (7 Now I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, while the men who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great dread fell on them, and they ran away to hide themselves.

8 So I was left alone and saw this great vision; yet no strength was left in me, for my natural color turned to a deathly pallor, and I retained no strength.

9 But I heard the sound of his words; and as soon as I heard the sound of his words, I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground. (NAU)

The angel that touched him and lifted him up, is for sure Gabriel, and he told Daniel that he has been sent to him to explain the vision. That he had been sent to explain the vision, also means that the vision was given by a different angel, who is most likely Michael. Dan 10:11 The angel said to me, “Daniel, God loves you. Stand up and listen carefully to what I am going to say. I have been sent to you." When he had said this, I stood up, still trembling. (TEV)

The angel told Daniel, that Michael had been sent to help him, because of the resistance of the prince of Persia, so we know that Michael was there, and that is why we think the vision at the beginning of Chapter 10 was given by him. Dan 10:13 The prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, so I left him there with the prince of the kingdom of Persia (RSV)

21 Years of Resistance of Rebuilding Temple?

The 21 days that the Prince of Persia withstood Gabriel, may be the time that was going to pass at a day per year, which would be from the first attempt to rebuild the temple at the Decree of Cyrus, when their enemies stopped them, until the time of Darius, where the rebuilding resumed and the temple was completed.

Gabriel's explanation that follows, is then all the rest of Chapter 10, which includes Chapter 11 and part of Chapter 12. In Chapter twelve, we again see the one above the waters, who is Michael and he explains the outcome from the close of the Jewish Age first, and then he gives the 1260, 1290, 1335, chronology of the fallen church and state system. He explained that it was going to be an extremely evil system, and that it would shatter the power of the holy people—which is the faithful Christian church.

Dan 12:7 The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven; and I heard him swear by him who lives forever that it would be for a time, two times, and half a time; and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end all these things would be accomplished. (RSV)

Is This Just Jesus or Does it Include the Church?

A question that came up about this vision of our Lord in Revelation was: "Should it be interpreted to represent just Jesus and his attributes, or is it showing us something about the body members?" It was decided by the Study Group, that since this is a vision of our Lord in the midst of the candlesticks, of which the seven candlesticks represent the entire church, he could only be representing himself. We think that the main interpretation of this area should reflect that.

While the conclusion was that the picture above would represent just Jesus, it was suggested that we might still pick up some lessons from this vision of what to expect from his body members, since we are to be like him and follow in his footsteps. If we consider this as a picture of the Christ head and body, the long flowing garment would represent the covering that our Lord supplies the body members, and the fact that we are to be fellow body members with our Lord. The golden girdle reminds us of the girdle that the high priest wore. This girdle seems to represent the faithfulness and willingness to serve, which not only our Lord had, but his body members also need to have.

Jesus is Watching Over the Church Through the Entire Age

One other important point that we wish to make here, is that this vision shows Jesus in the midst of the candlesticks. That shows us that he is watching over and caring for the church, all through the Gospel age, and not just at the end of the age. We sometimes think that Jesus went away and that he didn't do anything more until he returned in his presence at the end of the age in 1874AD. That is not so, in that when he comes in his presence, what is different is that he has then come as a judge and a king, just as he had the first time. So, while Jesus can be actively helping and working with the church all through the entire Gospel Age, that is not the same thing as being present as king and judge in the second presence. After all, if he was present as Michael and was helping Israel during the entire Jewish age, why would he not do the same during the Gospel Age for spiritual Israel?

Revelation 1:16

Revelation 1:16 In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; and His face was like the sun shining in its strength.

The Seven Stars

The seven stars represent the seven earthly messengers to the seven churches. That they are in his right hand indicates that they are favored ones, who are to bring light to the church. Our Lord uses these individuals at key times and places to reveal his plans and intentions to the church. That they receive their instruction and messages through the Holy spirit, is indicated by the message at the end of each church; "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to unto the churches." The seven stars are mentioned again in Revelation 3:1.

The word angel is word # 32 aggelos (ang'-el-os); from aggello [probably derived from 71; compare 34] (to bring tidings); a messenger; especially an "angel"; by implication, a pastor: KJV-- angel, messenger.

From the meaning of the word angel, we can see that the angels or messengers of the churches, would not have to be actual spirit beings, but that they could be men or pastors who had the responsibility to take care of the church, and to bring them light and spiritual food at the proper time. Each angel or messenger had the responsibility to deliver his message of good or bad, to each church at the proper time.

One thing that we discovered in the course of the study of Revelation, is that the angels with the seven trumpets that we will see later in Revelation, most likely have to be actual angels and not men as some interpret them to be. The reason is that they are seven angels that stand before the God of heaven, and no man could do that. When we discuss those seven angels with trumpets, we will give an alternate possible explanation of how they could represent the messengers, but it's not an absolutely sure explanation. The seven messengers to the church are a different matter, and they are for sure actual human beings. We will show later in detail who we think they are, or at least who the initial leader of the beginning of each church was. We believe that the angels with the seven trumpets, deliver their messages through the seven stars, who are the earthly messengers to the seven churches—who are earthly pastors.

If we don't recognize the difference between earthly messengers and angelic messengers, there may be conflicts later on with what the scriptures say about the seven angels with the trumpets, who are standing before the God of heaven, etc. The seven angels with the bowls of wrath, are most likely the same angels as the ones with the trumpets, and they also would have to be heavenly angels and not earthly as we will see when we study the bowls of wrath. The earthly messengers to the churches were all gone at the start of the pouring out of the seven bowls of wrath, with perhaps the exception of the seventh messenger Pastor Russell, and so the angels with the bowls could not be earthly messengers.

Single Messenger or Group?

There is a question regarding the seven messengers, as to whether they are a single individual, or they are a group of individuals. The traditional view says that the messenger would start the work of the church along with the help of others, and those others would continue the work afterward. Others would be joining them along the way to continue the work, but the messenger is a single key person in the beginning.

The other view is the idea that the messenger would not have to be an individual, but that he could be a group of individuals. One thing that seemed to be clear to our study, was that there was always an initial person that started the message at the beginning of each church, but in some places, it appears that were others that continued and enhanced the work of the first individual afterward. There are some churches where that seems to be clearly happening, like the fifth trumpet where there are two phases to the message, from two different individuals, and others like the third and fourth church, where it appears there was only one individual.

The Study Group concluded that it seemed easier to explain everything, if the messenger was a single individual, but it was also felt that regardless of how we look at that, it seems clear that others could add to the message that the initial messenger brought to each church, but any addition of light should not detract from the core of the message that was originally delivered at the start of each church period. That is not saying that every jot and title must be believed, but the main message that the messenger delivered, is the core of any work that others do in that church. In other words, if that individual had not given his message, the others who worked in that church period would not have had an understanding different than what had existed before them. So, anyone that does any more work in that church period, must build on the message that the messenger of their church had brought to them, or they would not make any true progress.

Luther is a Good Example of Multiple Workers

A good example of that, is the sixth church where we have Luther as the messenger that started the Reformation. He was not the only one that was doing reforming type work during the sixth church. We historically find several other reformers beside Luther, fighting against the Catholic system, although Luther seems to have started the battle. The strange thing about the sixth church, was that most of these reformers including Luther, were against a group of Christians called Anabaptists. The Anabaptists actually had doctrines that were much closer to what we would believe are correct, rather than what Luther believed! Depending on the Anabaptists group, many didn't believe in the Trinity or in hell, and most believed in a full immersion baptism and a coming kingdom. Many of the ideas that the Adventists had, later on were handed down from some of the Anabaptist groups. In turn, the Bible Students inherited many of our doctrines from the Second Day Adventists, and some of those can be traced all the way back to the Anabaptists.

The important thing about that situation, is that Luther was the one that started the work of separating from Papacy, and the other reformers followed his lead in furthering the cause of the Lord, and building upon that! Some complain about Luther as a messenger, because he did and believed some things that were not correct, and that some of the other reformers of his time had some things that were more correct. The idea that the messengers had to be perfect individuals can't be true, because we know that they were ordinary men, and the only perfect man that ever existed was Christ. We have no problem seeing that the Lord could use individuals to accomplish his work, even if they were not perfect, and even if they did or believed some things that were wrong. We have great confidence that the blood of the Lamb covers us all, if we are doing our part to the best of our ability.

Theoretical 360 for Churches 2-6

One thing that seems to definitely support the idea of a single messenger per church, is a theoretical idea we are testing, that suggests that all the seven churches, except the first and the last, may be 360 years in length. As we examined that idea "see Appendix A", in almost all the churches we found a key individual or messenger, exactly 3.5 years into beginning period of the 360 for each church. That those key individuals are intersected exactly 3.5 years into the beginning of each church, seems to be too much to be a coincidence. That those individuals are found in exactly the right place, at the right time, seems to support the concept that the seven stars are individual messengers. The seventh church has Bro. Russell beginning to publish the watch towers in 1878AD, right after the 3.5 years had passed, and so that is a good example of what we are talking about. Of the seven individuals that we have picked as ones we believe fulfilled that role, there is only questions on one of them, and that is because almost all his works and writings were destroyed by that evil system.

We are Commanded to Confirm All Things in the Scriptures

If a messenger had a few things that were not correct in his church, then if someone was following that one without proving everything by the scriptures, they could be getting themselves into trouble with the Lord. Even Pastor Russell told us that we needed to confirm everything he told us in the scriptures, and if we were to see something different, we would have to follow the scriptures. Don't forget, Satan has been authorized to test all of us. The New Revised Standard version offers an alternate version of that scripture, that appears to be correct and seems to be what was intended.

Luke 22:31-32 (31 "Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, 32 but I have prayed for you that your own faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." NRSV

We Can Enhance the Message but Not Change It

The conclusion, appears to be that we can add to or clarify what a messenger has brought to us, but the basic message of anything we need to add, must harmonize with the advancement of truth that the messenger brought to that church. That does not mean that we must agree with every jot and title, but if we disagree we need to have very good scriptural reasons for doing so—which is what Brother Russell advised us to do. In regards to the seventh church and the harvest, anything we do should clarify and strengthen what had been previously brought out about the Divine Plan, the ransom, and other key doctrines like the harvest and judgment of the fallen church system. We can write down what we see in the book of Revelation, even if it's not the same as what was brought out previously, but it needs to agree with and enhance the Divine Plan of the Ages when it's done. If we did not have the right or ability to do that, then we would not be able to write anything new, and we would be stuck with the infamous and incorrect seventh volume that Rutherford wrote.

One Thing That's Going to be on the Test

Towards the latter part of Revelation, we will see two warnings about that very thing, which is when John falls down at the feet of the angel twice, and is told not to do it. We also need to remember the parable of the one who hid his talent in the ground, because he was afraid of his master. We need to use what talents we have been given, and not lose all because of the fear of man. We should not blindly follow our leaders without proving all things in the scriptures. We know of a teacher that told her class that if something was mentioned twice or even three times in class, it was going to be on the test! Take heed that you do not fail the test.

Face Shining

That our Lord's face "shines as the sun", represents the full Gospel message that is going to save not only the church, but that light is also going to provide the message of the salvation of the New Covenant to the world. The shining of his face is like the shining of Moses' face after he received the Law Covenant. That scriptural picture is explained in 2 Cor. 3:6 - 4:7, where we are told that the glory of the Gospel was much greater than that of the glory of Moses' face, which represented the law, and the greater Gospel light is the shining that we see coming from our Lord's face. We suggest that this verse helps to prove that the angel of Revelation 10:1, is our Lord, since his face also shined like the sun, and his feet are seen to be very similar to the description seen here.

Revelation 10:1 And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire; (NAS)

The Two-Edged Sword

The two-edged sword that comes out of his mouth, represents the Old and the New Testament truths. See Isa 11:4, and Ps 149:6, for some Old Testament examples of the use of a sword and how it represents truth. We have for example Isa 49:2) 2 He has made My mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of His hand He has concealed me; and He has also made me a select arrow, He has hidden me in His quiver. (NAU) The word mouth in the above verse, can mean words or speech. In Heb 4:12 and Eph 6:17, we also find the term "sword" described as "the word of the Lord". That this is a two-edged sword of God's word, fits very well with the fact that God's word has two edges, both the Old and New Testament.

The word "sword" is not necessarily the same word in all the places that it's used in the New Testament. There are two different swords, one that is short and small, and one that is much larger. The one here is word # 4501 "a saber, i.e. a long and broad cutlass. The sword in Revelation 6:4, for example, is the shorter sword which is word # 3162, a knife. Vines dictionary says that it is a short sword or dagger. That particular sword, symbolizes only a portion of the truth that was compiled in the second church. It was not the complete sword (4501) or message of truth, that the Lord brings later, when he comes to fight against the apostate church system in Revelation 19:15. The sword of God's word becomes bigger and more powerful as the understanding of his plan has grown.

That this verse is the larger sword, shows that he has the complete Divine Plan at the time of the early church. When we see the smaller sword in some other places later on, it shows a partial revealing or use of truth or the plan of God, to the church at that time. In Revelation 6:4, while that sword could represent the complete Bible that was given in the second church, the Bible was not very well understood yet at that time, and so from a scriptural standpoint, it's considered a short sword. When the large sword is shown with our Lord, it represents the complete message of truth, not only just the literal scriptures, but also the complete prophetic message hidden within it. That same sword can in some places be used to punish if need be, such as in Revelation, 2:16, 19:15, 21.

Revelation 1:17

Revelation 1:17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. And He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last,

Revelation 1:18 and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. (NAU)

John Falls at the Feet of the Angel

We see that John fell at the Lord's feet as a dead man, and that is like what happened in Daniel 8:18, 10:9, 18, when Daniel saw the vision of the angel there. This does not appear to be a falling down in worship, which was twice forbidden later in Revelation, but an actual fainting. This verse shows that neither John nor Daniel as mortal men, could stand in the presence of God, Jesus or his angels without help, and that is true of all of us.

That he laid his "right" hand upon John, shows that John was in a position of favor with him, and perhaps this proves that he was one of the stars or messengers which were seen in our Lord's right hand. As Daniel was given increased strength and raised up off the ground by the angel putting his hand on him, we in symbol can also be raised up from our fallen condition. That we fall to the earth, shows that we are only of humble earthly nature, but Jesus raises us up with his spirit, and gives us strength to live in our new nature, because of the help we are given by his sacrifice for us.

The First & the Last

In our study of the Alpha and the Omega, we saw that Jehovah in the Old Testament, also uses the title of "first and last". In this verse, we find the statement that Christ is also called first and last, and there are at least a couple of ways that he could be called that without him being Jehovah. In the first instance, this verse could be showing us is that he was the first and last of God's creation, and that all other things that have been created were made by him.

Col 1:15-17 (15 And He is the Image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation.

*16 For by Him all things were created, {both} in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities-- all things have been created by Him and for Him.

17 And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. (NAS)

*Eph 3:9 and to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ;(NKJ)

He is not the first and the last in the sense of how Jehovah is the first and the last. In Isaiah, we see that Jehovah is the first and last, in the sense that there is no other God before him, and he will still be there after all the other false Gods are long gone and forgotten.

Isa 44:6 Thus saith Jehovah, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, Jehovah of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God. (ASV)

Isa 48:12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. (KJV)

Jesus' use of the term "first and last", is unlike Jehovah's use of that term in the three places that he uses it, the first of which is here. In all three places, we find statements that cannot apply to Jehovah. The second part of our Lord's statement in verse 18, says that he was dead, but he is now alive. Jehovah was never dead, but his Son Jesus was, and God brought him back to life to show us that the resurrection from the dead is possible. We see the exact same thing in Chapter 2, that says the same thing; "Rev 2:8 *And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;" (KJV)

The last place that uses that phrase, yet again includes a statement that cannot be of Jehovah: Rev 22:13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. (KJV)

Jehovah had no "beginning or ending", so this again is a statement that applies only to Jesus. Jehovah created him and through Jesus he created all other things. In Rev 1:8, the more modern translations remove the statement, "the beginning and the ending", but as we saw when we studied that verse regarding the Alpha and the Omega, there is textual evidence in the Sinaitic manuscript, that supports it being in the text. When the Alexandrian manuscript was found, and it didn't have that phrase in it, the Trinitarians were happy to remove that phrase, because it conflicts with the idea that Jesus is a part of the Trinity. They ignored the fact, that the same phrase was used in regard to Jesus and the Alpha and the Omega, later in Revelation 22:13.

Rev 21:6 He said to me: "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsty I will give to drink without cost from the spring of the water of life. NIV

So, we see that Jesus is the first and the last, in that he is the first and last of God's creation, and God created all other things through Jesus.

In another important sense, he is the first and last, in the sense that he was dead, and he was the first one that Jehovah brought back to life, and he is also the last one that was resurrected by the Heavenly Father, because the son will be the one doing the resurrecting of everyone else.

Jesus As the Creator of All Things Has a Personal Reason to Restore All Things

In the Study Group, it was brought out that Jesus was the one that had created the entire universe and all of mankind, and because of that he had a personal reason to come and save mankind if he could. He did not want what he had created for the Heavenly Father to fail and be destroyed, even if it had fallen into sin and error afterward. That would be one very good reason, why he would have given up the advantages that he had in the heavens, and would have come down to the earth as a human being, to provide the means of salvation for mankind. Without a previous involvement with mankind, why would he have given up all those advantages for us? God did not make it very easy for him to succeed, as we read in the Gospels, because he had to endure extreme pain and suffering from the very beings he had created. We are rejoicing that he did it, but we are humbled by the fact that he could have very easily said forget it, and called for a rescue from the angels that were watching—but he did not do that!

One Time for all Sins

In another possible meaning of this verse, that is also true, is that he was the first and the last regarding the sacrifice needed to accomplish the uplifting of the church, and the restoration of the world. No other sacrifice will ever be needed other than the ransom that he provided. The price that he paid makes it possible for all the dead of both the church and the world to be resurrected, each in their own order, the church first and then the world.

Here are some other scriptures that show the same thing.

Heb 9:27-28) 27 And just as it is destined that men die only once, and after that comes judgment, 28 so also Christ died only once as an offering for the sins of many people; and he will come again, but not to deal again with our sins. This time he will come bringing salvation to all those who are eagerly and patiently waiting for him. (TLB)

Heb 10:10-14) 10 And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, 13 then to wait until his enemies should be made a stool for his feet.

14 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. (RSV)

The Keys of Death & Hades

In verse 18 here in Revelation, we are told that he was dead and that now he is alive forever, and that he has the keys of death and Hades. That indicates that since his resurrection, he now has the power to resurrect everyone else that has ever lived. If he had not died and been resurrected, we would have no proof that it was possible for anyone to be raised from the dead. Not only will the church be raised from the dead, but after the Gospel Age ends, the entire world will be brought back, and will be restored back to perfection and life in the Millennial age.

1 Cor 15:20-22) 20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep.

21 For since by a man {came} death, by a man also {came} the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

The fact that our Lord has the keys of death and Hades, does not show us that there is a literal hell. Hades is not a literal burning hell, but represents the grave. This is mistranslated hell in the King James Version of the Bible. We insert an explanation from Vines Dictionary, since this is an important concept to get correct. This word only means the grave, which is where both the just and the unjust go when they die.

NT:86 Hades

c. Finally, the NT agrees that the stay in Hades is limited, as may be seen from the sharp distinction between (missing Greek words)

Throughout the NT Hades serves only an interim purpose. It receives souls after death, and delivers them up again at the resurrection (Rev 20:13). The resurrection constitutes its end (20:14), and it is replaced by gehena as the final place of punishment.

(from Theological Dictionary of the New Testament. Copyright © 1972-1989 By Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing Co. All rights reserved.)

That he has the keys to the prison house of death, where all the dead symbolically sleep, shows us that he has the authority and the ability to open it, and bring forth all who are in it. He has not yet done that throughout most of the age, because that event must wait until the Father's due time, which is the seventh or Millennial day. Even the church has had to wait in the sleep of death, but we know that it began to be resurrected in 1878AD, and the world's resurrection will follow when the church is complete.

The time will come when Jesus will use the keys of death and Hades, and release all those that are in the grave. That will be the day of the resurrection—the thousand-year reign of The Christ head and body. When all are released from death, then will be brought to pass: Revelation 20:14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. Adamic death will have been destroyed when all have not only come out of the grave, but when all have been restored back to moral perfection.

Revelation 1:19

Revelation 1:19 "Therefore write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after these things. (NAU)

In verse 19, John is told to write down the things that “he has seen”, and “the things that are”, and “the things that are about to transpire after these”, “Diaglott”. In other words, we are going to be given information in the book of Revelation about God's Plan, as it was before, during, and after John's time.

Our Lords statement, "and the things which will take place after these things ", shows that the fulfillment of Revelation was due to start happening, shortly after the vision was given. The events portrayed were going to occur throughout the entire age, not just at the beginning, or only at the end as some believe. See the study comments on Revelation. 1:1. We will see events portrayed in the book, about the great falling away that stretches throughout the entire Gospel Age, and we will also see the eventual downfall of the evil church, and the triumph of the faithful church. We will also be shown the apostate church system, drunk with power and the murder of the saints, and then we will see God's vengeance and retribution come against them, and destroy them.

Revelation 1:20

Revelation 1:20 "As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches. (NAU)

Seven Messengers

The seven stars represent the seven messengers, and the seven candlesticks represent the seven churches. There are two different ways that the messengers to the churches could be interpreted. The first is that the message to each church comes from a single individual or messenger. The second is that we could look at each message as being delivered by a group of individuals, that would specifically relate to that church, but which are a warning to all the churches not to do any of those things wrong. The message could still start with a single individual, but others could continue with it and expand upon what the message is regarding what is good or bad in each church. There are pros and cons to either view, with some things easier to explain one way, and others the other way.

Most contemporary Bible Students seem to favor the thought that the messengers should be single individuals. At the same time, there are some uncertainties in looking at it that way. The first church is the most uncertain regarding a single messenger, because the message at that time was not being given by only one individual, but collectively by the twelve Apostles and by some who were not Apostles. They collectively gave us the New Testament, which was the foundation for the rest of the age. We picked Paul as the messenger, because he wrote the most epistles, and he traveled and spread God's word all over the Empire, but are we right in not including the other Apostles?

In the seventh church, we also have the problem that the Lord starts out by pointing out all the error and problems in the church, and then he tells them what they need to do to get out of trouble. The one who provided the help, which the Lord recommended to the church at the time, was Bro Russel and the others who went out preaching door to door. You could look at the messenger in two different ways. The question about the angel to the seventh church, and the other churches, is he guilty of the things wrong in the church, or is he just delegated to be pointing out to the church what the Lord is accusing them of, and what the remedy is? The other question, is there just one individual, or should we look at the messenger as being made up of several individuals?

Because of that, our Study Group concluded that we could not rule out that there were more than just seven individual messengers that give their message to their particular church in each time-period. At the same time, we found that the theoretical 360-year church spans that we have supplied in appendix A, does confirm that there are for sure seven key individuals that begin to give the message at the beginning of each church period. We have allowed the possibility that there could be others that continue the message, and to perhaps even expand upon it, after a key individual starts giving it in each church period.

The apostle Paul is the most likely candidate for a single messenger to the first church. His message covered the Jewish nation, and was about the law and its uselessness for salvation, and he was the prime mover regarding the starting of the Gentile church. He wrote many of the books of the New Testament, and that helped to define the church's doctrines for future times such as ours. See the comments on Revelation 1:16 for more information.

THE SEVEN CHURCHES

The seven churches were located in Asia. The literal churches are physically located on the map in a semicircle or upside down U, like the last letter of the Greek alphabet Ω Omega. They start with Ephesus on the bottom of one leg, and in the order named in the seven churches, they proceed until they end at the bottom of the other leg. We find Laodicea at approximately the same Latitude where Ephesus started, but on the other leg of the Ω!

Some commentator's point out that the statements made about these churches may have applied literally to the original churches, but we don't believe that is the reason that they are included in the book of Revelation. All the problems that are described in the seven churches, are an admonition to anyone at anytime, in that no one should be found doing any of these things wrong!

We believe that the seven churches, should be symbolically viewed as prophetically describing seven historical time-periods. The prophetic interpretation, reaches from the time of the first church, up to the harvest time at this end of the age where we are at now. The Study Group is not saying that the general admonition found in the churches is not important, but we see that the prophetic application is very important, because it contains warnings designed to help keep the faithful out of the great falling away, or to escape it if they are already in it. Others have written commentaries about the general admonition found in the messages, and so for that reason, we will concentrate on the historical interpretation, which is not as obvious!

As we look at the history of the seven periods of the churches, we see a steady decline away from the Lord and the truth. That is described by Paul as the great falling away that was to come. For those who are still waiting for the man of sin to come, they need to look at this scripture and realize that the man of sin was to come before the Day of the Lord, which we are in now.

II Thes 2:3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there comes a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; (KJV)

The decline started very early on, because during the first church, they were already being told that they had left their first love. Many in that church were already beginning to lose the simplicity and the beauty of the truth, even during the time of the Apostles. After the Apostles had fallen asleep, the situation became much worse very quickly, since they weren't there to keep the decline from happening. By the time of the fourth church, we see that the iniquity had reached its greatest height. As we will see later, the Lord stepped in after the fourth church, and began to gradually remove the power of the church and state system, by bringing the early reformers against them. As time went on, the truth that was being revealed became stronger and stronger.

Opinions on the 7 Church's Lengths

As to where the individual churches began and ended, we found that there is a great deal of difference of opinion, nor is it universally agreed to as to who the seven different messengers are. See the Bible student's comments for a listing of what time-periods and which messengers Pastor Russell preferred. There is also a good listing of other opinions in Bro. Charles Redeker's book entitled, "the seven churches". For an attempt to find a mathematical pattern that defines where the churches are and who the messengers are, see Appendix A in this book. If you examine the dating we have placed regarding the churches, you will notice that we have given the length of the five churches previous to the seventh church, as being exactly 360 years apiece. The balance left goes to the first church, and we have not assigned a definite length of time in these notes for the seventh church. These are all theoretical times, but as we have looked at the prophecy of Revelation and its interpretation, we have found that the 360-year time-periods appear to fit very well with Revelation and fulfilled history. The other interesting thing about this pattern, is that it intersects 5 of the original 7 messengers that are suggested in the reprints, exactly 3.5 years into the beginning of each church.

The idea for the 360 years, comes from different scriptures, that use the words chronos, and kairos. The word kairos is the most easily explained, by the time, times and half a time, of which each time is 360. The word chronos, is harder to prove, but it is interesting that at the end of the fifth church, where the murdered saints ask how long, the answer that was given, was that they were to wait a chronos. From the end of the fifth church, to the end of the sixth church, was 360 years—ending at 1874, where the judgment and punishment of the system was going to begin. So if you find all of those places that use those words, the resultant 360's form a pattern that defines the second to the seventh church.

Without looking at that theoretical dating system, our Study Group agreed that the first church reached up to at least the destruction of Jerusalem. The second church, was from after that time, until at least after the Council of Nicaea. The third was during the time of the rise of Papacy to Power. The fourth, was the time that the evil system had established full control over the church, and they had taken control of the Western Roman Empire.

The inquisition was started during the latter part of the fourth church and the beginning of the fifth, in 1184. The fifth church, was during the time that God was beginning to cause them discomfort, because of their doctrinal errors, which would have been at the time of the start of the Renaissance. That is the reason that we see all the saints that were killed in seal five. We also saw first Peter Waldo and then Wycliffe, begin to preach against the apostate church during the fifth church, as shown in the fifth trumpet. Regarding the sixth church, it was easily agreed by the Study Group, that it began at the time of the Reformation with Luther. The seventh or last began in 1874AD with our Lords return. That was the time of Pastor Charles Russell and the harvest message as we know it today.

In the appendixes, where we list the seven churches, and who may be the messengers to each, after the table we give a few pages of the history of each of them and what they did. After that appendix, we have placed another table which shows that the 360-year pattern, seem to extend all the way back into the Old Testament. One set of 360's goes from the destruction of the ten tribes, all the way to the end of the Millennial age where it indicates a possible 3.5-year overlap. If we start another set of 360's at the start of the ministry of Jeremiah, when we get to the New Testament times, the 360's exactly intersects the start of the second and all the other churches up to the start of the seventh church. We have included that information for future study in the appendix. Perhaps it is a part of an even bigger pattern.

When we first decided to investigate the pattern of 360's, to see if they would agree with history and the interpretation of the seven church periods, we had decided that we did not want to force anything into the chronology pattern. In other words, the Study Group did not consider that pattern as we investigated the prophetic interpretation of the rest of Revelation. After we got done with the messages, the seals, and the trumpets, we then looked at the pattern and the history during those time-periods, to see if it matched what the pattern had showed us. We found that the events and history described by Revelation, fitted exactly into those seven-time-periods, which has led us to believe that the pattern of the 360's is a very reasonable possibility. That became even more likely, as we saw that the messenger to each church started his ministry very close to 3.5 years into the start of each 360, at least in those who we could determine accurately from history.

Messages & Parables of Matt 13

We also noticed that the general flow of the messages to the churches follows the parables that our Lord gave in Matt Chapter 13. Since we know that those parables span the entire age, we should have no problem seeing that the messages to the churches do also.

(1) Matt 13:19-23) 19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understand it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.  20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;  21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but endures for a while: for when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, by and by he is offended.  22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.  23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. (KJV)	(1) Revelation 2:2 2, “I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars”:
(2) Matt 13:25-30) 25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.  26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.  27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath tares?  28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?  29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.  30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. (KJV)	(2) Revelation 2:9, “I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan”.
(3) Matt 13:31-32) 31 Another parable he put forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:  32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. (KJV)	(3) Revelation 2:13, “I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth”.  Revelation 2:15, “So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate”.
(4) Matt 13:33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. (KJV)	(4) Revelation 2:20, “Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols
(5) Matt 13:44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. (KJV)	(5) Revelation 2:17, “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it”. (Note on this verse- It is from the fourth church, but it applies to the fifth, because Jesus says “will I give”. In other words, future from the fourth).
(6) Matt 13:45-46) 45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:  46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. (KJV)	(6) Revelation 3:7, “And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; Revelation 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God”.
(7) Matt 13:47-50) 47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:  48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.  49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,  50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. (KJV)	(7) Revelation 3:16, “So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth”.

 32.25AD-73.75AD

Revelation 2:1-4

Revelation 2:1 "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: The One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands, says this:

Revelation 2:2 "I know your deeds and your toil and perseverance, and that you cannot tolerate evil men, and you put to the test those who call themselves Apostles, and they are not, and you found them {to be} false;

Revelation 2:3 and you have perseverance and have endured for My name's sake, and have not grown weary.

Revelation 2:4 "But I have {this} against you, that you have left your first love. (NAU)

First or Desirable

The messenger to this church is a little uncertain, because there were so many that helped set doctrine and tradition for the early church. It's especially difficult, because this church period had the 12 Apostles, and so we would have any of them that we have writings for to pick from. But the one that most likely is the messenger to this church period, is the Apostle Paul, because he did the most writing of them all, and the writings that we have from him contain a lot of new ideas that helped prove many things regarding salvation. He also helped explain in great detail what Christ had done for us, and why the law was not supposed to be literally followed anymore. As he explained in Hebrews, since Christ is our high priest, we have a New Law that we are under. We are not under the letter of the law which no one could keep, but we are under the spirit of the law.

Heb 7:11-12 (11 Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be designated according to the order of Aaron? 12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also. NASU

The first church's name means "first or desirable". The period of time for this church, probably reached until just after the time that Jerusalem was destroyed. The statement from Jesus, that he holds the seven stars in his hands, and that he walks amongst the candlesticks, is a repeat from the first Chapter. He is showing us that he is the one that supplies the seven candlesticks or churches with spiritual nourishment. He does that through the seven stars or messengers that he showed us in his hand. Each church has certain errors or problems that prevailed during their church period. A key problem in this church is their losing their first love.

Jesus is Watching & Advising Each Church

The vision we saw earlier of Jesus walking amongst the candlesticks, shows us that the entire age and all seven churches are under his observation and control. Him working with the church during the Gospel Age, reminds us of God's intent to walk among the Israelites and keep watch over them. To do that, he sent his angel Michael, who was Jesus in his pre-crucifixion role.

Lev 26:12 I will also walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.

God's Warnings to the Israelites is Picture of Warnings to Church

God gave the Israelites a warning about what would happen if they didn't keep the law, "Lev 26:12-39". Besides the things that happened to Israel to punish them, some of the things that the warning said were going to happen to them, sounds remarkably like the things that happened to the fallen church later in Revelation. We find them threatened with terror and the breaking of their pride of power, the making of their land desolate and the bringing of a sword, the wild beasts of the field and the bringing of pestilence and famine against them! We will find that it's no accident that there are remarkable similarities, since what happened to Israel was to be a type and a lesson for us. We will see that in more detail as we study further.

1 Cor 10:11 Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. (NAU)

Even though the second presence doesn't occur until the beginning of the seventh church, Jesus still had a personal control and care over the entire age. That is why we see him pictured amongst the candlesticks. We sometimes think that Jesus didn't do anything during the rest of the Gospel Age before 1874AD, but we know that he has been taking care of the church all through the age. The second presence begins his role as judge and king, but that doesn't mean that he ignores the rest of the age!

This church is commended for having started out well, in that they had labored and worked with great patience. That is a very accurate description of what the early church did historically. They were eager witnesses to the good news of the salvation that Jesus had brought to light, and they were willing to endure great hardship to bring this good news to others. They even had great patience while both the Jews and the Romans persecuted them.

False Apostles Already

They had tested those who claimed they were Apostles, and found that they weren't from God. That was a very serious problem in the early church, as many claimed that they had the truth and that only they knew what the truth was. In the early church, it was hard to tell what correct doctrines were and what were not. For example, many of the Jewish brethren wanted the early church to stay under the law, and to the Jew who always had been under the law, that probably didn't seem to be wrong.

Paul wrote a great deal against being under the law in his epistles, saying that if you had to stay under the law, that was taking the church away from the true salvation that Christ had won for us on the cross. Because of Paul's efforts, we now know that we don't need to be under the works of the law, and that only Christ can save us! Putting ourselves under the law, would cause us to lose out, because we would be negating what Christ had done for us on the cross.

Gal 5:1-4) I It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.

2 Behold I, Paul, say to you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

3 And I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is under obligation to keep the whole Law.

4 You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by law; you have fallen from grace.

What is Losing Their First Love?

This church was guilty of leaving their first love. The word agape that is used here, means “love” which is a stronger form of love than phileo—which is “brotherly love”. Agape characterises the love that Christ has for us, which is a deeply committed love, and which depends more on the nature of the giver, than the attractiveness of the one loved, “cf. eros the love between lovers”. We are to love one another as Christ has loved us “John 13:34”, agape love and not just “brotherly love”. It’s likely that losing their love represented that they had lost their full appreciation of what Christ had done for us, which in turn resulted in a lack of actual love for each other. That is one of the great tests for the saints—do they love one another? 1 Cor 13:3 And if I give all my possessions to feed {the poor} and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing. (NAU)

John 13:35 "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." (NAU)

We find that same message in other scriptures, regarding the thought that we need to love one another as Jehovah, and our Lord loved us. The love that we need to develop, is the love that wants to do anything possible to help not only those who are of the church, but we need to develop the love that will be necessary in the kingdom, where we will have to help those who had been our enemies.

1 John 4:15-21 (15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16 We have come to know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. 17 By this, love is perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment; because as He is, so also are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and the one who fears is not perfected in love. 19 We love, because He first loved us. 20 If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. 21 And this commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God should love his brother also. NASU)

There were several other possibilities given in our study on what could represent losing our first love. One other thought was that it was the great love and zeal we have for the truth, which is a lot of times the most evident when we first come into the church. That love gradually cools off, and we see that this happens to almost everyone to a certain extent. We all need to continue to build upon our love and zeal as we progress in the way, so that doesn’t happen to us.

It’s interesting to recall how God loved Israel, and had for that reason chosen them, “Deut 7:7-11”. Israel had deserted that love very early on, by perverting God’s word, and leaving the things that he had given them. This is very similar to what the early church did in leaving the simple doctrines of Christ, especially when they began replacing them with man’s doctrines. By doing that, they were leaving the first love that they had regarding the salvation for all, because of false doctrines that were being accepted into the church, even in the time of the Apostles.

Duet 7:7-11) 7 "The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any of the peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples,

8 but because the LORD loved you and kept the oath which He swore to your forefathers, the LORD brought you out by a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 "Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments;

10 but repays those who hate Him to their faces, to destroy them; He will not delay with him who hates Him, He will repay him to his face.

11 "Therefore, you shall keep the commandment and the statutes and the judgments which I am commanding you today, to do them.

Just as God was going to keep his covenant with Israel, and bless them because he loved them, so Christ was also doing a similar work here, in that he loved the church and intended to save and bless them. He was concerned that they were leaving him and his love, going back to old ideas that didn't apply anymore, such as the law which had unneeded restrictions that didn't apply anymore.

The seven Gospel Age churches, seem to parallel the history of Israel very closely. Just as Israel was happy to escape Egypt; we see that this church was happy to escape out of the world of sin and death. Unfortunately, many were soon captured by our enemy Satan and fell into error, like how Israel also fell into idolatry shortly after their escape from Egypt.

Revelation 2:5-7

Revelation 2:5 "Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent and do the deeds you did at first; or else I am coming to you and will remove your lampstand out of its place-- unless you repent.

Revelation 2:6 "Yet this you do have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

Revelation 2:7 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will grant to eat of the tree of life which is in the Paradise of God." (NAU)

A Serious Message & Warning to This Church

If they could overcome this problem, they would have a right to the tree of life, but if not they would lose their part in the 144,000 of the church. That seems to show that this was a serious matter for the Lord, and that he was going to remove his favor and help from them if they didn't change.

We can take a general warning from this scriptural admonition ourselves. Because of our greater knowledge at the end of the age, some tend to look down on other brethren that don't see as much of the truth as they do. While doctrines are important, we don't want to be guilty of saying that everyone must see exactly the same things that we see. We need to guard the basis of salvation, but we shouldn't make it more complicated than it is. If we begin to lay down rules, regulations and lists of doctrines that we must know and do to make our calling and election sure, we are losing our first love of the simplicity of the truth. The simplicity of salvation is lost when we begin to hedge it in with conditions and rules, that are from us and not God! That has been a problem throughout the entire age, and it continues yet today, because that's a flaw of human nature.

History of This Church is Limited to the Scriptural Record

The history of the early period of the church is somewhat limited. They didn't keep very good historical records, because they were under the impression that the time they had left was very short, and for that reason they thought that they didn't need to write things down. It was only after enough time had passed, that they finally realized the Second Coming wasn't going to happen immediately, and they then started to write things down, such as what we find in the books of the New Testament. We believe that Jesus made sure that all of the necessary books were preserved and placed in the Bible when it was compiled.

The scriptures give us some insight into this period through Paul's letters. We know from them that there were problems with the early church concerning the Jewish religion and the law. As was mentioned earlier, there were many who wished to place the Christian Jews and church back under the law. That would have been a giant step backward as Paul argues in his epistles. There were also some problems with heathen doctrines, but that didn't become as serious a problem until after the Apostles had died.

Nicolaitans

Jesus also warns us about the Nicolaitans, whose name means “Conquerors of the people”, who in this church were already trying to force their opinions on others at that early date. The definition of Conquerors of the people, comes from a combination of Greek words that make up the word Nicolaitans. See the comments on Revelation 2:15, for more information on the Nicolaitans and their works. The Lord hated this dangerous class of people, because their wrong and forceful attitude was eventually going to lead to the Papal system. The human tendency to want to be in positions of power in the church, was a serious problem. That is why we see in the New Testament scriptures, that many in the early church were claiming that certain leaders that they were following were better than others. Paul criticized them for doing that, because he knew what that was going to lead to. In the first seal, we will see the same problem, with the rider riding out to conquer, and so we see that he was not doing what he should have been.

1 Cor 4:6-7(6 Now, brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written." Then you will not take pride in one man over against another. 7 For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not? NIV

Jewish Persecution of the Church

Another thing that we see, is that there was a great deal of persecution and death caused by the Jewish nation, of which Stephen was one of the first examples. The Jews used the power of the Roman Empire to try to suppress the early church—like when they had Paul arrested.

If we look at history, we find that there was a large Jewish influence on the church up until 70-73AD. At that time Jerusalem was destroyed, and the remaining Jewish nation were scattered throughout the ancient world. After Jerusalem had been destroyed, it weakened the Jewish branch of the Christian church enough that the Gentile church was free to grow on its own.

As we look at the warnings and punishments in each church, we see that they apply to the entire time of the church, and not just at the beginning where the actual messenger was. So, events that are warned about in a church period, could occur anywhere or during the entire time frame of that church—the error most of the time, continue though the remaining churches that came afterward. That same thing will be true of the events that we will see shown in the seals, as well as of the trumpets later. The warnings in each church, are admonition for the entire church, because what is wrong in one church is wrong in any church period.

Beginning and Ending Signatures

An interesting thing about the message to each church, is that they each appear to have an opening statement given by our Lord, and a corresponding ending signature which is related to the opening statement. The ending signature generally has both a warning and a promise. Here we see a warning for those who are doing wrong, and then we have a promise for those who are doing what they should be. In some churches, what they are will be obvious, but in others it will require a little study and interpretation. See Appendix B, for a table listing the beginning and ending signatures that we saw in the study.

For example, the Lord tells us that he is walking in the midst of the candlesticks. That shows us that he has overcome and is in the presence of God, which is where the seven lamps that go on top of the seven candlesticks are, “See Revelation. 4:5”. For that reason, he has control over the affairs of the church through all seven periods of the church. He warns the church in Revelation 2:5, that he will remove their candlestick if they are not faithful.

The Promise of the Tree of Life

In Revelation 2:7, he gives the faithful the promise that those who overcome, will be able to eat of the tree of life that is in the midst of the throne, “Revelation 22:1-2”. That shows us that all who are not faithful, will not get an everlasting life, but those who are faithful overcomers, will get an everlasting life, just as Jesus did. The tree of life was originally found in the Garden of Eden. When access is restored to it again in Revelation 22:1-2, it shows us that life everlasting is being offered to the faithful, because they have access to the entire tree.

Additionally, the leaves and the fruit of the tree represent in symbol, life or healing that will be imparted to the world. Leaves in olden times and even now, are still used for healing or medical purposes. The world will not have life within them, as the church will. Even though they will be able to live forever, they will be dependent upon God to supply life to them through the leaves and fruit of the tree. Immortality is not for the world, but only for the faithful church, which shares immortality with the Lord.

In Paul’s letter to the Romans, there is a promise to the one who overcomes, meaning he who conquers. Rom 8:37 But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. (NAU) From the contents of the letter to the first church, the person who overcomes, is the one who repents of his lack of love and finds his first love again. The letters to the seven churches are very much in harmony with the rest of the book of Revelation. The promises to those who overcome, always refer in all seven messages to something mentioned later in the book—like the tree of life in Revelation 22:2. In 22:14, those who wash their robes, have the right to the tree of life and can enter the city.

Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. Some manuscripts have "who do his commandments", but the UBS Translators handbook prefers washed their robes.

[Those who wash their robes]: see verse <Revelation 7:14>. Here nothing is said about "in the blood of the Lamb," as in <7:14>. It is implied, of course, that this washing makes the robes clean, and this may be expressly stated, "those who wash their robes clean" (TEV). For [robes] see verse <6:11>.

As the RSV footnote indicates, instead of [who wash their robes], some Greek manuscripts have "who do his commandments" (see verse <Revelation 12:17>; and verse <14:12>). The text translated by RSV and TEV is to be preferred. (from UBS Translator Handbook Series)

Same Admonition for Each Church

All seven churches have the same comment at the end that says, "He who has an ear let him hear what the spirit says to the churches." That implies that in order to understand the messages to the churches, you have to have the Holy spirit and a hearing ear. Having a "hearing ear", generally implies that you are someone who wants to know the truth, and that you are willing to discard old ideas that do not square with the Bible. We need to be careful that we don't belong to the wicked class mentioned in Daniel, that does not understand what God is doing.

Dan 12:9-10) 9 He said, "Go {your way} Daniel, for {these} words are concealed and sealed up until the end time. 10 "Many will be purged, purified and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand. (NAU)

The message of the spirit, is in general to all the churches, plural, and not just to the church it's given in. Jesus uses this phrase "He that has an ear, let him hear" 6 times, counting all the Gospels, "Matt 11:15, 13:9, 13:43 Mark 4:9, 4:23, Mark 7:16' and if we count Math 15:10 it would be seven times. We get 8 more times in Revelation, where we have one for each church, and one in Revelation 13:9. Without Matt 15:10, we get a total of 14 times or two sets of 7. Each of these places has an important message or lesson.

We find a similar phrase in Ezek 3:27 But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.' Whoever will listen let him listen, and whoever will refuse let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house. NIV

We see that God in the book of Ezekiel, puts the burden directly on the listener. If the verse in Ezekiel and the one here in Revelation are compared, we see that the injunction to "he who has an ear" in Rev, is again a warning that the burden of listening is upon the hearer. If we don't listen to the advice and warnings given to the seven churches and we lose out, it will be our own fault.

SMYRNA #2

Revelation 2:8-9

Revelation 2:8-9) 8 "And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: the first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life, says this:

9 "I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy by those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. (NAU)

King James has "I know they works" in verse 9, but it is not in the Greek in most manuscripts. The Sinaitic does have it, but that is the more suspect manuscript.

Bitter Affliction

By this time, the candidates for who could be the key messenger to this second church, are pretty much narrowed down to John—provided we conclude that there is only one messenger to each church, rather than multiple leaders of the church. Right after the destruction of Jerusalem, the church was scattered all over the world, and many of the Apostles were gone, mostly martyred. If we look at the time frame that Revelation could have been written within, we cover the church period just before the destruction of Jerusalem, until only a few years later. Some of that dating range, is proposed by those who think that John had to witness certain events to write Revelation. They seem to be thinking that John came up with Revelation himself and then wrote it, and they ignore the fact that the first couple of verses tell us that an angel brought the revelation to John. So, our time frame for the messenger to this church would be about 74AD, and John is thought to have been still alive at that time.

The second church is called Smyrna, and the name means, “bitter affliction”. Jesus again identifies himself as “the first and the last”, which he previously told us applies to him in Revelation 1:17. He is the first and the last in at least three different ways. In one sense he was the beginning and the only one of God’s creation, and through him everything else was created, “1 Col. 1:15-16”. In other words, God created him and then Jesus created all other things.

In another sense, he is the first of God’s new creation, having been the first to be resurrected. He will be able to do the same for his followers since he has the keys of death and Hades. All others including the world will be made alive through him in the next age, “1 Cor. 15:20-28, Revelation. 3:5”.

There is a third sense that he is the first and the last, in that he is our first and only savior, and there will never be another need for another one.

Heb 10:12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, (RSV)

Jesus tells this church that he knows of their great works, and the tribulation, and persecution they had to go through. In all the other churches except Pergamum, he says, "I know your deeds", but here he says "I know your affliction and your poverty."

The early part of this church had to resist much persecution, not only by the Jews, but especially by the Romans who had just destroyed Jerusalem. This church was the time of the catacombs, and the attempt by the Pagan Roman power to wipe the Christians out in Rome. In the face of persecution, they did a great deal of preaching and witnessing, which helped to spread the Gospel to all corners of the world. Even though they were poor in the things of the world like money and wealth, our Lord tells them that they had great riches in the spiritual knowledge they had through Christ.

False Jews, Apostates

In this church, they are warned about “those” who claim that they are Jews, but who are not. We don't think that this is warning us about literal Jews, but it's about those who claimed to be God’s people, but who were instead unfaithful Christians or corrupted Christians.

There were Christians that had spiritualized all Jewish practices at that time, claiming that they had replaced God’s people entirely. They wanted the Christians to forget all about their Jewish origins. At the latter part of this church, they took and changed all the dates of the Jewish feast and festivals, so that there would not be a link back to the Jewish system. The Passover dating was changed to Easter, and other holidays were also changed. In other words, the church was becoming anti-Jewish by the end of this church, and so that could be another thing that is being referred to here, besides the false Christians who claimed to be spiritual Jews, but they were not.

The temple and the Jewish nation had already been destroyed by this time, which would prove that these Jews should be looked at as spiritual Jews or Christians, just as we will see described in Rev Chapter 7, when it lists the 12 spiritual tribes. A true spiritual Jew, is only those who are God's people in their hearts, and who have faith in the blood of Christ, and who are truly symbolic Jews in the Christian church—because God has rejected the literal nation of the Jews until the Gospel Age is over. Even before the time of Christ, the natural born Jews were not true Jews in God's sight, unless they were Jews in their heart. The Jews lost out on the call to the heavenly church because of unbelief, but they will receive favor again in the next age, but they must say, "blessed is he that comes in the name of the Lord"—in other words they must recognize the Messiah.

Mat 23:39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Ps 118:26 Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD;

We have blessed you from the house of the LORD. NASU

Rom 2:28-29) 28 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh. 29 But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God. (NAU)

Gal 3:6-7) 6 Even so Abraham BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, be sure that it is those who are of faith who are sons of Abraham. (NAU)

The Lord, as we see in the scripture above, had the same view of what constituted a Jew, in that he was looking at what was in the heart. The unfaithful Christians were claiming the name of Christ, but they were not doing what they should be doing in order to be called his. We will see the unfaithful spiritual Jews again later in the message to the sixth church, when they had grown even worse in their apostasy. Revelation 3:9 "Behold, I will cause {those} of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie-- I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and {make them} know that I have loved you.

Accusations of Blasphemy Against Church

That many were being accused of blasphemy, shows that Satan was already making inroads into the church at this early time, and those who were trying to hold true Christian doctrines were being falsely accused. This problem first started with accusations against Christ during his ministry, and then with the early Apostles who had also been accused of blaspheming God. Later some of the so-called early church fathers were starting to take away the liberty that the early church had, and to assert their claim to the right to dictate to the church in matters of conscience and doctrines. That was being done with the supposed good intention of guarding the truth, but that loss of spiritual freedom led to the terrible suppression of the Faithful Church later on in history—even by the end of this church. By the end of this period of the church, was when the Trinity doctrine was being formulated, and those who advocated it, were making terrible accusations against those who didn't believe it, and who were fighting against it. It's even thought that Arius was murdered by the champions of the false Trinity doctrine, just so that they could win out doctrinally against him.

We should take warning from this problem ourselves, and resist any efforts made to take away our liberty even today. We have many modern examples of what can happen in the many cults and groups that take control of people and brainwash them into serving a group or leader, saying that they must believe a certain way. Those kinds of things are obvious, but that kind of control can be even more subtle, in that a charismatic leader or leaders, even in our fellowship, might be influencing us to believe or do things that will cause us to fall, and we would not even know it. If we don't believe that kind of thing can happen, "beware". Those kinds of things did happen after Pastor died, which resulted in many of the brethren following prominent leaders of that time back out into darkness. So, we need to examine ourselves and to be on guard, so that we don't lose our freedom in Christ.

Revelation 2:10

Revelation 2:10 "Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. (NAU)

10 Days of Prison

This church was warned that some of them were going to be cast into prison and have tribulation 10 days or years, at a day per year. The devil aspect of Satan, is the one involved in this persecution, and the bad characteristic of his that is being used against the church, is that of a devil. This happened with a literal and very severe ten-year period of persecution, that occurred during the time of Diocletian, from 303-313AD. That the persecution comes from "the Devil", shows that this was the false accuser aspect of Satan that caused this persecution. The number 10, may also have prophetically indicated that the persecution was going to come from the civil power—since 10 is civil power like the 10 horns on the beast and the ten toes of the Image. Whether that symbolism applies or not, there is no question that the persecution came from the Roman Empire. That the name of this church has "myrrh" in it as a root, suggests the thought that as they were crushed by the persecution, they gave off a fragrance to God by their suffering and not submitting to the deadly force placed against them. This was historically the time of the catacombs and the killing of Christians in the Roman coliseum games. Some commentators believe that there were ten different periods of severe persecution during that time, but we were not able to verify that, and even if we could, the ten years of persecution is the most obvious fulfillment for the ten days.

The visible signs that the early church were granted through the Holy spirit, ceased to manifest themselves after the time of the 12 Apostles. Tradition has it that the Apostles could give the ability to show visible signs of the Holy spirit to others, but they could not in turn pass it on to the next generation. After the Apostles and that second generation died, the visible signs of the Holy spirit could not be given to others, and so they ceased. It therefore became harder to discern who was a true Christian and who was not, and so that made it easier for the adversary to deceive and to make major inroads into the church. They should have remembered what the Lord said about how to determine who was faithful: John 13:34-35 (34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35 "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." NASU Matt 7:20-21) 20 "So then, you will know them by their fruits. 21 "Not everyone who says to Me, "Lord, Lord," will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven {will enter} (NAU)

John is a good candidate for the messenger to this church, because this is the time that the great falling away was starting to gain momentum. The message that John gave through Revelation, was in a large part about what this falling away was going to be, and how it was going to be judged and destroyed in the end. His other writings were also very important doctrinally for the church.

Rome Was Against the Faithful Christians

Part of the problem as the Roman Empire saw it, was that the Christians preached against the Pagan God's that Rome had, and they didn't like that. They thought that their Pagan God's protected the Empire, and that if they didn't worship them, the Empire would perish. Actually, they were partially right, in that it was Satan who they had been worshipping, and he controlled and promoted the old Roman Empire at the earlier part of this church. The Christians were being falsely accused by the Pagans, who wanted them dead during that early part of this church. It wasn't long after the ten years of persecution, that Satan was promoting a new hybrid of church and state, where the church came together in a partnership with Rome. By the end of the next two churches after this, we will begin to see Papacy symbolically mounting up onto the beast, and beginning to actually control the civil power represented by the Roman beast. If the Faithful Church had truly taken over, Satan would have been out of business, as he will be on this end of the age, when the Christ and the church take control in the Millennial age.

One interesting thing that we see, is that the faithful of the early church wouldn't participate in the games of the old Roman Empire, nor would they serve in the army. This is interesting and instructive to us, since the army is an issue we have faced on this end of the age, and we have come back to the same way of thinking as the early church did regarding not serving in the army.

Gnosticism & Greek Philosophy

During this church and the next, we find Gnosticism and Greek philosophy starting to make inroads in the church, and that was a very big problem. Unfortunately, the doctrines that came from Gnosticism and Greek philosophy, caused the church to mix truth with error. Those ideas eventually led to the doctrine of the Trinity in this church, and the mass and other Abominations later, which came from the corruption of the Abomination of Desolation.

The Mass

In the doctrine of the Mass, it's thought that the blood and wine are changed into the real body and blood of Christ. The thought was that if you sacrificed Christ in each mass, you would be covering for the sins that had been committed since the last mass. This doctrine is saying that it wasn't good enough that Christ died for us once, but that he needs to die over and over again, every day. They seem to have forgotten that Christ died once and for all time, and that he does not need to die anymore than that one time.

1 Peter 3:18 For Christ died for sins once and for all, a good man on behalf of sinners, in order to lead you to God. He was put to death physically, but made alive spiritually, TEV

Bread & Wine Were Thought to be Actual Body & Blood of Christ

It was also thought that the bread and the wine were supposed to be the actual body and blood of Christ, so if you partook of the bread and wine, you would be partaking of the immortality that he had, by consuming his body and blood. Now that the Catholic Church has begun to use English in their mass, you can hear them claim that what they have in the bread and wine, is the actual body and blood of Christ, which they are sacrificing over and over again! As we can see, Paganism and Greek philosophy were not stamped out, but they were absorbed into the church, which led to the great falling away that still exists today. That is why the scriptures call this system “an Abomination that makes Desolate.” The system became spiritually desolate, with no actual salvation in it, or as seen later in Revelation Chapter 12, “a desert”.

One Catholic historian commenting on this church period and the next, felt that what happened doctrinally during that time, was what was supposed to happen. Those who disagreed with the winners at that time were in his mind, and of course most other historian’s minds, heretics. He did have to admit that winners write the history books, and that for example when Arius put forth his views on the Trinity, if he would have won we would have a totally different view on the topic of the Trinity today. However, he felt it was good that Arius had lost! While we don’t agree completely with what Arius believed regarding Jesus, we think that he was much closer to the truth than what most churches believe today. He at least believed that Jesus was the son of God, and not a member of an invented Trinity or Godhead.

New Testament Finalized

One good thing that came out of this church, is that this was where the New Testament books were written down and compiled into one volume. The early church at first didn’t write down much except for letters that they sent to each other, because they had expected the Lord to return in a very short time. God overruled and made sure that the important writings were saved. The books that went into the Bible, were selected from the writings that were compiled or written by the early church. A big problem that began to occur at the end of this church and the beginning of the next, is that even though the scriptures were written down, the church began to restrict them so that they were not available to the laity. The reason for that, was because the doctrines of the latter part of this church and the beginning of the next, began to differ greatly from the written scriptures, and so they did not want the common people to know that the church’s doctrines were not in harmony with the scriptures. That is why we believe the scriptures lay dead in the street of the Great City of Papacy for 1260 years, and not just 3.5 years at the end. We will explain that in great detail when we get to Chapter 11, because that does not agree with the common understanding of that Chapter.

Early Church Tried to Reject Book of Revelation

One of the books that were being fought against at that time, was the book of Revelation, of which we are commenting on in this writing. By the end of the time of this church, the hope of an earthly kingdom in the future had been given up, and anyone who preached a future kingdom was branded as a heretic. The reason for that is that by the end of this church period, because of the acceptance of Christianity by Rome, they had gotten the idea that the church had already established Christ’s kingdom on the earth. That was one of the reasons that Revelation was almost lost as a book of the Bible, because of the future 1000-year reign on the earth that is mentioned in it. Because of that, the book of Revelation was out of harmony with the doctrines of the latter period of the second church and its new doctrines, and anyone who advocated a future millennium, was branded as a heretic, “See Eusebius Ecclesiastical history Chapters 24-25”. The idea of the church reigning on the earth during the Gospel Age, is definitely against the biblical doctrine of the Millennial kingdom as seen in Revelation, and the false idea of the kingdom being already established still prevails in most of the Christian churches yet today. That is why they call their collective churches, Christendom.

The warning and the promise are given in one sentence in this church, stating that if we would be faithful we will receive the crown of life. If not, we won’t be one of the over-comers who are to receive everlasting life.

We should not want the crown just for the sake of the reward, or we will never get it. This crown will only be given to those who can love their enemies, and who will give up all to make sure that God's kingdom wins out, so that they can help all the rest of mankind and even those same enemies. Our reason for wanting to be of the church, is that we should want to help as many of the people of the world in the next age attain the perfection that had been lost in the garden, as we can, no matter who they are. We should not desire the crown just for the glory involved, but we should want it so that we can help all worldly people achieve salvation, and restoration of all things.

Acts 3:19-21 (19 Repent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; 20 and that he may send the Christ who hath been appointed for you, (even) Jesus: 21 whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets that have been from of old. ASV

Revelation 2:11 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death." (NAU)

This church again has the admonition "those who have an ear to hear". The faithful church will not be subject to the second death in the next age, because they will have won eternal life. The word hurt means unjust, and so it means that it would be unjust if they were subject to the second death. The world will still be subject to death until after the final testing of the little season. Even after that testing, the world will have life, but not life within themselves, "Daniel 12:2, Matt 19:29, John 4:14, Acts 13:46". The second death is mentioned in three other places in Revelation 20:6, 14, and 21:8.

If we had to liken this church to the history of Israel, this would seem to fit most closely with the time where Israel had finished conquering the land. After the division of the land, they then spent some time in which they were supposed to finish conquering the land and rid it of all foreign influence, which they unfortunately didn't do. Because they became mingled with the original inhabitants, they accepted the doctrines of foreign Gods and they began to adopt some of the idols and religious practices, which brought God's wrath upon them.

Just as in the type, where the Israelites were not supposed to take anything from the heathen that they were dispossessing, we see here that the church should not have absorbed any of the Pagan doctrines or the Greek and Roman philosophy that they did. They should also have made sure that they didn't let any of the Pagans and their ideas in control of the church. Just as adopting foreign God's and practices led to Idolatry in Israel, doing the same thing led to the same problem in the church, "Duet 7:5, 25-26, 12:3 Joshua 6:18 7:1, 1 Sam 15:3".

Here are some doctrinal heresies that came into the church during this period. We got this list from other sources and we haven't verified everything in this list, or the others list that we include at the end of each of the church's. We, for example, don't think that the completely developed doctrine of the mass existed in 394AD, but we would agree that the ideas that led to the full-fledged error of the mass began in that church period.

Some Heresies that Came in

During the Second Church

- 1) Of all the human inventions taught and practiced by the Roman Catholic Church, which are contrary to the Bible, the most ancient are the prayers of the dead and the sign of the Cross. Both of these began 300 years after Christ -----310AD
- 2) Wax candles were introduced in churches about -----320AD
- 3) The doctrine of the Trinity, at the council of Nicaea-----325AD
- 4) Veneration of angels and dead saints began about -----375AD
- 5) The Mass as a daily celebration was adopted in -----394AD
- 6) The worship of Mary the mother of Jesus and the use of the term "Mother of God" as applied to her originated in the Council of Ephesus in -----431AD

PERGAMOS #3

433.75AD-793.75AD

Revelation 2:12

Revelation 2:12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this: (NAU)

Arius is traditionally considered as the messenger to this church, since he led the fight against the Trinity doctrine during his time. The only problem that we find with him as the messenger is that he is too early to meet the date that our theoretical table points to. There are several others that carried this same fight onward after his time, and we are going to consider a different one who just happens to fall exactly at the correct time. If he is the correct one, we should remember that there may be more than one messenger in each church period, and that there could be others that continued the fight after him.

Nestorius of Constantinople

Nestorius of Constantinople, is another famous individual that was involved in the Trinity argument, since he participated in the debate which caused the council of Ephesus to be called in 431AD. He had called into question the doctrine that said that Mary was the mother of God, which was being promoted by this time. He said that she should be called the mother of Christ, and to believe otherwise compromised the reality of Christ's human nature. This church seemed determined to make Christ into God through the Trinity doctrine, no matter what the contrary evidence said. He was condemned because he said that the human nature of Christ was separate from the Divine nature of Christ. The orthodox belief at the time was that Christ was always God, and that when he came down to the earth, he was both God and man at the same time. That doctrine was an abomination, because if it was true then Christ did not die since God cannot die, and if Christ did not die, then he didn't die for our sins. Nestorius also believed that only a sinless human being could redeem the fallen beings of humanity, just as the scriptures say is true. The scriptures actually say that those who claim that Christ was not a human being, are the anti-Christ.

As we now know, Nestorius was correct in his idea that Christ was a human being while he was here on the earth, and his later elevation to Divine nature was after he had proven faithful and was elevated up to God and seated on his right-hand side. Nestorius was condemned at the council for his views and lost control of the area he was Bishop over. Some accounts say he was cast into prison, but that is not known for sure. He was then for sure sent into exile in about 435AD, which is when he wrote a work entitled "Book of Heraclides" which was 1-2 years before the date we are looking for. A single copy of that book was found to exist in 1895AD, and from that we now have an English translation since 2002AD. Since it would have taken a couple of years to write the book, that would have made it exactly the right time for the 3.5 years to match up exactly with the date we were looking for. While Nestorius and the others in the third church, including Arius, didn't have everything correct, they were fighting the false concept that Christ was God while he was on earth, and that Mary was the mother of God. Nestorius evidently realized that Christ had to be a perfect man to pay the ransom price.

Here is some of what we could find about him, which supports his rejection of Christ being God, and Mary being the mother of God. This article seems to support the idea that, his doctrines, or ideas were supported in the Eastern churches for a time, which did not believe the Trinity doctrine at the time.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nestorianism>

“Nestorianism is a Christological doctrine that emphasizes the disunion between the human and divine natures of Jesus. It was advanced by Nestorius (386–450), Patriarch of Constantinople from 428 to 431, influenced by Nestorius's studies under Theodore of Mopsuestia at the School of Antioch. Nestorius's teachings brought him into conflict with other prominent church leaders, most notably Cyril of Alexandria, who criticized especially his rejection of the title Theotokos ("Bringer-forth of God") for Mary, the mother of Jesus. Nestorius and his teachings were eventually condemned as heretical at the Council of Ephesus in 431 and the Council of Chalcedon in 451, which led to the Nestorian Schism; churches supporting Nestorius broke with the rest of the Christian Church. Following that, many of Nestorius's supporters relocated to the Sasanian Empire, where they affiliated with the local Christian community, known as the Church of the East. Over the next decades the Church of the East became increasingly Nestorian in doctrine, leading to it becoming known alternately as the Nestorian Church.”

Pergamos Means Earthly Elevation

The third church was called Pergamos, and the meaning of its name is “earthly elevation” in some dictionaries. Some say that it means mixed marriage. Perhaps that definition is an illusion to church and state that was beginning during this church. The root word in Strong’s means high tower, and the literal city of Pergamos is the highest one in latitude of the seven churches. This city was built on a high hill at the time that it existed. This is a very fitting symbolic definition, because history agrees that Papacy began to rise to power right at that very time. The Roman Empire had adopted Christianity as its official religion towards the end of church period two, and at the beginning of the third.

The one with the two-edged sword is our Lord Jesus, because this verse is pointing back to Chapter one where he was seen with it coming out of his mouth. The word used for sword here, is the same word in both places, in that it’s a large sword, which means a long and broad cutlass, “Strong's #4501”. That shows that the Lord had the complete truth and plan of God after his crucifixion, because he has the large sword. He is calling attention to it in this church, because this church has largely fallen away from what they should believe, and he wants to warn them that he could and will use the sword of truth to punish them. He is also showing them that they should be using the Bible to decide the correctness of their doctrines. He is doing that because by this time they are not using the Bible, but they are deciding doctrines with church councils, even though the books of the Bible have been compiled into a single volume during this church.

When we see the sword coming out of his mouth in Chapter 19, he is warring against the same errors that we find in this church. Those errors later in history grew into the monstrous and unfaithful church and state system that we find described later in Revelation. Rev 19:15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

Revelation 2:13

Revelation 2:13 "I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. (NAU)

Antipas=Anti-Pope

Papacy who literally ruled from Rome, was trying to gain power over the church during this time, but the Faithful Church was still resisting. That resistance is indicated by the fact that the name Antipas means “anti-father or anti-Pope”, and is used for the name of the faithful witness mentioned here. The church was not to call any man father, “Mat 23:9”, but by this time many had forgotten the Lord’s words, or they were ignoring them. Some say that there was an actual man named Antipas here that was killed, and it’s possible that is correct, but it seems more likely that the use of the symbolic name by the Lord was so that he could bring out an important truth about what was going on in this church. Even if there was an individual by that name, this verse is pointing to a much bigger problem, in that it’s describing all the faithful of the church who were resisting the rise of Papal power at that time, and they were being killed because of their efforts to stop the great falling away that was occurring because of the rise of Papal power.

Satan’s Seat of Power

In verse 13, this church is said to be dwelling where Satan's seat of power is, but it says that they were still faithful. This is the throne of the beast, which was church and state power, being established during this historical church period. If we look at Revelation 13:2 and 16:10, we find a scriptural description of the seat of power, that the seven-headed beast of “Rome” had received, and it shows that Papacy was getting his power from Satan and the Roman Empire. We believe that what Satan gave to the new beast, was the original seat of power, and the help of Roman power, is what created what we call Papacy. The central location of the Roman seat of power, was what eventually gave the city of Rome’s bishop, power over all other bishops.

In Chapter 13, we find that the beast was to have power for the entire 1260 years, and so that confirms that we are in the right time frame for the message to this church. During the early part of this church, Rome had collapsed because of the onslaught of the Barbarians who overran the Empire. When the Empire was restored, Rome was a divided power which left it ripe for conquest. The man of sin Papacy was waiting in the wings, willing to start grabbing control of the Roman power, and he began using it to take control of the people. In 539AD, we find that Papacy was granted the use of the civil power of Rome to help him put down the last of the Arians in the Western Empire, and from that point in time onward, he never hesitated to use that power to eliminate any that disagreed with him. Whenever there was a problem he didn’t agree with, he asked for help from the civil power.

When the Emperor Justinian began to try to restore the Western Roman Empire around 539AD, he gave Papacy doctrinal control over both the Eastern and Western church, and that opened the way for Papacy to get even more control later. When Papacy began to gain power in what was left of the Western Roman Empire, the church became unknowingly allied with Satan. Our Lord is pointing out to this church that he knows where Satan dwells, and it's evident from historical facts that during this church period we find the apostate church system already persecuting the Faithful Church. Just after the end of the third church, we find the Pope crowning Charlemagne, thereby beginning the final transferring of the power of Rome to the Papacy.

Revelation 2:14

Revelation 2:14 "But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who kept teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit {acts of} immorality. (NAU)

Doctrines of Balaam

Even among the faithful church at that time, there were those who held false doctrines. Balaam could not curse the Israelites directly, but he later advised their enemies to seduce them into heathen practices, and that is what is happening in this church. See Num. 31:15-16 and all of Numbers Chapters 22-25, 2 Peter 2:15. The Israelites began to have sex and corrupt Israel with Pagan rituals in Chapter 25. Num 31:13-18(13 Moses, Eleazar, and all the leaders of the congregation went to meet the returning army outside the camp. 14 Moses was furious with the army officers — the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds — as they came back from the battlefield: 15 "What's this! You've let these women live! 16 They're the ones who, under Balaam's direction, seduced the People of Israel away from God in that mess at Peor, causing the plague that hit God's people. 17 Finish your job: kill all the boys. Kill every woman who has slept with a man. 18 The younger women who are virgins you can keep alive for yourselves. (from THE MESSAGE: The Bible in Contemporary Language © 2002 by Eugene H. Peterson. All rights reserved.)

That is exactly what was happening in this church period and the previous church, in that a lot of heathen practices were adopted by the church, “Ezek 44:6-14”. When Pagan Rome adopted Christianity as the official religion, they corrupted it with many Pagan holidays and with doctrines like the Trinity and hell fire, as well as the idea that the soul never died, etc. Unfortunately, many in the church went along with that corruption, because it made Christianity more acceptable to the Pagans. They should have realized that the church should never compromise with Satan’s system, because any compromise no matter what, can only lead to a worse error later.

The eating of things sacrificed to idols, represented the Pagan practices that were being allowed into the church. Some seemed to think that it didn't matter if they adopted some of the Pagan holidays and religious customs, especially if it was helping to convert the heathen. Many who had been converted to Christianity, had celebrated those holidays before they came into the church, and so adopting them probably didn't seem that bad a thing at the time. The holidays of Easter and Christmas, are examples of ones that resulted in a mixture of truth and error. That was the same argument that Balaam had used regarding eating at the Pagan feasts back when Israel was being corrupted. It was probably claimed by him, that since these idols weren't alive, the eating of meat that was sacrificed to them or using some of their holidays wouldn't matter. It's interesting to find that Balaam was slain with the sword, since that is the threat that is being used here by the Lord, “Num 31:8 Joshua 13:22”. The abomination of the doctrine of the mass, was gradually becoming more fully developed during this church.

Illegal Union of Church and State

The real symbolic meaning of the figure of fornication, symbolizes those who believed a union of Papal power and civil power was the right thing to do, Ezek 16:26, 28, 32, 34, 37, and, etc. The coming together of church and state, was symbolically called fornication “539-1799AD”, because it was unlawful for the church to become involved with control of the civil power before the return of our Lord and the completion of the church. When Charlemagne was crowned Emperor by the Pope in 799-800, that illegal act allowed the Pope to have a say in the affairs of the civil power. Eventually because of superstition, Papacy had gotten a great deal of control over the civil power of the Empire. That resulted in this fallen church being called the Great Harlot in Chapter 17, and that system was guilty of killing many of the faithful saints. The church should have stayed away from anything that resembled compromise with the world, but the temptations of power and wealth were too great for some to resist.

Revelation 17:1-2) 1 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed {acts of} immorality, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality." (NAU)

Revelation 2:15

Revelation 2:15 "So you also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans. (NAU)

Second Mention of Nicolaitans

The doctrine of the Nicolaitans, was the idea of Lordship or headship of some over the church, thereby taking away the churches freedom in Christ. That wrong attitude was developed into what was the right of control by a central Pope. That came about because the Emperor Justinian had given Papacy during this church, the full doctrinal control over both halves of the Empire. That idea was gaining in popularity very quickly here during this church, especially after Papacy gained the use of civil power from the Empire. Not only was there a central Pope, but Bishops that were subject to the Pope were appointed for each area that controlled what their churches were to believe. By this time, especially since 381, there was a centralized orthodoxy which was heretical to true Christian doctrines, and those false doctrines were being forced upon the church.

We believe that the reason that the Nicolaitans are mentioned in the first church and then again in this church, is that in the first church period they were only taking control of the ecclesiastical part of the church. In this church, they have become more ambitious, and they are now starting to take control of the civil power as well, which is why our Lord warns about them a second time. This is also the church period in which the Pope acquired the Papal States, which he ruled over for the next 1000 years.

Getting Control Over the People

“Nicolaitans” is word #3531 Nikolaites (nik-ol-ah-ee'-tace); from 3532; a Nicolaite, i.e., adherent of Nicolaus: KJV-- Nicolaitane. That by itself does not tell us too much until we look at word #3532, which means "victorious over the people." That is exactly what the Nicolaitans were doing in this church period, in that they were getting control over the people. The word laity is from this same word which means people, and so the meaning of the name is very fitting. That is the same thing that we will see in Chapter 13 of Rev and in Daniel Chapter 7, where we see the beast make war against the saints, and it overcomes them. They began conquering in church one and then by church three starting in 539AD, they were starting to use the civil power of the Empire against the faithful of the church, and were establishing the evil church and state system that oppressed the saints for 1260 years.

Rev 13:7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. (KJV)

Dan 7:21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; (KJV)

Began to Use Civil Power to Force Compliance

In 539AD, Papacy had become actively involved with the civil power, in that he used it to finished taking control of and defeating some others that didn't agree with him doctrinally. We know from history that a Roman army captured the city of Ravenna on that date, and the mission of that army was influenced by Papacies war against those who opposed the Trinity doctrine. At that time in 539AD, Justinian the Roman Emperor used the army to re-conquer the area that was held by Arians. The Arians didn't believe in the Trinity doctrine, and the Adventists say that was one reason the Papacy asked the Emperor to attack and subdue or kill them. While the Emperor was not under the direct control of Papacy at the time, he was eager for the support of the church, which he felt would help him to pull the Empire back together again after the recent shattering by the Barbarians. The Arians had come into the Empire and taken control of a part of the Empire when it had collapsed, which included Rome, and so it was probably an easy decision to use the army to eradicate them, even though many parts of the Empire had welcomed their help in removing the more savage barbarians like the Huns from the Empire. After the Arians defeat at the city of Ravenna in 539-40AD, shortly after that time the Arian or non-Trinity faith no longer existed in the Western Empire. When Ravenna was captured, the kingdom of the Ostrogoth's was lost, and the city of Rome was brought back under the control of the Roman Empire. That account is historically recorded in "Gibbon's decline and fall of the Roman Empire", Pages 122-126. On page 506 it tells us that Ravenna was taken in 539 and not 540 as is commonly believed!

The Plucking Up of Three Kingdoms

The wiping out of that last kingdom and two previous kingdoms, was the fulfillment of the plucking up of the three horns by the little horn of Papacy in Daniel 7:8. The Heruli took the Western Empire and then the Ostrogoth's took the Heruli. A large amount of the land that was captured during those battles, was later given to the Papal power by Pepin the father of Charlemagne, and it became the Papal States. The conquest of Ravenna marked an important point in the military cooperation between the religious system and the civil power. After that time, they claimed the right to put down all other different beliefs with armed force.

Church Should not Have Cooperated with Rome

For our own admonition, we need to take note of what went wrong with the church in that historical area. They were tempted to adopt some of the world's ideas and doctrines, since that made Christianity easier to spread to the people. The more that they fit in with the world, the less persecution they experienced, but unknowingly they were falling into Satan's trap. When they compromised with the Pagan world and its doctrines, they were not holding fast to the doctrines of the early church anymore, but had allowed them to become polluted with Pagan error. False teaching is one of Satan's main weapons against the church, and we see that tactic in the river of lies that he brought into the early church, as symbolized by the flood of water out of his mouth in Revelation 12:15. Since he couldn't destroy the church from without with persecution, he then began worked at destroying it from within, with worldly temptations and the lust for power and wealth. We see that very thing being warned about in 2 Cor 11:13-15, where Paul talks about Satan's servants masquerading as Apostles of Christ.

2 Cor 11:12-15 (12 But what I am doing I will continue to do, so that I may cut off opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are boasting. 13 For such men are false Apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as Apostles of Christ. 14 No wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their deeds. NASU

Revelation 2:16

Revelation 2:16 "Therefore repent; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth. (NAU)

Thee & Them

In this verse, the church is warned that our Lord would come and fight against them with the sword of his mouth if they don't repent, "See Revelation. 19:15" where we see him with the sword of truth coming out of his mouth, and he is riding out to finish conquering his enemies. That sword is the scriptures or truth that overcomes and destroys false doctrines, "See also Isaiah 11:4".

One question that was brought up by the study, was why does our Lord start to use the word "them" in this church, when he says that he is going to fight against "them"? A very good suggestion is that it's starting to become obvious by this time in history, that in this church period there are two groups in existence who are being addressed. In other words, the church has fallen so far into error by this time, that the unfaithful church has taken control of the church away from those who are faithful. There is one group "thee" who are trying to be faithful to the Lord during the apostasy, and another group "them" that are seeking worldly advantage and power at the expense of the Faithful Church.

We saw that up to this point in time, the messages to the churches had been generally to the Faithful Church. But now the "them class" has come into existence because of all the error that has come into the church. The "them" class is doing what the Lord does not want us to do. He warns them that he is going to come personally and fight against the unfaithful ones with the sword of his mouth, even if the "thee" class could not or would not do it. The sword shows that it was going to be a doctrinal fight of truth against error.

Revelation 2:17

Revelation 2:17 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, to him I will give {some} of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and a new name written on the stone which no one knows but he who receives it.' (NAU)

Hidden Manna

The blessing that was promised here, was that the faithful ones who would overcome, would get to eat of the hidden manna. The hidden manna was the manna that was placed in the ark of the testimony which was to last for all generations. The hidden manna would seem to symbolize the immortality that we are to receive on the other side of the veil, because the manna that was placed in the ark was to be kept for all generations, and because of that it's assumed that it did not decay, picturing immortality.

Exod 16:32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. (KJV)

This manna also leads to life in the sense that as we partake of the divine truths represented in this spiritual food, we are begotten to a new life as new creatures. Eventually, if we are faithful in developing our new mind, we will be raised to be with our Lord Jesus, and just as he has received immortality so will we. Just as God fed the Israelites with manna in the wilderness, our Lord Jesus was going to do that again, in the sense that the church would have access to the hidden truth or spiritual food.

Manna was the daily food for the Israelites in the desert, “Exod 16:31, Psa 78:24”, and it also alludes to the heavenly food that is from Christ, “John 6:57-58”. The faithful church was to receive spiritual manna during the 1260 years of desert, just as the Israelites had received manna for food in their time, Rev 12:14. The good food from our Lord, contrasts with the food offered to idols that the church was being exposed to by this time in history. If Satan had been successful in getting completely rid of the Bible, the Faithful Church would not have had any spiritual food to live and grow with, and all the new creatures would have perished.

The mass was not fully developed yet, but this church was already developing the idea that they could get immortality by partaking of the symbols of bread and wine., By pointing out to them that only he has the manna, our Lord is telling them that they can only get the hidden manna of life from him, and not from the false church system and their false doctrines.

White Stone

There are several possibilities that we see regarding what the white stone could represent. Regardless of which one is correct, it’s obvious that the white stone gives approval or great benefits to the one that has it.

Regarding the white stone, we see that it could be referring to the custom that existed in the ancient time of dividing a stone in half and the two parties each taking half of the stone. The two halves would render to the ones carrying each half, aid or shelter if they had the half that matched the other. In that sense, it would be signifying the unity that will exist between Jesus and the church. That we have the matching white stone that he gives to us, would show that we belong to him.

A second thought is that it could be a vote of approval or disapproval, such as we find in Acts 26:10, where Paul is telling about how he had persecuted the saints in Jerusalem, and he gave his voice against them. The word “voice” is Strong’s word # 5586 that means: a pebble or a ticket of admission or a vote. The religious officials of the time had two stones, a white one for a not guilty vote, and a black one for a guilty vote. The white stone would represent that we are not guilty in our Lord’s sight. The ones in Isaiah 65:15 that received the new name, are the innocent, and the others were found guilty. Isa 65:15 (15 "You will leave your name for a curse to My chosen ones, And the Lord God will slay you. But My servants will be called by another name. NASU

Related to that is the ancient Roman custom of awarding white stones to the victors of athletic games. The winner of a contest was awarded a white stone with his name inscribed on it. The stone could also have our Lord Jesus’ name on it. In Roman times, that stone would serve as a “ticket” to a special awards banquet. According to that view, Jesus promises the overcomers who are the 144,000, entrance to heaven and they will be those who will rule with the Lord in the next age.

Another thought regarding the stone and the name written on it, is that it could refer to the special knowledge of Christ and God that the faithful believer receives. In that interpretation, the name on the stone would be Christ’s name. Those who have the 666 stamped on their forehead are not able to understand the deep things of God, and for that reason they don’t truly know his name, even though they mouth it as if they do know him. The true child of God knows what God and Christ have accomplished, and they want to spread the good news about what is really happening. Unfortunately, we are usually not able to tell the others. They don’t believe the good news because they are trapped in Satan’s lies. That will change in the next age, when all will know the Heavenly Father and our Lord Jesus.

The New Name

A thought regarding the new name being given, is that it's unique to the one receiving it, and he only receives it because of his faithfulness. Ones like Abraham, Sarah, and Jacob, had their names changed when they were faithful, and so it may be the same with the church. The name that was written on the stone that no one else could know, would guarantee that no one else could enter falsely into heaven, since the meaning of that name would be only known to the Lord and to the one receiving it. No one will be able to enter by any other way than by Christ. This would be a name that probably reflects some characterization of the one receiving it, such as what was given to the Apostles. The New Creature does not have the same name as the old creature, because we will have left that behind, and the New Creature will have a totally different mind than the old.

The name that Jesus has written on him in Rev 19:12, is most likely the same name that we see mentioned in Exod 23:21 and Judg 13:18. The angel of the Lord in Exodus was most likely Michael, who was Christ in his pre-crucifixion role, and he still has God's name now showing that he is acting with God's authority in judgment and punishment.

The New Names Written Identify Us with God's Kingdom

The same is true of the Lord Jesus' name, in that if he writes his name on you, that will give you the authority to judge and act with the authority of his name in the next age. That the names are secret, shows that no one will be able to counterfeit the secret names given by God or Jesus, but they will have to earn their name. The apostate church and state system has claimed that they have our Lord's name and that they are doing his will, but they do not have his true name, and they have a counterfeit name that will not be recognized. Exod 23:21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. (KJV)

Judg 13:18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret? (KJV)

Isa 9:6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (KJV)

*Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

The word "new" used here does not actually mean "new" in the sense of entirely new, but it means "new" as in the sense of "freshness" 2537 kainos (kahee-nos'); of uncertain affinity; new (especially in freshness; while 3501 is properly so with respect to age: KJV-- new. That might imply that the name is not entirely new, but that it receives a new significance because of the one having proved faithful. That would be like those who in the world are not famous for anything, but later gain fame. Their names then take on a new significance which they didn't have before.

Everyone who faithfully holds fast the profession of Christ's name, shall receive the right to use his new name in the kingdom. Isaiah also tells us that God would give his people a new name.

Isa 62:2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

It's interesting to see that Sarai, Abram, and Jacob, were all given a new name by God to denote a change from their old life to a new life, especially after each one received a new revelation from God, "Gen 17:5, 15, 32:28". The change in name will be similar for the church, in that it signifies a new relationship with God and Christ in which the faithful church will have special privileges that will never end.

Parallel with Israel's History

If we look at the history of this church period in relationship to the history of Israel, we find that this church most closely resembled the area where the Israelites rejected the judges that had been put over them, which was when they wanted a king. God chose to let that happen, but he warned them that wanting a king was going to be a serious problem for them in the future, "1 Sam 8:7-22". The church was not to have become involved in worldly politics, but in the third church they did become involved because of Papacy having acquired the Papal States. That union of church and state led to oppression of the Faithful Church by the apostate system, as well as state-sanctioned false doctrines and blasphemy against God. The kings of Israel did the same thing as spiritual Israel, in that they allowed idolatry, which God is against. We will see an even further application of the parallel between the two histories in the next church, where church and state reached its peak of power.

Some Heresies that Came in During the Third Church

- 6) Priests began to dress differently from the laity in 500AD
- 7) The doctrine of Purgatory was first established by Gregory the Great about the year 593AD
- 8) Pope Gregory I. also imposed the Latin language as the language of prayer and worship in churches in the year 600 after Christ. (The Word of God forbids praying and teaching in an unknown tongue. [Read 1 Cor. 14: 9]) 600AD
- 9) The Bible teaches that we pray to God alone. In the primitive church never were prayers directed to Mary or to dead saints. This practice began in the Roman Church about 600 years after Christ. (Read Matt. 11: 28, Luke 1: 46, Acts 10: 25-26, 14:14-18) 600AD
- 10) The Papacy is of Pagan origin. The title of Pope, or universal Bishop was first given to the Bishop of Rome by the wicked Emperor of Phocas in the year 610AD. This he did to spite Bishop Ciracus of Constantinople, who had justly excommunicated him for his having caused the assassination of his predecessor Emperor Mauritius. Gregory I, then Bishop of Rome refused the title, but his successor, Boniface III, first assumed the title of Pope. Jesus did not appoint Peter to the headship of the Apostles and expressly did forbid any such notion. [Read Luke 22: 24-26, Eph. 1: 22-23, Col 1: 18, I Cor. 3: 11] 610AD
- 11) The kissing of the Pope's feet began in the year 709. It had been a Pagan custom to kiss the feet of Emperors. The Word of God forbids such practices. (Read Acts 10: 25-26, Revelation. 19: 10, Revelation. 22: 9) 709AD
- 12) The Temporal power of the Popes began in the year 750. When Pepin the usurper of the throne of France descended into Italy, he was called by Pope Stephen II to war against the Italian Long bards. He defeated them and gave the city of Rome and surrounding territory to the Pope. Jesus expressly forbade such a thing and He himself refused worldly kingship. (Read Matt. 4: 8-9, Matt. 20: 25-26, John 18: 38) 750AD
- 13) Worship of the cross, of Images and relics was authorized in 788. (This was by order of dowager Empress Irene of Constantinople, who first caused to pluck the eyes of her own son Constantine VI, and then called a Church Council at the request of Hadrian I, Pope of Rome at that time. Such practice is called simply IDOLATRY in the Bible, and is severely condemned. [Read Exodus 20: 4-14, Deuteronomy 27: 15, Psalm 115]) 788AD

History of Papacy

Creating New Western Empire & Emperor

Since the following history was a key moment in the downfall of the church, we have included it here at the beginning of this church, which is where it occurred in history.

The initial messenger to this church, is most likely one of the two church officials who resisted the Papal takeover of the city of Rome and civil power. The one who was a Bishop appears to be the one that led the fight against the Pope, and so he is most likely the messenger. The following history gives what happened with those two church officials and their resistance against the Pope.

Papal Scheming #1

To get a good understanding of this, we need to remember that “the donation of Pepin” occurred in 754 BC. The Pope was supporting Pepin against the Byzantine Empire regarding the ownership of some territory that he was conquering. The Pope gave Pepin the title of “Patrician of the Romans”, which made the Western King of the Franks the protector of the Romans, instead of the Eastern Byzantine Empire. For that title that gave him power, Pepin gave some of the territories that they had just conquered to the Pope. The keys to the cities that Pepin collected in 756AD when he was given even more land, were deposited on the grave of St Peter, which means that they then belonged to the Papacy. That land was part of what became the Papal States.

Papal Scheming #2

The previous Pope before Pope Leo was Pope Hadrian. The false document called “the donation of Constantine”, may have been around for some time, but it had not been used up to that time. Sir Isaac Newton--Observations Upon the Prophecies of Daniel and the Apocalypse of St. John “What may perhaps be the earliest known allusion to the Donation is in a letter of 778, in which Pope Hadrian I exhorts Charlemagne, whose father, Pepin the Younger, had initiated the sovereignty of the Popes over the Papal States, to follow Constantine’s example and endow the Roman church.” It appears that Charlemagne went along with that request, which partially explains what happened next when Pope Adrian died.

Papal Scheming #3

When Pope Adrian died, Pope Leo the third was elected on the same day of his death, which is not a normal practice, and which shows that there was a conspiracy to elect him Pope. It is hard to come up with any history on why he was picked, because he normally would not have been selected. Some of the previous Popes relatives would normally have been selected, and that is the reason that the Catholic historians claim there was extreme trouble over Leo's appointment afterward. Reading between the lines, and looking at what had happened previously and what Leo did right away, it appears that he was selected because he was willing to give Constantine control over Rome, against the wishes of the Roman nobles. In return, he expected Constantine to support him in a joint rulership over the city of Rome, and the surrounding territory. Don't forget that the previous Pope had been given the donation of Pepin not too long before that time, and he had already presented the false document of the Donation of Constantine to Charlemagne, claiming the right to a lot more land in the Western Empire. This was mentioned by Sir Isaac Newton in the quote above, who recognized this as being an important event leading to the eventual control of the Pope over the Western Empire. The quote from Newton then continues from the point that Pope Leo is elected.

Sir Isaac Newton--Observations Upon the Prophecies of Daniel and the Apocalypse of St. John

*"In the year 796, /Leo/ III being made Pope, notified his election to /Charles/ the great by his Legates [Sigon. de Regno Ital. AD Ann. 796.], sending to him for a present, the golden keys of the Confession of /Peter/, and the Banner of the city of /Rome/: the first as an acknowledgment of the Pope's holding the cities of the Exarchate and /Lombardy/ by the grant of /Charles/; the other as a signification that /Charles/ should come and subdue the Senate and people of /Rome/, as he had done the Exarchate and the [*81*] kingdom of the /Lombards/. For the Pope at the same time desired /Charles/ to send some of his Princes to /Rome/, who might subject the /Roman/ people to him, and bind them by oath /in fide & subjectione/, in fealty and subjection, ^^iii"

Since the people of Rome or at least the nobles who were the current rulers, did not want to be subjected to the Pope, that caused considerable trouble. The history as to why there was trouble has been deliberately clouded by the Papal historians, and if you look this up, they say that there was trouble because of jealousy by the previous Popes relatives. Because of that most historical sources don't say anything about the trouble being because of Papacy trying to get Constantine to take control over the civil government of Rome in support of the Pope. But if you look and search long enough, you can find that the trouble was because of the Papal attempt to subject the Roman nobles to the Papal rulership, and Papacy was also trying to establish his control over the city and the surrounding territory.

The city of Rome should have been subject to the Emperor of the Eastern Empire. Both Pepin and Charlemagne were involved in taking control of territory in the Western part of the Empire, and Pepin was given justification for the land he took control of by Pope Adrian, and that is why he awarded part of that land to the Pope. Charlemagne was being encouraged to do the same thing by Pope Leo, tempting him with a joint rulership of Rome and the surrounding territory.

The trouble at that time, is usually blamed by the Catholic historians on two individuals who were relatives of the previous Pope. They were Paschalis and Bishop Campulus. It's not clear what office Paschalis was, but he was a high official also. They had issued corruption charges against Pope Leo, and if you read the Catholic historians on this, they only know that he was accused of Simony, which was the buying or selling of ecclesiastical privileges, for example pardons or benefices and immoral conduct. It took a lot of looking, but we finally found that what the trouble was all about, was the attempt by the Pope to give Constantine control over the civil power of Rome, so that he would support the Pope in his rulership over the territory. The trouble came to a head in 799AD when the Pope was attacked by a mob of individuals and it is claimed that they tried to cut out his tongue and eyes so that he could no longer be Pope.

Again, if you look at the Catholic historians, they say that Paschalis and Campulus were involved in the plot, which is what most others quote from the Catholic historians. There are a few other sources that say that they were not involved in the plot, and that they carried him to St Peter's church where he was supposed by the Catholic historians to have his eyes and tongue miraculously healed. Sir Isaac Newton's history on this does not say anything about the attempt to cut out his eyes and tongue, and so we suspect that it never happened, or if it did they weren't involved. The two church officials wrote a letter to Charlemagne, expecting their several charges against the Pope to be heard, some of which were the Simony and immoral charges. We believe that the attempt by the Pope to establish himself as the regional ruler over Rome and the surrounding territory, was also a part of the problem, because that is why he wanted Charlemagne to come and support him against those who didn't want him in control.

We are not sure what the word "palHum" is supposed to be, but looking at the context it seems clear that it means the right for him to be a ruler over the city and the surrounding territory.

"In the Lateran palace Leo built a triclinium, or dining hall, which he adorned with mosaics; Christ giving the keys to Silvester, the labarum to Constantine; St. Peter bestowing on Leo the palHum, and on Charlemagne the royal banner. Rome had two sovereigns, it would appear. But the Romans obeyed neither, except when they had no choice".

Unfortunately, Pope Leo fled to the protection of Charlemagne, and invoked the agreement between him and the Pope for protection. Charlemagne sent an army back and arrested the two church officials and a large number of supposed co-conspirators. The quote below is from Sir Isaac Newton again.

*"For two of the Clergy accused him of crimes, and the /Romans/ with an armed force, seized him, stripped him of his sacerdotal habit, and imprisoned him in a monastery. But by assistance of his friends he made his escape, and fled into /Germany/ to /Charles/ the great, to whom he complained of the /Romans/ for acting against him out of a design to throw off all authority of the Church, and to recover their ancient freedom. In his absence his accusers [*82*] with their forces ravaged the possessions of the Church, and sent the accusations to /Charles/; who before the end of the year sent the Pope back to /Rome/ with a large retinue. "*

Papal Scheming #4

In 799-800AD, Charlemagne came to Rome and instead of there being a trial or hearing of the evidence, the Pope was allowed to swear an oath that he was innocent. It was believed at that time, that the Pope could not be judged, and so he got away with what he had been charged with. That was accepted as being all that was needed, and the two church officials were not allowed to speak or tell their side of the issue. The 300 co-conspirators were executed by beheading, and the two church officials were banished to France.

Two days later the Pope crowned Charlemagne, and the 1000-year reign had begun. Jezebel and Ahab had joined forces and began their evil reign together. It seems clear that Bishop Campulus was definitely resisting the Pope acquiring civil power, because once they were out of the way, the crowning of Charlemagne occurred only two days later. Here is the quote from Sir Isaac Newton again. As Sir Isaac Newton observed, the Western Roman Empire had not existed for 324 years, and now it had sprung into existence again. This is a key point in history to remember, because it will become important in understanding both Chapter 13 and 17 of Revelation.

Two days later Christmas brought the people together again. Mass had been chanted, and the King lay *prostrate before St. Peter's shrine, when, at a given signal, the Pope, his suppliant of yesterday, took a diadem from the altar and set it on his brows, the choir breaking forth in acclamation : " To Charles the Augustus, crowned by God, great and pacific Emperor of the Romans, long life and victory ! " His " lauds " followed, as in the triumphs of old; he was already anointed, but on the head of his youthful son and namesake the holy oil was now poured; the Empire of the West had come to life in a Prankish chieftain, after an abeyance of three hundred and twenty-four years.

Sweet Perfume of Sacrifice

The fourth church is called Thyatira, and its name means: "sweet perfume of sacrifice". Thyatira was famous for the manufacturers of purple dye which only the rich and royalty wore. That dye also fits this time of the church, because this church was during the height of Papal power in which they thought that they were absolute rulers of everything. It's interesting to see that the woman that is riding on the beast in Revelation 17:3-4, is clothed in purple. That will be important later, when we consider who that woman is, and the time frame that she existed in, because it will show us that she considered herself to be royalty by that time. Only the rich, government officials and the Roman Emperor were supposed to wear this purple, showing that Papacy eventually claimed that right for himself.

Eyes are Like Flames of Fire

Christ's eyes being like flames of fire, represent that he is all seeing, and that nothing is hidden from his sight. The ability to see all would include being able to see and understand his Fathers plan, as well as watching over his church to see the good or bad that they are doing. That is like Heb. 4:12, where Jesus with the sword of the spirit, can discern the thoughts and intent of the heart. Jesus was to be a refiner of the sons of Levi, and can purify them so that they could offer to the Lord offerings in righteousness (Malachi 3:1-3).

Feet of Brass

In the scriptures, brass symbolizes earthly things, while gold and silver represent heavenly or divine things. For that reason, the brass or copper represented the perfect humanity of Jesus, especially with the brightness seen here, it had to be pure metal. His walk on the earth was as a perfect human, and he was tested as we are, but without fail. That this was bright brass because it had no dross or impurities in it, showed that Christ's human nature and walk was perfect. The description of our Lord with the copper or brass feet signifying human nature, should have been positive proof to this church that they were in error, when they were saying that he was God while on the earth.

The tabernacle has a lot of brass or copper in it such as the Laver in the court and the post sockets, which represented perfect humanity. If you looked into the Laver, you would see a reflection of yourself in the water, which is a symbol for truth. It was literally used for washing, and in a symbolic picture the reflection in the water would show us through God's word what we needed to attain to human perfection. In other words, we can see what is lacking in us by comparing to the Divine standard of his word. Christ was perfect in his walk on the earth, and we are to try to imitate his example and walk as perfectly as possible.

See also Ezek 1:7 where the living creatures had feet of brass.

Revelation 2:19

Revelation 2:19. "I know your deeds, and your love and faith and service and perseverance, and that your deeds of late are greater than at first. (NAU)

Some Good Things About this Church

As bad as the condition of this church is, he still has some good things to say about some. That is not true of the entire church, but only a select few who were trying to remain faithful during the great falling away that was greatly advanced by this time. Those who are faithful here would have needed all the fruits of the spirit, and the armor of God to remain faithful Christians. This church historically paralleled the time of Elijah, who had to flee into the wilderness to avoid being killed by Jezebel and Ahab, who picture the church and state system that came into existence at the start of this church. For proof of that, we will see that exact historical picture represented in the next verse where Jezebel is directly mentioned.

The faithful of this church were even making some improvement, in the sense that they were doing better at the end of this church than they were at the first. Historically that was true, because it was during the height of Papacies power, that internal resistance to the apostasy began to organize. Essentially things got bad enough, that it became obvious to all who had a seeing eye and a hearing ear, that this was the great falling away that had been predicted to come. Once it became obvious, the faithful knew that the Lord wanted them to resist this evil system. There were a few during that time that tried to reverse the downward inclination, but they couldn't accomplish much, because the system had become entrenched in power and didn't want to reform, and that system began to kill all who opposed it in the inquisition. Towards the end of this church, the period of the Renaissance began, which made some small progress in reform and which helped to set the stage for other reformers like Peter Waldo and Wycliffe, who came in the next church period.

Revelation 2:20

Revelation 2:20 “But I have {this} against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and leads My bond-servants astray so that they commit {acts of} immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols. (NAU)

The Bad Things Are Ahab, Jezebel and Elijah having to Flee

In this verse, he mentions the woman Jezebel, who historically was Ahab's Pagan wife during the time that she was trying to kill Elijah, “1 Kings 19: all, also 1 Kings 21:25”. Jezebel brought idolatry into Israel, and she urged Ahab on with evil intent, “1 King 21:25-26”. Jezebel protected the priests of Baal during that evil time, while trying to kill off God's servants, like Elijah.

That we see Jezebel pictured here, indicates that Elijah is also symbolically in this picture. Elijah symbolizes the persecuted church of the 1260-year period of power by the Papacy. That some in the church are being criticized by the Lord, indicates that some who knew better, were compromising with the apostate church rather than directly fighting against it. They either feared persecution, or they didn't want to give up any advantages that they had from the corrupt church.

Elijah Picture of Church During 1260 Years

The 3.5 years of drought which historically happened during the time of Elijah, is a good picture of the 3.5 x 360 or 1260 years of Papal power. The 3.5 years of Elijah the prophet, pictures the plight of the Faithful Church during the dark time of spiritual drought, which occurred in the severe persecution of the church from 539 to 1799AD. During this church period, which was theoretically from 793.75 to 1153.75AD, Papacy had fully gained control of the civil power, and the evil system was attempting to kill or silence all who didn't agree with it before the end of this church. The fourth church period began just before the point in time that Charlemagne was crowned by the Pope. Our Lord tells us in this church period, that he had given them a space, "Chronos 360" to repent of their fornication, and since they would not, he was going to cast them into a "bed of affliction", and a great tribulation. That 360 was counted from the start of this church period, and so we would arrive at the end of the 360 at the close of this church in the year 1153.75AD. By that time Papacy had gotten quite a bit of control over the kings, but that time was also when the early reformers began to preach against that system in earnest. Because of their witnessing, Papacy began to persecute and systematically kill through the inquisition in 1184 all those who opposed the evil system by the end of this church and into the next.

Ahab

Ahab pictures the civil power that had become allied with Jezebel, who symbolizes Papacy. Ahab was guilty of doing whatever Jezebel wanted, including using the power of the civil government to kill the faithful prophets. Just as the faithful prophets were persecuted or killed by the civil power when they tried to reform the system in the time of Elijah, the same thing was happening during this period of the church to the faithful of the church.

Jezebel

Jezebel is a good picture of the fallen and corrupt church that had accepted Pagan doctrines into the Faithful Church. In the type, Jezebel had brought in the priests of Baal, which in symbolism represented Paganism, and she was attempting to kill off the faithful priests of God, but Obadiah "1Kings 18:4" had hidden them in a cave to protect them. That is an excellent picture of how the Faithful Church was hidden and protected by God during that dark and evil time. Jezebel's or Papacies false teaching was bringing spiritual death to those of the church who were being led astray. We will see later in the book of Revelation, that Jezebel is also pictured again through the symbolism of the woman riding the beast in Revelation Chapter 17.

Illegal Church and State

Fornication in Revelation, symbolically refers to the illegal union of church and state that had come into existence by the time of the fourth church. Jezebel who symbolized Papacy, was teaching Christ's servants to sacrifice things to idols, just as the original Jezebel did during the time of natural Israel. That in symbol is referring to the false doctrines and practices that existed in the fallen church and state system, that they forced all to participate in. The doctrine of the mass, which established the false doctrine of transubstantiation, is a good example of a daily and even hourly Pagan type of sacrifice, which is still being practiced by this church today. The churches all had an altar at which they sacrificed Christ anew, every hour on the hour. The statues that appeared in the churches during this time, are the same thing as the idols that people used to bow down to.

Revelation 2:21

Revelation 2:21 "I gave her time to repent, and she does not want to repent of her immorality. (NAU)

Time of 360 Years?

The word used for time or space here is Chronos. That is not the word that is used in time, time, and half a time, but it's interesting that from the start of this church until Jesus began to punish them with the first woe trumpet was 360 years. So, we are not sure if that is what is meant or not. There is some thought that Chronos can represent 360 if it is not talking about the 3.5 times, which uses the other word kairos. It could be that the amount of time he gave them to repent started to be counted much earlier, but because it is mentioning Jezebel in this church period, we suspect that our Lord is looking at the start of the Papal grab for power in 799AD, where the symbol of immorality became a reality before the next 360 years finished.

The beginning of this fourth church period was when Papacy established the church and state system, by crowning Charlemagne. If Papacy did not repent, our Lord was saying that he would not put up with the situation any longer after the time of the fourth church. Just as he had done with apostate Israel in the Old Testament, he had given them a chance to repent, and historically we see that they didn't take advantage of it. Our Lord is going to warn Papacy, about three different times of punishment, in the next two verses. The punishment that will be coming, will correspond to the Renaissance, the Reformation, and the Harvest at the end of the age. Those church periods are also the time of the three woe trumpets.

Revelation 2:22-23

Revelation 2:22 "Behold, I will throw her on a bed {of sickness}, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds. Revelation 2:23 "And I will kill her children with pestilence, and all the churches will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts; and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. (NAU)

A Literal Punishment?

There may be a literal aspect to these three punishments, that may have occurred right away during this church or right after the fourth church and during the fifth. In the first punishment, the bed of sickness would be the same in both interpretations, excepting that one would affect the civil society, and the other one would affect the Ecclesiastical system. The casting of those who commit adultery with her into tribulation, could be the Islamic battles that occurred about this time, resulting in much death and loss of wealth and territory. The killing of her children with death, could be the bubonic plague that killed a large percent of those in Europe.

But even if that literal aspect is correct, the study group felt that the more symbolic application is the more important, because that one affected her in an Ecclesiastical manner, where the literal application we just mentioned affected only the civil side of things. Jezebel is the one mentioned here as being at fault, and so that makes her the most important part of the church and state system that was going to be punished. Ahab picturing the civil power, is only understood from the Old Testament here and not mentioned.

The following examples are the Ecclesiastical interpretation.

Beds of Sickness in Fifth Church

When were beds of affliction, tribulation, and death of her children going to be coming against Jezebel? The consensus in the Study Group was that there was not any momentous tribulation that occurred either on the apostate church or on the civil power at the time of the fourth church. The first historical tribulation against the church-state system didn't occur until the time of the fifth church, which began with the Renaissance. We believe that the Lord is warning Jezebel, that the scriptural warning given in these two verses, is pointing forward to a series of future troubles upon the fifth, sixth and the seventh churches. That this didn't occur until the fifth church, makes sense because our Lord had given them a time or space to get them to repent and they had not. The coming trouble and punishment was going to be upon the ones affiliated with Jezebel, the fallen church that was refusing to repent. This doctrinal trouble continued onward into the sixth church, and that is why the Locusts in the fifth trumpet got much bigger and more troublesome to Papacy in the sixth trumpet.

That this was not going to be long in coming, is implied in the Greek language used here. We suggest that the illness in verse 22, was the doctrinal controversy that was brought to them by the early reformers in the very beginning of the next church. Those would have been Waldo and the Wycliffe, and they were allowed to torment Papacy. There were also many more Pagan ideas brought into the church by those who were returning from the crusades, and those were a plague to that evil system at the same time. Those returning from the crusades, brought back many more perverted doctrines, which were just as bad or worse than what she was already afflicted with.

I will throw her on a sickbed: The Greek text says only "I throw her on a bed," but this is obviously a punishment in the form of an illness; REB translates "a bed of pain." The Greek present tense of the verb "to throw" indicates that this will happen soon. It may be better to translate "I will punish her with an illness" or "I will make her sick."

(from the UBS Handbook Series. Copyright (c) 1961-1997, by United Bible Societies)

“Beds” in the Old Testament Bible, can also point to unholy alliances such as what we find in church and state. They also seem to represent doctrinal positions that become uncomfortable because of the error that they represent. The reference regarding the bed in Isa Chapter 28, seems to be the one that fits what the Lord was going to do to Jezebel or the Papal system.

Isa 57:8-9)8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou loves their bed where thou sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell. (KJV)

Ezek 23:17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them. (KJV)

*Isa 28:20-21) 20 The bed is too short on which to stretch out, and the blanket is too small to wrap oneself in.
21 For the LORD will rise-up as {at} Mount Perazim, He will be stirred up as in the valley of Gibeon, to do His task, His unusual task, and to work His work, His extraordinary work. (NAU)*

Tribulation Upon The Adulterers in Sixth Church

The spiritual fulfillment of the punishment or “tribulation” in Rev 2:22, that came upon them after the doctrinal illness, seems to fit very well with the Reformation, which began in the sixth church. The second punishment our Lord had mentioned, points to the Reformation, which caused the apostate church to split up into two parts, Catholic and Protestant, with the Protestant part further divided into several different churches, all with different ideas and doctrines. That this tribulation was also to come upon those who committed adultery with Papacy, points to the separation of church and state that came upon Papacy in 1799AD. The kings who belonged to the church and state system, were the ones who had been committing adultery with Papacy. That this punishment was to be upon those who committed adultery with her, did occur during after the French Revolution, which was when the kings of Christendom were separated from Papacy.

Killing of the Children In the Seventh Church

There was an application of this death which occurred literally at the time of the black plagues. But the greater fulfillment of this occurred during the 1878AD judgment, where the Lord spewed out the nominal house, as described in the next paragraph.

The killing of her children with death, or “pestilence”, in the spiritual sense could not have occurred until after 1878AD, which was at the end of the 1845-year judgment parallel. If we are looking for a literal and worldly historical time that “all” of the Papal children were killed, there are none, and so the greater fulfillment of this must be the symbolic killing of her spiritual children. The judgment that fell upon that evil system in 1878AD, caused those who had not been faithful to be rejected by the end of the 40-year harvest that occurred at that time. For more information on that judgment and why we feel it occurred at that time, see the 2nd and 3rd vol. of Studies in the Scriptures. Her “children” were those who had inherited her false doctrines, and who in turn had passed them on to others. Because of that, the judgment and death that came upon them, also included the Protestant offspring. Those who refused to hear the call of the harvest message, would have spiritually lost their chance for a crown at the end of that 40-year period. That would not be the second death, but they would have lost the race and have fallen into the Great Company.

He is speaking to the fourth church in the future tense, regarding these three events, when he says, “I will.” What we are being told is that in the next three churches, the fifth through the seventh, we would find these three events occurring, and history shows that that was exactly what happened in each church. The thought of three future punishments, is proven by the fact that the last three churches were to be the time of “the three woe trumpets”, “Revelation. 8:13”.

Waldo and Wycliffe

To summarize, historically we see that in the fifth church many scriptural truths were brought out by Peter Waldo and by Wycliffe against the fallen church. They pointed out that this system was the anti-Christ and the great falling away that had been predicted. That caused a great deal of doctrinal controversies and opposition from Papacy.

Luther

At the time of the sixth church, we saw the great affliction or tribulation of the Reformation truth brought by Luther against the Catholics. That trouble divided their house and began the process by which their accumulated wealth and power has been gradually removed. The church and state system was also broken up in 1799, when the kings withdrew their support for the fallen church.

Bro. Russell

In the seventh church the children were killed with spiritual death, "1878 -1918AD", and that judgment was an important part of the message that was brought out by the key messenger to the seventh church, who was Pastor Russell. The saints were to come out of Babylon so that they wouldn't partake of her plagues: death, famine and mourning came upon her as it says in Revelation 18:8. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. (KJV)

The death that her children were killed with, was the judgment that our Lord brought in 1878AD. All who had been and who were still supportive of that apostate church system, and who had failed to come out after the harvest time, would have lost any chance for the high calling when they were cast out or spewed out. Revelation 3:16 "So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth. (NAU)

The children that were lost to this system or killed, were not only those who existed in 1914-18AD, but that judgment was retroactive upon all who had done wrong, and who had supported the apostate church system all during the time of its uplifting, as well as the time of its power. The faithful church is now in the process of replacing those who lost out during that judgment, and once that is done the Millennial kingdom will be established with the world. That some were judged and lost their crowns, does not mean that there are no others being selected out of the individuals still in that system, because we see the Lord standing at the door and knocking in the seventh church, calling to those who have a hearing ear and a seeing eye. So even though the Lord is not working directly with that system, he is still knocking and calling out to individuals to let him come in, so that he can sit down and sup with them. That is the same situation as what happened with the Jewish individuals at the First Advent, who could still come into the church even though the Lord was not working with the actual Jewish system itself anymore after 36AD.

Peter Waldo, who gave his message at the beginning of the fifth church, began the process of condemnation that continued onward through the last three churches. The truths that he began to bring out cast the fifth church into a bed of doctrinal controversy. Those truths were passed down to Wycliffe, who further tormented the evil system, to the point that they were so angry they dug up his body and burned his bones after his death. Peter Waldo is therefore important, because he started exposing the Papal corruption, and that led to Wycliffe.

This is also a warning to us, in that if we are doing anything that is not correct or is against scriptural admonition, we can expect to have problems and trials that are intended to turn us from our improper course. If we don't repent of our improper course, the Lord's patience will eventually be exhausted, and we will lose our chance for the high calling.

Revelation 2:24

Revelation 2:24 "But I say to you, the rest who are in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not known the deep things of Satan, as they call them-- I place no other burden on you. (NAU)

Those Who Don't Hold the Deep Things of Satan

The deep things of Satan that are being referred to in this church, points us back to the symbolic Jezebel mentioned in verse 20. In the historical time of Israel, she was seducing Israel to practice Pagan rites, and thus she is a good picture of the apostate church which brought in many false Pagan doctrines, which were the deep things of Satan. Many of the false doctrines that came into the church, came from actual Pagan rites and practices. People were forced to come into the church when Christianity was made the official religion of the Roman Empire, and they brought their Pagan practices with them.

The “depths of Satan” are the false doctrines that Satan substituted for the truth of God. If anyone would question any of the terrible doctrines of hell fire and eternal damnation etc., they were told that those were the deep things of God, and that they were not supposed to be able to understand them. A true child of God would especially question doctrines that blaspheme God’s character, no matter what the evil system said, and realize that these terrible doctrines were from the deep things of Satan. If the individual persisted in resisting those false doctrines, they were tried for heresy, convicted and then killed.

From this verse, it's obvious that Satan was behind and was directing and assisting the corruption that came upon the early church. We find that mentioned, and shown in symbol later in Revelation, “12:9, 13-17, and 13:4”. Satan has been spending all his efforts to defeat the church, because he knows that when the church is complete, he will be completely bound and locked up until the end of the 1000 years.

Revelation 2:25 "Nevertheless what you have, hold fast until I come. (NAU)

It's good admonition when you are living amid corruption, that you need to guard very carefully yourself from being overcome or from supporting the corruption, “1 Tim 4:1-8,16”. They were to hold on to what truth they still had, and not to give in further to the fallen church system. If they did that, and they continued to hold fast to the end of their walk, they would get the reward in the next verse.

Revelation 2:26-27

Revelation 2:26-27) 26 "He who overcomes, and he who keeps My deeds until the end, TO HIM I WILL GIVE AUTHORITY OVER THE NATIONS;
27 AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON, AS THE VESSELS OF THE POTTER ARE BROKEN TO PIECES, as I also have received {authority} from My Father; (NAU)

The Rod of Iron Shared with Faithful

The fallen church that existed during this period, was falsely claiming that they had the power of that rod already, but what they claimed they had, was a counterfeit rod of iron that was from Satan. That was the terrible abuse, and murders that the church heaped upon its members.

In the promise to the faithful church, the members are in a race to win the privilege of the real rod of iron, which is the right to rule over the nations in the Millennial kingdom. The purpose of that rule is to help the world of mankind back to full health, and to help them to regain the perfection which was lost in the fall, but that privilege is won only if we are faithful during this age. The rod of iron is the same rod that we find that the Lord Jesus has, as we are shown in Psalms 2:9, and the church will share in the power of that rod, but only if they are faithful. The nations that resist the coming in of the kingdom, will be broken in pieces, and forced to comply with the rules of the kingdom, “Daniel 2:34, 44”. If we look at some of the words used in Ps 2, where the rod of iron is mentioned, we find that force will be used to subdue the nations and to bring in the new order.

In Ps 2:9, the words “break them” means: 7489 ra` a` (raw-ah'); a primitive root; properly, to spoil (literally, by breaking to pieces); figuratively, to make (or be) good for nothing, i.e. bad (physically, socially or morally):

KJV-- afflict, associate selves [by mistake for 7462], break (down, in pieces), + displease, (be, bring, do) evil (doer, entreat, man), showself friendly [by mistake for 7462], do harm, (do) hurt, (behaveself, deal) ill, X indeed, do mischief, punish, still, vex, (do) wicked (doer, -ly), be (deal, do) worse.

In Ps 2:9, “dash them in pieces” means: 5310 naphats (naw-fats'); a primitive root; to dash to pieces, or scatter: KJV-- be beaten in sunder, break (in pieces), broken, dash (in pieces), cause to be discharged, dispersed, be overspread, scatter.

The new administration will not be cruel in how the kingdom is administered, but it will still apply the rod of iron with enough force to compel the nations to learn righteousness. The rod of iron refers to the skillful disciplining of the nations to get them to yield to God’s will. It appears that the rulers of the present evil world, will not want to give up their control of the world willingly to the new administration. Unless they submit to the new king, they will be shattered and deposed.

Just as the apostate church system had falsely claimed the right to rule over both the world and the Faithful Church during the dark ages with their counterfeit rod of iron, in the next age God will turn the tables on them. The evil church system ruled with a rod of fear, using threats of eternal torment, and if that didn’t work they then used torture and painful deaths. Instead of oppressing everyone in the kingdom, the Faithful Church will use the rod as a blessing and healing power over all, which will include even those who had originally persecuted them. Only those who refuse to reform and to accept the new order of things, will have serious problems and testing at first, and if they persist long enough in trying to do wrong things, they will not make it, Isa 65:20.

Rev 20:4 I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his Image and had not received his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years. NIV

Rev 20:6 Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years. NIV

In the end God always turns the tables on his enemies, and just as they intended to do evil to his people, punishment will come back upon their own head. Revelation 18:6-7) 6 "Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back {to her} double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her.

7 "To the degree that she glorified herself and lived sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and

mourning; for she says in her heart, "I SIT AS A QUEEN AND I AM NOT A WIDOW, and will never see mourning." (NAU)

The Rod of a Shepherd

The word “rule” in verse 27, means “to tend as a shepherd”, which is exactly how the Lord and the glorified church will reign in the next age. God is going to be much gentler in his rule than the apostate church system was with their methods of torture and murder. The margin of some Bibles gives a further reflection on this verse, in that the rod is described as the rod of a shepherd. A shepherd uses his rod or staff to discipline the sheep, and to keep them out of trouble. He doesn't use it to be cruel or to inflict punishment where none is needed!

If one of the sheep is constantly causing trouble with the other sheep, the Lord can use the rod to painfully correct the one in error. During the Millennial age, the false sheep or wolves that refuse the helpful guidance, will be removed or destroyed. The evil church “system” is going to be removed completely and not allowed to come back into power to cause more trouble in the next age. The people that are in that system will be freed from the oppression of that system, and they will then be able to enter up onto the highway of holiness.

Nahum 1:9 Whatever you devise against the LORD, He will make a complete end of it. Distress will not rise-up twice. (NAU)

The works that we are to keep, are for example holding fast to the truth and continuing to preach it. The word also means to work and toil, and that is what we needed to do, no matter how oppressive that system was. The trick is to not do Jezebels works while we were doing the Lord's works.

Revelation 2:28

Revelation 2:28 and I will give him the morning star. (NAU)

The Morning Star

The Faithful Church that lived during that dark time, did get some refreshing truth in the form of the “morning star”. Jesus is the bright morning star as found later in Revelation, and he began to help the church at that time by shining his light onto the faithful through the early reformers like Wycliffe, who is often called the morning star.

Rev 22:16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. (KJV)

See also Numbers 24:17, 2 Peter 1:19, Dan 12:3, Phil 2:15.

In 2 Peter 1:19, we find a different word for “star” than what we find in the Revelation account, but the meaning of the words is essentially the same. The prophetic picture given here is that the Faithful Church would receive truth from our Lord very early in history, before the dawn of the new day, which wasn't due until the seventh church. The morning star in astronomy was Venus, which is a very bright star or planet, which rises very early in the morning. For that reason, it's a very good picture of the renewing of truth that began to come at the end of the fourth church and the beginning of the fifth. The brightness has grown as time has gone on, especially in the sixth church with the Reformation, and then in our time we see the actual sun of the new day dawning. The sun of the seventh day is bringing very bright and strong truth to the church, which is designed to uplift the church and to allow them to see further into God's Plans for salvation.

Prov 4:18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, that shines brighter and brighter until the full

day. (NAS)

Mal 4:1-2 (1 "For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and every evildoer will be chaff; and the day that is coming will set them ablaze," says the LORD of hosts, "so that it will leave them neither root nor branch."

2 "But for you who fear My name the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings; and you will go forth and skip about like calves from the stall. (NAS)

Peter Waldo and Wycliffe Bring Light

This church started to receive a small amount of light from early reformers. This new light was an indication that the darkness of that evil time, while not over yet during this church, was going to be soon passing with the coming of a new day. When the light of the new or seventh day came, it didn't eliminate the light that had been brought before, but added to it. Wycliffe, who belongs to the next or fifth church, is for that reason sometimes called, "the morning star of the Reformation." We think that Jesus, not Wycliffe is the actual morning star, but Wycliffe was used by the Lord and is associated with this symbol, because he was one of the first to be used to bring forth truth again. We don't think that Wycliffe is the initial messenger of the fifth church, but that Peter Waldo was. Wycliffe is associated with the special work of the stinging locusts, and the 150 years that preceded the Reformation as shown in the fifth trumpet.

Conditions in the fourth church had gotten so bad that terrible persecution was coming from the evil church. The few members of the Faithful Church that were left during that church, were being driven into hiding and hounded on all sides, just as Elijah had been. The fifth church was even worse, in that the wrath of Papacy came against the early reformers of that time, with the intent of wiping them all out. That is why in the fifth seal, we will see the souls of those who had been slain under the altar, crying out for vengeance. The Faithful of the Church at that time suffered a great deal of tribulation and yet survived. The apostate church was using its false rod of power on the nations, trying to keep control over them. It was not only a rod of civil power, but it was a rod of superstitious and false doctrines that were used to keep the people in line. This church period is the one that said that there was no salvation besides the Catholic Church, and that if you did not remain in the church you would go to hell. That false doctrine was declared at the fourth Lateran Council, against any who they considered to be heretics.

It's guaranteed by the statement about the rod of iron in verse 27, that the situation will be reversed in the next age, and those who were formerly persecuted will then rule over those who had persecuted them.

Isa 66:5 You people who obey the words of the Lord, listen to what he says: "Your brothers hated you and turned against you because you followed me. Your brothers said, 'Let the Lord be honored so we may see you rejoice,' but they will be punished. NCV

Revelation 2:29

Revelation 2:29 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches." (NAU)

There is an interesting change in the message of the spirit to the churches that begins in this church, and continues all the way through to the seventh church. In the first three churches, we have the admonition "He, who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches", and then there is a promise. Starting in this church the promise is given first and then it closes with "He, who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches". At this point in time we are not sure why, excepting that we know that the church had become fully corrupt by the fourth church period, and perhaps that is reflected in the changed order of how he closes each church.

Fourth Church Parallels Israel's History

This church as we just saw it described, is paralleling the history of Israel during the time in Israel's history when the kings had become very corrupt and that they were allowing idolatry to replace true worship. They were also murdering and killing off God's prophets, so that their error could not be exposed. Historically God promised that Jezebel and Ahab would eventually be disposed of, and we see that historically they and their offspring were violently removed in the type. God again promises here in Revelation to similarly afflict the apostate church system, since they would not reform. He is going to remove the symbolic Jezebel and her offspring completely, leaving none of them a root or branch from which to grow back from. That has partially happened already at this time, but we see that the harlot still exists yet during the seventh church, but with limited power. Eventually, she will be totally gone, just as what happened in the type.

Again, we present a list of heresies that came in, and while we have not checked each reference, it's obvious that the evil church is going from bad to much worse.

- 14) Holy Water, mixed with a pinch of salt and blessed by the priest, was authorized in the year -----
-----850AD
- 15) The veneration of St. Joseph began in the year -----890AD
- 16) The baptism of bells was instituted by Pope John XIV in the year -----965AD
- 17) Canonization of dead saints, first by Pope John XV, in 995. Every believer and follower of Christ is called a saint in the Bible. (Read Rom. 1: 7; I Cor. 1: 2; etc.) -----995AD
- 18) Fasting on Fridays and during Lent was imposed in the year 998. By Popes said to be interested in the commerce of fish. (Bull or permit to eat meat), some authorities say, began in the year 700. This is against the teaching of the Gospel. (Read Matt. 15: 10; Cor. 10: 25; I Tim. 4: 1-3) -----
-----AD 998
- 19) The Mass was developed gradually as a sacrifice, and attendance made obligatory in the 11th Century. The Gospel teaches that the sacrifice of Christ was offered once and for all, and is not to be repeated, but only commemorated in the Lord's Supper. (Read Heb. 7: 7; 9: 26-28; 10: 10-14) -----11th Century
- 20) The celibacy of the priesthood was decreed by Pope Hildebrand, Boniface VII, in the year 1079. Jesus imposed no such rule, nor did any of the Apostles. On the contrary, St. Peter was a married man, and St. Paul says that bishops were to have wife and children. (Read I Tim. 3: 2-5; and 12; Matt. 8: 14-15) -----1079AD
- 21) The Rosary or prayer beads were introduced by Peter the Hermit in the year 1090. This was copied from Hindu's and Mohammedans. The counting of prayers is a Pagan practice and is expressly condemned by Christ. (Read Matt. 6: 5-13) -----1090AD
- 22) The Inquisition of heretics was instituted by the Council of Verona in the year 1184. Jesus never taught the use of force to spread His religion -----1184AD

SARDIS #5
 1153.75AD-1513.75AD

Revelation 3:1

Revelation 3:1 "To the angel of the church in Sardis write: He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars, says this: "I know your deeds, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. (NAU)

Peter Waldo

Peter Waldo is most likely the beginning messenger to this church. Some think Wycliffe was the first messenger to this church, but we believe that he had a different mission than did Waldo. If we consider the thought that the main messenger in each church brought out the first message against the error in the system, Wycliffe would fit with the idea that the messenger that delivers the message for each church could be plural. In other words, he continued and added to the ideas that Waldo had initially brought out. The main message that Waldo seems to have brought out, was that Papacy did not have a God given right to stop him from preaching God's word. He also found that the church of the time was not following the scriptures at all, but they were following doctrines of men. He began exposing the doctrinal darkness of that evil system that we see in the fifth trumpet, and he preached against it. We are not sure if he recognized that Papacy was anti-Christ, but what he taught was handed down to Wycliffe, who did preach that.

Peter Waldo initially tried to reform the church, and he was driven out of the church because the fallen church didn't want to reform. He relied upon the simple truth that he saw in the Bible, and that is why he was so important, because he began to turn the people back to reading the scriptures. To bring the scriptures to the people, he worked hard to get the translation of the Bible into the language of the people. The Waldensians preached a simple understanding of the Bible. They rejected unbiblical practices such as prayers for the dead, and the veneration of relics. They were also criticizing the clergy's reliance on sacraments as the center of the Christian life, and they rejected the doctrines of purgatory and transubstantiation. They called upon all Christians to live lives of goodness and love, which had largely been forgotten by the fallen church. By the time of this church, love had grown very cold, just as our Lord had predicted would happen in Matt 24:12.

The fifth church was called Sardis, "that which remains," as if it signified a useless remnant or something out of which most life or virtue has gone. That name indicates the actual state of affairs in the fifth church, because there was not much left of the original truth that had been supplied by the Lord and the Apostles. Because of that there is not much of value left in this church regarding those who still claimed to be following the Lord. This church doesn't get a commendation because they don't have anything to commend them! The spiritual conditions had gotten really corrupt by this time.

This is Height of Papal Power

Historically the end of the fourth and the beginning of the fifth church, was the height of Papal power. They had a great deal of control over most of the civil power and doctrinal matters. The latter part of this church was where the doctrine of indulgences began, by which many thought that they could do anything wrong and be forgiven, provided they gave a large sum of money to the church. That became a big problem by the time of the sixth church, and that was one of the problems that Luther complained about in his 95 theses.

Sardis Stone is White in Color But Inside is Red

Sardis is a stone that was found in the area of the city of Sardis, which is where it had gotten its name. The stone had a thin outer white color, but the inside of the stone was a deep red or flesh color below the surface. That fits very well with this church, in that from the outside it looked pure or white like the church was supposed to be, but as you cut into it the red or flesh color showed that they were of an earthly nature, not spiritual like they should have been. This kind of stone reminds us of the condition of the Scribes and the Pharisees, when the Lord had called them whitewashed sepulchers. The meaning of the name Sardis fits very well with the situation in the fifth church, since it had become very worldly by that time. The church had acquired a lot of properties, and they thought that they were above God's laws, and that they could do anything and not be punished.

Lord Reminds Them About Seven Spirits and Seven Stars

Our Lord reminded them that he has the seven spirits and the seven stars, and he is also reminding the church that the Holy spirit is in his control, and that it can be used to discipline, as well as to help or instruct through the messengers. He had warned the previous church that punishment was coming and since this is the fifth church, the time of punishment had come. The punishment against the Papal system started with the beginning of this church, and it continued and intensified during the final 150 years of this church with Wycliffe and his followers. The truths that are given to each church don't go away, but they accumulate and remain until the end of the age as evidence against the evil system. The evidence against this apostate system will remain as a testimony unto all ages.

Our Lord is calling attention to the seven spirits, to warn this church that the punishment was already starting, as we will see shown when we get to the three woe trumpets. The reason for this punishment is implied in the Lord's statement about "them", where he tells "them" that even though they claim to be spiritually alive, they were really dead. Just like the Sardis stone representing the name of this church, at first glance they looked good from a distance, but if examined closely, it could be seen that they weren't the Lord's faithful church. They claimed the name of Christ, through whom they could have gotten an actual and fruitful spiritual life if they were following him, but since they had lost sight of the truth of salvation, and they were following Satan's doctrines, they are spiritually dead.

Revelation 3:2

Revelation 3:2 "Wake up, and strengthen the things that remain, which were about to die; for I have not found your deeds completed in the sight of My God.

Early Reformers Are to Wake Up

The truth about what Christ had done for salvation, had almost completely perished from this church by this time. The call here is to any in the fallen church system who can be awakened to repentance, and who would strengthen any others who were willing to listen. While there were not many that listened to this early call to reform, we historically see that there were a few who began to recover the original truth that had been lost.

Peter Waldo is one of the first ones who began the work of trying to strengthen or reform the system. The next one that picked up the work after him was Wycliffe. The symbol of the stinging scorpions found in the fifth trumpet that were not to kill, but who could only torment, was consistent with history in that the apostate church system had many grievous doctrinal challenges during that time, but it didn't lose much of its power. The truth that the Reformers brought out, was intended to punish and correct them, but it wasn't designed to destroy them yet at that time in history. If we see that the punishment of the locusts from Wycliffe, started in 1367AD, which was 150 years before the start of the Reformation, we then find that would agree with the historical time that Wycliffe had for the beginning of his ministry. He did a great deal to strengthen God's truth as was commanded by the Lord to this church, and he helped to bring the Bible back to the people. His efforts eventually led to the Reformation 150 years later in 1517AD, where Luther picked up the truth he had received from the earlier efforts and greatly added to it.

There were several attempts to overthrow the power of the system during this church, but they were not successful because most of the civil power was still supporting Papacy, or they were afraid of the Papal power. Those early attempts resulted in the loss of life for many who made the attempt. It was not until the time of Luther that the efforts to throw off the civil power of Papacy would begin to succeed.

Revelation 3:3

Revelation 3:3 "So remember what you have received and heard; and keep {it}, and repent. Therefore if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you. (NAU)

The trouble that started here that was against Papacy, was not something that the Apostate church had anticipated happening, since they thought that they had everything under their oppressive control, but the Lord had a surprise for them. As we remember from the previous church, our Lord had warned them that if they didn't repent, he was going to cast them into a bed of affliction. The trouble began because of the early doctrinal challenges which were brought against the fallen church by the early reformers.

Remember Where

They were instructed by the Lord, to remember how they had received these things, and we should also bear in mind where the truth that we have had come from. We know that God supplied the church true and correct doctrine from the Bible and the Holy spirit, but the fallen church had forgotten that. Historically this was the church that recognized the value of the Bible again and began to restore its use—Peter Waldo and Wycliffe began to supply the people with key parts of the scriptures again during this church.

The Bibles, which began to be printed in about "1440AD," made God's word available to the people, and that began to turn the people away from the Papal church system. The printing of the scriptures is what led to the Reformation in the next church period, because the people could see that what the mother church was teaching did not agree with what the scriptures were saying. Because of that, a few in this church were beginning to wake up to the words of Isaiah, and so they made a great effort to restore the word of God.

Isa 8:20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, they have no light of

Early in this church, they did not have the entire bible at all times, but key passages were translated and handed out so that the people could see that what the apostate church was teaching was in conflict with the scriptures. That is why the Lord is saying to remember where they had received it; it was time to turn back to the scriptures and to re-discover the things that were revealed to them through the study of God's word.

Like a Thief

They were to repent, but if they didn't he was going to come upon them as a thief. It's not for certain, but we don't think this was referring to the actual presence in 1874AD. It seems more likely that the Lord would be doing some punishing and breaking into the house of the strong man, even before his full official presence in 1874AD. This seems to have started in small measure in the fifth church, but it grew much stronger in the sixth church where the Reformation began. The Lord through the Reformation was breaking into the house of the strong man, and doing a great deal of damage and spoiling of his goods. Once the Reformation accomplished the breaking into the house and the weakening of the power of that system, then our Lord could begin to plunder the house. The plundering was the loss of many of the Papal members to the Protestant movement, and it became especially damaging to them in the harvest of the faithful that occurred in the seventh church.

Matt 12:29 "Or how can anyone enter the strong man's house and carry off his property, unless he first binds the strong {man?} And then he will plunder his house. (NAU)

During this church, the Lord began to come against them and began to break down the power of the fallen church system earlier than the time of the second presence. As we will see later, what happened during the time of the three woe trumpets, was part of what he used to accomplish that. The breaking down of their power was done so that he could begin to separate out the Faithful Church from the unfaithful. That separation from the fallen system began in the fifth church and then as time went on it got more intensified in the sixth church with the Reformation, and by the time of the seventh church it became mandatory in the harvest time.

Revelation 3:4

Revelation 3:4 "But you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their garments; and they will walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. (NAU)

Garments of Faithful Are Kept Clean

Not to defile their garments shows that some were able to keep themselves pure and separate from the false doctrines and other sins in the system at that time. In Revelation 7:14, we see what happened to those who soiled their garments and didn't clean them—they become a part of the Great Company class.

Revelation 7:9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and {all} tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches {were} in their hands; (NAU)

Revelation 7:13-14)13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?"

14 I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. (NAU)

The faithful 144,000 would have spotted their garments from time to time during their walk on the earth, but the difference is that they were always coming to the throne of grace to cleanse them when they made a mistake. When they saw things wrong with the system, they tried to change them or at least to stay away from being a part of the problem. Regrettably the Great Company became comfortable with things the way they were, and didn't try to reform the system or clean up their lives the way they should have.

Revelation 3:5

Revelation 3:5 "He who overcomes will thus be clothed in white garments; and I will not erase his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. (NAU)

White Garments

This statement from our Lord, reminds us of the white wedding garments we need to have on to be a part of the Faithful Church, "Matt 22:11". We need to take care that we don't think we have salvation through our own righteousness or works or even from following any particular church.

Rev 14:4-5 (4 They have kept themselves as pure as virgins, following the Lamb wherever he goes. They have been purchased from among the people on the earth as a special offering to God and to the Lamb. 5 They have told no lies; they are without blame. Holy Bible, New Living Translation ®, copyright © 1996, 2004 by Tyndale Charitable Trust. Used by permission of Tyndale House Publishers. All rights reserved.

It's only through the ransom the Lord provided for us, that we can have any invitation to the wedding of the Lamb. If we take off our wedding garment, we will be cast out of the feast, just like what happened in the parable of the wedding feast. Later in Revelation, we will see those who had proven completely faithful will be clothed in white garments, to show that they have succeeded and are a part of the Lamb's bride.

Revelation 19:7-8) 7 "Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready."

8 It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright {and} clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. (NAU)

The Book of Life

The book of life mentioned here, is the book that is for the faithful church and the salvation they will gain. We believe that there is one book of life for the world, and a different book of life that is for the church, which is the one being talked about here. Alternately, if there is only one book, then there must be two parts to the book, one Chapter for the world, and another Chapter for the church. If we have our name in the Lambs book of life, when we make our calling sure we will have life within ourselves. Then the Lord will not be ashamed to confess our name before God and all the angels in heaven. If our name is erased out of the book, we must be replaced by someone else. Those who are erased out of the book, are the Great Company that we will see in Chapter 7.

For other examples of the book of life, see Psa 69:3, Phil 4:3, Mat 10:32, Luke 12:8-9, Revelation 13:8, 17:8, 20:12, 20:15, 21:27. As early as Exodus 32:32 Moses asks to be blotted out of God's book if God would not forgive the sin of Israel.

Revelation 3:6

Revelation 3:6 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.' (NAU)

None of the churches are exempt from this admonition.

This church period parallels the time that Israel's prophets were preaching to Israel about the coming punishment that was going to happen to them because they had refused to reform. Correspondingly during this church, many began to restore doctrines and truths that had been lost after the time of the early church. Just as the prophets of old had warned of punishments that were coming, the early reformers were doing the same thing during this time. This church corresponds to the time of King Hezekiah's reforms, "2 Kings 18:3-6", where he removed the Idols and false worship from Israel to the best of his ability. Unfortunately, the next kings went right back to idol worship after his death. The same thing was true for the early Reformers and after the Reformation itself, in that many who left the Papal system ceased to reform and fell back into some of the error of the mother church.

The process of printing was invented in this church, and God's true word was being preached through the printing of Bibles and the distribution of them to the people. Just as with the prophets of old like Elijah, Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel, many during this time were persecuted and killed because of the light that they tried to bring out, and we will see that pictured of the many saints slain under the altar of the 5th seal.

Some Heresies that Came in During the Fifth Church

- 23) The sale of Indulgences, commonly regarded as a purchase of forgiveness and a permit to indulge in sin, began in the year 1190. The Christian religion as taught in the Gospel condemns such traffic, and it was the protest against this traffic that brought on the Protestant Reformation in the 16th Century. -----1190AD
- 24) The dogma of Transubstantiation was decreed by Pope Innocent III in the year 1215. By this doctrine the priest pretends to perform a daily miracle by changing a wafer into the body of Christ, and then he pretends to eat Him alive in the presence of His people during Mass. The Gospel condemns such absurdities; for the Holy Communion is simply a memorial of the sacrifice of Christ. The spiritual presence of Christ is implied in the Sacrament. (Read Luke 22: 19-20; John 6: 35; I Cor. 11: 26) -----1215AD
- 25) Confession of sins to the priest as least once a year was instituted by Pope Innocent III in the Lateran Council, in the year 1215. The Gospel commands us to confess our sins direct to God. (Read Psalm 51: 1-10; Luke 7: 48; Luke 15: 21; I John 1: 8-9) -----1215AD
- 26) The adoration of the wafer, (Host), was invented by Pope Honorius in the year 1220. So the Roman Church worships a God made by human hands. This is plain idolatry and absolutely contrary to the spirit of the Gospel. (Read John 4: 24) -----1220AD
- 27) The Bible forbidden to laymen and placed in the Index of forbidden books by the Council of Valencia in 1229. Jesus commanded that the Scriptures should be read by all. (Read John 5: 39; I Tim 3: 15-17) -----1229AD
- 28) The scapular was invented by Simon Stock, an English monk. It is a piece of brown cloth, with the picture of the Virgin and supposed to contain supernatural virtue to protect from all dangers those who wear in on their naked skin. This is fetishism -----1287AD

- 29) The Roman Church forbade the cup to the laity, by instituting the communion of one kind in the Council of Constance. The Gospel commands us to celebrate Holy Communion with bread and wine. (Read Matt. 26: 27; I Cor. 11: 26-29) -----1414AD
- 30) The doctrine of Purgatory was proclaimed as a dogma of faith by the Council of Florence. There is not one word in the Bible that would teach the purgatory of the priest. The blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sins. (Read I John 1: 7-9; I John 2: 1-2; John 5: 24; Romans 8:1) -----1439AD
- 31) The doctrine of the Seven Sacraments was affirmed in 1439. The Gospel says that Christ instituted only two sacraments, Baptism, and the Lord's Supper. (Read Matt. 28:19-20; 26: 26-28) -----1439AD
- 32) The Ave Maria, Addition of part of the last half. It was completed 50 years afterward and finally approved by Pope Sixtus V, at the end of the 16th Century. -----1508AD

PHILADELPHIA # 6

Revelation 3:7-8

Revelation 3:7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: He who is holy, who is true, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says this:

Revelation 3:8 "I know your deeds. Behold, I have put before you an open door which no one can shut, because you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not denied My name. (NAU)

Luther appears to be the best choice for the key or initial messenger to this church. Again, we see that there were many others that followed him that added to the doctrines and continued to reform the churches, so this church is another good example that may indicate that the messengers for each church were more than one or that they had others that supported the original work. In the sixth church, the extra teachers that were concurrent and that came after him, continued the reforming work Luther began. A good example is the Anabaptists who studied the Bible and believed many of the things that we do, like no hell, no Trinity, and they believed in a coming kingdom. We also notice that William Miller and others were active during the latter part of the sixth period of this church, and that their work led directly to the message of the seventh church. So again, we see that others could do more work, even after the initial message had been brought out, because the Miller movement brought out many new truths.

That may be why that even after Luther began the Reformation, we see some bad mistakes that Luther should not have made. Luther later in his ministry persecuted the Jews, because they would not accept his teaching, and he also persecuted the Anabaptists. Perhaps that is a lesson to all of us, that we need to examine all things and hold fast what is good, no matter who we are following. Some have made mention of him being struck by lightning, and that after that was when he began to persecute the Jews. Others say that is only a legend, and that it is not for sure that the lightning strike ever happened.

In support of the thought that Luther was the key or at least the initial messenger to this church, we see that he did bring justification by faith back into the church, and salvation by grace alone, and by belief in Christ as our salvation. Luther recognized that salvation comes from God alone, and that the believer can do nothing for himself, but is dependent upon God for his salvation. He taught that the Catholic Church had lost sight of several tenants of salvation, by substituting its own in their place. The doctrine of salvation by God's grace alone, which is received as a gift through faith and without dependence on human merit, was the measure by which he judged the religious practices and official teachings of the church of his day, and found them greatly wanting. Luther also restored the concept of all members of the church being a part of one body. That concept brought back the idea that all belonged to the priesthood, and that there was not a separation of the church into a priesthood and the laity, as the Catholics had made it. He also believed that God's grace, which is given to the sinner, is not an excuse for sin, but it comforts and helps the sinner who truly wishes to be free of sin. That concept is taken from Romans Chapter 7.

The doctrinal bed of trouble which had plagued the fifth church, in this church period changes to the doctrinal and political tribulation of the Reformation. This church is called Philadelphia, which means brotherly love.

All the titles and symbolic objects in the above opening scripture, were falsely claimed by Papacy, but only Christ could legitimately truly claim those titles. He tells them that he only has those symbols, to let this church know that the Papal claims are false, and that all the titles and the things like the key of David belong to him. The martyrs in Revelation 6:10, called the Lord by the title "Sovereign Lord, holy and true". The Pope and his system were not holy or true, but only the Lord Jesus was holy and true. Papacy falsely claims that they are "the one holy and apostolic church", and they Added that claim on to the end of the Lord's Prayer!

The Key of David

The key of David, is found in the Old Testament, in Isaiah 22:22 "Then I will set the key of the house of David on his shoulder, when he opens no one will shut, when he shuts no one will open. (NAU)

That key was originally the right to rule on the throne of David, over the literal kingdom of Israel. The authority of that key is also symbolically applied to who has the right to rule over the church, as well the people in the Millennial age. Jesus holds and has the right to the key of David, as shown in Isa 22:22, which gives him absolute power and authority over who enters his kingdom, see Revelation 1:18. Eliakim the palace administrator, who is a picture of Christ, was to be in that day robed with authority and given the key to the house of David, "Isa 22:20-22, 36:3". He is the one who decides who will see the king, Jehovah. He supports everything during the time of that key, which is his during the Gospel Age, as well as during the Millennial age. That the peg is eventually broken off in this prophecy, shows that the support and help he gives will only be good until the end of the millennium. By that time, all should have come up to perfection, and should be able to stand on their own in the little season. If they have not reached perfection by that time, then they will fall in the little season.

The throne of David, literally ended at the time of Zedekiah, but the key or the power of that throne didn't end there. That key is directly related to Jehovah's statement in Ezekiel, where we see the right to rule taken away from the king of Israel. The right to rule, was to be in the next age given to the one who's right it is, and the one who won that right is Jesus. He won that right by what he accomplished during his 3.5 years of ministry, and his death on the cross.

Ezek 21:25-27) 25 And thou, O deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day is come, in the time of the iniquity of the end,

26 thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Remove the mitre, and take off the crown; this (shall be) no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high.

27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it (him). (ASV)

Matt 28:18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. KJV

The one who has the right to the key, is our Lord Jesus, who had won the right by his faithfulness in laying down his life at the First Advent. That key now gives him the right to rule and direct the affairs of spiritual Israel all through the Gospel Age. After the literal house of Israel has been grafted back into God's Plan along with the people of the world, he will rule over both in the Millennial age.

Keys have been described as having multiple uses, in that they could be said to be the key to prophecy or the key to knowledge. Luke 11:52 "Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge; you yourselves did not enter, and you hindered those who were entering."(NAU)

The key that was given to Peter, symbolically opened the door to the high calling to the gentiles. Peter himself only had the right to do that because Jesus gave it to him. That key was not given to Papacy, but only to the apostle Peter. Matt 16:19 "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven." (NAU) That key gave Peter the power to establish the doctrinal foundation of the early church—its authority over the church and its doctrine, was not handed down to any of his successors, as the Papacy claims.

Open or Close the Door

The right to open or close the door of salvation, was falsely claimed by the Papal system during Luther's time. The people were being told that unless they stayed with the apostate church, they would not have salvation. They were also being told that they could purchase that salvation through indulgences—which were acquired by paying the church money. Again, Jesus is telling them that only he has the right to open or shut the way to salvation, showing that this church's claims of being able to grant indulgences from God were false. Revelation 1:17-18) 17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. And He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last, 18 and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. (NAU)

Remember Jesus is the way the truth and the life. John 14:6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. (NAU)

In Heb. 10:19-20 we also find that Jesus is the new and living way.

Heb 10:19-20) 19 Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh, (NAU)

Jesus tells this church that he knows their works, and is thus warning them that he knows what is going on in the church, both the good and the bad. That Jesus is seen in Chapter one, walking in the midst of the candlesticks, shows that he was going to exercise a watch and care for the entire church through the entire age. We sometimes think that Christ was not going to do anything with the church until he came at the Second Advent, but Revelation shows that he was going to work with the church through the entire age, and not just at the end. The kind of work that he was doing was going to change at his return, because he was going to come as a king and a judge. The good works that they were being praised for in the sixth church, was the fighting against false doctrines and the beginning of the Reformation that started there. The knowledge of God's salvation and the doctrines that were lost after the time of the early church, were more rapidly being restored in this church through the study of the Bible.

In the period of the Reformation, we see “an open door” that was set before them, as shown in Revelation 3:8. That new door of opportunity, was not going to be shut as many earlier tries had been. This church was again beginning to recover the understanding of how God's salvation worked, and the apostate church was not going to be able to stop the increase of that knowledge anymore by their false claims and persecutions. In the time of Luther, we see the doctrine of grace and the knowledge of what Christ had done for us being restored. That is why Luther was fighting against indulgences, since they were totally out of harmony with the truth of what Christ had accomplished on the cross.

This was also the time that it was possible to flee from the evil system, and move to the new world. We believe that our Lord opened the way to the new world, so that those who were being totally oppressed could escape to there. That opened the way to more freedom and understanding, because of the religious freedom that was found there. That also helped the church to develop and to gain members without the fear of being killed for their beliefs. There was no established church in the new world that had any authority to tell you what you had to believe. As some of the established religions began to move to the new world, and try to persecute and oppress the ones who refused to conform, they could move further west to stay out of the oppressive systems that tried to put them in bondage again.

The Little Power

The “little help” or power that Daniel 11:34 says that they were given, points to a couple of different possibilities, both of which may be correct. The first possibility that could fulfill that little help, was that during this church period the civil power began to support Luther and the other reformers. Previously in the fifth church they had not been helped by any of the kings as much as they would have liked, because the kings were not willing to go to war for them, but now in this church they were ready since they also had severe grievances against Papacy.

The second possibility is that at this time, a great deal of restored truth and knowledge was given to Luther, and he used it to advance the Reformation. The reformers were directly attacking Papal doctrines with the scriptures during this time. By the time of Luther, the Bible had become readily available, and many people were reading it, and it was being elevated up into the spiritual heavens, and it was becoming the standard of truth again. It was recognized, that it was where you needed to go to get an understanding of what God really wants from us, and what he was doing regarding salvation. After Luther’s time, the using of scriptural support for doctrines, became the accepted standard.

As the Study Group discussed the door in the sixth church, and we refined our understanding of it, we concluded that it was a re-opening of the understanding and the way to God’s true salvation. Luther especially brought to light the meaning of grace and justification by faith. Those important aspects of salvation had been lost because of the great falling away.

Doctrine of Indulgences

The stated means by which you could get salvation through the Papal system, was a major doctrinal error that caused the Reformation in the first place, and so it’s fitting that our Lord should mention the true salvation he had provided here. Luther had realized that indulgences were not from God, and he found that it was only by grace that we are saved—not by the payment of money.

The fallen church claimed at that time, that through the use of indulgences, they could grant the right to anyone to get into heaven, no matter what they had done wrong—they just had to pay money to the church. They even claimed the right to bar someone from heaven, if for example that one was resisting the established church and state system, such as the reformers did. The fallen church is being reminded by our Lord, that if any man tries to enter in by any other way than by Jesus, who is the door, he will not be accepted.

John 10:9 "I am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. NASU

It’s interesting that the thing that did the most to start the Reformation, was the nailing on the church door of the 95 theses by Luther, where he promoted justification by faith and was complaining about the indulgences.

A Door of Opportunity

The key that our Lord showed us in verse 7, may also be used to open the door of opportunity that existed in this church. In this situation, it was the true door of the Lord's house, which the apostate church had shut up with their false doctrines and idolatries, just as Jezebel and Ahab had closed the temple in their time during Israel's earlier history. Elijah and Elisha, literally restored the worship of God back in the time of ancient Israel, and because of that they picture the restoration of the true worship of the Lord at the time of the reformers and the Reformation. We should also remember that Josiah the king restored the house of the Lord after it had been neglected for many years. In the restoration process they found the book of the Lord, which was not being used by Israel at that time. The finding of God's word in the temple during the time of Josiah, is parallel to the restoration of the Bible during the fifth and the sixth church, as being the only standard of the truth—the Popes and church councils were not a true source for God's truth, as they had claimed.

This church is commended for having guarded his word and having kept his name. Instead of believing only what the councils or Popes claimed was Gospel, ones like Luther turned back to the scriptures as the only authority. The renewed idea of scriptural authority, eventually led to the forming of Bible societies, and to preachers like William Miller. He believed that you didn't have to be a part of an organization to be saved, or go to a theological school, but that you could preach God's word without being ordained of man. The Bible Students of today have the same opinion.

Revelation 3:9

Revelation 3:9 "Behold, I will cause {those} of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie-- I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and {make them} know that I have loved you. (NAU)

The Synagogue of Satan Will Have to Bow Down to the Faithful in Next Age

This verse is not actually claiming that these are literal Jews. See the notes on Revelation 2:9 in the second church, where a similar statement is made about unfaithful Jews. These false Christians claim they are consecrated in their hearts, and are true followers of Jesus, but our Lord does not recognize them as such. The false spiritual Jews that we see here, are symbolically the unfaithful of the church, that support the evil church and state system. These will not be the ones who reign in the kingdom, but it will be the true church who receives that honor, and those who had falsely claimed that right will have to bow down to the true saints. Rom 2:28-29) 28 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh.

29 But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God. (NAU)

Isa 60:14 "The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you, And all those who despised you will bow themselves at the soles of your feet; And they will call you the city of the Lord, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. NASU

The fig tree is usually used to represent the Jewish nation, and it's interesting to find in the sixth seal, which is the same time as the sixth church, that the false unripe figs are symbolically cast to the earth. In a picture those figs were found to be unfaithful spiritual Jews during the time of Christ, and on this end of the age they are apostate Christians, the false Christian Jews Jesus is talking about—they fall to the earth or are seen to be an earthly class when the winds of trouble blow upon them.

The Assembly of Satan

The term “assembly of Satan”, is found earlier in Revelation. 2:9. Satan is alluded to again in Revelation 2:13, which is the third church, and in Revelation. 2:24 which is the fourth church. The counterfeit and apostate church is not of the Lord, but is the tares that were sown by the enemy Satan in the Parable of the wheat and the tares.

Revelation 2:9 "I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy by those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. (NAU)

Revelation 2:13 "I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells."

Revelation 2:24 "But I say to you, the rest who are in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not known the deep things of Satan, as they call them-- I place no other burden on you. (NAU)

The Faithful Church was and is concerned about the salvation of those who are caught in the fallen church system. The fallen church wanted to get rid of the irritation of the Faithful Church, who has tried to reform them whenever they can. That evil church did that by persecution and by the outright killing of those who disagreed with them. In the end, after all is done, instead of the Faithful Church being cast out in rejection as the evil church system claimed would happen, we will find that the fallen church system must come to them, and worship at their feet to get salvation because they have been cast off instead.

Isa 60:14 "The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you, and all those who despised you will bow themselves at the soles of your feet; and they will call you the city of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel. (NAU)

Isa 66:5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. (KJV)

Only the evil church system will be destroyed, but not the actual people who will be offered the chance to reform in the next age.

It's doubtful that many of them who are of the class called, "Satan's synagogue", are even spirit-begotten, since they don't have the Lord's spirit. For that reason, many of them will not even be Great Company or second death, but will be a worldly class that must come and figuratively bow down at the feet of the saints in the next age. Even if some of the members of the apostate churches are spirit-begotten here, they are not going to be of the 144,000, but they will be Great Company unless they repent.

Just as the synagogues of the Jews didn't recognize Jesus, the synagogues of Satan don't recognize the faithful saints of God, and they have persecuted them all through the Gospel Age.

John 15:20-21) 20 "Remember the word that I said to you, "A slave is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

21 "But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know the One who sent Me. (NAU)

Revelation 3:10

Revelation 3:10 "Because you have kept the word of My perseverance, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that {hour} which is about to come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. (NAU)

Our Lord's word of perseverance, was those who kept the faith during this time no matter what was going on. They had the patience that all things would work out no matter what occurred, even if they were killed. It was now God's due time to help his church, and the evil church and state system was not going to be able to stop the Reformation that was due to come at that time.

Rev 9:15 And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released, so that they would kill a third of mankind. (NAU)

The faithful church was to be kept from the hour of temptation, that was going to come not only on the church, but also on the world. There are a couple possible places for the hour of temptation that our Lord mentions here. (1) The traditional view is that this hour of testing will be in the seventh church, and that they will be kept safe from it, because this church ends before that time.

(2) The Study Group also believed that it is possible, that the hour of testing that is mentioned in the sixth message to the churches, could also be during the time of the Reformation. We will look at both possibilities.

An hour of Testing

The first possibility and the more traditional one would be that the hour of trial came in the seventh church. In that testing, the sixth church would not enter the judgment time of the 40-year harvest period and the testing that began there, but the seventh church would. The seventh church would have to go through the testing of that time, but the Lord would be promising to keep them safe if they were of the faithful. It would be during that time that judgment was pronounced retroactively on the rest of the age. That would explain why the sleeping saints could be resurrected in 1878AD, since judgment would have been pronounced favorably for all the faithful in 1878AD. We believe that concept to be true, no matter where we decide that the hour of testing mentioned in the sixth church belongs.

Dan 7:21-22) 21 "I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and overpowering them 22 until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when (NAU)

There is one major problem that would need to be explained with the traditional view, and that is that the starting or key messenger Luther, is found at the beginning of the sixth church and it would seem very strange that the Lord would start out warning about of an event that was going to be 360 years in the future. Since 1874-78AD, is at the beginning of the seventh church, why wasn't the warning given by the seventh messenger instead of the sixth? The only way that this could be true, is that we would have to recognize that this church would reach all the way up to 1874AD and the testing that was going to begin there.

The second possibility which is nontraditional, is that it was to be a period of trial which began in the time of Luther, and which was going to come to both the faithful and the apostate church and the entire world of the time. The hour of trial or testing was whether you were going to stay with the mother church, or if you were going to go with the Protestant Reformation. Even if you went with the Protestant Reformation, you would have to remain faithful to the Lord no matter what occurred after that time. That hour of trial or testing was the major question that came before all the church at that time, which was whether to leave the mother church and join the Protestant Reformation, or to stick with the Papal church system. If that is what the testing was, the Lord is saying here that he would keep the Faithful of the Church safe, in that he would make sure that they made the right decision and that they would decide in favor of the Reformation. Christ was using Luther and others to accomplish the work of Reformation for him during the sixth church. All other true and honest efforts by others after that time, who wanted to reform the churches, would also be helped during this church period with the intent being that they would all increase in grace and knowledge.

This thought is not saying that everyone that went with the Reformation was of the church, but we think that the largest number of the faithful church would have decided to go with the greater religious freedom in the Reformation. We would also see that anyone of the faithful church that made the wrong decision and stayed with the Papal system, would have been rejecting the greater knowledge and grace that had become available to Luther and other after him, and that would have made their Christian walk very difficult. In the Catholic system, it was forbidden to study the bible, and that would also have been serious obstruction to anyone's spiritual life. Anyone that stayed with the mother church, would have been in great danger of failing.

The term "whole world" that this trial was to come upon, would not be the entire world literally; it would be the known world of the time that belonged to that religious system. Another scripture that shows that same thing, is found in Revelation 13:3, where it says that "the whole world" followed the beast, and we know that could not be the whole literal world at that time, because the whole world didn't belong to the Roman Empire. North and South America were not even discovered at the earlier time of the Roman church and state beast and most of Africa, and the far east was not known yet either. For that reason, the term "world" in Revelation Chapter 13, would have to represent only the known church-state religious world of that time—Christendom. That world is who the hour of the trial of the Reformation would have come upon. The new world was discovered in 1492, and after that time many decided to go there, so that they could enjoy the economic and religious freedom that the New World made available.

So we could see this hour of testing being either way, because there was a testing that had come upon the sixth church, just as there was going to be one in the seventh church. It seems more likely that it is the one in the sixth church, because that is who the message is to. You can be kept safe from a testing in two ways, one is to avoid it all together, or the other way is to pass the test.

Revelation 3:11

Revelation 3:11 "I am coming quickly; hold fast what you have, so that no one will take your crown. (NAU)

Hold Fast to Keep Your Crown

This is the second time that the crown is mentioned in the churches. This is a crown of victory. See also Revelation. 2:11, where reference is made to the crown of life. If we are not faithful to the Lord, or to what we should be doing, this scripture shows us that it's possible to lose our crown. That the crown of victory is transferable to someone else, indicates that the Lord does have a fixed number of 144,000 crowns, and that if we lose ours, someone else will receive it instead of us. That is the same warning that we see repeated in Chapter 14 of Revelation, where the church is warned about the wrath of God if they worship the beast and the Image, or receive the mark on the forehead or the hand. In Chapter 14, right after the three warnings were given, we see our Lord and the angels with the sharp sickles, harvest the church. The final thing that we see there is the casting of the sinners who did not heed the warnings, into the winepress of the vine of the earth—which represents the punishment of those who did worship the beast or the Image.

That Christ was coming quickly, shows that the period of this church, reaches up to just before the time of the Second Advent or presence, which was in 1874AD. In other words, he is giving notice that the time of his second presence will come immediately after this church period is completed. In a sense, we can even say that Jesus was in a process of coming during that time, especially since the time of the end which began in 1799AD. We see that he was coming on the clouds of heaven, and that when he arrived in 1874AD, he was ready to begin to take charge of his kingdom and to begin to judge the evil system.

Revelation 3:12

Revelation 3:12 "He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will not go out from it anymore; and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God, and My new name. (NAU)

Pillar in the Temple

This church, sees the false church being torn down, and our Lord promises the faithful that they will be a pillar in the true temple in the New Jerusalem. The word means to be a support, and so the faithful will be supports for God's Divine plan, for the next age. To be made a pillar in the temple of God, symbolically shows that we are to be a key part of God's Plan to help the world in the next age. A pillar is something that holds up the temple, and that we are to be a pillar in the spiritual temple, doesn't mean that we will be a literal pillar, but it means that we will be supporting God's Plan and government. The temple is an integral part of the New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven, which represents God's government coming to the world to establish the new heavens and earth. The New Jerusalem coming down to the earth is made possible, because of the salvation that Christ won for both the church and the world at the First Advent. That salvation makes possible the fulfillment of the Abrahamic Covenant promises—which brings salvation to both the heavenly seed and the earthly seed. What Christ accomplished on the cross and the shedding of his blood for us, is what makes everything we see regarding both salvations in Revelation possible.

Gal 4:25-26 (25 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. NIV

The members of the church are the living stones which are being built up into a spiritual house or temple in that city, and Jesus is the precious corner stone used to establish that temple.

Eph 2:19-22) 19 So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and are of God's household,

20 having been built on the foundation of the Apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus Himself being the corner {stone}

21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together, is growing into a holy temple in the Lord,

22 in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling of God in the Spirit. (NAU)

2 Cor 6:16 Or what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God;

just as God said, "I WILL DWELL IN THEM AND WALK AMONG THEM; AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE. (NAU)

That we aren't to go out anymore, shows that once we have made our calling and election sure, we don't have to worry anymore about losing our crown, for then we will be with the Lord forever. During the time of the apostate church system, the Faithful Church was cast out of the evil nominal temple, but we will be in the true temple of the Lord forever after the evil system is punished, and they are the ones who will be barred from being a part of the faithful temple, as shown in Isaiah 66:5-6. That scripture had a literal application with natural Israel at the First Advent, and it applies again symbolically with the apostate church because of the persecution of the Gospel Age.

Names in the Forehead

The picture of writing the names on the forehead, is found in other places in Revelation. For example, it is found in Revelation 7:3, 14:1, and 22:4. There are three names that the faithful get, the name of my God, the name of Jerusalem, the new name of Jesus.

*Revelation 22:3-5) 3 There will no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve Him;

*4 they will see His face, and His name {will be} on their foreheads.

5 And there will no longer be {any} night; and they will not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign forever and ever. (NAU)

It was decided by the Study Group, that the terminology used in Rev 22:3-5, can only refer to the Faithful Church, since only they will be able to see the face of Christ or God. The Faithful Church will be the only ones that will not need the figurative light of the sun, and again only the church will reign forever and ever. The terms sun, night, and, etc. used in those verses are figurative. That there will not be any night there shows that all things will be known, in other words, no one will be in spiritual darkness. They will not need the light of the sun or Gospel", because all things will be known by the true light, which we will have when we see our Lord face to face. That these are the servants of Christ, also strongly indicates that those mentioned there are the church, because there are many other scriptures that describe the church as servants of Christ. All the other Revelation scriptures referring to having his name written on the forehead, are all obviously referring to the church. This again is not a literal name written on the forehead, but its symbolically showing that our Lord Jesus recognizes the faithful of the church as being his.

As we will see in the discussion of Chapters 21-22, it seems obvious that the world will only come into the courtyard of the city that is between the wall and the actual cube of the building. That is where the river of water of life is that the world will be able to access, and that is where the trees of life will be. They will have access to the leaves and the fruit of the trees as they walk on the golden street that is in the court of this city, which corresponds to the highway of holiness from Isaiah Chapter 35. The leaves and the fruit of the trees of life, represent the restitution blessings that the world will have access to at that time. The people of the world will walk by the light of the city, but only the faithful of the church who have been selected for the 144,000, go into the actual cube of the city. The reason for that conclusion is that there must be a separation between the holy and the earthly people, just as we see in the original tabernacle, and which is also shown in Ezekiel's temple. We will explain that fully when we get to Chapter 21 and 22.

Ezekiel's Mark In the Forehead

One other example of writing on the forehead, is shown in Ezek 9:4, where we see the making of a mark on the forehead of those sighing and crying over the things being done wrong. That vision is a picture of the same sealing process that the church goes through, and those who are faithful receive the mark or the name of Christ in the forehead, and that shows that they are his. Those who received that mark of approval in that vision were to be spared, and those who didn't were to be slain or in that picture they symbolically lost their chance for the high calling.

Jesus tells us in Revelation 3:12, that he is going to write the name of God, the New Jerusalem and his name on our forehead. In the Old Testament, we are given some additional information about the name of God, Christ and of the city. We find in Jer 23:6, that the Christ was to be called "The Lord our Righteousness." In Isaiah 9:6, Christ shall also be called Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, and the Prince of Peace. In Ezek 48:35, we find that the city is to be called, "The Lord is there." In Exodus 3:13–14, Jehovah says that his name is, "I AM THAT I AM." In Exodus 6:3, it says that he appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob by the name "God Almighty", but not with his name "JEHOVAH".

That we have the name of the "city" written on our forehead, shows that we will be a part of the new government, and will be involved in administering the benefits of the New Covenant to the world. Just as the mark of the beast in the forehead shows the one having it is supporting the apostate system, the same thing is true of the name that our Lord is going to write upon us, in that it shows we are supporting the new government and salvation of God and Christ. A city in the Bible is sometimes referred to as "the mother of her inhabitants". In that sense, the New Jerusalem will be the mother of the entire world, in that it represents a combined salvation for both the Gospel Age, and for the Millennial age. The heavenly Jerusalem is being developed during this age, and when completed it will come down to the earth and begin to restore mankind from the fall in the garden.

Gal 4:26 But the Jerusalem above is free; she is our mother. (NAU)

Stamp of Ownership and Approval

To have the name of God, Christ's new name and the name of the city New Jerusalem, symbolically impressed on your forehead or "intellect", would imply that you had met God's standards, in that you had lived up to what you were required to have done. That is like the stone that is given in Revelation. 2:17, where Christ gives his approval through the giving of the white stone. See the explanation given for that verse for more information. That is like earthly products, that meet a high-quality standard of approval, and they receive a widely acknowledged seal of approval because of it. Even in human affairs, men don't put their name on a finished product unless it meets their approval.

Isa 56:5 To them I will give in My house and within My walls a memorial, And a name better than that of sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name which will not be cut off. NASU

The word "new" used with his name, does not mean "new" as in the sense of something new, as if it had never existed before, but it was to be new in the sense of freshness. 2537 kainos (kahee-nos'); of uncertain affinity; new (especially in freshness; while 3501 is properly so with respect to age: KJV-- new.

In other words, the individuals name has taken on a new and greater significance, by their having proven their faithfulness. Just as Christ has greatly improved the status of his name, the 144,000 will follow in his footsteps, and do the same by being faithful in what they are required to do.

In the Old Testament times, the individuals that God selected like Abraham and Sarah, had their birth names changed. That showed that God had selected them for a new purpose, and so the name changed. The same thing is true of the church.

Revelation 3:13

Revelation 3:13 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.' (NAU)

We again find the same admonition given at the end of the sixth church. That confirms that most of the help given to the churches throughout the age, has been through the Holy spirit, the helper that Jesus said he would send. The Holy spirit is working through the messengers to each of the seven churches. That help appears to be at least through the message that was given through a key or initial messenger at the beginning of each church, but it also seems to allow the possibility that the message that is to be given to each church could be improved, later by other individuals, as we have seen happen in some of the churches where we have better history.

This sixth church period corresponds to the period of Israel's history, where the ten-tribe kingdom was removed as a nation because of unfaithfulness. That parallels the Old Testament history of the split between the Catholics and the Protestants, that occurred in this church. The ten tribes were removed first because of severe apostasy and never returned, and that seems to predict through that picture a dire warning about how the Lord viewed the Papal system at the time of the Reformation. There were most likely some faithful individuals left in that system at the time, but they would have been a lot fewer in number than those in the Protestant side of the split. That portion of the evil system seems to have been divided off from or separated from his faithful people at that time, and the Protestant system seems to be the one that the Lord has mainly worked with since that time. The hour of testing that came at the time of the sixth church, seems to have indicated to the faithful that they needed to go to whatever church seemed to them to be following the Lord the closest.

Rev 14:4 These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they have kept themselves chaste. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased from among men as first fruits to God and to the Lamb. NASU

That is like how Judah was judged and treated during the time of its fall, when Babylon came and took them away. That corresponds to the next church, where the final judgment and harvest came upon Christendom. Most fell away, but again there were some that passed the test and were found faithful. Taking one-third away from anything leaves two-thirds or .666. This prophecy though the symbolism of the .666 number, is showing us that during the time of judgment on the end of the age, many will fall and be judged as belonging to the house of Satan.

In the above calculations, some might object to using  $1-.333=.666$  as a decimal number because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah, we find this: Zech 13:8-9 (8 "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire,

Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'" NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire, he is defining them as good. To prove that we see that they are refined as gold and silver. So, when you see us use the decimal number one third or two thirds anywhere in this book, Zechariah Chapter 13:8-9 is the principle behind that calculation.

Historical Split in the Church

In the sixth church, the reformers split from the Catholic Church and tried to re-establish the true worship of God and Christ. They started many reforms that led to the formation of the many Bible societies, which eventually led to the formation of the truth movement as we know it. Unfortunately, most in the Protestant movement didn't in the long run separate themselves from all the errors of the mother system. Because of that, we will find a final judgment and testing that includes them in the next church. History shows us that there was further reforming done through others like the Anabaptist or even William Miller later on. That may represent the one third being cast into the fire above.

If this picture is correct, it appears that Christ did at least a partial separating work at the time of the sixth church. He could not use many from the Catholic system at that time, but it appears that he could select some faithful from those who joined the Protestant movement. The Lord could only use those who studied their Bibles, and who were trying to get a better understanding of the scriptures. That makes sense regarding the judgment or test that occurred at that time, because God had provided a large measure of truth in the Reformation, and those who had a hearing ear for the message of the Holy spirit accepted it—while the Papal system that didn't have a hearing ear refused it.

We think that there is a span of 390 years as predicted from Ezekiel Chapter 4, which started from the beginning of the sixth church and reached into the harvest period of the seventh church. The split from the Catholics at the diet of worms by the Protestants occurred in 1521AD, and 390 years later we come to 1911AD. That was the date where there was a seven-year period that began and which led to the final downfall of the church and state system. The three dates that are implied by that seven-year time frame, are the Agadir crises of 1911, the date of WW1 in 1914AD, and the 1917-18 end of the war which ended the power of the kings which had been allied with Papacy. That final date also marked the end of the Ottoman Empire, which was the Islamic power that was keeping Israel from returning as a nation. There were four major Empires that fell by the end of that war, the German, the Russian, the Austrian-Hungarian, and the Ottoman. See the book "Biblical_Count_of_Years-B2", which has a triple historical parallel that shows that downfall of the pre-1914 kingdoms in more detail. That 390-year parallel begins in the time of Babylon, and has a second application at the time of the First Advent, and then has a third and final application which ended in 1917-18AD.

Some Heresies that Came in During the Sixth Church

32) The Ave Maria, addition of part of the last half. It was completed 50 years afterward and finally approved by Pope Sixtus V, at the end of the 16th Century. -----1508AD

33) The Council of Trent, held in the year 1545 declared that Tradition is of equal authority with the Bible. By tradition is meant human teachings. The Pharisees believed the same way, and Jesus bitterly condemned them, for by human tradition they nullified the commandments of God. (Read Mark 7: 7-13; Col. 2-8; Revelation. 22: 18) -----1545AD

34) The apocryphal books were added to the Bible also by the Council of Trent.

These books were not recognized as canonical by the Jewish Church. (Revelation. 22: 8-9) -----1546AD

35) The Creed of Pope Pius IV, was imposed as the official Creed 1560 years after Christ and the Apostles. Christians will retain the Holy Scriptures as their creed. 8) -----1560AD

36) The Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary was proclaimed by Pope Pius IX.

The Gospel states that all men, with the sole exception of Christ, are sinners. Mary herself had need of a Savior. (Read Rom. 3: 23; 5: 12; Psalm 51: 5; Luke 1:30; 46-47)-----1854AD

37) In the year 1870 after Christ, Pope Pius IX proclaimed the dogma of Papal Infallibility. This is a blasphemy and the sign of the apostasy, and of the anti-Christ predicted by St. Paul. (Read II Thes. 2: 2-12; Revelation. 17: 1-9; 13: 5-8, 18)

LAODICEAN # 7

1873.75AD - ???????

Revelation 3:14

Revelation 3:14 "To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: the Amen, the faithful and witness, the beginning of the creation of God, says this: (NAU)

The Seventh Messenger

The seventh messenger is Bro. Charles Russell. He brought a great deal of truth to the harvest time church, which not only restored the truth that had been lost because of the great falling away, but he also brought to light knowledge that was not revealed at the time of the early church. That was the knowledge of God's Plan of the Ages, which showed that God was not only going to save the church, but the full Divine Plan was that he would also save a restored Israel and the rest of the world of mankind in the next age. There is too much information to give here regarding God's Plan, because of the large scope of this work, and so we would advise all who have not read the six Studies in the Scriptures to do so—especially Volume one for knowledge of the Divine Plan. All the later volumes build upon the knowledge of God's Plan and what God is doing to restore mankind back to perfection and life. In those six volumes, you will find biblical information on all kinds of topics including the time of trouble and the restoration of Israel. The information in those volumes, is the harvest message that was brought out during the 40-year harvest, and in them God's Divine plan is revealed.

One of the topics that will be covered in the second volume, is Bible chronology, and there you will see that it shows that 1874 - 1914 was a time of testing and judgment upon the apostate church system that had persecuted the faithful saints all through the Gospel age. The call during that 40 years harvest time, was to "come out of her my people Babylon" and the warning was that those who did not come out, were in great danger of losing their crowns to others. It was also predicted that the time of trouble would start at the end of the 2520 years in Sept 1914AD, and that was fulfilled when WW1 started right on the predicted time.

According to the theoretical 360-year pattern that we have been testing, we should have started the seventh church in 1874AD, and 3.5 years later is where we should have found the messenger beginning his major work. While Pastor did some work with Barbour prior to 1879AD, he began to publish the Watchtower in that year, and that date is right after the expiration of the 3.5 years, which seems to be the pattern in all the churches where we could determine the exact dates.

Laodicea Means Justice for the People or Judged People

The seventh church is the Laodicea, and its name means, "justice for the people or judged people". That name is very applicable since the beginning of this church deals with the judgment and harvest of the nominal church system, 1874 -1914AD. This church period, has the half hour of silence or judgment that we will find in the seventh seal—which we will cover and explain later in these notes.

The message from this key messenger, was not just to the unfaithful nominal system, but it was also being given to those who had crowns or were spirit-begotten at the time. There was a large amount of spiritual food that was brought out, as well as warnings about getting out of the fallen church before the time of her punishment was going to come. In the beginning part of the message to the seventh church, there are several things listed that this church is warned that they must correct or they will be spewed out. Some feel that they can ignore that message, since they don't think that it applies to them, in that they think that it applied only to those of the nominal churches that refused to hear the message. We need to bear in mind, that this message is to the entire seventh church, and not to just a few individuals at the beginning of the church, or just during the 40-year harvest. Just as we saw in the other churches, it was a message to both the faithful as well as those who were not being faithful. All in this church are judged and subject to the message that was given. Now, as of this writing in 2016, the message of the messenger in this church still applies until the church is complete, and we are now 138 year past the start of that message, which began to be given in 1878AD.

The focus of this message was for all who claimed to be Christian at the harvest time, especially those who were not doing what they should have been. Even those of us who have received the truth of the harvest message, we need to be careful that the warnings don't wind up applying to us, but in a subtler manner.

Creation of God

The titles that our Lord addresses this church with, were given for the first time in Chapter one, and he is reminding this church that he is the beginning of the creation of God, and that he is the faithful one. There is a couple of different ways that we could view Christ as being the beginning of the creation of God, and both are true. The first has to do with the fact that Christ was created first, and then through him all other things were created.

The Sinaitic has Ecclesia of God, instead of the creation of God. The original manuscript looks like it has been altered, the original word creation was scraped off, and ecclesia was added to hide the fact that Christ was created by God!

*Col 1:15-16) 15 He is the Image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

16 For by Him all things were created, {both} in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities-- all things have been created through Him and for Him. (NAU)

The second way that Christ can be the beginning of the creation of God, is that this verse is looking at the fact that he died, and was the first of anyone to be resurrected. The new creation or church is then able to be resurrected next, because of what he did for us. Because of the salvation that Christ had secured at the First Advent for the church, we also see that the rest of the world of mankind will be resurrected back from their graves.

Rom 8:29) For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined {to become} conformed to the Image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren; (NAU)

Since his message is to the Faithful Church, we believe that the second interpretation is the one that is intended here. He was the beginning of the New Creation, which will be finished by the end of this seventh church. The New Creation will then be used to bless all of the rest of mankind. Before that can happen, he needs to separate out all who are not faithful or zealous enough, so that out of those who are left he can complete the 144,000 of the New Creation.

Revelation 3:15-16

Revelation 3:15-16) 15 "I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot; I wish that you were cold or hot.

16 "So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth. (NAU)

#1 Meaning of Cold is Doing Nothing

The message to this church is talking to the entire Christian church system that was in existence at that time. As we will see in the message to them, there is a great deal that they are doing wrong. This church is told that he would rather have them hot or cold and not lukewarm. Since many of them were not in either condition, he spewed them out at the end of the 40 years that began in 1878AD. To spew them out meant to cast them out of Divine favor, just as the Jews had been cast out 1845 years before. The spewing out was the separating of the wheat from the tares that the church had waited the entire age for. To be hot was to be extremely zealous for the truth and the Lord. There are two possibilities regarding the word cold. One is that the one would do nothing and would wait for the kingdom.

Matt 10:42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. KJV

Lev 18:25-29) 25 "For the land has become defiled, therefore I have brought its punishment upon it, so the land has spewed out its inhabitants.

26 "But as for you, you are to keep My statutes and My judgments and shall not do any of these Abominations, {neither} the native, nor the alien who sojourns among you

27 (for the men of the land who have been before you have done all these Abominations, and the land has become defiled);

28 so that the land will not spew you out, should you defile it, as it has spewed out the nation which has been before you.

29 "For whoever does any of these Abominations, those persons who do {so} shall be cut off from among their people. (NAU)

The casting out that occurred at the Second Advent, is an exact parallel of the First Advent in 33AD, but with 1845 years between events. Many in the seventh church lost their crowns or the chance for a crown, because they refused to accept the harvest truth that was then due. That was exactly what happened to the Jews at the First Advent, who lost the exclusive right to the high calling, because they rejected the Messiah and the truth about God's Plan that had been due to be revealed to them at that time.

Contrary to popular nominal church opinion, the Lord would rather not have a large crowd of lukewarm individuals called into the church, especially if those individuals are not going to be zealous for the truth and his name. They would be doing more harm to themselves as well as others, if they were not zealous and true believers. They would be better off if they had been cold and waited for the kingdom, when they will be in the time wherein a fool will not error. By being involved now and by doing wrong things, they will have to bear the shame of their wrongdoing as shown later in Revelation Chapter 7.

It's also said that the literal city that had this name, had a hot spring, and a cold spring that mixed together at its location, and that resulted in a lukewarm and disgusting mixture. Hence that would be a good literal reason for "I will spew you out of my mouth", and the Lord may have picked that place to emphasize what was going to happen to the fallen system.

Revelation 3:17-18

Revelation 3:17 "Because you say, "I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have need of nothing," and you do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked,

Revelation 3:18 I advise you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you may become rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself, and {that} the shame of your nakedness will not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see. (NAU)

Gold & Harvest Truth Refined by Fire

The seventh church was cautioned to buy gold, “truth” that had been refined in fire, or had been purified by the test of time, and by studying the Bible—this gold had the dross of error burned out of it. That they must buy the things that he is offering them, implies that they do not have the spiritual oil of the Holy spirit that they need in their vessels—which is shown in the parable of the wise and faithful virgins. If they want to get the benefits and blessings that he was offering at the time, they were going to have to work for them and ask for help from Christ. Since they were very poor in the true knowledge of God’s salvation, the remedy was going to require a lot of studying and prayer to overcome the errors of Satan’s system. To get out of their condition, they were going to have to really want to know God’s real plan, so that they have the strength to put forth the effort to throw off the chains of error and to become free in Christ. The gold refined by fire is also found in Malachi and 1 Cor Chapter 3.

Mal 3:3-4(3 "He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the Lord offerings in righteousness. NASU

1 Cor 3:11-15) 11 For no man can lay a foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 Now if any man builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 each man's work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is {to be} revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of each man's work.

14 If any man's work which he has built on it remains, he will receive a reward.

15 If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

Remember that the wise virgins were the ones that woke up and went and got oil into their vessels, so that they would be ready for the bridegroom, and that is the same kind of thing that was needed by these nominal Christians. Brother Russell and others, went out and gathered this gold or truth into the harvest message and that makes him the most likely candidate to be the key messenger to this church. That message is available for all to see and hear, but only if they were watching and looking for the truth—which most were not. The true foundation of God’s salvation was revealed at that time, and it consisted of the ransom doctrine and the information regarding how the Divine Plan was going to save not only a spiritual class, but also an earthly class through the fulfillment of the promises of the Abrahamic Covenant.

This church was not as spiritually rich as they thought, but they were poor and blind and naked because they were not covered by the robe of Christ. See also Hos 12:8, Jer 13:25-27. Most of the churches had cast Christ’s robe aside, and had wrapped themselves in the traditions of men, like the mass and those who were in those institutions didn't realize that they were spiritually blind and naked because of that. For that reason, most didn't accept the newly revealed banquet of rich truth of gold and silver from God, and they couldn't see the truth about God's Divine Plan as it was revealed at that time. Their material wealth and the traditions of men had blinded them to their spiritual bankruptcy.

Similar to Attitudes of Pharisees

Their attitudes were very like that of the Pharisees, who thought that they were spiritually wealthy, but were in fact sick, "Mat 9:10-13". They thought that they could see, but in reality, they were blind, "John 9:40-41, Mat 15:14". While the members of the seventh church are not literally Pharisees, many of them have character problems that were like them—those same kinds of problems are why the Lord rebuked the original Scribes and the Pharisees. Their situation was dangerous to them, because they didn't realize that they were in their blinded condition, or they didn't want to admit it and change. They especially needed spiritual eye salve, so that they would be able to see how bad a condition they were really in.

Those of us who have accepted the harvest message, also need to be vigilant in that we must be careful not to let this great message of truth cause us to think more highly of ourselves that we should. The harvest message has not been given so that we can feel good about ourselves, and run other down because of their blindness. This message is given so that the faithful saints can be separated out of the apostate system, and our mission is that we all need to work together so that the full number of the church can be completed, and the kingdom can come to the world and restore all who are willing.

The salvation that the Lord has provided is given without price, "Isaiah 55:1, Revelation 21:6". The gold represents divine things such as harvest truths, which they should have accepted rather than trusting in their own earthly wisdom and traditions of men, which will perish. We can only get the pure gold of Divine truth from Christ. We cannot take our earthly wealth with us after death, but only labors of true faith will have laid up treasures in heaven for us, "Revelation 14:13, Matt 6:20".

Buying White Garments

Originally Adam and Eve were naked, but felt no shame, Gen 2:25, but only after they sinned were they ashamed of their nakedness, and sewed fig leaves to cover their nakedness, Gen 3:7. In Revelation 16:15 at the time of the Second Coming, Christ says, "blessed is he who stays awake and keeps his clothes with him, so that he may not go naked and be shamefully exposed." In Revelation 3:4-5, we saw in Sardis those who had not soiled their clothes, and who walked with Christ dressed in white, because they were worthy. Ex 20:26, Is 1:18

Many in the Laodicea church period didn't have any spiritual clothes of true salvation, and they didn't even know it. They were spiritually naked, and they needed to come to Christ to get white garments to wear, which was the robe of righteousness to cover their sins. They had lost the understanding of what Christ had done for them, but were instead trusting in man's ideas of salvation.

Picture of Joshua the High Priest

Joshua the high priest, was pictured as being dressed in filthy clothes, but in Zech 3:3-4, he was given new rich garments. Those clothes were the white clothes of righteousness, "Isa 61:10". The church should have kept those garments on all through the Gospel Age, but it didn't take long for Satan to convince them that they didn't need the wedding garment, and that they could rely on their own doctrines to save them. We cannot attend the wedding feast without being cast out, unless we have on the robe of righteousness. Throughout Revelation, white garments stand for the righteousness which Christ imparts to us, "Revelation 6:11, 7:9, 7:14, 19:8, 19:14".

Matt 22:12-14) 12 and he said to him, "Friend, how did you come in here without wedding clothes?" And the man was speechless.

13 "Then the king said to the servants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

14 "For many are called, but few {are} chosen." (NAU)

Eye Salve

Matt 6:22 "The eye is the lamp of the body; so then if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light.

23 "But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! NASU Phil 3:13 Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, NASUNT:2854

EYE-SALVE, NT:2854), primarily a diminutive of kollura, and denoting "a coarse bread roll" (as in the Sept. of 1 Kings 12: after v. 24, lines 30, 32, 39; Eng. version, 14:3#), hence an "eye-salve," shaped like a roll, Rev 3:18, of the true knowledge of one's condition and of the claims of Christ. The word is doubtless an allusion to the Phrygian powder used by oculists in the famous medical school at Laodicea (Ramsay, Cities and Bishoprics of Phrygia, Vol. 1, p. 52).

(from Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words, Copyright © 1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers.)

Some say the eye salve was made from roses.

Their blindness was a spiritual blindness, and the only way that they were ever going to be able to see spiritual things, was if they were to buy spiritual eye salve from the Lord, which only comes from the Holy spirit, and to get that they must pray and ask the Lord for spiritual help. The fallen church system had lost sight of most of the original apostolic doctrines, and had substituted their own ideas and traditions in their place. Their false doctrines were blinding them to the truth about Christ and God's Plan of Salvation. If they didn't ask for eye-salve, they wouldn't be able to see or get the understanding of God's Plan that was opened at the time of the seventh church. Eye slave is sometimes symbolic of humility, which they would need to admit that they had not been looking at things correctly, and that they needed to change.

Revelation 3:19

Revelation 3:19 "Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline; therefore be zealous and repent. (NAU)

This verse is a continuation of the previous verse, in that the Lord is trying to get individuals in the seventh church who are in error to repent. Here he tells us that he is going to rebuke and chasten those whom he loves, his children, to get them to repent. Note that despite their pitiful condition, these had not yet ceased to be part of the church of Christ at that early time in the harvest, and we see that the same situation applied to the earlier churches, in that those who were in error were always accepted back if they would repent. If they don't repent and get the gold and silver and the eye salve from Christ as he tells them to do, he will spew them out of his mouth, showing us that the Lord's patience is not unlimited. In most situations, he will continue until there is no longer any hope of reforming the individual, but when no more progress can be made, that is the end of his patience. See the second and third vol. of “Studies in the Scriptures”, for more information on the 1845-year judgment parallels that reached to the beginning of this church.

In the sixth church, he esteemed them and in this church, he loves them. The Greek word for “love” used here is “phileo”, in all the other references to love “agapao” is used (1:5, 2:4, 2:19, 3:9, 12:11, 20:9) the only exception being 22:15. Because he loves us, he doesn't want to rebuke us, but if it's necessary he will do it for our own good. We as parents rebuke our children and the Heavenly Father and Jesus wouldn't do anything less for us, “See Prov 3:11-12; Job 5:17; Heb 12:5-11”.

KISS (NOUN AND VERB) 1. Phileo ^5368^, "to love," signifies "to kiss," in <Matt. 26:48; Mark 14:44; Luke 22:47>.

25 agapao (ag-ap-ah'-o); perhaps from again (much) [or compare 5689]; to love (in a social or moral sense): KJV-- (be-) love (-ed). Compare 5368.

If the Lord isn't disciplining us, we are in danger, and we should be worried, because either the Father didn't accept us in the first place, or else he has given up on us. Each trial or discipline is tailored to each individual, because what would be good for one might not be good for another.

He Wants to Save All

He doesn't want to have to spew anyone out, or reject anyone if he doesn't have to, so he is going to go to great lengths to save all that he can. If we are rebuked, we should be willing to reform and to go to great lengths to set ourselves right. We need to be able to receive the discipline and to be humbled, but not crushed by it or reject it. We need to remember the first part of his statement when things get tough, "As many as I love." The scriptures from Hebrews Chapter 12, shows us that Revelation 3:19 is not being selective as to whom he loves.

While most of the judging and spewing out would have occurred during and just after the 40-year harvest period, we should recognize that the same kind of testing is still going on regarding any replacement crowns. So, if we see the many things that the nominal system was doing wrong that got them booted out, then we should make sure that we are not doing the same kind of things, but in a subtler manner. If we do wrong, we in turn will be rejected and replaced by someone else, who is doing what they should be doing. Remember that the last test is love—love of even those who don't love us.

We should be careful not to provoke the Lord to jealousy with strange gods, or to wrath with strange fire as the nominal system has done all through the age. The Pagan doctrines that the church absorbed during the first and second church period, are still in the church during the seventh church, and they need to be removed so that our knowledge and doctrines are purified.

1 Cor 10:20-22 (20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he? (KJV)

The Lord does not discipline us without a purpose or a reason. If there were a better way, he would do it that way. We will not be tempted or disciplined beyond what we can bear.

1 Cor 10:12-13) 12 Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed that he does not fall.

13 No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it. (NAU)

Revelation 3:20

Revelation 3:20 "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me.

The Lord is Knocking at the Door

We find the usage of the term “door” in the scriptures, as to either be representing an opening to an opportunity, or else the close of an opportunity. Being able to see through an open door also implies a further insight into God’s Plans. If we use that definition of the door, we can then see what Jesus did for the sixth church, in that he was able because of the Reformation truth to re-open to the church the understanding of the high calling, and the opportunity to the new and living way. It had been lost by the nominal system because of their false doctrines of salvation, that they were preaching at the time.

This Door is Different

The door that we find in the seventh church is different than the open door in the sixth church, in that we find this one is shut, and we must open it to let the Lord in. He is now standing at the door of our heart and knocking, and the tense here indicates a continual knocking. In other words, he wants us to open the door, and he will keep knocking if there is any hope that we will open it. If we don’t open it within a certain amount of time, he will leave to find someone else that is more deserving of receiving the crown, and who will ignore the worldly things of life that stand in our way. Later if we change our mind, it will be too late as you will see, if you read past verse 6 in the Song of Solomon that we have quoted below. The ones that do not open the door in time, will find that they will be a part of the foolish virgins.

That he is at the door, shows that he is not still coming, but is already present—which was in 1874AD. In the earlier churches, he is always admonishing that he was going to come quickly, etc. but now in this church he has arrived. If we hear the Lambs voice and open the door of our heart during this time, he will sit down to feast with us on the harvest truth, and any other spiritual food that is available.

The fact that the door is closed seems to teach us another lesson, in that the nominal church after 1881AD, has been cut off from the exclusive right to the high calling—that is the closed door of the seventh church, which must be opened by us. That is the same thing as what happened to the Jews at the First Advent, in that they only had a limited time to accept the Messiah, or lose their exclusive favor, which happened by 36AD. The members of the church on this end of the age that had crowns, had that same kind of exclusive favor until 1881AD, but after that time the Lord would accept whoever heard the call and opened the door to the Lord first. So, if you hear the Lord knocking, don’t hesitate to open the door of your heart, because at this late date there can’t be many crowns left. We need to be like men waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet. When he knocks, we need to be zealous and open the door for him, and he will indeed sit down and wait on us.

Luke 12:35-38 (35 "Be dressed in readiness, and keep your lamps lit. 36 "Be like men who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that they may immediately open the door to him when he comes and knocks. 37 "Blessed are those slaves whom the master will find on the alert when he comes;

truly I say to you, that he will gird himself to serve, and have them recline at the table, and will come up and wait on them. 38 "Whether he comes in the second watch, or even in the third, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves. NASU

That we are at the end of the age, is why the picture of the door changes here, in that it's shut. The opportunity to run for the high calling had been opened wide to the sixth church, but now in the seventh church, after 1881AD, it was going to take some effort on our part to open the door and let the Lord in. We must hear his voice, and know that what we are hearing is the truth before we can open to him. After that, we still must remain faithful through all testing's that will come our way. We have a similar thing in Rev 18:2, where we see the call to "come out of her my people", that is a call to open the door to the Lord, and let him come in and feed you with the new harvest truths that are due in this church.

The Song of Solomon seems to be a prophecy about this very thing. It shows that some will make all kinds of excuses about why they don't want to get up and open the door. But as the woman in the song found out, it's too easy to be a foolish virgin and wait too long, and the Lord will give up and go select someone else.

Song 5:2-6 (2 I was sound asleep, but in my dreams I was wide awake. Oh, listen! It's the sound of my lover knocking, calling!

The Man

"Let me in, dear companion, dearest friend, my dove, consummate lover! I'm soaked with the dampness of the night, drenched with dew, shivering and cold."

The Woman

3"But I'm in my nightgown — do you expect me to get dressed? I'm bathed and in bed — do you want me to get dirty?" 4 But my lover wouldn't take no for an answer, and the longer he knocked, the more excited I became. 5 I got up to open the door to my lover, sweetly ready to receive him, Desiring and expectant as I turned the door handle. 6 But when I opened the door he was gone. My loved one had tired of waiting and left. And I died inside — oh, I felt so bad! I ran out looking for him but he was nowhere to be found. I called into the darkness — but no answer.

A Feast of New Truths

This is representative of the evening meal, which is the biggest meal of the day, and that biggest meal is descriptive of the truth that was to come to the seventh church. If we allow the Lord to come in to sit down with us, he can feed us with both the old established truth of the early church, as well as the new harvest truths which were due at the time of his presence. If we close our hearts to him, we will be rejected along with the others that are to be spewed out. A major part of the test was the question of whether they could accept the new understanding that was due at that time, or if they would reject it for various reasons, and thus be rejected themselves—which is the same kind of test that the Jews had. Matt 13:52 And Jesus said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a head of a household, who brings out of his treasure things new and old." (NAU)

The word "voice" is Strong's word #5456, which is like #5316 through the idea of disclosure, a tone, by implication an address saying or language. In other words, this voice was going to disclose the truth to us. This is the same word "voice" found in most other places in Revelation, and is the same word in Revelation 10:7.

In John 10:16, Jesus tells us that only his sheep shall hear his voice, and we again see this as a test in that the church must follow the Lord and his voice no matter where he goes, as we are told in Revelation 14:4. If we comfortable in our traditional creed bed and don't hear his voice, we won't know enough to open the door to let him in, and we will stay asleep in our creed bed and be rejected.

That Jesus is able to come in the door to eat with us, is only if we accept the truth of his presence and allow him into our hearts. As in the parable of the wedding feast, if anyone rejected his invitation and refused to come to the feast, he would be replaced by others who were willing to do what was needed, "Math 22:2-14, Luke 14:16-24".

Keep On the Wedding Garment

We must be careful not to do anything to offend him, such as take off the wedding garment and try to enter the feast with our own filthy rags. If we remember from the parable of the wedding feast, the one that took off the wedding garment and went to the wedding feast was cast out. The one that took off the wedding garment was implying that he didn't need the robe that the master of the feast had provided. Some churches today do not think they need the sacrifice of Christ's blood for salvation—believing that they can get by on their own works. Remember that we cannot claim any righteousness of our own, but we need the covering of our Lord Jesus. Just because we may know and understand many great truths, they can't justify us, only the robe of righteousness given by our Lord can do that. That is the same parable mentioned above in respect to the guests not coming when invited, and having to be replaced from the highways and byways. The robe of righteousness is the wedding garment without which we will lose out, and we only get that from the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 3:21

Revelation 3:21 "He who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. (NAU)

This verse is a signature statement to Revelation 3:14, in that just as Jesus had proven faithful and had been elevated to his own throne—he was going to offer the same thing to the faithful of the church. To be on the throne would imply the right to rule, and we see in Rev 20, that this is what Christ and the church will do for 1000 years or for whatever the length of the part of the Millennial kingdom that the church reigns over. That this offer is made here, shows that the time in which the church is going to begin to rule with our Lord in the kingdom, is relatively close and that it comes at the end of the seventh church period.

The warning here in this church, is the statement in verse 16, where he tells the seventh church that he is going to spew out any that don't change their ways. Besides that, we will have further testing that we must pass after we open the door and begin to follow in his footsteps. The admonition "overcome", is found in all the other churches, "Revelation. 2:7; 2:11; 2:17; 2:26; 3:5; 3:12, and finally 3:21". See also 2 Tim 2:12, Luke 22:30, and Matt 19:28.

Revelation 2:7 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will grant to eat of the tree of life which is in the Paradise of God.' (NAU)

Revelation 2:11 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.' (NAU)

*Revelation 2:17 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, to him I will give {some} of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and a new name written on the stone which no one knows but he who receives it.' (NAU)

Revelation 2:26 "He who overcomes, and he who keeps My deeds until the end, TO HIM I WILL GIVE AUTHORITY OVER THE NATIONS; (NAU)

Revelation 3:5 "He who overcomes will thus be clothed in white garments; and I will not erase his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. (NAU)

Revelation 3:12 "He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will not go out from it anymore; and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God, and My new name. (NAU)

Revelation 3:21 "He who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. (NAU)

Revelation 21:7 "He who overcomes will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son.

Revelation 3:22

Revelation 3:22 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches." (NAU)

Again, we find that the messages given in each church, while they have a special admonition for that church, also have a broad application to all the churches. That broad application applies not only to the warnings, but also to the promises. That is why it says, "Hear what the spirit says to the churches (plural)! We need to pay special attention to what is said to all the churches, if we don't want to find ourselves rejected in the end.

We are now living on borrowed time, in that if all had been faithful the church would now be complete. All those who were rejected during the harvest time and lost their crowns, need to be replaced. We are now the ones who are being gathered from the highways and the byways, to replace those who should have come in to the wedding feast.

See "Studies in the Scriptures" vol. 2-3, for detailed information on the chronology that shows that we have been at the end of the age and the harvest time since 1874AD. The volumes explain the judgment that was due then, as well as what was happening during the harvest.

Who do the Warnings Apply to?

As we mentioned before, we shouldn't be too sure about ourselves and place all the warnings to the seventh church as being against only the apostate church system.

If we look at the seventh church in relationship to Israel's parallel history, this is the time where upper Palestine was beginning to be conquered by Babylon. That was land promised to Abraham's offspring, some of which had been the land of the ten tribes before they were carried away. Judah soon lost their civil power when Neb took control of the entire nation. It's interesting to see that exactly 7 times or 2520 years later, is where the civil power of the nominal house began to be destroyed, "607 BC-1914AD". From the time that Nebuchadnezzar was declared to be the head of gold in 604 BC, until 2520 years later is when we come to the Belfour declaration in Nov 1917, which advocated letting the Jews have a homeland again. It was also about the same time that the Ottoman Empire collapsed, which opened the way for Israel to return to their land as a nation.

What that parallel is showing us, is that we have been in an overlapping of the age since 1914, in which the church is being phased out and completed, and Israel is being phased back in and restored as a nation. Once that overlap has finished all the things that it needs to accomplish, like the church being completed and Israel fully restored—then the kingdom will be here and there will be no more high calling.

I Will Spew You Out

God had been trying to reform the nominal churches up to and through the 40-year harvest time, but they would not be reformed, so he spewed them out after the 40-year harvest, just as he said that he would. The 1914 date is parallel to the 70AD date, which was when Jerusalem and the temple were destroyed, and the Jews were removed from the Holy Land and scattered all over the world. That is an exact parallel of 1845 years between events, in that what happened to Israel at the First Advent has again happened to the church and state system on this end of the age. Those who were unfaithful were cast out of the spiritual land, and God is calling to those who are faithful, "to come out of her Babylon my people", and return to the true spiritual Israel.

The apostate church and the original Jewish system will do a great deal of weeping in the next age regarding what they have lost out on, and we need to be careful that we don't fall after the same example, "Heb 3:12-19, 4:1-11". Now that we see how Israel fell in its time, and how the nominal house has fallen again in our time, we need to be careful that we aren't among those who can still fall. If we are faithful we will be in the class that is mentioned in Psalms 91.

This verse is a signature statement to Revelation 3:14, in that just as Jesus had proven faithful and had been elevated to his own throne, he was going to offer the same thing to the faithful of the church. To be on the throne would imply the right to rule, and we see in Rev 20 that this is what Christ and the church will do for 1000 years, or for whatever the amount of time of the Millennial kingdom that the church reigns over.

The warning here in this church is the statement in verse 16, where he tells the seventh church that he is going to spew out any that don't change their ways. This is the testing that we must pass after we open the door and begin to follow in his footsteps. The admonition "overcome", is found in all the other churches, "Revelation. 2:7; 2:11; 2:17; 2:26; 3:5; 3:12, and finally 3:21". See also 2 Tim 2:12; Luke 22:30; Matt 19:28.

Heb 4:11 Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall through {following} the same example of disobedience.

Ps 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side And ten thousand at your right hand, But it shall not approach you. NASU

Some Heresies that Came in During the Seventh Church

- 38) Pope Pious X, in the year 1907 condemned together with "modernism" all the discoveries of modern science which are not approved by the Church. Pious IX had done the same thing in the Syllabus of 1864. ---
-----1907AD
- 39) In the year 1930 Pius XI condemned the Public Schools -----1930AD
- 40) In the year 1931 the same Pope Pius XI reaffirmed the doctrine that Mary is "the Mother of God" -----
-----1931AD
- 41) In the year 1950 the dogma of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary was proclaimed by Pope Pius XII -----
-----1950AD

The Roman Church says it never changes; yet it has done nothing else but invent new doctrines which are contrary to the Bible, and have practiced rites and ceremonies taken bodily from Paganism. Some scholar has found that 75% of the rites and ceremonies of the Roman Church are of Pagan origin.

NOTE - Cardinal Newman, in his book, "The Development of the Christian Religion" admits that . . .

"Temples, incense, oil lamps, votive offerings, holy water, holidays and season of devotions, processions, blessing of fields, sacerdotal vestments, the tonsure (of priests and monks and nuns), Images . . . are all of Pagan origin . . ." (Page 359)

The Throne Scene

Chapter four is thought by everyone to represent a view of the Heavenly Father on his throne, with the scene in heaven consisting of various heavenly beings and articles. The traditional Bible Student view of this vision, found in the so called seventh volume, places the next two Chapters in a different time frame than where we believe they belong—at least regarding when the vision starts.

It's interesting that the first view of God starts on the throne—which is shown in the Most Holy in this vision. As the vision progresses, we will also see the living creatures and the 24 elders who are further out from the throne. As we studied this Chapter, we noticed that it was much more than just a throne scene.

Exod 25:40 "See that you make {them} after the pattern for them, which was shown to you on the mountain.

Heb 8:5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was warned {by God} when he was about to erect the tabernacle; for, "SEE," He says, "THAT YOU MAKE all things ACCORDING TO THE PATTERN WHICH WAS SHOWN YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN."(NAU)

Heb 9:23 Therefore it was necessary for the copies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. (NAU)

Moses Saw This Vision

The Study Group began to realize as we studied this Chapter, that this vision was the same view that Moses had been given of the heavenly tabernacle. Moses had been commanded to build the earthly tabernacle, just like the one he had seen in the heavens. We will eventually find most of the key furniture of the heavenly tabernacle in the book of Revelation, both in this Chapter and later in other Chapters of Revelation.

OT	Revelation
Holy of Holies (Exod 26:30-35)	The throne of God (4:2)
Seven branched lampstand Exod 25:31-40	Seven lamps of fire before the throne (4:5)
Bronze basin Exod 30:18	Sea of glass (4:6)
Cherubim over mercy seat Exod 25:17-21	Four living creatures (4:6)
Priests	(Kings and priests) (20:6)
Altar of burnt offerings Exod 31:9	Altar (6:9-11)
Brazen altar Ex 27:1-7 Incense altar Exod 31:8 Golden censer Lev 16:12, 1K 7:50	Brazen altar 8:5, Incense altar (8:3, 4) Golden censer 8:3, 5
Ark of covenant	Ark of the covenant (11:19)

It also became apparent that this was not just a vision that God had given so we'd know what heaven looked like, but it was symbolically intended to teach us some important lessons about God's Divine plan!

We will find that Chapter 4, is giving us a vision of what the Plan of God had revealed prior to the First Advent. As we go through this Chapter and into Chapter 5, we will find that more of God's Plan will be revealed to us. For example, in Chapter 5, we will see John weeping because no one had been found worthy to open the scroll, and then we will see the Lamb of God who was found worthy to open the scroll. So, what we will see as we study these two Chapters, is that they will show us what was necessary to happen, in order for mankind to be saved from the fall in the garden. The solution as we all know now, was Christ laying down his life as a sacrifice, and we will see that shown by the faithful Lamb in Chapter 5. The blood of the Lamb is what makes possible the Divine Plan of the ages.

Chapter 4 Revelation 4:1

Revelation 4:1 After these things I looked, and behold, a door {standing} open in heaven, and the first voice which I had heard, like {the sound} of a trumpet speaking with me, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things." (NAU)

An Open Door in Heaven

In this verse, we see an open door set in the heavens, which represents an opportunity for John and us to see further into God's Plan. It doesn't represent the same thing as the door just seen in Revelation 3:20. We had to open that door, whereas this door is already open. Some think this door only opens a vision into the Millennial age and the completed church. They assume that this vision directly follows the seven messages of the church, that we just completed. There has been a question raised by the statement, "I will show you what must take place after these things". The question is, after what things? If this vision is fulfilled after the things that we just saw in Chapter 3, we would have a problem, because then we would have to say that the vision is only future from the seventh church. Some try to do that, and that may be why some think this is only a vision into the Millennial Age, but we found that there were too many things that conflict with that view, especially as we go through the context of this Chapter, and as we get into Chapter 5, which is a continuation of this Chapter. As we will see as we look at these two Chapters, the interpretation of the vision of Chapter 4, will instead back us up to before the time of the First Advent and begin its vision and instruction, by showing us what was occurring with God's Plan before the First Advent.

The "I Saw" Break Starts a New Chapter

The next question is, what in the prophecy justifies moving the vision back in time to a new start point? Revelation 4:1 After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, (a voice) as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, Come up hither, and I will show thee the things which must come to pass hereafter. (ASV)

Besides the context of the two Chapters, the answer to that question is that if we have an "I saw", as given in the ASV translation that stops the previous vision, and begins a new one. John is being moved back to the point in time represented by the open door he saw, and to determine where to start the vision, we need to set the start time by the context of the vision. Some translations make it sound like the vision is going to continue onward from where the vision of the seventh church left off, but as we see from ASV, the after these things only applies to John's sighting of the open door in the heavens. We must place the time of a prophecies fulfillment, in the context that we find in it, and with the context of the next Chapter we will have no problem doing that, because it gives us a definite time for the vision of that Chapter. We will be able to do that with great certainty, because of the vision of the Lamb in Chapter 5, which is a continuation of the vision of Chapter 4. That shows us that everything in Chapter 4, had to be happening before the Lamb had proven faithful in Chapter 5, which was in April 33AD.

Vision of God's Plan Before 33AD

Because of that I saw, the Study Group found that the open door was showing us the situation with God's Plan as it existed before the First Advent. Prior to the Lamb proving faithful, we first had the promise of Abraham's covenant, which had promised a future salvation and blessing upon all through his seed, but the original promises didn't explain how it was going to be fulfilled. The addition of the law did not produce any fulfillment of the Abrahamic Covenant either, because as we will see in Chapter 5, no one had been found worthy or able to keep the law without failure. Abraham's covenant had promised blessings to two classes, the stars of heaven and the sand of the seashore, but prior to the First Advent the question was how was the covenant going to help those two groups? The Jews knew that they were promised blessings through the law and the Abrahamic Covenant, but it was never clear just how any of that would be accomplished. Since they were never able to keep the law fully, they didn't get the opportunity for the full blessing that they could have had. They got some blessing from being under the law, but it was not the full blessing that the Abrahamic Covenant promised.

What we are going to see starting with this vision, is an unfolding of the mystery of God's Plan to the church. The vision as we proceed through Chapter 5, will show us the blood of the Lamb, through which the blessing of Abraham would finally begin to be enacted on. We will see that the salvation became possible, because Christ came at the First Advent and he was found worthy, and that was because he was faithful and died for us. That was the mystery that had been hidden from the ages, and it also represents a view of the new and living way that Christ had brought to light at the First Advent.

Col 1(24-27) I myself have been made a minister of this same Gospel, and though it is true at this moment that I am suffering on behalf of you who have heard the Gospel, yet I am far from sorry about it. Indeed, I am glad, because it gives me a chance to complete in my own sufferings something of the untold pains for which Christ suffers on behalf of his body, the Church. For I am a minister of the Church by divine commission, a commission granted to me for your benefit and for a special purpose: that I might fully declare God's word - that sacred mystery which up to now has been hidden in every age and every generation, but which is now as clear as daylight to those who love God. They are those to whom God has planned to give a vision of the full wonder and splendour of his secret plan for the sons of men. And the secret is simply this: Christ in you! Yes, Christ in you bringing with him the hope of all glorious things to come. PHILLIPS

Heb 10:19-20) 19 Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh, (NAU)

God's Plan at the First Advent of Christ, was being revealed to a much further greater and complete degree than it had ever been before. We will also see revealed through the seven seals, about what was going to happen during the Gospel Age, because of the great falling away that was going to come after John's time. The scroll that is given to the Lamb in Chapter 5, contains a court transcript of the guilt of God's enemies written in advance. God's Old Testament word had contained a message of God's truth, but until Christ came, it was not fully understood because it was sealed. We will consider the scroll further and the reasons why it contained judgment, when we get to those verses in this discussion. We can in a sense see that the vision in Chapters 4 and 5, will open the rest of the book of Revelation to our view, and for that reason we will eventually see as we go through Revelation, all the bad things that will happen, as well as all the good things that eventually overcome the bad.

If the Lamb had not been slain, the plan of God as well as the prophecy regarding the great falling away couldn't have been revealed. Because of what the Lamb did, he was able to reveal to us what God was going to do about the great falling away, and the punishment of those who caused it. By the end of the book, we will also see the reward of those who resisted the temptation of the great falling away, and who remained faithful to the Lord. In the last couple of Chapters of Revelation, we will see Christ and the church coming to earth to establish God's Millennial kingdom, and the blessings that it will bring to all mankind.

Going Up to the Heavenly Viewpoint

The loud voice that John heard in Revelation 4:1 was as a trumpet, and it was an announcement stating that John in the spirit was to come up to the heavenly viewpoint, "Come up Here". The voice that we find here, is more than likely the same loud voice that was first described in Revelation 1:10, which was our Lord Jesus. This Chapter represents a change of viewpoint for John, which was different from the Isle of Patmos and the vision of our Lord in the midst of the candlesticks. It switches us to a heavenly viewpoint, where John and us are looking through the open door, which will first show us visions of God's wonderful salvation, and then visions of bad things that were going to come, and then finally the triumph of Christ and the church. We will towards the end of the book of Revelation, see how the evil church and state system is overcome, and how the saints are rewarded, and how they will be able to help mankind, when the New Jerusalem which represents God's kingdom, comes down to the earth.

Revelation 4:2

Revelation 4:2 Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was standing in heaven, and One sitting on the throne. (NAU)

Jehovah on the Throne

Coming back to the vision in this Chapter, we see that the one that is sitting on the throne, is without a doubt Jehovah. The throne represents God's power, and the right that he has to rule over the universe and all that is in it. He is the ultimate authority above all, even over Christ, who will turn the kingdom back over to him at the end of the millennium. There are at least three other places, that show the throne of God in visions that have similar beings to what are shown to us here. One of those is found in the Isaiah Chapter 6 and context, and the other one is found in Ezekiel Chapters one and ten and context, and Daniel Chapter 7 and context.

Isa 6:1-2)1 In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, lofty and exalted, with the train of His robe filling the temple.

2 Seraphim stood above Him, each having six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. (NAU)

Ezek 1:4-6) 4 As I looked, behold, a storm wind was coming from the north, a great cloud with fire flashing forth continually and a bright light around it, and in its midst something like glowing metal in the midst of the fire.

5 Within it there were figures resembling four living beings. And this was their appearance: they had human form.

6 Each of them had four faces and four wings. (NAU)

Dan 7:9 "I kept looking Until thrones were set up, And the Ancient of Days took His seat; His vesture was like white snow And the hair of His head like pure wool. His throne was ablaze with flames, Its wheels were a burning fire. NASU

There are many Psalms that speak of God on His throne. It's no coincidence that both the Psalms and Revelation are full of praise to God, because they both see God enthroned in splendor, "Ps 9:7, 11:4, 45:6, and 47:8 etc."

That we must look up into the heavens to see this throne, implies that we need to look up to reverence God, who is on the throne. He is not someone that we can stand face to face with, and carry on a conversation with as if we were equals. Only through prayer and the throne of grace that we have because of the blood of Christ, are we able to even approach the throne as sons. If you don't have the blood of Christ, you better not try to approach the throne without it. The result would be the same as the one who thought that he could attend the wedding feast without putting on the wedding garment.

The throne is more than likely higher up than all the other things that are seen in this vision, which again says the same thing in that God is above everything and everyone else. The Revelation scene by itself does not show us that he is higher than the others, but we get that information from the Ezekiel vision.

Ezek 1:25-26) 25 And there came a voice from above the expanse that was over their heads; whenever they stood still, they dropped their wings.

*26 Now above the expanse that was over their heads there was something resembling a throne, like lapis lazuli in appearance; and on that which resembled a throne, high up, {was} a figure with the appearance of a man.

In the Spirit Not a Literal Scene in Heaven

This vision is intended to teach a symbolic lesson, to instruct us in how things were before the First Advent, and then in Chapter 5 it gives us a vision regarding the providing of God's salvation for both the church and the world, after the Lamb was slain.

Being in the spirit is like being in a trance. That is like what happened to Paul when he saw visions of the third heaven, in which he questioned whether he had been there in his body or not.

2 Cor 12:2-4) 2 I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago-- whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, God knows-- such a man was caught up to the third heaven.

*3 And I know how such a man-- whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, God knows--
4 was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which a man is not permitted to speak. (NAU)*

We find the same symbolism of being in the spirit, in the vision of the valley of dry bones in Ezek Chapter 37. In that vision, the valley of dry bones is symbolic of Israel and their hopes of being restored back to their land on this end of the age. Their full restoration, which has already begun on this end of the age, will soon after the start of the kingdom, allow the world to join themselves to them and they will receive the sand of the sea shore part of the Abrahamic blessing.

Ezek 37:1 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and He brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. (NAU)

The vision Ezekiel saw of God, and the Cherubs was a vision in which he was also in the spirit.

Ezek 1:1 Now it came about in the thirtieth year, on the fifth {day} of the fourth month, while I was by the river Chebar among the exiles, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God. (NAU)

Ezek 8:3 He stretched out the form of a hand and caught me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner {court} where the seat of the idol of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy, was {located.}

For that reason, we can conclude that “being in the spirit” represented being in a state of mind, in which one would be able to receive visions and instructions. Being in the spirit, seems to be a state in which all the faculties come under Divine control. In that kind of situation, the visions could seem as if you saw a literal reality, but you would be seeing a symbolic vision which is designed to teach a lesson or lessons.

Revelation 4:3

Revelation 4:3 And He who was sitting {was} like a jasper stone and a sardius in appearance; and {there was} a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance. (NAU)

The Emerald Rainbow

Continuing with the vision in Chapter 4, John sees God on his throne with the rainbow around it. We also see that there was a rainbow around the throne in Ezek.

Ezek 1:28 As the appearance of the rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so {was} the appearance of the surrounding radiance. Such {was} the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw {it} I fell on my face and heard a voice speaking. (NAU)

God is described here as being like Jasper and Sardis stone. The Jasper and Sardis stone are the first and last stones on the breastplate of the high priest. Sardis is red or flesh color, which reminds us of the blood of the ransom, and is also found in the foundation of the New Jerusalem. Jasper is a clear or a diamond stone, and that is appropriate to this scene, representing clear hard and unchangeable truths, and is likewise found in the description of the New Jerusalem.

The Rainbow Covenant

The rainbow reminds us of the everlasting covenant that God made with mankind after the flood, in that he was not going to destroy the earth with a flood again. Gen 9:11-14) 11 "I establish My covenant with you; and all flesh shall never again be cut off by the water of the flood, neither shall there again be a flood to destroy the earth."

12 God said, "This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all successive generations;

*13 I set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth.

14 "It shall come about, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow will be seen in the cloud, (NAU)

In the book of Genesis, we see that the fallen angels had corrupted the earth by their improper intermarriage with humans.

*Gen 6:4*The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore {children} to them. Those were the mighty men who {were} of old, men of renown. (NAU)

It was against God's law for that to happen, and because of that and the evil that came about at that time, it was necessary to destroy the evil offspring. But as we see above, it will not be necessary for that destructive flood to ever happen again. He has given us both the Abrahamic Covenant and a New Covenant, that will allow Christ and the church to have a righteous rule over the earth in the next age, and to restore all back to the perfection of life that Adam had lost. The heavens and the earth will not be destroyed, but they will be changed into a new heavens and earth, Rev 21:1.

Pictures Blessing of the Abrahamic Covenant

In the vision in Chapter 4 of Revelation, we believe that the covenant that is represented in the green rainbow is the Abrahamic, which is an everlasting covenant. After the flood, God had placed a rainbow in the sky and promised never again to destroy the earth by a flood. Even though God's promise only talks about not destroying the earth by a flood, we believe that it also implies that he will not destroy the earth again by any other means. The Abrahamic covenant is the framework or the means by which he is going to be able to keep his promise. In that covenant, God promised to Abraham that through the seed, "Christ", he was going to bless all the families of the earth. The fulfillment of that covenant had to wait for Christ, the seed, to come and pay the ransom price. Once Christ, who was the promised seed of that covenant, paid the corresponding price, it could then begin to bless the stars of heaven, which is the blessing of the Gospel Age church. We will see the promised seed shown in Chapter 5, when we see that the Lamb of God was the only one that had passed the test and had proven faithful. Later in the Millennial age, we know that the blood of the Lamb will also bless the sand of the seashore class—which is the earthly seed.

Gen 22:15-18) 15 Then the angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven, 16 and said, "By Myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only son,
17 indeed I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your seed shall possess the gate of their enemies.
18 "In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice."(NAU)

Even though the law was added ahead of time, it couldn't save anyone, because only Christ was ever able to keep it. The sacrifice of bulls, goats, and, etc. could not save anyone, but they did teach the way to Christ through types and shadows.

Gal 3:23-24) 23 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, being shut up to the faith which was later to be revealed.
24 Therefore the Law has become our tutor {to lead us} to Christ, so that we may be justified by faith.

Emerald or Green Rainbow Equals Promised Blessing of Life

The rainbow as described in Revelation 4:3, is not seven colored like a normal rainbow, but it has shades of green in color. The Sinaitic does not say that it is green, but that color does make symbolic sense. Green represents life, and that seems to show that all life comes from God, and that the Abrahamic Covenant contained the promise of life. Later in Revelation Chapter 10, we will see a normal seven-colored rainbow that represents God’s Plan complete—the seven-colored rainbow shows us that the Plan of God has expanded and is developing the church, and that it will also be ready to restore the world in the next age, because of the blood of the Lamb. New life will spring up in the world of mankind through the restitution of all things, “Acts 3:19-21”. Restitution of all mankind is possible, because of the provisions of the New Covenant, which will be revealed a second time to literal Israel at the beginning of the Millennial age, and then through them to all mankind. The Gospel Age church will disclose that covenant to Israel and the world, when the 144,000 are complete in number. They along with the Lord, will use the benefits of that covenant to restore mankind to the perfection they had before the race fell.

The Rainbow was a Full Circle

It’s possible that this rainbow was not just a misty color in the air like a normal rainbow, but it could have been a more solid-like entity around the throne. It was most likely not a half shape, but its description seems to indicate a full circle around the throne. While it is rare, a full circle rainbow can be seen in certain circumstances. All rainbows are actually circular, but we usually only see the upper half most of the time. From an airplane or from up on top of a mountain, it’s much more likely that you will see a full circular rainbow. Circular rainbows around the sun are common, but a circular one that is not around the sun is very rare. We find that same kind of rainbow mentioned in Ezekiel 1:28.

While it doesn't describe the rainbow again in Chapter 5, the rainbow is most likely there, since it represents the newly revealed Plan of God, which was revealed to the church through the Holy spirit after the price of the blood of the New Covenant was paid. When God’s Plan had progressed, and has been magnified further, as we will be shown in Chapter 5, we believe that the rainbow would then be seven colored like a normal rainbow—showing that God’s plan has expanded and gone into action!

We see a normal rainbow shown with the strong angel “Christ”, when he has come down from heaven later in Revelation 10:1, which is the only other place in Revelation where a rainbow is found. And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: (KJV)

Since we are not told that that rainbow is still emerald or green in color in Chapter 10, we believe that it had become a normal multicolored rainbow in Chapter 5, which represents God's complete Divine plan that had been given to the Lamb, and which will save all who are willing. A normal rainbow has "seven" bands of color which would indicate the perfection or completeness of the salvation being brought. An interesting thing regarding the rainbow having seven colors in Chapter 5 and 10, is that if you take all seven colors and mix them together, you get white. That symbolically shows us the pure white light of the truth, the greater light of the Gospel regarding God's Plan of salvation, 2 Cor 3:9-11. The angel in Chapter 10, is not only bringing the bitter message of judgment that was soon to come against the nominal house, but he was also bringing a sweet message of salvation for all who are willing to accept it.

Blood of the Lamb Activates God's Plan of Salvation

Together, in this Chapter both the Abrahamic promise and the old law covenant, were showing us in pictures the way to the New Covenant. Up until the time of Christ, neither the Abrahamic promise nor the Law of Moses had could accomplish any deliverance. In this Chapter, we actually see the law covenant, which is shown by the different parts of the heavenly tabernacle that are seen in this Chapter. This Chapter shows us the Old Law Covenant, but that will change to the spirit of the law in Chapter five, where we see some of the symbols of the vision change because of the blood of the Lamb—which makes it possible for us to keep the spirit of the law. Heb 7:12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also. NASU

After the First Advent, both of those earlier covenants were then showing us through symbolism, how new life was available through the intervention of Christ and the price he had paid for us. Christ has become our new High Priest in heavenly places. He is not of the Aaronic priesthood, which demanded the keeping of a physical law, but he is of the Melchizedec priesthood able to save forever all who draw near unto him. Those who come to him are under the Melchizedec priesthood, are under the spirit of the spirit of the law, not the literal law which brought death.

Heb 7:21-22 (21 although he never said that of other priests. Only to Christ he said, "The Lord has sworn and will never change his mind: You are a Priest forever, with the rank of Melchizedek."

22 Because of God's oath, Christ can guarantee forever the success of this new and better arrangement. (TLB)

Rom 8:2-4 (2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For what the Law could not do, weak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh, 4 so that the requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. NASU

The Covenant of Peace Between God & Man

Just as we see in nature that a rainbow often follows a storm, we think this rainbow shows us that after the stormy time of trouble, that peace will come to the earth. That ultimate peace is pictured by the rainbow that God put in the heavens after the flood. Eventually, the covenant of peace will come to the earth and restore all things, and the earth and all things in it will be in full harmony with God again. Isa 54:6-10) 6 "For the LORD has called you, like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even like a wife of {one's} youth when she is rejected," says your God.

7 "For a brief moment I forsook you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

8 "In an outburst of anger I hid My face from you for a moment, but with everlasting lovingkindness I will have compassion on you," says the LORD your Redeemer.

9 "For this is like the days of Noah to me, when I swore that the waters of Noah would not flood the earth again; so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you nor will I rebuke you.

10 "For the mountains may be removed and the hills may shake, but My lovingkindness will not be removed from you, and My covenant of peace will not be shaken," says the LORD who has compassion on you. (NAU)

Revelation 4:4

Revelation 4:4 Around the throne {were} twenty-four thrones; and upon the thrones {I saw} twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments, and golden crowns on their heads. (NAU)

Different Interpretations of the 24 Elders

Several different interpretations have been given regarding the 24 elders over the years. We are going to look at some of these, and then consider the one that is most likely.

(1) One possibility, but one that is not common among Bible students, is that they are just angelic beings. That is possible, but we think that it's more likely that they have a special symbolic importance, just as the rest of the beings and items in the vision do.

(2) We also looked at the fact that there were 12 literal patriarchs of the Old Testament that founded Israel, and that in the new testament we have 12 Apostles. These together add up to 24, which is the number that we have here. That view has some problems, since we don't see anything to differentiate the two sets of twelve from each other, except perhaps that we do have twelve seats on each side of the throne. That interpretation does have a hard time explaining how the 12 sons of Jacob are found in a heavenly scene, since they are to be on the earth in the next age. We also have the problem that the vision in this Chapter is in the Jewish age, and for that reason we shouldn't have the Apostles in this vision yet. Some of the statements made by the elders later in Revelation, would also be very hard to harmonize with this view.

(3) Another possibility advocated is that the 24 elders represent the church in a future vision, when they are on the throne with Christ. That one has a major problem, in that when we look at all the places where the 24 elders are found, we find some contextual difficulties with that interpretation.

In Revelation 14:1-5, we find the 24 elders being mentioned in the same vision with the 144,000 of the church. Again, in Revelation 19:1-7, the 24 elders and the saints are found together, although after that, we hear nothing more from the 24 elders. That makes it difficult if not impossible for the 24 elders to be the church, since we don't think that the same beings would be represented by two different symbols in the same vision.

The church explanation for the 24 elders, also has a major problem right here in Chapter 4, because they are seen in this vision, which is showing us what existed prior to the Lamb being found worthy. The church did not exist in the heavens prior to the time of Christ, so the 24 elders must be something that existed prior to the First Advent! That is also a problem with possibility number 2. Solutions 4 and 5 solve that problem below.

(4) Another possibility that many Bible students favor, is that they represent 24 Old Testament prophets or even the Ancient Worthies. This one seems like a likely solution, even though there are more than 24 prophets in the Old Testament, and because of that it would seem that there should be more than 24 Ancient Worthies. Some solve that problem by stating that there are only 24 prophets that have spoken about restitution, and that again is a possibility, although there are some difficulties and differences of opinion in choosing who they should be. One other problem with that interpretation, is that when the books are opened later to do the judging, it would not include all of God's word, but only those prophets who spoke of restitution.

Complete Hebrew Scriptures

(5) The following solution solves all the above problems, because it utilizes all of God's Old Testament word, and not just certain selected prophets! The most likely interpretation of the 24 elders, is related to the preceding suggestion #4.

24 Courses of Priests?

One of the reasons that we believe that the 24 elders represent the church, is because in the Old Testament we find that David had divided up the priests into 24 courses. For that reason we think that the 24 courses of priests represent the same thing as the 24 elders, and because of that they picture the spiritual priests. That is not an unreasonable conclusion, but there is a another thought about the singers that we believe will help prove for us who those priests represent.

In the Old Testament, the priests were to be God's spokesmen and interpreters to the people in regards to the law. It's a reasonable thought that the 24 courses of priestly singers used to sing psalms of praise that contained knowledge of God's word to the people. If that's correct, we think it works better if those singers represent the books of the Old Testament, where we would then see that that the 24 elders represent God's complete word being sang to the people. Even in the original type, the 24 courses of priests were giving God's word to the people while singing, and that is exactly what the 24 elders or scriptures are doing in Revelation 5:9, where they are singing a new song about God's Plan. The 24 Elders in Revelation are also seen singing in chapter 5, and so that agrees with the 24 courses of singers.

They are now after the blood of the Lamb, able to sing the new song, because the slain Lamb had provided the price of salvation, and that new plan of salvation is what they began to sing about, Rev 5:8-10. Before the Lamb paid the price, the song was only limited to what had been revealed of God's Plan in Old Testament times. The song they sing now, is both the song of Moses who represents the Old Testament word and the song of the Lamb, who represents the New Testament word, as we will see pictured again later in Revelation. The old and the new songs agree with each other, and they confirm that God has a plan that will save all who are willing from both ages.

In the original study we found that the Hebrew Scriptures as compiled by the Jews in the time of Christ, had 24 different divisions to them! Since the study, we have gotten one report contrary to that, in that its claimed that there were only 22 books at the time, because there was one for each letter of the Hebrew Alphabet. It is said that because they were under the Greek language, that they later on changed the number of books to 24. The Jews were under the Greek language at the time of Christ, because they had scriptures written in Greek, and so we are not sure of the objection, except that it is said that Josephus claimed that there was only 22 books. At the present time, there are 24 actual inspired books as now counted, and so if nothing else, the 24 courses of singers definitely show that they picture the Old Testament scriptures. Another thing is that the Greek scriptures were being used at the time of Christ, and the text was made up of 24 letters, even if they had not divided up the books that way yet.

24 Seats Of Authority

That solution works out very well, because symbolically the 24 seats can then represent scriptural authority, and what else has more authority than God's word: 2 Tim 3:15-17) 15 and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness;

17 so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work. (NAU)

2 Peter 1:19-21 *We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto you do well that you take heed, as unto a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: <sup>20</sup>Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. <sup>21</sup>For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy spirit.

That kind of interpretation would also explain why we see the 24 elders in heaven with God, in that they represent all of Jehovah's Old Testament word and his law that has been given to us. That word existed before the time of Christ, just as we see in the vision in Chapter 4. When the books are opened later in Revelation, and we see that the people are being judged out of the things written, all of God's word would then be represented in that judgment as we would expect. The seats or thrones that they are sitting on, show us that they have the authority of judgment, which proves that we have the throne scene in its proper historical place, with the Mosaic law. We have the rainbow that represents the Abrahamic covenant, and now we see the 24 thrones, showing us that God's word has the authority of judgment, which was true before the time of Christ. God's word which Israel was under, was the ultimate authority that they violated, and was the reason that they were cast out of their land after the judgment of 33AD, and sentenced to remain that way until this end of the age.

This is the Law

That No One Could Keep

An important thing to recognize about those 24 seats here in Chapter 4, is that they represent the judgment of the law which no man could keep. To help prove that, we see that in Chapter 5, that John was weeping because no man was found worthy to open the scroll. Then he saw that the Lamb that was slain was found worthy, and he could open the scroll. An important thing to notice, is that the judgment seats in the vision then turn to bowls full of incense, which makes the prayers of the saints able to be offered up to the Heavenly Father. In other words, the payment of the blood of Christ upon the mercy seat, has made it possible for the church to be counted as sons of God and to be able to pray directly to God. We will see that concept of a major change in the status of the saints again in Chapter 8, where we see Jesus as the high priest, with much incense offering up the prayers of the saints.

The Heavenly Sanhedrin

When we consider the seats or thrones that the 24 elders sat on, they remind us of the Jewish high court called the Sanhedrin. The 24 seats would indicate that the scriptures have the authority to judge all matters, and that makes sense since we know they are the standard of judgment now, and they will be again in the millennium as shown in Revelation 20:11-13

That is the same picture as Dan 7:9-14, where there is a heavenly court in which thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of days took his seat. Again, God's word sets the standard of judgment, rather than the personal ideas of the individual judges as indicated by the books being opened. If we were under the literal law, then we would not be able to pass the test of those judgment seats, but because we are under the spirit of the law, we now have the incense that makes our prayers acceptable as sons of God.

Dan 7:9-10) 9 "I kept looking Until thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days took {His} seat; His vesture {was} like white snow and the hair of His head like pure wool. His throne {was} ablaze with flames, its wheels {were} a burning fire.

10 "A river of fire was flowing and coming out from before Him; thousands upon thousands were attending Him, and myriads upon myriads were standing before Him; the court sat, and the books were opened. (NAU)

Dan 7:26 "But the court will sit {for judgment} and his dominion will be taken away, annihilated and destroyed forever. (NAU)

*John 12:48-50) 48 There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day.

*49 For I did not speak of my own accord, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it.

50 I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say."

White Garments & Crowns

The white garments on the 24 elders, show us that God has protected his prophets and the prophecies that they gave us, so that they were kept pure and true. That they have crowns on their heads, shows that they are superior to all other writings, and that all religious writings must refer to them as being the ultimate authority. That is why we accept the chronology of the Old Testament that is given by them, instead of the chronology of the surrounding nations. We will later see them cast their crowns down before Jehovah, which indicates that they recognize that any authority they have, comes from Jehovah.

Revelation 4:5

Revelation 4:5 Out from the throne come flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder. And {there were} seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; (NAU)

That we see lightning, voices, and peals of thunder coming from the throne, shows that all truths and enlightenment come from God, as well as judgments and punishments. Flashes and peals of thunder are usually associated with God's presence, for example like when Jehovah came down to Mt. Sinai, "Exodus 19:11-20 and 2 Sam 22:13, and they are also seen in Revelation 11:19 when God's temple is seen opened. When the angel in Rev 8:5, hurled the censer filled with fire from the altar onto the earth, there likewise came peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake, which represents the judgment of literal Israel at the First Advent. There is a second time listed for a similar event, which is in the seventh bowl of wrath, and that seems to be the judgment and destruction of Satan's church and state system. When the seventh bowl is being poured out, there again came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, and a severe earthquake which represented the judgment of the nominal Christian house at the Second Advent, in

Rev 16:18. The first two events have already happened, but the third event must happen after the completion of the church!

Several times the scriptures indicate that when God had spoken from heaven, that a lot of the people thought that it was thunder.

John 12:28-29 (28 Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and will glorify it again." 29 The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him. NIV
Job 40:9 Do you have an arm like God's, and can your voice thunder like his? NIV

Lightning represents truth, in that just as we see in nature that a bolt of lightning lights up the darkness of the heavens, we see that truth lights up the spiritual heavens. The thundering is caused by the effects the lightning or truth has on the symbolic heavens. The thunderous revelation of truth and knowledge of God, shakes the spiritual heavens, especially if they are found not to be in harmony with the truth revealed. The voices are teachers in the Old Testament or in the Faithful Church that see God's word as it's revealed in the lightning flashes, and they use their voices to spread the new spiritual truth throughout the spiritual heavens.

Seven Lamps of Fire

In the throne scene in Revelation Chapter 4, we see seven torches yielding light. In the Old Testament, the lampstand with seven lamps was used to illuminate the table in the holy place, which had the bread of the Presence on it, "Exod 26:33-35, 25:37, 40:22-25, Num 4:7, 8:2, 2 Chron 13:11, Heb 9:2". That these lamps are seen in the pre-crucifixion scene, shows us that God had revealed the light of his word to Israel through the prophets. That Old Testament light was perfect and complete as pictured by the fact that there were seven lamps. The light of the lampstand showed what was on the table of showbread and the incense altar, and it also allowed the high priest to see so that he could do the work that was necessary inside the tabernacle. To prove that, we see that the Jewish age's light allowed our Lord to spiritually see what he needed to do, to fulfill all the types that were pointing to him as the New and better High Priest that was going to be in the heavenly tabernacle.

Anti-typically in a second application, those seven lamps also represent the light that God is supplying to the Gospel Age church, the members of which have been consecrating and entering God's service all through the Gospel Age. Just as seen in the type, the church as under priests can enter the anti-typical holy, and receive special instructions and knowledge above and beyond what the world can see. Both the lamps and the torches use oil, which is a symbol of the Holy spirit, "Num 4:9, 1 Sam 16:13".

Our Lord as high priest, could symbolically see by those seven lamps, so that he could see what was needed to be done to fulfill the type of the law, the church also has the light of those same lamps so that they may follow in the master's footsteps.

Zechariah's Lamp Stands

There is a similar picture in Zech 4:2-14, which also has a lampstand with seven lamps on it, and there were seven olive oil channels which fed the lamps.

Zech 4:2-6) 2 He said to me, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it with seven spouts belonging to each of the lamps which are on the top of it; 3 also two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left side." 4 Then I said to the angel who was speaking with me saying, "What are these, my lord?" 5 So the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord." 6 Then he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel saying, "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the LORD of hosts. (NAU)

Zech 4:10-14) 10 "For who has despised the day of small things? But these seven will be glad when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel-- {these are} the eyes of the LORD which range to and fro throughout the earth." 11 Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right of the lampstand and on its left?" 12 And I answered the second time and said to him, "What are the two olive branches which are beside the two golden pipes, which empty the golden {oil} from themselves?" 13 So he answered me, saying, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord." 14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth." (NAU)

On either side are two olive trees that supply the oil for the lights. In response to the question, "what are these"? The Lord answers, 'Not by might nor by power, but by my Holy spirit.' The oil of the olive trees then represents the Holy spirit, which God uses to accomplish his plan. The seven spirits of God have been given to our Lord Jesus by the Heavenly Father, "Isaiah 11:1-4". That the plan is going to be accomplished by the spirit and not by might, shows us that we are not to use violence to further God's Plan. God will accomplish his plan through his word, and the power of the Holy spirit.

In verse 10 in Zechariah, it tells us that the seven lamps are the eyes of the LORD, which range throughout the earth. The seven spirits are also mentioned in Revelation 1:4, 3:1, and 5:6. Seven is symbolic of completeness. Prov 20:27 says, "The lamp of the LORD searches the spirit of a man—it searches out his inmost being." The Holy spirit illuminates the things of God, as pictured by the showbread on the table, Exod 31:8, and makes them real to us. Jesus told us, "the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you,", John 16:15. The spirit also reveals Jesus to us, who represents the real bread that comes down from heaven, John 6:41, 58.

Revelation 4:6

Revelation 4:6 and before the throne {there was something} like a sea of glass, like crystal; and in the center and around the throne, four living creatures full of eyes in front and behind. (NAU)

Four Living Creatures

The 24 elders and the 4 living creatures, were more than likely arranged in front of the throne in a semi-circular. We think that the semicircle is probably a correct view, because they would most likely not be in a full circle, because that would place some of them behind the throne, and some of them behind God. They were arranged so that you could see them all at the same time facing forward, just as John saw them in the vision.

The central throne was raised up above all the other thrones, and all the other creatures. It's most likely, as seen in other scriptures, that the 4 living creatures were underneath supporting the throne, which would fit very well with them representing wisdom, justice, love, and power. Ezek 1:22 Now over the heads of the living beings {there was} something like an expanse, like the awesome gleam of crystal, spread out over their heads. Ezek 1:26 Now above the expanse that was over their heads there was something resembling a throne, like lapis lazuli in appearance; and on that which resembled a throne, high up, {was} a figure with the appearance of a man. (NAU)

There have been different symbolic meanings given by others to the four living creatures, such as four covenants or the four Gospels, but we favor the understanding of wisdom, love, justice, and power. We have a scripture from the Old Testament that proves to us that is what they represent.

Ps 89:13-14)13 You have a strong arm; your hand is mighty; your right hand is exalted.

14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; lovingkindness and truth go before you.

God's throne is being supported by those four principles, and we believe that they are in perfect balance. In the above Psalm, the words strong and mighty, would signify "power". Righteousness and justice, would represent "justice". The loving kindness represents "love". Finally, we have the truth, which is indicated by "wisdom".

The Sea of Glass

The sea of glass appears again in Revelation 15:2, but there it's shown mixed with fire, representing trouble, judgments, or testing. The sea of glass that is found here, is not just a large chunk of glass, but it's intended to remind us of the bronze sea that Solomon had built, and placed before the temple. Besides the larger one Solomon had, the original equivalent in the tabernacle was the bronze basin for washing the hands and feet of the priests, Exodus 30:18. The position of this basin in front of the holy, indicates that nothing unclean can approach God, but must first be washed or cleansed.

In the tabernacle, the water in the laver represented truth, and that is what we believe the sea of glass represents in this picture. That it's solid like glass, shows that God's word and truth as seen in the heavenly tabernacle, are unchangeable. It's not clear here if this is just a large glass laver, or if this object is a solid glass object. We see the church standing on the sea like glass later in Revelation, and so it's most likely solid. The symbol of the glass sea, is replacing the symbol of water in the original tabernacle, and, therefore, the glass sea symbolically represents solid hard truth. That shows us that the crystal or truth that is before the throne, and which the church is later seen standing on, is frozen, fixed, unchanging, or crystallized. That would make sense, since we know that God's truth is unchanging forever. He does not change his word, but his truth is everlasting. The sea of glass shows that while things from the world's viewpoint are not always clear, if we see things from God's viewpoint, they are crystal clear.

Under the law arrangement, the laver was copper or bronze, which represented human nature. In the Revelation picture, it's made of clear glass or crystal, which is associated with the spirituality of the heavenly scene. We likewise find the crystal type of material associated with God's throne in Ezek 1:22, 26, and 10:1. This vision is more advanced from that of the wilderness tabernacle, or even Solomon's, because the heavenly tabernacle is the one that the earthly one was based upon, and for that reason it's more clearly showing us the complete spiritual or higher nature of the Plan of God. Those who attain to this tabernacle as priests, will be of a spiritual nature like their Lord, instead of an earthly nature like the priests in the earthly tabernacle.

The Throne Scene and Original Tabernacle Have Similarities

As we examined this Chapter in Revelation, we found several similarities between this throne scene and the original tabernacle. That should not surprise us, when we remember that Moses was to make an exact copy of the things that he had seen in the heavens, and so what is being seen here is the original heavenly tabernacle that Moses looked at in the vision on the mountain! The original tabernacle in the heavens, shows us that God had his plan from the very foundations of the earth. As Paul tells us in Hebrews, the earthly tabernacle was an inferior copy of the one in heaven. Christ, our high priest, paid the price once and for all times and entered the heavenly tabernacle for us, doing away with the need for further earthly sacrifice.

Exploring this concept, a little further onward in Revelation we see that the lampstand, with the seven lamps on it in Revelation, which would correspond to the lamp stand found in the tabernacle. We also find that Isaiah 6:1, it explicitly tells us that the vision is in the temple. While it's not found in the vision of Revelation Chapter 4 and 5, in a later vision in Revelation 8:3, we find that there was a golden incense altar in front of the throne. A little further onward in the commentary, we will also explain why we see 4 living creatures here, rather than just the two seen in the original tabernacle. The glory of God, which was above the mercy seat in the tabernacle, is found here on the central throne in this vision and in both the Ezekiel and Isaiah visions.

Four Living Creatures Have Eyes

In Revelation 4:5, we find that the 4 living creatures are full of eyes. Those eyes seem to represent that God can see all things, both literally and symbolically. Not only does God know what is happening anywhere in the universe, but he also can foresee the future. He knows all things from the beginning to the end. That is not saying that he knows the ultimate outcome of everyone, but he knows from the average abilities of the human race, that of those that follow his son, that a certain percent will make it, and a certain percent will not. In other words, God can make a statistical prediction of the outcome of his Divine Plan, not from individuals, but from the average ability and desire of those who will follow his son Jesus. We don't believe that he decides who will make it or not, until each has completed his final testing, and when it is done no one will be able to say that God or Jesus judged wrong. Everyone will know where they failed, and that it was their fault, and the others will know why they overcame. We believe that what they learn in overcoming their sins and faults, is a part of the sin offering and that knowledge will be important in helping others to overcome their faults in the next age.

That all-knowing characteristic, is an important ability of the one who is to be a Judge, such as God and Christ, and the church is going to be in the next age. Unless you know all the circumstances of a particular case, you will not be able to render a correct and fair verdict. As we will see, God could know in advance what the apostate church system was going to do wrong, and when they symbolically were brought before the court in 1878AD, we see they were found guilty. The more we studied Revelation, the more we saw that it's like a court transcript written in advance, detailing what was going to be done wrong by the apostate church system and the punishment that they would receive because of their evil sins. God did not know which individuals would fail, but he knew that there would be some that would fall away to the temptations that the world, the flesh, and the devil would place in front of them.

Four Attributes & God's Plan

As we just mentioned above, we believe that the 4 living creatures represent four attributes, which help us to see and define what God and his plans are like. We find that these four attributes represent Power, Justice, Love, and Wisdom. The four attributes together make up God's character, and for that reason we should expect to see these characteristics exemplified in his plan in a perfect balance. If we don't see those four attributes in the Plan of God, we should ask ourselves if we believe in the correct plan. Only the Divine Plan of the Ages meets those requirements. If the 4 living creatures do represent the 4 attributes of God, as we will explore more fully later, they make God the best possible judge, since he has a perfect balance between all four attributes, and his son has inherited that same balance of characteristics.

Continuing the thought of the tabernacle scene, we should ask ourselves if those same 4 beings are found in the tabernacle, rather than only the two that were seen on top of the mercy seat. A quote from Tabernacle Shadows shows that all four are found there.

From Tabernacle Shadows Studies in the Scriptures

Tabernacle Shadows - Study 8 - Other Significant Types page 126

The slab of gold called the "MERCY SEAT" (or more properly the Propitiatory, because on it the Priest offered the blood of the sacrifices which propitiated or <satisfied> the demands of divine justice) represented the underlying principle of Jehovah's character—<justice>. <God's> throne is based or established upon <Justice>. "Righteousness and justice are the foundation of thy throne." `Ps. 89:14`; `Job 36:17; 37:23`; `Is. 56:1`; `Revelation. 15:3`

The Apostle Paul uses the Greek word for Mercy Seat or Propitiatory (<hilasterion>) when referring to our Lord Jesus, saying — "Whom God hath set forth to be a Propitiatory* [or Mercy Seat]...to declare his righteousness...that he might be just and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." (Rom. 3:25, 26) The thought here is in accord with the foregoing presentation. The Justice, the Wisdom, the Love and the Power are God's own as well as the plan by which all these cooperate in human salvation: but it: page 125: pleased God that in his well-beloved Son, our Lord Jesus, all of his own fullness should dwell, and be <represented> to mankind. Thus in the type the High Priest, coming forth from the Most Holy, was the living representative of Jehovah's Justice, Wisdom, Love and Power to men — the living representative of divine mercy, forgiveness, appeasement. Although the divine being is veiled, hidden from human sight, his divine attributes are to be displayed to all men by our great High Priest, who, as the living Mercy Seat, will at the close of this age draw nigh to mankind and make all to understand the riches of divine grace.

<The Two Cherubim> represented two other elements of Jehovah's character, as revealed in his Word, viz., divine Love and divine Power. These four attributes, Justice, the foundation principle, and Love and Power of the same quality or essence, and lifted up out of it, are in perfect harmony. They are all made of <one piece>: they are thoroughly one. Neither Love nor Power can be exercised until Justice is fully satisfied. Then they fly to help, to lift up and to bless. They were on the wing, ready, but waiting; looking inward toward the "Mercy Seat," toward Justice, to know when to move.

The High Priest, as he approached with the blood of the Atonement sacrifices, did not put it upon the Cherubim. No: neither divine Power nor divine Love independently required the sacrifice; hence the High Priest need not sprinkle the Cherubim. It is the <Justice> quality or attribute of God that will by no means clear the guilty, as it was Justice that said: "The wages of sin is death." When, therefore, the High Priest would give a <ransom> for sinners, it is to Justice it must be paid. Hence the appropriateness of the ceremony of sprinkling the blood upon the "Mercy Seat" — the PROPITIATORY.

Love led to the whole redemptive plan. It was because God so loved the world that he sent his only begotten Son to redeem it by paying to Justice the ransom price. So Love has been active, preparing for the redemption ever since sin entered; yes, from "before the foundation of the world." `1 Pet. 1:20`

"<Love> first contrived the way To save rebellious man."

When the Atonement Day sacrifices (bullock and goat) are complete, Love tarries to see the results of its plan. When the blood is sprinkled Justice cries, It is enough; it is finished! Then comes the moment when Love and Power may act, and swiftly they wing their flight to bless the <ransomed> race. When Justice is satisfied, Power starts upon its errand, which is co-extensive with that of Love, using the same agency — Christ, the Ark or safe depository of divine favors.

The relationship and oneness of that <divine> family — the Son and his Bride, represented by the Ark, in harmony and oneness with the Father, represented by the Cover — was shown in the fact that the "Mercy Seat" was the lid of the Ark, and hence a part — the top or head of it. As the head of the church is Christ Jesus, so the head of the entire Christ is God. (1 Cor. 11:3) This is the oneness for which Jesus prayed, saying, "I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me" — "that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the world may [then] believe." `John 17:9,21`

End of quote from Tabernacle Shadows.

Love, Power, Justice, and Love

Love and power, are represented in the two Cherubim that are lifted up out of the mercy seat. The justice that needs to be satisfied, is represented in the cover of the mercy seat. Wisdom is shown in the light that shines down from God on the mercy seat. In the different tabernacles or temples, that Israel had throughout their history, we see a progression of God's Plan from one to the other.

After Fall of Adam & Eve Cherubim Block Way to Tree of Life

1. The wilderness tabernacle had the Cherubim facing each other, showing that access to God was restricted after the fall in the garden, and that no one could keep the law which was a requirement that had to be satisfied to approach God. Only Christ could satisfy the requirements, and thus opened the new and living way for the church. Ex 25:18-22 (18 "You shall make two cherubim of gold, make them of hammered work at the two ends of the mercy seat. 19 "Make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end; you shall make the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends. 20 "The cherubim shall have their wings spread upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings and facing one another; the faces of the cherubim are to be turned toward the mercy seat. 21 "You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony which I will give to you. NASU

Cherubim face Outward During Gospel Age

2. In Solomon's temple, we see a change, in that the Cherubim are facing outward and standing behind the mercy seat, which would seem to picture the more open access to God during the Gospel Age, that the church enjoys since Christ has paid the price with his blood and has supplied us with the robe of righteousness which covers our imperfections. That the price of the blood is available during the Gospel Age for the church, is be shown by the fact that Solomon's temple did not have the two cherubim on top of the mercy seat, as was seen in the wilderness tabernacle. With the price of the blood paid, the new and living way has been opened through Christ. The two Cherubim are still blocking the way to the tree of life, but they are in the back of the temple behind the mercy seat, and so the church being led through the veil by Christ, is now able to enter the new and living way and be members of the priest class. The world is still blocked because of the two Cherubim behind the mercy seat, but the spiritual church can enter the Most Holy, because they have the blood of Christ.

Heb 10:19-21 (19 Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh, NASU

1 Kings 6:27 He placed the cherubim inside the innermost room of the temple, with their wings spread out. The wing of one cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the other touched the other wall, and their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. NIV

3. We don't know the arrangement of the temple that existed at the time of the First Advent for sure, but some say that Herod did not include the Cherubim in his temple. Since Herod's temple was not one that was ordered to be built by God, we then assume that we can ignore it. Only the wilderness tabernacle, Solomon's temple, and Ezekiel's temple, were sanctioned or ordered by God, and Herod's was not. Herod's temple was an expanded version of the temple that had been restored after the return from Babylon, and that one could most likely be understood as a restoration of Solomon's.

Cherubim are Gone & Not Blocking the Way to Tree of Life

4. In Ezekiel's temple, we see that the Cherubim are completely gone, showing that the way will then be open for the world to come back to Garden of Eden conditions. That the Cherubim are gone, is why we see the trees of life available again on both sides of the street in the last Chapter of Revelation. The Cherubim that were placed to block the way to the tree of life in the garden, will be removed in the Millennial kingdom, opening the way to the trees of life that are on either side of the river of water that is in the New Jerusalem, and which is flowing out of the temple.

Wisdom

In the wilderness tabernacle, wisdom is found in the glory of God that shines forth as the great light above the mercy seat, and that light shows us his plan of salvation for mankind. The light shines down on the mercy seat and illuminate's justice and shows us God's perfect law. We are also able to see love and power, as represented in the two Cherubs. While we can't see God directly, we can see his different attributes as they are likewise represented in his Son, the high priest. Jesus has carried out God's Plan exactly as the Father wanted it to be done. That is what Jesus meant when he told us, "If you have seen me you have seen the Father." He has the same four attributes that his Father does.

John 5:19-20 19 Therefore Jesus answered and was saying to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, unless {it is} something He sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, these things the Son also does in like manner.

20 "For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself is doing; and {the Father} will show Him greater works than these, so that you will marvel. (NAU)

John 10:14-15 14 "I am the good shepherd, and I know My own and My own know Me, 15 even as the Father knows Me and I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep.

The reason that we see all 4 of the attributes clearly, in the visions of Isaiah, Ezekiel, and in Revelation, is because as God's Plan has progressed, it has gradually become clearer to us, showing it as being more balanced or rounded out. For example, when Christ came at the First Advent, he could show that not only "justice and power" are found in God's Plan, but he also showed us that "wisdom and love" are also found in equal measure in the complete plan. God is not just exercising only power and justice, which would permanently block all of mankind from life, but we now see all four attributes working together to uplift mankind back to the perfection and life that they had before the fall in the garden.

Revelation 4:7

Revelation 4:7 The first creature {was} like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like that of a man, and the fourth creature {was} like a flying eagle. (NAU)

Living Creatures

The Greek word used for beast here is “zoon”,

2226 zoon (dzo'-on); neuter of a derivative of 2198; a live thing, i.e. an animal: KJV-- beast.

As a comparison, the evil and dangerous beast in Chapter 13, is “therion”. 2342 therion (thay-ree'-on); diminutive from the same as 2339; a dangerous animal: KJV-- (venomous, wild) beast. That dangerous beast resembled a leopard, bear, and a lion, and it blasphemes God, while the living creatures here worship God.

(1) The Lion

A lion would represent power, because in the Old Testament scriptures, lions were used to represent nations, “Ezek 19:1-14”. A lion makes a very good symbol of power, since a lion is very powerful, and no man can stand before a lion. Christ was to be a lion of the tribe of Judah, which we know was a symbol of power or the right to rule, “Revelation 5:5”.

(2) The Ox

The ox is a very fitting symbol of justice, in that oxen were used in sacrifices in the tabernacle. The Israelites sacrificed Oxen, to seek forgiveness for sins and offenses to God. The word ox means a young bullock, Strong's #3448, which was the actual type of animal sacrificed on the altar. The symbol of an ox is pointing to Christ, who satisfied justice for all of us.

(3) The Man

That the third living creature was like a man, reminds us of the love that God and his son Christ had for all of us, in that he gave his life for Adam and thus all of us, while we were yet sinners. A perfect man would have had perfect love. When the scriptures tell us, that God made us after his own Image, he is telling us not that we look like him, but that we were originally created with the same 4 attributes as him. Adam was created in the Image of God, in the sense that he had those same four attributes. Since Adam sinned and fell, mankind has lost the proper balance of the four attributes, and that is why the world has so much trouble. Since Adam, the only one who could have the four attributes in their proper balance, was Christ.

(4) Flying Eagle

A couple of key characteristics of an eagle, which is the last creature, are that it has keen eyesight, and they sometimes carry their young on their back. The eagle’s vision would represent wisdom, in the sense that only God can know and see all things. He knows the end from the beginning, and that allows him to exercise great wisdom in choosing the wisest method in which he can save the largest amount of humanity, and still accomplish his purpose of teaching us how bad sin is. He has imparted that knowledge to his son Jesus, so that he can carry out his plan.

We don't think that the 4 beasts in Revelation Chapter 4 represent Christ, because they are picturing God's attributes, but it's interesting to notice that later, we will see that he had all 4 of the same attributes. Christ was a perfect man, because he had the same 4 parts of God's characteristics balanced perfectly. That is why he could say that, if you see me, you see God.

- (1) We see that he was to have the power of the Lion of the tribe of Judah, and he was destined to rule the nations.
- (2) He was a willing sacrifice, as pictured by the sacrifice of the ox on the Day of Atonement.
- (3) The face of a perfect man reminds us of his great love, in that he as a man laid down his life for the rest of us sinners.
- (4) The eagle, because of its remarkable eyesight, pictures the great knowledge with which he can carry out God's Plan of salvation, and he also protects and carries us on his back like an eagle when we have need.

All Four Attributes Are Intertwined Through All of God's Word

If we see that the 24 elders represent all of God's Old Testament word, we then see that the four living creatures represent the power, justice, love, and wisdom, which are found in the scriptures. In other words, the 4 attributes of God are also intertwined and balanced throughout the 24 divisions of the scriptures. Taken as a whole, and not out of context, they present a balanced view of God's Plan of salvation. One place in the scriptures shows us God's power and ability to do anything, and another place shows his perfect justice or judgment against those who have harmed others. As we look in another place, we see his great love and his wisdom, in how he designed his plan to save all that are willing to accept his salvation by the end of the millennium.

Revelation 4:8

Revelation 4:8 And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within; and day and night they do not cease to say, "HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS THE LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY, WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME." (NAU)

There are three holies put forth in this translation, but some manuscripts have several different numbers of holies. The Sinaitic has eight, which means a new beginning. The singing is continuous, without stop. Eight is also a perfect musical scale, and that could be why John was hearing eight, because of the full harmony.

The Vision Here is Similar But Different Than Other Visions of Throne

Like the vision in Revelation, in the Ezekiel vision there are 4 beasts. There are several differences, and one major difference is that they have a different number of wings, 4 in Ezekiel, and 6 in Revelation. One very important similarity between the two accounts, is the throne that we find in Ezekiel 1:26, and in Revelation 4:2. In Ezekiel 1:28, we find a rainbow, which is like the rainbow in Revelation, except Ezekiel does not say that it is green in color. Both visions have eyes in the wings. In Ezekiel, each creature has 4 faces, while in the Revelation account there are four different creatures, each with its own face.

In Ezekiel 1:22, and 26, there was crystallite over the heads of the creatures, but below and supporting the throne and in Revelation, we find the sea of glass before the throne. In the Revelation account, we can't say one way or the other if the sea which is before the throne extends under the throne or not, as we see in Ezekiel. We can only guess that it most likely does, because in Revelation 15:2, we see that the 144,000 stand on the sea of glass, so it's obvious that it can support solid objects. Since the throne is higher up, as shown in the Ezekiel account, the throne is held up by the four living creatures, and that they stand on the sea of glass. In Ezekiel 1:12, we find the spirit of God, and in Revelation 4:5, we see the spirit again, except it's divided up into 7 spirits.

In both Isaiah Chapter 6 and Ezekiel Chapter 10, we have the fire of the altar. We don't see that immediately in the Revelation Chapter's 4-5 account, but we do find it a little later in Revelation 8:3-5, where we are looking at the fire of the incense altar. In Ezekiel as well as Revelation, we see the fire taken off the altar and thrown into the city. Both the Ezekiel and the Revelation accounts have precious stones, although they are not all the same stones in both places as best that we can tell. It's difficult to tell for sure, because it's not clear exactly what all the stones are.

Since these visions are visions of Jehovah on his throne, we would expect to find the same details in all three visions. Since we don't, the question then becomes why? In the next section, we will find that the visions are different, because each of the three visions is showing us a different aspect of God's Plan. The chronology that we have in volume two of Tabernacle Shadows, revealed some very important truths to the church regarding the harvest time, and regarding restitution. The Second Volume also talked about the time of the gentiles, and the 2520 years of the gentile kings. In the next section, we will see that the 1260, 2520 chronology that we are familiar with, is a part of a much larger pattern. In that pattern, we will see that we can graphically show the vision of the 24 elders, four living creatures, and the central throne of God, as described in this vision.

An Expanded Vision Of Bible Chronology

The visions of the living creatures, both in Ezekiel and in Revelation, have Bible chronology hidden within them. Both the 1845 year parallels, and the 2520-year chronology, point us to where some parts of Revelation are fulfilled in history. The 2500-year chronology is showing us the Jubilee, and the times of restitution. That this vision represents the 1260, 2520 chronology, keeps us from trying to place Revelation all in the past or all in the future.

To see how that is so, we need to bring into this discussion, an expanded description of our Bible Student chronology. What we have discovered is that there is more to the original chronology than what was presented in the Studies in the Scriptures. Instead of just two 1845 arcs or circles, or the single 1260 and 2520 arcs or circles, which are still the most important ones to us here, we found that there was a repeating pattern of chronology arcs or circles that began in the time of Adam, and reached all the way up to the end of the millennium. The same thing is true of the 2500-year Jubilee cycles. All three of these sets of chronology arcs or circles are centered at the midst of the 7000 years, which is described in Hab 3:2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy. KJV

That these patterns are intertwined with the second volume chronology, makes it impossible to change or move the dating system on this end of the age, from what was presented in the volumes. Any changes, which we think there are three that are necessary, must keep that dating system on this end of the age intact! In other words, the chronology system that we think is correct, has three changes that shift some of the time of Babylon events by 19 years, but which do not change any of the end time dates in the Second Volume. See “Biblical Count of the years-B2” for a full explanation.

There are three different chronology patterns that revolve around different visions of God in the Bible. There is one pattern that is made up of 1845-year judgment cycles. That pattern will be shown later in this book, and we will see that it represents Ezekiel’s vision of the four living creatures. By shading in the 1845-year chronology circles, we will see that it’s graphically possible to show four Cherubs with four wings and eyes in the midst of their wings, etc. We will discuss that vision more in the commentary in Rev Chapter 10, where it prophetically applies. There we will see that some of Chapter 10, is parallel to several of the Chapters of the book of Ezekiel. That vision is probably the easiest to see and understand, but we have decided to leave it in that Chapter, because that Chapter has prophecy that applies to the first few Chapters of Ezekiel, where the vision of the Cherubs is found.

There is also a pattern of 2500-year cycles, that comes from using the 25-year per cubit chronology in the wilderness tabernacle. We get some interesting numbers from applying the 25-inch cubit to the cubits of the bible, such as 6000, 7000, 1000, 2500, 100 years, etc. Those numbers are pointing to the times of restitution, and the 2500 year repeating pattern which is related to the vision that Isaiah had of the Seraphim in Isaiah Chapter 6. We can shade in four Seraphim in that chronology pattern, and they will have 6 wings, just as described in Isaiah. We will later, see that the 25-inch cubit will give us some very interesting results regarding the 144 cubits of the wall of the New Jerusalem.

We have also included a diagram of the wilderness tabernacle at the end of the comments on Chapter 21, where we will see that God had his planned designed from the foundation of the earth. Using the 25-inch cubit, we will find that the dimensions of the tabernacle give us seven important dates, and they also show that it is 7000 years from one gate post of the entrance to the other gate post.

What we will discuss here in this Chapter, is the pattern that is made up of the 1260 and 2520 circular segments. It’s directly related to Chapters 4 and 5 of Revelation, and the visions of the Living creatures can be seen to be graphically represented in that pattern. The 1260 and the 2520 chronology, is dealing with the question of who has the right to rule. The apostate church of the dark ages tried to establish God’s kingdom illegally ahead of time in the dark ages, and that caused the reign of terror that existed during the period from 539-1799AD. The 2520 years in this pattern, shows us the amount of time that the gentiles were allowed to reign after Israel was cast off as God’s people at the time of Nebuchadnezzar. That period also points to the amount of time that would pass before Israel would begin to be restored as a people, and history shows that shortly after 1914AD, when the 2520 years ran out, events began to happen, which would cause Israel to return as a nation. The time of trouble that began there, led to several events that caused the nations to allow them a homeland in 1948AD.

We are going to give a brief outline of that chronology pattern here, because of its importance in understanding Revelation. Revelation is essentially hung upon the framework of the 1260, 2520-year chronology, and that chronology pattern limits where in time certain parts of the book are being fulfilled. For much more detail regarding all three of the patterns, see the book called "The Divine Plan and Its Chronology, as demonstrated by Cherubs, Living Ones, Seraphim, and Cubits". That book's digital computer file is called, "Biblical Midst of the Years-B1."

2520 and 1260 Year Cycles

The vision of living creatures that we will see in Revelation Chapters 4 and 5, is derived from the repeating pattern of the 2520 and 1260 years of chronology, that is centered in the midst of the years. That same chronology of 1260 and 2520 years, is found in several other places in the Bible, represented by 1260 days, 3.5 times, 42 months, and the 7 times of Daniel. See the diagram on the next page, that shows a graphic picture of the repeating pattern of the 1260, 2520 chronology.

That pattern includes the 2520 and the 1260-year chronology, as found in volume 2, Studies in the Scriptures, and it shows that the chronology as presented in the second volume is correct in respect to the end time dates. The vision in Revelation Chapters 4 and 5, shows that the kings of the illegal apostate church and state system, were to be limited in time for how long they were going to be in power. The 1260 year circles of the chronology, show us that the apostate church system was only to exist in great power with the kings until 1799AD. That was the exact time in history that church-state authority fell apart, with Papacy losing control of the kings and the power that went with that. Napoleon was able to arrest the Pope at that time, and he threw him into prison where he died in 1799AD.

The 2520-year pattern on the next page, also shows that 1914AD was the end of the Gentile Times, and that was the extent of the power of the kings that had been associated with the harlot. That date also marked the point in which Israel could begin to return as a nation. The repeating 2520-year pattern also has the dates 1949 and 1989AD on it, which are important. The 1949AD date was when Israel was recognized by the U.N. as being a nation, and the Soviet Union began to fall apart in 1989AD. That fall of the Soviet Union, resulted in many more Jews being able to return from the North Country.

- (1) 4126.25 BC = Loss of dominium by Adam and entire race.
 (2) 721.25 Or 722 BC = the date of the ten-tribe's destruction
 (3) 606.25 BC = Babylon begins conquering Palestine and Judah
 (4) 538.75AD = Papacy begins the rise to power
 (5) 1798.75AD 1260 years later, Papacy loses the support of the civil power
 (6) 1873.75AD = The return of the Lord to Judge the church and to begin to take control of his kingdom. This was also the date of the end of 6000 years and it began the 40-year harvest.

(7) Oct 1914-The  $7 \times 360 = 2520$ -year calculation brings us to 1914AD, which was the end of the 40-yr. harvest. The date 1914AD marked the final end of the apostate church systems standing with God, and he no longer deals with it but only with individuals who must come out of her! That date also marked the beginning of the final vengeance upon the nations that had been involved with Papacy, Revelation 17:14 and Revelation 19: 17-21. After WW1, most of the kings that had been associated with the Harlot were either changed or destroyed. Regarding Israel, 1914AD marked the end of 2520 years of Gentile Times and the outbreak of WW1. The Belfour declaration in 1918AD showed that favor was beginning to come back to the Jews.

(8) Oct 1949-The war for independence began in 1948AD and by 1949AD Israel had re-established their nation again.

(9) Oct 1989- There seems to be a special overlapping in this vision that points to Oct. 1989AD as a special date, dealing with power and who has the right to rule. See the section on the 2520 and 1260 chronology in the book "The Divine Plan and its Chronology". This date is very interesting because we find that it marked the end of the Communist Empire and the beginning of its breakup. This pattern also shows we are entering the final dissolution of all worldly power, especially any which would resist Christ's coming kingdom. For that reason, the vision in Revelation seems to be especially showing us the third attribute of God, which is power or the authority to rule.

(10) 2873.75AD – Dominion restored- The 1260, 2520 chronology pattern above has the Revelation throne scene embedded in it if we shade and color the different parts so that we can separate them out as seen below. We don't want to take up several pages to show the separate features of the drawing below, like the four creatures, the crowns, the bows, the 24 elders, etc., so we recommend that you go to chronology book "The Divine Plan and its Chronology" in order to more clearly see the different parts. We will mention and show some of the parts below, but we aren't going to take the space to show them all separately.

Throne Scene & Emerald Rainbow

It's difficult to see here without separating it out, but each living creature would have six smaller 1260 year circles or wings associated with it. If you count the smallest circles, you will find that there are 24 of them. The center red circle is the central throne, and that leaves 12 circles on each side, or the 24 seats that the 24 elders sit upon. The golden portion above each seat would be the crown of each elder, who sit on the 24 seats.

Below you will find the four living creatures separated out from each other. If you look below, at where the midsized circles are, you will see that there are four different colors of circles. Each of these four sets has six circles in it. These sets of circles, are separated below from the 2520 and 1260 pattern, and they represent the wings of the living creatures. Above the circles, we have placed the same four sets of circles and shaded them in to make the living creatures easier to see. Where the central oval is, is where the face of the creature would be, the lion, the calf, the man, and the eagle.

Four Living Creatures

The fact that Ezekiel 1:10, 10:14, and Revelation 4:7, each give the faces or the creatures in different order, may have a special significance that relates to what each vision represents in each scriptural area. One thing we notice is that all three visions place the eagle or wisdom last. That may be because God has kept his divine plan hidden throughout the ages, and the mystery of God was not fully revealed until the days of the Seventh Messenger. Even though we have seen different aspects of his power or justice, and even the love of Christ's sacrifice, we have not until the days of the Seventh Messenger seen God's complete wisdom as shown in the Divine plan!

In the drawing above, we have placed power first, because of the creating of the heavens and the earth was first. We then placed justice next, because the law covenant was the next thing given. The third creature represents the Love of God, as shown through the sacrifice of his son to save the world. The fourth one or wisdom, will in the end be acknowledged by all when it is seen how God's Plan has provided both a heavenly and an earthly salvation.

It's not clear in the Revelation account, because of differences in the translations, whether the eyes are in the wings or in the living creatures. The term "round about", could be referring to the eyes, or they could be referring to the wings being circular in shape. The main point again, is that God is all-knowing and all-powerful, past, present, and future.

If we look in Ezekiel, at 1:24 and 10:5, we find that the sound of the wings was like the sound of abundant water (truth), and like the voice of the Almighty when he speaks. In Ezek 10:5, the voice was heard all the way to the outer court. That shows that even the people will be able to hear God's word in the kingdom arrangement, that is represented in the outer court.

In the Revelation vision, we see the throne scene, and the fact that only God along with Christ has the power and the right to rule over the world. All other nations must fall down in worship before the throne or perish. In the closing Chapters of the book of Revelation, we see our Lord and the church, who will reign during the millennium with the intent of saving all who are willing.

Seven Eyes & Seven Horns

We can also show some of the other parts of the vision, by shading in different segments of the chronology circles. These eyes are cut out of the circles of the complete vision, and shaded to show the eyes or the horns.

Rev 4:6 And in front of the throne there seemed to be a sea of glass, resembling crystal. And midway between the throne and the Elders, and surrounding the throne, were four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind. Weymouth

Rev 5:6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. (KJV)

If we cut out the portion of the pattern that we saw earlier that looks like eyes, not counting the central throne, we would get 14 sets of those. It's possible to shade these segments in two different ways. If you look at the pair on the right, they are shaded as eyes. The gray segment down below them, could be viewed as horns on the top of a steer head. The round central portion, would be the top of the head, and the two outer parts would be the horns. We would then be able to get seven eyes and seven horns out of the vision. That is of course if we don't count the central segment, since it represents the throne area.

That the Lamb has 7 eyes and 7 horns, shows that Christ has the perfect knowledge, wisdom and power of a Divine being. The seven horns represent the unlimited power that Christ has now that he has proven faithful. The verse in Revelation 5:6, tells us that both the eyes and horns represent 7 spirits. In other words, through the seven spirits or God's Holy spirit, he would have both power and wisdom. Jesus then gives or shares that wisdom and power with the church, through the Holy spirit and the messengers to the churches.

In Zech, we find that there is a stone which represents Christ, which has seven eyes on it. Zech 3:9"For behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave an inscription on it,' declares the LORD of hosts, "and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. (NAU) Zech 4:7"What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel {you will become} a plain; and he will bring forth the top stone (Christ) with shouts of "Grace, grace to it!" (NAU)

All of Chapters 3, 4, and 9 in Zech, seem to be a prophetic description of our Lord and the work that he was going to do, especially during the Gospel and Millennial age.

Revelation 4:9-10

Revelation 4:9 And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever, Revelation 4:10 the twenty-four elders will fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and will worship Him who lives forever and ever, and will cast their crowns before the throne, saying, (NAU)

We will see that the 4 living creatures, fulfill other important roles later in Revelation. For example, the four living creatures, one by one introduce the first four seals, "Revelation 6:1, 3, 5, and 7". One of the Living creatures, and we assume the one that is representing justice, gives the seven angels the seven bowls of wrath. Revelation 15:7 Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. (NAU)

The four living creatures and the twenty-four elders', act together to worship God in the proper way and with the proper balance, Revelation 4:9, 5:14, and 19:4. The 24 elders, always seem to join in worship with the four living creatures. Revelation 5:14 And the four living creatures kept saying, "Amen." And the elders fell down and worshiped. (NAU)

Revelation 7:11 And all the angels were standing around the throne and {around} the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, (NAU)

If the 4 living beings represent God's 4 attributes of power, justice, love, and wisdom, we need to ask a simple question; how are the four attributes related to the 24 elders or scriptures? The answer seems to be simple, in that God's 4 attributes are intertwined throughout the scriptures, and that they are not separable. The Old Testament scriptures, represented by the 24 elders, can only follow suit and echo the same sentiments as the 4 living creatures, since the entire Divine Plan has come from God and no one else. That the 24 elders and the 4 living creatures are seen together, supports the thought that they are related to each other in the above manner. The scriptures in different places, reflect different parts of the 4 attributes, but overall we see that they are in perfect balance when looked as one unit.

Cast Their Crowns before the Throne

When the 24 elders cast their crowns before the throne, we find that these crowns are not kingly crowns. These crowns are from a word which means "a crown of honor or glory". The crowns that the elders have on, symbolically represent the authority that God's word has, and they are acknowledging that their authority comes from God, when they cast their crowns down before him. They are showing us that only God has the right to claim honor, glory, and authority, and the scripture as represented by the 24 elders are all pointing to God as being the one that had crowned them with honor, authority, and glory.

4735 stephanos (stef'-an-os); from an apparently primary stepho (to twine or wreath); a chaplet (as a badge of royalty, a prize in the public games or a symbol of honor generally; but more conspicuous and elaborate than the simple fillet, 1238), literally or figuratively: KJV-- crown.

Later in Revelation, we are twice told the same thing regarding worshiping an angel, after John fell down before him and tried to worship him. The angel or messenger didn't want the glory, because he said that the honor and glory belonged to God and not to him.

Revelation 19:10 Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Revelation 22:8-9 8I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

9But he said to me, "Do not do that. I am a fellow servant of yours and of your brethren the prophets and of those who heed the words of this book. Worship God." NASU

Revelation 4:11

Revelation 4:11 "Worthy are You, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and because of Your will they existed, and were created." (NAU)

Since the scriptures are the source of all knowledge and information about God, this verse confirms for us that the 24 elders represent the scriptures. The church must get all of their knowledge and information about God's Plan from the scriptures.

2 Tim 3:16-17 16 All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness;

17 so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work. (NAU)

Eph 3:9 and to bring to light what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God who created all things; (NAU)

Revelation 4:11, gives glory to God, for having created all things. God created Jesus and then through Jesus he created all other things. God is the creator of all things, because he used Jesus as the instrument to carry out his will in creating all other things. King James does not have the word "God" in this verse, but it seems that many modern translations support the thought that it should be. We don't know why it would have been dropped out, unless it was an accident or unless someone edited it out trying to make this verse be about Christ, rather than God. The word that is used here is from kuros (supremacy); supreme in authority, i.e. (as noun) controller; by implication, Mr. (as a respectful title): KJV-- God, Lord, master, Sir.

This word could apply to either Jesus or God, but it seems evident from the context that this is referring to Jehovah, and that's probably why the modern translations supply the word God.

Some translations say, "because of thy will all things were created," rather than "for thy pleasure." Whichever translation is correct; we see that all things were created because God wanted them to be.

All of God's word was created by him, and in that word, all things pertaining to his Divine Plan are found. We find Judgment and punishment, as well as salvation and blessing.

Chapter 5
THE LAMB
Revelation 5:1

Revelation 5:1 I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a book written inside and on the back, sealed up with seven seals. (NAU)

There are some interesting parallels between Chapters 4 and 5, which shows us a major advance in God's Plan as he transfers more authority and honor to the Lamb of God.

God on the throne (4:2)	The Lamb on the throne with God (5:6)
Seven spirits with God (4:5)	Seven spirits of God with the Lamb (5:6)
The throne of God (4:6)	The throne of God and the Lamb (5:6)
Twenty-four elders worship God (4:11)	The 24 elders worship the Lamb (5:9)

Here in Chapter 5, we will see the Lamb receiving worship because he had proven worthy. That is the same thing we see, when we find Jesus executing the Father's plan later in Revelation. Jesus is doing the work of the Father, and that is why we see the similarities. Some try to prove the Trinity doctrine by these similarities, but that is not what is being shown. This is in accordance with what we find in 1Cor Chapter 15, where we see that Jesus is going to put down all enemies for God, the last enemy being death. After he does that, he then turns the kingdom back over to the Father. At this time, he has won the right to carry out the plan for the Father, but the Father still retains the ultimate authority, "Just like Pharaoh over Joseph".

1 Cor 15:25-28) 25 For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.

26 The last enemy that will be abolished is death.

27 For HE HAS PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET. But when He says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that He is excepted who put all things in subjection to Him.

28 When all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subjected to the One who subjected all things to Him, so that God may be all in all. (NAU)

Matt 28:18 And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. (NAS)

The Scroll with Seven Seals

John saw a book or a scroll being held in the hand of God, who is shown sitting on the throne. There were several possibilities discussed for what the scroll might represent. One question that was asked, was does this book represent the book of life, in which the churches names were going to be written? All in the study concluded that it was not the book of life. We will see why when we examine the contents, and see what is most likely included in the scroll.

We think that at least a part of it represents a view of God's Plan, because of what's seen about God's Plan later in Revelation! After the Abrahamic promises were given, no one knew how those promises were going to be carried out. Even when the law was given, it was still not clear what needed to happen before God's Plan to bless all nations could be implemented. In this Chapter, we will see what grand event started the fulfilling of God's Plan.

This book is sealed to the casual observer, because Satan would like to defeat God's Plan of salvation. In one sense, some of what is hidden in this scroll is the book of Revelation itself. As each seal is removed one by one, we see more of the hidden things of God revealed, but even then, the book is written in code. Only those who study diligently and who have the Holy spirit, are ever able to get an understanding of what it is showing us, to the unbeliever and the apostates it is largely sealed. The sealing of this book, is like the command from God to Daniel, that he was to seal up the words of the book, so that only the wise would understand.

Dan 12:4 "But as for you, Daniel, conceal these words and seal up the book until the end of time; many will go back and forth, and knowledge will increase."

Dan 12:10-11 (10 "Many will be purged, purified and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand. 11 "From the time that the regular sacrifice is abolished and the abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. NASU

Ezekiel and the Scroll

The reason we decided that this scroll contained more than what the casual reader could understand, is that we saw that the unsealing of the scroll was opening the rest of the entire book of Revelation to our view. So, as we went beyond Chapter 5, into the subsequent visions of Chapter 6 that resulted from the unsealing of the scroll, we saw for example the events that were going to bring oppression and tribulation upon the faithful church, and allow the apostate church to take oppressive control. We found that Chapter six, is an indictment against the evil church system that has been written in advance. That Chapter and the others that follow, contained predictions of what was going to happen in the great falling away, and the resulting judgments towards the end of the book that was going to come against the apostate church system, because of the great falling away. Most important of all, the seventh seal being broken represents judgment, and we believe specifically that it represents the 1878 judgment of the nominal house as we will explain when we get to that part of Revelation. In Ezekiel 2:10, we see that the scroll there, is written on the front and the back, with lamentations and woe. Chapter 4 in Ezekiel, provides us with the 390 and 40-year chronology, which we later in this book show in a table, which shows that the 40 years in that prophecy, is the 40-year harvest time of three different ages.

Zechariah and the Scroll

In Zechariah Chapter 5, we find a flying scroll, which also represents judgment. That the scroll was 20 by 10 cubits is important. Regarding the nominal house, we find that each half of the scroll is 40 cubits. Since there are two of them, it reminds us of the 40-year period of harvest at the First Advent, and the 40 period of the harvest at the Second Advent. The thief who tries to enter in by some other way, and the ones who are swearing falsely, will be cut off at the end of each 40-year period. The same thing will be true in the kingdom, where we see that by the end of the 1000 years, the thief and the ones swearing falsely will again be cut off in the little season,  $25 \times 40 = 1000$ .

Zech 5:1-4(5 Then I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold, there was a flying scroll. 2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" And I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits and its width ten cubits." 3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that is going forth over the face of the whole land; surely everyone who steals will be purged away according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears will be purged away according to the writing on the other side. 4 "I will make it go forth," declares the Lord of hosts, "and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name; and it will spend the night within that house and consume it with its timber and stones." NASU

In the spirit of having two or three witnesses, we see that the trumpets are also showing us the same decline of the church, but from a different viewpoint. The bowls of wrath are directly linked back to the trumpets, and what was being done wrong by the apostate system. When we studied the bowls of wrath, we received additional confirmation about what the problem was in each church period, and the seven bowls show us how God is after 1914AD, punishing the evil church system for what they had done wrong during the Gospel Age.

Scroll Contains Judgment Against Apostate System

It became evident as we studied this Chapter and the next, that the scroll contained a transcript of the court case that was brought against the church and state system in 1878AD, and it was very unusual in that had been written in advance. In the transcript, was a record of the many things that the evil system was going to do wrong, including killing many of God's Faithful Church. In the end, we see them judged and found guilty, and the loss of any reward that they thought that they would get. This is a tried and shut case, of which the only unusual thing about it, is that it was recorded in advance before it happened. There is only one judge capable of doing that, proving that he has the foreknowledge to predict everything from the beginning to the end!

Scroll Contains God's Plan That Will Restore All

Fortunately, this scroll also contains an explanation of how the death sentence that the entire world has been under since the fall of Adam, was going to be removed. It does that by opening the rest of the book of Revelation to us, so that in the later Chapters, we see the triumph of the faithful church over the Apostate church, and the vision of the New Jerusalem coming down to the earth, so that it can make all things new and restore all things back to perfection. Even in the situation of most of those who were involved in causing the great falling away, we see in Chapter 7, that they are eventually saved, but only because of the blood of the Lamb. Thus, they lose the reward of the high calling they could have had, but they still rejoice and praise God for the salvation of life they do get.

Because of the Lamb's blood that we see revealed in this Chapter, later in the book we see the victorious 144,000 of the church, and the resulting kingdom that comes down to earth to bless mankind. In other words, one of the things that the unsealing of this scroll does when it opens the rest of the book of Revelation to us, is that we can see what was going to be accomplished by Christ having died for us. That is why the 24 elders are able to sing the new song, and they fall down before the Lamb. We see that the scroll contains both the information leading to an understanding of the Divine Plan, and at the same time it includes an outline of all the events that needed to occur before the plan can be completed. The terrible events that we see revealed by the opening of the scroll, are needed to test and try the Faithful Church, to make sure they are worthy of the glory and honor they are going to get in the next age. The 144,000 must prove their loyalty to the Heavenly Father and his plan, no matter what the temptations are.

The scroll contains judgment of not only individuals, but it also judges the Christian system at the end of the age. It shows us how Jehovah and our Lord are going to bring a plan to the world that is going to save all who are willing. There is a plan of heavenly salvation for the church, and there will also be a plan of salvation for the world in the next age.

Book is in God's Right Hand

The book is seen in the right hand of Jehovah, since the executing of the plan is something that is near and dear to him, the right hand being considered the position of favor in the Bible. We see the same thing in Revelation 1:16, and 20, where Christ was seen with the seven stars in his right hand. Christ also sat down at the right hand of God after he had proven faithful, showing his importance and the power that he had won, "Ps 110:1, Heb 1:3, 8:1".

The Seven Seals

That the seven seals are intact here, places the start of this vision at a time prior to the First Advent, and the giving of the ransom. Since the scroll was in God's hand, no one would be able to open it until he found one who was worthy to do so. With the seals on the scroll, you would be able to read partially the outside, but the complete message inside could not be read. That is the way that God's Plans were known before Christ, in that only bits and pieces of the Plan could be seen in the Old Testament—here a little, there a little. The complete plan as seen in the New Testament, was hidden from direct sight on the inside of the scroll. Only after Christ began to remove the seals, were we able to look further into the Plan of God and the events that would need to take place.

Isa 28:9-10 (9 "Whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, those taken from the breast?

10 For it is precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little." (RSV)

The scroll is sealed up in a manner such that as each seal is removed, you would be able to unroll the scroll a little bit further, and more of the messages and visions could be seen. By the time you would remove the seventh seal, you would then be able to read the entire message, because when the scroll was completely unrolled, you would be able to read both sides completely—such as in the days of the Seventh Messenger. God's Plan was hidden such that a lot of it was under a time lock, in that it couldn't be understood until enough events happened to reveal what the original message was about. The understanding of Bible chronology was also a big key to unlocking the message, because it showed where in the stream of time we should be looking for the fulfillments of the visions. The chronology was not able to be understood, until enough events had happened so that it was showing us how it applied at a day per year, and when to start it. That is the reason that the Divine Plan has become more understandable as time has gone by. The complete unfolding of the message for that reason was only possible at the time of the Messenger to the Seventh Church.

Increasing Light Through Gospel Age

Each church has received an additional portion of light, as each seal was undone, and we are shown what each church was going to do wrong as it fell further into error. Only those of each church period, who were watching and listening for instruction from the Lord, could overcome and win their place in the 144,000. The events in the church are shown to have gotten worse and worse through the first four church periods. During the fifth through the seventh churches, the Lord reversed the downward trend—because from the fifth church onward he began to break down the power of the church and state system. At the time of the Seventh Messenger to the church, we see that Pastor Russell gathered up what was good from what had been seen up to his time, and added his part to the whole.

Prov 4:18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, that shines brighter and brighter until the full day.

Revelation 5:2-5

Revelation 5:2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book and to break its seals?"

Revelation 5:3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the book or to look into it.

Revelation 5:4 Then I {began} to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look into it;

Revelation 5:5 and one of the elders said to me, "Stop weeping; behold, the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so as to open the book and its seven seals." (NAU)

Who is the strong angel? First, we need to remind ourselves what the symbol of an angel can represent in the book of Revelation. The word can refer to an actual angel, but it also can be anyone who delivers a message. 32 aggelos (ang'-el-os); from aggello [probably derived from 71; compare 34] (to bring tidings); a messenger; especially an "angel"; by implication, a pastor: KJV-- angel, messenger.

From this we can see that it can be a heavenly being with a message, or it can be someone like an earthly pastor with a message to deliver. In the situation of the seven angels or messengers to the church, we saw that they were earthly pastors or individuals.

The phrase "under the earth", is not in the Sinaiticus manuscript in both verses 3 and 13. It's not clear if it is spurious or not.

Since this is someone or something that brings tidings or a message, we see one other possibility. In this Chapter where we see that this is a strong angel, we think that this angel is representative of the message of God's law, and the perfect standard that it requires of all who would try to keep it. For that reason, we would say that this strong angel represents the law or God's commandments which were continually looking and testing for someone that could meet the laws high standard. That's why this angel asks the question: Who is worthy? It was his job as the perfect standard, to find someone that was worthy and able to keep the law.

No One Was Worthy

If we look at this situation in respect to the law and its strictness, we see that no one or no man was ever found worthy to open the seals, and look into God's Plan until Christ came and proved he could keep the law, and keep the proper balance between God's four attributes. He didn't keep the law according to the traditions of men, but he kept it the way God had intended it to be kept.

Jesus Properly Balanced the Law Between all 4 Attributes

That was why he was constantly getting into trouble with the Scribes and the Pharisees. He saw that to keep the law correctly, was to keep a proper balance between the four attributes of God. That was why he could tell the Scribes and Pharisees, that if an Ox had fallen into the ditch on the Sabbath, that the proper thing to do was to help it out of the ditch. The same thing was true when his disciples plucked grain from a field on the Sabbath to satisfy their hunger. The intent of the law was that it was to be a help to mankind, not a hindrance. The law of the Sabbath was given, so that man could have a day of worship and rest. It was a misinterpretation of the law, that would stop you from reacting to an emergency, and helping a poor animal out of the ditch. If you look at all the other things that Christ did that at first glance seem to be a violation of the strict law, you will see that what he did was keeping a proper balance between the four attributes of God. The law was made for man, not man for the law.

God Allowed Time To See if Anyone Could Keep It

God gave man a set amount of time to see if anyone would prove worthy, but no one ever did. All they had to do was keep the law properly, and they would have satisfied the requirement. Since mankind was sliding further into sin and imperfection as time went on, it had become obvious by the time of the First Advent that no earthly man born of a fallen Adam was ever going to be found that could keep it. Remember that the Old Testament scriptures tell us no man could provide a ransom for another man? History shows that scripture was true except for Christ—who did provide a ransom for Adam and through him to the entire race that had been lost.

*Ps 49:7-8) 7 No man can by any means redeem {his} brother or give to God a ransom for him--
8 For the redemption of his soul is costly, and he should cease {trying} forever--*

Abrahamic Covenant & the Law

Chapter 4 and the beginning of 5, was showing us the situation that existed when the Abrahamic promise and the strict law was the only part of God's Plan that had been revealed. The Jews had thought that the law led to life, but Paul said that it did not. What they didn't realize was that it was intended to be a schoolmaster leading us to Christ, who we could get life from. It was also intended to show us what sin was and how exceedingly bad it was. The Old Testament had been a sealed up book up to the time of the First Advent, as far as knowing what was going to happen and what God's complete plan was. Only those of the Jews who were watching and studying God's word, recognized the Messiah when he came, because most had the wrong idea about why he was coming. Most thought that he was going to be a powerful general that would overthrow the Romans, but that was not why he had come. He came to shed his blood on the cross and die for our sins, so that all who are willing can be saved. Since the old law covenant was not able to be kept by mortal men, he also came to establish a new agreement that could be kept, because mankind could keep the spirit of the law under the new agreement. What most churches still don't recognize, is that there are going to be two salvations, the first was to be the heavenly church, and the second salvation will be the earthly salvation of the world, who will be restored back to perfection.

Before the Lamb Proved Worthy

In Chapter 5, we see God's Plan and the hidden message of God's Plan, and knowledge of the coming great falling away, sealed up in a scroll and no one was found worthy to open it. The seals implied that it was intended to be read, but it would require someone special to open the seals. John was greatly upset and was weeping, because no one had been found worthy to open the scroll up to the time of the First Advent. That great sorrow was understandable, since if the scroll couldn't have been opened, there would have been no means by which God's Plan could have been executed and begun to be carried out.

The Lion that is from the Tribe of Judah, the Root of David

Genesis 49:8-10 Judah, you are he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. <sup>9</sup>Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, you are gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? <sup>10</sup>The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh (Messiah) come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Isaiah 11:10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.

Salvation is Now Possible

We see a different situation in Rev 5:5 regarding salvation, which is different and more Advanced than what we saw in Chapter 4 and even in the previous verse, where no one was found worthy. When Christ had proven that he was faithful, he then had earned the right to open the scroll that contained God's Plan and he had earned the right to carry it out. He could receive the scroll, because he had satisfied the law and its requirements, and he gave his life and his sacrifice on the cross so that he could save all that were willing. He was obedient unto death, so that through his and his Father's love, all men could be restored. That is why he is now shown sitting on the throne with the Father, in that he now shares in the glory and the power that had previously belonged to God alone.

In verse seven, we will see the Lamb take the scroll out of the Fathers hand, because he was found worthy to open it. Starting in Chapter six, he will unseal the seals one at a time. We believe that the writing on the outside of the scroll represented the entire Old Testament scriptures. In other words, it was possible to read all of the Old Testament, which included all the promises and all the threats of judgment contained therein. The judgments that were hidden there, were prophesied about in such books like Daniel when he showed us the fourth beast and the final judgment and the disposal of the beast by a symbolic burning.

Promise of Two Salvations

The promise of a great blessing of two different salvations, was given in the covenant with Abraham, but no one knew how it was going to be fulfilled. What all the revelations in the Old Testament meant, was still hidden on the inside of the scroll, until after the time of the crucifixion and the giving of the Holy spirit. That's when the church began to understand how those scriptures applied to what was happening in their day and we are now seeing how some of those same prophesies already have had a second fulfillment on this end of the age. There are many Old Testament scriptures that will have a second application and an even greater fulfillment in our day. A good example is the pouring out of God's spirit at Pentecost, will happen again a second time when the kingdom is established with Israel and the world.

As we go through the book of Revelation, we will see that a great deal of what is brought out in Revelation, is pointing us back to the Old Testament prophecies. Because of that, we see that Revelation is not just explaining by itself what was going to happen during the Gospel Age and the Millennial age. It's also explaining many of the Old Testament scriptures that had already been revealed, but not fully understood. So, the message of the falling away of the unfaithful church and its eventual punishment, will be seen to have been predicted in the Old Testament all along. The same is true of the salvation that the blood of the Lamb has brought to both ages, in that it will also be seen to have been testified about previously, but again it was not fully understood during the Jewish age.

At least part of what was hidden on the inside of the scroll was God's New Covenant, that Christ made possible when he came and died at the First Advent. Another way to look at this, is that the types and shadows that had been given in the Old Testament, could be seen on the outside of the scroll. What was on the inside was the mystery that had been hidden since the foundation of the world, and the correct interpretation of those types and shadows is what came to the church when the Holy spirit was given at Pentecost.

Col 1:24-27 I myself have been made a minister of this same Gospel, and though it is true at this moment that I am suffering on behalf of you who have heard the Gospel, yet I am far from sorry about it. Indeed, I am glad, because it gives me a chance to complete in my own sufferings something of the untold pains for which Christ suffers on behalf of his body, the Church. For I am a minister of the Church by divine commission, a commission granted to me for your benefit and for a special purpose: that I might fully declare God's word - that sacred mystery which up to now has been hidden in every age and every generation, but which is now as clear as daylight to those who love God. They are those to whom God has planned to give a vision of the full wonder and splendour of his secret plan for the sons of men. And the secret is simply this: Christ in you! Yes, Christ in you bringing with him the hope of all glorious things to come. PHILLIPS

When Christ paid the ransom price for the world and for us, it then became possible to look further into the scroll. Besides the predictions of the great falling away and the things that were going to be done wrong by the church and state system, we can now see that God had a hidden plan that was capable of saving all that were willing. Up to the time that the Lamb had proven worthy, there was only a plan that applied to the Jews, and the Gentiles had no hope of a plan of salvation, outside of a few scriptures that seemed to include them, but which did not fully explain how that was possible. How that could be possible was not understood at all, until after Christ and the Apostles revealed it through the Holy spirit.

The Little Scroll in Chapter 10 Only Part of the Message

The little scroll, as it was first seen in Revelation Chapter 10, is not the complete scroll we see here, but it contained only the "time of the end part that was due in 1799AD", revealing both the punishments and blessings that were then due. That's why it uses the adjective "little", when we first see the scroll there. We will discuss the reasons for that more fully when we cover that Chapter, but the angel that is seen in that Chapter, is representing the gradual standing up of Michael at the time of the end from 1799 to 1874AD, and the judgments that were then due at the harvest time. As you go through Chapter 10, if you look up the Greek words that are used there, it's interesting that the little scroll changes and it is the larger scroll at the time that it mentions the days of the Seventh Angel with the trumpet, and so we know that greater understanding was to come on the seventh day. We don't believe that the change over to the larger scroll at that time is an accident, since that was when the mystery of God was going to be revealed.

The scroll in Ezekiel Chapters 2 and 3, is directly related to the scroll in Revelation Chapter 10, and seems to be a more complete description of what is in it the scroll. The message was sweet in both John's and Ezekiel's mouth, since it contained a sweet message of salvation. Unfortunately, it also had mourning, lamentation, and woe written on it, because it contained judgments against Israel that applied in the first instance at the time of Babylon, and then again at the time of the First Advent. In a third application of the prophecy the judgments in it are directed against the fallen church and state system on this end of the age. If we consider that the scroll that Ezekiel ate was what revealed the rest of the book of Ezekiel to him, we then see a similar situation as to what happened to John in Chapter ten, when he ate and digested the scroll. More of God's Plans and purposes were revealed to both, but because of the blessings and the judgments that were revealed, it was sweet in the mouth, but bitter in John's stomach. We will cover Chapter 10 and Ezekiel in detail when we get to it.

Lion of the Tribe of Judah

Revelation 5:5 and one of the elders said to me, "Stop weeping; behold, the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so as to open the book and its seven seals."

Since Revelation 5:5, tells us that Jesus was of the lion of the tribe of Judah, we see that this statement was intended to point us back to the prophecy in Gen 49:8-12.

Gen 49:8-12) 8 "Judah, your brothers shall praise you; your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons shall bow down to you.

9 "Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, you have gone up. He couches, he lies down as a lion, and as a lion, who dares rouse him up?

10 "The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until Shiloh comes, and to him [shall be] the obedience of the peoples.

11 "He ties [his] foal to the vine, and his donkey's colt to the choice vine; He washes his garments in wine, and his robes in the blood of grapes.

12 "His eyes are dull from wine, and his teeth white from milk.

The Lion of the tribe of Judah, is the one who was to be given the power or right to rule. In the prophecy we find that the scepter or right to rule was not to depart from Judah, and that was the tribe that Jesus came from through Mary.

Matt 1:2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers. (NAU) Matt 1:15-16) 15 Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob. 16 Jacob was the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah. (NAU)

The Scepter

The scepter was given to our Lord Jesus after he was tested and had proven faithful. That was the scepter that God had overturned three times, and then removed it from natural Israel. He then gave the complete right to rule to Jesus after he proved faithful. Christ has had the scepter since the First Advent, but he will not exercise its full power, until the beginning of his kingdom on this end of the age. Since we are in the overlap between the two ages, he is starting to exercise some of that power now.

Ezek 21:25-27) 25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, 26 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him. (KJV)

Heb 10:12-13 (12 but He, having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, SAT DOWN AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD, 13 waiting from that time onward UNTIL HIS ENEMIES BE MADE A FOOTSTOOL FOR HIS FEET. NASU)

The Root of David

That he is the root of David, points us to the promise that God would have someone to sit on the throne of David forever. We understand that it is Christ head and body, who will occupy the symbolic throne of David during the millennium. 2 Sam 7:16 "Your house and your kingdom shall endure before Me forever; your throne shall be established forever." (NAU) (See also, 1Kings 9:5, 1 Chron 17:14, Isaiah 9:7, 11:1, 11:10, 16:5, Jer 23:5,6, Zech 3:8, 6:12, Matt 24:41, Luke 1:32, Rom 15:12, Revelation 22:16).

Revelation 5:6-7

Revelation 5:6 And I saw between the throne (with the four living creatures) and the elders a Lamb standing, as if slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.

Revelation 5:7 And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne. (NAU)

The Slain Lamb

This is the first mention of the Lamb in Revelation, and the term Lamb occurs exactly “30” times in the New Testament, provided we subtract the one that was only “like a lamb” and which clearly represents the Satan controlling power of Papacy in Revelation 13:11. The reference to a Lamb in Revelation 5:6, is a very clear and an uncontested reference to Jesus. Both John and Peter refer to Jesus as being the Lamb of God.

John 1:29 The next day he saw Jesus coming to him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! (NAU)

John 1:36 and he looked at Jesus as He walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" (NAU)

1 Pet 1:19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and spotless, {the blood} of Christ. (NAU)

Paul calls Jesus, our Passover lamb, who has been sacrificed.

1 Cor 5:7 Clean out the old leaven so that you may be a new lump, just as you are {in fact} unleavened. For Christ our Passover also has been sacrificed. (NAU)

The Lamb in Revelation Chapter 5, looked as if it had been slain, pointing us to the crucifixion. The Lamb of God is alluded to in Genesis 22:7, when Abraham was about to sacrifice Isaac. Isaac asked where the lamb for the burnt offering was, and Abraham replied; “God will provide himself a lamb for the burnt offering my son.” Jesus is also the Lamb of the Passover, “Exodus 12:3-21”. When the destroying angel saw the blood of the Lamb on the lintels of the doors, he passed over the Israelites and killed the first-born of the Egyptians instead. The verse in Isa 53:7, is one of many passages that mention the Lamb in the Old Testament. He exactly describes the Messiah as being “like a Lamb led to the slaughter”.

Isa 53:7 He was oppressed and He was afflicted, yet He did not open His mouth; like a lamb that is led to slaughter, and like a sheep that is silent before its shearers, so He did not open His mouth. (NAU)

Jesus on the Throne

That Jesus is in the center of the throne is also shown in Revelation 7:17.

Revelation 7:17 for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes." (NAU)

Stephen, the first martyr, saw Jesus standing at the right hand of God. Acts 7:55 But being full of the Holy spirit, he gazed intently into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God;

Revelation 3:21 also tells us that Jesus is now seated on his Father's throne. "He who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. (NAU) Revelation 22:1 Then he showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of God and of the Lamb, (NAU)

Slain literally means "victim for sacrifice", and directly links Jesus to the symbol of the slain Passover Lamb.

KILL 7. sphazo, or sphatto ^4969^, "to slay, to slaughter," especially victims for sacrifice, is most frequently translated by the verb "to slay"; so the RV in <Revelation. 6:4> (KJV, "should kill"), in <13:3>, RV, "smitten unto death" (KJV, "wounded"). See SLAY, WOUND. Cf. katasphazo, "to kill off," <Luke 19:27>; # sphage, "slaughter," e. g., <Acts 8:32>, and sphagion, "a victim for slaughter," <Acts 7:42>. # (from Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words) (Copyright (C) 1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

Jesus Paying the Price Put God's Plan Into Its Next Phase of Salvation

This is one of the most important parts of the Chapter or even of the book, in that nothing else would have been possible if Christ had not suffered and died and paid the ransom price for all of us—which is for both the church and the world. That the Lamb is shown as having been slain, directly points to the fact that Christ died for us. When Christ offered himself as a sacrifice, he replaced the types of the sacrifices as found in the law, and it was no longer necessary to offer bullocks, goats, and lambs. Since he is now our high priest forever, he has accomplished a better sacrifice for us that doesn't have to be continually be redone.

Heb 10:10-14) 10 By this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. 11 Every priest stands daily ministering and offering time after time the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins; 12 but He, having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, SAT DOWN AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD, 13 waiting from that time onward UNTIL HIS ENEMIES BE MADE A FOOTSTOOL FOR HIS FEET. 14 For by one offering He has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Unfortunately, most in the fallen churches don't understand this important doctrine, and they think that they must sacrifice him over and over again in the Abomination of the Catholic mass, or its Protestant equivalent.

Escape from Egypt by Israel

We might ask the question; why did it use the symbol Lamb here rather than bullock or some other sacrifice? It seems obvious, that God wanted us to consider the pictures and types that we find in the original Passover, and the coming up of Israel out of Egypt. We see that "all" Israel, both the priest class, as well as the earthly nation, were safely delivered out of Egypt and across the Red Sea. The escape of Israel from Egypt, shows us in a picture that both classes of salvation, the heavenly and the earthly, can and will be delivered from death into the glorious kingdom of the Lord.

The World in a Picture Also Has to Escape From Egypt

We will see that same kind of escape in Chapter 16, where we will see the river of the Euphrates dried up, so that the highway for the Kings of the East can be established. The Kings of the East represent the completed church, and the way or highway that is established across the Euphrates, is the highway of holiness which the world of mankind must get onto in the kingdom. We see that the Exodus of Israel, pictures both the church that escapes during the Gospel Age, as well as the world that escape in the Millennial age. Pharaoh, who pictured Satan, was defeated and everyone safely escaped from him, if they followed God's representative Moses. Moses is a type picturing Christ.

These wonderful pictures, seem to be why the symbol of the Lamb was chosen and used here. The scroll we see here, not only contains the Divine plan, but if we look at the entire book of Revelation, we see that it also contains the record of how the escape from Satan's system will be accomplished, by both the church and the world. We will see as we go through the book, that all of God's enemies will be overthrown, just as Pharaoh and his hoards drowned in the red sea. The antitypical Moses, who pictures Christ, will deliver all of God's people across the sea of trouble.

This Chapter in Revelation, illustrates one of the lessons God wants to teach his people through this book, and that is that victory for the church and the world was achieved through the sacrifice and death of Christ. We find later in the book, that the beast can wage war against the saints and to overcome them, "Revelation 13:7". Just like when wicked men crucified Jesus and it appeared to spell apparent defeat, we see that Christ rose from the dead and was taken up to his Father's throne. We find later in the book that the saints overcame Satan by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; because they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death, "Revelation 12:11". So, we see that even if we are persecuted or killed for Christ, if we remain faithful we will win in the end.

The crown of life, was the promise given to those in Smyrna, who had been faithful to the point of death. We see that they will receive the crown of life even though they suffered and died. Just as Christ was obedient to death on the cross and God exalted Him, so those who follow him and are likewise obedient to death, will reign with him, "Matt 10:22, 2 Tim 2:12, Revelation 2:26, 20:6". Revelation is a commentary on how the ones who are faithful will overcome, and how the ones who are not faithful will be punished and will lose out.

Joshua the High Priest

We see at the beginning of Zech Chapter 3, that Joshua the high priest symbolically represents the church, and that Satan was at first able to accuse him. When we saw that the angel of the Lord put the robe and the miter on Joshua in Zechariah, that symbolizes for us the ransom and the sin offering that Christ provided for the church. The robe represents our covering for sin, and the miter shows that even our thoughts are covered, and that we will be a ruler with Christ. The church is an object lesson to the rest of the world, in respect to the kingdom. If the church can overcome sin and evil during the time that Satan is running around like a roaring lion, then just like the Ancient Worthies, they will become a good example and because of that they will be a sin offering for the world because of their experience in overcoming sin. Because of that experience, they will be able to help the world in the next age in respect to what needs to be done to attain perfection and life. The church will have personal knowledge of how to overcome the same kinds of sins that they had to defeat in this age, and they will be able to use that knowledge to help the world overcome those same kinds of things in the millennium. The world will have a much easier time when Satan has been bound in the millennium.

In verse 7, it tells us that if Joshua who pictures the church would be faithful, they will be among the rulers of the kingdom. In Joshua's situation, that shows that he will be one of the Ancient Worthies. That is also a symbolic promise that the entire church looks forward to, but they will receive a spiritual reward and will live and reign with Christ.

Zech 3:7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "If you will walk in My ways and if you will perform My service, then you will also govern My house and also have charge of My courts, and I will grant you free access among these who are standing {here.}"

The ransom and sin offering that accomplishes this, is indirectly mentioned in Zech 3:8-10, where we see that the iniquity of the land would be removed in one day. The vine represents the salvation that this would bring, and the fig tree represents Israel.

Zech 3:8-10(8 'Now listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who are sitting in front of you — indeed they are men who are a symbol, for behold, I am going to bring in My servant the Branch. 9 'For behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave an inscription on it,' declares the Lord of hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 'In that day,' declares the Lord of hosts, 'every one of you will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and under his fig tree.'" NASU

While this vine and fig tree scripture is sometimes thought of as only the literal food that will be plentiful in the kingdom, we think that the symbolic application is much more important. The vine would represent the salvation that has come from Christ, and the fig tree would represent Israel through whom the salvation will be channeled.

Seven Sets of Seven's

If we look at Revelation and Zechariah together, we find that we have 7 spirits, 7 lamp stands, 7 stars, 7 horns, 7 eyes, 7 lamps, and 7 spouts, which make for seven different sevens of related objects. These seven, sevens of related objects, make a complete set.

Zech also tells us that the temple had its foundation laid by Zerubbabel, "his name means shoot, sprout or branch", and it says that he would finish it—picturing Christ. While the temple construction was done literally at the return from Babylon, it symbolically represents the building of a spiritual temple, which is pointing to Christ and his Gospel Age work with the church. The spiritual temple is made up of the church that is being completed during the Gospel Age, and the New Jerusalem will be the government that Christ and the church work through in the Millennial age.

Zech 3:8 "Now listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who are sitting in front of you-- indeed they are men who are a symbol, for behold, I am going to bring in My servant the Branch. (NAU)

Zech 6:12 "Then say to him, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, a man whose name is Branch, for He will branch out from where He is; and He will build the temple of the LORD. (NAU)

The seven eyes represent the Holy spirit, "Revelation 5:6", and the day of small things is the Gospel Age in which many think that nothing has been accomplished, but we know it is only the time of preparation for the kingdom. The results will come later when the small things will stop, and God's great work will become visible to all when the church is complete.

Christ was found worthy of opening the scroll, and because of that was able to start to open the seals. Christ accomplished that by leading a perfect, sinless life and by providing the ransom price for Adam and his entire race. From that price or value of his blood, he was able to purchase the church out of the earth, “Revelation 5:9”. Because of his having led a perfect and sinless life and his having accomplished his work on the cross, he is now able to approach God on our behalf, “1 Tim 2:5”. He could take the scroll from God's right hand because he had overcome, and he now has all the angels, authorities, and powers in submission to him, “1 Pet 3:22”. The right hand is also considered to be the position of favor.

As we see in John 3:35, “The Father loves the Son and has placed everything in his hands”, see also “John 5:20-23, 17:2, and Mat 11:27”. God has given to Christ the work of executing His plan of salvation and the judgments that are written, which are all in the scroll that we see here. The work of redemption on the cross is complete, but his enemies on earth have not been defeated yet, and he must reign until they are defeated, “1 Cor 15:24-28, Heb 10:13”.

Revelation 5:8

Revelation 5:8 When He had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. (NAU)

Jesus is worthy of Worship

Here we continue shading in of certain segments of the 1260-2520 chronology patterns that we showed in Chapter 4. Some of the symbols in the vision have changed in this Chapter, and they have changed because of what the sacrifice that the Lamb of God accomplished on the cross. The judgment seats of the elders that we saw in the rainbow about the throne, in Chapter four, have now changed to bowls of incense, and the segments that surround the seats or bowls part of the vision, will now be seen to be harps of God, that all tie into the chronology circles that lead to the central throne.

Just as we saw the 24 elders and the 4 beasts fall down and worship God in Revelation 4:9-11, in turn they witness that Christ is now able to open the book, and that he is now worthy of worship because he satisfied Justice, and was judged worthy to carry out the Plan of God. This verse is symbolically saying that wisdom, justice, love, and power through the message of the scriptures, are now going to testify positively about the Lamb and the salvation that he has won for us. That is exactly what we saw happen in the time of the Apostles, in that they were witnessing from the scriptures regarding Christ and what he had done to obtain salvation for all. He had been written about in the Old Testament, but what had been said about him was not clear until the Apostles revealed it, and clarified it in the New Testament. From this point on, we will find that many of the descriptions that originally applied to the Heavenly Father, will now also apply to Christ. That is not saying that God and Christ are the same person, but only that God has now given great authority to the son, so that he has the ability to carry out his plan.

The 24 Harps

If we cut some of the segments out of the 2520, 1260 pattern that we saw earlier, we find that we have the harps that John saw. If you examine the complete 2520-1260 diagram earlier in these comments in Chapter 4, you will see that all the circles are tied into the same harp strings. So, any tune that is played on these harps, is controlled by the central throne, and thus the harps will vibrate in harmony with the Heavenly Fathers plan, and with the Lamb of God who is also on the throne.

An old saying is that you can play any old tune on the Bible. We don't believe that saying is true with this harp, since if we are using God's truth properly, we must make it square with the 4 attributes of God that are seen together with the 24 elders in the larger and complete harp of God. If we are reading and interpreting the Bible correctly, we will be in harmony with those attributes and the 24 elders or scriptures, and we will only be able to sing the new song of Moses and the Lamb and none other. Those who play any other tune on the Bible, are not in harmony with the 4 attributes of God, and are making up their own song, which is not the song of Moses and the Lamb.

The new song is the message of the New Covenant, which is going to save all who are willing. These harps are the harmonious message of truth, which the 24 elders or scriptures can sing or reveal to us now that the seals have been removed. Each elder or Old Testament book would have a slightly different chord, note, or message, but all the notes or messages come together at the throne of God, to make one harmonious new song or message. We will see the new song described again later in Revelation. Revelation 14:2-3) 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, and the voice which I heard {was} like {the sound} of harpists playing on their harps. 3 And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased from the earth. (NAU)

*Revelation 15:2-3) 2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had been victorious over the beast and his Image and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God.

3 And they sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are Your works, O Lord God, the Almighty; Righteous and are Your ways, King of the nations!

The faithful 144,000 all learn and sing the new song of Moses and the Lamb. Moses' song represents the Old Testament message, and the Lamb's song would represent the message for the Gospel and Millennial age.

24 Bowls of Incense

The colored circles, are seen as either bowls full of incense, or as the seats or thrones that the elders sat upon, depending on whether we are looking at Chapter 4 or 5. The change in the vision from Chapter 4 to Chapter 5, represents the advancement of God's Plan, once the Lamb was found worthy, we now have bowls full of incense instead of judgment seats. That shows that the laws harsh judgment of our human failings, has now been replaced by the soothing smell of the incense, that covers our errors and mistakes, and makes our prayers acceptable to Jehovah. As we will see in Chapter 8, Christ received much incense that could be added to the prayers of the saints after he had proved himself worthy, and that is why John now sees that the elders have bowls of incense rather than seats of judgment.

Ps 141:2 May my prayer be counted as incense before you; the lifting up of my hands as the evening offering.
NAU

In the original tabernacle, when they offered up prayer, they did it at the time of incense. In other words, the incense was thought to represent and carry and make acceptable the prayers that were being offered to God. That is what is shown here in Revelation Chapter 5, in that it says that these bowls were full of incense, "which were the prayers of the saints".

Prayers of All the Saints

That each of the 24 elders has incense in his bowl, would seem to indicate that through Christ's death, it became possible for all the righteous prayers of all the saints to be answered. Since we were all sinners before and we had nothing to cover us so that we would be acceptable, it made it difficult for God to answer our prayers because we were not in harmony with his righteous laws. That is no longer true, since Christ paid the ransom price and supplied us with the robe of righteousness. Since we are now covered and are counted as sons of God, our prayers are now acceptable to God. That is what we will see happening in Chapter 8, in that Christ as the high priest is seen offering up our prayers with the incense, and that makes them acceptable.

The new ability to get our prayers answered, makes it possible to pray to the Heavenly Father and tell him, just as if we were a son what we need. Gal 4:5-7 (5 so that He might redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption as sons. 6 Because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" 7 Therefore you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God. NASU Christ's accomplishment has made it possible for the prayers of the prophets to be answered. That would include prophecies that for example asked how long before God was going to do something about wickedness. We now know that there is a day coming, in which the wicked will be judged and removed from power, but the Old Testament prophets didn't know how that was going to be accomplished. Hab 1:2-4) 2 How long, O LORD, will I call for help, and you will not hear? I cry out to you, "Violence!" Yet you do not save. 3 Why do you make me see iniquity, and cause {me} to look on wickedness? Yes, destruction and violence are before me; strife exists and contention arises.

4 Therefore the law is ignored and justice is never upheld. For the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice comes out perverted. (NAU)

God's answer can now go forward and take care of that problem, as we will see in the Millennial kingdom. Hab 1:5 "Look among the nations! Observe! Be astonished! Wonder! Because {I am} doing something in your days-- you would not believe if you were told. (NAU)

Another good example of this is when Hab prayed: Hab 3:2 LORD, I have heard the report about you {and} I fear. O LORD, Revive your work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make it known; in wrath remember mercy. (NAU)

Habakkuk & the Midst of the Years

In Hab 3:2, he is praying that even though God has righteous wrath for what has been going on in the earth, he asks that God would remember mercy. He also makes a mysterious statement that God should revive his work through the midst of the years, and that through the midst of the years he should make it known. The statement of the midst of the years has to do with the three different Bible chronology patterns of 1845, 1260-2520, 2500. All three of those chronology patterns are centered upon the midst of the 7000 years—the midst of the years that Habakkuk mentioned in his prayer! Those three patterns of chronology cycles outline God's Plan and when and how it will be accomplished. The 1260-2520 chronology pattern that we showed in Chapter 4, is one of the patterns, and we will show the 1845-year pattern later in Chapter 10. For more detailed information, see the chronology book, "The Divine Plan and its Chronology, as demonstrated by Cherubs, Living Ones, Seraphim, and Cubits". The main point that we are making here, is that the small prayer that Hab made back in his time will be answered much more fully, than either him or any of us could imagine.

Beside the wish for the eventual destruction and doing away with evil, the prophecies that are found in the Old Testament also ask and pray for the time of restitution, which is the time that will restore what Adam had lost in the fall in the garden. Many prayers and prophecies in the Old Testament have from ancient times pointed forward to the time that the Lord would come and establish his kingdom on the earth. Now that Jesus has paid the ransom price, we see the 24 seats which represented God's word or law, pointing to the bowls full of incense which are making the prayers of the saints acceptable to the Father. All the righteous petitions of his servants of the Old and the New Testament could not begin to be answered until after the death of the Lamb, but now through Jesus they will all be answered through God's Plan of Salvation.

Matt 5:17-18) 17 "Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill. 18 "For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass from the Law until all is accomplished. (NAU)

Revelation 5:9-10

Revelation 5:9 And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood {men} from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.

Revelation 5:10 "You have made them {to be} a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign upon the earth." (NAU)

The New Song

After Christ, had proven worthy, all the scriptures could then in perfect correctness and harmony, point to him as the one who was worthy to open the scroll. The new song that they sang, was the revealing of the hidden types and shadows which were previously hidden in the Old Testament word. This is a new song, in the sense that the message that is now being revealed, was not previously known before the time of the Apostles. As soon as Christ had paid the ransom price, the new song of Salvation could then be sung. The Old Testament types and shadows pointed to Christ, and to what he did for us by fulfilling the law, and the new song reflects that new knowledge. The Lamb has brought the law to fulfillment, "Heb. 10:9-10", and has established a New Covenant which is enacted on better promises. That is the covenant that will be revealed to Israel when the kingdom begins, and from there it will eventually include the entire world.

Harp of 10 Strings

It's not certain, but the harp of 10 strings mentioned in Ps. 33:2, seems to symbolically refer to the vision of salvation which we see here in Revelation. The new song that is mentioned there is also found later in Revelation. Ps 33:1-3(1 You who are godly, sing with joy to the Lord.

It is right for honest people to praise him. 2 Praise the Lord with the harp. Make music to him on the lyre that has ten strings. 3 Sing a new song to him. Play with skill, and shout with joy. NIRV

Again, referring to the 1260-2520 diagram we showed earlier in Chapter 4, if you look at the colored parts of the 1260-2520 chronology pattern you find that at the center area, where the throne is, there are twelve 2520 circles and twelve 1260 circles passing through the center area. Looking at the rainbow pattern that is colored green, we see that the 12 chronology circles may be forming 10 green bands or ten harp strings that pass through the central area. The plan of God is for that reason seen focusing on the central area of the throne and the Lamb found there. Every song and musical note of the 24 elders is in harmony with the throne, as they play the ten strings of God's harp!

We also find in Vines, that the harps of the Old Testament time were 10 strings!

HARP A. Noun.

kithara ^2788^, whence Eng., "guitar," denotes "a lyre" or "harp"; it is described by Josephus as an instrument of ten strings, played by a plectrum (a smaller instrument was played by the hand); it is mentioned in <1 Cor. 14:7; Rev. 5:8; 14:2; 15:2>.#

kitharizo ^2789^ signifies "to play on the harp," <1 Cor. 14:7; Rev. 14:2>. # In the Sept., <Isa. 23:16>.#

Instead of the blood of bulls and goats which couldn't save us, we now have the blood of Christ redeeming and saving us. See also Revelation 14:1-4, 15:1-3 and the entire book of Hebrews. Both the Old and the New Testament, are now seen to be in harmony—with both showing the way to the salvation that was due after the redemption through Christ was paid.

During the Gospel Age, the church is being selected to be kings and priest in the next age. We will be kings and reign with Christ over the nations. When we see the New Jerusalem coming down to the earth, that symbolically shows that Christ and the 144,000 will place their governmental power over the earth. The church will be priests of Christ in the next age, and our task will be to reform the world from sin and restore it back to the perfection of life that Adam had lost in the garden. Contrary to what the fallen church thinks, the reign of the church was not to begin until the time of the Millennial kingdom, “See Revelation 20:4, 6”. For other places where the church is described as reigning with Christ in Revelation, see also Revelation 1:6, 7:15, 11:15-17, 22:3, 22:5. 1 Corinthians 6:2 Do you not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

Revelation 5:9, starts with the phrase, 'with your blood you purchased men for God; he himself has done this, he shed his own blood and in doing so has redeemed men for God, “Revelation 14:4”. The heavenly and spiritual church has been bought by the blood of Christ, “1 Cor 6:19, Acts 20:28, 1 Pet 1:18”. They are purchased “from every tribe, language, people and nation”. The blood of the Lord, which he shed on the cross, has been placed upon the mercy seat where it pays the price for the entire church during the Gospel age.

The main theme of this part of the Chapter, is not showing us the purchase of the entire world at the First Advent, but it is only showing us our Lord purchasing the church. The reason the church is shown being saved first, is pictured in the Day of Atonement sacrifice. In Lev 16:6, 11, we see that the blood of the bullock was first used by the high priest to pay the price for himself and for his household. The household of faith are the members of the Gospel Age church, and they are the firstfruits to God and the blood of the New Covenant is what was used to purchase them from the earth.

The Day of Atonement Two Applications of Blood

Secondly he then took the blood of the Lords goat, and that sacrifice was for all the people, “Lev 16:15-16”. That shows that after the church is complete, and the blood is not needed for them anymore, Christ will then apply the merit of his blood for the world, and they can then begin to be resurrected. So, what we see happening in the Day of Atonement sacrifices, is that the bullock’s blood is first applied for the church. After the church is complete, which is pictured by the slaying of the goat, then the Lords goat’s blood which originally was Christ’s blood that had come from the bullock, will be then secondly applied for the world through the symbol of the goat’s blood. In other words, salvation for both ages comes from the Lord’s blood, the church only provides a sin offering, not a blood offering.

Another way to look at this, is that if we look at the picture of Christ head and body, we can see that the Lord’s Goat has the head of Christ, and it has his blood flowing in its body. Because of that we see that the Day of Atonement picture does not show that the church’s sacrifice or sin offering has any value that could accomplish salvation for the world by itself, but it’s only acceptable because of the blood of Christ, which is flowing in the veins of the Goat giving it life. In other words, the blood of Christ is what makes it possible for the church to become body members of Christ, and that same sacrifice of blood that he gave on the cross, is what makes salvation possible for the world.

Because of that, we see that the body of the Lord’s goat represents the church that have consecrated unto death, and who follow in their master’s footsteps. But without the blood of the Lord flowing in the body of the goat, the church would not have had spiritual life and would not have been able to accomplish anything on its own.

Rom 6:3-9 (3 Did you forget that all of us became part of Christ when we were baptized? We shared his death in our baptism. 4 When we were baptized, we were buried with Christ and shared his death. So, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the wonderful power of the Father, we also can live a new life. 5

Christ died, and we have been joined with him by dying too. So we will also be joined with him by rising from the dead as he did. <sup>6</sup> We know that our old life died with Christ on the cross so that our sinful selves would have no power over us and we would not be slaves to sin. <sup>7</sup> Anyone who has died is made free from sin's control. <sup>8</sup> If we died with Christ, we know we will also live with him. NCV

That is why it says that we are purchased from the earth. The purchase price was the blood of our Lord, and only that blood makes it possible for us to follow him into the new and living way which he opened for us with his sacrifice. That is also what makes our sin offering as seen in the Lord's goat, valid and useful in the next age. Our experiences in this life will allow us to help others to overcome sin and the fallen human nature in the next age, because we have all fallen on one thing or another. The key test for the overcomers, is that we win out in our intentions over the problem, and thus we can help others in the next age do the same thing.

The salvation of the world is not shown in very great detail this early in Revelation, because Revelation deals mainly with the church and what happens to it. The part of salvation that redeems the entire world, is shown much clearer later in Revelation Chapters 20 - 22. When the church is complete, we see the New Jerusalem or God's government coming down to the world of mankind. We then see all death done away with, and no more dying, sighing or crying. In the next age, the way to the leaves and the fruit of salvation from the tree of life, is made available to the world. The golden street in New Jerusalem that the world will walk upon in the next age, is the highway of holiness as described in Isaiah Chapter 35 and other places. As they walk on that highway, the leaves and the fruit of the trees of life, will be available on both sides of the street. The river of life is flowing down that same street, bringing life and restoration to all that it touches.

All who willingly submit to the kingdom and its laws will be saved, and hopefully we pray that there will be none who don't avail themselves of the salvation that will be available at that time. Revelation has had the two types of salvation revealed in it for almost 2000 years, but wrong interpretations have kept most from seeing it. The fallen church has ignored what's in the bible, because they claimed that they were the only source of God's salvation and kingdom on earth.

Revelation 5:11-12

Revelation 5:11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands,

Revelation 5:12 saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing." NAU

Daniel 7:13-14 I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. <sup>14</sup>And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

Philippians 2:5-11 Have this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: <sup>6</sup>who, existing in the form of God, counted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped, <sup>7</sup>but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men; <sup>8</sup>and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross. <sup>9</sup>Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is above every name; <sup>10</sup>that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth, <sup>11</sup>and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The numbers given above were not designed to give an accurate, absolute number, but were designed to give the sense of an unlimited number of angels. The number of angels that God has at his command to carry out his will, is unlimited. We see a similar description in Daniel Chapter 7.

Dan 7:10 "A river of fire was flowing and coming out from before Him; thousands upon thousands were attending Him, and myriads upon myriads were standing before Him; the court sat, and the books were opened. (NAU)

The Lamb Receives Seven Things

Many of the descriptions that applied originally to Jehovah, can now be applied to our Lord Jesus. If we look in Revelation Chapter 7, we find a similar reference describing the attributes of the Heavenly Father. Revelation 7:12 is saying: "Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God forever and ever. Amen!"

The only difference that we see between the two, is that the Father has “thanks” rather than “riches”, in the salutation regarding him. The reason that the Father has thanks, is because the entire plan has originated with him, and the Son is carrying out the Fathers plan.

Power

Christ has received the power or right to rule over the nations.

Eph 1:19-22 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

Riches

Thanksgiving has to come from those who are being saved or rewarded, so we see that the Lamb has riches given to him instead. These riches as we will see, are not only monetary or worldly type wealth, but refer in at least one place in Isaiah to the value of the salvation that he has to offer!

Isa 53:12 Therefore, I will allot Him a portion with the great, and He will divide the booty with the strong; because He poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet He himself bore the sin of many, and interceded for the transgressors.

One of the important riches that Christ has gotten from the Father, refers to the fact that he has purchased the pearl of great price out of the world, the church. As we remember from the parable, he bought the whole field which represents the world, in order to get the pearl of great price which represents the church. *Eph 3:8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ

Wisdom

He has gained God's knowledge and wisdom, and he will be able to carry out the Fathers plan with the spirit of wisdom

Isa 11:2 And the Spirit of Jehovah shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah.

Strength

The great strength that God has, he has given to Christ so that he can carry out his plan.

Matt 28:18 And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. (NAU)

II Thes 1:7-9 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

Honor

Again we see that God has given Christ a share in his great honor, by allowing him to carry out his plan.

Heb 2:9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

Glory

There is no doubt that God has given Christ a share in his glory, as well as his throne.

Mark 8:38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

Blessing

Not only has the Father blessed the son, but he is going to share it with the church and eventually the world.

Gal 3:14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Christ received all of God's promises and the use of his power at the First Advent, but he does not exercise or use all of these rewards or the power fully until God's due time. For instance he does not begin to establish rule over the nations, until at least 1874AD or 1914AD, which was at the end of the 2520 years.

Revelation 5:13-14

Revelation 5:13 And every created thing which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying, "To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, {be} blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever." (NAU)

Revelation 5:14 And the four living creatures kept saying, "Amen." And the elders fell down and worshiped. (NAU)

Every creature or angel in heaven, beginning at the First Advent when our Lord had proven himself worthy, recognized that Jesus was worthy to receive all the rewards and honor mentioned above. It's not stated here as to who else is sitting on the throne, but we remember that after Christ had proven his faithfulness, he sat down at the right hand of God, "Ps 110:1, Heb 1:13, 10:12". These verses take us down to the end of the Millennial age, during which time every saved person in the world will come to recognize Christ and bend the knee to him.

Phil 2:9-11) 9 For this reason also, God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus EVERY KNEE WILL BOW, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (NAU)

Not every creature has bended the knee yet at the First Advent, and it's still not true yet even today, but by the end of the Millennial kingdom, all of the world that has been saved will recognize that Christ was worthy to sit down beside Jehovah on his throne and to receive a share in his kingdom, and they will bend and bow down to worship him. If only a small number are going to be saved, and the rest of the world are not going to be saved as many churches today would like us to believe, who are the large number we see here that are giving praise to Jehovah and the Lamb? This verse shows that when everything is over with, all those who are willing will have been restored back to the perfect human life, which Adam originally had in the garden before he fell.

This scripture may be what the ones are looking at, who think that the open door in the beginning of Chapter 4 leads directly into the Millennial age. Yet as we have seen in the interpretation of these two Chapters, there are 2000 years of history described in between the open door and when we arrive at the start of the Millennial age. The total number of years for the completed vision, is closer to 3000 years if we consider that this won't be fully accomplished until the end of the Millennial age.

The four living creatures, wisdom, justice, love, and power, are all satisfied with the turn of events. Love will no longer be stopped from uplifting mankind, but the church will with the help of the Lord can help complete God's Plan of salvation in the Millennial Age. Because of what Christ accomplished on the cross, all four attributes will work together to restore mankind back to the life that Adam lost in the garden. The 24 elders that represent the scriptures of God, are now satisfied with Christ, who was chosen to open the seals on the scroll. For that reason, we see that all the scriptures point to Christ as the one who was to come, and they praise both God and the Lamb who made it possible.

So even though we see that the main purpose of this Chapter is to show the salvation that Christ obtained and to show the purchase of the church out of the earth, we see that the result of that purchase will also result in the salvation of the world. In verse 13, we find that all created things will give glory and the blessing to Jehovah and the Lamb. In that regard, this vision here at the end of the Chapter, shows the complete and final result of the Plan of God, with all mankind sharing in salvation. The rest of creation on the earth and under the earth, which includes even those who had been dead, all join in praise to the Lamb when they are resurrected and restored. The living creatures and the 24 elders fall down to worship the Lamb, in the same way they had worshipped God in Revelation 4:10. Since we know that only God was to be worshipped in Old Testament times, "Revelation 14:7, 19:10, 22:9", this scripture shows that the Lamb has been elevated to sit with God on his throne, and share in his worship and praise because of what he accomplished on the cross.

Everyone Will Acknowledge Jesus as Lord

Every creature acknowledges that Jesus Christ is Lord. That fact is first stated in Isa 45:22, and it is again quoted again in Phil 2:10 and Rom 14:11

Rom 14:11 For it is written, "AS I LIVE, SAYS THE LORD, EVERY KNEE SHALL BOW TO ME, AND EVERY TONGUE SHALL GIVE PRAISE TO GOD." (NAU)

Revelation must be read with both the Old and the New Testament in mind. The point being made in Revelation 5:13-14, is that Jesus is now also worthy of praise and honor along with the Father. What else can we say but Amen or so be it? God has shown us an extremely wonderful plan. Both God and Christ deserve all the credit and more for what they have done. This praise will last forever and ever, because God and the Lamb live forever and ever, and will be watching over and blessing the world of mankind.

Notice that Jehovah and the Lamb are linked together from here and onward in Revelation, because Jesus is from this point onward carrying out the Fathers plan for him. The wrath of him who sits on the throne and of the Lamb, Revelation 6:16. The Lamb will be their shepherd, and God will wipe away every tear, Revelation 7:17. The reign of God and the wedding of the Lamb, Revelation 19:6. The throne of God and of the Lamb, Revelation 22:3.

The visions that go onward from here in Revelation are only possible, because of the Lamb, who will now open the seals. From this point forward we will see the seals, the trumpets, the bowls, and eventually the New Jerusalem come down to the earth. None of that would have been able to be seen without the Lamb having overcome, and his step by step unsealing of the scroll that occurs next. The unsealing of the scroll will eventually unseal the entire book of Revelation, and the Plan of God for us as we will see.

The Seven Seals

In the study of the seven seals, we will be prophetically examining what are called by the nominal churches, the 4 horsemen of the apocalypse. Most of the nominal churches believe that the first four seals picture events that are going to happen at the end of the world. They believe that the four horsemen play a major part in the final battle of Armageddon as it's traditionally viewed, representing terrible destruction and death. Our Study Group didn't agree with that conclusion at all. We found that like the seven churches, the vision of the seven seals is intended to show the course of history that began with the early church, and which continues down to the end of the Gospel Age. There is terrible destruction shown in the seals, but it occurred early on in the church and during the 1260 years, and it happened because of the persecution of the faithful church by the corrupt church, who tried to kill off everyone who disagreed with them.

In the study of Chapters 2-3, we had found that the seven churches showed us the history of the faithful church from Christ's perspective, especially from the viewpoint of a shepherd of the flock. In that part of the study we saw not only a faithful class being shown in the seven churches, but as the messages progressed through the churches, we eventually saw a "they or them" class, which were ones that were being criticized by the Lord for having gotten into serious error.

The seven seals will be showing us the "religious history" of the corruption, decline, and fall of the apostate church. As the visions progress through the step by step downfall of the church, we will see the rapid corrupting of God's doctrines of salvation—which gets so bad that by the time of the fourth church, the horse is an ashen or a sickly greenish color. The faithful church will be shown in the seals, but only in the result of the persecution that came against them during that time, such as when we see them slain under the altar in the fifth seal. The sixth and the seventh seal will show the judgment and vengeance that God brings against the fallen church at the time of the end, because of the evil done to the faithful church. In the interlude in Chapter 7, we will see the 144,000 who have proven faithful despite the temptation of the great falling away that occurred during that time. We will also find that many of those who were not completely faithful, will still be able to receive a salvation, but it will get the lesser reward of the Great Company. Many of those who became Great Company, fell into that class because they had fallen for and supported the great falling away, which persecuted the faithful church. That is why the faithful church is warned not to worship the beast or the Image.

Before we start the seals, we are going to list some parallel scriptures to the seals, which are taken from Matt Chapter 24. We will find that the general historical outline of the seals, will follow the same general historical outline of Matt 24. Since we understand that Matt 24 has a historical application that covers the entire Gospel Age, we should see that the seals also have a historical application that covers the entire Gospel Age. That the seals are fulfilled throughout the entire Gospel age, seems to be a good point to make, since some would like to move the seals to the end of the age, because of the misconception of the 4 horsemen and what they are showing us. Some of the parallels are not obvious unless you look at them with a spiritual viewpoint, but the similarity should be able to be seen anyway. We will cover all of these points in the comments on each seal.

Table Comparing Matt 24 to Seven Seals

Parallel of Math Chapter 24	To Seven Seals
Matt 24:4-5 (4 And Jesus answered and said to them, "See to it that no one misleads you. 5 For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will mislead many. NASU	Rev 6:2 I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer. NASU
Matt 24:6 "You will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end. NASU Matt 24:6-A "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.	Rev 6:4 And another, a red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to take peace from the earth, and that men would slay one another; and a great sword was given to him. NASU
Matt 24:6-B and in various places there will be famines and earthquakes. NASU	Rev 6:5-6 (5 When He broke the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come." I looked, and behold, a black horse; and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. 6 And I heard something like a voice in the center of the four living creatures saying, " A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not damage the oil and the wine. " NASU
Matt 24:9-10 (9 "Then they will deliver you to tribulation, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name. 10 "At that time many will fall away and will betray one another and hate one another. NASU Matt 24:13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.	Rev 6:7-8 (7 When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come." 8 I looked, and behold, an ashen horse; and he who sat on it had the name Death; and Hades was following with him. Matt 24:15-16 (15 "Therefore when you see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), 16 then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains. NASU Matt 24:22 " Unless those days had been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.	Rev 6:9-11 (9 When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained; 10 and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, will You refrain from judging and avenging our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11 And there was given to each of them a white robe; and they were told that they should rest for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brethren who were to be killed even as they had been, would be completed also. NASU
Matt 24:29-30 (29 "But immediately after the tribulation of those days THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, AND THE STARS WILL FALL from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.	Rev 6:12-17 (12 I looked when He broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood; 13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind. 14 The sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the commanders and the rich and the strong and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, " Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; 17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand? " NASU
Matt 24:45-47 (45 "Who then is the faithful and sensible slave whom his master put in charge of his household to give them their food at the proper time? 46 "Blessed is that slave whom his master finds so doing when he comes. 47 "Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions. NASU	Rev 7:4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: NASU
Matt 24:48-51 (48 "But if that evil slave says in his heart, 'My master is not coming for a long time,' 49 and begins to beat his fellow slaves and eat and drink with drunkards; 50 the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour which he does not know, 51 and will cut him in pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. NASU	Rev 7:9-10 (9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands; 10 and they cry out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb. Judgment	Judgment
Matt 24:30 "And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF THE SKY with power and great glory. Matt 24:31 "And He will send forth His angels with A GREAT TRUMPET and THEY WILL GATHER TOGETHER His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.	Rev 8:1 When the Lamb broke the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. NASU
Matt 25:20-28 (20 "The one who had received the five talents came up and brought five more talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me. See, I have gained five more talents.' 21 "His master said to him, ' Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master. ' 22 "Also the one who had received the two talents came up and said, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have gained two more talents.' 23 "His master said to him, ' Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things. I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master. ' 24 "And the one also who had received the one talent came up and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you scattered no seed. 25 'And I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.' 26 "But his master answered and said to him, 'You wicked, lazy slave, you knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I scattered no seed. 27 'Then you ought to have put my money in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest. 28 'Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.'	Progressive Building of Destruction
	Rev 8:5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there followed peals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake.
	Rev 11:19 And the temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple, and there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm.
	Rev 16:18-21 (18 And there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder; and there was a great earthquake, such as there had not been since man came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake was it, and so mighty. 19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nation's fell. Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of His fierce wrath. 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And huge hailstones, about one hundred pounds each, came down from heaven upon men; and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because its plague was extremely severe. NASU

In Revelation 5:5, we saw that Christ had proved himself worthy, and that he was given the right to remove the seven seals from the scroll. Up until the time of the First Advent, God's Plans and prophetic visions had been hidden inside the scroll, so that no one knew what was going on for sure. When God turned the scroll over to Christ, he became the principal executor of the plan. The opening of the seals on the scroll, and the visions that followed, will reveal to us the events of the great falling away that had been predicted to happen by Paul and Daniel. The opening of each seal, reveals information about what was being done wrong in each church, and we will see the corruption that caused the great falling away. The visions of the first four seals, will show us that by the end of the fourth church, the great falling away that had been predicted had fully occurred. Each of the first four seals, show us visions of the church going from bad to worse, with each subsequent seal retaining all the problems of the previous seals, with the result that the evil problems continued to get worse and worse, until the reformers began to preach against that evil system.

When the reformers tried to reform the system, it attacked and tried to kill them off—with the result that in the fifth seal, we see the souls of those that had been slain underneath the altar. Starting with the fifth seal and the souls under the altar, we will find that the last three seals are different than the first four, in that God starts to gradually reverse the downfall from the time of the fifth church and afterward. In the fifth seal, there is recognition of the guilt of the fallen church, and the promise that there would be punishments. The sixth seal causes a major disruption in the church and state system, and causes great fear about what was happening to that system. In the sixth church, we had the Reformation and the French revolution, and the splitting apart of church and state. In the seventh seal, we will find that the silence represents judgment, and the beginning of the final punishment and destruction of that system. In the parentheses between the sixth and the seventh seal in Revelation Chapter 7, we will see the 144,000 who were faithful and we will see that they were the ones that were able to stand. The same question about who was able to stand was asked at the end of the sixth seal, and Chapter 7 then shows us the 144,000 who were the ones that had succeeded. We will also see in Chapter 7, the Great Company that failed—they failed to keep their robes from being spotted, and because of that they failed to win the prize. They were not of those who could stand, because they had fallen along the way.

The seals, as well as the trumpets, are in a pattern of four, two, parenthesis, and one. The messages, seals, and trumpets, all show a similar decline in the church up through the fourth church. After that the Lord begins to inflict damage to the evil system. We especially see that damage happen in the three woe trumpets, but the same is true in the last three messages to the churches and to the last three seals. Some commentators think that the seals come first and then the trumpets follow after the seals are done. The Study Group did not agree with that conclusion, because of the four, two, parenthesis and one pattern that we especially see in the seals and the trumpets. It may be that the ones that place the trumpets as following the seals, don't understand that Revelation is made up of segments of prophecy that are divided from each other by "I saw", or "I heard" etc. For that reason, a new vision can back us up in history, and start all over again from the same time-period, revealing something else about the same time.

To help show that all three parts of the prophecy follow each other through the same historical time, we have constructed a table that shows the similarities between the messages to the churches, the seals, and the trumpets. The bowls of wrath will be seen later to follow after the start of the seventh church, and the end of the 40-year harvest, and they are punishment for what was done wrong in all seven stages of the church.

Table Comparing Common Theme, Messages, Seals, Trumpets

	Message to Churches	Seals	Trumpets	Common theme
Church 1	Nicolaitans taking control of church. False Apostles who were not actual Apostles but who were deceivers.	Rider Conquering wearing crown—not time for church to reign	Hail and fire thrown to earth mixed with blood—one-third of trees or churches burned up = 666 left	Bad leaders seeking power taking control of church are starting the process of turning church into 666
Church 2	Jews who are not, but are synagogue of Satan— church merges with state Materialistically you are poor but you are spiritually rich—10 days of tribulation and death—	Red horse—peace taken from earth slaying one another- Great final sword of scriptures given in this church 367AD	Mountain burning with fire thrown into the sea—sea became blood— one-third with life died—remaining turned to 666	Satan taking more control—false doctrines being forced on church —church becomes involved with Roman Empire
Church 3	Nicolaitans—Satan’s throne 539AD—many fell for Balaam and Balak’ s false corrupted doctrines. Israel’s enemies recommended that they try to corrupt them, Numbers 31:16.	Black horse = no light—Expensive spiritual doctrines of wheat hard to get & inferior food of barley substituted	One-third of Rivers and springs of spiritual water turned to bitter wormwood corrupted doctrines —many died or became 666	Corrupted doctrines being forced on the church, resulting in spiritual darkness and death. Satan has control over church.
Church 4	Jezebel or Papacy is controlling the church—feeding them false doctrines sacrificed to idols. Our Lord warns her about punishment in next three church periods 5-7— Jezebel in Old Testament was trying to kill Elijah and other prophets with civil power from king.	Ashen or spiritually sick unto death horse —rider is called death and hades— controls ¼ earth or Roman beast —spiritually kills with famine, sword, and wild beasts also literally kills.	1/3 of sun, moon, stars struck—sun, moon and stars not to shine for 1/3 day. Complete spiritual darkness has come over fourth church—completely changing the system to 666	Spiritual sickness & darkness has completely overcome the fourth church. This is the deepest darkness of the 1260 years. Church state is killing all who do not agree.
Church 5	Wake up &amp; strengthen the things that remain—remember what you have heard &amp; keep it &amp; repent = restore Bible and reform system—a few still walk with me in white—if you don’t wake up I will come against you like a thief	The dead under the altar are given white garments and told to wait for a time for the systems punishment. These are being killed because they attempted to reform church.	1 st woe trumpet Locusts come out of the spiritual darkness of the system & torment those who do not have seal of God.— had seal of God &amp; gold crowns— The angel of the abyss Jesus is head of locusts	Spiritual knowledge begins to be restored in this church. Some punishment begins, more to come in next two churches.
Church 6	An open door of opportunity which can’t be shut— hour of testing upon whole world—I am coming quickly. The meaning of the words “coming quickly” implies that he is already on his way. Either 1517-1874 or 1799-1874 can be understood as being the time of his coming to his presence.	Sun was seen to be black, moon was blood, stars fell to the earth, great earthquake, scroll rolled into two halves—all men try to hide in rocks and caves—the great day of God & Lambs wrath has come	2 nd woe trumpet. Release four angels for the hour, day, month and the year. Great uncountable army attacks fallen system, these are the Locusts who have grown larger and more forceful. 1/3 killed= removed from power of system.	Time of testing during separation of Protestants & Catholics. Great terror from the trouble during this time. The Lord is commanding a much bigger army by the time of the sixth church. He is coming to begin his reign
Church 7	Lord offers spiritual knowledge, those who don’t accept will be spewed out. He stands at door knocking—those who open the door will receive spiritual food or knowledge directly from his presence. That new truth is the harvest message which helps the saints to escape.	Silence in heaven for half an hour is 1874-1878 judgment and the half an hour is 40-year harvest to 1914-18. See full notes for explanation. Those separated out of Great Babylon are rewarded	3 rd woe trumpet Lord is present & reigning. Time to reward bondservants. Time of wrath has come & time to destroy those who destroy the earth.	Two classes are being separated, the faithful who heed the voice of the Lord &amp; come out are rewarded &amp; those who do not are rejected, losing their crowns and they are replaced for 144,000.

The openings of the first four seals, are introduced by one of the four living creatures—each one of the four creatures reveal to us a different horseman, and what each one was doing wrong. We believe that each of the four creatures represents a different attribute of God, and that each one is complaining about its particular attribute that is being violated in each seal. That means that as each attribute is violated, by the time of the fourth living creature all four attributes of God are being violated at the same time. We will consider that further when we are examining each seal.

Because of that principle, one thing that we notice about the seven seals, is that the events that are described aren't limited to the beginning of the church period, but many of the things that we are shown seem to cover the entire church period. For example, when we see the rider in seal one riding out to conquer, we see that the conquering had gotten much worse by the end of that church period, and we also see that it did not stop at the end of the church, but it continued onward. In the second seal, the taking of the peace from the world was much worse by the end of that church period than what it was at the beginning, but again that problem also continued onward. The same thing is true of the third seal, in that the famine for the word of God, while bad at the beginning of that church period, had gotten much worse by the end of that church period and it likewise continued onward. In the fourth seal, the killing of the saints got much worse by the end of the fourth church period, and again it did not stop. In other words, the same thing was true of all the other seals, in that what was complained about in each church period, took the entire 1260-year period to completely fulfill the things that were described in each seal. Even in the seventh seal, with the judgment starting at the beginning of the church period, the full judgment and punishment will not be complete until the church is fully complete, and the evil system gone.

The White Horse

One of the reasons that we had such a struggle with determining the correct interpretation of the first seal, was the question of the white horse in the first seal, which made it seem that the horseman in that seal might be doing the Lord's will. Many think that the rider of the first horse must be Christ, since the rider is on a white horse. As we studied this Chapter, it was obvious that seals 2-4 were not doing good things for sure, and we could see the description of each of the horses getting worse as each seal was opened. As we get further into our study of the seals we will look at this question in detail and we will give some good reasons why the Study Group decided that the first rider was not doing what he should have been doing either, and his early error led to even greater error later.

In looking at the table of parallels between Matt 24 and the seals, we see that the first rider is one of those who is coming in Christ's name, saying he is Christ. In other words, he is one of the deceivers that the Lord had warned about, and since this is in the first seal, this is an early attempt by some to claim that only they have the truth. These are the ones that Paul and Peter also warned us about. Acts 20:29-31 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. <sup>31</sup>Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

2 Peter 2:1-2 *But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. <sup>2</sup>And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

We saw that some of the articles or items the riders had, could be good or bad, depending on how you looked at them. For example, the first rider has a crown and a bow, which could be bad symbols, or they could be interpreted as good in some circumstances. It would depend on how these symbols were being used in each scriptural area. The second rider had a sword, which again could be the sword of truth, but as we know, swords can be and are used for evil. Even a spiritual sword can be used for evil if we don't use it right. The third rider had a balance scale, which could indicate famine, or it could indicate the ransom doctrine. Another possibility that needed to be considered, was if each rider had an item that was good originally, could it be that he had corrupted it and misused it? Those were some of the questions that we looked at when trying to determine the correct interpretation of this Chapter. We have to admit that this was a difficult area, but we believe the steady downhill decline that we finally saw, agrees with the same kind of decline that we saw in the messages to the churches and to the trumpets.

A Deciding Factor

The fourth rider is obviously bad, because we see death and Hades following him, as well as the fact that he is given the power to kill 1/4 of the earth. The proper interpretation of the fourth seal helped us to see the correct application of the three previous seals, since the fourth seal had all the same symbols or problems the first three riders had, such as killing with the sword, famine, pestilence. That he was killing with the wild beasts, as well as the other items he had, and that he had authority over the earth, pointed us right back to the first seal and the rider riding out to conquer! We will find that the word conquer that is used in the first seal, is the same word used regarding the terrible beast that came up out of the sea in Chapter 13.

Rev 13:7 Also it was allowed to make war on the saints and to conquer them. It was given authority over every tribe and people and language and nation, NRSV

The conquering attitude of the Nicolaitans that our Lord had warned about in the message to the first church had small beginnings, but things had gotten much worse by the time of the fourth church.

It might at first look like the first rider was riding out to conquer for Christ, but by the time of the fourth church the motives of the first rider had become clear. He was conquering to gain power and wealth for himself, and he was one of the hated Nicolaitans which are condemned by the Lord in both the first and the third message to the churches. That was why he had the crown on his head in the first church, when we know that the church was not to reign until the Millennial age. That he was using a war bow was not how the church was to conquer for Christ. He was taking control of the saints and conquering them with corrupt ideas, which is the same thing that Daniel showed us in his vision of the terrible beast that he saw in Daniel Chapter 7, where we are told that the beast was warring against the saints and overpowering them.

The conquering of the saints was at first subtle, but later after they had taken control of the leadership of the church, the conquest became much more forceful, eventually resulting in the saints being killed if they would not submit. We see in the first church that the rider was riding out to conquer, and in the second church we see the rider with the sword going out to take peace from the earth and to cause them to kill one another. In the third church and by the time of the fourth church, the Nicolaitans had also taken control of the civil power of the Satanic beasts of Revelation, and had taken control of one-fourth of the earth. They were also claiming that they had established Christ's kingdom for him, and were killing many in Christ's name.

As each seal is broken, we will see a further unrolling of events. A very important thing to notice in the first 4 seals, is that at the beginning of each of the first four seals, one of each of the four living creatures that we saw in Chapters 4 and 5, calls out to "come and see".

That each of these four living creatures seems to personify one of God's four attributes, raised an interesting question in our study. We wondered if the message of each of the living creatures in the first four seals was related to a different attribute of God, either wisdom, justice, love, or power. We eventually concluded that thought was correct and as we go through each of these seals, we will suggest which living creature seems to be represented and how it relates to what was happening in that seal, and that area of history. We tried to see if the order that the four beasts were shown in Chapter 4, was the order that they are seen in this Chapter, but that did not seem to work correctly and so we just went with the beast that fit with what was being done wrong in each church.

Unfortunately, we will not see each church using the attributes in the right way, but we will be shown how each symbol is being corrupted or used wrongly. Satan is the exact opposite of God, and where we should see love, we will see hate. Where we should see wisdom, we will see darkness and ignorance. Where there should be justice, we will find injustice. God's reign of power in the kingdom will be a blessed application of his power and uplifting, where Satan's reign of power is a reign of terror and tearing down.

Horses and Chariots in Zechariah?

Before we begin looking at the first seal, one question that came up regarding the 4 horses in the seals, is do they relate to the horses seen in Chapter 1 of Zech, or to the 4 chariots with horses seen in Chapter 6 of Zech? In the initial interpretation of the prophecy of Zechariah Chapter 1, at the time the prophecy was written, we don't think that they are the same since the horses and riders are said to be those who had literally scattered Israel back in the time of Babylon. The smiths mentioned in the same Chapter are looked upon as help from God in restoring Israel from her enemies. The theme of Chapter 1, is that the 70 years of punishment was over, and that God had returned to the nation and was going to help Israel.

But if we look at a second and prophetic application to that vision, we do get a picture of what was going to happen to the church or spiritual Israel in the Gospel Age. In that second prophetic application of Zechariah, the horses could very possibly be related to Revelation in a symbolic sense. Just as the Empires that Daniel saw, had destroyed Israel literally in ancient times, we see that the prophetic interpretation of Zech Chapter one, could be showing us the destruction of spiritual Israel—which symbolizes the Faithful Church. In both interpretations, God stepped in and restored his people after the trouble, but the destruction was allowed to happen first as a testing. In the literal sense, after the trouble was over, he restored the nation of Israel and in the prophetic sense he restores the faithful church on this end of the age.

If we are correct regarding the secondary application showing us the scattering of spiritual Israel by the four horses, then that would confirm for us that we are correct in judging all four of the first horsemen as being corrupting and bad influences in the seals. In the New Testament application of the prophecy, there would be four different waves of destruction that happened to the church, and that is what we see not only in the first four seals, but we will see the same thing regarding four waves of destruction in the first four trumpets. Another picture that shows that same thing, is the four waves of locusts in Joel Chapter 1 that destroyed Israel—they represent the step by step fall of the church during the first four churches that we will be shown in both the seals and the trumpets.

As to the chariots in Chapter 6, we don't think that they are directly related, although as we will see the problem of the 4 horsemen in Revelation can be traced back to what those four chariots represent. If we look at what was happening in Zech Chapter 6, we see that the chariots are coming out from between two mountains of brass, which symbolize Assyria and Egypt. The 4 different chariots that we see, are Babylon, Medes and Persians, Greece, and then Rome. We get that interpretation from the fact that Zech tells us that these “are” the 4 winds of heaven and we know that prophetically the four winds brought those same four Empires up out of the sea in Daniel Chapter 7.

Zech 6:5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four winds of heaven, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. (ASV)

The last of the 4 chariots which was Rome, affected the literal nation of Israel at the First Advent, and then the church through most of the dark ages, because Papacy took control of the Western Roman power and used it to take control of God’s people. The more complete fulfillment of this prophecy has to do with how long the Gentile Times were going to last, which we now know was going to be 2520 years. We have 2520 years from 607 BC until 1914AD, where the remains of the Roman beast which had been allied with the Papal church during the 1260 years, was plunged into war and shattered. After that war was over, the kings of the Roman beast that had supported Papacy were gone, and they were replaced by other forms of governments who were not interested in supporting Papacy any more.

What we are going to see with the 4 horses in Revelation, is that the riders are leading the church astray and scattering Israel. That interpretation fits with Zech Chapter 1, where we see Israel scattered and carried away to Babylon, and in Revelation the spiritual Israelites are carried away to Great Babylon.

Seal 1

Revelation 6:1-2

Revelation 6:1 Then I saw when the Lamb broke one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, "Come."

Revelation 6:2 I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

Rider on the White Horse

In our study, there was a major question about the white horse that was seen in the first seal. The problem is that at first glance it appears that this horse was giving us a picture of the Faithful Church, because of it being white. Some brethren, as well as other commentators feel that this is Christ on the horse. The problem we see with that, is that the things this rider appears to be doing, could be interpreted either way, good or bad. Since the fourth horseman is obviously in the wrong for doing the same things as rider one, plus other obviously bad things, it would seem strange that this horseman wouldn’t be in error also. We eventually decided to go with the idea that this rider was bad, and see how that interpretation would fit with what was happening in the prophecy and in history. That conclusion agrees with the Matt 24 warning by our Lord, about deceivers coming who would try to claim they were coming in his name.

Conquering is the Problem

If we look carefully at the main thing that this rider was doing, conquering and to conquer, we should understand that he should not have been doing that. Some might say that this was the early church going out to witness and to spread the Gospel, which in a sense could be correct, but the problem that we see is in the how and why some were doing it. They should have been “preaching” and “witnessing” to others, but not conquering. The word conquering that is used here, is the same Strong’s word “3528”, that is used to describe one of the bad activities of the first evil beast of Chapter 13. If it was wrong for the Chapter 13 beast to be doing that, it’s obvious that the rider on the white horse is doing small beginnings of the same thing wrong. This is the beginning and conquering and wearing down of the saints that we see in Daniel Chapter 7. Rev 13:7 He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. (NIV)

What we see happening in the first seal, is that the small beginnings of power of the Nicolaitans that this rider was wrongly using, would by the time of the fourth church be transformed into the powerful church and state system that was persecuting and conquering anyone that would not agree with them. That is why the Lord mentions the Nicolaitans twice in the messages to the churches. In the first church, they are taking control of the church and in the third church they had gotten in league with the civil power. In the early church, this problem started out very subtly, and the apostle Paul in his time was already warning against the wolves that were going to be entering the midst of the church as soon as he was gone.

Acts 20:28-29 (28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

Besides the obvious wolves, there were those who were being elevated by others, or by themselves into positions of power over the church. If they would have all been humble and concerned about the flock they were appointed over, there wouldn’t have been a problem. The problem was that many of those who got into those positions of power, were not faithful to the Lord and they were using their positions to get wealth or prestige. Those small beginnings of corruption multiplied as time went on, so that by the time of the fourth church, we see the terrible and evil system had gotten power over not only the church, but also over the power of the Roman Empire. The power of the Empire, was being used against anyone in the church that would not agree with them by that time, and we will see that history symbolically described in the fourth seal.

Regarding the White Horse

One possibility, is that the horse is still white because the Apostles were still on the scene through most of the first church. The doctrines of the first church had not deteriorated to the point where they would be considered corrupted, so this horse is still white. When the Apostles died, the restraint against corrupting the true doctrines was greatly weakened, and the situation began to degenerate rapidly, and because of the rapid decline the other horses in each of the next three churches, are each showing a worse degree of corruption by their changing colors. Acts 20:29-30 (29 "I know that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; 30 and from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. NASU

The second possibility, is that since this rider is claiming that he is coming in Christ’s name, that this white horse is a counterfeit horse, so that he can deceive the church into believing that he is legitimate. While it is possible that he is pretending to be the rider from Chapter 19, we believe that the first possibility is the more likely one, which would be that the doctrines were still relatively pure in the first church. The problem is the rider is going to lead the horse astray, and the doctrines are going to be gradually corrupted, and that is why the horses will change color as we go through the seals.

The Rider Is Misleading the Church About Reigning During Gospel Age

The rider is generally the one who controls a horse, and this first rider was steering the horse down the wrong doctrinal path regarding the conquering spirit! It has been claimed by some that the rider is Christ, but one major problem with that view is that if it truly was Christ, he would not have ridden only the first horse, but he would have been seen on the other three also. Another major problem with this being Christ, is that the reign of Christ was not to have occurred until the beginning of the seventh one-thousand-year period. That occurred in 1874AD, and since then he has gradually been taking control away from Satan and his evil system. There is no way that we should be seeing Christ ride out with a crown on his head in the first church period, since he did not assume his role of king until 1874AD. The scriptures actually tell us that Christ is sitting at the right hand of the Father, waiting for the time of his kingdom, and so we know that is not him on the horse.

Heb 10:12-14 (12 but He, having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, SAT DOWN AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD, 13 waiting from that time onward UNTIL HIS ENEMIES BE MADE A FOOTSTOOL FOR HIS FEET. NASU

We are shown the Lord on a white horse riding out to make his enemies a footstool for his feet, and that is when he is going out to finish off the last of Satan's system in Chapter 19, not at the beginning of the church, as we see this rider doing. Some of the ones doing this in seal one, are most likely the same ones who Paul accused of reigning without him.

1 Cor 4:8 Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! You have become kings — and that without us! How I wish that you really had become kings so that we might be kings with you! NIV

This rider is almost two thousand years ahead of the time, regarding when the reign should have begun. This rider represents those who were conquering and striving after power in the church—instead of acting as servants like they should have been doing. They especially should not have been placing a crown on their head, as if they were a king over the church. The rider on the white horse, can for that reason be identified with the beginnings of the Abomination of Desolation. They eventually forced the church to accept the rider's version of a false Christ, who was a part of a mythical Godhead, which was supposed to be made up of three Gods in one substance.

Matt 24:23-24 (23 "Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or 'There {He is,}' do not believe {him.} 24 "For false Christs and False Prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect. (NAS)

Some might argue that the early church didn't have those kinds of problems, but it's a simple matter to read Paul's epistles to find out that there were many in the church that were already not doing what they should have been, as we see in the following examples.

1 Cor 6:7-8) 7 Actually, then, it is already a defeat for you, that you have lawsuits with one another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

8 On the contrary, you yourselves wrong and defraud. {You do} this even to {your} brethren. (NAU)

1 Cor 1:11-13) 11 For I have been informed concerning you, my brethren, by Chloe's {people} that there are quarrels among you.

12 Now I mean this, that each one of you is saying, "I am of Paul," and "I of Apollos," and "I of Cephas," and "I of Christ."

13 Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? (NAU)

1 Cor 11:17-18) 17 But in giving this instruction, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

18 For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that divisions exist among you; and in part I believe it. (NAU)

So, we see that the problem in the first seal came from the rider of the horse. Even though the horse was relatively pure and white, the rider of the horse was not, and as we will see, some of the things that were being done by him were bad!

Lion and a Voice like Thunder

The Living Creature represented in the first seal, is showing us the illegal use of power, and for that reason the Living Creature would have to be the Lion that is showing us the problems. We originally tried to place the creatures in the order that we found them in Chapter 4, but the seals seem easier to explain in a different order. We looked at the context of each seal to decide which of the four living creatures was showing us the vision.

We also looked at the messages to the churches and the trumpets, to see what each one was complaining about to help interpret what we were seeing in the seals. If we examine Revelation 2:2, which is the message to the first church, we find that they were having trouble with false Apostles, even while the Apostles were still on the scene. Those false Apostles were trying to insert their erroneous doctrines into the church, and they must have been at least partially successful, because by the time of second church, the doctrinal controversies were already overcoming the truth. Satan and those who wanted power, were out to conquer the church.

Our Lord warns us of that very thing, in Matt 24:5, “For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many”. In the text from Matt, we can see that our Lord had warned about early false Christ's who would be trying to lead the church astray. They were not actually claiming to be Christ, but they were claiming to be representatives of him, in thinking that they could set doctrine and policy for him! For the above reasons, it seems obvious that the rider on this horse represents some in the early church who were forcing their opinions on others, and misleading the church on doctrinal matters. The word Christ can mean anointed, and so those who are making the false claims, are not saying that they are Christ the savior, but they are saying that they are anointed of God, and appointed to rule over his church—which is what Papacy says.

Just because they didn't have civil power yet, didn't stop some from trying to rule over their fellow Christians or to impose their doctrinal ideas on them. Instead, they used superstition or their position of power in the church to force others to do and believe what they thought was correct. Some of them thought that they had to tell others in the church what they needed to do or believe to be saved. That wouldn't have been bad if they knew what they were talking about, but what they were advocating a lot of the time was leading away from Christ. A good example of this was those who felt that the Jewish Christians still had to observe the law, even though Paul had told them they didn't need to.

In Galatians, Paul tells us that they had even questioned his authority as an Apostle to get others to accept their false doctrinal positions. So, we can see why the Lord warned about the Nicolaitans twice, because he knew what they were doing in the first church would lead to worse misuse of power later. If you receive a warning twice about the same thing, beware, it's going to be on the test! The small beginnings of this wrong spirit in the first church, grew into the Papal grab for power by the time of the third church, and we historically saw that rise to power accomplished by the 539AD date, where the 1260 years of the reign of terror began. If everyone in the church had been properly humble and following the Lord, Papacy would not have come into existence.

A Bow

As we examine this horse and rider, we see that he had a bow and a crown was given to him. If we look at only the English words used to translate this, these symbols could be interpreted in several ways, but if we look up the actual meaning of the Greek words, the possibilities become more limited. The word used for bow here is only used in the New Testament in this place. This was not a musical instrument, but it was a war bow. The UBS comments on this verse confirm for us that this was a war bow.

Revelation 6:2 A bow: this weapon requires arrows, and it may be necessary to say "a bow and arrows." Where bow and arrows are unknown, it may be necessary to say "a weapon" or "a weapon that shoots darts (missiles)," without specifying what kind of weapon it is, while carefully avoiding the implication that it is a firearm, that is, a gun that shoots bullets. The weapon should be recognized as useful in battle. (from the UBS New Testament Handbook Series. Copyright © 1961-1997, by United Bible Societies.)

The bow shows that the rider had too much of a conquering attitude, and he was willing to use force and coercion to convince others on doctrinal matters, or to get others to join the church. Because of the importance of seeing that the early church did have this problem, we quote another scripture which is different from the ones above, but which shows the problem of selfish ambition that some had even against Paul. Phil 1:15-17) 15 Some, to be sure, are preaching Christ even from envy and strife, but some also from good will; 16 the latter {do it} out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Gospel; 17 the former proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition rather than from pure motives, thinking to cause me distress in my imprisonment. (NAU)

Having a bow, implies the use of arrows against your enemies. That is the same thing that Satan does, in that he is willing to shoot arrows of persecution to overcome those who oppose him. There are several scriptures that describe his arrows to us, and we see that we are to avoid them, or at least have on our spiritual armor to stop them. We also are not to use his same tactics, because the church is not to use force.

Eph 6:13-17(13 Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you will be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. 14 Stand firm therefore, HAVING GIRDED YOUR LOINS WITH TRUTH, and HAVING PUT ON THE BREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, 15 and having shod YOUR FEET WITH THE PREPARATION OF THE GOSPEL OF PEACE; 16 in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. 17 And take THE HELMET OF SALVATION, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. NASU

Ps 64:2-4) 2 Hide me from the secret counsel of evildoers, from the tumult of those who do iniquity, 3 Who have sharpened their tongue like a sword. They aimed bitter speech {as} their arrow, 4 To shoot from concealment at the blameless; suddenly they shoot at him, and do not fear. (NAU)

It's interesting that we are not told that this rider has any arrows. It may be that we are to understand that he has the arrows, or it may signify that at the time we see him here, he has the desire but he does not have the power to do anything regarding conquest or to kill those who disagreed with him, “yet”. He may have been only shooting arrows of slander. The word for bow in Greek is toxin or toxic—poisonous arrows, which erroneous doctrines would represent.

II Thes 2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. (NKJ)

Looking at the above definition of bow, we see that the problem being shown to us here, was very clearly the misuse of power, and that was what the first living creature is showing us and complaining about. If this rider had been doing what he should have been doing, he would not have needed a war bow.

Regarding the Crown

It’s interesting to see that the crown was “given” to him, but the bow he already had. That it was given to him indicates that it’s possible that the crown was something he had legally from the Lord, but he may be misusing it by claiming its kingly power ahead of time. For example, the Apostle Paul indicated that he had a crown laid up for him, but he does not say that he has it on. The problem that is beginning to occur in this church, is that the 144,000 are not supposed to be reigning with their crowns until they have proven faithful, and even then, they must wait until the next age. So, it appears the misuse of the crown in lording it over others, is why the crown is mentioned here. That this problem gets worse, is confirmed to us in the message to the second church, where we see that Christ promises to give us “the crown of life”, but only if we would be faithful until death.

Looking at all of these things, we see that the crown is a second problem, since the rider has falsely appropriated its benefits to himself ahead of time. It appears that this is one reason why he is seen riding out to conquer with a bow, in that he thinks he is a king already. No one can claim that they are overcomers or that they have the right to rule over others or nations, until they have made their calling and election sure. In other words, this rider shouldn’t have had the power of this crown while he is still alive on the earth. If you are a leader in the church, you need to be a servant, not a ruler claiming unlimited power over others. Only when you have proven faithful to the Lord, will you receive power and a kingdom with him in the next age.

Revelation 2:10 "Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. (NAU)

This crown is interesting, in that it was: 4735 stephanos (stef'-an-os); from an apparently primary stepho (to twine or wreath); a chaplet (as a badge of royalty, a prize in the public games or a symbol of honor generally; but more conspicuous and elaborate than the simple fillet, 1238), literally or figuratively: KJV-- crown.

As we can see, this crown could be a badge of royalty, or a reward, or a symbol of public honor. In other words, this may indicate a condition of pride or thinking too much of himself, regarding this rider, in that he may be claiming that he had won the race already, or that he deserved respect and honor because of his position in the church. We pray that none of us fall into the same error. We do not have any right to the power of the crown until we have proven faithful and are ruling with the Lord in the next age, we are only servants and helpers of the church during the Gospel Age.

Ruling and Judging Others

The rider and the ones that the apostle is complaining about in his time, thought that they had the right to rule and judge over others. That is what Papacy did openly later when he did get actual civil power. He claimed he had the right to rule, and that he was the Vicar of Christ on earth. That false claim implied that this rider had the right to make decisions for Christ, but we know that Christ did not give that power to him! That conquering attitude turned into the counterfeit key of Peter that Papacy claims that they have. Again, we are looking at the small beginnings of a bad attitude in the early church, that eventually led to Papacy.

If any still doubt that this problem was what was happening in the first church, consider that Paul tells us that “the mystery of iniquity” was already working even in his time, and that the one that was holding him back would continue to do so until he stepped out of the way. One thought is that it was the Apostles who kept this under check until they died and were off the scene. Another thought is that the one restraining was the Roman Empire, and that those who would like to get power, couldn’t do so until Rome fell. Historically that was correct both ways. The power grab in the church for spiritual control began as soon as the Apostles were gone, but the grab for civil power couldn’t succeed until Rome fell in the third church. When that happened, Papacy stepped into the power vacuum and began his rise to power. Those two different times of power grab, may be why the Lord warned about the Nicolaitans in both the first and the third messages to the seven churches.

The church was only supposed to make disciples of the people and to baptize them, not conquer them. Matt 28:19-20) 19 "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (NAU)

Constantine & Roman Empire

After this church period ended, we see that problems with the so-called heresies and doctrinal disputes that were going on in the early church, eventually attracted the attention of Emperor Constantine towards the end of the second church period. Because of the strife that it was causing in the Empire, he began to set precedence for the government to settle church affairs and doctrinal controversies, which the church shouldn’t have allowed him to do in 325AD. Sadly the council of Nicene which Constantine called, was where many false doctrines were formulated that we still must fight against yet today. After that council, other church councils soon saddled the church with even more false doctrines and bad ideas, that built upon that original foundation of error that came into the church at that council.

In conclusion, we see that if each of the living creatures represents an attribute of God, then this one definitely represented a misuse of power in the early church, that led to an even worse misuse of power later. This living creature is pictorially showing us how power is already being abused, even in the first church. That abuse of power helped to cause the great falling away. The crown was given to the rider, and he should have kept it laid up for the Millennial age, but he didn’t and he began using its power for evil instead—by ruling and lording it over the people.

Revelation 6:3-4

Revelation 6:3 When He broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come."

Revelation 6:4 And another, a red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to take peace from the earth, and that {men} would slay one another; and a great sword was given to him. (NAU)

Flying Eagle or Wisdom

We believe that the second living creature in seal two is the flying eagle, which symbolizes wisdom. That seems to fit the best in the second church, because that is where the apostate system caused the knowledge of what Christ had done for us to be lost in the great falling away, even though the sword of truth which was the bible was given to them in this church. In the beginning of Proverbs Chapter 7, we see that wisdom equals Christ. By the time we get to verse 8, we find the young man forgetting wisdom and going to the harlot, who represents the Papal church and state system. By the end of this church period and the beginning of the next, the Papal system was well on the way to being developed. Starting with the first church council in 325AD, the church rapidly lost its wisdom and began to accept the doctrines of those councils over the scriptures that they had just finished compiling into the bible in that same church period. By 381 Theodosius mandated that the only religion that could be followed in the Empire, was the so called orthodox belief. The Arians even then refused to go along with that doctrine, because it promoted the Trinity doctrine. They held out until 539, when they were defeated by a Roman army, and then Papacy stepped into the power vacuum that the city of Rome presented after the Arians were removed, and he then began his climb to power.

Rider Made Many Doctrinal Errors Mandatory

To list a few of the doctrinal errors, we see that not only was the Trinity doctrine formulated during the second church, but the early beginnings of the doctrines of the mass were also established—which totally negated what Christ had done for the church regarding salvation. Towards the end of this church, because Constantine had joined the power of Rome to the church, they also began to think that the kingdom of Christ had been established in the earth.

A question came up in the study regarding whether this was a literal sword or a symbolic one that the rider had. It seems obvious that the Lord would not have given a literal sword to this rider. Because of that, it was concluded that the great sword that this rider was given was not a literal sword. It was symbolic of the two-edged sword of the Old and the New Testament, which was compiled towards the end of this church period. This rider is misusing the sword of truth starting in this church, by misquoting it, as was done in the council of Nicaea regarding the Trinity doctrine. That same problem continued in the other councils that followed this one during this church period, so that by the time of the later councils, the decision of the councils was considered to be superior to God's word.

Because of those councils, this is the church that began to reject the use of the scriptures, and they began to rely on the decisions of the church councils. It seems likely that the reason the sword is mentioned here, is because the symbolic sword of the Bible began to be ignored towards the end of this church, and that rejection of God's word became worse in the later churches—to the point where we will see the two prophets lying dead in the Great City of Papacy in Chapter 11.

The Red Horse

That this horse is “red”, confirms to us that the church at that time was becoming mixed up with Satan and the Pagan doctrines of the Roman Empire. We see that confirmed for us in Revelation 12:3, 9, where it tells us the “red” dragon was Satan.

Revelation 12:3 Then another sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads {were} seven diadems.

Revelation 12:9 And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. (NAU)

That the horse has already turned red, shows it had already absorbed a lot of Satan's doctrines and ideas. In that regard, it's interesting to find in the second message to the church that it tells us that they had the synagogue of Satan with them. Revelation 2:9 "I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy by those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. (NAU)

That the horse was red, shows us the historical fact that the church had become entwined together with the power of Rome, and because of that it was taking on the color of the dragon, which was a Satan controlled Pagan Roman power. Towards the end of this church period in 313AD, the church had become the favored religion of the Empire over Paganism, thus guaranteeing its downfall.

Misuse of God's Word

A big problem that this Living Creature is calling our attention to, is that this church by the latter part of its church period, was misusing God's Word or “wisdom”. The sword of Bible truth they had been given, was by that time being twisted to support the apostate church systems grab for power. If they couldn't misquote God's word, they ignored it in favor of man's philosophy.

This was also the time that many of the heresies were being brought into the church by Pagans. The influence of Greek philosophy was causing error to come into the church—which Satan used as a river of false doctrine to try to drown out the Faithful Church. Revelation 12:15 And the serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood. (NAU) The flood that came in at that time, was all the Pagan doctrines and ideas that the people that came into the church brought with them, because they still held Pagan beliefs. This was part of Satan's attempt to overwhelm and drown out the Faithful Church and its doctrines, as we will see mentioned in Chapter 12.

When that didn't work, Satan later in the third church brought in a flood of Barbarians into the Empire, thinking that he could use them to overwhelm the church with brute force. If those Barbarians would have defeated the faithful of the church at that time, they would have been forced to accept Pagan doctrines or be killed, and that would have been the end of the true church. The remaining forces of the Empire joined with the Arians who still had true doctrines, and they were able to force the Barbarians back out of the Empire, and the faithful of the church who didn't accept the Trinity doctrine were saved.

Satan and his forces attacked the Faithful Church with both doctrinal as well as with physical methods—some of which were torturing and killing them. That the rider was granted to take peace from the earth, could be looked at as both a literal war and in a symbolic manner it could represent the fallen church trying to overwhelm the remaining true doctrines held by the faithful with force. The peace was taken from the Empire because the Pagan rulers tried to eliminate the faithful church, with force. In the very beginning of this church, the faithful were witnessing to both the Jews and to the Romans who didn't appreciate what was being told to them. Both of those groups literally killed and persecuted the church in this church period. We see that represented historically in the ten days of persecution that is mentioned in the message to the second church, "Revelation 2:10".

Apostate Church Begins to Persecute

In the second and perhaps worse sense, when the Roman Empire had quit persecuting the Faithful Church, the apostate church using the power of Rome began to persecute the Faithful Church. This started to happen in the latter part of the second church over the problem with the Trinity and other doctrines. Riding on the back of false doctrines, they began to wage warfare against the Faithful Church and that warfare was a spiritual as well as a literal persecution. They were taking peace from the earth first doctrinally, and then later it became an actual physical conflict, which became a very serious and deadly conflict for the faithful church.

So, we see both a literal as well as symbolic taking of the peace during this time. Our Lord Jesus warned had warned earlier about both types of trouble taking peace from the church, in Matt 24:6-10 (6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

*9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

Sword Battle Became Physical

Sadly, it's an equally historical fact that this was the area of time in which the church councils while ignoring what the Bible said, formulated most of the false doctrines that exist yet today. During the latter part of this church, those who advocated the Trinity and other false doctrines, began to use force against those who were still fighting against the error that was coming into the church, and at that point it was a spiritual battle. The Trinity controversy during the second church became so heated, that the Trinitarians in this conflict began to literally persecute and imprison those who didn't agree with them, thus taking peace from the earth. For a while it depended on which Roman Emperor was in power as to who was winning the battle. Unfortunately, an Emperor eventually came to power who favored the Trinity doctrine, and he helped persecute and defeat those who didn't believe in the Trinity. The war between the faithful saints and the fallen church continued onward into the third church.

The saints were eventually worn down, as Daniel 7:21 had prophesied would happen. In a severe setback to truth in the third church, the champions of the Trinity doctrine eventually won the conflict in the Western part of the Empire, and for that reason most churches are stuck with that false doctrine today. That defeat against the truth happened in the literal battle that occurred in 539AD at Ravenna, where those who didn't believe in the Trinity doctrine were defeated by the Roman army and after that time Western Rome believed in the Trinity doctrine exclusively. The Pope had asked Emperor Justinian who was trying to restore Rome at the time, for help in defeating the Arians or non-Trinitarians, and he sent an army to overthrow the city and to defeat them. That the Empire used the army to establish the false doctrine of the Trinity by force, is why the 1260 years begins to count from that date. A small part of the Eastern Roman Empire still held onto the Arian view at that time in history, but they also eventually lost the truth and became Trinitarian.

The idea that the church had the right to decide doctrinal positions for their members, came into acceptance in the church councils during this church. The church councils decided many doctrinal controversies without consulting scripture, and sadly many of those erroneous positions still exist today. Instead of letting their members hear or read God's word and then using the Holy spirit to make up their own mind, they began to decide the issues for the people, and to force the decisions on them, right or wrong.

That is why it says that this rider was granted to take peace from the earth. They did it first with their doctrinal controversies and then later they did it in a literal sense, killing and persecuting those who didn't agree with them. This again agrees with the parallel table that we supplied at the beginning of the Chapter, where our Lord warned about the literal killing that was going to come against the faithful.

There is one other way that this rider may have taken peace from the earth. When we accept Christ as our savior, we can be at peace with God because of our faith in Christ and the salvation that he established for us. Rom 5:1 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: (KJV) When this rider began to take away the peace of the understanding of what Christ had actually did for us, he took away the peace that passes understanding that we have through Christ. That may have been in a sense a worse situation than the literal peace that was taken away. Regardless, both the understanding of Christ's salvation, and the actual peace of the Empire were taken away by those who wanted to establish their authority over others.

To summarize, we see "the sword" was not always a literal instrument of war, but it was symbolically the sword of truth or the Bible, which during the Gospel Age provides spiritual nourishment to those who hear its message. This is the church in which the Bible was compiled. If the early church had used that spiritual sword of truth correctly and had not mixed error with it, they wouldn't have fallen away from the Lord. Ephesians 6:17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

They inappropriately began using false doctrinal ideas to gain power over others, and to condemn those who disagreed. They were misusing the wisdom and the truth that God had given to them through the scriptures. Even though this church had access to the great wisdom found in the scriptures, which were compiled into a book in this church, they had mixed and corrupted God's truth with earthly doctrines and Pagan philosophy. By the end of the second church, the spiritual war was not against Satan's organization anymore, but Satan had turned it against the faithful members of the church. Satan had turned the church away from being our Lord's faithful church, and had taken complete control of it. The Bible was being ignored, except to misquote it out of context, and the church councils were deciding the doctrines without consulting God's word.

That is why this living creature represents wisdom, and he is showing us how this church was not using wisdom or truth appropriately. They had corrupted God's word and had mixed truth with error, and then they began to beat their fellow man with it.

Seal 3 Revelation 6:5-6

Revelation 6:5 When He broke the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come." I looked, and behold, a black horse; and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

Revelation 6:6 And I heard {something} like a voice in the center of the four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not damage the oil and the wine." (NAU)

433.75AD-793.75AD

Black represent lack of light, showing that the doctrinal light of this church had grown dark. This horse is black, which indicates a very bad spiritual condition of no or little light. In the parallel table between Matt 24 and the seals, we saw that our Lord mentioned the famine that would come, but he did not elaborate on exactly what was going to occur. During this church period, there were famines of both the literal and the spiritual kind. We believe that the famine that concerns the church that we are going to see in these symbols, is pointing to the spiritual kind. The reason for that conclusion, besides the meaning of the symbols, is that the Lord would have been much more concerned about the spiritual famine, because that could lead to spiritual death. This church was heading into a spiritual famine, which was going to be extremely bad because of the dark time that was coming upon the church during this church period.

Ox or Justice Complains

The third living creature, which is showing us this vision, is most likely the Ox, which symbolizes justice. The Ox represented our Lord's sacrifice that was used to balance or satisfy justice. We believe that justice is the correct truth that is being perverted in this church, because of the balance scale that we see in this seal. The balance scale is normally showing us the ransom of the Lord, which is pictured by the balance scale—with our Lord redeeming Adam and the entire race by providing an exact corresponding price, with Adam on one end and our Lord Jesus on the other end. The problem is that by this time in the church, the Mass was beginning to be substituted for the true sacrifice that Christ had provided.

We are going to show in more detail, why we think that the balance scale that we see here is the key to the interpretation of this seal. This church established the abomination that maketh desolate, by creating the mass and commanding that all had to participate in it to be saved. The doctrine of the mass, is in direct conflict with the true doctrine of the ransom, because the mass claims to recreate and re-sacrifice Christ over and over again. The mass assumes that Christ's original sacrifice was not good enough, and in the mass they sacrifice him every hour on the hour, claiming that they are removing any new sins that have occurred in the meantime. By doing that they are rejecting the doctrine of the ransom, by claiming that the mass is needed to add to what Christ had done. Contrary to that, in Hebrews we are told that what Christ had done is all that will ever need to be done.

Heb 9:23-27 (23 It was necessary, then, for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary that was only a copy of the true one; he entered heaven itself, now to appear for us in God's presence. 25 Nor did he enter heaven to offer himself again and again, the way the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own. 26 Then Christ would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world. But now he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to do away with sin by the sacrifice of himself. NIV

Heb 9:28 so also the Messiah, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to deliver those who are eagerly waiting for him. CJB

It's interesting to see that this rider already had a balance scale, and that he'd not had anything given to him like the first two churches. It does not say that the balance scale had been given to him, and we think that the reason that is true, is because the balance scale that this rider had was not Christ's balance scale. The true meaning of the balance scale had been lost by the time of this church.

Because of the context of the high prices for food in this Chapter, we considered the possibility that the balance scale was related to the scarcity of spiritual food. The lack of spiritual food, was definitely not helped by the loss of the doctrine of the ransom at the time of this church. The scale should have represented the doctrine of satisfied justice that had been given to the early church, but it was not by the time of this church. The reason that it was not showing the true sacrifice of Christ, is because the apostate church system had by this time substituted their set of false doctrinal weights of the mass, replacing the true weight of the blood of the cross that the Lord had provided, and spiritual darkness had settled over the church.

In other words, this rider was the anti-Christ, and he was corrupting and misusing the perfect balance of justice, which was the sacrifice of Christ. The knowledge of one man dying for another man had been lost, and the evil system had begun to substitute darkness in its place during this church. By the end of this church period, the doctrine of the mass was full developed, and there was no more satisfied justice or true salvation in this church. The doctrine of the mass was established to supposedly provide continuing salvation for the people.

Job 31:6 Let Him weigh me with accurate scales, and let God know my integrity. (NAU)

Pss 62:9 Men of low degree are only vanity and men of rank are a lie; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than breath. (NAU)

Prov 11:1 A false balance is an Abomination to the LORD, but a just weight is His delight. (NAU)

Prov 16:11 A just balance and scales belong to the LORD; all the weights of the bag are His concern. (NAU)

That a balance scale can be used to cheat or deceive, will be seen to be a big part of the problem here.

Hosea 12:7 A merchant, in whose hands are false balances, He loves to oppress. (NAU)

Amos 8:5 saying, "When will the new moon be over, so that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath, that we may open the wheat {market} to make the bushel smaller and the shekel bigger, and to cheat with dishonest scales, (NAU)

The early church had a well-balanced and fully developed doctrine of satisfying God's justice given to them. We see that explained in Romans, where Paul tells us that through the transgression of the one-man Adam, death entered for all mankind. Paul then tells us conversely, that the one act of righteousness by the one-man Christ, resulted in justification to life for all. Unfortunately, by this time in the history of the church that had largely been ignored or forgotten.

Rom 5:12) 12 Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned--

Rom 5:18-19) 18 So then as through one transgression there resulted condemnation to all men, even so through one act of righteousness there resulted justification of life to all men.

19 For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the One the many will be made righteous. (NAU)

One major reason that they couldn't understand the ransom anymore, was because they had accepted the Trinity doctrine in the previous church, and that doctrine was not compatible with the corresponding price of the ransom. Instead of the man Christ Jesus paying the corresponding price, with the Trinity doctrine they then had a God plus man paying the price, and that would not work as a corresponding price. The scriptures tell us that the ones who don't believe that Christ came in the flesh or as a human being, belong to the anti-Christ. Hebrews also tells us that it couldn't be an angel that saved us, but it had to be one like his brethren, in other words, Christ had to be an actual man when he paid the price for us.

II John 1:7 Watch out for the false leaders-- and there are many of them around-- who don't believe that Jesus Christ came to earth as a human being with a body like ours. Such people are against the truth and against Christ. (TLB)

Heb 2:16-17 (16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore in all things it behooved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. (KJV)

The loss of the doctrine of the ransom, created a spiritual famine which caused the available spiritual food to be of poor quality, which had very little saving value. That's why we see a lot of barley in this vision, which represents the poor quality of doctrines of this church, which could not develop or sustain a true spiritual life.

In the literal sense, we can see that the just laws that God establishes for his people were being ignored during this time, and the fallen church was using false weights on the corrupted balance scale to create laws that did not bless, but which oppressed the people. So not only was the doctrine of the ransom being ignored, the corrupt cannon laws of the church were being substituted in place of God's laws. The changed laws were used to keep the people under the iron fist of the church authority, giving them the means to punish whoever they wanted to silence, or as it eventually happened they gave the church the right to sentence anyone to death that they wished. He also changed the times during this church, by claiming that God's kingdom had been established already.

Dan 7:25 He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. WEB

By the time of the ninth century, which was the latter part of the third church and the beginning of the fourth, the idea that the bread and wine were actually turned into Christ's body and blood had become a church pillar, and was universally accepted and has never been changed or corrected! Luther even believed that false doctrine and he argued with Zwingli about it, because Zwingli didn't believe that doctrine was correct. That false doctrine is a big part of what the scriptures call the Abomination of Desolation. The regular sacrifice that Daniel says was done away with by the Abomination, was the ransom doctrine. The blood of Christ had satisfied justice for all times, but the apostate system didn't understand that doctrine anymore at the time of the third church. That we are right on our timing for this seal, is shown by the fact that when Daniel talks about the Abomination in Chapter 12, he gives us the 1260, 1290, and the 1335 days, and we know that the 1260 started in 539AD, with the destruction of the city of Ravenna. The 539 date falls into the time of the third church.

Dan 11:31 "Forces from him will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the Abomination of Desolation. (NAU)

Matt 24:15 "Therefore when you see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), (NAU)

Papacy & Civil Power

Looking back to the messages to the churches, we see that Christ had mentioned the doctrine of the Nicolaitans a second time in Revelation 2:15. That scripture applies very well historically, because this was the church that started to first share power and then later take control of the civil power of Western Rome. The first mention of the Nicolaitans was when they were taking control of the church, and the second mention is in the third church was when they began taking control of the civil power.

The Papacy was using the civil power to destroy his enemies by the time of the third church. In 539AD, a Papal and Roman Emperor allied army, captured the king of the Goths at Ravenna. That was where the last of the three horns of civil power were plucked up, which were later given to the little horn Papacy, as seen in Dan 7:8! The three horns were the Heruli, the Ostrogoth's, and the Vandals. Pepin gave Papacy a large portion of those three countries later, so that he could rule over them as a king, and that was the plucking up of the three horns by the little horn, and the beginning of Papal civil power as seen in the two-horned beast of Chapter 13. We will explain in Chapter 13 of Revelation, why Papacy acquiring the civil power to rule over a civil country created the two symbol of the horned beast.

The voice that is heard in the center of the 4 Living Creatures is not identified. It must be either Jehovah or the Lamb, since the throne is in the middle of the living creatures, "Revelation 4:6, 5:6". It doesn't actually matter who is speaking here, since Jesus is carrying out the Fathers plan, so anything that he says either comes from the Father or the Father would agree with it. While not certain, it's most likely that the voice in this verse is Jesus, since he is the "voice" that John heard in Chapter one, and he is carrying out the Fathers plan.

Famine of Spiritual Food

The famine that we see here, is thought by some to be a literal earthly famine. We don't believe that is what we are being shown, in that we believe that the famine that we see here is a self-inflicted famine for hearing the word of the Lord. Elijah had a similar famine for 3.5 years, which pictured this 1260-year famine that began in this church. Amos 8:11-14(11 "Behold, days are coming," declares the Lord God, "When I will send a famine on the land, Not a famine for bread or a thirst for water, But rather for hearing the words of the Lord. 12 "People will stagger from sea to sea And from the north even to the east; They will go to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, But they will not find it. 13 "In that day the beautiful virgins And the young men will faint from thirst. 14 "As for those who swear by the guilt of Samaria, Who say, 'As your god lives, O Dan,' And, 'As the way of Beersheba lives,' They will fall and not rise again." NASU

There were to be both literal famines as well as spiritual famines, as predicted by the Lord in Matt Chapter 24, but the famine in the third seal is symbolic in nature, and represents the lack of good nourishing spiritual food. The reason that there is a spiritual famine coming upon this church, is because they had tossed out the true understanding of salvation which we discussed above. Those who were promoting this inferior doctrine, will in the end die of the spiritual famine and lose their place in the church.

The voice of God or Christ that came out of the midst of the four beasts, tells us a quart of wheat was being sold for a denarius and three quarts of barley for the same price, and that symbolically shows us that the truth or good nourishing spiritual food was becoming very difficult and expensive to get by the time of this church. We get that concept or idea from the fact that a denarius was about a day's wage. The high price of food is what happens during a famine or siege when little is available. Scarcity would cause the prices to get very high, and that is when we see that food which is not very nourishing, is eaten instead. A quart of wheat is enough good food for one person, but it was not enough for a family, and as we see shown here, more poor food like barley was available in abundance than there was wheat.

As a higher quality and better food, wheat was more expensive than the inferior barley. That would symbolically show that the better food of wheat which symbolized deep nourishing doctrines or strong doctrinal meat, was very hard to get by the time of this church. Even barley or simple doctrines which symbolically represent the milk of the word, were not as spiritually satisfying and were expensive to buy. We see that same condition in a natural famine, when people eat anything to try and stay alive. They sometimes strip the leaves and bark off trees, even though there is not much food value in them.

We find the same problem of doctrinal food mentioned in the message to the third church, which is the same church period that were looking at here, in that our Lord says that Balak was teaching the sons of Israel to eat things sacrificed to idols—which is shown to us in Revelation 2:14, which was the third church. Here we see that the third church was being offered a large amount of inferior food or false doctrine, which had very little spiritual food value and didn't satisfy or nourish the spiritual creature. In his complaint about Balaam in the message to the third church, Jesus tells us that the food or doctrines had been offered to idols, and that is what had happened in this church. The false doctrinal idols of Satan were being substituted for the original truth of the Gospel. The false food had no real spiritual value, and if you tried to live on it, you would starve to death spiritually. This church was even being fed empty husks or tares, that did not have the kernels of nourishing spiritual food in them at all. In the third trumpet, all the rivers and fountains of spiritual water were turned to blood, which made them undrinkable, resulting in spiritual death we see here because of the bitterness of the water.

1260 Year Wilderness

This is the church that had to flee into the wilderness for the 1260 years, which is mentioned in Revelation Chapter 12. You could not actually belong to this false church by this time, and still be following the true doctrines of Christ. This serious doctrinal problem was already in existence at the beginning of the third church, and the beginning of the 1260 years of Revelation Chapter 12, both of which are pointing us to the same start time of 539AD. That is a good indication that we are looking at the price of the wheat and barley correctly when we say that it indicates a severe famine and lack of God's spiritual food and word. God promised that the Faithful Church would be fed nourishing spiritual food from God, just as Elijah was fed by the ravens for 3.5 years, and he did that during that time for those who were seeking him. If you were going to rely on the apostate church to supply your spiritual food for you, you would be starving to death. In Chapter 11, we will also show that this is the same time that the two prophets that represented the scriptures were killed and lay dead in the streets of the Great City of Papacy. That time was so bad, that God had to feed the church miraculously during the 1260 years, just like he fed Elijah, but he could only do that outside of the official church. Revelation 12:14 But the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she could fly into the wilderness to her place, where she was nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. (NAU)

In the Studies in the Scriptures, second volume page 256, we find that Elijah is a type of the Gospel Age church, and he had to live by a brook and be fed by ravens for 3.5 years. The 3.5 years points us to the chronology of the book of Daniel, which is calculated at  $3.5 \times 360$ , and that equals the 1260 years which reached from 539 to 1799AD.

Jezebel and Ahab, who pictured church and state system that existed in the later part of this church and the next, were trying to have Elijah killed during this entire time. Jezebel pictured the fallen church, and Ahab pictured the kings that allied with Papacy in this evil system. That fits exactly with what had happened historically to the church during the 1260 years, in that the evil church and state system tried to kill off the Faithful Church, starting in 539AD and during most of the rest of that 1260-year time-period. The same thing is true here in that the Ravens, who symbolize messengers and wise ones, had to feed the Faithful Church to save them from the famine of truth caused by the apostate church system.

Wine and the OIL

That the wine and the oil were not to be harmed here, shows us that the truth of Christ's salvation was to be preserved through the bad time, and that the Holy spirit would keep working with all who were willing. Oil can be symbolically representative of several things in the scriptures: of divine grace, the Holy spirit, the truth, the spirit of consecration and of the God's promises. So, that implies that for any that were truly consecrated, God would supply his Holy spirit to carry them through the bad time.

Wine can also be symbolic of doctrines, and we see that wine symbolized the Lords blood at the Last Supper, which was the blood that provides the ransom and which guarantees the New Covenant. Those symbols being preserved, is showing us that no matter how bad things had become, this system could not take away the promise of a future life and the true salvation which is represented in the blood of Christ. The saving value of the Lords blood would still be available to save anyone who believed in it, and the truth and message of that salvation would not be allowed to perish during that evil time, even though the evil system did not believe in it.

But just like Elijah, the church was going to have to hide from the evil system in a symbolic cave, to be kept alive during this evil time. This is the time that is described as a desert, and just like the time of Elijah there was not any rain upon the false church, and a spiritual famine was occurring in that evil system. That is why there is the mention of the wheat and the barley being of great price in this seal, because the truth was hard to get during the time of the 1260 years.

Even though the evil system killed all those in opposition to it that they could find, the true ransom doctrine was still preserved and hidden in the Bible, and in those who still resisted error in this church. Even though the message of truth was largely ignored for a time, God didn't allow it to be destroyed. By this time in history, those who still had the truth were becoming much smaller in number, and they had to preach outside the official system of the Great City. Elijah pictures that survival, when he was in hiding and living with the widow. 1 Kings 17:14-16 (14 "For thus says the Lord God of Israel, 'The bowl of flour shall not be exhausted, nor shall the jar of oil be empty, until the day that the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth.'" 15 So she went and did according to the word of Elijah, and she and he and her household ate for many days. 16 The bowl of flour was not exhausted nor did the jar of oil become empty, according to the word of the Lord which He spoke through Elijah. NASU

Elijah Restores the Altar

Later on when the common people could read the scriptures again, the Holy spirit was able to go to work restoring God's word and the truth. Ezekiel shows us that gradual restoration in Chapter 37, with the restoration of the bones of literal Israel, which also pictures the restoration of spiritual Israel. The recovery is also pictured by the way that Elijah restored the altar of the Lord, that had been destroyed by Ahab and Jezebel. We will see the altar again in the sixth trumpet, showing that the doctrines related to salvation were being restored for sure at the beginning of the sixth church.

I King 18:30-32) 30 Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD which had been torn down.

31 Elijah took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Israel shall be your name."

32 So with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD, and he made a trench around the altar, large enough to hold two measures of seed. (NAU)

What Elijah did in that picture, shows us that the truth that had been lost in the dark ages, was going to be restored again at the end of the 1260 years, and that at that time it would then overwhelm and expose the evil doctrines of the apostate system. That has already been happening after 1799AD, and the truth of the restored scriptures will eventually overthrow all false doctrines and ideas, as well as those who try to hold on to them. God will only accept the sacrifices of the Faithful Church, and those who are found worshiping man's doctrine and ideas will be rejected.

As we can see, the third living creature had good reason to show us justice being perverted. Not only did the people not have actual earthly justice from the government of this fallen church system, but this evil church had hidden and suppressed the true justice and salvation that God had supplied to the church. They had replaced the simple price that Christ had paid for Adam and his offspring, with a complicated set of false doctrines which hid the truth of what Christ had accomplished on the cross, and which brought death and not life. No wonder they were spiritually starving to death. The false weights of the balance scale were totally corrupted during this church, because they had thrown God's true weights of the ransom doctrine away and the great message of salvation that had been delivered unto the saints was silenced in the Great City of Papacy during this church, and the two prophets representing the scriptures had been slain and lay dead in the Great City for 1260 years—starting in 539AD. Only the faithful that still existed "outside" the Great City could still witness about God's salvation, but if they were caught they were tortured and killed. "In" the city, the truth of the bible was not accepted anymore.

Seal 4

Revelation 6:7-8

Revelation 6:7 When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come."

Revelation 6:8 I looked, and behold, an ashen horse; and he who sat on it had the name Death; and Hades was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by the wild beasts of the earth. (NAU)

793.75AD-1153.75AD

The Sickly Horse

The horse that is seen here is described as ashen. The word from Strong's is 5515 chloros (khlo-ros'); from the same as 5514; greenish, i.e. verdant, dun-colored: KJV-- green, pale.

From vines = chloros ^5515^, "pale green," is translated "pale" (of a horse) in <Revelation. 6:8>, symbolizing death. See GREEN. (From Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words) (Copyright (C) 1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

If someone is so sick that they are turning sickly green, they are generally considered to be very sick or on their death bed. People actually use that expression when they are extremely sick, saying, "I'm so sick I feel green." That this is not a healthy green, is also suggested by the possible meaning of it being dun-colored or dull in color. This would imply a dried-up color of pale green, like dead lifeless grass, that had dried up because of the lack of water. That is a very fitting symbol, because it is showing us something that had life in it at one time, but had since died or is very close to death. The fourth doctrinal horse from God's viewpoint is considered to be dead, or at least causing death in those who follow him.

Love Grows Cold

It's not as obvious why the living creature that represents love is disproving of this church, until we look at history. If we remember in Matt Chapter 24, the Lord had predicted that love would grow cold. Matt 24:12 "Because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold. (NAU) Historically that is exactly what had happened by this time, in that if you didn't agree with the evil system they would literally torment or kill you, thinking that they were saving you. By this time in history they had absolute control over both the church and the state, and because of that the true church had to symbolically hide outside the Great City of Papacy just like Elijah had to hide outside Jerusalem in his time.

Since the man Christ represents love, we think that love is what is pointed to here as being what this rider had completely lost. They had forgotten that Christ had told them that love for one another would prove that they were his disciples, and this church had lost that love completely. 1 John 3:11-19 (11 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; 12 not as Cain, who was of the evil one and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brothers were righteous. 13 Do not be surprised, brethren, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. 15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God abide in him? 18 Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth. NASU

That was why our Lord was very concerned in the message to the first church, because they were losing their love already, but by this church it had declined to the point where it was a complete loss. From the small beginnings of the loss of love in the first church, our Lord could project that trend ahead of time, and see that it would lead to the total loss of love in this church. By the end of this church, the saints had arrived at the time that the inquisition was being used, and in the coldness of that evil systems hearts, they began to systematically torture and kill all the saints that resisted them. They were doing the exact opposite of what they should have been doing, in that instead of love they had filled their hearts and their minds with hate. The parallel to Matt 24, also predicted the loss of love in this church period. That is why death and the grave were following this rider—they were killing both literally and spiritually.

Matt 24:12 "Because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold. NASU

John 13:34-35(34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 "By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." (NAS)

They Falsely Claimed To Have the Keys to Heaven

This church was falsely claiming that only they had the keys to heaven, and that to get salvation you needed to agree with them and to follow them. The truth is that anyone that followed this rider was led into spiritual death, because this church had lost all touch with who Christ was, and the true salvation that he had brought. The death that this system brought against the faithful church that resisted them, couldn't kill the spiritual being, but only the human shell that held that life. God can raise them back up again, and so they could only kill the body and not the spirit. But those who willingly followed this system, were losing any spiritual life that they had, and they will not be of the 144,000. Because of that many of them will be in the Great Company as seen in Ezekiel Chapter 44. Hopefully there are not many that will lose their life completely, but the scriptures do indicate that there could be some.

Christ Has the Keys!

In our study, we observed that Christ was the one that had the keys of death and Hades, as shown in Revelation 1:18, but we know that he is not the rider on this horse. This rider doesn't have the remedy for death and Hades, but he is a cause of death and Hades. That Christ has the keys, shows us that we will not have to stay in death forever if we remain faithful. The fallen church by this time was falsely claiming that only they had the keys of death and Hades. They were telling their church members that if they didn't stay with the mother church and its erroneous doctrines, they would be lost in hell. The doctrine of the fiery torment of hell was being used to frighten the people into staying with and supporting that system.

The rider on this horse is supplying the opposite of salvation, by nullifying what Christ had done for us. The balance scale of the ransom, had been replaced by a dishonest and false scale that cheated all who used it, keeping them from receiving life through Christ. So, the fourth seal is showing us that if you followed this horse and rider as most did in that period of history, you would lose the crown of life that had been promised to the church. Because of that, we can see why the living creature that represents love is greatly disapproving of what is happening in the fourth seal. The church had lost sight of the fact that God so loved the world that he gave his son Jesus to ransom us back from the grave. Instead of love, this evil system had hate, and they were killing all who refused to give in to them and support them, showing that they were following Satan and not Jesus.

This Rider Contains All the Error Of the First Three Riders

This horse and rider brings together all the evil work of the other three, i.e. by killing with the sword, famine, death and by conquering with the bow and by the wild beasts of the earth. By this time the killing had become very real, all you had to do was disagree with the evil system and you were killed. We will see some of those who were killed under the altar in the next seal. This verse is also parallel historically to Revelation 13:10, where the clear message given there shows us the persecution of the faithful church by the beast, and warns us against going into captivity to the system, or being killed with the corrupted doctrinal sword that it has. Revelation 13:10 If anyone is to go into captivity, into captivity he will go. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, with the sword he will be killed. This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness on the part of the saints. (NIV)

The beginning spirit of conquest by the Nicolaitans was in the first church. The misuse of the doctrinal sword was in the second church; loss of the ransom doctrine and spiritual famine were in the third church, and spiritual death is here in the fourth church. The wild and dangerous beasts of the earth in the fourth church, are what the misuse of the power represented by the crown and bow of the first church has grown into by this time.

One Fourth of the Earth-Symbolic?

That this horse and rider were given control over one-fourth of the earth, raises an important question—what does that mean? There have been many theories put forth regarding the one-fourth, but none of them seemed very satisfactory to our Study Group. One interesting idea given is that they had conquered about one-fourth of the earth at the height of their power. That may be true by that time in history, but we are not sure if that amount of conquest is accurate, and whether that is the only thing that we should be getting out of this symbolism. We would have to add up the land areas or the population of those areas to see if that could be true, but we would not be sure how to do that accurately, so while it could be a literal interpretation, we weren't completely satisfied with that one thinking that there may be more in the symbolic sense.

There may be another application of the one-fourth of the earth, that would point to the same evil system in another way that would not require as much calculation, and which is symbolic. A hint regarding another solution, is found in Bullinger's book on numbers. The explanation regarding the number four, is found on page 126, under the heading "the Great Prophetic World Powers". The section on the number four in his book, tells us that four in relationship to the four great world powers, is divided first into three and then into a last one, which is the fourth and most terrible beast, that was mentioned in Dan 7:2, 7 etc. The beasts were shown in historical order, Babylon, the Medes and Persians, Greece, and then finally Rome.

Dan 7:7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

Related to the 1260?

In another sense, a possible chronology confirmation of the 1260 years being a proof of the power over one fourth of the earth, could be what we see in the comprehensive 1260-2520 pattern that we showed in Chapter four. If you examine that complete pattern, you should notice that there are four sets of 1260's made up of six circles apiece in the complete pattern. Each one of those patterns of 1260's corresponded to a living creature with six wings. The last Living Creature has an interesting starting date, which is 539AD. If we assume that the last and fourth set of chronology circles is where the beast is given control over one-fourth of the earth, then we notice that the 1260 years ends in 1799AD. That chronologically seems to confirm that the last and fourth beast, is what the control over one-fourth of the earth is referring to. That is not the same thing as the one-fourth being the fourth beast of Daniel's vision, but it is one fourth of the historical earth that has existed since the death of Adam. But the interesting thing is that it points to the same Papal system, as being the one in charge of the terrible 1260 years of power over that period of history. So, no matter which solution you prefer, or which is proven correct in the end, all of them are methods pointing to the evil beast of the 1260 years of the Papal church and state system. Perhaps all of them are correct.

A side note regarding the full extent of the 1260 circles, is very interesting, but not applicable to what we are looking at here. The full extent of those six 1260 year circles ended in Oct 1989, which was where the Soviet Union collapsed. While that date does not apply to the end of Papal control over the earth, that date does apply to the end of northern civil power of the Soviet Union, that was keeping the Jews from returning from the North Country. That break down in the northern Empire of the Soviet Union, is what opened the way for more Jews to come out of the North Country. After that date, many Jews could leave and return to the Jewish homeland.

It's also obvious that the meaning of being allowed to have the power of the one-fourth of the earth, does not mean that the Lord sanctioned or approved of that power, but the Lord allowed that to happen to test the saints to see who was going to be faithful. Those who could remain separate from that system and become overcomers, are the ones that the Lord was looking for to complete the church. We will see that in the fifth seal, where those who were faithful are seen slain underneath the altar.

26% Papacy & Rome's Power

Looking at the above, it seems obvious that the one-fourth of the earth was the fourth beast Rome, and the area that it controlled, especially at the time that Papacy became a partner with it in 539AD! Some say that they controlled 26% of the earth population at the height of their power. The fourth part or the Roman Empire had declined in power prior to the time of the fourth seal. But as we remember from history in 799-800AD after Charlemagne had revived a great deal of the fallen Western Empire, he regrettably got involved with the Papacy and wound up being crowned by the Pope. The crowning of him by the Pope at that time gave the Popes that followed the idea that they had the right to crown and uncrown kings, and using that supposed right of crowning the Western Emperors, they eventually took control over the civil power of the Image of the Beast. The combination of superstitious control by Papacy and the willingness of the kings to submit to the new church and state system, rapidly restored the power of the Western Empire—but it was not just the Roman Empire anymore. It was what had become known later, as the so-called Holy Roman Empire, and its Emperor was crowned by the Popes in the tradition of Charlemagne, who was the first one crowned. It took a while for Papacy to get full control after 799, but eventually it fit the definition of a theocracy when Papacy got control over the ten kings. At that time it claimed to be religious, and its laws were derived from the religious theology that Papacy was Advocating, making it a theocracy.

Three Horns Plucked Up

The Papacy is the horn in Dan Chapter 7, that plucked up the three horns out of the ten horns. Pepin gave Papacy the control over those three countries or areas. We believe that the two-horned beast that we see in Chapter 13, is Papacy with both a civil and an ecclesiastical horn. When Papacy crowned Charlemagne Emperor in 799, that was the start of a church and state system that reigned for 1000 years. At the time that happened, both East and Western Rome were still united, and so Papacy exercised power over a large area to begin with. The evil system that grew up out of that union of church and state, was the authority over one-fourth of the earth that this evil church system was allowed to get. In other words, Papacy got control over the fourth universal Empire, which was Rome through outright deception and cunning.

The “wild beasts of the earth”, are the kingdoms that supported the Abomination of Desolation. The Abomination is mentioned in Dan 11:31, 12:11, but it’s also described in more detail without being named in Daniel Chapter 7 and in 9.

History shows that this was one of the most terrible times, if not the most terrible time to have had to live on the earth. That time in history was the winter time of trouble predicted by our Lord in Matt 24:20. We are in the Sabbath time of trouble now, which is bad enough, but in the wintertime of trouble, the church had to hide to survive. The problems that caused this horror came from Satan’s false ideas and doctrines. If the church would have stayed with God’s true doctrine, they could have had what would have seemed like paradise on earth, in comparison to the great evil they caused because of their error.

Love of God Forgotten

Because of their lack of love, their errors created the most oppressive system that ever existed. The fourth living creature represented love, and that is why he is showing us how God’s love was destroyed by this system. They had by this time wiped out the concept that God is love, through their false doctrines of hellfire and judgment. The love of the many had grown very cold by this time against their fellow man. The love and salvation that Christ had brought to light at the First Advent, was no longer remembered. Man’s inhumanity to man reached new heights of cruelty and horror, during and even after this time, as we will see revealed in the next seal. By the end of this church and the beginning of the next, this church and state system was killing its subjects and the faithful saints at a record pace. In this church which began in 1158, Papacy had gotten full control over the kings by 1178, and by 1184, they had begun the inquisition, which was murdering the saints. That is why we see so many dead under the altar in seal five.

Wicked Popes!

Henry Halley
(1895—1965)

Papal power was maintained by the Inquisition. The Inquisition, called the "Holy Office," was instituted by Pope Innocent III, and perfected under the second following Pope, Gregory IX. It was the "Church Court for Detection and Punishment of Heretics." Under it, everyone was required to inform against Heretics. Anyone suspected, was liable to torture, without knowing the name of his accuser. The proceedings were secret. The Inquisitor pronounced sentence, and the victim was turned over to Civil Authorities to be imprisoned for life — or to be burned! The victim's property was confiscated, and divided between the Church and the State.

In the period immediately following Pope Innocent III, the Inquisition did its most deadly work against the Albigenses — but also claimed vast multitudes of victims in Spain, Italy, Germany and the Netherlands.

Seal 5

Revelation 6:9

Revelation 6:9 When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained; (NAU)

1153.75AD-1513.75AD

The fifth church fits very definitely in the time-period of 360 years prior to Luther's time. This is not the generally accepted time for this church that many Bible Students favor, but in our earlier study of the messages to the churches, we found some justification for having the second through the sixth churches be each 360 years in length. For more information on that thought, see appendix A, which discusses that idea and gives the reasoning behind it. That thought is still under review, but it seems to work historically very well. The murders described in the fifth seal, match the torture and the murders of the faithful church that began just before and during this theoretical 360-year time-period. History calls says the start of the inquisition began in 1184. The fifth church using the theoretical 360, began in 1158AD, which was about where the systemized killing of the saints began.

Printing of Bibles

This church reached to the time in which we find the scriptures being first printed in large amounts on printing presses—which started in 1455AD—the sixth church started in 1518AD. The printing of Bibles allowed reformers like Tyndale and Wycliffe to start to wear down the power of the system, through the preaching of God's word. This was also the beginning of the three woe trumpets, which were designed to break the power of the evil system by the time of the seventh church.

Many of those who preached against this evil system, were killed or persecuted when they tried to reform it. That is why it says here that these were killed for the word of God, and for the testimony they had maintained. The killing of large numbers had started in the previous church, and so those who are seen under the altar here are not all from the fifth church. At the same time, there were a large number being killed in this church, and that is why we are shown them as being under the altar in this seal. This is also the last church where the evil system had almost unlimited power against the true church, but even then the killing went on in the sixth church, as much as they could get away with, because they lost a lot of power in the sixth church. In the time of the sixth church you could flee to the Protestant controlled areas, or you could flee to the new world.

The Bibles that they were printing in this church, were the word of God, and they were again spreading the message that they found in that book to the people. This church period is parallel to Josiah finding the book of the Lord in the temple, and reading it to the people. The people saw that the doctrines of the Papal church did not match God's word, and they were striving to remedy that during this time. The evil system didn't want to know the truth, and that is why we see the saints slain underneath the altar. Because they were faithful in their effort, they are told that God was going to avenge them, but they were also told that they would have to wait for a time, because there were more that were going to be killed just as they had been. Unfortunately history shows that to have been very true.

About halfway through this church, Wycliffe especially angered the evil system and they decided to try to wipe out not only him but his poor preachers. The civil power of the time protected him so that they were not able to kill him, but they later did dig up his bones and burned them, thinking that they were removing his chance for a resurrection. Because of the systems refusal to reform, many of his faithful followers were killed by Papacy after his death. This is like the history of Jezebel, who symbolically pictures the apostate church. That she was trying to kill Elijah in the Old Testament times, pictures the Papal system trying to kill off the Faithful Church. That is why our Lord names her as being the problem in the message to the fourth church, which is where the killing that we see here began. The terrible and tragic thing about this situation is that the worst offenders were those who were doing it in the name of Christ.

Those who we see here that had been slain under the altar, were also prophesied about by our Lord who had warned us that murder and killing were going to happen to the faithful church: Matt 23:34-35 34 "Therefore, behold, I am sending you prophets and wise men and scribes; some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city, 35 so that upon you may fall {the guilt of} all the righteous bloodshed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. (NAU)

Matt 24:9-10(9 "Then they will deliver you to tribulation, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all nations on account of My name.

10 "And at that time many will fall away and will deliver up one another and hate one another. (NAS)

Just as the Jews killed the prophets that were sent to them, the evil system killed the saints who tried to warn and reform them. We had previously seen the Lamb looking as if it had been slain in Rev 5:6, 9, 12). We now see those who follow the Lamb and we see that they are also slain because of their obedience to the word of God and because of the testimony they had maintained to death. See also Rev 11:7, 12:11, 17:6. The same Greek word for "slain" (sphazo), is used of both Christ and these martyrs, which means literally "butchered". The saints have literally followed in the footsteps of their master, just as he told them that they would have to do.

Later in Revelation, we see the reward of the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus, and because of the word of God. The beheading in Chapter 20, while symbolic, would still include many that were beheaded literally.

Revelation 20:4 Then I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I {saw} the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. (NAU)

The Altar

Where is the altar with the dead saints that we see in this vision? It's before the throne of God in heaven, "Revelation 8:5". The deaths of the saints are looked at in the same manner as the death of the prophets of the Old Testament. Jesus warned the Jewish house in Matt Chapter 23, of a coming judgment and retribution against the evil system that had done the killing during the Jewish age. The Revelation account of the fifth seal, is telling us that there will be a future judgment and retribution for those who did similar if not worse killings in the Gospel Age. Matt 23:35-36 (35 And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. 36 I tell you the truth, all this will come upon this generation. NIV

We find a vision of the judgment and retribution being carried out in Revelation 16:4-7, where the angel tells us that God's judgments are righteous. The saints slain under the altar that we see in that vision, are being satisfied with God's retribution against the evil church system that is shown to them in Chapter 16. The bowls of wrath or plagues which we will see in Chapter 16, are designed to punish the ones who did these evil deeds, and they are God's final judgment against this evil system, and God will square all accounts against them. Even though the bowls of wrath fall on the system during the end time of this system, the punishment of the loss of any spiritual reward will be retroactive against the ones that are doing the actual killing here. Revelation 16:5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "Righteous are You, who are and who were, O Holy One, because You judged these things; (NAU)

This is the same altar that the Lamb was seen slain on in Revelation 5:6. In Genesis 4:10, we see the blood of Able crying out from the ground, which is a picture of this and it was a symbolic picture of those who would kill their brother in the following ages, both literally and spiritually. In the Revelation picture, it's the blood of the church under the altar that is crying out for vengeance.

A great deal of killing and murder of the saints is predicted by the great tribulation mentioned in Mathew Chapter 24, and that is the killing of the ones that we see here. The evil system did not have full power toward the end of that church period and the Lord after the 1260-year time-period which ended in 1799AD, took away even more power from them. One of the ways that the days that were shortened, was the cutting off their power at the end of the 1260 years of power, but we also determined that there is another shortening at the end of the age, which literally stops the earth from being destroyed.

There is a double application for this prophecy, and the days being shortened at that second time would apply to the nation of Israel, where no flesh being saved alive would be literal, especially if the days of that final battle are not shortened. In the book, the Divine Plan and its Chronology, we also have from Lev Chapter 26 and the seven times of punishment, 2401 to the Sept 1947 partition, and both 2401 and the 2300 days to 1967AD, as dates that were shortened for Israel. Matt 24:22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. (KJV)

Revelation 6:10-11

Revelation 6:10 and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and, will You refrain from judging and avenging our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" (NAU)

Revelation 6:11 And there was given to each of them a white robe; and they were told that they should rest for a little while longer, until {the number of} their fellow servants and their brethren who were to be killed even as they had been, would be completed also. (NAU)

A Cry for Vengeance

Luke 18:6-8) 6 And the Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge said; 7 now, will not God bring about justice for His elect who cry to Him day and night, and will He delay long over them? 8 "I tell you that He will bring about justice for them quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?" (NAU)

In Luke Chapter 18, we find our Lord telling us that God is going to avenge his servants. We should expect that he would do no less for us in that regard, whether we are still living or not. Since our Lord is talking about the time that he is coming in his Second Presence in Luke, that is when he is indicating that the judgment and punishment will come upon the evil church state system, just as it did at the end of the Jewish age.

The cry for vengeance occurs several times in Old Testament scriptures, such as in Ps 79:10, 119:84. It's God who will avenge our blood; vengeance is not to be ours. Deut 32:43 "Rejoice, O nations, {with} His people; for He will avenge the blood of His servants, and will render vengeance on His adversaries, and will atone for His land {and} His people."

Rom 12:19 Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath {of God} for it is written, "VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY," says the Lord. (NAU)

Later in Revelation we are shown God avenging his servants.

Revelation 18:8 "For this reason in one day her plagues will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

Revelation 18:24 "And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

Revelation 19:2 BECAUSE HIS JUDGMENTS ARE AND RIGHTEOUS; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and HE HAS AVENGED THE BLOOD OF HIS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER." (NAU)

How Long?

The time frame that seems to be represented here is uncertain, in that the word "time" used is not the same one as the word used in 3.5 times. The NASB reads that they were told to rest for a little while longer and in Revelation 14:13 we are told the same thing in that "they will rest from their labor for their deeds follow them".

The Punishment Came Right on Time

If we considered that the Lord was counting from the end of this church system and not the beginning of it, then it would be exactly 360 years to 1878AD. The saints would have to wait for 360 years and then they would begin to be rewarded with the resurrection of the church at that time. Exactly at that time Pastor Russell was instrumental in publishing the harvest message in the Watch Towers, which included the message of punishment against that system.

The publishing of the volumes also offered positive proof that our Lord had judged the apostate church system guilty, and that their full punishment would be coming in 1914AD. At the time of the war in 1914-18AD, God began to punish them by removing all the kings of the earth. When the war had ended there were none of the original kings left that had any real power. Any of the nations that didn't lose their kings like Great Britain, adopted other forms of government that took the power away from the kings. That took away from Papacy and even the Protestant systems any civil power that they had prior to the war, and so they did not have the power to kill or persecute anyone like they had done previously.

The Apostate church system was spewed out, and those who were not faithful and who did not repent, were no longer recognized by the Lord as being his people anymore. Besides the rejection of them as being God's people, the entire evil system was plunged into the time of trouble that began in 1914AD with WW1. From that time on, our Lord has been further weakening that evil system and further exposing their errors and other evils.

The punishment that began in a small measure in the sixth church, had become sevenfold during the seventh church—since this is the time of the final punishment by the seven last plagues. This is the season and time that the slain saints had been waiting for, the time when God was going to judge the system and begin to exact punishment on them. Dan 7:22 "until the Ancient of Days came, and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.

Dan 7:26 But the court shall be seated, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it forever. (NKJ)

The Promise of the White Robes Is Fulfilled

The white robes that are mentioned here, remind us of the promise in Revelation 3:4-5, which was given by our Lord in the message to the fifth church, which is the same church as this seal and is where our Lord told those who are being faithful that they were going to receive a white robe. Here we see the faithful being given that white robe as their reward. Those who were following that evil system will not get the robe, and will lose their spiritual reward. The similarity of the timing of the white robes and other symbols, is why the Study Group felt that the messages, seals, and the trumpets, were running parallel to each other and that they all revealed similar problems, but with different symbols.

Revelation 3:4-5) 4 "But you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their garments; and they will walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. 5 "He who overcomes will thus be clothed in white garments; and I will not erase his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. (NAU) See also Isaiah 61:10, Revelation 7:13.

The white robe is the robe of righteousness that we receive from Christ. The righteous acts that we do are embroidered as beautiful designs into this robe. Without this robe we would not be able to attend the wedding feast.

Matt 22:11-13) 11 "But when the king came in to look over the dinner guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed in wedding clothes, 12 and he said to him, "Friend, how did you come in here without wedding clothes?" And the man was speechless. 13 "Then the king said to the servants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' (NAU)

Many other scriptures such as the book of Daniel and Revelation Chapter 13, had predicted that the apostate church system would make war against the saints, and that is why the text says: "must be killed." It implies that this would be something that would have to happen and as predicted here, we find historically that many saints were murdered by the evil system during this exact time-period.

Seal 6

Revelation 6:12-13

Revelation 6:12 I looked when He broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth {made} of hair, and the whole moon became like blood;

Revelation 6:13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind. (NAU)

Regarding this seal, we had a lot of discussion in the Study Group about whether or not if any of it was future, or if it was all fulfilled during the time of the sixth church. The traditional Bible student view is that the rolling together of the scroll is the coming together of a future church-state system. A major problem with that view is that the seventh church or seal and the seventh trumpet began in 1874AD. It would seem to be common sense to place events that belong to the sixth seal or church, prior to the seventh church, or in other words prior to 1874AD!

The conclusion that we arrived at, was that the events that occurred in this seal did start at the time of the Reformation. What began happening in this seal, were events that were designed to weaken the apostate church system, and to begin the process of removing its power. This church period was also going to receive the second of the three woe trumpets, with very destructive results, and for that reason we would expect there to be a great deal of trouble upon the evil system that would come from this seal! Just like the woe trumpet, we would expect that this seal is designed to weaken the evil church system, so the Lord could begin the process of getting his people out of the Papal system.

One of the major things that happened in this church, was the split of the religious system into the Papal and the Protestant churches, and that is what the Study Group decided that the rolling up the scroll was showing us. The Catholic heavens were being rolled up, and they were losing power because of it, and the Protestant heavens were becoming the new heavens, by taking people away from the Catholic church. To prove that conclusion is correct, we are going to look at this prophecy in great detail.

A Great Earthquake

Starting with the symbol of the earthquake, we see that earthquakes generally represents shaking and destruction. Many commentators and Bible Students, suggest the French Revolution as being represented by this earthquake. In our study, it was suggested that the French Revolution was a part of the earthquake, but we believe that the violent shaking and revolution was only the latter part of the earthquake! The Study Group concluded that the destructive process of this earthquake started with the Reformation, and continued until at least the time of the French Revolution, and most likely further. The French Revolution and the soon to follow separation of the power of the kings from Papacies control, was the climax of the earthquake which shattered the power of the church-state system in about or shortly after 1799AD.

The French Revolution and the events that happened then, led to the separation of most of the ten horns from the Papal system a few years later. Because of the separation of the civil power from Papacy, it was not as easily able to use it to support its evil system anymore. The time of 1799AD was the end of both the 1000-year false reign, and the 1260-year time-period which we are warned about in Daniel and Revelation. As we will see later in this book, that great earthquake on the evil system was only the beginning of the process that will eventually remove the entire Satanic system, and bring about God's kingdom.

The Symbol of the Darkened Sun

The symbolic sun as it was originally seen in the time of the Apostles, was the light of the truth and good news that had been given to the church about salvation. During the great falling away that occurred shortly after the Apostles left the scene, the original sun was perverted and darkened. Because of that, we can view the darkened sun as representing the false Gospel and doctrines of Great Babylon, and that those errors were exposed as being darkness because of the restoration of the true Gospel light by the reformers, who had broken free of the fallen church system. In other words, the imitation sun or Gospel was always false or dark after the Great falling away, and it was being seen in its true light at the time of the sixth seal—which happened because of Luther and the Reformation restoring a great deal of the true Gospel light. When Luther published the 95 theses, he exposed many of the errors of Papal doctrine. When you compare the Papal doctrines to the Reformation doctrines side by side, you soon see that the false Gospel has no real light in it. That was because they had based their false Gospel on church councils, and not on the Bible as they should have. Isa 8:20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. (NKJ)

There were many false doctrines, like for example the thought that you could only get salvation from and through the Papal system. The people were also being told that they could do anything, and that for a gift of enough money to the church, they could be granted indulgences and be forgiven. That the sun is seen as black as sackcloth here, shows us what happened when Luther exposed the counterfeit Gospel by nailed his 95 theses on the church door, exposing the terrible corruption and the many false ideas being preached by the apostate church system. It was seen by the reformers that the Papal doctrines did not lead to light, but that they led to darkness and death. Sackcloth is usually seen in the scriptures as being worn at the time of death, or representing severe trouble or judgment coming. Correspondingly the doctrines of this system were so bad, the sackcloth indicated a symbolic condition of death and great mourning that was going to come upon that evil system.

The Symbol of the Bloody Moon

Some of the nominal churches make a great deal about blood moons, which are times of eclipse that make the moon look bloody. We don't believe that this is what the bloody moon represents here in the sixth seal. As far as the literal blood moons, we can't say one way or another whether there is anything to the literal blood moons or not. Occasionally, there are four in a year, and some think that when you have that happen, which does happen very rarely, that something important is going to happen to Israel. That is something that should be watched to see if there is anything to it, but the blood moons do not have anything to do with the bloody moon in the sixth seal, and so we are going to suggest a different answer as to what that moon represents.

The moon becomes the color of blood when the shadow of the earth blocks all the light that comes from the sun. So in that sense, that in symbol may be telling us that the true Gospel of Christ, which is symbolized by the light of the sun, was blocked by earthly doctrines from that system. The earthly ideas and laws that were twisted and corrupted, were making the law of that system bloody. This concept may apply to the second possibility we will give last. See Dan 7:25 below, where the corruption of God's laws by that system was predicted ahead of time.

The general Bible Student thought about this moon, is that it is showing us that the animal sacrifices of the law are bloody. The problem with that interpretation is that while the law had animal sacrifices in it, it was a perfect law and it pointed us in symbol and pictures to Christ, who had already replaced the animal sacrifices at the First Advent—which again may apply to the second interpretation. For that reason, we decided to look deeper into this symbol and try to see what else it could be showing us.

The apostate church added their own rules and regulations onto God's pure law, and by the time that we are considering here, they had corrupted the understanding of the original law to the point where it was not being seen in its true light of leading us to Christ anymore. The church canon laws took away the freedom from the law that had been brought in through Christ, and it instituted an oppressive judgmental set of man's doctrines in their place. To violate or disagree with that false and perverted law, guaranteed you that you would be banished, persecuted, or even killed.

Dan 7:25 'He will speak out against the Most High and wear down the saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. NASU

The sun being turned black and the moon red, shows that during the time of the Reformation, the light of the Papal system was shown to be darkness. The moon turned to blood, has a couple of possibilities. The first one that we selected in the study, was the thought that the moon being red, revealed that the canon law of that system was shown to be unfair and bloody as we explained above.

Since the study, another possibility has presented itself, and that is that the canon law of the evil system, was during the time of the Reformation shown to be in error, and they rediscovered that the blood of the Lord had replaced the literal law—hence the moon or law was turned to blood red, showing that the blood of the ransom was the only true salvation, and that it had superseded the Old Law Covenant with the New Law Covenant. The moon or law as it was originally delivered to Moses was a perfect law, reflecting the light of the Gospel or the sun. Even though the original law was superseded by the Gospel it still exists, and it's to be observed not by the letter but by the spirit. The letter of the law was not able to be kept, but because of Christ we can now keep the law by following it through the spirit. If our intentions fail and we fall, we have the throne of grace to come to and ask for help in overcoming whatever the sin is. So the new thought is that at the time of the Reformation, the law or the moon turned blood red because they re-discovered the blood of the ransom, which had replaced the law. That thought seems to make sense, because we found that other places later on in these Revelation notes, are also showing the blood of the Lamb together with the symbol of the moon. Because the fallen system had lost the doctrine of the blood of the ransom, their moon had turned dark. The moon or law turned red during the time of the Reformation, when the doctrines of true salvation were being re-discovered. Rom 7:6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. KJV

Matt 24:29 has similar wording, except it tells us that the moon in that Chapter didn't give its light. That prophecy is showing us the same thing, but with a different prophetic picture of the moon, where that moon was supposed to be giving forth or reflecting God's true gospel law or light, but it had no light at all because it was based on man's corrupt and dark law. It didn't give its light because the system had gotten so bad that they had lost sight of the very types and shadows that were the foundation of the Gospel Age. The natural moon gets its light from the sun, which symbolizes the Gospel, and when looking at those symbols in the Bible. We see that the systems sun or Gospel was darkness, and because of that there was no light that could be reflected by their moon and because of that the moon was dark.

Symbolic Stars Fall to the Earth

That the stars fall to the earth here, was not a literal event like falling meteorites, but it's symbolic. It also would not make sense to have real stars literally fall to the earth, since there would not be anything left of the earth after such an event. We can see that the present earth continues onward with no problem, and we don't expect any actual stars to fall on us literally, even in the future. Meteorites or shooting stars fall on the earth all the time, but that is not what is being referred to here.

The stars here are not literal, but they were symbolic of those who were originally God's ministers in the spiritual heavens. That they fall to the earth in this Chapter, is showing us that they were seen at the time to be earthly servants of the apostate church, and not God's true lights in the spiritual heavens. That they are seen to have fallen here, does not mean that this church period is where they were corrupted, but only that in this church it was made clear that they weren't true spiritual servants of God, and so they are seen as symbolically being earthly and not spiritual. Only the faithful of the church are still viewed as being like bright stars in the heavens. Dan 12:3 "Those who have insight will shine brightly like the brightness of the expanse of heaven, and those who lead the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. (NAU)

We find the same words in Math 24:29, in that the sun is darkened, and the moon does not give its light, and the stars fall from heaven. According to the Study Groups thoughts on Matt Chapter 24, those three events regarding the sun, the moon and the stars, all happen prior to the return of our Lord, because after those three things are described, then the scriptures talk about the trumpet that was blown immediately after the tribulation of those days, which places it immediately after the 1335 years. The trumpet that was blown has to be the seventh trumpet which was started to be blown in 1874AD because of the gathering of the elect that is described there regarding that trumpet. That gathering of the elect that occurred after that trumpet, was the time of the 40-year harvest, and the gleaning that still goes onward until all of the needed wheat is gathered into the barn. Since that Chapter most likely has a double application, we see that the nation of Israel is also gathered from the four winds of heaven at the same time, and history shows that has been happening after that time, and Israel was established as a nation in 1948.

Matt 24:29-31 (29 But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: 30 and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 31 And he shall send forth his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. ASV

The fall of the Figs

Again, following the same pattern of it showing us what was bad in that system, we see that the stars are described as like unripe figs in the sixth seal, which is a very apt symbol of those who were in this church. The unripe figs were early figs that were generally not any good to eat, and so they were allowed to fall to the ground. We see that the use of the symbol of the stars can be used for the faithful church, but here these stars are seen to be immature Christians, who were not able to grow in Christ because they were following that evil systems false doctrine. Their fruitage was not ever going to amount to anything, which is a parallel similarity to the fruitage of the Jews in the time of the First Advent, when Jesus cursed the fig tree. These figs are also like the tares that our Lord spoke about in the parable of the wheat and the tares, in that they had no real food value.

The fall of the unfaithful house here, is an exact parallel to the fall of the Jewish house in the time of Christ. Just as the Jews fell because of unfaithfulness and unbelief; the same thing was starting to happen to the apostate church in the sixth seal. The full fall of this system was not going to occur until the time of the seventh church, which was when the system came under judgment, but our Lord needed to prepare the way for the escape of the church from that fallen system, and so the Reformation truth prepared the way for the call to "come out of her my people", which was going to happen in the seventh church.

Matt 7:15-17) 15 "Beware of the False Prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. 16 "You will know them by their fruits. Grapes are not gathered from thorn {bushes} nor figs from thistles, are they? 17 "So every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit.

Luther started the process of shaking the fig tree, when he brought out his challenge to the Papal system. The many denominations of the Reformation which came after Luther, continued this process until there was no doubt in any Christian's mind that they were dealing with the great falling away. The restoration of true biblical doctrine exposed the false pulpit stars, and they symbolically fell to the earth like unripe figs, or in a different symbol they were tares. When the Bible societies published a huge volume of Bibles after 1799AD, and more truth was rediscovered, that in turn exposed the evil system even more in the sight of the faithful saints, who had gained a greater understanding of prophecy by that time. It became clear to them, that they were looking at the fulfillment of the prophecy that the church would fall into great error. The Adventists and others brought out a great deal of evidence against that evil system during that time, by writing commentaries on Daniel and Revelation, which exposed them as being the great falling away. The fallen figs were seen by the Faithful Church as not having any true standing in the ecclesiastical heavens, but were only earthly minded or worldly. That is why the false heavens was being rolled up or put away. They were concerned with earthly advantage, and not with doing what was right in the Lord's eyes.

We find mention of the unfaithful Jews in both the message to the second church, "Revelation 2:9" and again very aptly in the message to the sixth church, which is the same church period that the sixth seal is covering. Revelation 3:9 "Behold, I will cause {those} of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie-- I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and {make them} know that I have loved you. (NAU)

The evil system had claimed to be good fruit, but it was seen at the time that they were not. Light had been shed by the Reformation upon what sort of fruitage this system had, and it was seen that it was not good at all.

Parable of the Fig Tree

This is like the time that Jesus came up and cursed the fig tree, which represented the nation of Israel when it was unfruitful. Luke 13:6-9) 6 And He {began} telling this parable: "A man had a fig tree which had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and did not find any. 7 "And he said to the vineyard-keeper, "Behold, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree without finding any. Cut it down! Why does it even use up the ground?" 8 "And he answered and said to him, "Let it alone, sir, for this year too, until I dig around it and put in fertilizer; 9 and if it bears fruit next year, {fine;} but if not, cut it down.'" (NAU)

What Jesus said about the fig tree, is symbolically applicable a second time to the sixth seal, in that the nominal church was also being unfruitful. The fertilizing of the tree occurred during the time of the Reformation, and when the Lord came to examine the tree in 1874-78, he expected to find good fruit on it, and as we can see from the description of him not finding any good figs in the parable, he did not find any in 1874AD either. For that reason, the unfruitful fig tree of the fallen system was going to be cut down and removed.

The total of four years in the Parable in Luke, is close to 3.5 years and if looked at as times instead of years, then this would be, {4 x 360 = 1440 years}. The question regarding where to count the count of those years from is a little hard to determine, but it's very interesting that if we assume that the total count of the years ran out in 1874-78, when the Lord would be present and was looking for fruitage, if we count backwards we get an interesting year. That turns out to be 433.75AD, which is our theoretical start for the third church, which was just after all the major doctrinal corruptions had come into the church. The third church is the church period in which Papacy began to rise to power. The fallen church was going to be examined on this end of the age, and it was also going to be found unfruitful, just as the Jewish house had been. That Jesus didn't find any figs in the spring of the year in this parable after he fertilized the tree, indicated through the parable that he would not find any good fruit on it later in 1874-78AD either, and historically we see that was so. If they would have been doing what they should have, they should have gotten rid of the Trinity doctrine, the hell fire doctrine, the doctrine of the mass and many other corrupt doctrines. Even though the tree or system was fertilized through Luther and the Reformation, it still didn't change and yield good fruit 360 years later.

For that reason, the second and larger symbolic interpretation of this parable, is more representative of the entire Gospel Age, at least regarding the fallen church. The fertilizer in that parable would represent the Reformation truths that were brought out in the time of Luther, but as the Lord found in the next or seventh church, it still had not borne fruit and it was to be cut down. We know that was historically true in that the apostate church system was judged and found wanting in 1878AD. Just as we saw that the axe was laid to Israel at the First Advent, we see the same thing happens through the parallel 1845 years later in 1914AD, which is calculated in this manner "69AD + 1845 = 1914".

Luke 3:7-9 (7 So he began saying to the crowds who were going out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 "Therefore bear fruits in keeping with repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I say to you that from these stones God is able to raise up children to Abraham. 9 "Indeed the axe is already laid at the root of the trees; so every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire." NASU

While it doesn't say that winds actually blow here, it's implied because we see that there was a great shaking of the spiritual tree that did occur from the time of the Reformation onward. Winds, which are winds of change, can represent war or Revolution and in this seal, is most likely both religious and political change that came about from the Reformation in 1517AD, and the French Revolution in 1799AD. If the figs would have been the true figs of the Faithful Church, they would have been able to stand the wind, but since they were not, the major events of that time exposed them as being false and sickly, and they fell to the earth.

Stars Lose their Brightness in Joel

We find a similar passage in the Old Testament that gives us more details about the symbols in this seal. In Joel, these events were happening as the attackers and enemies came against them. The same thing here, in that the faithful church has already been captured by Great Babylon, hence the sun and moon were growing dark, and the stars were losing their brightness. Joel 2:10 Before them the earth quakes, the heavens tremble, the sun and the moon grow dark and the stars lose their brightness. (NAU)

We will show later when we get to the trumpets, that God was already using his great army, at least in small beginnings back in the time of the Reformation. The army which was like a consuming fire from that early time onward, continues to march against society even today, and it will do so until it will have accomplished all of God's purposes. The marching of the Lord's great army at the time that God took control of it, as described in Joel, while normally thought to be just on this end of the age, began at least as early as the Reformation time, if not in the fifth church. The controversies and trouble that came upon the church and state system at that time, exposed their false ideas to the light. Hence the sun, moon, and the stars, are seen to be dark or in other words it was recognized at that time that there was no true light in the apostate church. See the comments on the trumpets, especially the fifth, sixth, and seventh trumpets, for more information on how Chapter 2 of Joel parallels the three woe trumpets and the history of the Gospel Age.

Revelation 6:14

Revelation 6:14 The sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. (NAU)

Rolling up of the Heavens

The scripture in Revelation about the scroll is a parallel scripture to Isa 34:4. Isa 34:4 And all the host of heaven will wear away, and the sky will be rolled up like a scroll; all their hosts will also wither away as a leaf withers from the vine, or as {one} withers from the fig tree. (NAU)

The interpretation on this set of verses has changed, and is different than when the Study Group had initially looked at it. The different conclusion that we are looking at here, is because of a separate study of Revelation that pointed out some problems with the original conclusion. The thought that this is not showing a coming together of church and state is still the same conclusion, but how the scroll is removed and what the removal of the scroll indicates is slightly different.

That the heavens were split apart or rolled up as a scroll, is traditionally thought to picture church and state coming back together. One major problem the Study Group saw with that interpretation, is that this is something that had to happen in the time frame from 1514-1874AD, since we are discussing events in the sixth seal. For that reason, we need to explain this symbol in that time frame and context. The event or events that we are looking for, should have occurred close to the beginning of the sixth church, or at least sometime during that church period.

When we are looking at the time-frame of the 360-year period of the sixth church prior to Pastor Russell, we don't find a coming together of churches or church and state, but rather we see a parting asunder and a forming of separate Papal and Protestant churches! We are into the seventh church by many years now, and we still have not seen a resumption of church and state yet, and so what the rolling up of the scroll in the sixth seal represents, must be something different. Some have pointed out that this verse seems to be more exactly pointing to the removal or rolling up of the corrupt Papal heavens, rather than a dividing of the heavens into two halves. We agree that the result of events that begin here will result in the eventual removal of the entire false religious heavens, that will be replaced with a New Heavens and Earth. In the Isaiah Chapter 34 account that parallels this, it is indicating and showing a complete removal of the corrupt heavens before the verses of the prophecy are completed in Isaiah.

Even if we look at this as being only the rolling up and removal of the scroll, we would still be looking at the same event which we had earlier, which was the split between the Catholics and the Protestants, which started the restoration of the true heavens, because the context of the message to the church, the seal, and the trumpet, all show events that started at the time of the Reformation. So, the explanation that we give for this prophecy must be about what was happening during that time frame. The breaking up and removal of the Papal heavens, which had controlled all the spiritual heavens up to that time, could have only have begun with events that were occurring on the Protestant side at that time. As the Isaiah Chapter 34 passages shows, this removal was not going to be accomplished immediately, but it would take some time.

The apostate heavens were divided by the Lord into two camps by the Reformation, so that through the weakening of the Papal church the faithful saints would be able to be separated to the Protestant side, where they had the personal use of the Bible again. On the Papal side the use of the Bible was still forbidden to the lay people, and so that side was not reformed, and that is why it must be removed. Because of that separation in the Reformation period, the Protestant system was the only place where the faithful saints were better able to grow in Christian knowledge and grace, and so most of the faithful church would have went to that part of the heavens if they were able to. Once that began occurring, the corrupt heavens were gradually being removed or rolled up, and the scriptures and the truth were being restored into the spiritual heavens on the Protestant side. The complete cleansing of the sanctuary was accomplished by the time of the end of the 2300 days of Daniel, which was 1846-1848AD. In our study of chronology, we saw that there is a possible 2-year overlap regarding the traditional end of the 2300. See the book “Biblical Count of the Years for the explanation regarding the 2-year overlap.

One other important thing that seems to enter into this seal, is that in Chapter 11 where we see the two prophets come back to life and the spirit of God entered into them, they were eventually taken up into heaven. That symbolically indicates the restoration of the Bible and truth into the true heavens that we also see shown here, but in a different symbol. The Bible being put back into the prominent position of being the only standard of truth, was what re-established the legitimate and true heavens again. That had started to occur at the time of the Reformation and onward—especially after the 1799AD time where Papacies power was broken down even more. The scriptures after the Reformation, and then even more so after 1799AD, became the standard of truth for the ecclesiastical heavens.

Flying Scroll in Zechariah

There were a couple of other scrolls found in the Old Testament that we considered in our study. Regarding the one found in Zechariah, we don't think that scroll is the same as this one. We will take a quick look at it before we consider the other one in Isaiah, which is directly related to the one in Revelation.

Zech 5:1-4) I Again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying scroll!

2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits."

3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off henceforth according to it, and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off henceforth according to it. 4 I will send it forth, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief, and the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it shall abide in his house and consume it, both timber and stones." (RSV)

The Zechariah scroll is seen flying through the air. That it is dimensioned in cubits we think is important. Each half of the scroll would have a total border of 40 cubits, which could represent 40 years. If we take the prophetic cubit of 25 pyramid inches per cubit, we also get  $25 \times 40 = 1000$  inches. The scroll, as a 40-year period is being fulfilled during the harvest time. That there are two 40-year periods represented in the scroll, is showing us the two 40 year periods that were 1845 years apart—the Jewish and the Nominal harvests. That gives us a big hint as to where this prophecy is fulfilled at. The symbol of the thief and the one who swears falsely, represents the Satanic church system which has tried to enter in by some other way than by Christ, and it is judged during the 40 years.

If we look at it as being  $25 \times 40 = 1000$  years, we see that on the other end of the scroll or at the end of the millennium, we see that everyone who still swears falsely will be cut off. That cutting off of those who swear falsely, will again be found in the testing of the little season when the hearts of men will be tested to see if they are loyal to the kingdom, or if they are only claiming that they are. That there are two 1000 year halves to the scroll is interesting, in that it may show that there is an overlap between the chronological seventh one-thousand years and the actual millennium. While there is no way to know that for sure, it may be that whatever amount of overlap there is on this end of the age, we may have the same amount of time at the end of the millennium, during which time the little season would play out.

Isaiah 34:4 & the Scroll

Since we had determined that the split between the Catholics and the Protestants was the start of the removal of the corrupt heavens, the question then was asked in our Study Group—what about Isaiah 34:4? Is that prophecy showing us the same thing as the one in Revelation? We concluded that it was showing us the same events of the breakup of the Papal heavens into two churches, with the removal of the Papal heavens and the restoration of the true heavens on the Protestant side, but that the Isaiah prophecy continued further forward in time with its prophecy. When we were studying the context of that area of Isaiah, we concluded that Chapter 35 should have been a part of Chapter 34, and that together those two Chapters show a step by step historical progression all the way to the kingdom. Isaiah Chapters 34 and 35 go forward verse by verse, until the Apostate church system is destroyed, while the Revelation Chapter 6 verses only show the beginning of the process of destruction.

It's also very interesting that Chapter 35 being a continuation of Chapter 34 shows the people coming up out of the wilderness of the dark ages and getting up onto the highway of holiness. The wilderness as seen in Revelation Chapter 12, symbolizes the 1260 years of persecution, and the Isaiah Chapter 35 reference is talking about that same wilderness. As Chapter 35 progresses further down the stream of time, we eventually saw in the vision, springs of water breaking out in the desert, bringing it back to life. Reading far enough into Chapter 35, we see the people getting up on the highway of holiness and being blessed, which shows us the beginning of the blessings of the kingdom.

Taking the verse by verse context of Chapters 34 and 35 together, provides a strong confirmation that we have arrived at the correct interpretation of the scroll in the sixth seal. The rolling up and removal of the scroll in Revelation, is only the beginning of the process of the removal of the evil church system. We are shown the destruction of that system later in Revelation Chapter 19. In Chapter 19, the prophecy is showing us the Satanic church system, and the remnants of the civil power in the process of being removed.

We have included a large portion of the text of Chapter of 34 below, because we see that besides the vision of the sky being rolled up like a scroll, we find that several other parts of that Chapter of Isaiah are also parallel to the book of Revelation. What we are going to see is that Isa Chapter 34, shows the destruction of the evil church and state system, just like Revelation does, but it goes further towards the kingdom. To help prove that connection, we are going to label some of the sections with headings.

Revelation Chapters 6, 19 - Wrath of Jehovah and the Lamb

Isa 34:1-10(1 Draw near, O nations, to hear; and listen, O peoples! Let the earth and all it contains hear, and the world and all that springs from it.

2 For the LORD'S indignation is against all the nations, and {His} wrath against all their armies; He has utterly destroyed them, He has given them over to slaughter.

3 So their slain will be thrown out, and their corpses will give off their stench, and the mountains will be drenched with their blood.

The Heavens Rolled Up Rev 6:14 - Old Corrupt Heavens Gone Rev 21:1

4 And all the host of heaven will wear away, and the sky will be rolled up like a scroll; all their hosts will also wither away as a leaf withers from the vine, or as {one} withers from the fig tree.

The Sword Rev 19:15, 21

5 For My sword is satiated in heaven, behold it shall descend for judgment upon Edom, and upon the people whom I have devoted to destruction.

The Wine Press Rev 14:19, 19:15- Isa 63 Bozrah

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is sated with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

7 Wild oxen shall also fall with them, and young bulls with strong ones; thus their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust become greasy with fat.

Day of the Lord Rev 6:16-17, 16:14

8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.

The smoke of her burning Rev 18:8-9, 18

9 And its streams shall be turned into pitch, and its loose earth into brimstone, and its land shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night or day; its smoke shall go up forever; from generation to generation it shall be desolate; none shall pass through it forever and ever.

In Isaiah Chapter 34, the verses show the process of the destruction of the heavens beginning in verse 4, and it tells us that it will be a complete destruction of the entire corrupt host of heaven. In verse 5, we find the judgment of Edom or Christendom, which occurred in 1878AD. The start of the final destruction of the apostate heavens, began at the time of the Reformation, and it continues onward until they are gone. From verse 6 onward, we find several events of the day of vengeance, and the complete destruction of the church and state system, as well as Satan's worldwide system.

The winepress feature seems to have a twofold application with the king's destruction happening first in WW1, and then the destruction of the rest of Satan's system, which will be completely removed after the church is complete. We will see the beginning of the winepress destruction in Chapter 14, and then we see the final destruction of the winepress completed in Chapter 19. The process of the destruction of the winepress started in 1914AD, and continues onward until the Lord has made Satan's system just a bad memory. The sword of truth that is mentioned in Isaiah Chapter 34, is the same one that we see the Lord with when he comes to finish off the evil system in Rev Chapter 19.

The table on the next page should help us to see the relationship between the different accounts. Many of the events in the table start before the traditional view would have placed them. We have included more than what we have just discussed in this Chapter, so that it can be more clearly seen that there is a parallel between that part of Isaiah and Revelation.

Joel will be discussed in great detail when we get to the fifth, sixth, and seventh trumpets. We will see that the Lord's great army parallels the time of the fifth, sixth and seventh trumpets exactly and that the army began to start marching about the time of Wycliffe, and then continued onward during the Reformation and afterward. This doesn't mean that those events are all done, but only that was where they started.

--	--	--	---

Coming back to Revelation and the sixth seal, we see that the mountains and Islands are moved out of their places in verse 14. Mountains are representative of big kingdoms, and islands are representative of smaller governments. The kingdoms and governments during the Reformation period, were historically changed and moved out of their places, especially at the time of the French Revolution and with the removal of the kings from Papacies control after 1799AD. The civil governments had existed in union with Papacy prior to the time of the French Revolution for most of the 1000 years, but after that time most of the kings separated themselves from Papacy, especially when they saw that Papacy was not able to do anything when Napoleon arrested the Pope and put him in prison. Many of the other monarchies, were also in political turmoil at that time, because people wanted freedom from the oppression they had been under during the dark ages. The governments had not done much for the common people during that time, and they were literally starving to death, while the rich and upper class were living in luxury. That was why this system was overthrown in the revolution in France. Many other nations were also on the brink and had some trouble at the time, but they patched things up, only to postpone their day of reckoning until 1914AD.

Kings Destroyed Later

The turmoil that started in those governments, was only the beginning of their problems, although they were not destroyed at the earlier time. Their complete destruction occurs later in Revelation Chapter 16, where we find the seventh bowl of wrath telling us that the mountains were totally gone. Since the 1914AD war, most of the kings that had been in power with Papacy during the 1260 years, have been disposed of and replaced by different forms of government! The remaining governments in turn, are being broken up into even smaller pieces, so that by the time of the full establishment of the kingdom, they will either be removed or if willing they be absorbed into the new heavens and earth.

Dan 2:35 "Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were crushed all at the same time and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them was found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

The complete removal and absorption of those kingdoms is what the seventh bowl of wrath is showing, which is the same thing as the wind blowing away the pieces of the Image in Daniel. Anything that is left of the nation's when the time of trouble is almost over, must align with the New Kingdom or be removed. If they don't accept the kingdom, the final whirlwind of trouble that comes just before the kingdom will sweep them away. See also 1 Thes 5:3 and Jer 50:28-29.

Zech 14:16-17(16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain. (KJV)

Revelation 6:15-17

Revelation 6:15 Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the commanders and the rich and the strong and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains;

Revelation 6:16 and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb;

Revelation 6:17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?" (NAU)

Malachi, Joel, and Nahum, posed the same question regarding the Day of the Lord, "who is able to stand". In the book of Nahum, we find the same kind of destructive things happening that we see in the sixth seal. That tells us that we should be looking at those prophecies for more details regarding this seal.

In Joel 2:10-14, which we believe to correspond to the sixth seal and trumpet, we see many of the same symbols that we are discussing in this Chapter. Contrary to the traditional belief, we believe that the Lord's Great army started at the beginning of the sixth church when Jehovah uttered his voice before it. That army of discontent existed before that time, but the Lord did not take control of it until then. That our Lord took control of the army does not mean that the army is reformed, it only means that the Lord is going to use it to begin to destroy the evil system.

After those verses in Joel, we then see another trumpet, the seventh, which calls the people together and which would correspond to the harvest time. After that, we see the Great army removed, and the Lord's spirit poured out on all people. In Joel 2:11, we see the same statement that we find at the end of the sixth seal.

*Joel 2:10-14 (10 Before them the earth quakes, The heavens tremble, The sun and the moon grow dark And the stars lose their brightness. 11 The Lord utters His voice before His army; Surely His camp is very great, For strong is he who carries out His word. The day of the Lord is indeed great and very awesome, And who can endure it?

12 "Yet even now," declares the Lord, "Return to Me with all your heart, And with fasting, weeping and mourning; 13 And rend your heart and not your garments." Now return to the Lord your God, For He is gracious and compassionate, Slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness And relenting of evil. 14 Who knows whether He will not turn and relent And leave a blessing behind Him, Even a grain offering and a drink offering For the Lord your God? NASU

Like Joel, we again see a lot of the same symbols that we find in this seal in the book of Nahum, which again shows us that those events were symbolically fulfilled during the Reformation and the French Revolution. The prophecy appears to also reach into the time of the seventh church and the final removal of the symbols, where we see the rocks and the hills dissolving.

Nah 1:5-8(5 Mountains quake because of Him And the hills dissolve; Indeed the earth is upheaved by His presence, The world and all the inhabitants in it. 6 Who can stand before His indignation? Who can endure the burning of His anger? His wrath is poured out like fire And the rocks are broken up by Him. 7 The Lord is good, A stronghold in the day of trouble, And He knows those who take refuge in Him. 8 But with an overflowing flood He will make a complete end of its site, And will pursue His enemies into darkness. NASU

2 Peter 3:7 But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. NASU

2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and its works will be burned up. NASU

In the Malachi prophecy, we have a prophecy that was fulfilled at the First Advent by our Lord and the terrible events of Israel's judgment and removal from the land. On this end of the age, we have a second application of that same prophecy because of the 1845-year judgment parallel. This time, we have the Lord coming in his second presence, and we have a judgment on the nominal system and a refining of the true church. The second application does not apply to the time of the sixth seal, because it happens during the time of the harvest. We have included it because of the statement made by the Lord, where he says in Malachi 3:2, "Who can stand"? That shows that the testing and punishing that began in the sixth seal, will continue into the seventh seal, where we will show that the opening of that seal represents the 1878AD judgment.

Mal 3:1-4 (3 "Behold, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; and the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming," says the Lord of hosts. 2 "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap. 3 "He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the Lord offerings in righteousness. 4 "Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years. NASU

The answer to the question 'who can stand', is given in the next Chapter, where we will see the 144,000 who were sealed. Those who were not able to stand are shown as the Great Company in that same Chapter. See also Revelation 14:1, 15:2, and 20:4.

Hiding in the Rocks

In Isaiah Chapter 2, we find a parallel scriptural description of the kings and mighty men that flee to the caves to hide from God's wrath. Again, we see that what we are given in the Revelation account, is also found in the Old Testament where it supplies additional information.

Isa 2:17-21) 17 The pride of man will be humbled and the loftiness of men will be abased; and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day, 18 But the idols will completely vanish. 19 {Men} will go into caves of the rocks and into holes of the ground before the terror of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty, when He arises to make the earth tremble. 20 In that day men will cast away to the moles and the bats their idols of silver and their idols of gold, which they made for themselves to worship, 21 In order to go into the caverns of the rocks and the clefts of the cliffs before the terror of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty, when He arises to make the earth tremble. (NAU)

There is a sevenfold description in Revelation 6:1, that symbolically applies to all men, "from the least to the greatest". What that sevenfold description is saying, is that the sixth seal affects all classes of men, no matter who they are. The different classes of men are: (1) The kings of the earth, (2) the great men, (3) the commanders, (4) the rich, (5) the strong, (6) every slave and (7) free man. Seven is a symbol of completeness, and so this list indicates that no aspect of society will escape or is escaping from the Lord's judgment. That it uses the categories of kings, great men, rich, and strong, slave, or free, shows that the things that were happening, were going to affect everyone regardless of their station in life, no matter how much wealth or power they had.

Historically that was true of this church period when we look at what happened during the French Revolution, where the trouble came especially upon the rich, and powerful, and the rulers. They were the ones that the poor people singled out to be killed, because it was thought by the people that they had caused the intolerable situation that they found themselves in. The rich on this end of the age, should pay attention to that history, because greed seems to be causing a lot of the financial trouble, and again we see that the people are not happy with the losses of wealth that has happened to them, while the rich have largely escaped.

There may be a final parallel application of this prophecy, which would come from the Old Testament. If that is true, we might see men literally hiding in bunkers trying to save themselves, when the final time of trouble hits—only time will tell. Some of the people and especially the rich are actually building places to hide in at this time, if the corrupt system fails and great trouble breaks out. So even the worldly people see that the time of trouble is coming. That trouble will be at the time of the final wind that would sweep away the remnants of Daniel's smitten Image, and Satan's evil system.

The kings, great men, and commanders, are mentioned again later in Revelation Chapter 19, where we see them in their final downfall, starting in 1914. The beginning of that downfall of the seven classes of men, starts in the sixth seal, but in Chapter 19 we see the beginning of their destruction. In that Chapter, there are seven symbols again if you select just the categories which have some changed symbols. Why there are changed symbols, we are not completely sure, but again we believe it represents the entire society of the end time. Society now is different than what existed at the time of the Reformation onward, and so that's why there is a difference in the symbols. Rev 19:18 so that you may eat (1) the flesh of kings and the (2) flesh of commanders and (3) the flesh of mighty men and (4) the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them and (5) the flesh of all men, both free men and slaves, and small and great." Rev 19:20 And (6) the beast was seized, and with him (7) the False Prophet who performed the signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his Image; these two were thrown alive into the lake of fire which burns with brimstone. NASU

In the later prophecy in Chapter 19, we see that those symbols are gradually destroyed or captured after 1914, so that they are gone for sure at the beginning of the kingdom. In the sixth seal, which we are discussing now, the troubles that fell on those classes of men were just beginning. This is a very fitting symbolic description of what was happening to the church and state system, and to those who had supported it at the time of the Reformation and onward. Judgment and punishment were coming, and many of those who were alive then recognized that judgment in the trouble that had come upon the society of the time.

What are the Rocks and Caves?

The kings, leaders, merchants, and all those who were associated with the church and state system, were cast into very uncertain times when they no longer had a rich and powerful system to protect them. They still wanted protection for themselves from the society or system, and thus we see them symbolically trying to hide in the rocks and caves of the mountains. The mountains symbolize kingdoms, and the rocks are different parts of the society, as seen in 2 Peter. God was starting to expose their errors, and they wanted to hide from him so that they would not be found guilty, or at least exposed to public view. The rocks and caves, were their political governments, churches, industries, social organizations, banks, and financial institutions or, in other words, any and all aspects and organizations of their system that they thought would protect them. Those are the elements of society, that in the time of the seventh day melt and are destroyed by intense heat, as described by Peter. 2 Pet 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and its works will be burned up. NAU)

When there is a severe storm, the natural inclination of any person would be to go into a cave or shelter to protect himself, and at that time in history the people wanted society to protect them from the trouble that had come upon it—which was the Reformation and the French Revolution and other upheavals in society. Those who were not guilty would not have been trying to hide, but only those who had done wrong in that system needed to fear the coming trouble. Their attempt to hide is like children who have done wrong, and who don't want to face their father because they fear the punishment that is due to them.

Judgment of the House of God

The great day of God's wrath began in 1799AD, and then intensified in 1874 – 1914AD when God through Christ began to judge the fallen church system for all that they had done wrong during the Gospel Age. All spirit-begotten individuals in the apostate church at that time had the obligation to hear the call "come out of her my people". If they didn't heed that call, they were judged unworthy and eventually lost their crown, which then were available to be picked up by others, until the full number of 144,000 is completed.

After the 1914AD war, the fallen church system was further degraded by the loss of the civil power of the kings, who had still partially supported her before that time. She now after that time sits as a widow in mourning, wishing for the return of her power and privileges. Her final destiny is to be a complete destruction as a viable system, so that all who are trapped in her false doctrines will be released, with the intention that they would be free so that they can accept the kingdom. Only after the church is complete and the judgment and the punishment on the apostate church system is finished, does God begin to work with the individuals in the world.

Those who aligned themselves with the Reformation made the right decision, but that was only the beginning of testing. After the separating of the daughters from the mother church, which was an hour of test on the sixth church, the final testing began at the harvest time of the seventh church, and includes the individuals of both Papacy and the daughter churches. The testing does not stop until all who are to be selected have been tried and proven worthy to be of the bride or rejected.

Zech 13:8-9 (8 In the whole land," declares the LORD , "two-thirds will be struck down and perish; yet one-third will be left in it. 9 This third I will bring into the fire; I will refine them like silver and test them like gold. They will call on my name and I will answer them; I will say, 'They are my people,' and they will say, 'The LORD IS our God.'" NIV

As history shows us, many of the Reformation churches did not remain faithful to the Reformation, because they did not completely give up all the errors of the mother church, or they later slid back into some of the same errors as the mother system. Because of the retained error, many didn't repent of the illegal church and state system, nor did they reform from the many blasphemous and false doctrines of the mother church. Because the Reformation didn't eliminate the sins of the harlot and the daughter systems, God has provided the final judgment of the harvest time. The harvest time was designed to separate out the true wheat from the tares.

The next Chapter is going to answer the question of verse 17: "Who is able to stand"?

Chapter 7 Revelation 7:1-3

Revelation 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.

Revelation 7:2 And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God; and he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

Revelation 7:3 saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads." (NAU)

Before we begin with this Chapter's discussion, we are going to list some concepts and definitions that we believe will help in understanding it. There are some things in this Chapter that are causing some questions, that at first glance don't appear to have good answers, but which are easy to answer if we look at them properly. The study that we do in this Chapter, is going to bring in many other areas of the Bible from the Old Testament, because some of them are important in helping us to see what is being shown to us here.

The First Three Verses of the Chapter Cover the Entire Gospel Age

One thing that is important about this Chapter, is that it is not a vision that covers only the end of the age. If we view this Chapter as showing the entire Gospel age, it makes it easier to understand it, since not only the church, but also the Great Company come out of the entire age. For that reason, we are suggesting that the first three verses of this vision, spans most of the Gospel Age from beginning to end. The "I saw" text in Revelation 7:1, backs us up all the way back to the beginning of the Gospel Age, and then the first three verses bring us all the way back again to the close of the age. We are not sure if it includes the harvest time and the time of trouble, because these three verses do not tell us that the 144,000 are complete yet.

That changes in verse 4, where we see the 144,000 and the description that starts there, goes to the end of the Chapter and it is giving us more detail about the entire Gospel Age, showing us those who were faithful during the Gospel age—which are the 144,000. Then we see those in verse 9 who were not faithful, and they are the Great Company. We believe that it's important that we see that verse 4 breaks the vision from the first three verses, by saying I "heard" the number sealed. We are not actually told that all the 144,000 were sealed until verse 4, which is a new part of the vision, and because of that, verse 4 onward is showing us the full end of the age.

The Four Angels & Elements of Society

One question that came up in the study, is that if the earth is round how can we have 4 corners of the earth, and what are those 4 corners? A Biblical critic would say that was because they didn't know that the earth was round in those days, but we know that God knew that, and so we know that the Four Corners must have an important symbolical sense to them. The ancient world at that time knew that there were four main directions of the compass, and for that reason this verse is saying that there are four angels, one at each compass direction. Some historians think that the Greeks even knew that the earth was round at the time that John was writing, and that the knowledge about the round earth was lost or suppressed during the time of the dark ages.

An important suggestion that was made in our study regarding the four corners of the earth, is that it seems likely that they would symbolize political, financial, ecclesiastical, and social forces or, in other words, the four elements of society that were supporting Satan's evil world order! Each angel is entrusted with the task of keeping each one of the compass points under control, so that the full wind doesn't blow and let loose total destruction upon the four elements of society, which could harm the faithful church as it was being sealed.

2 Peter 3:10

The four elements of society, are most likely the same elements of society that Peter is talking about in 2 Peter 3:10, where he tells us that nothing was to be destroyed until the day of the Lord. Then the elements of society would be destroyed, melting with fervent heat. Many misinterpret that prophecy thinking that the earth is going to burn up, because they think that the word elements found in that prophecy refers to elements of the periodic table. But if we look up the meaning of that word, we find that is not the meaning of the Greek word that is used there, but it means elements of society. 2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. (KJV)

We find the same word "elements" in Galatians 4:3, 9, where it is used to represent the elemental things of society. So, that we don't get the wrong idea that the earth is going to literally burn up, we see that Galatians use of that word shows that it means "elements of society", and not elements such as what would be found in the periodic table. The people of John's time, did not understand the full extent of the elements of the earth or periodic table in the same manner that we do. They only recognized a small number of elements.

*Gal 4:3 So also we, while we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental things of the world.

Gal 4:9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again? (NAU)

In 2 Peter 3, we see that (1) the heavens are the ecclesiastical churches, (2) the word elements refers to the elements of society, (3) the earth would represent civil power, and (4) the works therein could refer to things like financial or other economy related items. Those four elements together can be understood to make up society as we know it. Those same four elements of society have existed in all the universal Empires from the time of Daniel and onward.

In the study, we considered the possibility that the four angels that are seen in the sixth trumpet, and which are bound at the Euphrates, are the same angels or at least four angels with similar roles, but being seen at a different time in history. It was concluded that those angels may be the same as these angels, because of the similar role of keeping the society under control, so that the church could be developed and be sealed in a reasonably stable society.

Partial Release of Elements of Society

At the time of the Reformation, we see that they were to be released from being bound in the Euphrates, which then allowed the events of the Reformation and the French Revolution to occur. The difference with that partial release, is that it was to be the society of the church and state system that was going to be disturbed and not the entire world, and that overturning of the system was designed too free and help the church so that the Reformation could succeed.

That release of the four angels in the Euphrates, is symbolically showing us that the Protestants who were doing the reforming, and who were being separated from the corrupt Papal system. So, if those are the same angels in the sixth trumpet, as the angels in this Chapter, we are seeing them carrying out two different tasks at two different times. Here in this Chapter, they are keeping the world-wide society from collapsing into anarchy and harming the saints that were being sealed, and in Chapter 9 which starts just before the Reformation, they were still holding the Papal society together so that it wouldn't collapse into anarchy. When the four angels were commanded to be released, the trouble that came upon the evil system was helping to bring the faithful out of the fallen system into the Protestant system, so that they could grow and develop away from the oppressive Papal system, where they were being harmed.

We are using the word partially released, regarding what was happening during the Reformation, because we believe there are different steps of release, which keep occurring until we finally arrive at the full release at the end of the age. To help us to understand what is going on in the sixth trumpet, we see that there will be a further and final drying up of the Euphrates in the sixth bowl of wrath—which at that time will correspond to the final full release of the four worldwide angels in this Chapter. That will not occur until after the church is complete, or almost complete, and just as the church was freed from the fallen church system in the sixth seal, in the sixth bowl of wrath the people of the world are freed from the worldwide system of Satan.

Earth, Sea and Trees To Be Protected

Since the earth, the sea, and trees, are mentioned as being protected in this Chapter, we need to consider what the symbols “earth, sea, and trees” represent. We see that the symbol “tree”, is similarly mentioned in Revelation 9:4. In both places, we find a command that the trees were not to be harmed. The fifth trumpet also adds “green grass”, and “any green thing” to that restriction. Similarly, in Revelation 6:6, we find that “the oil” and “the wine” were not to be harmed.

We don't think that that means that nothing could happen to any of those symbols, but the intent of the command seems to be to not allow complete destructive harm to come to them. In the first and second trumpets, we see an interesting thing. When the trumpets were showing us what was being done wrong by the corrupted and fallen church, we find that the very elements that are hit in the first and second trumpets, the earth, the seas, and the trees, are the same ones that the four angels in Chapter 7, and the locusts in the fifth trumpet are commanded not to hurt.

Because of that, the Study Group concluded that the ones that did the damage to those symbols in the first two trumpets, were ones that were not obeying God's command to not hurt the Earth, Sea, and the Trees! That those symbols were hit at that time in opposition to God's command to not harm them, shows that Satan was involved in the attacks, and that he was trying to hurt the Faithful Church by doing them harm. We are likewise directly told that Satan was going to attack the earth and the sea, in Rev 12:12.

So, we can see that there would be attacks against the earth, the sea, and the trees, but neither God nor the 4 angels were the one causing the attacks. By keeping the four winds from blowing, the angels are keeping the earth, sea and trees from being destroyed at that earlier time. It's evident that the destruction of those elements of the worldwide society would harm the development of the church, and that is why Satan was trying to harm those symbols at several different times during the Gospel Age. For that reason, we need to look at what these symbols would represent.

The Symbol of the Tree

The symbol tree seems to involve several possibilities. Trees can be civil or ecclesiastical governments such as Israel, which is how the Lord used the symbol "fig tree". When Christ cursed the fig tree, and it withered away, it was symbolic of Israel as an ecclesiastical government that should have had fruit on it. Since it didn't have fruit, it's shown as withering and dying. That parable could also be looked at as being a symbolic picture of the nominal Christian house, which did not have any fruit upon it either.

Matt 24:32 "Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near; (NAU)

Mark 11:13-14) 13 Seeing at a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went {to see} if perhaps He would find anything on it; and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14 He said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" And His disciples were listening. (NAU)

Mark 11:20-21) 20 As they were passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots {up.} 21 Being reminded, Peter said to Him, "Rabbi, look, the fig tree which You cursed has withered." (NAU)

We also see the parable of "the mustard seed" in the Gospels, where the mustard seed grew into a great big tree. In that example, it represented the evil church-state system that grew up out of the fallen church.

Matt 13:31-32) 31 He presented another parable to them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field; 32 and this is smaller than all {other} seeds, but when it is full grown, it is larger than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that THE BIRDS OF THE AIR come and NEST IN ITS BRANCHES."(NAU)

In other words, a tree can also be an unfaithful religious system, such as Babylon the Great, or a nation like Israel.

Another possible interpretation of trees would be that they simply represent earthly governments or dominions. We see that use in some Old Testament scriptures, where it's used in that manner such as in Daniel, where we see the tree that was chopped down with the seven bands on it.

Dan 4:14-16) 14 "He shouted out and spoke as follows: "Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its foliage and scatter its fruit; let the beasts flee from under it and the birds from its branches.

15 "Yet leave the stump with its roots in the ground, but with a band of iron and bronze {around it} in the new grass of the field; and let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him share with the beasts in the grass of the earth. 16 "Let his mind be changed from {that of} a man and let a beast's mind be given to him, and let seven periods of time pass over him. (NAU)

That tree represented Nebuchadnezzar and the kingdom of Babylon in one sense, and in another sense or interpretation, it represented the entire world being bound in sin and death for 7000 years. The example of Nebuchadnezzar, is one place that we see that trees could also represent leaders, either religious or civil leaders. We also see that it pictured the  $7 \times 360 = 2520$ , which marked off the time of the gentiles and the time of the punishment of Israel.

Another use of this symbol, is that it could represent the household of faith or the church. This could also represent anyone who was upright in the faith of God, as we see in Psalms.

Ps 1:1-3) 1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. 2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. 3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. (KJV)

We notice that it says that the trees "plural", were not to be hurt until the saints were sealed in their foreheads. That seems to imply that more than one kind of tree was represented in that command, and if that is correct, we can see that all the different interpretations regarding trees that we have just considered could be intended, representing several different aspects of society that were to be protected from total destruction.

In looking at all the above examples regarding trees, we concluded that the Lord was more concerned about protecting the faithful religious trees. The main purpose of the Gospel age, was to complete the 144,000, and so that would be why he wanted to protect the ecclesiastical trees. If he was protecting any other kind of tree like a civil power tree, it would have been for the same reason. Any trees that were protected would have been related to his main purpose, which is to complete the 144,000. Completing the 144,000 is a necessary part of the Divine Plan, because once that is accomplished, that is when the Millennial age can then begin.

Sealing in the Forehead

The sealing in the foreheads, we believe is more than just knowledge of God's Plan, but the seal of the Holy spirit marks those sealed as belonging to God. Those who have the seal, display to others that they have that seal by working for the Heavenly Fathers Divine Plan. We don't think that those who are being sealed by the Holy spirit have made their calling and election sure when they first receive the Holy spirit, but the beginning of that process signifies that they have been consecrated to God, and that their consecration has been accepted! If they remain faithful they will in due time win their crown, but if they are not faithful they will be replaced so that there will be an actual 144,000 reigning with the Lord when the selection process is complete. That is why it says that there were 144,000 sealed, no more and no less. The ones that do not win their crowns because they failed to live up to their consecrations, are seen later in this Chapter and they are called the Great Company.

We find the process of sealing mentioned elsewhere in the scriptures, and we should let the scriptures define for us what the sealing is. One reason that the sealing is not knowledge alone, is because you could have all knowledge of all things, but if your character wasn't right and you aren't using your knowledge right, you could still lose your crown.

1 Cor 13:1-3) 1 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have {the gift of} prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 And if I give all my possessions to feed {the poor} and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing. (NAU)

In 2 Cor 1:21-22 we find: 21 Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us, 22 set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

We also have: Eph 1:13 And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy spirit, (NIV)

Eph 4:30 And do not grieve the Holy spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Protected By The Blood of the Lamb

If we look at the picture of Israel coming up out of Egypt, we see that the protection that the Israelites had from the angel of death, was the blood of the Passover Lamb. That picture implies that the beginning of the sealing process would be the belief in the blood of Christ and the ransom. A major part of the harvest work on this end of the age, was the bringing forth and renewing of the doctrine of the ransom, and understanding what the blood of Christ had accomplished for us. The belief in the blood of Christ had been largely lost during the dark time of the 1260 years, because of the doctrine of the mass, and because of that only a few individuals scattered through the Gospel Age recognized its full importance.

The Writers Inkhorn & the Sealing

We believe that in Ezekiel, when we see the one with the writer's inkhorn sealing the faithful in their foreheads, that is a picture of the saints being sealed with God's spirit by Christ. That sealing of 144,000 takes the entire Gospel age, and when it is done, all those who were not sealed are in symbol slain by the six men. Why the six men? Six is an earthly number, and it is also Satan's number. So, in symbol that implies that those who were being slain, were slain by worldly ideas and doctrines, and by their following Satan system—which caused them to get the mark of 666 in the forehead.

God's Seal Marks Us As His

The sealing or mark, sets us apart for God's service, and shows that we are his property only. That mark could also be looked on as the mark of son ship, in which God counts us as his sons, and in which we are separated out for his work here on the earth. Depending on where in time you were at in the Gospel Age, the truth that would be required to seal you would be different in each situation, but it seems likely that a basic understanding of what Christ accomplished through his death on the cross, would have to be a main part of it. The sealing is also a lifelong process of character building and testing, to see if we measure up to what the Father needs to develop in us. The process of sealing is not done until we hear the "well done" at the end of our life.

Unfortunately, some others are sealed with Satan's mark, the 666 of Chapter 13. The symbols there show us that they are supporting Satan's system of things with their minds and the work of their hands. The sealing of the Lord does the opposite, in that it shows that the one sealed supports the Heavenly Father and his son Jesus, and they are working to help complete the Divine Plan of the Ages.

The Great Company Coming Out of Tribulation

One of the biggest questions regarding the great Company that we looked at in this Chapter, is that many think that there are still huge numbers of spirit-begotten in the nominal church systems that need to come out yet. Some think that they know for sure that the large numbers are still in the churches, but there are some problems with that thought as we will see. The reason that many think that they still must come out, is that it's thought that the Great Company must go through a great tribulation that is coming yet, and come to realize that they have failed. It's also thought that they must have their spotted robes cleansed by the tribulation and the trouble that they must go through. Because the number is "great", and because they don't appear to have come out yet, it's believed that they must be out there yet someplace in the nominal system.

When Does The Great Tribulation Occur?

In studying this Chapter, we looked at an alternate possibility, in that it appears very likely that most of the large numbers of Great Company that are seen in this Chapter, would have come out of the great tribulation that came upon the faithful church during the "entire" Gospel Age, and not just out of the tribulation that comes on the evil church and state system at the end of the age. We need to take into consideration that Pastor Russell mentions both types of tribulation in the fourth volume. There is the tribulation that comes against the apostate church and state system at the end of the age, and there is the other major tribulation that the evil system brought against the faithful church all during the Gospel Age.

If we understand that the Great Company comes out of the tribulation of the entire age, and not just the one at the end, then there doesn't have to be a large number of Great Company still left in the nominal churches at this time! So, what we are saying is that the large numbers that John saw in the vision, most likely came out of the tribulation of the entire age, and that any that are still out there would not have to be that large of a number. If you examine Ezekiel Chapter 44, regarding the faithful Levites versus the unfaithful Levites, and look at the description of what they did wrong, you will find that all the things they did wrong symbolically, represent the error and sins of the nominal church during their entire evil reign. We will examine that prophecy in detail when we come to that part of the Chapter.

Daniel & Other Scriptures Warned About the Tribulation

A lot of the Old Testament scriptures like Daniel and even the book of Revelation, warned the church that there would be a terrible persecution that was going to come from a terrible symbolic beast. If we look at what Daniel told us about that system, he said regarding the question of how long this severe evil would last, that it would be for 3.5 times, which is the 1260 years of the power of that system that we are familiar with from our Second Volume studies. He said that the power of the holy people, who are the faithful church, would be shattered during that entire time. That we believe is the tribulation that this Chapter is telling us about, and that the Great Crowd or Great Company came up out of it. He further confirms that same time-period in Chapter 12 of Daniel, and he gives even more information about events after that period of tribulation shown there, by stating that from the time that the regular burnt offering was taken away and the Abomination of Desolation was set up, that there would be another step of relief at 1290 years, and a great blessing would come at 1335 years—which was 1874AD.

The 539 date that the Abomination started at, was when the evil Papal system had received help and power from the army of Rome, so that they could destroy the last of the Arian supporters who were fighting against the Trinity at Ravenna. That is not saying that they didn't do evil and corrupt things before that, but that was when the church began to use the civil power to stop any of the faithful from speaking out against them, and their corrupt doctrines.

*Dan 12:6-13 (6 One of them asked the man dressed in linen who was above the water of the river, "How long will these wonders last?" 7 The man dressed in linen who was above the water of the river raised his right and left hands toward heaven and swore by him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times and a half, and that it will be when the power of the holy people is no longer being shattered that all these things will end.

8 I heard this, but I couldn't understand what it meant; so I asked, "Lord, what will be the outcome of all this?" 9 But he said, "Go your way, Dani'el; for these words are to remain secret and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many will purify, cleanse and refine themselves; but the wicked will keep on acting wickedly, and none of the wicked will understand. But those with discernment will understand. 11 From the time the regular burnt offering is taken away and the Abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. 12 How blessed will be anyone who waits and arrives at the 1,335 days. 13 But you, go your way until the end comes. Then you will rest and rise for your reward, at the end of days." CJB

When we later in Revelation, look at the history of the church, we will find that many of the Great Company became Great Company, because of the great falling away of the Gospel Age church. There is no doubt that there are still Great Company left now, at the end of the Gospel Age, but we don't think that the numbers need to be anywhere near as large as is generally thought, nor do they all have to all be in the midst of the worldly churches now. We don't like to think about it, but some of them could even be in the midst of what's left of the harvest time church, because we are still being tested to see if we are worthy of being part of the 144,000 that are said to be sealed in this Chapter!

A Historical Parallel

We are going to present a historical parallel between the time of Babylon, the time of Christ and the events on this end of the age, like what we find in the Studies in the Scriptures, but which is much more elaborate and is showing us parallels between all three ages. We believe that the parallels will show us some important things that we need to keep in mind when we are looking at the Great Company and the 144,000 in this Chapter. The triple parallel that we will show next, shows us that events were set to come to a head with the church and state system during the war of 1914-18AD, and that just as in the two earlier ages of judgment, the evil system was due to be spewed out because the Lord was not going to deal with them anymore.

We believe that it's crucial that we look at the harvest period of 40 years on this end of the age, and compare it to the two previous 40-year judgment times, and we will find that there was a punishment and casting off in the time of Babylon at the end of 40 years, and another parallel punishment and casting off at the end of the 40 years at the time of the First Advent. What historically happened at the First Advent with the cutting off favor to the Jewish system in 36AD, and the destruction of the temple, the city of Jerusalem and the entire nation in 70AD, will be seen to be parallel to what has happened to the Apostate system on this end of the age, where the fallen church system was also cast off or spewed out after 1914-18AD. We will need to consider what the end of that 40-year parallel in 1914-18AD means to the faithful church that still exists yet now, and we will need to look to see if this new triple parallel, as well as the double one in the Second Volume, has any bearing on the questions regarding the 144,000 of the faithful church, and the Great Company that we see in this Chapter.

In the triple parallel we will see that Our Lord was not working exclusively with the Jewish house anymore after 36AD, because they had rejected the Messiah in 33AD, but at the same time we see that individual Jews could still come into the church. The same thing is true on this end of the age in that our Lord was not giving exclusive favor or rights to the fallen Babylonian church anymore after 1881AD, but individuals from that system could still come into the church, if they heeded the harvest call of the Lord.

The historical dates progress forward in time as you go down one row at a time.

The left column is events in the time of Babylon's conquest of Palestine and Israel.

The center column is during the time of Rome's conquest and destruction of Israel.

The third column goes from 1799 and separation of the kings from Papacy, until the entire system is permanently destroyed by WW1.

2520 Years Between Judgments

2520 YEARS OF GENTILE POWER OVER PALESTINE

Note- All dates at the time of Assyria and Babylon, are shifted 20 years in order to correct both Biblical as well as historical problems. See "Biblical Count of the Years-B2", for the two counterbalancing changes that make the AD dates remain the same as the Second Volume, but which fixes the biblical problems.

We notice that at the top of the table, we find that the events from the time of the First Advent to the Second Advent, are separated by 1845 years. At the bottom of the table, we see that the events from the time of Babylon, to the time of the Second Advent, are separated by 2520 years. Both of those numbers are important chronology cycles, and they show that the events that are separated by those time-periods are very important. We are not sure, but the 1845 years seems to deal more with the religious system parallels, and the 2520 years may deal more with civil power parallels of the religious systems.

As is shown in the table above, and with the second 390 and 40-year parallel table that is shown in the comments on Chapter 10, the testing of the harvest time on this end of the age was going to separate out to the Lord, those who were watching and longing for the kingdom. Those who refused to heed the message were going to receive of her plagues, and they would lose their crowns. The question, "who can stand", was asked in Revelation 6:17, and we are now being shown in this Chapter, who is able to stand, and those who did not! In the seventh seal, which opens the next Chapter, we will see the start of the judgment that separated the wheat from the tares, and how it was determined who is able to stand.

We will be told in this Chapter, that only because of the blood of the Lamb will the Great Company be able to be saved. The idea that the tribulation is what saves them, is not found in this Chapter at all. We must look at 1 Cor Chapter 5, to get the correct concept of what happens to them shown to us. We believe that those who became Great Company, will have been subjected to trials and tribulation with the intent to wake them up, and cause them to retain their crown, but that was not what saved them. It tells us here that they were only saved because of the blood of the Lamb.

At this point, we are going to go into a more detailed verse by verse look at this Chapter. Because of the importance of the questions surrounding this Chapter, we may repeat some of the things that we just discussed above.

I Saw Starts New Vision

Before we can see more fully what this Chapter is showing us, we need to determine where it's fulfilled historically. If we were to read this as a historical continuation of the sixth seal, we would be forced to conclude that all the events in it, including the sealing of the entire 144,000, occurred on the seventh day or the great day of our Lord God. Since we know that the sealing of the 144,000 has occurred throughout the entire age and not just at the end, we will need to explain why this Chapter is not a continuation of the sixth seal.

The solution to that question is quite simple. If we examine the first verse of Chapter 7, we see that it uses the phrase "I saw". As we have seen in previous examples where the phrase "I saw" is used, "I saw" always indicates a break in the previous vision, and the beginning of a new one. In most places, the new vision doesn't follow chronologically after the previous one, and instead "I saw" usually backs up in time. We are usually given a new vision, with it sometimes being more information about the previous topic, but from a different viewpoint, or it can even be information about a totally new topic.

The opening of the seventh seal doesn't occur until Revelation 8:1, and so we can see that Chapter 7 is a parenthetical insertion between the sixth and the seventh seals, and it's giving us the answer to the question of who is able to stand that was asked in the last verse of the previous Chapter. Then the vision changes to a new topic, and it will show us the judgment in Chapter 8 of the seventh church period. There we will see that Great Babylon was standing before the judgment seat of God, and we will find out that they were not doing our Lords will.

The Blowing of the 4 Winds

In this section, we will seem to at first to cover more topics than is needed for this Chapter, but a lot of what we are going to present in the next few pages, is very important regarding what has been happening in Great Babylon and the church after 1914AD. That context will help us to understand what this Chapter is telling us, and it will give us some ideas regarding what has been happening in the world since 1914, and how it affects the church and the establishment of the kingdom.

In this vision, we see the selection or sealing of the church, which we know has been occurring throughout the entire age, and not just at the end. We will also see the Great Company, who lost out and fell into that failed class—they fell during the entire age and not just at the end. We are told in this Chapter that only after the sealing of all the saints in their foreheads is completed, could the evil system begin to be fully destroyed without harming the saints. In other words, after the saints in the system are sealed in their foreheads, the winds are then allowed to fully blow destructively and begin to cause permanent damage to that entire system.

We are going to consider the possibility that some wind or destruction could blow or occur before all the saints were sealed. That explanation is necessary, because it's obvious that some wind did blow on that evil system in 1517, 1790, 1799, and 1914AD, and so on, but we don't think that any of those were the full four winds of destruction that will occur at the end.

One important point that we need to make, is that the winds that did blow in 1914AD, are not the full force of the winds that the four angels in this Chapter are still holding back, because when those four winds fully blow, it will take all of Satan's system down and not just selected parts like the war in 1914AD did. As we explained earlier, the four angels of the Euphrates could be partially released at the time of the Reformation and the French Revolution, but that did not represent the full release of the winds that we see in this Chapter, with the exception that they were related to each other as we explained earlier. The final four winds will be the whirlwind that blows the broken pieces of the Image away, as shown in Daniel 2:35, and that is why the church will most likely be completed before that happens, but then again that trouble might be what takes the church—only the Lord knows what will finish the church. After the pieces are blown away, the stone that was cut out without hands grows and becomes a great mountain—which symbolizes the Millennial kingdom of God.

End of Time of Gentiles

In support of the idea that there was to be a major breakup of the Empires at the end of the 40-year harvest, we also need to remember that the main application of the  $7 \times 360 = 2520$  years ran out in 1914AD. That meant that the time that the gentiles would be allowed to rule over the land of Israel had expired, and that one of the major things that the Lord was going to do was to step into the world's affairs, and change things so that the nation of Israel could begin to return to their land. Historically we not only saw the Belfour declaration come out of WW1, but we saw the Ottoman Empire fall and Britain take control of Palestine in 1918AD. Those events paved the way for the restoration of Israel 30 years later in 1948AD. Israel who had been scattered throughout the nations for almost 2000 years before that time, returned as a nation in 1948.

The final blowing of the winds and overturning of the evil system, will be when our Lord takes full control of the governments of the world, and that will be a worldwide and momentous event. The Empires that went down in the 1914 war, were the kings and Empires that had supported the church and state systems that had ruled as tyrants over most of the Gospel Age, but they were not the final downfall of Satan's system as had been hoped for prior to that war. The 1914 destruction fell upon both the Empires and kings of the Western Roman system, which was one leg of Daniel's Image, and the Empires and Kings of the Eastern Roman Empire which was the other leg of Daniel's Image.

In the harvest parallel found in the second volume, Studies in the Scriptures, pages 246-247, we see that the original thought was that the harvest would be over, and that the church and state and Satan's evil system would be completely destroyed by 1914-18AD. The Studies in the Scriptures chronology parallel from the Second Volume, is confirmed and is magnified into the triple parallel that we inserted earlier in this Chapter, so we know that the dates in the Second Volume chronology are correct. In the notes on Chapter 10, we have inserted a different parallel that is based on the 390 and 40 years of Ezekiel Chapter 4. That is another parallel between the ends of the three different ages, and is another important confirmation which shows us that the harvest parallel found in the Second Volume is correct. Both of those triple parallels, show the judgment and the casting off the system at the end of the 40-year harvest period.

Author's 1916 Forward To the Second Volume

In the author's 1916 forward in the second volume, he tells us that his original expectation had been just that, that the corrupt systems should have been destroyed at that time. But even though it didn't happen that way, he tells us that the war that began there was a sign that the Lord was taking a much more active hand in the affairs of the world. His expectation was that this was the beginning of the trouble, but as to how long it would take he was not sure. He felt it would only be a few years, but we know from where we are at in the stream of history, that it was going to be much longer. The trouble has continued and is like a woman in travail, step by step taking us to the kingdom. In the book "The Biblical Count of the Years", we show that there is an overlap of time built into the chronology that was not known at the earlier time of the harvest. That time is designed to finish the church, and to restore Israel and Jerusalem, and to put an end to all enemies of the kingdom—which is the last thing that will be accomplished.

On page 4 of the forward, Pastor makes an interesting statement, where he says: "All over the world people knew of the expectations of Bible Students in respect to the year A.D. 1914; and when such a stupendous war as the present one broke loose, when the winds of strife began to blow with such fury and destruction, thousands remembered what they had heard and read respecting the end of the Gentile Times." So, we see in that forward, that he says that what was going on was the winds of strife, and that they were already blowing.

Regarding the question of whether the church was complete he says:

"The author acknowledges that in this book he presents the thought that the Lord's saints might expect to be with Him in glory at the ending of the Gentile Times. This was a natural mistake to fall into, but the Lord overruled it for the blessing of His people. The thought that the Church would all be gathered to glory before October, 1914, certainly did have a very stimulating and sanctifying effect upon thousands, all of whom accordingly can praise the Lord--even for the mistake. Many, indeed, can express themselves as being thankful to the Lord that the culmination of the Church's hopes was not reached at the time we expected; and that we, as the Lord's people, have further opportunities of perfecting holiness and of being participators with our Master in the further presentation of His Message to His people. Our mistake was evidently not in respect to the ending of the Times of the Gentiles; we drew a false conclusion, however, not authorized by the Word of the Lord. We saw in the Bible certain parallels between the Jewish Age and the Gospel Age. We should have noted that these parallels follow the nominal systems to destruction in both cases, and do not indicate the time of the glorification of the New Creation.”

The emphasis above is ours to highlight some of the key parts of what he said. As we can see above, Pastor Russell says that the winds of strife were blowing upon that the system in the war that began in 1914AD. Regarding the question of whether the church was complete at that time, he says that it was not, and that the mistake was in the interpretation of what the 1845 parallel was showing us. He tells us that the parallel was following the nominal system to destruction, but that it didn't show the glorification of the church as he had earlier thought.

Pastor Says That Some Winds We're Blowing, In 1914

What's also was interesting in the quote from the second volume forward, is that we see that Pastor said that some winds were blowing in 1914AD, even though he also said that the church was not complete. If that's correct, then we need to understand how the winds could at least partially blow, and not be in violation of the angel's command to not let the winds blow upon earth, the sea, and the trees, until the saints had been sealed in the forehead. There are some possibilities as to how that could be, which we are going to consider as we look at this in more detail.

The big question regarding the sealing of the 144,000 is: did all 144,000 need to be sealed before the winds could blow on the system, and begin causing it damage? Many Bible Students think that it's correct that any winds can't blow at all until the church is complete, and because of that they don't think that the winds have blown on that system at all. But as we saw above, Pastor Russell didn't seem to have that opinion in the second volume forward, where he said that the church was still here, and that the winds of strife were already blowing. After all, the 2520 years was up, and the question we should be looking at is how could you destroy the kings at that point in time, if the winds couldn't blow? It should be obvious that some destructive winds did blow, which destroyed several major Empires and which removed all the ten kings seen in Revelation Chapter 17 from their thrones.

Countries of 10 Kings Changed their Political Systems After 1914

One suggestion of how that could be, is that the countries of Europe where the war did take place, changed their forms of government after the war, but they stabilized and still existed as countries after the war, and so any saints would have been able to survive if the Lord wished. As we saw regarding the release of the four angels out of the Euphrates, that caused the trouble of the Reformation and the French Revolution, and even other troubles, but it did not affect the sealing of the church at all; it actually helped the sealing process because of the escape from Papacy that was opened. That is also why the trouble could come in 1914, and that did not bother the sealing of the church in the forehead either. The harvest work continued after 1914 with no problem, at least for a time. We note that in all the examples we have given, that in none of those situations was the governments destroyed to the point where they fell into permanent anarchy, like what we will most likely see happen on this end of the age—we see that happening in some places at this time.

When the final winds blow, it is generally thought that things will get so bad, that anarchy will overthrow anything that is left. When the four winds are fully released at the very end, that is what will finish Satan's worldwide system completely, and the saints will need to be gone by that time, because anarchy will make life very difficult and perhaps very short lived. That would be especially true if some authorities want to try to keep order by removing all dissidents, especially if the church is supporting Israel at the time of the final battle.

Will the final Trouble Take the Church?

A simple answer about that final end time, is that the 144,000 will have been sealed by the time of the final worldwide trouble, and nothing will then stand in the way of removing the elements of that system that are resisting the kingdom. Pastor had mentioned a second possibility, in that he said that one of the possibilities was that the saints could enter the beginning of that final time of trouble, and that would be what would take them from the earth. At that time, he had said that was not that likely and that he thought the saints would be gone by that time, but considering the reexamination of the parallels after 1914, that thought may need to be reconsidered. Since 1914 was not the final end, we should be watching to see if the final trouble is what will finish the church, and that will be when the broken-up pieces of the Image are finally blown away.

Four Winds of Daniel

The four winds that are being held back in this Chapter, are most likely the same type of winds that had blown upon the sea in Daniel, and which had brought the four different beasts or Empires up out of that sea. We know that the next time that the full four winds blow, and there is a change of Empire, it will be the full kingdom of Christ that will come up and be established after the trouble. The winds that blew in 1914 took down the kings, but most of the governments still existed in other forms, and the kingdom which is going to be the fifth universal Empire was not established at that time. We are still waiting for the final blowing of the four winds to accomplish that.

So, when the angel of the sun rising is commanding the four other angels to not to let the four winds blow on the sea, earth, and trees, before they have sealed the servants of God in their foreheads, he is simply telling them that they are not to let the four winds completely remove Satan's worldwide system before all the 144,000 are intellectually sealed. If all the worldly governments go down, then the church needs to be ready to take control of the remnants, and establish the Millennial kingdom. If that is correct, then it does not matter if there are winds like we saw in 1914 that caused destruction on the kings and on parts of Satan's Empire, since the entire system was not overturned completely at that time, but only parts of it and the full overturning will not occur until the very end, as we will see in the last three bowls of wrath.

Seeing Eye & Hearing Ears

Another thing to consider, is that all who were in the process of being sealed during the 40-year harvest, should have had a seeing eye and a hearing ear, and they should have all responded to the call of the Lord during that time. The Lord symbolically spewed out the fallen churches that still existed physically after the war. The harvest message was intended to get everyone in the nominal churches who had a hearing ear and a seeing eye to come out to the Lord, as we see described in the message to the seventh church. If they did not accept that message of truth, which was designed to make them “Come out of her my people”, then they would be in great danger of losing their crown to someone else. That is not saying that once the call to come out during the harvest was finished, and that no one else could be called out. But it’s saying that anyone that had a crown in that system before the harvest and had rejected the truth during that harvest, and wouldn’t come out to the call of the Lord, probably would not be accepted by the Lord anymore and would need to be replaced. That is why the call still goes out even to the Nominal house, because we still need to get enough new ones to finish the 144,000. There is nothing against calling new ones into consecration to the Lord, so that the 144,000 can be completed—the Lord is looking for those who are searching for the truth, and who are willing to open the door to him, so that he can present the truth to them.

What the triple harvest parallel is showing us, and what we need to consider, is that just as the Jewish house went down in 70-73AD, the fallen and judged Christian house was going to suffer the same fate in 1914-18AD, because of the harvest parallel. In the situation with both the Jewish and Christian system, individual Jews could still come into the church after the destruction of the Jewish nation, as well as individual Christians after 1918 could still come in after the church and state Empires had fallen. Just as we saw that the Jewish system was not being directly used by the Lord anymore after the period of favor expired, any claims by the fallen churches that they are still the Lord’s people after the harvest time are false, and they have been shown to be tares.

Open the Door!

Because of that, the individuals in that system that are seeking after the Lord after 1914-18, can only claim a personal relationship with the Lord if they hear the knocking on the door that we see in the message to the seventh church, and they open that door to the Lord. He then will sit down and feed them with a feast of Divine truth and accept them as his own. They must then recognize the corrupt nature of the churches that they were in, and want to know what the Lord stands for, and what his true salvation is. Those are the ones that would want to open the door to the Lord, and see what kind of feast of fat things that he has for them, because they really want to know the truth about God’s salvation. In other words, many most likely already have very doubtful thoughts about the doctrines of the fallen system—such as hell, the Trinity, the mass, and no clear doctrine of salvation for all from that evil system.

When Were the 144,00 Sealed?

Was there a full 144,000 sealed by 1918AD, or were there enough in the process of the sealing that the 144,000 could have been completed if all were faithful? At one time Pastor had thought so, but it’s not clear if there were the full number standing there at that time as he had originally thought because of what Pastor finally noticed about the harvest parallels. In the Second Volume forward above, Pastor admitted that they had looked at the harvest parallels incorrectly, and that the parallels were not about the completion of the faithful church, but only about the downfall of the apostate church, and so the original thought about the full number being complete at that time should probably now be called into question and looked at. The only sure thing that we know, is that the 144,000 will be completed in time for the kingdom. If there were 144,000 sealed at that time, we would also have to remember that being sealed in the forehead does not mean that you couldn’t fall. Unfortunately, many of those who had been called out during the time of 1878-1918, and who came to the truth, failed the test of the time and followed the new organizations after Pastors death back into darkness—which was after 1917-18. So, if any of those who were sealed fell at that time, we are still accumulating replacements for them until the full number is complete and on the other side with the Lord.

Writers Inkhorn Again

The concept of the process of sealing that we just discussed, is the same as the sealing that we see in the picture in Ezekiel from the time of Babylon, which we mentioned above, where the man with the writer's inkhorn was marking and sealing those who were complaining to God about what was being done wrong. Contrary to traditional Bible Student belief, we do not believe that vision is strictly an end time prophecy. We believe that the sealing that is being shown in that Chapter prophetically covers all three ages, and that it especially covers the entire Gospel age, and we see that the slaying of those who were not marked happens at the end of the age after the judgment of 1878AD. If that prophecy covers the entire age and not just at the end, the one with the writer's inkhorn must be our Lord Jesus marking and sealing the saints with the Holy spirit. It can't be Pastor Russell, because he didn't do the sealing during the entire Gospel Age. Jesus uses the seven earthly messengers to help do the sealing throughout the seven stages of the church, and so when we arrive at the seventh church, we should expect that Pastor Russell would be the earthly leader of that part of the sealing process, but the one with the writer's inkhorn would still be the Lord.

The Killing By the Six Men With Slaughter Weapons

All the messengers including Bro Russell, must get their message from the scriptures, and the one that has the writer's inkhorn is the one that guided the writing of the Bible through the Holy spirit, and that is why he has the writer's inkhorn. As soon as those who were faithful were sealed, which will be when the 144,000 are complete, then the six men with slaughtering weapons go out and symbolically kill all the rest—those who fail fall into the Great Company or in very serious circumstances Second Death. We in a sense would have to say that the slaying of those who don't have God's mark on their forehead, will continue until the 144,000 are selected and complete, because the church after 1914-18 must pass the same kinds of tests. If you fail along the way, then you are one of those who will not pass the testing.

Those who were symbolically killed during that selection would become Great Company, and they would have to be replaced by those who hear the Lord knocking on the door and who open it to them. The process of eliminating those who are not properly sealed by the spirit of the Lord, has been going on since that judgment time began, and will continue until the 144,000 are complete—as seen in the vision of Chapter 14.

The only reason that the slaughtering in the picture occurs at the end of the age, is because the ones who fell away to earthly ideas could not be removed until after the judgment of 1878AD. In other words, even though the symbolic slaughtering affects the entire Gospel Age, those who were marked to be slaughtered during the age, were not affected until after the judgment of 1878AD, which then assigned them to the Great Company class or in extreme cases to the second death. That there were six that did the killing, would symbolically indicate that it was earthly and Satanic ideas that slew them, since six is the number of man and Satan. We also know that 666 is the number of the beast, which points to Satan and his system as being a very big part of the problem which has slain many. In other words, the slaying did not affect only those who were at the end of the age, but the worldly ideas that were doing the symbolic slaying, were retroactively applied to the earlier offenders at the end of the age. If you were not sealed in the forehead by the Lord, but had been sealed by Satan's system with 666, then you would lose your chance for a crown, and you would then wind up in the Great Company when your judgment is given at the end of the age.

The prophecy of the writer's inkhorn, is a picture of not only the destruction that came upon Israel at the time of Babylon, but it had a second application at the time of Christ, where the Jewish house was being witnessed to, and only some accepted the message that our Lord brought. Notice that the message came from Christ and then from the Holy spirit that he sent to the Apostles at Pentecost, showing that he was the one with the writer's inkhorn in that age also. At the end of the 40-year period of the Jewish harvest, the Jewish house was left desolate when the Roman's destroyed Jerusalem and Masada.

In a third application of the prophecy, what happened on this end of the age in 1914-18, is an exact 1845-year parallel to what happened to the Jewish house in 69-73AD when it was destroyed. After the message of the Divine Plan was brought to the churches at the harvest time, they then had 40 years to decide if they would believe it. Most did not believe that message, which was like the disbelief of Jewish system in the sacrifice of the Lord, and they went down in the 1914-18 war, again not believing in the ransom sacrifice.

An 1845 year Parallel

We are going insert a table of the 1845 year parallel next. This is not the original parallel found on page 246-247 of the second volume, but it reproduces the essential idea behind it. We have added some scriptures to help show what the parallel is teaching us. We encourage everyone to look at the original parallel in the second volume, to verify that Pastor was seeing the same sort of thing, in that the 1845-year parallel had ended in 1914-18. The only difference regarding the original idea in the second volume about this parallel, was that Pastor realized in the 1916 forward that the parallel followed the nominal house to destruction, but not the faithful saints.

1913.75 OR OCT 1914

The war with Israel began in 66 AD and in 69 AD the Romans led by Titus laid siege to Jerusalem, allowing no one in or out until 70 AD when he took the city.

World War 1 breaks out. All Christians who are awake should have seen that this system was false and have come out of her my people (Rev 18:4). If not they receive of her plagues and lose their chance for the high calling.

They raised an earth wall around the city that was as high as Jerusalem's stone wall. Anyone caught in the space in between after 69 AD was crucified on top of this wall.' See Jews God and History, page 105, in the chapter the sealed coffin'. The Christians had fled the city before this occurred.

The 2520 ends and Christ can begin to dispossess the nations. The destruction of most of the kings that were associated with the harlot, was accomplished by 1918, about 3.5 yrs after the war started. The final decline of the nations appears to be occurring more gradually than originally thought, but its still happening. The nation of Israel has been restored and the rest of the countries in the world are having major problems.

The destruction of the last of the Jewish resistance was accomplished by 73 AD (about 3.5 yrs later).

This has been vengeance for the blood of the saints (Rev 16:6).

This was vengeance for the blood of the prophets (Matt 23:35).

The call goes on until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in (Romans 11:25). The Gentiles are replacements for Israelites who failed to enter in.

The call goes on until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in (Romans 11:25). These are replacements for those who lost their crowns.

Don't Forget the Harvest!

We see from the table above that the harvest was to be at the end of the age, and a major work of the harvest was to separate the wheat from the tares, and then the tares were to be burned. If the wheat didn't separate itself from the tares, it's implied that they would be burned with the bundles of tares, or in other words they would lose their crowns. The question about this is when does the burning of the tares occur? That's a hard question, because some would say they have all been burned, and others would say none of them has been burned yet. While we would have to say that we don't know that answer for sure, our guess is that after 1914 or 1918, that the burning process had symbolically started burning those who had failed the judgment of 1878-1881AD.

Matt 13:29-30 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

The sealing process continued after 1914AD, with the final goal being the completed sealing of the 144,000. But we think that there is a difference after the time of the 40-year harvest, in that the Lord is not calling to the fallen church system anymore, because he doesn't recognize them as his church after either 1881 or for sure by 1914AD. They have been judged and have been spewed out, and he is now taking the replacements he needs from anyone that is willing to heed the message of truth. We see that same thing shown in the 1845-year harvest parallel, where the Lord took away the exclusive rights to the high calling away from the Jewish house in 36AD, and expanded the call to the gentiles! On this end of the age, the call expands beyond the Christian church to anyone in the world who will answer it, since the fallen and judged church has lost the exclusive right to the high calling.

The Four Winds & Daniel's Image

That the winds began to blow destructively in 1914AD, would not mean that the work of the blowing and destruction of the wind was completed after that war. If we look at the Image of Dan Chapter 2, we find that the Image is first struck on the feet of iron and clay in 1799AD. The next blow in 1914AD came upon the entire Image, which was made up of the gold, silver, bronze and iron. Those four different elements represent the four universal Empires—which came about because each Empire gobbled up the next Empire in turn, until the fourth one formed the Roman Empire. After 1918, the pieces are being broken and ground up, until the pieces become like chaff or much smaller. That has indeed gradually happened just as predicted since we now have many more nations than what had originally existed in 1914AD. Most of the big kingdoms have been broken up into many smaller pieces, which are much weaker than the originals. We saw that process further demonstrated after that time, with the breakup of the British Colonial Empire after WW2. The recent collapse of the Russian Empire is a further step in this process, that shows that the grinding is still continuing yet today, and even the Western world is starting to show major financial cracks at this time.

The winds of political change and destruction which began in 1914AD, will eventually overwhelm the last of the nations and sweep them away, unless they align themselves to the kingdom. That is the whirlwind of destruction that is mentioned in the scriptures. The intent of that final whirlwind is to remove the last of the evil from the earth, and to establish a righteous kingdom.

Ps 58:9 Before your pots can feel {the fire of} thorns He will sweep them away with a whirlwind, the green and the burning alike.

*Prov 10:25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous {has} an everlasting foundation.

Isa 29:6 From the LORD of hosts you will be punished with thunder and earthquake and loud noise, {with} whirlwind and tempest and the flame of a consuming fire. (NAU)

Isa 66:15 For behold, the LORD will come in fire and His chariots like the whirlwind, to render His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire.

Nahum 1:3 The LORD is slow to anger and great in power, and the LORD will by no means leave {the guilty} unpunished. In whirlwind and storm is His way, and clouds are the dust beneath His feet. (NAU)

All Nations Don't Have to Fall

If those remaining kingdoms bow to the new king and align themselves with the Millennial kingdom, they will survive, but if not they will be removed. Not all nations have to be destroyed in this trouble, but they will all have to acknowledge the new ruler or perish, as it says in Psalms Chapter 2.

Ps 2:2 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers take counsel together against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,

Ps 2:6 "But as for me, I have installed My King upon Zion, My holy mountain."

Ps 2:10-12) 10 Now therefore, O kings, show discernment; take warning, O judges of the earth.

11 Worship the LORD with Reverence and rejoice with trembling. 12 Do homage to the Son, that He not become angry, and you perish {in} the way, for His wrath may soon be kindled. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him! (NAU)

We see that many nations will still come up to the house of the Lord at the time of the kingdom, so it's evident that some do submit and still exist. They must give up their independent existence and all harmful things, and bow to the new King to get the blessing.

Isa 2:2-3 (2 Now it will come about that In the last days The mountain of the house of the Lord Will be established as the chief of the mountains, And will be raised above the hills; And all the nations will stream to it. 3 And many peoples will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, To the house of the God of Jacob; That He may teach us concerning His ways And that we may walk in His paths." For the law will go forth from Zion And the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. NASU)

Final Conflict Yet to Come

What sort of trouble will be represented in the final whirlwind; we can't exactly say? What we can know for sure about that final time, is that when the final winds of change blow, they will be unstoppable. Those winds will bring about major changes to the present evil world, and those changes will include the overthrow of the unfair financial and social systems. There will also have to be major ecclesiastical change before the existing churches can be incorporated into the kingdom. We see that the churches will still need reform when the kingdom starts, because we still see the False Prophet that must be captured in Chapter 19 which is most likely after the church is complete. That shows that the false churches will still be holding on to their false doctrines at that final time. All false religion must accept God's truth, and give up their false doctrines, or they will be confronted by the Lord and the sword of truth, as we are also shown in Revelation Chapter 19. How serious of measures will be needed to bring about the change, will be up to the parts of society being changed. If the existing governments submit to the new king and fall into line with him, there will not be as much trouble. But if they won't submit, then the Lord will use whatever persuasion is necessary. It may take quite a bit of persuasion in the case of tyrannical governments, or oppressive greedy corporations, but in the end, they will all have to follow the rules of the new king or be removed.

The final conflict with the remnant of the nations has not yet occurred. That is when the nations must recognize that our Lord has taken his power, and begun to reign fully together with the 144,000. The scriptures indicate that the kings or civil rulers will not want to give up their power to the new administration. If they willingly recognize the Lord as King, there will be no problem, but if they refuse to do so they will be forcibly evicted. Isaiah Chapter 60, shows that some of the kings will be forcefully brought into the kingdom or the courtyard of the New Jerusalem by their own people. The Rev Chapter 21 reference doesn't say that they are bought in forcefully, but Rev Chapter 21 is parallel to Isaiah Chapter 60, and so we can assume that they are not all giving up their power and coming in willingly.

Isa 60:11-12 (11 "Your gates will be open continually; They will not be closed day or night, So that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, With their kings led in procession. 12 "For the nation and the kingdom which will not serve you will perish, And the nations will be utterly ruined. NASU

Rev 21:24 (24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. NASU

That will not happen until the entire church is complete, and on the other side of the Vail, and the glorified church begins to reign with the Lord. At that point in time, there will be no need to hide the power of God's kingdom, and things may get very intense. Hopefully, the nations will quickly come to their senses, and be counted amongst those who go up to the mountain of the Lord. The scriptures imply that those who don't come to God kingdom, will not get any rain on them or blessing.

Zech 14:17-18) 17 And it will be that whichever of the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain on them.

18 If the family of Egypt does not go up or enter, then no {rain will fall} on them; it will be the plague with which the LORD smites the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths. (NAU)

Summery

So, in summary, we see that the winds could blow on selected elements of the system without harming those who were being sealed, but we still expect that there will be a final blowing of the winds that will necessitate that all be fully sealed, or even better be on the other side of the veil when that happens. But if all are sealed, and the four winds begin to fully blow, it may be that is what takes the last of the church.

The winds that blew in 1914, could blow because they did not harm the sealing process, since most of those who had crowns should have come out of that system before the war began. If they did not come out before then, they could still be saved, but they would need to recognize that they needed to answer the Lord's knock on the door, before he turns away from the door and leaves. See the notes on the latter part of the seventh church, where it describes the Lord knocking on the door. Any others still in that system, can still hear that call and knock and come to the Lord to fill the number of any that fell after 1914.

The other major conclusion the Study Group came to, is that the large amount of Great Company that is seen in this Chapter, do not have to come out of the tribulation at the end of the age, because they have come out all through the age. The tribulation that is described in this Chapter is not what cleanses them, but it says that only the blood of the Lamb can do that.

Revelation 7:4 *And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: (NAU)

The "I heard" here, is another break in the prophecy, which separates this verse from the previous three verses, but it's a little different here in this verse, in that we are now going to be told how many were sealed. That is why it is "I heard", instead of it being "I saw". We are now going to be shown those who overcame the evil system, and who will live and reign with the Lord, the glorified 144,000.

In this vision, the twelve tribes of Israel are shown as having 12,000 selected from each tribe. That implies that God's original intent was to get 144,000 saints from the literal 12 tribes of Israel, if they would have accepted Christ and proven faithful. That number is going to be fulfilled, but mostly through Gentile replacements, instead of what should have originally have been literal Israelites. Rom 11:11 I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? May it never be! But by their transgression salvation {has come} to the Gentiles, to make them jealous.

Rom 9:6-8) 6 But {it is} not as though the word of God has failed. For they are not all Israel who are {descended} from Israel; 7 nor are they all children because they are Abraham's descendants, but: "THROUGH ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS WILL BE NAMED." 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are regarded as descendants. (NAU)

The church has not replaced literal Israel completely, as some have tried to claim, but after the church is completed, God will accept them back again as his people. That is why they have returned to their land again now, after almost 2000 years of being gone.

If we look at one other place that the term "sons of Israel" is used in Revelation, we find that it's in the message to the third church of the Gospel Age—again confirming that the 144,000 are not literal Israelites. In the third church period, most who were in that church were gentiles, and so it's obvious that "sons of Israel are referring to the spiritual Israelites of the church. As Romans says, the descendants were to be named through Isaac, who as a type represents Christ. So, if you are following Christ, then you are sons of Israel or a spiritual Israelites. The true Israelites were not literal Israelites unless they accepted Christ, but if gentiles accepted Christ, then they would be grafted in as actual Israelites.

Revelation 2:14 "But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who kept teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit {acts of} immorality. (NAU)

Regarding 12 & the 144,000

It was suggested in the study, that it's possible that the Lord is intending to get at least 12 different character types for the church. Those 12 character types, might be like the different characters that the 12 sons of Israel each had. We don't know that for sure, but we do know that it would make sense for the Lord to have several different personality types of people in the church. The world needs to be well represented by different character types, so you could always find someone in the 144,000 that had similar thinking, or had overcome the same types of problems.

It's also likely that the world will be divided up into 12 regions of government in the Millennial age, just as Israel was when it was a complete nation. There is no way to know for sure about that, except for what Jesus said in Matt 19:28 about the twelve thrones, but it would be interesting if it was divided up that way, because then each of the 12 Apostles as well as 12 Patriarchs could be used to govern each of the regions. They would also have the help of all the rest of the Ancient Worthies, who will help administer the kingdom blessings. Matt 19:28 And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, that you who have followed Me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on His glorious throne, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. (NAU)

Interesting Suggestions About the Numbers

Some interesting suggestions about the number 144,000 are for example this.  $144 = 12 * 12$ . We can also look at the twelve's, as indicating God's government, because of the twelve thrones.

We see that the number of 144 cubits in the wall of the New Jerusalem, represents what must be passed to reach perfection in the kingdom. The 144 of the wall can be broken down into 100, and 40, and 4, which is how it's written in the Greek text. Using the 25-inch prophetic cubit multiplier, we would get  $25 * 100 = 2500$ ,  $25 * 40 = 1000$ , and  $25 * 4 = 100$  years, all of which are significant numbers regarding the kingdom.

The 2500 represents the Jubilee cycle, which is pointing to the restitution of all things, Acts 3:19.

The 1000 is the millennium from Revelation 20:4-6.

The 100 is from Isa 65:20 "No longer will there be in it an infant {who lives but a few} days, or an old man who does not live out his days; for the youth will die at the age of one hundred and the one who does not reach the age of one hundred will be {thought} accursed. (NAU)

$1000 = 10 * 10 * 10$ . Tens in the Bible signify completeness of civil power. That there are three tens, would show that this is from God, since that represents the number 10 cubed, and God is a lot of times represented by the number three. The 1000 would also point to the Millennial age, where the reign of the 144,000 and times of restitution will take place.

Those calculations show very important concepts as far as putting some extra meaning into the number 144,000, but they don't prove one way or another that the number is an actual number of sealed saints. They are simply helping to show us different ways that God will use the church in the next age. The Study Group concluded that the number 144,000 is most likely an actual literal number, and that the Lord has intended for the church to be completed with that actual number, but we couldn't prove that as a certainty.

The city of New Jerusalem, was 12,000 furlongs on each side. There are also 12 edges in a cube or  $12 * 12,000 = 144,000$ . The city also had 12 gates and 12 foundations. The number 12 represents a perfect earthly government from God. God has given us the type of 12 tribes in the nation of Israel, showing that he intended his government to be with them in a similar form, if they would not have fallen away from him.

Revelation 7:5-8

Revelation 7:5 From the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand {were} sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, (NAU)

Revelation 7:6 from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, (NAU)

Revelation 7:7 from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, (NAU)

Revelation 7:8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand {were} sealed.

Levi and Joseph Replace Dan and Ephraim

We find in history that there was a total of 14 tribes listed. In the Revelation list, we find these 12: Judah, Reuben, Gad, Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, Simeon, Levi, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, and Benjamin.

We see that of the original 12 tribes on the breastplate, Levi, and Joseph, replaced Dan, and Ephraim in the Revelation list.

Dan is Second Death Class

In Revelation Chapter 7, the list is different than the original 12 tribes, because two of the tribes are in symbol shown as failing regarding the spiritual class of the 144,000. There aren't 12,000 from Dan, because he pictures the second death class. In Ephraim, we see a similar thing, in that there weren't 12,000 selected from that tribe either, because he pictures the Great Company class.

We suggest that of the total of 14 tribes named in the scriptures, 12 represent the 144,000, and the other two represent the Great Company and second death classes respectively. Dan is spoken of as being like a serpent, and that is why he represents the second death class. Gen 49:17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that bites the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward (KJV).

That scripture would seem to indicate that Dan is a picture of those, who are like Satan in that they cause others to fall. That that class are causing others to stumble, would be a good reason why they would be replaced in the list. Luke 17:2 It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. (NAS)

This is especially apt, in that horses are symbolic of doctrines, and Satan has used false doctrines to cause many riders or new creatures to fall. The history of Dan shows many bad things that he did as a tribe. Dan for those reasons represents the second death class.

Some in the nominal churches, even consider Dan to be a picture of what to them was the coming anti-Christ, which they don't realize has already come.

Ephraim = Great Company

The tribe of Ephraim represents the Great Company, but there is a greater picture that includes all the ten tribes. The ten tribes that split off were also called Ephraim, and they did not have access to the Jerusalem temple after the split. One reason for that second use of the symbol Ephraim, is because the ten tribes had fallen into Idolatry much faster than the two tribes, thus making a good picture of the falling away that occurred during the early part of the Gospel Age. Some scriptures to consider in this regard are Isa 28:1-3, Jer 7:15, 31:6, 20, Hos 5:3-14, 6:10, 7:8, 8:9 etc. Those scriptures taken together give a very apt prophetic description of the apostate church system, and what they did and are doing wrong.

Just as Judah was the name used for the faithful two tribe portion of the nation, Ephraim was the name used for the 10-tribe portion of Israel, which had separated from the two faithful tribes. They tried to establish their own worship of God separate from what God had commanded, regarding Jerusalem. God had commanded that everyone should have to come up to Jerusalem to worship. Deut 12:5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come: (KJV) See also 1 Kings 8:16>. Because of that, the ten tribes make a good picture of the Great Company, some of who in the great falling away of the dark ages, went away from God's salvation and established their own.

Original promise of blessing to Jacob, which comes from the Abrahamic root. The original 12 tribes' picture completed salvation to the world. That is shown by this same list in Ezekiel's temple which pictures the salvation of the earthly kingdom. Ezek Chapter 48	Levi couldn't inherit because of being of the priestly class. Joseph was a picture of Christ who gave up his earthly inheritance to establish a spiritual house. Gen 49:22-26	Dan was removed because he pictures the second death class. He was like a serpent who caused the rider to fall backwards off his horse. Gen 49:17 Ephraim was removed because he pictures those who went astray and who began to sin and worship idols. They picture the Great Company because God removed them from their inheritance and they never returned like Judah did. Gen 48:17-19, Hos 7:8, Jer 8:16-17

We also find this in the scriptures about Ephraim not returning to Jehovah: Hos 7:8-10 (8" Ephraim mixes with the nations; Ephraim is a flat cake not turned over. 9 Foreigners sap his strength, but he does not realize it. His hair is sprinkled with gray, but he does not notice. 10 Israel's arrogance testifies against him, but despite all this he does not return to the LORD HIS God or search for him. NIV

Revelation 7:9

Revelation 7:9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and {all} tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches {were} in their hands; (NAU)

The Great Multitude

In Revelation 3:21, the Lord tells us that anyone who overcomes would sit down on the throne with him, and since we see that these are “standing before the throne and not on it”, they don't belong to the overcomer class. Revelation 3:21 "He who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. (NAU)

One important reference that proves that the Great Company is a spiritual class, although they are a partially failed one, is that in Revelation 7:11 we also find them described as being those who were taken out “from every nation and {all} tribes and peoples and tongues.” That is the same wording used for the purchase of the church in Revelation Chapter 5. That word is from Strong’s 1537, which means from or out of, and that proves that they are not a part of the world class, since they have been purchased out of the earth. Since both the faithful church and the Great Company are taken out of every nation and {all} tribes and peoples and tongues, that proves that the Great Company are a spiritual class. If you are taken out of the earth, that shows that you are not a part of the world anymore, but you are a spiritual class that belongs to God and Christ. If your earthly rights have been bought by the Lord, you now belong to him, and you will get a heavenly reward of either the 144,000 or the great Company, but you only get that by giving up your earthly salvation. Revelation 5:9 And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood {men} from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.

Revelation 14:3 And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased from the earth. (NAU)

Revelation 14:4 These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they have kept themselves chaste. These {are} the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased from among men as first fruits to God and to the Lamb. (NAU)

Since they were purchased out of the earth, that means that the great Company belongs to God, just as do the 144,000. If they have lost the race for the high calling, they can't go back into the earthly salvation, and so God has provided a different position for them that will preserve their life. Anyone who becomes Great Company will always regret what they did wrong, but they will still be satisfied because God still saved them, but with a lesser salvation.

We also find later in Revelation that they are seen in heaven at the time of the marriage of the Lamb, which again proves that they are a heavenly class.

Rev 19:1 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God; NASU

In Revelation Chapter 7, we see that regardless of their failure, they are still seen with palm branches in their hands, which pictures salvation and overcoming. Barnes in his notes on Matt 21:8 says, "The palm branches were an emblem of joy, peace, and victory for both the Jews and the Romans." The palm branches show that this class even though they were not able to be of the 144,000, still have joy and count the reward of their salvation as a victory. They realize that their salvation is from God's mercy through Christ.

Revelation 7:10-12

Revelation 7:10 and they cry out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

Revelation 7:11 And all the angels were standing around the throne and {around} the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

Revelation 7:12 saying, "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, {be} to our God forever and ever. Amen." (NAU)

In these verses, the Great Company acknowledges that their salvation was only possible because of God having devised a merciful plan, and Christ having carried it out. Even the 144,000 would not have been able to be saved without the ransom and sin offering of our Lord. That requirement especially applies to the Great Company, who this Chapter tells us that they had to make their robes white in the blood of the Lamb.

It's interesting to see that the angels are seen "around" the 4 living creatures and the 24 elders. This verse indicates that they are giving all the honor and glory to God. Even the angels, by falling down, are humbling themselves before God and admitting that by themselves they are nothing. Without God, no one would be able to be saved or have had anything.

Seven Characteristics of God

We see that there are seven different adjectives used to describe God in this verse. They are blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might. Seven is generally used to denote spiritual perfection or completeness. We found that same type of description in Revelation 5:12, where there were seven adjectives for the Lamb. The Trinitarians would probably like to jump upon the fact that both have six similar descriptive words. Since Jesus is the son of God, we should expect that the lists would be similar, but not the same, which is what we see here. If we read Revelation 5:12 carefully, we find that God had given those things to Christ because he had proven worthy. See also Isaiah Chapter 11, where Jesus had seven spirits given to him by his Father.

There is only one word that is different between the two lists. In Revelation 5:12 Jesus has "Riches" #4149 and in Revelation 7:12 Jehovah has “thanksgiving” #2169 instead, while the other six words in both lists are the same.

4149 ploutos (ploo'-tos); from the base of 4130; wealth (as fulness), i.e. (literally) money, possessions, or (figuratively) abundance, richness, (specifically) valuable bestowment: KJV-- riches.

2169 eucharistia (yoo-khar-is-tee'-ah); from 2170; gratitude; actively, grateful language (to God, as an act of worship): KJV-- thankfulness, (giving of) thanks (-giving).

Our Lord Jesus received great riches from the Father when he proved himself worthy to open the scroll. The Heavenly Father already owns everything in the world and in the entire universe. It uses the word “thanksgiving” here, instead of “riches” for him. We can be thankful to God for the riches of salvation that he has provided, just as we see the angels doing. It’s not possible for us to give him anything, except for our praise and thankfulness, because he has everything else.

Revelation 7:13-14

Revelation 7:13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?"

Revelation 7:14 I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. (NAU)

This is one of the 24 elders of the scriptures that were first seen in Chapter 4, and in our study of that area we had concluded that the 24 elders were representative of all the books of God’s word in the Old Testament. Refer to the notes on that area for a more detailed explanation of why that is the most likely interpretation of what the elders are. An alternate reading in the companion Bible, says that the correct reading of verse 13, is "the elder asked me". For one of the elders to ask the question about the Great Company, and then we see that John tells him that “you know”, indicates that the answer to who the Great Company is will be found in an Old Testament book. So, the answer can be found by finding the correct Old Testament book represented by this particular elder.

There are several Old Testament possibilities, one of which is in the book of Numbers. See Numbers 1:47, 2:33, 8:7-8, 19:6-9, 18:24-31, 35:2-3, as found in Bro. Frank Shallieu's book on Revelation. Those are interesting references so we include them, but there was one other place where the Study Group concluded, that it very clearly defined who the Great Company was.

Ezekiel Chapter 44

If we turn to Ezekiel 44:5-16, we find ourselves in Ezekiel's temple at the time that the door from the east was shut. That the door was shut, indicates that this vision is pointing us to the time that the church is complete. What we are going to be shown in Ezekiel, is a Millennial age description of the 4 different classes of salvation. In that Chapter, we are going to be shown what the Great Company will be doing in the kingdom, which is described as used for the service of the earthly people, who are also seen in that vision.

Ezek 44:2 The LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it, for the LORD God of Israel has entered by it; therefore it shall be shut. (NAU)

Without going into this in great detail, we find that there are four classes of salvation mentioned in this

Chapter, (1) the unfaithful Levites, (2) the people that are ministered to, (3) the faithful sons of Zadok, and (4) the prince who symbolizes the Ancient Worthies. After we see the prince come in, who represents the Ancient Worthies, we are then shown the Levites that went astray, and they picture the Great Company. The prophecy gives us a large list of the things that they did wrong.

Ezek 44:6-14 6 "You shall say to the rebellious ones, to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord GOD, "Enough of all your Abominations, O house of Israel, 7 when you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to profane it, {even} My house, when you offered My food, the fat and the blood; for they made My covenant void-- {this} in addition to all your Abominations. 8 "And you have not kept charge of My holy things yourselves, but you have set {foreigners} to keep charge of My sanctuary." 9 "Thus says the Lord GOD, "No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the sons of Israel, shall enter My sanctuary.

10 "But the Levites who went far from Me when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me after their idols, shall bear the punishment for their iniquity. 11 "Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house and ministering in the house; they shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. 12 "Because they ministered to them before their idols and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have sworn against them," declares the Lord GOD, "that they shall bear {the punishment for} their iniquity. 13 "And they shall not come near to Me to serve as a priest to Me, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are Most Holy; but they will bear their shame and their Abominations which they have committed. 14 "Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the house, of all its service and of all that shall be done in it.

Great Company Unfaithful Levites

Another important thing about the Levites, is that they were a priestly class, and not an earthly class. That again proves that the Great Company class is a spiritual class. We see above, that they had done wrong things such as allowing foreigners who were uncircumcised in heart to come into God's temple or church. The nominal system did that by their policy of trying to convert anyone through any means, and they also let Pagans come into the church, bringing their false doctrines with them. It also says that they went astray after their idols, of which there is no doubt that the fallen church system had not only literal statues of saints, but they had many false idols of the heart and doctrine.

We see in verses 10-11, that they would not be allowed to come before God because of their sins, but they would still have the job of handling the sacrifices for the people, who are in the court. This is an almost exact parallel to what it says in Revelation 7:15 in regards to the Great Company, in that they were only allowed before the throne. They could not be on the throne with the Lord as the church is, but they had to stay in front of it. The vision in Ezekiel shows us that they were not allowed to come before God in the Most Holy, but they were allowed into the holy of the temple.

The World The People Being Ministered To

The next class found in Ezekiel, is the people that the unfaithful Levites were to help minister to in the court. The people were only allowed into the court, but not into any of the inner holy areas of the temple.

Ezek 42:14 Once the priests enter the holy precincts, they are not to go into the outer court until they leave behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they go near the places that are for the people." (NIV)

The people had access to the outer court, where they could sacrifice to God, and where they could be fed. That is a picture of how the world will be brought into the salvation represented in the temple. We will find the same picture in Chapter 21 of Revelation, where we will see the world coming through the gates into the court of the New Jerusalem, to receive salvation in the millennium. That we see the people who are the worldly class shown separate from the Great Company, is another proof that the Great Company is not a worldly class as some try to claim. In Ezekiel's temple, the tables in the outer court were not defined as far as how big they were. That would seem to symbolically indicate, that there would be room for all the people who are willing to come to God's arrangement in the kingdom, and be restored back to perfection.

The 144,000 The Sons of Zadok

The Sons of Zadok, are a family of priests descended from Zadok, the first high priest in Solomon's temple. Zadok was a faithful priest during David's reign, and he is said to have done right no matter what was going on, so his sons who were also faithful make a good picture of the faithful church.

That is why the members of the faithful class shown in Ezekiel, are called the sons of Zadok, and they can come before God as we see in verses 15-16. That is exactly what we see in Revelation regarding the 144,000, where they are seen with the Lamb on Mount Zion, "Revelation 14:1-3 and Revelation 15:2-4". Zadok is first mentioned as a faithful class in 1 Kings 2:35.

Ezek 44:15-16) 15 "But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from Me, shall come near to Me to minister to Me; and they shall stand before Me to offer Me the fat and the blood," declares the Lord GOD. 16 "They shall enter My sanctuary; they shall come near to My table to minister to Me and keep My charge. (NAU)

The Prince The Ancient Worthies

We see that the prince that came in at the beginning of the Chapter, is the only earthly person allowed to come close to God and to sit in the inner gateway to eat in his presence. That shows us that the Ancient Worthies will have a much higher standing than the common people, and that they will have contact with those who are on the throne.

Ezek 44:3 The prince himself is the only one who may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the Lord. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way." NIV

The Ancient Worthies will be God's representatives on the earth during the kingdom. They earned that privilege during their lives by being faithful to God under very extreme and terrible conditions. Those who were good leaders during the period of the Judges will be amongst them. During the period of the kings, the kings tried to have many of the prophets murdered, because they did not like their sins being exposed. All the Ancient Worthies will be resurrected first, and they will come back at the beginning of the kingdom and will begin working immediately with the people.

It appears that they will also have a key role to play in overcoming the last of Satan's forces that want to destroy Israel. The seven Sheppard's in the reference below, are the seven messengers that deliver messages and warnings against the fallen church. The eight principle men represent the Ancient Worthies, who will first help Israel at the start of the kingdom when they are being attacked by the forces of Gog and Magog, who are all the nations that come against them at that time.

Mic 5:5-6 (5 And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders. KJV

Forced Washing of Their Robes?

In Revelation Chapter 7, the Great Company has white robes for only one reason, and that is because Christ died for them. They are said to have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. It's traditionally understood that they have made their robes white, because of the tribulation they go through. But a careful examination of the verses in Chapter 7, only tells us that they made them white through washing in the blood of the Lamb. No amount of personal suffering would be able to whiten anyone's robe, but the blood of Christ's death on the cross is the only way. This doesn't mean that God will not cause them to have trials and troubles to get them to see the error of their ways and to be repentant, still the only way they can be forgiven those errors and whiten the robes, is by accepting the blood of Christ.

This was a new and very important revelation that was given to John at that time. God was going to have mercy on most of those who had not done what they should have during the Gospel Age, but they would receive a much lower class of salvation than the 144,000. There would still be some who wind up in the second death class, but it does not have to be a large number because of the mercy of God.

That the Great Company had to wash their robes, shows that they didn't listen to the advice of Peter.

2 Peter 3:14 So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him. NIV

If they would have had white robes and didn't have to wash them, we would have had to of concluded that they were not guilty of anything. But because they had spotted their robes, and they needed to wash and clean them, it's obvious that they were in sin and error. In the parables in the Gospels, the only ones that have robes are those who are representative of the church class. There are no parables or any place that shows the world receiving white robes of righteousness like the church, and so this is another proof that this is not a worldly class

Even the bride class is seen in white linen later in Revelation, and again that shows us that the church also needs the redemption brought by Christ to be made righteous, "Revelation 19:8". Revelation tell us that the fine linen symbolizes the righteous acts of the saints, and the 144,000 are different from the Great Company in that they kept their robes spotless, continually coming before the throne of grace when they needed to—asking for help in overcoming their error. The faithful church also embroiders their robes with the righteous things that they do in this life, while working for the establishment of God's kingdom. Ps 45:13-14) 13 The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is interwoven with gold.

14 She will be led to the King in embroidered work; the virgins, her companions who follow her, will be brought to you. (NAU)

The Great Company is seen as finally at the end having to wash their robes, indicating that they didn't keep them clean during their life. With the 144,000 it's not that way, because as soon as they make a mistake and recognize it, they always want to remedy the matter by seeking to clean the spot. They take immediate advantage of the help that is promised to the church, so that they can overcome the problem.

Heb 4:15-16 (15 For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points tempted like as (we are, yet) without sin.

16 Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help (us) in time of need. (ASV)

First we need to recognize the problem, then we need to be asking for forgiveness and be sorry and repentant, and then we need to try to overcome the fault so that it doesn't happen again. The Great Company doesn't do that to the extent that they should, and their robes become spotted. We need to be actively submissive to the Lord and try to model ourselves after his son always, trying to overcome all our faults to the best of our ability.

We see that a good description of the testing that everyone goes through is found in 1 Cor. The Great Company class is evidently made up of those who build upon earthly things of wood, hay, and stubble, and the testing of the fire destroys those types of things. The 144,000 build upon the divine things of gold, silver, and precious stones, and so their work survives.

1 Cor 3:12-15 (12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

Another problem that some of the Great Company have, is that they are guilty of not being zealous enough, and are those who were making excuses when their beloved called out to them. That is shown to us in the parable of those who make excuses when they are invited to the marriage feast, Matt 22:1-14. The Song of Solomon gives us an excellent picture of what happens when you don't answer the master's call.

Song 5:1-6 (1 "I have come into my garden, my sister, {my} bride; I have gathered my myrrh along with my balsam. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk. Eat, friends; drink and imbibe deeply, O lovers."

*2 "I was asleep, but my heart was awake. A voice! My beloved was knocking: 'Open to me, my sister, my darling, My dove, my perfect one! For my head is drenched with dew, My locks with the damp of the night.'

3 "I have taken off my dress, how can I put it on {again?} I have washed my feet, how can I dirty them {again?}

4 "My beloved extended his hand through the opening, and my feelings were aroused for him.

5 "I arose to open to my beloved; and my hands dripped with myrrh, and my fingers with liquid myrrh, On the handles of the bolt.

6 "I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had turned away {and} had gone! My heart went out {to him} as he spoke. I searched for him, but I did not find him; I called him, but he did not answer me. NAS)

One of the problems that the Great Company has, can also be likened to when we wash quickly, but don't spend the effort that we should to make sure we are clean or we don't care. Regarding the faithful church, they are concerned that they should be clean, and they spend the extra effort that is needed to get clean and free of sin, and not offend the Lord. If we keep making the effort to scrub clean a fault, it shows that we are aware of our faults, and that we want them removed. The Great Company seems to be much laxer, and don't seem to care or be as concerned as much as they should.

The Greek word used in Revelation 7 for “washing”, is used only in this place in the New Testament. In the Old Testament, we can trace that word through the Greek Septuagint to where that word is used in a couple of other verses. We find it in Ps 51:2, 7, where David asks God to cleanse him because of his sin and his iniquity regarding Bathsheba.

We also find it in Isaiah Chapter one. If we look at Isaiah 1:18-20 regarding the cleansing process, we see that the ones being spoken of there are not being mentioned in the best of light. They are being given a decision to make, in that either they will consent and obey and eat the best of the land, or they will refuse and rebel and be devoured by the sword. Their problem is like the Great Company, in that the Lord wishes them to overcome and to be saved, but if they refuse they will be severely punished.

The parable of the wedding feast in Matt Chapter 22, and the lesson of the one that was cast out because of his not keeping his wedding garment on, is very instructive in this regard. None of us would have a right to the wedding feast without the blood and sacrifice of Christ, which the white robe represents, “Matt 22:1-24”.

The Great Tribulation

Some of this is going to be a repeat of what we discussed earlier regarding the Great Company coming out of tribulation, but it's very important because so many have questions about this, and so we will do our very best to explain what the Study Group felt was a better understanding. Hopefully, we can add some things to the explanation that will help explain it better.

Regarding the great tribulation that the Great Company comes up out of, there are two different thoughts. The traditional view is that the tribulation is what comes on the apostate church and the nations at the end of the age. It's assumed that most of the spirit-begotten are still in Babylon at that time, and that they are the Great Company that comes out of that tribulation and who are seen in Rev Chapter 7. The thought is that they must suffer for their wrongdoing and beliefs, and that suffering is what cleanses their robes and brings them out to the Lord. If we read the context of the verses in Chapter 7 very carefully, as we mentioned earlier in the Chapter, it doesn't say that they would clean their robes with the tribulation. It does say that only through the blood of the Lamb would they be able to wash and cleanse their robes.

We do agree that the Great Company does receive trials and testing that are designed to help them get out of their error and cleanse them that way. The 1 Cor Chapter 3 scripture about the testing of fire, is a good reference in that regard and in Chapter 4 of 1 Cor, we also see where the apostle Paul says to turn the one in error over to Satan in order that the flesh would be consumed, so that he could be saved. So, there is no problem with the concept of tribulation helping an individual to overcome their sins, but where there is a major question is with the idea that huge numbers of Great Company are saved by tribulation at the end of the age, after the church is completed.

The Great Company Comes Out of the Tribulation of the Entire Age

What the Study group finally concluded about the tribulation in Chapter 7, is that it's talking about the Great Company coming out of the tribulation and persecution of the entire Gospel age, and not just the one at the end. At the beginning of the church, the persecution came from the Jewish system and the Romans. Later on the persecution came from the false church when they tried to force the faithful church into accepting their false doctrines. At first it was just persecution, but eventually they began to kill all who would not go along with their corrupt system.

The question of when is the Great Company coming out of the tribulation, has raised many questions and the questions have gotten more difficult to explain for the traditional view, because of the large number of years that have gone by since Pastor Russell's time. Not all Bible Students recognize that the Lord is not working with Great Babylon anymore, and that is why many still have hope that the Great Company are still in that system. No large numbers like what had been expected have come out during or since the 40-year harvest, and we are going to try to give some reasoning as to why we should not expect any large numbers to come out.

As we mentioned earlier, we think that the solution to the tribulation question, is that the great tribulation that is mentioned regarding the Great Company, is not being looked at in the proper way or time frame. While it's true that the nations will and have been plunged into war and great tribulation since 1914AD, and that there will probably be even more severe tribulation on them to come yet, we need to ask a simple question—is the 1914AD tribulation, and the tribulation that is being talked about in Rev 7:14 the same? The word tribulation means

Looking at the above definition, we think a simple solution to this question and the problem, is that the use of the word tribulation in Revelation Chapter 7, is used more in the sense of persecution. The persecution and tribulation that the Great Company came up out of, would not have to be the same tribulation that the nations were plunged into in 1914AD, or even the final whirlwind of tribulation that is still coming yet. It's true that the final whirlwind of trouble may indeed finish off the last of the Great Company, but there don't have to be a huge number of them left at that time. The tribulation of the entire age would even include the final spasm of trouble that we may have to go through yet—the only difference is that there may only be a few Great Company left to come out of that final tribulation.

Bro Russell Recognized Both Types of Tribulation

It was pointed out in the study, that in the Studies in the Scriptures, Pastor Russell had recognized two different tribulations, one on the church during the Gospel age “vol. 4, page 584”, and the other one on the nations at the end of the age, “vol. 4, page 540”. Just as the fallen church system had caused the church to suffer great tribulation throughout most of the Gospel Age, the Lord was seeking vengeance after 1914AD, and he plunged the evil church system into tribulation, and that is a tribulation on the nations and the false church. If we see that there are two different types of tribulations, we have then solved the problem of Revelation Chapter 7, since everyone should agree that the Great Company come out of the entire age, and not just at the end. There has been Great Company during the entire age, especially during the time that the great falling away occurred. The book of Revelation testifies in several places about the severe testing and trouble that was to come upon the church during the entire age. The fifth seal reveals the martyrs slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained to the end, Revelation 6:9.

We will show later when we get to the Chapters on the different beasts in Revelation, that the beasts are not found any more at the end of the age after 1914-1918, but they existed in power during the 1260 years from 539AD- 1799AD. In Revelation 13:7 the beast was given power for 42 months to make war against the saints and to conquer them. In Revelation 13:15 the two-horned beast caused all who refused to worship the Image of the first beast to be killed, which is what happened historically during the 1260. In Revelation 17:6 the woman riding the beast is drunk with the blood of the saints, and likewise is historical of the same tribulation. Finally, Jesus himself testifies that even the elect will be tested during the great tribulation of those days, “Mat 24:20-31, Mark 13:18-27”. The tribulation that our Lord is talking about in Matt Chapter 24, is not just at the end of the age, but we believe that it is the persecution of the entire age that our Lord was warning the Apostles about.

Matt 24:21-22 (21 for then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever shall.

22 "And unless those days had been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days shall be cut short. (NAS)

The trial and tribulation of those days that was to come, is found in Matt 24:21-22 that we quoted above. That warning includes the testing that was coming during the winter time, which was the height of the power of the system, as well as the testing that is still to come on the Sabbath day—which is during the seventh church. The days being cut short was the reduction of the power of that system from about the fifth church onward so that the elect were then able to flee during the winter time of the 1260 years, and then again at the Sabbath time of the harvest that started in 1878AD. As we mentioned earlier, there is most likely a double application of the prophecy and that there will be a cutting short of days for the nation of Israel, and that final tribulation will most likely be the one that would destroy all flesh if it is not stopped. That would be at the time that all nations come against Israel, and those days would be cut short also, because the Lord will step in and stop them. We can't predict what kind of final testing will come on the church at the very end of the time that we are in now. We pray that all will be faithful and able to make their calling and election, sure no matter how severe the trouble is.

Many of the ones that became “Great Company”, fell away because they didn't overcome or resist during the time of the great falling away. The 144,000 did overcome the persecution and tribulation, and that is why they are pictured as overcomers and victorious.

Rev 14:1-5 (1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

If we see that the above is true, then we don't need to be waiting for a large number of Great Company to come out at the end of the age, and we don't need to be wondering where they are at. Looked at the situation in that manner, we see most of them have come out already! Those who are left yet to come out, are those who will fall or lose out from amongst the remaining spirit-begotten that are needed to complete the church. God is going to complete the church, and then gather up whatever small number of Great Company are left after that.

Tribulation of Matt 24 and Dan 12

At the time of the study, everyone in the Study Group agreed that the above solution seemed to be the most likely explanation to the problem of where the Great Company comes out of and when. But as far as this being the exact same tribulation that we find in other scriptures, such as Matt Chapter 24 and Dan Chapter 12, there was not a complete agreement by the Study Group at that time! Everyone agreed that we would not actually have to tie this tribulation to any other tribulation at this point, and we could leave this solution stand on its own, at least as regarding the Revelation Chapter 7 interpretations. Since this is not a critical question regarding the Great Company in Revelation, we decided not to pursue the other study in Matt or Daniel at that time.

Double Application is the Solution to Matt 24 & Dan 12

Since the time of the study, the study group looked in more detail regarding those prophecies, and it appears that the answer is that there is a double application of those prophecies, one for the church and one for Israel. We intend to write a summary of how the double application applies to those end time prophecies, before we are done with this writing.

Spirit Begotten In Great Babylon

One scriptural concept that many miss, is that the spirit-begotten that were in that fallen system during Pastors time, were supposed to come out of her in order to escape her plagues. Rev 18:4 I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues; NASU

If the actual spirit-begotten didn't come out to the Lord by 1914AD, or perhaps as late as 1918AD, they would have soon lost their crowns and have become Great Company, because of the plagues that they were warned about at the time of the harvest. We don't know how many of those there were left in the system at the time, but that could have been a sizable number, because the Lord could have been selecting some from that system as late as 1914AD. Some believe that they should have known that they had failed, but we don't believe that they would necessarily have to of known that they had failed as some think. There is no reason why they could not have passed away and been standing before the Lord, before they realized that they had not won the crown.

One problem that complicates the idea that there are a large number of the members of the "Great Company" to come out yet now, is that most if not all the consecrated that existed at or during the time of 1914-18, would have died by now. That is because it has been at least 102 years after the 40 year harvest up to the time of this writing and editing. Assuming a minimum consecration age of 12, since that was the age of our Lord when he went to the temple and astounded the teachers there, we would have a minimum age of 114 now. Most consecrate much later than 12 years old, and so the age problem for most of those that were consecrated at that time would be even worse.

Look at the Harvest Parallels!

Even though we as Bible Students have the harvest parallels in the Second Volume, we sometimes are guilty of not paying enough attention to what they are showing us about the harvest time. We believe that the harvest parallels show us that God is not dealing with Babylon as a system anymore after 1914-18. He judged her and found her wanting and cast her off or spewed her out after that time. Because of that we don't think that God kept on spirit-begetting new ones in the apostate church system after he had judged it and spewed that system out. He was calling for them to come out, so that they would not partake of her plagues up until 1914-18. If they did not come out, then they would have failed the test and would have partaken of her plagues and become Great Company. Would they have had to of come out of the system before they passed away? There does not seem to be anything that says that they would have had to of come out that we know of—they could have passed away in that system.

Our Lord did not spirit beget any new one in the Jewish system after 36AD, unless they came out of the Jewish system and were baptized into the church. Similarly, he did not spirit beget any new ones in Great Babylon after 1881AD, unless they heard him knocking and came out of that system to him seeking the truth. In other words, the only ones who were spirit-begotten on either end of the age after the end of the harvest parallel, were those who came to the Lord and accepted the new wine. We can't say that everyone had to come into the Bible Student movement to be counted as having come out—we should leave their acceptance or not to the Lord. The 40-year harvest period at the end of both ages, was to allow the consecrated who were still in that system at that time to accept the new truth that was due, and to come out to the true church.

The Civil Power of Both Systems Destroyed After the 40 Years

After the closings of the both ages at the end of the 40 years—both systems were destroyed. The Jewish system was completely demolished, and the Jews were scattered all over the world, and the church-state system that had existed for over 1000 years was likewise destroyed on this end of the age. The nominal house did not have a literal temple or nation that was destroyed by 1914-18, but they did have their symbolic spiritual temple and house destroyed when the Lord spewed them out. The civil power that had been in league with them also went down during WW1. That is why most of the churches after 1914-18, became much worldlier in their thinking and doctrines—the Lord was not allowing the system the use of his Holy spirit, because he was not working with them anymore. Those who had crowns in that system would have lost them, and they would not have received any more help from the Lord after that time.

Our Lord actually warned the Jewish house what was going to happen to them in a parable, if they did not accept his invitation to the wedding feast. Through the harvest parallel, the same thing applies to the nominal house. Luke 14:18-24(18 "But they all alike began to make excuses. The first one said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land and I need to go out and look at it; please consider me excused.' 19 "Another one said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please consider me excused.' 20 "Another one said, 'I have married a wife, and for that reason I cannot come.' 21 "And the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the head of the household became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' 22 "And the slave said,

'Master, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.' 23 "And the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the highways and along the hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled. 24 'For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste of my dinner.'" NASU

The Lord is Knocking on the Door & Calling Some Out

If that's true, it might then be asked, how come we were still getting individuals out of the churches yet after 1914-18, and even yet today? He is only working with individuals after that time that open the door to him, and then he sits down with them and gives them a feast of spiritual things that are designed to help them complete their calling and election. The truth is that just as our Lord didn't deal directly with the Jewish house as his organization anymore after he judged it and cast it out, he could still call to individual Jews if they had a hearing ear and a seeing eye. The same thing is true now in that he doesn't recognize the nominal house as his organization anymore, but he can still call individuals out of it and beget them with his spirit. In a sense, we can say that those who are coming out of that system are really not coming out of the nominal house anymore, because just as the Jewish nation was destroyed after 70-73AD, the nominal house is also gone in the sense that our Lord does not recognize it anymore. Those who are coming in to the church now, are in reality coming out of the world, just as the Jews who came into the church after 70-73AD were coming out of the world. Our Lord is at this time, dealing with individuals on a one to one basis, from anyplace that he finds them, as is indicated by the parable of Luke Chapter 14.

It seems reasonable, that if God needed replacements after 1881AD or 1914, he would simply call a new individual that would be the most qualified from wherever they were in life. He would choose someone who was thirsting and seeking after truth, no matter where they were found! That could include some who were still in the fallen church system, but it could also include some who were not Christians. That is one important reason that we continue to witness to others, so that we can help those who are truly seeking after the Lord to escape from Satan's evil system. To suggest that the Lord is still working directly with the apostate churches, would negate an important aspect of the harvest time, which was to separate the saints out of the apostate church, and to judge the system as being guilty and then cast them off or spew them out.

Most of those who are spirit-begotten now, are in the Bible Student movement, but to be honest we can't exclude anyone who is earnestly seeking after the Lord. We would think that the Lord would lead them to the harvest message eventually, but we can't prove that for sure and we leave it up to him. The main thing is that they would be separated from the fallen church system, if not physically at least in their heart, recognizing the sinfulness and error of that systems spirit and doctrines.

Revelation 7:15

Revelation 7:15 "For this reason, they are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them. (NAU)

A Tent or Tabernacle

We see that regarding the Great Company, it tells us in Rev 7:15, "he shall spread his tent or tabernacle over them", rather than dwell among them. In Revelation 21:3, we find that God places his tabernacle amongst men, but not over them. Rev 21:3 and I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them; (RSV)

That helps to show us that the people of the world will not be in the cube of the building of the New Jerusalem as we will show later, but they will be limited to the court or streets, the trees of life and the water of life between the outer wall and the city. That the tent is also spread over the Great Company, shows that they are different than the earthly people in the open court, and that they are a spiritual class.

The word "tent" is a verb form of the word "tabernacle", and God is present in the tabernacle building just as it says in this scripture. That arrangement makes sense, because God is going to be in the midst of mankind, but they will not be able to come into the holy or Most Holy. That was the same situation that existed in the wilderness tabernacle, and we see no reason why God would do anything any different in the kingdom, since the wilderness tabernacle was to be a picture for us of how God's salvation would work.

This is the same tent that is spoken of in Isaiah Chapter 54, where God says to lengthen the cords and the tent stakes, showing that this salvation was going to be for all men, not just the Jews. The rest of that Chapter then describes the salvation of God, and even mentions the New Jerusalem, which is God's kingdom down on the earth.

So, we see that there is a difference in the Great Company class seen here and how they are dealt with, and the worldly class that we will see in Revelation Chapter 21. Those who would make the Great Company an earthly class, have a problem in that the two different classes and their relationship to the tabernacle are different.

That is like what we see shown in Ezekiel's temple, in that the world is not allowed to come into the holy part of the temple building, but they are only allowed in the inner court which is before the holy. The faithful 144,000 and the unfaithful Levites, which symbolize the Great Company are both allowed in the temple, and for that reason this is another good proof that the Great Company is a spiritual class. Only the 144,000 can come before God and to sit on the throne with the Lord, while the Great Company can only stand before the throne.

Ezek 44:13-14 (13 "And they shall not come near to Me to serve as a priest to Me, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are Most Holy; but they will bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. 14 "Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the house, of all its service and of all that shall be done in it. NASU

Revelation 7:16

Revelation 7:16 "They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any heat; (NAU)

Isaiah Chapter 49

No More Hunger or Thirst

We find these same words in Isaiah 49:10. Some try to use that reference to prove that the Great Company is a worldly class. For that reason, we need to examine the scriptures in Isaiah, and see what they are actually saying.

As we look at Chapter 49 in Isaiah, we find that starting in verses 6-8; God was going to give "you" for a covenant in verse 8. The one that makes the covenant, is obviously our Lord Jesus. The favorable time and the day of salvation, was the spiritual salvation that came to Israel at the First Advent, that is quoted in the New Testament. The entire Gospel Age is the day of salvation for the church.

2 Cor 6:2 for He says, "AT THE ACCEPTABLE TIME I LISTENED TO YOU, AND ON THE DAY OF SALVATION I HELPED YOU." Behold, now is "THE ACCEPTABLE TIME," behold, now is "THE DAY OF SALVATION"--

That covenant includes both a heavenly and an earthly class, just as the Abrahamic covenant pictures for us the salvation of both the stars of heaven and the sand of the sea shore. We will find both of those classes of salvation referred to in this Chapter.

*Isa 49:6 He says, "It is too small a thing that you should be My Servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the preserved ones of Israel; I will also make you a light of the nation's so that My salvation may reach to the end of the earth.

"7 Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel {and} its Holy One, to the despised One, to the One abhorred by the nation, to the Servant of rulers, "Kings will see and arise, princes will also bow down, because of the LORD who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel who has chosen you."

8 Thus says the LORD, "In a favorable time I have answered you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you; and I will keep you and give you for a covenant of the people, to restore the land, to make {them} inherit the desolate heritages;

In verse 9 of Isaiah Chapter 49, we find that Jesus began preaching to those who were in spiritual darkness. Isa 49:9 Saying to those who are bound, "Go forth,' to those who are in darkness, "Show yourselves.' Along the roads they will feed, and their pasture {will be} on all bare heights.

10 "They will not hunger or thirst, nor will the scorching heat or sun strike them down; for He who has compassion on them will lead them and will guide them to springs of water.

11 "I will make all My mountains a road, and My highways will be raised up.

12 "Behold, these will come from afar; and lo, these {will come} from the north and from the west, and these from the land of Sinim."

13 Shout for joy, O heavens! And rejoice, O earth! Break forth into joyful shouting, O mountains! For the LORD has comforted His people and will have compassion on His afflicted.

In Isaiah 49:10, we see a description that is exactly like what we see described in Revelation in several places, which proves that there is more than one salvation pictured by the Isaiah verses, "the sun will not strike them and they will not hunger or thirst anymore". Below we are going to list the different places that say some of the same things, and we are going to title them with who they represent.

(The Great Company)

Revelation 7:15-17) 15 "For this reason, they are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them.

16 "They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any heat; 17 for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes." (NAU)

Here we see that the Great Company will be saved, and they will be in the cube of the city, because God and the Lamb will spread his temple or tabernacle tent over them. That they are in the tabernacle building shows that they are a spiritual class.

(The World)

*Revelation 21:22-25) 22 I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. 23 And the city has no need of the sun or of the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp {is} the Lamb.

24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

25 In the daytime (for there will be no night there) its gates will never be closed; (NAU)

Here we see that the ones mentioned here come in through the gates. As we will show later, the first set of gates brings you into the court of the tabernacle, and that is where the highway and the water of life and the trees of life are located. This group does not go into the tabernacle building through the inner set of gates into the tabernacle, but only into the court through the gates in the wall.

(The Church)

*Revelation 22:3-5) 3 There will no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve Him;

4 they will see His face, and His name {will be} on their foreheads.

5 And there will no longer be {any} night; and they will not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign forever and ever. (NAU)

This group is obviously the church, because they will see his face, while the world will not. They also will reign forever and ever, which is only the 144,000.

We see that the kingdom comes to the worldly class in Isaiah 49:11. The highway that is mentioned there is the same highway mentioned in Isaiah 35, and it represents the earthly kingdom, since the church has had to travel in a narrow way during the Gospel Age and not on a highway.

Isa 49:11-13(11 "I will make all My mountains a road, And My highways will be raised up. 12 "Behold, these will come from afar; And lo, these will come from the north and from the west, And these from the land of Sinim." 13 Shout for joy, O heavens! And rejoice, O earth! Break forth into joyful shouting, O mountains! For the Lord has comforted His people And will have compassion on His afflicted. NASU

Isa 35:8 A highway will be there, a roadway, and it will be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean will not travel on it, but it {will} be for him who walks {that} way, and fools will not wander {on it.} (NAU)

God's intent is to restore the land or in other words, return mankind back to what had been lost by Adam in the garden. There will be no fool on that highway, but all will know exactly what is going on, and what is required to attain salvation.

Some try to use the fact that the wording of Isaiah is the same as the wording in the Revelation 7:16 account, to claim that the Great Company is an earthly class. As seen above, the same wording found in Isaiah is used in a similar wording in three different places in Revelation, to identify all three classes of salvation, the church, the Great Company, and the world. For that reason, the Isaiah Chapter 49 references do not show only the earthly salvation, but it shows much, much more, in that it shows all of God's Plan of salvation. In the Isaiah reference when we see Jesus make the covenant, after that is when the salvation comes to all three classes of salvation.

We find that the things said to the Great Company in Revelation, are also true of the church in other scriptures. If we look at John 6:35, we find that Jesus is going to give food and drink to anyone that comes to him. In Isaiah 4:6, we find: And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain. (KJV)

The New Jerusalem is not limited to just the Great Company, but will also include the world and the 144,000 of the church, as we discussed above. The world will be there, but they will be in the court, while the 144,000 and the Great Company will be in the tabernacle portion as shown in the Ezekiel Chapter 44 prophecy. The higher the reward, the closer you will be able to approach to God. Only the faithful 144,000 of the church will be able to be with God and Jesus on the throne. The Great Company is before the throne, and the world is in the court.

These verses are saying that God is going to protect anyone from destructive influence, as long as they are under his protection. This is like the picture that we see in Ps 91:1, where we are protected by being under the wings or protection of the Heavenly Father. If we look at this as being God's tabernacle arrangement, as long as we stay in that arrangement we will be protected. If we symbolically leave the camp or God's covenant arrangement, we are leaving his protection. That is true of the church, the Great Company, and even the world.

The food and water that are found in these verses are not literal, but they represent spiritual sustenance that any spirit being would need to live, just as earthly beings need literal food and water, John 4:14.

Revelation 7:17

Revelation 7:17 for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes."* (NAU)

Weeping & Gnashing of Teeth

That there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, is found in the Gospels about those who didn't do what they should have. That they are weeping and gnashing afterward, indicates they realize that they missed out on the opportunity for the 144,000, and that it's too late when they see that they failed. Jesus warned the Jews, that the weeping and gnashing of teeth would apply to them because of their unbelief. The same thing is true of the spiritual class that fails and becomes Great Company during the Gospel Age. That is why the Great Company has tears in their eyes that need to be dried, in that they realize they have failed and lost the opportunity of the Gospel Age high calling. God will wipe their tears from their eyes, because they will be able to be rescued by the blood of the Lamb, and thereby still drink from the springs of the water of life and salvation.

Matt 22:11-14 (11 "But when the king came in to look over the dinner guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed in wedding clothes, 12 and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here without wedding clothes?' And the man was speechless. 13 "Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' 14 "For many are called, but few are chosen." NASU)

The Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne here, is the same Lamb or Christ that we see in Revelation 5:6.

Again in verse 14, it is emphasizing that the Great Company's salvation is because of the Lamb and his blood. The words "shall feed them", can be translated "shall be their shepherd". That is the same word "shepherd", that we find in Revelation 2:27, where our Lord Jesus says that he is going to rule or shepherd them with the rod of iron. If they need any correction, the Lamb will supply it to them so that they can be saved.

Chapter 8
Seal 7
Revelation 8:1

Revelation 8:1 When the Lamb broke the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. (NAU)

1873.75AD-???????

One question that came up about this seal, is does it follows the events of Chapter 7 or start a new vision, because there is no obvious “I saw” at the beginning of this Chapter? The conclusion of the Study Group was that it should be understood as a break from the previous prophecy of the 144,000 and the Great Company—because chapter 7 was a parentheses between the sixth and the seventh seal. It appears that all the messages to the churches, the seals, and the trumpets, run concurrent at the same time, if not at the same exact time. If the events of this chapter followed chapter 7 and not the sixth seal, that would not fit into the previous pattern of sequential seals. As we go through the seventh seal, we believe that we will be able to show that starting this seal in 1874AD or 1878AD is the correct decision. It may be that the opening of each seal prepares the way for each corresponding trumpet, but the two events should be at the beginning of the same church period.

One thing for sure about this being the seventh seal, is that seven represents completeness. Christ has gradually through the Gospel Age unsealed one seal at a time, and now we can see what had been hidden inside the scroll from the foundations of the world.

There is an interesting contrast between this seal and the previous six. When this seal is opened, there is silence in heaven, but when the previous six were opened, the first five had complaints about the things that were being done wrong. The first four seals had complaints from each of the Living Creatures, the fifth had the voices of those slain that were crying out for vengeance, and the sixth one had a great earthquake and voices of terror from the guilty ones who were in fear because of the things coming upon the earth. The seventh seal does not seem to have anything happen that is obvious for the space of a half an hour. Since this was the seventh seal, we would have expected the punishment to have continued and intensified against the evil system that had begun in the sixth seal. Why is there silence for a half an hour instead? We are going to suggest that it represents the period of the 40-year harvest time after the judgment of 1874-78. That time needed to transpire before the punishment would resume, because the saints needed time to come out of her my people before the punishment could begin. We will look at that in more detail after we look at what the seventh seal represents.

Judgment in the Seventh Seal!

One hint as to what is going on in this Seal, is that we believe that the seventh and open seal reveals the judgment that was due to come upon the apostate church for all that they had done wrong and what they had done against the faithful church during the previous six churches. The pronouncement of judgment, as shown by the 1845 year parallel, was due to happen in 1878 with the system being judged guilty in 1878, and then with it losing its exclusive favor after 1881. At the time of the unsealing of this scroll, all was going to be revealed, but a lot of what was revealed was not believed by the evil system.

To confirm the theme of judgment in the seventh seal, there is a table showing the correspondence between the churches, seals, trumpets, and bowls, in the forward to the seven seals.

Remember that the wheat and the tares were to grow together throughout the Gospel Age, but at the end of the age they were to be separated one from the other, and the tares burned. That same situation is also described in the parable of the dragnet, where all the good and the bad fish are pulled ashore. Then the bad fish are cast back, and only the good were kept.

The Message to Church the Seal & the Trumpet Were All About Judgment

The seventh trumpet also tells us that it was time for the dead to be judged, to give the reward to the bondservants of our Lord, and to destroy those who destroy the earth. So in the study, we saw that judgment was a common theme in the message to the period of the seventh church, as well as the seventh trumpet. That both the message to the seventh church and the seventh trumpet were pointing to judgment, seems to without a doubt imply that the opening of the seventh seal should contain judgment also.

We will see more about that Judgment in Revelation Chapter 10, where we will see the scroll again—where it is shown as being open. After the days of the seventh angel is mentioned in Chapter ten, then we see the anticipation of punishment, because the scroll was sweet in John’s mouth, but bitter in his stomach. The parallel references to Ezekiel, where we see the same scroll, show us that severe punishment was coming because of the judgment. The same Old Testament scroll in Ezekiel, was written on both sides with lamentations, mourning, and woe. Both of those scriptural areas indicate that something very serious was going to happen to those who did not pass the judgment that was due at that time. Chapter ten of Revelation, as well as Chapters 2 and 3 of Ezekiel, again confirms for us that at the very least, that the release of the seventh seal of the scroll was representing judgment and the coming punishment. Ezek 2:10 And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

A big confirmation to us that the opening of the seventh seal means judgment, is shown in the parallel that shows the correspondence between Matt Chapter 24, and the seven seals. See the table showing that parallel in the explanation just before the comments on seal one, close to the other one we mentioned above. The seven seals match different parts of the prophecy of Matt Chapter 24. We saw that the sixth seal was describing the events of Matt 24:29-34. We then saw that the parallel continued for the seventh seal, and we found judgment in the verses immediately after verse 34. We see that to be true in several places, in that judgment is mentioned in the parable of the faithful and wise servant. We also see it in the parable of the ten virgins, and again in the parable of the talents.

We even see it in the parable of the sheep and the goats which are mentioned last. That progression of judgments is also correct, in that we know judgment starts with the house of God, but we also know that the world will also be judged after the church’s judgment is complete. 1 Pet 4:17-18) 17 For {it is} time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if {it} {begins} with us first, what {will be} the outcome for those who do not obey the Gospel of God? 18 AND IF IT IS WITH DIFFICULTY THAT THE RIGHTEOUS IS SAVED, WHAT WILL BECOME OF THE GODLESS MAN AND THE SINNER? (NAU)

The Silence For the Space of Half an Hour Only Until Harvest Done!

Regarding the space of a half an hour, we had some difficulty in the study of coming up with a convincing explanation for what the space of a half an hour was at first. One possibility that has occurred to us after the study was over, which we are still looking at, is that it may be that there was silence in heaven because of the anticipation of the punishment that was going to come later, but that nothing was going to happen for the symbolic period of about a half an hour. As we saw earlier, each of the previous seals right away either had complaints about what was being done wrong, or we saw the people in fear because of what was happening to them. In this seal, nothing is said for half an hour, and when we look at what is historically going on at the time, it seems that was because the harvest was busily trying to get those who had crowns to “come out of her my people”, before the plagues were due to fall on the church and state system, Rev 18:4. In other words, the punishment was being held off until the harvest time was over, so that all who were willing could hear the message, and hopefully come out to the truth—then the silence was going to end, and it did.

How to Calculate The Time of the Half An Hour

The one method of calculation that seems to arrive at the right amount of time for the above explanation, requires that we use the scriptures that say that one day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and there are several scriptures that say that, both in the Old Testament and the New Testament. Even when we look at those scriptures we find that a 24-hour day does not provide any length of time that makes sense, but we found out that the Jews actually had “12 hours for the day”, the hours of which varied in length because of the change in the seasons and three watches in the night—which changed to four when the Romans took control. One historical source said that the common Jews only recognized a 12-hour day, and they ignored the night because they did not have any good light source at the time. Before the invention of a clock that didn’t require the sun, there was no way to measure more than 12 hours, and so the term day a lot of the time meant only the 12 hours in which they could do their work.

<http://adsabs.harvard.edu/full/1941JRASC..35..163P>

We also note that Gill’s commentary points out the same thing regarding the 12-hour day.

“Gill’s Exposition of the Entire Bible

Jesus answered, are there not twelve hours in the day? So the Jews reckoned, and so they commonly say (a), "twelve hours are a day", or a day consists of twelve hours, which they divided into four parts, each part consisting of three hours this was a matter well known, and Christ puts the question as such, it being what might be easily answered, and at once assented to.” See John 11:9.

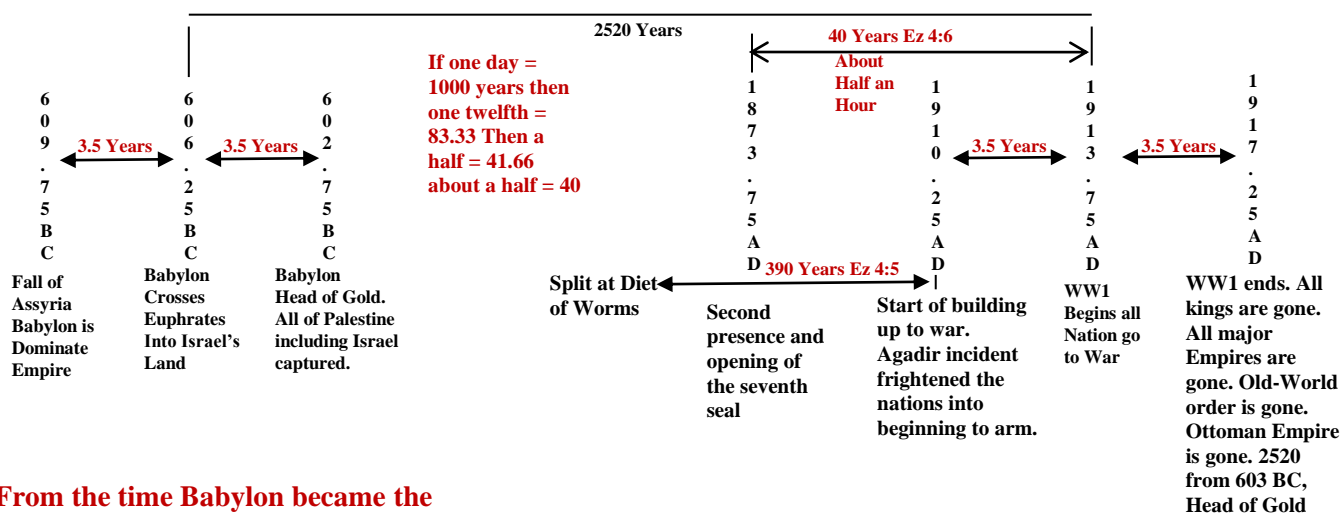

So, the question becomes, was God talking about the 12 hours of daylight or a full 24-hour day? We decided to try the 12-hour day, and when we did that we got a rounded off 83.33 years for one hour. That would make one-half of an hour equal 41.66 years. “About” a half an hour could then reasonably be 40 years to 1914.

The space of 40 years would make perfect sense here, because we believe that the seal was opened in 1873.75AD. The silence in heaven was during the 40 years of the harvest, which had to transpire before the punishment and destruction could fall upon the system in 1913.75AD, which is Oct 1914. At that point in time, the silence regarding the judgment and punishment that was due was over, and the punishment could begin. As history shows, it became very noisy in the heavens and the earth in Sept-Oct of 1914!

To confirm that the 40 years is correct, when we get to Chapter 10 which uses the complete scroll again, and we bring in the book of Ezekiel and the scroll there, we will find that there is chronology in Ezekiel that point's right to the 40-year harvest time. We have the 1845 years that is pointed to by the vision of Chapter one, and we also have the 390 and 40 from Chapter 4 in the table below. The 390 points to 1911 and the Agadir crisis, and the 40 points exactly to 1914AD, just as the 40 we calculated here does. See the chronology book "Biblical Count of the Years-B2".

Silence in Heaven For About a Half an Hour

*Ezek 4:4-8 (4 "Then lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel upon yourself. You are to bear their sin for the number of days you lie on your side. 5 I have assigned you the same number of days as the years of their sin. So for 390 days you will bear the sin of the house of Israel. 6 "After you have finished this, lie down again, this time on your right side, and bear the sin of the house of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year. 7 Turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem and with bared arm prophesy against her. 8 I will tie you up with ropes so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished the days of your siege. From the time Babylon became the Dominate Empire until it controlled all of Palestine, was seven years. From the time Palestine was attacked until Neb controlled all of it was 3.5 years. The Old Testament dates given here are based on the corrected and the Enhanced Chronology of the book "Biblical Count of the Years".

From the time punishment began, until the full end of Gentile Times was seven years. From the time WW1 began, until the control of the gentile kings was gone, was 3.5 years.

What are left of the pieces of the Image that was shattered in 1914-18, are smaller pieces of the original

Empires. Daniel Chapter 2 shows that they will be further ground into smaller pieces, and that has happened, just as predicted. Once the pieces are small enough, the wind will blow them away, and the stone which is Christ will join with the completed body members, and they will grow into a symbolic mountain or kingdom, that fills the earth—the New Jerusalem coming down to earth.

Revelation is a Court Case Recorded in Advance

The book of revelation is like a court case, in which God has used the six preceding seals to describe and show us what the fallen church system had done wrong. In the seventh seal, he has brought this evil system before the judgment seat to declare their guilt. Dan 7:26 But the court will sit {for judgment,} (1799-1874) and his dominion will be taken away (1914), annihilated and destroyed forever. (????AD) (NAS)
Revelation 19:1-2) 1 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God;
2 BECAUSE HIS JUDGMENTS ARE TRUE AND RIGHTEOUS; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and HE HAS AVENGED THE BLOOD OF HIS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER."(NAU)

Since they were found guilty, after 40 years of the harvest he could then begin to avenge the saints and to begin the system's destruction. We do need to remember that the power of the system is being destroyed, and any chance that they would have had for a higher reward, but the individuals will saved but as through fire, 1 Cor 3:10-15. No one will question the punishment that comes on them, as well as no one would be able to or willing to defend them. It should be obvious to everyone that they are guilty as charged!

SEVEN TRUMPETS

Revelation 8:2-5

Revelation 8:2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

Revelation 8:3 Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer; and much incense was given to him, so that he might add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne.

Revelation 8:4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

Revelation 8:5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there followed peals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake. (NAU)

During our study of this section of Revelation, a question came up about these verses. The question is why are we being shown the seven angels being given trumpets, and then before we see what the trumpets are, we are shown the vision of the angel at the golden incense altar? It's not certain, but it seems likely that before we are shown what the trumpets are going to reveal about what's going to happen, we are shown the help that God is supplying to the saints of the entire Gospel age, so that the church will be able to overcome the evil that is going to be revealed in the trumpets. That help is the incense that our Lord Jesus as high priest has supplied to the entire Gospel age—which makes our prayers acceptable before God. This seems to correspond to the two hands full of incense that the high priest used to offer daily, so that the prayers of the people would be heard. This incense, which is being shown to us in the heavenly tabernacle, is much more effective in making our prayers acceptable than anything that was ever done in the earthly tabernacle.

As we will see when we examine the trumpets, the church is going to have a very hard and difficult time because of the corruption and power of the evil system that was going to come, and they were going to need all the help that they could get. That the trumpets are shown first, shows us that the prophecy that is found in them and which is going to be revealed, was known to God from the foundation of the earth, because the trumpets are going to be revealing the history of the Gospel Age to us.

When we looked at the idea that some might have, believing that the seven angels with the seven trumpets were the earthly messengers, and that the seventh one was Pastor Russell, we ran into a serious question that needed to be explained, because earthly beings could not stand before God in a literal sense.

If we assume that they each messenger stood before God, one at a time, each in his own age, then the seven angels that sounded the trumpets, could be the same seven earthly angels with the bowls, and that would make them the same as the seven messengers to the churches. The reason that we believe that they could be the same angels, is because each bowl of wrath is related back to its corresponding trumpet, as we will show later on. That they stood before the God of heaven in order to receive the trumpets, and they later on come out of the temple after they were given the seven bowls of wrath, shows us that the punishment came directly from God, in both the trumpets and the bowls.

An alternative way of looking at this is that these angels are only in the Ecclesiastical heavens, and that they are not literally standing before God, even though the scripture says that they are. It is also true that the word used for God is Theos, which is not necessarily Jehovah. We would then have to look at the seven stars in Jesus hand, as being the seven angels that stand before Jesus who was a Theos.

Why the Incense Altar?

Before we see the trumpeting of alarms regarding what is going to happen in the Gospel Age, we are going to be shown another part of the heavenly tabernacle which is the incense altar, and we see our Lord there offering much incense with the prayers of the saints. One important thing that we are being shown here in a symbolic picture, is how the faithful saint's prayers are being made acceptable by what Christ the high priest has done for us with his sacrifice on the cross. The incense was offered in the morning and in the evening offerings, and it was also offered on the Day of Atonement. The coals of fire that were on the incense altar, which were used to burn the incense, were taken off the main altar which we believe is shown in verse 5. So, in a symbolic picture, we see that Christ's sacrifice had been placed on the altar in the court, and the coals from that altar is what makes the burning of the incense possible on the incense altar. The sweet smell of the incense that the angel has added to the altar here makes the prayers of the saints acceptable.

Reason Judgment Seats Changed to Bowls of Incense in Chapter 5

One other point we need to make here, is that in Revelation Chapter 4 where we saw the 24 seats of judgment of the law, in Chapter 5 after the Lamb was found faithful the seats turned into 24 bowls full of incense—which now cover the failings of the church and makes our prayers acceptable.

That this incense in both places is directly related to what Christ had done for us on the cross by shedding his blood, is a good reason why it's being shown here before the trumpets are blown. A very key thing that we are going to see in the trumpets, is the decline of the church and the loss of the knowledge regarding the salvation that Christ had secured for the church, a part of which we see here in the incense that covers us and our prayers in the Most Holy. In the first trumpet, we will see a bad thing, in the casting down into the earth of hail, fire and blood—a rejection of the blood by the Jews and some in the early church who were corrupting its meaning. Later, starting with the fifth trumpet, we will see the knowledge of that salvation beginning to be restored by the reformers in the time of the woe trumpets.

The Day Of Atonement Offered Incense for Both Ages

As we will discuss a little further onward, the offering of incense was also a major part of the Day of Atonement sacrifices, and so what we see here is going to show us how the incense is going to be available to help the church through the entire Gospel Age. It will also be available to the world in the next age, because the Day of Atonement covers both ages. The bullock was offered first for the High Priest and his household, which symbolizes our Lord and the heavenly church. The Lord's goat was offered second, for the people, which represents the world. This vision also confirms that the Day of Atonement has already begun at the First Advent for the household class, the church.

When we see what evil is going to be revealed by the seven trumpets, we will see that the church will need the power and help of prayer all through the age.

Ps 141:1-2 (1 LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Our Lord Jesus is the High Priest

The vision of the high priest here, shows us our Lord Jesus as high priest, and what he has done for us that makes our prayers acceptable to the Heavenly Father, and that is why we are accepted as sons. No matter how bad things get, we are assured that the Heavenly Father will hear our prayers and answer them, and render vengeance against those who do evil things to the church during the Gospel Age. It might not happen in an instant, but we can be assured that all evil will be avenged for us, and we will receive help after the time of testing has passed for us.

The Bronze Altar

In verse 5, we see another altar mentioned that is the bronze altar, because it does not tell us that this one is golden. The other thing is that the coals of fire that are used to burn the incense, were always taken off the bronze altar, and that is what the angel did when he cast the coals of fire into the earth. We see the same thing pictured in Ezekiel Chapter 10, and there it shows that the coals are taken off the sacrificial altar. Since the bronze altar is where our Lord's sacrifice, which was symbolized by the bullock was burned, those coals of fire represent the ransom doctrine. That doctrine is what everyone in the Gospel Age will be tested by, as shown by the three times we see the lightning, thunder and earthquakes, here in this chapter at the beginning of the age, and later in the seventh trumpet and the seventh seal.

Ezek 10:2 And He spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, "Enter between the whirling wheels under the cherubim and fill your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And he entered in my sight. NASU

Ezek 10:6-7 (6 It came about when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," he entered and stood beside a wheel. 7 Then the cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire which was between the cherubim, took some and put it into the hands of the one clothed in linen, who took it and went out. NASU

Coals of Fire Cast upon Jewish House

It's also significant that we see a judgment and punishment pictured here again in the altar scene, as represented in the casting of the coals of fire on the earth. At this point in the church, the only thing that was under judgment was the Jewish house, and that is who our Lord is casting the coals of the fire on. We will see that same thing pictured by the complete destruction of all the green grass in the first trumpet. In the Isaiah Chapter 6 prophecy, we see that John was given forgiveness by the coal off the altar, but the rest of the nation was going to be removed from the land until the time that the root of the Abrahamic promise or stump would begin to grow again. The Jews at the First Advent who accepted the ransom doctrine, who are pictured in the cleansing of Isaiah by the coal of fire off the altar, were saved and became part of the church, but the rest were carried away to all the nations in the world until the end of the time of their punishment. That's when Israel will be adopted back into the root of the Abrahamic promise. The destruction of the Jewish system in Isaiah

Chapter 6, is also a picture of what is going to happen to the nominal house on this end of the age 1845 years later, because they had also rejected the ransom that the Lord secured on the cross, and substituted their own false salvation in its place.

After the vision of the incense altar ends, then we are shown the vision of the seven trumpets, and they will show us step by step how grievous error took over the church, and how the church became involved with the Roman Empire. The Christians that believe that the trumpets are showing us a vision of truth which is saving people for Christ, ignore the fact that the church was in a quick decline and falling away from the time of the first church and onward. Paul gave the church many warnings about what was going on even while he was still with them, and he was warning them that the grievous wolves would come in after he was gone. At the beginning of the seals, we added a table that shows the similarities between the messages to the churches, the seals and the trumpets and the table is showing us the quick decline of the church in all three columns.

In the incense scene in the last verse, just before the first trumpet sounds, we see fire cast into the earth, which causes lightning and voices and thundering and an earthquake. The same symbols of lightning's and voices and thundering and an earthquake, are found in the seventh trumpet and the seventh bowl of wrath. The Study Group was not sure at first, if the casting of the coals of fire into the earth was something that was done at the time of the early church. We eventually concluded that this was actually done at the First Advent, and that it first came into opposition to the nation of Israel, because they had rejected Christ and the blood of the atonement. Those coals of fire remain in the earth as a test against anyone else that rejects or corrupts the understanding of the ransom, which happened very early in the church. We will see the thunders, lightning and earthquakes twice more before we are done with our study of Revelation—once more in the seventh trumpet, and once again in the seventh bowl of wrath.

At the end of the age, we see through the 1845-year parallel that it is again bringing the fire of the altar with judgment and destruction upon the apostate church for what they have done to his faithful church, and because of their also having destroyed and rejected the truth about the blood of the covenant and the ransom. We are going to try to show what that means in more detail as we look at the verses in this vision.

Rev 8:5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. (KJV)

*Rev 11:19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

Rev 16:18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. (KJV)

The Key Doctrine of the Ransom Was Lost by Nominal House

One of the key doctrines that were lost with the decline of the church, was how we are saved by the blood of the Lord, and how that blood relates to the salvation of both the church and the world. The coals of fire on the altar seen here and in Isaiah, and Ezekiel, represent the completed sin offering and the sacrifice of our Lord, which had been consumed by the fire of the brazen altar and offered up to God. The fire that is on that altar, was taken off the bronze sacrificial altar and brought to the incense altar at the start of this vision. The picture we see here is of the high priest offering incense up to God, and we see that incense is what makes the prayers of all the saints acceptable. Prior to the time of our high priest Jesus, and the blood of the cross and the sin offering for us, we had no assurance that our prayers would be heard by God. We are now able to come before

God as sons, and offer up a prayer to him because of what the Lord did on the cross. We can also ask forgiveness for any trespass that we have committed, and if we are repentant we will be forgiven.

In the trumpets, we will see the salvation and the knowledge of what Christ had accomplished for us regarding salvation being eroded away, doctrine after doctrine, through at least the first four trumpets, which are symbolically being turned into 666—as we will explain. After those four trumpets, beginning with the three woe trumpets, we will see our Lord begin to punish and wear down the power of the church and state system with the three woe trumpets, and at the same time he began to restore the truths that had been lost. We might look on the first 4 trumpets as being a call to alarm about the evil that was coming upon the church, and then the last three woe trumpets as a call to battle for the faithful of the church!

Nominal House Fails the Test of the Ransom On This End of the Age

When the coals of fire off the incense altar are again cast into the earth in the seventh trumpet and in the seventh bowl of wrath, the false doctrines of the nominal system like the Trinity and the mass came into conflict with it, hence the lightnings, thundering, voices, and the earthquake. The Faithful Church receives a blessing from the understanding of the ransom and sin offering, but the fallen church is shown to be in direct conflict with it. The Trinity doctrine is in direct conflict with the idea that the man Christ Jesus died for the man Adam, and they don't even believe that he actually died, because they think; how could God die? Most of the churches don't believe that he died because of their false doctrines. They think he may have died as a man, but not as God. We are not sure of why the coals were cast out three times, unless they were three witnesses.

The reason for the scriptural conflict, is their belief that Jesus was God in the flesh, which is what the Trinity doctrine claims. If the claim that he was God was true, then he couldn't have been an exact or corresponding price for Adam and the entire race, because the exact price had to be a perfect human being. The Trinity doctrine claims that Jesus was 100% man and a 100% God at the same time. Since God + man is not an exact price, then they cannot believe in the idea of the economy of the ransom, which is why Christ died for Adam and thereby redeemed all the race that was in his loins. If they admitted that was what was accomplished by Christ, then they would have to admit that he was not God when he was here on earth, and they can't do that without destroying their erroneous Trinity doctrine. If they say he was God and man and that only the man died, then he did not really die. John warns the church about those who were going to be advocating that erroneous doctrine.

2 John 7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. NASU

That we see the same type of symbols of doctrinal conflict in the seventh trumpet, and in the seventh bowl of wrath shows that the ransom doctrine was to be an important test, not only throughout the entire age, but that it would become an important issue to God in the testing and separating of the faithful during the seventh church at the end of the age, just before the kingdom.

Picture of Atonement Day

The angel at the altar is separate from the other seven and represents our Lord Jesus as high priest.

Heb 8:1-2) 8:1The point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, 2 and who serves in the sanctuary, the tabernacle set up by

the Lord, not by man NIV

That the golden incense altar and the golden censer are all seen here, indicates that this is a picture of the start of the Day of Atonement sacrifices. The reason we say that, is because the golden censer was used only on the Day of Atonement by the high priest, who filled it with coals of fire from the altar in the court, and then filled it with burning incense and carried it into the Most Holy, where the smoke of the burning incense covered the mercy seat so that he would not die when he placed the blood of the bullock on the mercy seat. The same thing was true when he secondly placed the blood of the Lord's goat on the mercy seat for the people of the world. The angel who represents the Lord Jesus in this vision, for that reason would have just completed the sacrifice of the bullock for the church in the outer court, and we are being shown some of the merit or benefit that comes from what he did for us on the cross, by the burning of the incense for all the prayers of the saints.

According to Alfred Edersheim (1825-1889), who was a converted Jew and who was a leading authority on Jewish practices just before the Christian era, the golden censor seen here was a special golden censor that was used only on the Day of Atonement. The priest would take coals of fire from the bronze altar of the burnt offering, with the special golden censor used only on that day, and he would then carry the coals into the temple placing the censor full of coals with the incense from the incense altar added to it, into the Most Holy, so that the smoke would fill the Most Holy. That description is the way it's thought that it was done in the time of Jesus, and that may be a little different than what was done in the original wilderness tabernacle.

Until the smoke filled the Most Holy, the high priest could not physically enter in to offer the blood without dying. When the smoke had completely filled the Most Holy, he could then take the blood of the bullock, which he had previously slain and collected into the Most Holy, where he sprinkled it seven times on the mercy seat. Later in history, when the mercy seat was not there anymore, instead of placing the censor in between the staves of the ark, as had originally been done, they placed a stone called the foundation stone with a hole in it, which was made to accept the censor. Also, after the mercy seat had been lost along with the rest of the ark, the blood was then sprinkled towards where the mercy seat would have been sitting, since they had no place else to sprinkle it!

That the blood of the bullock was sprinkled seven times, shows that this was a complete and perfect sacrifice and that it was able to make full atonement for all who come to the high priest Jesus. That it's sprinkled seven times, may also indicate the seven different stages of the church that occur during the Gospel Age. That we are seeing the Lord Jesus with much incense, shows that he has already placed the blood on the mercy seat, and he is being shown offering up the prayers of the saints, who are now justified by the blood of the Lord.

That the same thing was done secondly with the Lord's goats blood, shows that there will be a second phase of the plan of God in which the world will come under the merit of the Lord's sacrifice and they will be offered the opportunity to be restored back to the perfection and standing with God that Adam had before he fell. The second sprinkling will start at the beginning of the Millennial age.

Christ as high priest, just as the type in Leviticus specified, has burnt the incense which represents the perfect abilities and intention that he had during the 3.5 years regarding the Plan of God. In other words, he was able to satisfy justice, showing that a perfect man could keep the law, and thus he was able to place his perfect sacrifice of blood on the mercy seat. Also, because of the things he learned and suffered during his life, he is now able to help those who follow in his footsteps.

Heb 2:17-18 (17 For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. 18 Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. NIV

Since he has done that perfectly, he was then able to enter the heavenly tabernacle and to offer the better sacrifice of his blood and life for us the church first and for the world after the church is complete. Just as the type in Leviticus canceled the sins of the people, so here and on a much grander scale, Christ has done that once and for all ages, canceling all sin for all people. That is shown being done in two stages, for two different ages, as shown by the bullock and the Lord goat's blood being offered one after the other. Because the bullock's blood has been placed on the mercy seat at the beginning of the Gospel Age, all the prayers of the saints are now acceptable before God and the church can be counted as sons of God.

We Can Follow Christ Into the Most Holy As Body Members

So, what we see here is a picture of what Christ had done for us, in that we can enter the Most Holy as members of his body, because of the new and living way that he opened for us. Just as the incense was burned in the original tabernacle, making it possible for the high priest to enter the Most Holy, we see that our Lord has done the same thing in the heavenly tabernacle, making it possible for him to enter in as well as all of those who are members of his body. We cannot enter in by ourselves, but we can only do that by being a member of the body of the high priest, Christ—only the high priest could enter the Most Holy—not the under priests, and so we enter as part of his body. Because of that, we are now able to approach the Father as sons of God, and we can pray directly to him, whereas before we couldn't call him Father. The prayers of a son are much more acceptable and able to be answered more fully, than the prayers of a stranger.

Rom 8:15 For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, "Abba! Father!" (NAU)

*Heb 10:19-22) 19 Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus,

20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh,

21 and since {we have} a great priest over the house of God,

22 let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled {clean} from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. (NAU)

The golden incense altar that we see here in Revelation Chapter 8, is another article of furniture belonging to the heavenly tabernacle. This is a continuation of the tabernacle scene that we saw in Chapters 4 & 5. It wasn't mentioned in Chapter 4 or 5, but we know from the original tabernacle that there was an incense altar in it. We also see the bronze altar in this Chapter, which is where the sacrifice of the bullock was burned, and the blood collected for the mercy seat. For more information on why the vision of Chapter 4 and 5, is describing the heavenly tabernacle that Moses saw, we refer you to the earlier notes on the verses in both of those Chapters.

In Both Morning & Evening

Another picture that we see regarding incense, is that in the type of the law, they burned incense both in the morning and at evening while they were offering prayers to God. The incense was to have been kept burning through the entire day, so that shows us that the help for us in a time of need is available through the entire Gospel Age day, or at any time that the saints needed it. We are not sure, but it may be that the morning and the evening offering of incense, may be showing us the heavenly and the earthly salvation.

Heb 4:14-16 (14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. 15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are — yet was without sin. 16 Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need. NIV

When we had earlier considered Revelation 5:8, we saw that each of the 24 elders had golden bowls full of incense, that it told us were the prayers of the saints, and we wondered why the 24 elders or the Old Testament scriptures would have bowls filled with the prayers of the saints. The conclusion that we came to was that the term saints as it is used in Chapter 5, seems to represent not only the church but it also represents all the righteous prophets who are symbolized by the 24 elders. Those prophets had also in Old Testament times prayed to God for help and deliverance from evil, and many of those prayers were at least partially answered during the time of the prophets. But other very important and greater parts of the prayers could not be fully answered at the time of the prophet, because they were going to need the time of the Millennial kingdom to be fully answered. Because of what Christ our high priest has done, all those prayers regarding restoration and salvation that the 24 elders gave, will be able to be answered in due time.

That would include prophecies or prayers that for example, asked how long before God was going to do something about wickedness. Hab 1:2-4) 2 How long, O LORD, will I call for help, and you will not hear? I cry out to you, "Violence!" Yet you do not save.

3 Why do you make me see iniquity, and cause {me} to look on wickedness? Yes, destruction and violence are before me; strife exists and contention arises.

4 Therefore the law is ignored and justice is never upheld. For the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice comes out perverted. (NAU)

God's answer can now go forward.

Hab 1:5 "Look among the nations! Observe! Be astonished! Wonder! Because {I am} doing something in your days-- you would not believe if you were told. (NAU

Don't Miss the "I Saw"

Since we have an "I saw" here, that indicates that the vision of the blowing of the trumpets, does not follow in chronological order after the seals, but it's a separate vision that deals with a new topic and time-frame. Some think that the trumpets must follow directly after the seals, but they miss the fact that this is a new vision. If we don't recognize the breaks in the prophecy, Revelation becomes confusing and contradictory, but if we recognize the breaks in their proper places, it can then be harmonized. We think that the new vision of the seven angels with the trumpets, backs us up to the time of the early church and the salvation that was provided there, and starts us over again at the same time as the first church and the first seal.

Because of this vision, we see that the church needs to remain faithful to the doctrine of the ransom. If any of the church such as the apostate church system which fell away loses sight of that truth, they come into conflict with the coals of fire that were cast into the earth by our Lord when he was at the incense altar. If we are doing what we should, and if we have a proper view of the salvation of God, the coals of fire are beneficial because they cleanse us from sin as we saw happen in Isaiah Chapter 6, but if you have taken off your robe because you don't think you need it, watch out, because you will be cast out at the end of the age.

Isa 6:5-7 (5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphim's unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. (KJV)

The Nominal House Fell & they Also Lost their Civil Power

The calamity and time of trouble came against the Nominal house starting in 1914AD, and it removed all the kings who had been a part of the church and state system. That was the end of the silence of a half an hour, and WW1 made things very noisy. The harlot still exists after that trouble, but she is sitting in the dust in widowhood, even though she had claimed that would never happen to her. In the time of Ezekiel, the same kind of judgment had fallen upon Judah, and they were judged and were punished for being in violation of the law—they also lost their civil power. The same thing was true at the Second Advent where the Jews lost their nation and land. On this end of the age, the violation is the denying of the ransom and all who oppose that foundational truth will symbolically be consumed by the coals of fire. They will lose their chance for the high calling and will become Great Company or only retain an earthly salvation, because the Lord will not accept them if they think that the abomination of the mass is going to save them.

Some Examples Of the Use of Trumpets in Scripture

Mt. Sinai, Exod 19:16

To announce the coronation of the king (Solomon), 1 King 1:34.

To announce the winning of a battle, 1 Sam 13:3

When the Israelites entered Jericho, Josh 6:3-9

To announce the Second Coming, 1 Thes 4:16, Zeph 1:14-18, Mat 24:31, 1 Cor 15:51-52.

Warning of Coming conflict, Joel 2:1

Calling the people together and having the camp move on, Num 10:2.

Dedication of the temple, 2 Chron 5:12-13.

To announce the Day of Atonement, Lev 25:9 and feast days Num 10:10

To announce the start of a battle, and feast days, Num 10:9-10.

To announce the arrival of the Ark of the Covenant into Jerusalem, 1 Chron 15:24.

To announce disaster because of sin, Isa 58:1, Jer 4:4-6, Jer 6:1,16-19, 51:25-29, Ezek 33:1-8, Hosea 7:16, 8:1, Amos 3:6.

Four & Three Trumpets

A trumpet is sounded to call the attention of those within hearing distance. There are plenty of scriptures, that show that a trumpet is used to announce a disaster that's coming because of people's sin. We think that is one of the primary purposes of at least the first four trumpets. They will be showing us what was being done wrong, and how it was negatively affecting God's church. In other words, the first four trumpets are trumpets of alarm regarding what was happening to God's people.

Joel 2:1 Blow a trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm on My holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming; surely it is near, (NAU)

The last three or "woe" trumpets are different than the first four, in that they show what God was beginning to do to correct the problems shown by the first four trumpets. He used the woe trumpets to show what he was doing in order to go to battle for the church, which was especially by bringing forth and restoring truth, and he also began to expose and to weaken the evil system so that the church could escape and symbolically flee to the mountains of God.

Matt 24:15-16 (15 When therefore ye see the Abomination of Desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let him that readeth understand), 16 then let them that are in Judaea flee unto the mountains: ASV)

3 Woes & 7 Bowls Pictured by 10 Plagues Egypt

The last three "woe" trumpets can be compared to and be pictured by the plagues of Egypt, because with the three woe trumpets and the seven bowls of wrath, we have ten plagues which is the same amount as the plagues of Egypt. The 10 plagues in the time of Egypt, were given to help and free God's people, because Pharaoh wouldn't let God's people leave to worship him, "Exodus 9:13". They were enslaved in Egypt, picturing the world in slavery to sin and death in Satan's system. In the plagues of Egypt, the first 3 were on both the Israelites and the Egyptians, and they picture the three woe trumpets. The last 7 plagues were only on the Egyptians, and they picture the 7 bowls of wrath that are designed to punish the fallen church system. Just like the last seven plagues didn't harm or damage the Israelites at all, the seven bowls of wrath don't damage the faithful saints at all, but only Satan's worldwide system. The three woes helped the church to escape, and the seven bowls of wrath besides representing punishment on the evil system, are designed to wear down the power of the system, so that the people of the world can escape into the promised land of the kingdom. Just as in the time of Egypt, the intent of the plagues is to both free God's people, as well as to punish the unfaithful and evil system for the harm that they did to his church. The Exodus narrative is a thread that runs throughout the book of Revelation, and which helps us to understand what Revelation is showing us.

Similarly, the fifth trumpet doesn't harm God's people who were sealed in their foreheads, "Revelation 7:2, 9:4". That is like the Passover of Egypt, in which the destroying angel when he saw the blood on the doorposts, passed over the people of God and didn't kill their firstborn. That shows us that if we keep the understanding of the blood of the ransom before us, and trust in it, we will have no problem overcoming the evil of this system, even if they physically kill us. Revelation 12:11 "And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death. (NAU).

The nominal church system does not have the correct view of the blood of the ransom, and they have fallen into judgment because of that error. The faithful church on this end of the age has tried to witness the truth about the blood of the ransom to them, but they refuse to believe the truth just like the Jewish system did in their time, and they wish to keep their false doctrines of the Trinity and the mass.

Seal, Trumpet & Bowl Similarities

As we consider the seven trumpets, to get proper interpretations of them, we will need to compare and review the messages to the seven churches and the seven seals. In our studies of the trumpets, we noticed that the same general theme in trumpet one, was the same theme that we saw in the message to the first church, and to the first seal. In the message to church one, we saw the Nicolaitans who were those who were setting themselves up as dictators over the flock of God. That same problem was seen in the rider of the horse in seal one, who was riding out to conquer, which the church was not to do. For that reason, we would expect a similar problem of conquest in trumpet one, and as we will see that same problem does exist. In most of the seven periods of the churches there are obvious correspondences, but in a few of them it wouldn't be as obvious if we didn't understand the meaning of the symbols. Once we considered the meaning of the symbols, everything matches.

See the duplicated tables that we copied from the prelude to the Seven Seals, for a detailed example and list of those similarities on the next page. We believe that this table is important enough that we have included it here a second time to show that what we are seeing in the first four trumpets, are not messages of truth that are converting Christians, but that they are messages of alarm, warning about the things being done wrong in each church.

Table Comparing Common Theme, Messages, Seals, Trumpets

	Message to Churches	Seals	Trumpets	Common theme
Church 1	Nicolaitans taking control of church. False Apostles who were not actual Apostles but who were deceivers.	Rider Conquering wearing crown—not time for church to reign	Hail and fire thrown to earth mixed with blood—one-third of trees or churches burned up = 666 left	Bad leaders seeking power taking control of church are starting the process of turning church into 666
Church 2	Jews who are not, but are synagogue of Satan— church merges with state Materialistically you are poor but you are spiritually rich—10 days of tribulation and death—	Red horse—peace taken from earth slaying one another- Great final sword of scriptures given in this church 367AD	Mountain burning with fire thrown into the sea—sea became blood— one-third with life died—remaining turned to 666	Satan taking more control—false doctrines being forced on church —church becomes involved with Roman Empire
Church 3	Nicolaitans—Satan’s throne 539AD—many fell for Balaam and Balak’s false corrupted doctrines. Israel’s enemies recommended that they try to corrupt them, Numbers 31:16.	Black horse = no light—Expensive spiritual doctrines of wheat hard to get & inferior food of barley substituted	One-third of Rivers and springs of spiritual water turned to bitter wormwood corrupted doctrines —many died or became 666	Corrupted doctrines being forced on the church, resulting in spiritual darkness and death. Satan has control over church.
Church 4	Jezebel or Papacy is controlling the church—feeding them false doctrines sacrificed to idols. Our Lord warns her about punishment in next three church periods 5-7— Jezebel in Old Testament was trying to kill Elijah and other prophets with civil power from king.	Ashen or spiritually sick unto death horse —rider is called death and hades— controls ¼ earth or Roman beast —spiritually kills with famine, sword, and wild beasts also literally kills.	1/3 of sun, moon, stars struck—sun, moon and stars not to shine for 1/3 day. Complete spiritual darkness has come over fourth church—completely changing the system to 666	Spiritual sickness & darkness has completely overcome the fourth church. This is the deepest darkness of the 1260 years. Church state is killing all who do not agree.
Church 5	Wake up &amp; strengthen the things that remain—remember what you have heard &amp; keep it &amp; repent = restore Bible and reform system—a few still walk with me in white—if you don’t wake up I will come against you like a thief	The dead under the altar are given white garments and told to wait for a time for the systems punishment. These are being killed because they attempted to reform church.	1 st woe trumpet Locusts come out of the spiritual darkness of the system & torment those who do not have seal of God. Locusts had gold crowns—The angel of the abyss Jesus is head of locusts	Spiritual knowledge begins to be restored in this church. Some punishment begins, more to come in next two churches.
Church 6	An open door of opportunity which can’t be shut— hour of testing upon whole world—I am coming quickly. The meaning of the words “coming quickly” implies that he is already on his way. Either 1517-1874 or 1799-1874 can be understood as being the time of his coming to his presence.	Sun was seen to be black, moon was blood, stars fell to the earth, great earthquake, scroll rolled into two halves—all men try to hide in rocks and caves—the great day of God & Lambs wrath has come	2 nd woe trumpet. Release four angels for the hour, day, month and the year. Great uncountable army attacks fallen system, these are the Locusts who have grown larger and more forceful. 1/3 killed= removed from power of system.	Time of testing during separation of Protestants & Catholics. Great terror from the trouble during this time. The Lord is commanding a much bigger army by the time of the sixth church. He is coming to begin his reign
Church 7	Lord offers spiritual knowledge, those who don’t accept will be spewed out. He stands at door knocking—those who open the door will receive spiritual food or knowledge directly from his presence. That new truth is the harvest message which helps the saints to escape.	Silence in heaven for half an hour is 1874-1878 judgment and the half an hour is 40-year harvest to 1914-18. See full notes for explanation. Those separated out of Great Babylon are rewarded	3 rd woe trumpet Lord is present & reigning. Time to reward bondservants. Time of wrath has come & time to destroy those who destroy the earth.	Two classes are being separated, the faithful who heed the voice of the Lord &amp; come out are rewarded &amp; those who do not are rejected, losing their crowns and they are replaced for 144,000.

We also found that each bowl of wrath or plague for a particular church, is directly related to the problems shown in the corresponding trumpet for that church.

Comparison of Trumpets To Bowls of Wrath

TRUMPET#1 = upon earth

1/3 trees all green grass

TRUMPET#2 = mountain thrown into sea

1/3 sea became blood, 1/3 creatures that had life died, 1/3 ships destroyed

TRUMPET#3 = upon rivers + fountains water

1/3 rivers, 1/3 waters became wormwood

TRUMPET#4 = upon sun, moon and stars

1/3 sun smitten, 1/3 moon, 1/3 stars, 1/3 day and night shone not

TRUMPET#5 = sun and air darkened, opening of bottomless pit--smoke darkened sun and air and locusts came out smoke

TRUMPET#6 = 4 angels bound in Euphrates

4 angels loosed to kill 1/3 mankind, army of horsemen

TRUMPET#7 = nations were angry didn't want to give up their power

voices
thundering lightning an earthquake great hail

BOWL #1 = upon earth

noisome and grievous sore on men with mark beast and those who worshiped his Image

BOWL #2 = upon sea

became as blood of dead man and every living thing in the sea died

BOWL #3 = upon rivers + fountains of water

Water turned to blood - and righteous are your judgments Lord. Thou hast given them blood to drink

BOWL #4 = upon sun

power was given to this angel to scorch men with fire--They were scorched with great heat and blasphemed the name of God and repented not

BOWL #5 = upon seat of beast + kingdom full darkness

they gnawed their tongues for pain and blasphemed God because of pains and sores-- They repented not

BOWL #6 = upon Euphrates,

water dried up to make way for Kings of the East. A parenthesis takes us back and shows three unclean spirits which gather the kings of the earth to the battle of the great day of God (Armageddon)

BOWL #7 = upon air

Voice out of temple says it is done. Great city was divided into three parts--Nations fell--

Babylon came into remembrance to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

Every island fled and the mountains were not found voices

thunders
lightning
great earthquake
great hail out of heaven

The above table shows some interesting correspondences between the trumpets and the bowls of wrath, in that what was done wrong in each trumpet is punished in the corresponding bowl.

The trumpets don't in a sense deliver messages of doctrinal truth, but they give a message of truth and information about what was being done wrong in each church, at least during the first four churches. The last three trumpets will be different, but the visions are still about what is going on in those churches, and the last three will show us what God was doing to cause punishment and woe to the church and state system. In other words, the trumpets are not going to be messages of doctrinal truth, but they are truth because they are visions and warnings concerning events that are showing the downfall of the church in each of the church periods, and in the last three woe trumpets we are shown God beginning to remove that error, step by step.

Jericho is a Picture

Another Old Testament picture that should be considered, regarding the trumpets and the bowls of wrath, is the city of Jericho. In Joshua 6:8, there were seven priests with seven trumpets encircling Jericho, with the Ark of the Covenant following after them. They marched around the city for six days, and on the seventh day they marched around it seven times with the priests blowing the trumpets. On the last or seventh day, as the priests blew long blasts on their trumpets, the walls fell and everyone was slaughtered except for Rahab the harlot. She was saved from death because of the scarlet ribbon, which pictures the ransom doctrine. That again shows us that we need to keep the ransom doctrine before us always, because if we don't have that understanding of our salvation, we have nothing to protect us.

The Jericho picture is a picture of the seven trumpets and the seven bowls of wrath. The seven trumpets would represent the seven days or seven periods of the church that the priests marched around the city. The seven bowls of wrath would then be pictured by the seven trumpet blasts that cause the final destruction of the Great City of Papacy, that causes it to break up into three parts which corresponds to the fall of Jericho. The seven bowls of wrath would be pictured by the fact that they marched around the city seven times on the seventh day, which is when the seven bowls are poured out.

The relationship between the Great City and Great Babylon, seems to be that the Great City started out with the Papal system, and that is the meaning of the Great City. Great Babylon, contains the Great City of Papacy but it also contains all of the Daughter Systems that have sprang off from her, propagating the same false doctrines. Great Babylon is like the ancient Babylon, in that it was made up of the many countries it had conquered, yet it contained the central city called Babylon—which is the Great City of Papacy

In 1 Chron 15:24, the seven priests were to blow trumpets before the ark as it was brought into Jerusalem. The seven trumpets, therefore picture and lead up to and announce the coming presence of God and Christ in 1874AD. We will see that presence described in the seventh trumpet in Revelation 11:15, 19.

Genesis & the Trumpets

Another interesting point that we need to make here, is that what we are going to see damaged of God's system in the first four trumpets, are the very same elements of the world that were named in Genesis when God created the earth. Some of the elements are a little more mixed up than what we see in the following table, but the idea should be apparent. The literal things that make up the world, are duplicated in symbol in God's ecclesiastical creation. Everything that God had created or revealed to the church, was being destroyed by the fallen church system, step by step. We will see that happen in the first four trumpets until nothing is left intact, with everything changed into 666.

The table showing the correspondence to Genesis is on the next page.

Day 1: Created the heavens and earth, light and darkness . (Gen 1:1-5)- 4 th trumpet	Revelation 8:12 The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and the day would not shine for a third of it, and the night in the same way. (NAU)
Day 2: Made the sky to separate the waters above and below . (Gen 1:6-8)- 2 nd trumpet	Revelation 8:8-9) 8 The second angel sounded, and {something} like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea ; and a third of the sea became blood, 9 and a third of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died; and a third of the ships were destroyed. (NAU)
Day 3: Made land and sea, vegetation, trees . (Gen 1:9-13)- 1 st trumpet	Revelation 8:7 The first sounded, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up. (NAU)
Day 4: Sun, moon and stars . (Gen 1:14-19), heavens filled. - 4 th trumpet	Revelation 8:12 The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and the day would not shine for a third of it, and the night in the same way. (NAU)
Day 5: Fish and creatures in the sea, Birds . (Gen 1:20-23), sea filled. 2 nd trumpet	Revelation 8:8-9) 8 The second angel sounded, and {something} like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea; and a third of the sea became blood, 9 and a third of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died ; and a third of the ships were destroyed. (NAU)
Day 6: Living creatures on the land, man . (Gen 1:24-31), land filled 1 st trumpet, 5 th trumpet?	Revelation 8:7 The first sounded, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth ; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up. (NAU) Revelation 9:1-2) 1 Then the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven which had fallen to the earth ; and the key of the bottomless pit was given to him. 2 He opened the bottomless pit, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke of the pit. (NAU)

Two Bible Student Methods of Interpreting the Trumpets

There are generally two different ways in which the trumpets are viewed by Bible Students.

In the first interpretive method, the trumpets are looked at as being only a message of truth, and the events that are seen in each trumpet are viewed as having come from the message that was given. Some apply this only to the civil part, and others apply it just to the church and some to both.

That approach has some problems with it. Several symbols used in the second and third trumpet, are ones that are obviously bad or at least turned bad, which makes it difficult to interpret the trumpets as messages of pure truth. For example, we see in the second trumpet the great destroying mountain of Rome, which we know is Satan's evil system taking control of the church, which was at the time that they were claiming that the kingdom of God had come to the earth. In the third trumpet, we see the star which is Satan who had fallen from heaven at the First Advent when Christ paid the price with his blood, which was blocking Satan from his ability to accuse the saints. Satan is seen in the third church, by using Papacy as his agent, as poisoning the rivers and springs of water which represent sources of truth about what Christ had done. In the fourth trumpet, we see the darkening of the sun, moon, and the stars, which shows the last of the symbols changed and which represents the complete corruption of the church. Symbolically the darkening of those symbols is showing us the final darkening of the true Gospel and God's word. The corrupted teachers were plunging the church into deep and dark error, which is definitely bad. Some try to reverse the obvious meaning to these passages, but as we will see, it's actually much easier to fulfill it historically if we read it exactly for what it says happened.

In the interpretive method that the Study Group favored, when it says the heavens go into darkness, that is exactly what it means in a prophetic sense. We don't see that as the Papal heavens being punished, but we see it as a vision that is showing us the doctrinal truth of the church being darkened and lost. That way we don't have to twist the scriptures at all, but only read them exactly for what they are showing us. So, we saw that the first four trumpets were messages of truth which were warning about how the church was falling away, and which were showing us how Satan was corrupting the truth that had once been delivered unto the saints. The three woe trumpets that follow the first four trumpets, will be seen to be woes that come against the evil system, as God begins to wear its power down, punishing them for their error and giving them a last chance to reform.

As we go through the trumpets, we will look at which church period that they correspond to, and then we will look to see if there was anything else that happened at that time that could have fulfilled the passage. As we will see, there will be no doubt that the fallen system historically did exactly as what is being shown to us.

Trumpet & Bowl Comparison Plus Messages & Seals

As a help in deciding what we are being shown, if there is any question of how to interpret a trumpet for example, we will look at the bowl of wrath to see what evil events of the trumpet are being punished there. Each bowl of punishment, will exactly confirm what the problem is in each corresponding trumpet—since each bowl is a punishment that relates directly back to what was done being done wrong in each corresponding trumpet. We will see that God in the bowls, does the same thing to the apostate church system, that the evil system did to his people in the trumpets—but with a final result.

In some of the trumpets, what was revealed in the messages to the same church or to the same seal, will also be helpful in determining what we are seeing in that trumpet.

Remember the parable of the wheat and the tares, which was where the enemy came in the middle of the night and sowed the tares into the fields. That is the same thing we see here, in that Satan was sowing errors or tares into the faithful church with the intent of crowding out the true wheat, and he was doing that during the first four churches. God promised to separate out the true wheat at the end of the age, and that was why we later we have the call to “come out of her my people Babylon” in Chapter 18.

Four – Two Interlude One Final

Like the seals, there is again an interlude or insert of more information between the end of the sixth trumpet and the start of the seventh. We will consider that interlude in detail when we come to it. What's being shown in the first four trumpets is a description of how the great falling away came about, and how God's faithful church was being corrupted and destroyed, especially regarding the loss of the doctrines of salvation and the establishment of the power of church and state system. Remember that we saw the same kind of decline in the first four seals, which is the same kind of decline we had seen in the messages to the churches, where we saw the beginning of a “them” and “us” separation by the time of the fourth church.

By the close of the first four trumpets, we will see Satan taking complete control of the church and corrupting it by giving them control over the civil power of Rome, and by corrupting the doctrine of the ransom—so that they no longer understood where their salvation was coming from.

Trumpet 1 Revelation 8:7

Revelation 8:7 The first sounded, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up. (NAU)

32.25AD-73.75AD

The first trumpet is a somewhat difficult one to interpret, especially if we are only looking at it by itself. For that reason, we will look at several other places to help us establish the correct interpretation. That will make the explanation of this trumpet somewhat longer than normal, in order to show how we arrived at our conclusion.

Damage to Earth Trees, and Sea Against God's Command

In Revelation 7:2-3, we saw the vision of the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and sea. They were told by the strong angel “not to harm” the land or the sea or the trees, until God’s servants were sealed. Here in trumpet one, we see that command being violated immediately in the first trumpet. Similarly, we see the same problem in the second trumpet, in that the sea was harmed even though it was not supposed to be. If the four angels that we saw in Chapter 7 didn’t cause the harm, because they had been commanded by God not to do that, then it’s obvious that whoever was doing the harm had to be going against God’s command not to do that. They had to be bad people or organizations that were being used by Satan.

1st Trumpet--- hail & fire cast on earth

- trees, the grass, burned up

2nd Trumpet-- - mountain burning with fire cast into sea

- Sea became blood

Commanded not to harm, Revelation 7:3—

“Hurt not the earth, neither the seas, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God.

So, it’s obvious that when we look at the first two trumpets, we find events that were contrary to the instructions in Chapter 7, in that we find the earth, the trees, the grass, and the sea being damaged. In Revelation 8:7, the first angel sounded his trumpet and John saw hail and fire mixed with blood hurled down upon the earth and a third of the earth and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass. The description doesn’t tell us that the angel himself hurled that mixture down, and so we believe that he is just showing us what was happening during the period of the first church. Since this is at the beginning of the Gospel Age when the sealing process was just getting started, it would seem to be a reasonable conclusion that whoever cast the hail and fire mingled with blood on the earth, would be doing it without God’s permission, because they were damaging the earth, and the trees.

One Third Burned UP = 666

As we will see as we look at this in more detail, we will see that one-third the trees being burned up, which shows us that this was actually turning the trees into Satan's system. We will explain that in more detail later, but taking one third away leaves two thirds, which in decimal format is .666 etc. The continual removal of one third in each of the first four trumpets, shows us that what is happening in the trumpets is creating Satan's evil system, as he takes control step by step. That is another reason why we believe that the first four trumpets are showing us the corruption that is being brought into the church by Satan, and that they are not messages of truth, outside of telling us what was being done wrong.

Another important thing that will help in this study, is that we have previously noticed that the destruction that came upon Israel as described in the book of Joel, follows the events of the seven trumpets exactly. Because of that we are going to look at Joel and see if we can find anything that will help our understanding of the trumpets. If we look at the first Chapter of Joel, we see literal Israel being attacked by the four waves of different kinds of locusts, and in that Chapter we see the same symbols of trees and grass being destroyed by drought and fire—which is exactly what we see here in the trumpets. The interpretation of the prophecy of the four waves of locusts in Joel, was showing us four waves of Israel's enemies destroying the nation. Correspondingly, the interpretation of the first four trumpets during the Gospel Age, is showing us four waves of destruction coming against spiritual Israel, and those waves of corruption were definitely enemies of the truth. In other words, the first four trumpets are especially picturing Satan's attacks against the faithful church, and they are destroying its knowledge of true salvation. The first wave of the locusts corresponds to the first trumpet and the second wave of the locusts to the second trumpet and so on. Each wave of locust in Joel is a different kind of Locust, one kind for each of the four waves of locusts.

In Joel, the prophecy tells us that after the 4 waves of locust had gone by, that there were no trees or grass left. In the trumpets we only lose one-third of the trees, but when we realize that taking away one-third from the earth and the trees turns them into 666, then we realize that they were totally destroyed in God's sight, just as they were literally destroyed in Joel, because they had been taken over by Satan.

*Joel 1:12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

Joel 1:18-19 (18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

*19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field. (KJV)

The trees that were being destroyed could represent earthly governments, or they could be symbolic of religious institutions, and in looking at what happens here in the trumpets, we believe that they especially represent the symbolic destruction of faithful Christian churches, because they were being turned into 666. A good example of religious trees, is where we see in the Matt Chapter 24 account the fig tree representing Israel, and all the other trees representing other earthly governments. Another example is when Jesus cursed the fig tree in the Gospels, and that fig tree pictured the nation of Israel as a failed religious system. Here in this trumpet, we believe that the trees are the early Christian churches, and that they were being attacked and corrupted by false doctrines. The errors that were coming into the churches were Pagan and Gnostic, and other errors that were polluting the true church's doctrine.

Four Waves of Attack at Time of Babylon

In the Old Testament times, we had Babylon attacking and they eventually removed Israel completely from their land during the time of Joel. There were actually four literal waves of attacks before Israel was destroyed, picturing these four waves of destruction in the first four trumpets of Revelation. The first was when Egypt took them in 609 BC. The second was when Nebuchadnezzar defeated Egypt at Carchemish in 605 BC, then there were two more invasions by Babylon, with the last being the carrying away to Babylon in 587 BC. We could symbolically say that Egypt represented the worldly spirit of Paganism, and its false doctrines that started coming into the first church. The next three attacks by Babylon would then picture the taking control of the church by other false Pagan and corrupted doctrines, and the eventual forming of the church and state system of great Babylon.

Just as the destruction of the literal trees and the pasture was bad for literal Israel, we see that the conquest of God's faithful church by Great Babylon was also a bad thing. Instead of literal Babylon during the Gospel Age, in the early church we had the fourth or Roman beast, which was the worst of the four beasts that Daniel had seen in his prophecy. The Roman beast together with the fallen church in union with it, was used to oppress the faithful church during the entire 1260 years.

In Chapter two of Joel there were two obvious trumpets blown which correspond to the fifth and the seventh trumpet. The sixth trumpet is hidden, but we found it because we see God uttering his voice before the great army, which corresponds to the sixth trumpet which also has a voice from the altar and a great army. The voice of God in Joel is doing the same thing as the sixth trumpet in Revelation, which is giving information to God's people about what is happening in that church and he is taking control of the army. The events that parallel the fifth and the sixth trumpet, seem to parallel the fifth trumpet up to the seventh in Joel, and the seventh Rev trumpet is marked by the last trumpet in Joel, and is showing the gathering of the people, which pictures the harvest.

1/3 Taken = .666 etc.

A major reason for the conclusion that this trumpet is showing us something bad, besides the prophecy from Joel, was an interesting observation that was made regarding the one-third being taken away that this and the next three trumpets have in their visions. We see in this trumpet that the hail, fire, and blood are destroying one-third of what they are falling on. Others have explained the symbol one third in several different ways, but the most promising way that we know of is explained quite simply. If you were to take a calculator and place the number 1 on it, and then you were to subtract the exact quantity of 1/3 from it in decimal form, that is .333 out to infinity or 1/3, the answer in decimal form would be all sixes or .666 carried out to infinity! So, we see that the one-third being taken away by the first four trumpets, is showing us the step by step changing and corrupting of God's Faithful Church into Satan's apostate 666 systems of church and state.

Some might object to using this as a decimal number, because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah, we find this: Zech 13:8-9(8) "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD IS my God.'" NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire, he is defining them as good. To prove that we see that they are refined as gold and silver. So, when you see us use the decimal number one third or two thirds, Zechariah is the principle behind that calculation. When the one third is destroyed, that leaves two thirds or .666.

One Third Removed Occurs in First Four Trumpets With Ten Symbols Destroyed

In the first four trumpets, we see 1/3 or .333 taken away from 10 symbols: the (1) earth, (2) Trees, (3) sea, (4) creatures, (5) ships, (6) the waters, (7) the rivers, (8) the sun, (9) the moon and (10) the stars. That there are 10 different parts of God's creation that are changed by the removal of 1/3 is very interesting, since ten represents earthly completeness. In other words, all of society is symbolically being brought completely under the control of the 666 system by the end of the time of the first four trumpets.

What we are being shown happening in the trumpets, is that doctrinal error, human failings, and Satan are causing problems that are leading to the great falling away, and those things are turning the system into 666. Sixes in the Bible generally represent something earthly or from man, and that number also marks it as being Satan's system. This shows us that God's Faithful Church began to be corrupted early on, and as we will see, it was a piece by piece, doctrine by doctrine change, with the early Christian church being gradually turned into man's Pagan religion, which was being controlled by Satan. Each succeeding church period resulted in the corruption of at least another element of religious society, until by the end of the fourth church, there was nothing of value left except for the very few members of the Faithful Church, who like Elijah were hiding from the evil system. They were still trying to serve the Lord, but they were in great danger of their lives, just like Elijah had been in his time.

Table of Joel & Revelation Parallels

As we have looked for the correct interpretation of this prophecy, we struggled with how to look at it for some time, and we eventually saw that the key to what is happening in the trumpets is the parallel in the book of Joel that we just discussed. Because that is so important, we are going to insert a copy of the table that shows us that there is indeed an exact parallel between the trumpets and the events shown in the book of Joel. That correspondence will keep us from making a wrong interpretation, because the table will show us that what we are being shown in the first four trumpets, is extremely bad destruction against the faithful church, just as what had happened to Israel in the time of Joel. We will also need to look at the plagues of Egypt as we look at the trumpets, because they are also a part of the interpretation.

(KJV)

Looking at the above table and its parallel to Joel, we see that whatever interpretation that we come up with for the trumpets must parallel Joel. It's the guide that we need to look at to help us to understand what we are being shown in Revelation. What we are seeing in Joel is the destruction of natural Israel and the religious system, and in the time of the church it's showing the destruction of spiritual Israel.

One-Third of Trees Hail, Fire, and Blood

As we look at the symbols in trumpet one, we find the mixture of hail, fire, and blood harming the earth, trees, and the grass. Natural hail and fire would damage trees or any growing thing. To get an idea of what's happening in this trumpet, we need to define and interpret the symbols that are found in the first trumpet. The question that comes up about the symbols that we are looking at, are they symbols that are showing us something bad or are they showing us something that is good? We at first tried to interpret this trumpet using the good meaning of the symbols, but that did not fit very well with history.

The Symbol of Blood

Blood as used in the ransom doctrine is a good symbol, because it is what supplies the church with life and salvation. It covers us for all our sins and our shortcomings that we are not able to overcome. When we look at the plagues of Egypt, we find the blood in two different places. It's used to protect the firstborn of the Israelites from the angel of death, and in that situation, it represents the good symbol of the blood of the Lamb who symbolizes Christ. The second place that we see blood in the plagues of Egypt, is when the water is all turned to blood, and the Egyptians can't find any water to drink, and in that sense, it is a bad or punishing symbol. So, we have a symbol that seems to represent two different things depending on how it is used—how are we to decide which to use?

When we look at the parallel table from Joel, we see that the four waves of locusts that match up with the first four trumpets were all destructive, in both the literal destruction of Israel and the symbolic destruction of spiritual Israel. So, it appears that the blood as a symbol is not being used as a good thing in the trumpets, but it pictures something bad that was happening in the time of the first church. Earlier we had noted that we see that when we are looking at the trumpets, that the first four trumpets are not showing us something that God or Jesus was doing, but they are showing us something that was going wrong in the first four churches. After the first four trumpets, our Lord stepped in at the time of the fifth trumpet. The three woes, plus the seven bowls of wrath then equaled ten plagues—which are plagues from God.

Hail & Fire Mixed with Blood

We also see that the hail and fire in the first trumpet are mixed together with the blood, and so we believe that they should not be interpreted as individual symbols, but more as a combined destructive symbol of all three together.

Hail in nature comes from frozen or solidified water, and it sometimes symbolizes hard truth, but we don't believe that is what we are seeing here, but instead the combination of the three symbols together mean something different. In the plagues of Egypt, hail was used as a destroying symbol, and that is what we believe we should see it being used as here. Fire as in the plagues of Egypt, were most likely strong and fiery lightning bolts, and so that is most likely the same thing here, except that this fire would have been very strong and destructive lightning bolts, which burned up a third of the earth and the trees, and all the green grass. In the plagues of Egypt, the fire came down from heaven together with the hail and that is the same thing that we see happening here, except that we have the added element of the blood being mixed together with the hail and fire. In the second trumpet, we will see that the blood being placed in the water, killed those who had life, and that seems to be an indication of a worldly spirit that came into the church at that time. For that reason, we suggest that we are looking at worldly ideas or spirit being mixed in with true Christian doctrines.

So, the problem is what would the hail and fire mixed with blood represent at the time of the early church, especially if we see it as being something destructive because of the one third being removed, leaving .666? The fire mixed with hail and blood in the first trumpet, was harming the symbols of the earth and the trees, and they were not supposed to be harmed as was earlier stated in Rev Chapter 7, so we would have to say that part of the trouble was coming from Satan, who can appear as an angel of light while he is turning darkness too light and light too darkness.

One common symbol between the Joel account and the first trumpet, is that we see all the green grass being burned up. If the burning up of all the green grass symbolizes the destruction of the nation of Israel in Joel by the destructive army that was coming against them, then that gives us a key to what is causing the same kind of events in the first trumpet. All we need to ask ourselves is, what calamity removed natural Israel from the land, and the answer was the army of the Roman Empire? We are not talking about God himself removing them from the land, but we are looking at what force did God allow to come and remove them from their land? We are told in the book of Daniel in Chapter 9 what kind of trouble that was going to be, and in Chapter 12 we are told how long that river of trouble was to continue, where it tells us it was going to be for 1260, 1290 and 1335 years.

*Dan 9:26-27 (26 Now after the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one will be cut off and have nothing. As for the city and the sanctuary, the people of the coming prince will destroy them. But his end will come speedily like a flood. Until the end of the war that has been decreed there will be destruction. 27 He will confirm a covenant with many for one week. But in the middle of that week he will bring sacrifices and offerings to a halt. On the wing of abominations will come one who destroys, until the decreed end is poured out on the one who destroys." ### Literal Roman Army & Abomination of Desolation

The first element of the army that was to come in verse 26, was the literal army of the Romans, which did destroy the city and the temple, and which did carry away all of what was left of the Jewish nation. But as we can see in the text above, there were two different aspects to what was coming. The first was the Roman army, but in verse 27 we also see that there was going to be an abomination that was going to come and cause a destruction or a desolation. That is the same abomination that Jesus had warned about in Matt Chapter 24. That abomination was going to last until the end of the time that was decreed, which is given in Chapter 12 as 1260, 1290, and 1335. Then a decreed destruction was going to be poured out on it.

So, there were two different elements of destruction that were coming with the Roman army, the literal destruction of Israel by the Roman army, and then there were the Pagan influences of Rome that they brought with them that began to attack and to creep into spiritual Israel. In the Joel account, we have two different fulfillments of what the four waves of locusts represent. We have the literal armies that came and destroyed the nation of Israel, all of the green grass burned up, and in Revelation we have a symbolic application that represents the corruption of the Christian church, the symbols which were one third destroyed. In Revelation, the two-fold destruction and corruption is pictured by the dragon, that symbolizes Pagan Rome, and we will see it explained in Chapter 12. The attack by Satan which brought the Abomination of Desolation, was through the symbol of the Dragon of chapter 12, and the Roman beast that is seen in Chapter 13. The Dragon symbol still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast.

The dragon of Pagan Rome, which removed Israel from their land was being controlled by Satan. He most likely thought that by destroying the Jewish system, that he would cause God's Plan a serious problem. What he didn't realize was that God allowed him to remove them to punish them—to his later dismay they were scattered all over the world, making it impossible from them to be wiped out as a people. We now know that there was going to be an 1845-year period of time, and then God was going to allow them to be gradually restored back to their land. Satan seems to have realized that on this end of the age, and he is trying to remove them from their land again, but this time we know that God will step in and protect them at the very end.

Pagan Error Came into the Church

Besides the literal attack against Israel, we also saw the dragon bring the flood of Pagan error that he spewed out of the mouth of the “serpent” after the woman, and that is what began changing the church step by step into the Papal 666 system. That second aspect of the trouble on the church was called the abomination in Daniel Chapter 9, and it was what caused the destruction of the one third of the earth and the trees, and it did it by corrupting the salvation doctrines of the early church. There was also a flood out of the mouth of the “dragon” symbol, which was literal attacks from Rome, so Satan was using both doctrinal corruption and the civil power Rome. The Dragon symbol still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast.

Corruption of the Doctrines of Salvation

If we look at the three symbols which are entwined together, we see that the symbol of the hail would represent that the false doctrines were being forcefully propagated, in other words the Nicolaitans who were lording it over the church, were claiming that you had to believe what they were preaching. That it had fire with it, showed that it was a doctrine that was destructive to the church, and that it had blood mingled with it, indicates that it had to do with the corruption of the doctrines of salvation, which were especially the blood of the ransom doctrine. Worldly Paganism doctrines were being added to Christ's ransom doctrine, corrupting it.

Some might say that the early church was not having trouble with its doctrines being corrupted, and ones trying to lord themselves over other that early on, but the scriptures tell us that it was already happening at the time of the early Apostles.

1 John 4:1-3 (1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God; 3 and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God; this is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming, and now it is already in the world. NASU

1 Cor 4:6-8 (6And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou has not received it?

8Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. KJV

Nicolaitans were in First Church

We saw that same kind of thing in the first seal, where the rider was going out with a bow and a crown on his head, and he was going out conquering. That seal shows that there were some in the early church who were trying to take absolute control of the church when they were not supposed to do that—they were supposed to be servants of the church, but they were not. In the message to the first church, we also see that our Lord was complaining about the Nicolaitans who represented that same conquering attitude, and that is the same thing that we believe that we see happening here.

We don't know the exact history of the early church, but we know that the Apostles were warning about similar ones that were already in the church, and like what happened after the death of Bro Russell, they were warning about the wolves that were going to come into the flock after their death. That is what we believe we are seeing in this first trumpet, in that the destruction of the one third of the trees and one third of the earth was not supposed to be happening. The removal of the Jewish system had been prophesied in Daniel Chapter 9 that it would happen, just as the nominal house was to be removed on this end of the age, but the members of the church were not supposed to be controlled by those who were lording it over them, the leaders were supposed to be shepherds of the flock. That it was happening, and it was the abomination that that was coming that Dan 9:29 had prophesied about, is very evident from the history that was occurring at that time.

Besides those who were trying to Lord it over the church, there were false doctrines being brought into the church at that time, such as the Gnostic and Pagan and other errors that came in during the first and second centuries. The corruption of doctrine that was being mixed in with the truth, was taking away from the sacrifice of blood that Christ had paid for us on the cross. The rider on the horse in the first seal that was going out conquering, was misusing the sword and the crown, by using it against the faithful church. They were doing that so they could take control of the church for their own benefit, and that is the same thing that we see happening here in this trumpet.

Pure Doctrine of Christ's Salvation Was Being Corrupted & Replaced

So the blood mingled with the hard hail, and fire or light of false enlightenment that was striking the earth and the trees, were false doctrines that were coming into the church and corrupting the pure doctrine of salvation that Christ and the Apostles had brought to the early church. That it was mixed with hail, would indicate that it was being propagated very forcefully and destructively, because the false doctrines were destructive to anything that they struck. Those false doctrines were so poisonous that they are pictured as destroying one third of the earth and the trees, which was beginning to turn the entire religious system into 666 or Satan's system. By the end of the fourth church the entire church had been converted to Satan's 666 system.

In trumpets two and three, we will see a worldly spirit that was taking over the church. In the second church for sure, we will see that they thought that God's kingdom was already in control over the earth, and that everyone needed to belong to and obey that false kingdom. So, that is what we believe we also see here in trumpet one, in that the early worldly spirit was corrupting important doctrines, like the ransom and the doctrine of a future kingdom of blessing on the earth. Instead of truth that was being brought forth by the Holy spirit, this new earthly spirit symbolized by the blood, was bringing corruption of doctrine into the churches. In the next few paragraphs we will give some more evidence and detail which supports the conclusion that we have arrived at regarding this trumpet. A lot of what we have covered will be presented again, but because this is an important concept to understand, and this extra examination will help with the other trumpets, we will cover this again from a slightly different angle.

Earth, Beast & Image

When we look at the first bowl of wrath which is on this end of the age, we see that it is directly related to and linked back to trumpet one. Just like the first trumpet, it's also poured out on the earth, and it caused boils and sores on those who were worshipping the beast and the Image. So, looking at that first bowl of wrath, what we see happening was that society and those who had been worshipping the church and state power, were being punished in the first bowl of wrath for having involved the church in the affairs of the world. The symbol of the beast and the image in the first bowl, represents the civil power of the Old-World order, which includes several other aspects of society, such as its financial supports and the social and religious support of the people. In church one, there was not a full-blown church state system, but the early beginnings that would lead to that system were already there, and it was coming from the Nicolaitans—the ones Lording it over the people.

The symbolic earth at this end of the age was the remnants of the Roman Empire, which was still partially controlled by the ecclesiastical power of the Papal and Protestant churches, making it a theocracy type of system. There were other major Empires at that time that had descended from that system, and which controlled the entire Western world, and they also came under judgment because of that. So the early beginnings of the illegal church and state system are what we should be looking for in the early church in regard to trumpet one and what was being done wrong. Those small beginnings are what grew into the terrible beastly system that oppressed the people and murdered anyone that tried to reform it.

Small Beginnings Led to Big Trouble Later

The first thing that we see when we look at the first trumpet, is that the Image of the Beast, which was controlled by the Papal religious system, couldn't have existed yet at the time of the first church. Only the small beginnings of error and lust for power that grew into that evil system could have existed. The dragon that represented the Roman Empire that it descended from, did exist then. It took quite a bit of time for the entity called Papacy to develop, and then get enough power that it could control the entire church. That began to happen quicker in 539 when Papacy got the use of the army to force doctrinal error on the church, and it got worse when the code of Justinian named the Pope as the one and only religious leader who had doctrinal authority over both the Eastern and the Western churches.

So, we see that the earth “society” and the trees “churches and their leaders”, were what we're beginning to be corrupted and taken over in the first church, especially the religious part. The religious part of the Christian society was corrupted first, and then later in history the civil power and the society that supported it was taken control of by the corrupt church. While the early church didn't gain direct control over the earth or civil power in the first church, we see that the early attempts to get power and control over others in the church, were what led to the control of the civil power and all the church later. That is why the message to the first church warned about the Nicolaitans that already existed at that time, and the Lord warned the church again about them in the third church—which was when Papacy and Rome began to work together, and that was when the Empire gave Papacy complete control over the doctrines of the church. That fallen church system eventually controlled everything, the civil, the ecclesiastical, the social, and the financial elements of the Empire.

What we are looking at in the first trumpet, is the early beginnings of the problems of power over others that led to the terrible and oppressive church and state system later on. Paul had said the apostasy and great falling away were already working in his day, and we can see that it definitely was. II Thes 2:7 For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way. (NIV)

We Also See the Beginnings of the Grab for Power in the First Seal

If we look back at the first seal to see if there are any similarities, we see the same problem with the rider in the first seal who was trying to get power or control over others as symbolized by the crown and the bow and him going out to conquer. The type of problems being shown in the first seal and in the first bowl are the same as what is happening here in the first trumpet. That shows us that there was an early abuse of power and the corruption of doctrine, which later in history led to the great falling away that had been predicted. Some in the early church began to misuse their knowledge and to judge others and lord it over others. That abuse was especially being done by the Nicolaitans that are mentioned in the first and the third church. The meaning of their name indicates that they are those who were “Lording” it over the people—which tells us that they were setting themselves up in power over the people.

Without going into specifics, we know that Paul was warning the early church about the judging of others in respect to food, holidays, and even doctrine, etc. They were being warned about not thinking too highly of themselves, and they were told that they should support the weaker brethren. But contrary to Paul’s warning, some were already putting up some higher than others.

1 Cor 1:11-13 (11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? (KJV)

There was no problem with going out and trying to convert as many as could be convinced into coming into the church. But as we saw in the first seal, there evidently were some who went too far. When some got the converts into the church, they began setting themselves up in power over the flock, when they should have instead been the servants of the flock. Some were even trying to live off the early church without working, and Paul warned them against that and he gave them the example of himself where he was supporting himself by his tent making. The ones that wanted to live off the converts of the early church, started a bad precedence that led to the money loving church system later, which did live off the people and oppressed them.

The early church should have used the truth and biblical knowledge to build and uplift the church, but it should not have been used to judge or threaten others. The church’s mission was to preach and convert with the wonderful message of good news, but not threaten and force conversion with distortions of the truth. As the problem got worse later on in the church, we even see the doctrine of hell being used to frighten not only their own members, but to frighten others into converting to the church.

Great Babylon Was Being Created By the Grab for Power

Many were doing it for the feeling of power it gave them by being able to force their opinions on others. When the Empire was forcing worldly people into the church later in the second church period, most of those who came in were not of the Lord, but were tares! That is why we see that many heathen doctrines were brought into the church during the first few centuries. The heathen came in because they had to survive or because it was the popular thing to do when the Empire switched to Christianity as being the main religion towards the end of the second church. Many of them didn't actually convert to Christianity fully, but brought their heathen and Pagan ideas with them, mixing them with God's truth. A good book to read in that regard is Called "Two Babylon's", by Alexander Hislop. Here is a short quote out of the forward.

"Now, while this characteristic of Rome has ever been well marked and defined, it has always been easy to show, that the Church which has its seat and headquarters on the seven hills of Rome might most appropriately be called "Babylon," inasmuch as it is the chief seat of idolatry under the New Testament, as the ancient Babylon was the chief seat of idolatry under the Old. But recent discoveries in Assyria, taken in connection with the previously well-known but ill-understood history and mythology of the ancient world, demonstrate that there is a vast deal more significance in the name Babylon the Great than this. It has been known all along that Popery was baptized Paganism; but God is now making it manifest, that the Paganism which Rome has baptized is, in all its essential elements, the very Paganism which prevailed in the ancient literal Babylon, when Jehovah opened before Cyrus the two-leaved gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron."

So how do we summarize what we have learned about the symbols of the first trumpet? We find that one of the results of the hail and fire that was being cast into the earth, was that it represented the effort of some to gain power over others in the church, which then resulted in the eventual burning up or corruption of a third of the religious trees which symbolized the early churches and their leaders. One point we want to add here is that trees can also represent religious leaders, and so this could also be showing us that some of the religious leaders were being corrupted by their wanting power over others. If the leaders are corrupted, then the entire church which was under their control would soon follow. The hail mixed with blood and the fire, represented the corruption of key doctrines and the leading of the churches into spiritual darkness. Even Apostle John in the early church was warning about those who claimed that Christ had not come in the flesh, but who were already saying he had come as a God and not as a man.

The Fall Began Very Early in the Church & Got Worse With Time

That one-third of the trees that were destroyed symbolically, showed that the early church was being converted into 666 or Satan's and man's system. The religious organization that God was most concerned about in the early church, was the Faithful Church, and that was what was being struck by the fire and hard hail of false doctrines. We also note that what we see in the symbolism of the burning of one-third of the trees, is most likely not what fully occurred in the first trumpet, but what "began" there and that by the fourth church had completely converted all the churches to Satan's evil church system called "that Great City", which is Papacy.

The third church was where Papacy began a partnership with the civil power of the Emperor Justinian, so that he could force the church to follow the Pagan doctrines that the church had adopted. The big issue that occurred in 539 - 540AD, is when Papacy was able to convince Justinian that he needed to reconquer the area under the control of Ravenna, because he knew that would allow him to get rid of the Arians. With the Roman armies help, the Arians were defeated in the city of Ravenna at that time. That date marked the beginning of the full cooperation of the Empire with the Papal church in forcing false doctrines on those who didn't want to accept them. Rome was freed from the Arians who did not agree with the Trinity doctrine when that happened, and Papacy was then in full control of the original seat of the Roman Empire.

So, we see that the trees being burnt up didn't all happen immediately, but the downward processes which lead to the church and state system began in the first church. That is the same thing we will see with the next three trumpets, in that each will show us another big step of the great falling away, but we will see that the complete downfall was not finished until the time of the fourth church, where all the worst elements came together at once. When we see that a third of the trees were burnt up in the first church, we see that as a fire that started to consume the faithful church there, but which didn't symbolically burn the faithful completely up, until about the third or fourth church, turning the entire system into 666.

In Joel Chapter one, we see the same thing in that it's the trees and the pastures and the water brooks that were destroyed after the four waves of Locust have passed, and God describes that as the nation of Israel that was destroyed. Since Israel and the things that happened to them literally, are a type or picture of the church, we would expect to see the same thing happen to the early Church and it did. Joel 1:6-7) 6 For a nation has invaded my land, Mighty and without number; its teeth are the teeth of a lion, and it has the fangs of a lioness. 7 It has made my vine a waste and my fig tree splinters. It has stripped them bare and cast {them} away; their branches have become white. (NAU) Joel 1:19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

The Green Grass

In the study, the burning up of the grass was discussed and we came up with two different possibilities as to what it represented. Because the grass was described as green, we considered the possibility that it could simply represent Christians that had spiritual life, and they lost it because they were corrupted.

The second possibility, was that the green grass represented the nation of Israel, who had life up to the point that they rejected the messiah. They also had exclusive rights to the high calling up until Sept-Oct of 36AD. Because of that, we eventually decided that the green grass was the house of Israel. Outside of the remnant that accepted Christ, after 36AD they were rejected regarding the exclusive right, and the Gentiles were brought in as replacements.

The one difficulty with that thought was that if the hail that was mixed with blood and fire was a bad thing regarding the earth and the trees, and which was being done by bad people, wouldn't that be the same bad people that attacked the grass? If we couldn't explain that, then we would have to go with the grass representing Christians that had life, and which were being corrupted by the hail mixed with blood and fire.

What finally settled the question about how that could be, was when we looked at Dan Chapter 9, and we saw that there would first be a literal army come and destroy the city and the sanctuary, but that there was also going to be an abomination come after that, which would pour out more desolations, and that one would make everything totally desolate by corrupting the doctrines of salvation. The army that destroyed the green grass of Israel came first, and then after that came the one who makes desolate, which is the abomination of desolation. That is the ones that are starting out by destroying the earth and the trees.

That same symbol of grass is also mentioned in the above scriptures from Joel, where it says that the fire devoured the pastures. Grass in the scriptures means people, but in the area where we find the definition of what grass symbolizes, we also find the scripture about the end of the double of punishment for Israel. Isa 40:1-2 (40:1 “Comfort, O comfort My people,” says your God. 2 “Speak kindly to Jerusalem; And call out to her, that her warfare has ended, That her iniquity has been removed, That she has received of the LORD’S HAND Double for all her sins.” NASU

*Isa 40:7 The grass withered, the flower faded: because the spirit of the LORD blows upon it: surely the people is grass.

So, the reason that the fire was allowed to fall on the green grass and burn it up, was because they had been cast off from being God’s people because Israel had rejected God’s son and had killed him, and they had rejected the salvation that he had secured on the cross. Because of that God did not protect them from the Roman army, and they were removed from the land and scattered all over the world. As we mentioned earlier, Satan controlled the Roman Empire at the time and he most likely thought that he was causing God’s Plan serious difficulties by destroying the nation of Israel. But he didn’t realize that God had already planned for that, by planning to bring Israel back at the end time that we are in now.

We can’t rule out the possibility that we are wrong, and the destruction of the green grass is those of the church who had life, but in this same Chapter we saw the angel at the altar throw the coals of fire into the earth. Israel came into opposition to the coals of fire, at the time that the angel of the fire took the symbolic coals of the ransom doctrine off the altar, and cast them into the earth. That coals represented the doctrine of the ransom and Israel failed that test and rejected the salvation our Lord had brought to them, but the same test also came against the nominal house during the harvest time on this end of the age, because they also had also lost the truth of what Christ had accomplished on the cross, and we see it one more time in the seventh bowl of wrath, which seems to indicate that when the kingdom comes that will still be the test—the ransom is the only salvation that will save and so all false doctrines are going to have to be removed and the one true salvation accepted by the people. The faithful church also needs to keep the doctrine of the blood of the ransom as its central doctrine, since all other things relate back to that. We might not think that we can fall on that, but beware, because some after 1914 did fall! We need to make sure that we do not have any philosophy from men mixed in with what we believe, but we need to square everything with the scriptures.

Conclusion

So, what we see happening in the first trumpet, is that the truth was being misused and corrupted by some individuals in the church, and that was the beginning of the apostasy. While the grab for power that Paul talked about had small beginnings, it eventually led to those who fully supported the control of the civil power by the church, as well as the complete power of the clergy over the people. The symbol "one-third" destroyed is indicating that God’s religious system was starting to be turned piece by piece into the fallen 666 systems. The mixture of hail, fire and blood was being misused when it was cast into the earth, and it eventually affected all of society as represented by the symbol “earth”. That is why we see the symbol of the earth again when we see the first bowl of wrath, because that shows that the society of the earth was corrupted into being a 666 system, and that corruption started at the time of the first church. The corruption of the earth or society, includes the corruption of the trees, which symbolized the churches and their leaders.

Eventually the earth and the church became so corrupted, that in Chapter 13 we will see the Papal two-horned beast come up “out of the earth”. The two-horned beast was the one that called for the formation of the Image in 799 – 800AD, and very shortly after that they began to murder the saints. We will explain all the beasts and the history of them in Chapter 12-13, 17.

As we go through the rest of the four trumpets, we will see several other symbols corrupted, and we will see that the corruption adds together and gets worse, trumpet after trumpet, just like the seals did. So the small things that began to be corrupted in the early church, grew until they had become the oppressive church and state system by the time of the fourth church.

Trumpet 2

Revelation 8:8-9

Revelation 8:8 The second angel sounded, and {something} like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea; and a third of the sea became blood,

Revelation 8:9 and a third of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died; and a third of the ships were destroyed. (NAU)

In the message to the first church, the seal, and the trumpet, we were shown visions of the fundamental doctrines beginning to be corrupted and misused, and we also saw the Nicolaitans who were beginning to take forcible control over the church. Here in this trumpet we will see the control by the religious leaders becoming totalitarian part way through this church, and we will see the Roman Empire begin to take an interest, and to take control of the church doctrines and affairs by legalizing Christianity in 333AD. That probably seemed like a good thing after the 10 years of severe persecution that the church had just gone through during this church period, but history shows that the beginning of the union of church and state was a big mistake. By the end of this church the great falling away was well under way.

The Cooperation with Rome Made the Church Believe That the Kingdom Had Come

At the time of the second church, we see that Satan was using and controlling the Empire of Rome, and he first used the Empire to physically attack the church trying to destroy it. After that failed he then began to use the power of Rome to take control of the church, by making the Christian church the religion of the Empire. The mountain of Rome that was thrown into the sea here in the second trumpet, symbolizes a new idea and doctrine that this church developed after it became unified with Rome, and that idea was that they thought that the full kingdom of God had been established on the earth by the union with the power of Rome. They began to think that way, because Christianity had become the religion of the Empire in 313AD, and the Emperor began calling church councils and setting doctrine in the church to settle disputes. Because the Empire had recognized Christianity as the religion of the Empire, some leaders in the church and even Rome, began to claim that this new cooperation between the Empire and the church was Christ’s kingdom on the earth.

The Burning Mountain Thrown into the Sea

The reason that this is pictured as a burning mountain being thrown into the sea, is because it pictures the Empire or mountain of Rome taking control of the sea of Christianity at the time that not only Rome, but even Christianity was suffering internal conflict in the Empire. Unfortunately, a lot of the religious leaders allowed that to happen because they thought that it was a good thing. When the mountain of Rome came into the sea of people and began taking control and making a partnership with the church, that established a religious Empire amongst the Christian people. Unfortunately, it was not Christ's religious Empire, because it was Rome's or Satan's religious Empire—this event was the beginning of the seventh head on the beast. Because it had brought an end to persecution, many were willing to believe that it was Christ's kingdom that was beginning there. They had forgotten that the church was not supposed to go down to Egypt for help, Egypt symbolizes the world, but they were supposed to stay separate. That mistake eventually led to the most oppressive system that has ever existed in the history of the world.

A more complete explanation of the reason that the mountain was burning with fire, was because both halves of the civil Empire had fiery divisions at that time over many different things—both civil and religious. That was one of the reasons that the Roman Empire had accepted Christianity as the most favored religion, because the Emperor hoped that the church could help bring both civil and religious unity to the Empire. What the Emperor didn't count on was that Christianity itself had severe divisions and arguments going on at the same time, like the Trinity doctrine controversy that the faithful were still fighting against. Because of that religious controversy, Constantine called a church council in 325AD and forced several doctrinal solutions on the church, which were not correct doctrine. That wasn't the final solution regarding the Trinity, because the argument went back and forth after that, with one side winning for a while and then the other. Unfortunately, the Trinity doctrine won out in the end, and we are still stuck with that heresy yet today.

If we go back to the history of the second church, and look at what was going on at the time, we find that one of the books of the Bible that was argued against during that second church period when they were compiling the Bible, was the book of Revelation. One of the reasons that some resisted Revelation, and were against putting it into the Canon, was because the book of Revelation did not agree with the new doctrine that said that Christ had already established his kingdom, because it showed a future kingdom that would come only after a great falling away and the completion of the 144,000. The earthly power of Rome made it possible for corrupt church leaders to set up the counterfeit kingdom of Christ in the Empire, and that is why they then could call it Christendom or Christ's kingdom, which it definitely was not.

The Poisoned Sea Was Turned to Blood

The idea of the establishment of a false kingdom of Christ at that time, was what poisoned the sea, and the people with the symbol of blood. This corruption of the sea is like the blood that poisoned the drinking water of Egypt during the time of the ten plagues. The mountain of Rome was what helped cause this problem, because of the acceptance of Christianity by the Empire. The symbol of the mountain that was thrown in the water, created a new type of Roman kingdom in the sea of people, which still contained Christians, but it was not Christ's kingdom as was being claimed at the time. When Christianity was accepted by Rome in 313AD, that was when the symbol of the Pagan dragon in Chapter 12 turned from the dragon symbol, to the symbol of the terrible beast seen at the beginning of Chapter 13. It had all the same heads and horns, but it had become a beast in God's sight, because it had become illegally allied with Christianity. The Dragon symbol still equaled

Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast.

The mountain or kingdom of Rome being thrown into the sea, changed one third of the water into blood, which caused spiritual death to anyone that had life and tried to accept that as God's kingdom and symbolically drink it. The reason that the water was being turned into blood, was because when Rome took control of the church, then the Holy spirit that was helping the church was pushed out or rejected, and the remaining spirit was an earthly spirit that was following its own bloody and worldly ideas, ignoring our Lord's command to love one another. That was especially evident in the fight over the Trinity doctrine, which was going on at that time. People were shedding blood and killing each other, and that was especially true of those who supported the false Trinity doctrine. That worldly spirit grew worse, so that by the time of the fourth church, they were rounding up anyone that didn't agree in the inquisition and killing them. This hatred and killing of their brethren, is the reason why the one third of the water was changed to blood, leaving two thirds, which is 666.

Love Turned Cold & Was Lost Completely By Church

Another problem is that instead of a spirit of love and helping each other, another spirit of the world came in which was to get worldly advantages for yourself, even if it was at the expense of others. Instead of preaching love and salvation, the church officials began to worry about who was more important or who had the most power in the church, or who had the most influence with the government of Rome. One other reason that the symbol of blood is used here in corrupting the people, is that the union of Rome and the church and the bringing in of the worldly spirit into the church, turned what had been a faithful church into the bloodiest system that the world has ever known.

They began building a worldly and earthly church and state Empire, which was falsely being claimed as Christ's kingdom on earth. The early start of getting power for yourself and lording it over the people that began in the first church, was becoming an oppressive and threatening system that demanded that everyone believe the doctrinal errors that it was forcing on the people by the end of the second church. Since they thought that they were Christ's kingdom here on earth, they thought that they had the right to force their doctrinal error on others. That cold and worldly spirit is what led directly to the Papal system.

Faithful were Losing Control of the Church

The faithful of the church knew that they should have remained separate from the Roman Empire in making their own doctrinal decisions, but Satan wanted control over the people so that he could corrupt the church and with the establishment of this new mountain or kingdom, he soon had complete control, because all he had to do was control a few church officials who could call upon the power of the Empire to force their decisions on the people. In the second trumpet, that occurred because he was using a new tactic when he made the church the favored religion of the Empire, thus placing them under his control through the power of Rome. Since he controlled Rome, he then had control of the church.

The mountain falling into the sea is showing us the beginning of the attack on the sea and the earth, that the church was warned about in Rev Chapter 12. Here we see Satan's attack begin on the sea and the individuals that had true doctrines that supported the spiritual life of the church.

Rev 12:12 "For this reason, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has {only} a short time." (NAU)

The Second Message & Second Seal Agree

We likewise see a confirmation of the growing interference and influence of Satan in the message to the second church, where we find Jesus calling the second church “the synagogue of Satan”, “Revelation 2:9”. In the second seal the trouble in the church is shown again, but with a different symbol, where it is represented as those who were taking peace from the earth with the sword. There was both a spiritual sword as well as a literal sword of trouble during this church.

New Creatures

The creatures in the sea in the second trumpet that had life, are symbolic of the new creation of the Faithful Church, who are those who had consecrated their lives to God. They are those who had offered themselves as living sacrifices and who were then spirit-begotten as new creatures in Christ. They were more advanced than the simple believers, who are symbolized as being the sea class that the mountain fell into. Many of the consecrated ones who belonged to this advanced class, were losing their crowns because they were believing and going along with the new idea that said that this system was Christ’s kingdom, and they were falling for the corrupted doctrines which were being forced upon the church.

2 Cor 5:16-17 (16 Wherefore we henceforth know no man after the flesh: even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know (him so) no more.

17 Wherefore if any man is in Christ, (he is) a new creature: the old things are passed away; behold, they are become new. ASV

The fallen church system in the second church which was being influenced by Rome, began working with the corrupted bishops against anyone who tried to hold onto the original Christian truth. Matt 24:4-5 (4 And Jesus answered and said to them, "See to it that no one misleads you. 5 "For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will mislead many. NASU

They started the church councils that established many creeds and erroneous doctrines during the latter part of this church, and they condemned or persecuted anyone who would not agree with the new ideas. This problem was not fully developed at the time of the second church, but it had its start at that time, and because of the decree of 381AD which was towards the end of the second church, true debate for the truth in the church was eventually stopped in the next church. The other church councils that came after that date, solidified and completed many of the false doctrines that we still have in the churches today.

Many who Had Life We’re Dying

The sea which represented individual Christians who had spiritual nourishment was being turned into blood by the joining of the power of the Roman system to that of the church. The one-third of the water turning to blood symbolized a worldly spirit that was overcoming a large portion of the faithful in the church. Many of the Consecrated who had life in the sea, were being deceived and were dying. That is the same thing we see happening in the prophecy in Ezekiel Chapter 9, where the six men were slaughtering those who were not marked by the one with the writer's inkhorn, who symbolizes Christ. The only ones marked for God, were those who were sighing and crying over the things being done wrong in the city, which symbolizes the corrupt Great

City of Papacy that is described in Chapter 11 of Revelation.

The six men symbolized the ideas of the world and Satan, that were corrupting members of the church, so that they were not able to be accepted by God for the position of the high calling. The corrupt worldly ideas from the six men, made great progress in corrupting the second church. That is symbolized by the ones in the sea dying, because of the blood in the sea which symbolized a wrong or worldly spirit, and that same thing is symbolized by those who were not marked by the writer's inkhorn, because the six different forms of worldly ideas killed them all. Those who were getting the mark of the writer's ink horn, were the ones that had symbolically kept the doctrines of Christ and who were being sealed by Christ in the forehead—they symbolized those who still had spiritual life, and who were fighting against the error that was coming into the church. That corruption of the worldly spirit did not stop in the second church, but it continued onward through the other churches, especially during the first four. After that the Lord began to deliberately attack and weaken the power of that evil system.

Sea Symbolized Christians Who Were Not as Advanced As Creatures Who Had Life

It's not correct to make the sea represent just ordinary people, as is sometimes used for the sea symbol, because we see that the Roman Empire is thrown into the sea, and so it must be something different than simply being worldly people. Here we believe that the sea is symbolizing faithful Christians, who attending church and who believed in Christ. These are not necessarily those who had offered themselves as living sacrifices as Apostle Paul asked for in Romans 12:1, but they would be at least believers in Christ and his salvation. The ones who had offered themselves as living sacrifices, are those who are described as creatures having life in the sea. Unfortunately, some of them fell in the testing of that time, because one-third of them were symbolically killed by the blood, leaving 666 in the evil system.

Sea With Living Creatures Became 666

The mountain or the idea that the kingdom of Christ had been established, allowed the corrupt bishops to begin taking even more strict control of the church, by using the false idea that since this was Christ's kingdom they had the right to dictate doctrines. Because that idea was false and this was actually Satan's system, those who believed this lie were being changed into 666—which is symbolically pictured by the turning of one-third of the sea into blood, ( $1 - 1/3 = 2/3 = .666$ ). See Zech 13:8-9 below and the cutting off two parts and the salvation of the third part. Unfortunately, some who had the Holy spirit were overwhelmed by the worldly temptations that came about because of the legalizing of the Christian religion. Those who accepted that false idea could get elevated into power or wealth in the church or even in the Empire. Because the church councils were taking religious freedom away from the people there was nothing to stop the false doctrines from taking root and overwhelming large numbers of the church, except for the few faithful who resisted and fought against that inrush of worldly spirit. Unfortunately, this corruption of church and state was pictured by Elijah, who soon had to flee into hiding, because Ahab and Jezebel were trying to kill him.

About One Third Being Removed

In the above calculations, some might object to using  $1 - .333 = .666$  as a decimal number because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah, we find this: Zech 13:8-9(8 “It will come about in all the land,” Declares the LORD , “That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9“And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, ‘They are My people,’ And they will say, ‘The LORD IS my God.’” NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire, he is defining them as good. To prove that we see that they are refined as gold and silver. So, when you see us use the decimal number one third or two thirds anywhere in this book, Zechariah Chapter 13:8-9 is the principle behind that calculation.

The false ideas ruined or poisoned many regarding their spiritual life, and for that reason the ones that fell into the worldly spirit lost their understanding of spiritual things after that time. Those who remained faithful came under attack by those who had fallen into error. The sources or fountains of the water of truth that we will be shown in the third trumpet, were also polluted with corrupted doctrines so that they were not life sustaining either, and that made things even worse, because after that the situation couldn't be corrected very easily. A big and very significant change that occurred in the third church, was that Papacy was put in charge of the doctrines of both halves of the Empire by Justinian, and no one was allowed to disagree with him! If the doctrinal sources had remained pure, the church might have eventually recovered, but as we will see in church three, they were further poisoned by more Pagan doctrines that became mixed in with the truth and by the forbidding of anyone to disagree with the leaders of the church when erroneous doctrines were brought in.

In punishment for them having done that to the Faithful Church, we see that in the second bowl of wrath on this end of the age, the Lord poisoned “all” of the sea, bringing an even more worldly spirit into their churches, which took the remaining Holy spirit totally away from them. That worldly change in doctrines has caused them to lose out and to be cast out as the message to the seventh church warned would happen.

Ships of the Sea

Regarding the ships of the sea, we are not as positive as to what they represent, since we haven't found a direct definition or scripture for them in the Bible. We can still make a good guess, in that a ship is anything that carries commerce or goods across the water. For that reason, a symbolic ship would seem to indicate missionary efforts, as they carried truth and went witnessing about the Lord to all corners of the world. Unfortunately, when those witness efforts were taken over by the fallen church, they were destroyed as far as the Lord was concerned, since any converts were not being converted to him, but to the erroneous Satanic 666 church system. The one-third of the ships being removed changed the missionary effort into 666, and that was corrupting any conversion effort.

Matt 23:15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel around on sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves. NASU

Trumpet 3

Revelation 8:10

Revelation 8:10 The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters.

433.75AD-793.75AD

In this trumpet, we will see that the damage to the faithful church gets much worse. In the previous church period, the Empire and the corrupted bishops managed to take control of the church through the church councils. At the time of this church, Papacy has come out on top because of his being in the seat of power in the city of Rome. There is a question of who the star is here? It's tempting to make the star represent Papacy, but we think that there is a greater power behind Papacy that is represented by the symbol of the fallen star. We for sure know that the power in this trumpet is Satan, and we know that he works through earthly people and institutions, and in this church he is using Papacy to corrupt doctrines and to start taking control of the civil power. Because of that, for all practical purposes we could call the star either Papacy or Satan and we would not see much difference, because Satan is the power behind Papacy. Because they are two sides of one coin, our explanation will mainly be talking about what Papacy was doing in this church, but remember who the power behind him is.

After looking at this question, the Study Group decided that the symbol of the star represents Satan, controlling Papacy, and in Chapter 12 we will be warned of great woes that are going to happen because the dragon Satan was thrown down, and we are warned that he was going to attack both the earth and the sea. In that chapter it tells us that Satan had been cast down out of heaven because of the blood of the Lamb.

Rev 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

Rev 12:12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhibitors of the earth and of the sea! For the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

We also see Satan described as a fallen star in Isaiah.

Isa 14:12-15 (12 "How you have fallen from heaven, O star of the morning, son of the dawn! You have been cut down to the earth, You who have weakened the nations! 13 "But you said in your heart, 'I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God, And I will sit on the mount of assembly In the recesses of the north. 14 'I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.' 15 "Nevertheless you will be thrust down to Sheol, To the recesses of the pit. NASU

Theodosius & 381

Satan used the corrupted Emperors to install error into the church, until one of them especially began to dictate what doctrines the church could believe. Theodosius in 381AD, right at the close of the second church, made a decree that made it almost impossible for any source of truth to correct the doctrinal errors that had already been brought into the church. You were not allowed to disagree with any so-called orthodox positions, or you could be stripped of land or wealth or even killed. Even the Pagan Religion was banned, but in the long run, that made the situation even worse, because the Pagans came into the church in large numbers, and they brought their Pagan doctrines with them. The situation became worse after 539AD in the third church, because Papacy got the Emperor to use the Roman army to put down the Arians, who disagreed about the Trinity doctrine. The removal of them from the city of Rome, also opened the old seat of the Roman Empire to Papacy—that gave him precedence over the other Bishops, especially when Justinian appoint him religious leader over both halves of the Empire. The use of the civil power of the Empire to enforce false doctrines, continued for 1260 years after that time

The Pope and the bishops, as well as the schools of theology, were going to be so corrupted in this church, that they would only be able to bring forth poisonous bitter water, which symbolizes corrupted doctrines. The reason that this occurred, is because this is the church period in which the Emperor Justinian gave Papacy the right to decide doctrinal disputes in both halves of the Empire, which was just before 539—it was not codified into law until a later date. That added to the power of the decree of 381, by giving Papacy the exclusive right to settle doctrinal disagreements, and that in practice became enforceable by the might of the Roman Empire. As we will see, Papacy did not waste any time in taking advantage of that increase in power.

That was a big factor, and is perhaps the biggest factor of all in causing the sources of doctrinal waters to become bitter and undrinkable. Satan only had to convince the person who was in control of the Papal office, to pollute and corrupt the doctrines, and the entire church was forced to follow them. That Papacy was given the right to decide all doctrinal disputes in both halves of the Empire, made it impossible for the faithful members of the church to correct any of the false doctrines during the 1260 years, unless they did it outside of the Great City—which is the same way Elijah had to do it. If Elijah had gone directly to Jerusalem he would have been killed, and that would have been the end of any reforms, and the same thing would have happened to the faithful church if they had gone directly to the Great City, which we will see described in Chapter 11. We will see the symbolic death of God’s word in Chapter 11 of Revelation, which occurred in that Great City, but we will explain in that Chapter that the truth of God’s word still existed outside the city, just like Elijah who had to hide to save his life.

The Two Prophets Were Killed in the Great City By 539AD & Even Before

Once the early church began to forget what Christ had accomplished on the cross, they were then able to be even more quickly overwhelmed by Satan. They became a Pagan church, that didn’t understand what Christ had done for salvation. That is why this system is called the Abomination that makes desolate. The sources of true doctrines were being attacked and changed into the 666 system in this church. Here we see that the corrupting of the rivers and the fountains of water, represents Satan using Papacy to take complete control of the doctrinal sources during the time of the third church—the law or mandate from Justinian gave Papacy complete control of religious doctrine. When Papacy was given the full control over the church doctrines, even the Bible was not able to be used in deciding doctrinal disputes anymore, because Papacy claimed the right to ignore the Bible when he made his decisions. That is why we see the two prophets who represent the Old and the New Testament, lying dead in the streets of the Great City in Chapter 11.

The relationship between the Great City and Great Babylon, seems to be that the Great City started out with the Papal system, and that is the meaning of the Great City. Great Babylon, contains the Great City of Papacy, but it also contains all of the Daughter Systems that have sprang off from her, propagating the same false doctrines. Great Babylon, is like the ancient Babylon, in that it was made up of the many countries it had conquered, yet it contained the central city called Babylon—which is the Great City of Papacy.

Satan was able to turn many of those who had the truth away from God, by poisoning the doctrinal sources. He had started working gradually at the time of the Apostles, and that corruption grew in strength and power as time went on. During the latter part of the second church, he gradually began taking control of the doctrinal sources, so that by the time of the third church, he had taken complete control of the church by having Justinian give the complete ecclesiastical authority to Papacy.

Once Justinian had made Papacy into the single and only authority that could not be argued against in both halves of the Empire, the great falling away had become a terrible reality. Some secular historians recognize that this was the start a dark period of history, during which no new ideas on anything were allowed. That included not only religious ideas, but even scientific ideas which were suppressed during the time that this church was in total control, because Papacy even claimed the right to decide scientific ideas. So later, when someone claimed truthful things like the idea that the earth was not flat, or that the sun did not rotate around the earth, they were not allowed to bring any of the new ideas out, and if they did they were persecuted.

The Flood of Error From the Serpent & the Dragon

If we look at the river of lies flowing from the mouth of the serpent in Rev 12:15 and other Satanic deceptions, Rev 13:14, 20:8, 10, we begin to see the methods that Satan used. The Dragon symbol still equaled Satan and the Pagan doctrines he uses to corrupt the truth, even after he had transferred his throne to the Christianized beast. The large number of Pagan people that he brought into the early church, drowned out the voice of truth that the Faithful Church had been giving before that time. It was by the time of the third church, that the Nicolaitans had gained great influence with the civil power. They earlier had gotten a great deal of control over the church, and most of the people had come to accept the clergy as their doctrinal leaders because they had been convinced that the church and state arrangement that they had was Christ's kingdom. By the time of the third church, most had accepted the idea that they were not supposed to question the authorities regarding what they were teaching, and that gave Papacy the ability to change any doctrine that he wanted, and no one could question the change.

Once the faithful church was defeated and overruled, Papacy through the church councils and the bishops and the priests, decided what the people were to believe and most of the time they did not consult the scriptures to decide what was correct. There were still some who tried to express individual opinions, but by the third church, Papacy was beginning to use civil power to stamp out all opposition, such as what happened at Ravenna. He had allied with Emperor Justinian to attempt to restore the Western Roman Empire, and they used the power of the army at that time to crush the Arians in the Western part of the Empire in 539AD, and that was the end of those who opposed the Trinity doctrine in the West. It also left Papacy in control of the important original seat of Rome as we just mentioned—which led to him getting full control later.

Historically we see that there were no successful reformers during the third church, because anyone who tried to do so was cast into prison or killed. We first see Arius resisting in the second church and then later in the third church, we see in 431AD that the council of Ephesus condemned Nestorius, who was also a champion against the Trinity doctrine. He is the one who may be the messenger of this church, because he was the one who brought the inconsistencies of the Trinity doctrine before the church, causing them to call a couple of councils to try to counter the truth he had revealed. He also said that Mary was not the mother of God, but was only the mother of Jesus, and he argued against the idea that Christ was both man and God while he was here on earth. They banished him so that he could not continue to fight against the Trinity and other errors, but before he died he managed to write a book called "The Bazaar of Heracleides", where he outlined his arguments. The church ordered that all his writings be burned, because they feared that the truthful ideas that he had brought out might be re-discovered. Only one copy of his book that we mentioned earlier was ever found and most of the rest of his writings were destroyed. From that time onward, the doctrinal situation continued to grow worse and worse, especially after Papacy was given control of all doctrine!

In looking at the messages to the third church in Revelation 2:13, we find confirming information regarding this trumpet, in that our Lord tells us that he knows where Satan's throne is. The throne of Satan that was mentioned in the message to the third church, fits with the above events and conclusions, where we see that Papacy is where Satan's throne of power in the church is at. That is why we believe that he is the great burning star that fell from heaven. In 539AD, which was in the third church, Satan had established the main elements of church and state. From that time onward, Papacy began rising relatively fast in power and prominence, so that by 799AD right at the beginning of the fourth church, he was able to begin to crown and uncrown kings. This third church is where the Lord mentioned the Nicolaitans a second time, because this is the church where they had gained considerable power over the church, and they became allied with the civil power of Rome.

Comparison of Third Trumpet & Bowl

It's clear that the fallen star must be bad, if we look at the punishment the Lord rendered against the apostate church system on this end of the age, when he poured out the third bowl of wrath. There is a direct correspondence between what is being done wrong in each trumpet and what is being punished in the corresponding bowl of punishment. If we look at the third bowl of wrath, we find that it's brought against the same symbols of the rivers and springs of water that this star turned into 666 in the third trumpet by the removal of one part of three, leaving two parts. The punishment of the third bowl is because of the blood of the saints that had been killed when they tried to resist the doctrinal changes. Those who had been killed resisting the evil system, say that the judgments brought against this system by the third bowl were righteous and deserved. God has poisoned the evil systems doctrines on this end of the age, just like they did to the faithful churches doctrines in the early church. Their doctrines have become very worldly after 1918AD, because the Holy spirit has been withdrawn, and the worldly spirit has taken complete control of the churches. Revelation 16:4-7)4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of waters; and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "Righteous are You, who are and who were, O Holy One, because You judged these things; 6 for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. They deserve it."

The truth as God had originally given it to the Faithful Church had been nourishing and sustaining to them. The rivers and the springs should have been strong channels of truth, bringing forth truth and refreshing life to the church. When the apostate church system polluted the waters, the waters became bitter and undrinkable water. The spiritual doctrines were not fit to drink, and any attempt to drink them resulted in spiritual death. What should have been sources of refreshment and truth for the church, had become poisoned. That is why our Lord has done the same thing to their doctrines and systems on this end of the age.

Comparison of Third Seal

That the problem is doctrinal corruption and spiritual starvation, is also confirmed in the third seal, where we see conditions that indicate famine. We saw that the wheat which symbolized solid and good truth, was very hard to get or very expensive. Barley which symbolized a lesser food was not as expensive, and that corresponded to the fact that the good nourishing spiritual truth of wheat was not easy to come by during the third church. The barley corresponds to the milk of the word, which does not result in full grown and developed Christians. We also find in the message to the third church, that they were guilty of eating things which had been sacrificed to idols. That these were things that had been sacrificed to idols, was a result of the fact that the doctrines that were being dispensed were not from God's anymore, but they were coming from the Pagan and Satanic sources. The doctrine of the mass was becoming fully developed in this church, and the sacrificing of Christ over and over again was an abomination to God.

The situation had gotten bad very quickly because of the large influx of Pagans and Barbarians that had come into the church. They had come in for different reasons, one of which was that many of them were forced into the church when Christianity became the Empire's official religion—that especially happened because of the decree of 381, because even Pagans had to convert to Christianity. A good share of them didn't give up their Pagan doctrines even as they came into the Christian church. Because of their large numbers, they were even more so able to overwhelm the Faithful Church and to mix Pagan doctrine with Christian doctrine, thus corrupting it. That corrupted doctrine was part of the river or flood of water that the serpent Satan had tried to drown the woman with and it's the same river of trouble and persecution that is described in Daniel Chapter 12, where we see that it was to last for 1260 years or from 539-1799AD.

Dan 12:6-7(6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. (KJV)

Revelation 12:15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

The river of trouble and doctrinal corruption, according to both Revelation and Daniel, was to continue for 1260 years, which was from 539-1799AD. That period is defined at a day for a year, using three different units of time: the 1260 days, 42 months, and 3.5 times, at 360 years per time. The third church is where we come to 539AD, which is the beginning of the 1260 years.

Revelation 8:11

Revelation 8:11 The name of the star is called Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter. (NAU)

NT:894WORMWOOD

(Eng., "absinthe"), a plant both bitter and deleterious, and growing in desolate places, figuratively suggestive of "calamity" Lam 3:15 and injustice Amos 5:7, is used in Rev 8:11 (twice; in the 1st part as a proper name). (from Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words, Copyright © 1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers.)

We notice that the definition of wormwood says that it is a bitter plant that grows in the wilderness, and this was definitely at least a 1260-year wilderness as seen in Rev Chapter 12. The words calamity and injustice fit very well with the evil system that existed during that 1260 years of a very Dark Age time.

If there has been any doubt that the things we have seen in the first four trumpets represent the corruption and downfall of the church, we only need to examine the scriptures below that talk about wormwood. They show the same thing that we see in the changing of the water into wormwood, in that it is poisoning the sources of truth. That poison is definitely going to finish corrupting the church so that it has no true doctrinal truth in it. Wormwood is mentioned in Deut, in relationship to those who turn to foreign God's. Proverbs talks about the adulterous woman (Papacy), who is bitter as worm wood. Amos talks about justice and the fruit of righteousness being turned into worm wood.

Deut 29:16-19 (16 for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed;17 moreover, you have seen their abominations and their idols of wood, stone, silver, and gold, which they had with them); 18 so that there will not be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of those nations; that there will not be among you a root bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood. NASU

Prov 5:2-6 (2 And your lips may reserve knowledge. 3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey And smoother than oil is her speech;4 But in the end she is bitter as wormwood, Sharp as a two-edged sword. 5 Her feet go down to death, Her steps take hold of Sheol. 6 She does not ponder the path of life; Her ways are unstable, she does not know it. NASU

Amos 5:6-7(6 "Seek the LORD THAT you may live, Or He will break forth like a fire, O house of Joseph, And it will consume with none to quench it for Bethel, 7For those who turn justice into wormwood And cast righteousness down to the earth." NASU

Amos 6:12 Do horses run on rocks? Or does one plow them with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into poison And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood, NASU

While we explained earlier why we believe that the star was Satan in its primary meaning, we should also keep in mind that Satan works through earthly institutions and people. In this situation, we see that Papacy and the corrupt bishops who made up the church councils, are who Satan was working through in this church.

This trumpet reminds us of the waters of Marah, where the water was too bitter to drink. As we recall the Lord gave Moses the means to make the water sweet by casting a branch into it and the water became drinkable again. The branch that he cast into the water symbolized Christ, and the doctrinal purity of the blood of the Lamb that he had supplied to the church. The lesson of Marah is that the corruption of the doctrinal water could be corrected by anyone that studied the scriptures and regained an understanding of what Christ had accomplished on the cross. We also see that it pictured that the doctrines of salvation were eventually going to begin to be restored again, and that restoration began in the time of the fifth church, where the Reformers were the ones that began the process of purifying the water for those who were seeking after the Lord.

If we can keep the doctrine of the ransom correct in our understanding and keep the robe of righteousness on, Satan cannot attack us as easily because we are covered for our faults. The faithful church has had access to the branch which symbolizes Christ all through the age. He has sweetened the waters for the faithful all through the age if they put their trust in him and not the evil system. They can receive the help that they need to stay separate from that system, if they study the scriptures just as Elijah did.

Isa 11:1 A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit.

Zech 3:8 "Listen, O high priest Joshua and your associates seated before you, who are men symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch. NIV

That the turning of the waters bitter was an event which led the church further into darkness, is confirmed here when we see one-third of the waters were affected, which symbolized that they were being changed into 666,

( $1-1/3 = 2/3 = .666$ ). See Zech 13:8-9 for the one part being removed and being refined as gold and silver, leaving two parts to be cast off. The doctrinal errors in this church were so bad that they symbolically killed those that came into contact with the waters of false doctrines and tried to drink them.

Isaiah 5:20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

One interesting thing that we noticed is that when our Lord punishes the apostate system in the third bowl of wrath at the end of the age, he does not turn the waters into wormwood or bitter, but he turns all of the fountains and rivers of water to blood, which amounts to the same thing, in that if they had any spiritual life and tried to stay in the evil system, they would have lost their spiritual reward or crown, because they would not have had any life sustaining spiritual water that they could drink. The symbolic blood of earthly spirit, symbolizes that the sources of doctrines in the third seal, have become completely worldly and not useful for developing anyone for the 144,000.

Trumpet 4 Revelation 8:12

Revelation 8:12 The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and the day would not shine for a third of it, and the night in the same way. (NAU)

The Last of the 10 symbols Were Turned to 666

Again, we see a continuing and worsening situation in the church, because several more symbolic elements of God's church and society are being reduced by a third, which is turning them into the 666 of the great falling away. In the fourth trumpet, we are seeing the last of the 10 symbols that make up God's religious system turned into 666 or Satan's system. In other words, by the end of this church, there was nothing that had not been corrupted by Satan. The history of that time shows that it was the beginning of the vilest and worst time that has ever come upon the earth. There was nothing left to hold Satan and Papacy back, except a few faithful individuals that were not able to do anything much at that time that could stop the complete corruption of the church. Most of those who still had the truth, had to hide like Elijah, and they were not allowed to do any teaching in the fallen church. Not being allowed to teach or preach anymore in the church, is the same as them not being allowed "to buy or sell", which we will see described in Chapter 13. This evil time is also definitely the time that the two witnesses were lying dead in the street of the Great City of Papacy, which we will see described in Chapter 11.

Papacy Began to Crown & Un-Crown Kings

At the beginning of this church period, was when Papacy had gotten or at least claimed the power to crown and uncrown kings. Because of that control he eventually could command the civil power to punish or even kill those who disagreed with his control over the church. Some of those who opposed his taking control over the civil power of the city of Rome and surround area in 799-800, were killed after the Pope had crowned Charlemagne. Papacy did not get the full power over the kings until later on, which was about 1122-1179. See the historical information from Sir Isaac Newton, which is included at the beginning of the message to the fourth church, for a detailed history of what happened at that time.

The oppressive power of persecution had existed in the church since the beginning of the 1260 years, but it was getting much worse by the time of this church. This was the time that the 1000-year Papal reign of terror began. By the time of the end of the fourth church and the beginning of the fifth church, the Papal church had reached the height of its power. You could not buy or sell in the spiritual marketplace of this church at all, unless you agreed with the doctrine and the authorities, the chief of which was Papacy.

The following symbols are what were corrupted in this church, and we are going to review them one by one.

The Sun

The uncorrupted sun represented the Gospel light that Jesus had brought to the world at the First Advent. The Malachi reference below has a partial application at the First Advent, and it has a more complete application at this end of the age when the Gospel light will be restored and magnified seven times.

Mal 4:2 But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

Another use of the symbol sun, is when our Lord came at the Second Advent to bring light to the seventh church, and to the entire world for the next age.

Isa 30:26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

In the time of the fourth trumpet, the Gospel light had already been turned into the complete 666 system—by the symbolic removal of one-third from what was left. By this time, the doctrine of the mass had been fully developed, and it had replaced the true sacrifice that Christ had provided on the cross—thus creating the Abomination of Desolation. By this time in history, the Gospel light had been turned into complete darkness, and we see that the evil system had become the great falling away that had been predicted by Paul. The light of this sun or doctrine, was no longer coming from God, but it was coming from man and Satan. That darkness is going to be exposed in the next trumpet when the pit is opened, and the smoke or darkness is seen coming out of it.

For the punishment of darkening the sun of the Gospel, and because of the evil done in this trumpet, the Lord poured out the fourth bowl of wrath on the sun, which scorched the ones who believed the errors of the evil system. That light is gradually exposing the error of the fallen church and the evils of society on this end of the age.

The Moon

One of the other symbols which was struck down in the fourth church, was the moon, which symbolized God's law. The Mosaic Law had pointed to and foreshadowed the Gospel salvation that was brought to light by Jesus at the First Advent. Our Lord as high priest in the heavens, had established a New Law which brought salvation to both the church during the Gospel age, and to the world in the next age. Because of that New Law, we are now under the spirit of the law and not the letter of the law. Heb 7:11-12 (11 Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be designated according to the order of Aaron? 12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also. NASU Heb 7:21-22

21 but this one became a priest with an oath, because of the one who said to him, "The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, 'You are a priest forever'" —

22 accordingly Jesus has also become the guarantee of a better covenant. NRSV

The evil church system perverted the light of the new moon or law, by establishing traditions of men in place of God's word and law. By the time of the fourth church, it had become darkness and the knowledge of what Christ had accomplished for us and the world had been lost. That corruption of the symbol, is shown by the one-third of the moon that was darkened, leaving two-thirds or .666.

In the above and following calculations, some might object to using  $1 - .333 = .666$  as a decimal number because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah, we find this: Zech 13:8-9(8 "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'" NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire, he is defining them as good. To prove that, we see that they are refined as gold and silver. So, when you see us use the decimal number one third or two thirds anywhere in this book, Zechariah Chapter 13:8-9 is the principle behind that calculation.

Regarding the civil laws of this evil system, the Bible was largely ignored by the time of this church, which by then had established one of the most unjust legal systems in history. Those who were being accused of heresy during this church, were not given a fair trial, and in many situations did not even know what they were accused of. The judgment of the church court was only used to pronounce the sentences of death, which had been decided before the trial even began. The civil power then carried out the torture and executions for the church, which is exactly what we will find the Image doing in Chapter 13.

Stars Not Shining

The stars that would not shine, represented those leaders in the church who originally had let their light shine forth, but upon being corrupted had lost the light of the Gospel. By this time in the church, the clergy who should have been shining lights to the church, were instead putting forth gross darkness. Only the faithful saints are able to shine like the stars, and they weren't being allowed to let their light shine in the heavens of the evil system at that time. This was the time that you could not buy or sell in the spiritual marketplace, so any truth had to be secretly given to those who wanted to know the truth.

Dan 12:3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever.

The light that was shining out of the pulpit stars, was not from God, but from Satan who turns darkness too light and light too darkness. The fall of the stars reminds us of the dragon in Revelation Chapter 12, where we will see that his tail cast down a third of the stars of heaven. The removal of one-third of the faithful stars in that Chapter, shows that the remaining spiritual teachers had been turned into the darkness of 666 which represents Satan's worldly church and state system. We see the same thing symbolized when the little horn of Papacy cast down the faithful stars and trampled them in Daniel Chapter 8. Dan 8:9-11 (9 Out of one of them came forth a rather small horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Beautiful Land. 10 It grew up to the host of heaven and caused some of the host and some of the stars to fall to the earth, and it trampled them down. 11 It even magnified itself to be equal with the Commander of the host; and it removed the regular sacrifice from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was thrown down. NASU

The Day

The day that is referred to here, could be one of several things. It could be the Gospel day which was corrupted by the fallen church system, or it could refer to the coming Millennial day, which they claimed was already established. It could also be the corruption of the understanding of the antitypical Atonement Day, which applies to both ages. The apostate church system was claiming in the previous church and for sure by this time, that they had established Christ's Millennial rule upon the earth. For that reason, the real and still coming Millennial day were forgotten and not understood at all. They also claimed that they represented Christ here on earth, and that they had the right to do what they wished in his name. In that sense, they had supplanted and replaced the true Gospel day, with their own false reign of terror.

That a third of the day was struck again, removed one-third from the day, changing it into Satan's evil kingdom which was a counterfeit kingdom or .666.

The Night

The night is a little more difficult of interpretation, but we find that "night" is representative of the difficult time that God has allowed mankind to be in to teach them the sinfulness of sin. Unfortunately, the corrupt church system misrepresented and blasphemed God in that regard, because they implied that the only reason for the punishment given Adam and the race was because Jehovah was a vengeful and wrathful God. They were also claiming that the dark and evil time that the church and state system had brought upon the world, was authorized by God and that it was his time of blessing. In that sense, they had again replaced the truth with Satan's 666 lies, and made the night much darker. Even though the system claimed to be from God, this time was historically darker and worse than any other time before it in the history of the world. That is why a lot of this time-period is even referred to as the dark ages by the secular world.

We see the same pattern of worsening corruption in the message to the fourth church, in that Jesus tells us there that he had given Jezebel time to repent, but she had not and because of that he was going to begin to punish her in the next church. In other words, the situation had gotten so bad that there was no more hope that the remaining church could be reformed. That is why we see that the Lord had allowed the Renaissance to begin in the fifth church, and the Reformation in the sixth, with the final judgment and spewing out of the harvest time which came in the seventh church period. Since there was no more hope that they could be reformed, our Lord began to weaken and punish them at the end of this church, and the beginning of the next.

That we see Jezebel mentioned in the message to the fourth church, shows that she was symbolically married to Ahab by this church, and that marriage symbolized the church and state that came into existence at the beginning of the fourth church in 799-800AD. Jezebel represents the religious part, and Ahab represents the civil government who was trying to kill Elijah, who represents the faithful church. The two symbols of church and state that we see in the fourth message to the churches, shows us that we are in the right time frame, because they represent the church and state system that had come into full power during this church after the crowning of Charlemagne and what happened because of that. It took some time, but after that crowning, he eventually got the next kings to agree to that ceremony, and then further onward he claimed the right to crown or uncrown the kings in around 1122-1179.

The fourth seal showed us in the description of the rider of the horse, that this church was so bad that the rider was called death, and it told us that Hades was following after him. In other words, anyone that was associated with the evil church system at the time of the fourth church, was in great danger of death and Hades. That is not a very flattering description of the situation the church was in at that time.

Comparison of Fourth Trumpet To Fourth Bowl of Wrath

To show that we are looking at this trumpet correctly, we also are going to look at the fourth bowl of wrath, where we see that the Lord pours out the fourth bowl on the sun. When he did that, the evil systems doctrines were contrasted with the true Gospel light, and they were shown to be darkness, having no true salvation in them. The fallen church system had taken the simplicity of God's salvation and made it invalid with the doctrine of the Mass that had been fully developed by the time of this church. That corruption was the full development of the Abomination of Desolation, that both our Lord and Daniel had warned us about.

Dan 11:31 (31 Forces sent by him shall occupy and profane the temple and fortress. They shall abolish the regular burnt offering and set up the abomination that makes desolate. NRSV which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), 16 then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains. NASU

At the same time, this evil system claimed and told everyone that salvation was dependent upon them, and that if you didn't agree with them you were going into death and torment. The doctrine of the Trinity and the doctrine of transubstantiation of the Mass, had made them lose sight of what Christ had really done for us on the cross. They were and still are claiming that they must sacrifice the actual body and blood of Christ, over and over again in the Mass, every hour on the hour to acquire salvation for their members.

Three Woes

Revelation 8:13

Revelation 8:13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in midheaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

God's Three Trumpet Blows

On the Fallen Church

The three woe trumpets were designed to make it possible to weaken the evil system enough, so that it would be possible to begin to separate God's faithful church from that evil system. That removal was going to take three steps, the time of the early reformers during the Renaissance, the Reformation, and the 40-year harvest time. The separation of the faithful from the fallen system at the harvest time wasn't going to signify the end of the call for the church, but it only meant that the evil system would be able to judged and punished after that separation was accomplished. It was going to be exactly like what happened with the Jewish system 1845 years before, where God did not use the judged and cast off system anymore after that time. Individuals in that system could still hear our Lord knocking and open the door to him, but there would be no one left in that system that would legally have a first chance for a crown if they continued to support the evil system. After that point in time, the prize of the call would go to whoever accepted the truth and won the race first. Those who stayed with that systems error, would be cast out as the message to the seventh church had warned.

So, because the last three trumpets are going to be woe trumpets, we can expect that they will show us woes or troubles coming against the church and state system from the fifth church onward. The three woes will gradually take away the power and authoritarian control that Satan's system had over the people. That control was going to become less, as each succeeding trumpet brought more woes upon them, until at the time of the seventh church, the Lord was going to be able to call the faithful church out of that system without them being able to use force to stop them from leaving.

This is an Eagle

The word eagle here is translated angel in some translations, but it is the word eagle. This is the same word found in Matt 24:28 that is sometimes translated vulture.

105 aetos (ah-et-os'); from the same as 109; an eagle (from its wind-like flight): KJV Eagle.

We also see that one of the Living Creatures that were seen here in Revelation, had the face of an eagle, and so this is most likely that Living Creature. The Eagle may also picture Jesus, who is the one that is going to be carrying out these woes upon the system. Eagles are far-sighted and represent wisdom. We see that Jehovah uses the example of an eagle when describing how Israel was gathered up out of the wilderness and brought to safety—that Eagle was Michael the archangel. In symbol that is what the next three woe trumpets are going to do, in that the church is going to be gathered up out of the wilderness of this evil system and brought to the Lord's Truth and safety. In Chapter 12, we are told that the church was going to be dwelling in the wilderness for 1260 years and that they would be fed there. Here we see that they are going to be removed from that wilderness by the time of the seventh church, and historically that is exactly what has happened.

Deut 32:10-11 (10 "He found him in a desert land, And in the howling waste of a wilderness; He encircled him, He cared for him, He guarded him as the pupil of His eye. 11 "Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, That hovers over its young, He spread His wings and caught them, He carried them on His pinions. NASU

The use of the word heavens here, represents the Gospel Age. An example that proves that symbolism is correct, is that the Millennial age will be represented as the new heavens and the new earth. The old heavens and earth is where we are at right now.

That this angel is flying in mid-heaven is interesting, since that is exactly where the fourth church was historically. The fourth church ended just before the beginning of the Renaissance, and according to our experimental system for the churches, it was most likely a 360-year period which went from 794 to 1154AD. If we look at the center point of the 1260-year period, we would literally be in the midst of the spiritual heavens, which would be 15 years after the end of the fourth church, which is 1169AD. That would agree with the three woes starting with the fifth church. The word "midst" means mid-sky.

Later on in Chapter 19, we will see the angel call to the eagles or vultures in the midheaven, to come and finish off the remnants of Satan's system. That indicates that the remnants of the Lord's Great army which began marching in the fifth church, will come against what is left of that evil system at the final end time.

3321 mesouranema (mes-oo-ran'-ay-mah); from a presumed compound of 3319 and 3772; mid-sky:

KJV-- midst of heaven.

Woes Signify a Change

That the next three trumpets are woe trumpets, signifies that there is to be a change in the situation. The woe trumpets could be viewed in two different ways. The first possibility is that even severer trouble could come upon the church. Historically starting with this time, while there was still trouble upon the faithful church, the progress was always in the direction of freeing them from the oppressive hold that the apostate church had on the them.

For that reason, the second possibility is the one that the Study Group believes is correct, and that is that the situation at the time of the fifth church was going to begin to change for the better, and the Lord was about to start to punish and afflict the evil church system. The intention of the divinely caused affliction, would be to get the fallen church and state system to let his faithful people go. That is exactly like what happened in the time of Egypt with Israel. In other words, this trouble was designed to weaken the church and state system, so that the Faithful Church could begin to heed the call to come out of her my people. If the harvest had come in the fourth church, hardly anyone would have been able to separate, because of the overwhelming power of the system at that time. Even here in the fifth church, Satan and the Papacy was going to resist the early reformers with great anger.

The Punishment of Jezebel is to Begin in the Fifth Church

This turn of events is mentioned in the message to the fourth church, where our Lord indicated by his statement, "I will", when he said that he was going to punish Jezebel. Starting and continuing through the next three churches, there was going to be a punishment for each of those church periods. See the notes on the message to the fourth church for the explanation of the three punishments that he was going to bring against Jezebel. The next church was the fifth or first woe trumpet, and we will see that the punishment did begin to come upon them in that church. If the interpretation of our Lord's statement to Jezebel in the message to the fourth church is correct, then we should see a difference in the next three churches, in that the evil system was not going to keep growing in power, but it would begin to decline and historically that was true!

History records that the Papal church reached its greatest height of power under Pope Innocent III, 1198-1216AD, which was at the beginning of the fifth church, which began in 1154AD by our theoretical calculations. Immediately after that Pope, Papacy began to decline in power. The history in that time area and the terrible church decisions that were made against those whom they considered heretics were inhuman. That time was at the height of Papal power, which was exercised through the Image of the Beast that was in power at that time, as we will see described in Chapter 13 and 17. That evil church and state beast, killed more people than Pagan Rome ever thought of doing. During the height of its power, it controlled the so-called Holy Roman Empire. Its power now is greatly declined, but if it were to gain power again, it would go back to its old trade of killing to support its false doctrines. Will it do that again? We don't think so, but we don't know for sure, and so we can only caution that all should watch to see what happens.

The Plagues of Egypt

That the three woe trumpets should be interpreted as punishments and destruction and removing of power from that evil system, is shown in the plagues of Egypt. The plagues of Egypt are related to the three woes, in that the first 3 plagues were on both Egypt and Israel, but the last 7 on Egypt alone. That is a similar situation to what we have in Revelation, where we have the 3 woe trumpets that fall on both the apostate church and the saints together, and then we have seven bowls of wrath that fall only on the evil apostate system, without the saints in it. We think that the last seven plagues of Egypt picture the seven bowls of wrath, which we will consider and explain in Chapter 16. The reason that the saints must suffer the plagues of the three woe trumpets, is because they were not separated from the evil system yet at this early time in history. The separation was not completed until just after the 40-year harvest of the seventh church. For that reason, the three woe trumpets have affected both the Faithful Church and the apostate churches, just like it affected the Israelites in the plagues of Egypt.

The last seven bowls of wrath have not been upon the faithful church, but only upon the evil church, because the faithful are supposed to have separated themselves out at least in spirit, if not in actual fact and away from the tares during the harvest. At the harvest time, the faithful were to come out of Babylon and come to the Lord through the call of the harvest message. After the separating of the 40-year harvest, we see that the apostate church systems would be considered to be empty of God's and Christ's people, and the full punishment could then come upon those who refused to leave or repent. Any that refused to come out of that system would partake of her plagues, and most likely had lost their crowns after 1914-1918AD because of that refusal.

Matt 13:30 'Allow both to grow together until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather up the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them up; but gather the wheat into my barn."'" NASU

Remember, that the Faithful Church was told to “come out of her my people Babylon so that you do not partake of her plagues”! If they didn't come out in the harvest, they would eventually receive the plagues and lose their crown to others, in other words they would be hit by the full destructive plagues that were meant to punish Great Babylon. For that reason, all of the Faithful Church were to do as the Israelites did in the Exodus from Egypt, in that they were to leave her.

Churches, Trumpets and Seals Follow Same 4-3 Pattern

In the first four seals, we saw 4 horses and horsemen going from bad to worse, and then the situation changed in the fifth seal just as we see here in the last three trumpets. In the fifth seal, the promise was made to those waiting under the altar, that had been killed by the evil church system, and they were told that God was going to after a time, do something about it by punishing that evil system! We see the same pattern here in the trumpets, in that the first 4 trumpets were being turned into 666, with the 1/3 being removed from different elements of the church and society. Now that we come to the fifth trumpet, we won't find any more damage from 1/3 being removed, because the early reformers began to restore the doctrines that had been lost!

The Lord
Begins to Weaken
the Apostate Church

What happened historically, is that the first four churches were allowed to go from bad to worse, but after that time we see that the Lord began to change the situation. If that view is correct, we should begin to see a definite change for the better in the next 3 trumpets for the church. That conclusion doesn't mean that we will see no problems or persecution or killing happen to the Faithful Church, but we think that the situation should be seen as getting better and not worse.

Some may object to the idea that the Lord is doing things as early as the fifth church, because it was not the time of his presence. But we should remember that he was seen in the midst of the seven candlesticks, and that he is shepherding the church through the entire age. Being a Sheppard does not conflict with the second presence, where he comes as King and Judge. During the earlier part of the age, during the fifth and the sixth trumpets, he does not hold the offices of king and judge, because it was not time for that yet, but he can still work with and help the faithful church, as we see in the seven messages to the churches. He didn't go off on vacation and forget about the church. He is still the Sheppard over the flock during the entire Gospel Age. He just can't be king or judge and make the earth a footstool for his feet until God's due time, Psalms 110:1.

Trumpet 5
Revelation 9:1-5

Revelation 9:1 Then the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven which had fallen to the earth; and the key of the bottomless pit was given to him.

Revelation 9:2 He opened the bottomless pit, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

Revelation 9:3 Then out of the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

Peter Waldo
& Not Wycliffe
Begins Fifth Church

The Study group had looked at the possibility that this church did not follow the 360 year cycle, and that the fifth angel sounded at the time of Wycliffe, but we saw that the 360 year cycles intersects at least 5 of the 7 messengers that Pastor and many of the brethren favor and so we concluded that this church was also 360 years. As we will see, the events described in this trumpet will agree with that conclusion, but we will also see that Wycliffe comes into the picture at the time the scorpions come out of the smoke of the furnace.

We will find that the events that occur in this trumpet, span the entire 360 years of this church, and that proves that the visions of the trumpets don't have to be limited to showing us events which are only at the beginning of each church. The fifth trumpet is a good example of that, since its vision is showing us what was going to occur throughout the entire time-period of the trumpet. That same principle applies to the messages to the churches and of the visions of the seals that we studied earlier. So we see that what was revealed to the churches, seals, and the trumpets, applies to the entire church period and not just at the beginning of each church.

This Trumpet
Begins to Punish & Weaken
The Fallen church

When the Study Group looked at Rev 8:13, which is the angels warning about the three woe trumpets that were coming, we came to the conclusion that the warning was telling us that starting with the fifth trumpet and onward, the Lord Jesus was going to begin wearing down the power of the church and state system. As we have studied the three woe trumpets, we have not seen any reason to change our thought about that, and that is exactly what we are going to see shown here, beginning with the fifth trumpet. The first four trumpets showed us what Satan was doing to cause the downfall of the church, and now we are going to see that the three woe trumpets are designed to break the power of the fallen church, so that the Lord could wake up and separate the faithful church out of that evil system, and we will see that begin to happen with the locusts coming out of the smoke and darkness.

Waldo is the Messenger

We believe that Waldo is the one that is the messenger of this church. Some may wonder why we didn't pick Wycliffe as the messenger, since he seems historically to have accomplished more than Peter Waldo. Waldo began his work by pointing out that the religious system was not following the scriptures, and they falsely claimed the right to ban him from preaching. The work that Waldo did, especially by handing out scriptures to the people, helped the people to see that there was a problem with the religious system, and that dissatisfaction then led to Wycliffe, who came later.

Wycliffe is the One Cast Out of Heaven

We are going to show that Wycliffe is also in this Chapter, and that the main thrust of the Chapter shows him and his movement attacking Papacy. We believe that Wycliffe is the fallen or better described as the cast out star, and for that reason the angel that blows the fifth trumpet, must be someone different than Waldo who started the process of early reformation. We believe that the start of this trumpet shows Waldo blowing the trumpet, and the first thing we are shown by the trumpet, was a fallen star. The fallen star is Wycliffe being cast out of the ecclesiastical heavens by being excommunicated, which was because of his further exposing of the error of the Papal system. He even showed the people that Papacy was the anti-Christ that the church had been warned about.

Wycliffe Unlocked the Pit of the Furnace

When Wycliffe unlocked the pit, exposing the smoke and that was when he began to expose the errors of that system and the persecution and killing of those who didn't agree with what was going on. That terrible persecution and spiritual darkness, is symbolized by the dark smoke of the great furnace, which reminds us of the three Hebrews in Daniel, who picture the church who were cast into the fiery furnace of trouble during the 1260 years. Dan 3:17-18 (17 "If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace of blazing fire; and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18 "But even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we are not going to serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up." NASU

The smoke of the furnace had also darkened the sun, which represents the gospel, and the sky which represents the spiritual heavens. In other words, Wycliffe exposed that system as being in gross darkness. The next thing that we see is Wycliffe and his followers coming out of the smoke of spiritual darkness into the light—they are the stinging scorpions that come out. That the darkness is being exposed here makes sense, if we realize that the first four trumpets had shown us the complete the decline of the church into gross darkness—from this point on, the Lord is gradually reversing the damage.

Wycliffe is the Star that Fell

The UBS notes explain that this is a star that had fallen. The confusing part is that there was another fallen star which was seen attacking the rivers and springs of water in trumpet 3, and it had turned a third of the water into bitter wormwood. In that trumpet we concluded that the star was most likely Satan, but that he was working through Papacy, and so it was hard to determine which of the two was meant. We concluded that for all practical purposes, we could view the star as being Papacy, even though it was Satan who was behind the scenes directing him. Papacy was the one carrying out the attacks against the true doctrine of the church for Satan, when Emperor Justinian gave him absolute control over the doctrines of both halves of the Empire.

In this trumpet, we are now we are going to see a star that had cast out of heaven to the earth. We initially tried to explain this star as being the same one as the star in trumpet three, but that explanation had some problems which were difficult to explain. We eventually noticed that the star in trumpet three was different, in that it was a great star, and that it was burning like a torch. That difference then indicated to us that the star in trumpet five is a different star.

[I saw a star fallen from heaven to earth]: in some languages it may not be necessary to say [from heaven], since it is essentially redundant information. Care should be taken that the text says "I saw a star that had fallen ...." John does not say that he saw the star as it fell to earth. (From UBS Translator Handbook Series)

Once we concluded that the star in trumpet five was different than trumpet three, then we looked to see what else it might represent. Some commentators pointed to the casting out of heaven of one third of the stars in Rev Chapter 12. In Revelation Chapter 12, we will show that the stars that were cast out were the faithful stars, and that there is a vision in Daniel Chapter 8 where we also see the stars cast to earth and trampled, and that trampling by the beast proves that they were the faithful stars. That one third were cast out, indicates that the remaining amount left was two thirds, or .666. See the notes regarding the one third in Chapter 13 of Zechariah, which shows the Lord saving the good one third, and casting off the bad two-thirds. Dan 8:10-11 (10 It grew until it reached the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them. NIV

Zech 13:8-9 (8 "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'" NASU

With that information from Chapter 12 and Daniel, where we are shown the same thing, we can now see that the star in the fifth trumpet is one of the good stars that was cast out of the ecclesiastical heavens. At the time of the fifth trumpet, the Papal heavens were not being rolled up yet like we saw in the sixth seal, and so that is the heavens that Wycliffe was cast out of. When the fifth angel who was Peter Waldo blew his trumpet, what we were being shown first was Wycliffe being cast out of the Papal heavens into the earthly realm. Papacy did not like Wycliffe questioning the doctrines of the church, and since he would not stop, they eventually excommunicated him. They would have liked to have killed him, but he had just enough protection from the civil power, that they could not get to him to kill him.

The Morning Star

One other question that came up about this, is that many believe that Wycliffe is the morning star that was going to come, which was promised at the close of the message to the fourth church. We considered the possibility that Peter Waldo may be the one that is indicated instead since he was immediately after the close of the fourth church and he was one of the first reformers. But since Wycliffe's message and the poor preachers revealed the greatest light, that would seem to indicate that he is the one that is the morning star, and that would fit with the generally accepted belief that he is the morning star. We also note that he is symbolized by a star that is cast out of the heavens to the earth.

To show the evil of the system that we see in this trumpet, we are going to mention some other places that show in symbol that system coming into power. In two other places in Revelation, we see the beast come up out of the abyss, and we see it begin to attack the saints. The first place is in Chapter 11, where we see the two prophets which represents the Old and the New Testament and those who use them symbolically killed, which means that they are not allowed to preach in the city anymore, which is the same situation with this star. In Chapter 17, we will see the same event and beast come up out of the abyss, but in that Chapter we are told that it will go into destruction—which is the same as Daniel's description of the beast he saw. We believe that the beast that comes up out of the sea in Chapter 13 is the same beast, but with the use of the different symbol of the sea. It is coming back up out of the sea, because it had been temporarily removed from power when its seventh head was smitten at the time that the Roman Empire had been overran by barbarians. Daniel shows its initial formation with the symbol of it coming up out of the sea of mankind.

Some might complain that two of the places that the word is used, use abyss rather than the sea. But a close examination of the word abyss, shows that it can be used for an ocean or flood of water, in other words something deep, and so this can be an abyss of the ocean or the sea.

NT:12 ábyssos [abyss] A term for the underworld as a. the prison of the disobedient (Luke 8:31; Rev 9:1) and b. the realm of the dead (Rom 10:7).

Originally an adjective for an implied "earth," ábyssos is used in Greek for the depths of original time, the primal ocean, and the world of the dead. In the LXX it denotes the original flood, then the realm of the dead (e.g., Ps 71:20).

The Fiery Furnace is Found in Daniel

One scriptural reference that indicates that Wycliffe's exposing of the error of that evil system is the correct way to view the smoke and darkness that came into view, is that if we go to the book of Daniel in Chapter 3, we see the dreadful and seven times hotter than normal furnace that was used to try to destroy the three Hebrews. That furnace pictures the time of trouble that had come upon the faithful church during the dark time that we are examining, and it was very bad by the time of the fifth church, as shown by the saints who had been killed in the fifth seal. Because of that, the furnace of trouble in Daniel, is a parallel scripture and a cross reference to the smoke of this abyss.

That being correct, Wycliffe exposed the darkness, persecution and error of the evil system, as pictured by the fiery furnace in Daniel, and then Wycliffe with his preaching is what caused the early reform movements of the stinging locusts to come out of the spiritual darkness of that system, as symbolized by the locusts coming out of the smoke. The faithful church that is doing the witnessing, is symbolized by the three Hebrews. In the prophecy of Daniel, we see that the only way that the three Hebrews survived, was because one like the Son of Man was seen in the furnace with them. That shows that our Lord Jesus was working with and helping the church through the entire age, and not just at the end.

The Catholic System Fought the Reformers Who Exposed its Error

The Catholic system did not like the exposing of the errors of Papacy, which is symbolized by the smoke of the furnace of trouble that occurred. Looking too closely into the scriptures did nothing to extend the power and authority of the Catholic Church, but in fact the scriptures revealed the darkened sun, and it diminished the power and authority of the false Papal doctrines. That is why Papacy first fought Waldo, and then later Wycliffe. The revealing of the Papal error, resulted in a growing disgust by the populace for the abuses and errors of clerical authority. The smoke also indicates the confusion, anxiety, and chagrin experienced by the orthodox clergy and its laity, because of the exposure given by the searching rays of truth that came out of the early reformers, as there are many fallacies in the time-honored and revered doctrines based upon the traditions of men.

Another thing that for sure proves that the darkness that was exposed was the darkness of that evil system, is proven by the parallel scripture from Joel, that tells us that that this was going to be a very dark day of clouds and thick darkness. It even tells us that it would be such a bad day that there would be nothing like it again.

Joel 2:2 A day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn is spread over the mountains, {so} there is a great and mighty people; there has never *been {anything} like it, nor will there be again after it to the years of many generations.

(NAU*

Up until this trumpet, the first four trumpets were showing us trouble and the great spiritual decline coming upon the Faithful Church. Because Wycliffe began exposing the system's errors, especially the fact that they weren't using the truth in the Bible, and that they did not allow anyone to criticize the Papacy or to preach outside the system, that caused a lot of trouble in the Papal church and many people began trying to reform it. The problem that they had was that Papacy did not want to be reformed, and so those who at first tried to heal her, in the end had to leave her and establish their own churches!

Jer 51:9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. ASV

Waldo & Wycliffe Both Promoted the Scriptures

Waldo gave an important message of truth, which set the stage for further reforms later by Wycliffe, and Waldo started a very important thing, in that he started to bring the scriptures back to the people. His message was that the scriptures were the ultimate authority of God, and that message caused trouble for the fallen church, especially when Wycliffe expanded upon that message and kept going with it. That is what later on, caused the Papal heavens to be rolled up in the sixth church and begin to be removed. That there is more than one individual involved in bringing forth truth in this trumpet, one after the other, shows that there can be more truth brought out after the initial message in each trumpet or church. Some in each church period have resisted any change after the initial message had been brought out, and as we can see that would have been a mistake in this church for sure, because Wycliffe needed to bring his important part of the message out to keep pressure on Papacy to reform. There were other reformers after Wycliffe, and any additional message brought out in any particular church needed to agree with the initial message, adding to it by adding more truth, which is what is happening in this trumpet.

“The mainstream academic view is that the Waldensians started with Peter Waldo who began to preach on the streets of Lyon in 1173. He was a wealthy merchant and decided to give up all of his worldly possessions, he was sick of his own affluence, that he had so much more than those around him. He went through the streets throwing his money away and decided to become a wandering preacher who would beg for a living. He began to attract a following. Waldo had a philosophy similar to Francis of Assisi.

Preaching required official permission which he was unable to secure from the Bishop in Lyon and so in 1179 he met with Pope Alexander III at the Third Council of the lateran and asked for permission to preach. The Pope, while praising his ideal of poverty, ordered him not to preach without permission and by the early 1180's he and his followers were excommunicated and forced from Lyon. The Catholic Church declared them heretics- the groups principle error was "contempt for ecclesiastical power" – that they dared teach and preach outside of the control of the clergy "without divine inspiration". They were also accused of the ignorant teaching of "innumerable errors" and condemned for translating literally parts of the Bible which were deemed heretical by the church. It was not however condemned for translating into the vernacular, as there already existed vernacular translations. Thus they were considered heretics because the clergy saw them as a danger to what they understood as the divinely sanctioned church hierarchy. From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia"

The idea that the scriptures were the ultimate authority and not the clergy, caused extreme trouble for the Papal system at the time of Waldo, as well as later on with Wycliffe. While there were translations of the Bible available at that time, they were not available to the common people. Waldo and later Wycliffe were giving the people portions of scriptures to read, and because of that the people could see that Papacy was not preaching or doing what the scriptures said they should. Because of those early efforts, many others became active in resisting Papacy as the ultimate authority, and they also began to spread the idea that the scriptures were the ultimate authority, and not Papacy. That idea is what inspired Wycliffe, Hus, and even Luther to begin preaching against Papacy.

Who is the Angel of the Abyss?

Another question we asked in the study was, are the star and the angel of the abyss the same character, and if not how do they differ from each other? Some look at the star and the angel of the abyss as both being Satan or at least the same individual, however in our study we determined that those symbols are not the same, but represent two different beings—neither of which is Satan. The Study Group's original interpretation of the star has been changed, and we now believe that it is Wycliffe being cast out of the Papal heavens.

The Angel is Jesus & is not Satan

We believe that the angel of the abyss is Jesus, who is the legal and only owner of the key in the first place, and that he loaned the key to Waldo, the fifth messenger, to open the abyss to inspection and to begin to expose the darkness of the system. In that interpretation, the angel of the abyss is Jesus, and he is the one that has control of the locusts. Some, but not all commentators believe that the abyss is hell, and because of that they think that the angel of the abyss must be Satan, and they conclude that because they think he is ruler over the mythical fiery place of hell that they believe is symbolized in the abyss. But we know the abyss is symbolic of a condition of destruction or removal from the real world, which is also the condition of the grave, and that Jesus is the only one that has the keys to it.

Revelation actually tells us who the angel of the abyss is in Chapter 20 of Revelation! We think that the scriptures should define who a symbol represents if at all possible, and in that way we don't get into trouble with private interpretations. There should be no question about the angel of the abyss being Jesus, because Jesus is represented by the angel that throws the dragon into the abyss and seals and locks him into it with the key.

That may be a surprising conclusion to some who think that the angel of the abyss is Satan, but as we go through the explanation of the Chapter, you will see that the angel of the abyss can't be Satan. The angel of the abyss was king over the locusts, and to prove he is Jesus, we see that he was the one that told the locusts that they were not to harm anyone who had the seal of God, and that doesn't fit with Satan's at all! He also had to be someone that could enforce the command to not kill anyone that does not have the seal of God, and he had to do that for the entire 150 years after locusts came out of the darkness, and that cannot be a human individual either.

In Strong's it tells us that the two names given to the angel of the abyss are from 3 Abaddon (ab-ad-dohn'); of Hebrew origin [11]; a destroying angel: KJV-- Abaddon. 623 Apollyon (ap-ol-loo'-ohn); active participle of 622; a destroyer (i.e. Satan): KJV-- Apollyon.

In the definitions, above, we see that the angel of the abyss is a destroyer. The second Strong's definition above, gives Satan as an example of a destroyer, because many commentators think that's who this angel is, but is that correct? There is another and much better possibility that changes that definition. If the angel of the abyss in Revelation 20:1 is the Lord Jesus, and he has the key to the abyss, we then see that he also must be the angel of the abyss in Revelation 9:11!

Rev 20:1-3 (1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and holding in his hand a great chain. 2He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. 3He threw him into the Abyss, and locked and sealed it over him, to keep him from deceiving the nation's anymore until the thousand years were ended. After that, he must be set free for a short time. NIV

2 Thess 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendor of his coming. NIV

Don't Forget The Picture of the Angel of Death in Egypt

We should not forget that the three woe trumpets and the seven bowls of wrath, are pictured by the ten plagues of Egypt, and that in the tenth plague there was an angel of death who killed all of Egypt's firstborn. That pictures the symbolic destruction of those who belong to the worldly church, and who have been judged guilty in 1878AD. So, we should also expect to find an angel of destruction at the time of the harvest, spewing out and destroying the nominal house, just as there was an angel of death that came from the Lord in the Plagues of Egypt, who killed the first born of the Egyptians.

Rev 14:19-20 (19 So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and gathered the clusters from the vine of the earth, and threw them into the great wine press of the wrath of God. 20 And the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood came out from the wine press, up to the horses' bridles, for a distance of two hundred miles. NASU

Don't we believe that the firstborn of Great Babylon will inherit the kingdom of God, but only the faithful of God who are sealed in the forehead with the seal of God. The angel of death will symbolically destroy them by taking their crowns away, and giving them to the faithful instead, and only the faithful will inherit the honor of ruling with the Lord.

We are going to assume that this new view is correct at this time, despite several things that still need to be further explained. Our interpretation of the trumpet from this point on will proceed as if that thought is correct, and we will see that it makes the prophecy make sense. Some of the questions will be easier to explain later, because of some things that we find out as we examine the rest of the trumpet.

The Locusts Are not to Harm The Ones with the Seal of God

We will see that whoever this angel is, he is king over the locusts, and we believe that he is the one doing the commanding and giving the orders in Revelation 9:4. In verse 4, he commands the locust “not” to harm the ones who have the seal of God in their foreheads. If this was Satan or some other bad character, he would have been trying to kill the saints as other scriptures and history shows was the normal situation with Satan, and not save them from harm. Jesus is also the only one that has the power to destroy that evil system, and the process of destruction started with the fifth trumpet, as we will see when we look at Chapter 16 and the bowls of wrath. In the fourth church, we also saw Jesus telling Jezebel that he is going to do three things to her and her children. Those three things represent three different plagues upon the next three churches, and each warning fits exactly with each church—with the seventh one being the symbolic killing or spewing out of her children.

Blood of the Ransom On the Door Post Of Our Hearts Saves Us

If we say that the king of the locusts or the angel of the abyss is Jesus, then we must explain how he could be a destroying angel because that would not seem to fit his character. Since a lot of Revelation is based on the picture of Israel escaping from Egypt, one thing we should remember is that the destroying angel that killed the firstborn of Egypt was sent from God. The blood of the Lamb that the Israelites placed on the door posts, pictured the blood of Jesus, which will save all of us from death if we place our trust in it. The angel of the abyss that we see here is Jesus, and we now see why he is going to be able to bring the dead back out of the abyss or forgotten condition, because he tells us that he has the keys to it, and the power of that key is based on the blood of the Lamb.

If we don't have the proper understanding of the blood of the ransom, such as is true of the nominal system, we are in danger of being cut off by the angel of death, which is exactly what happened to the firstborn of Egypt who were killed just before the escape of Israel from Egypt. Those who do have the seal of God in the forehead, will not be touched by the angel of death, who is also pictured by the six men with slaughter weapons in Ezekiel Chapter 9. That there are six with slaughter weapons shows that the ones without the seal of God, are killed by the earthly ideas and doctrines that they have. The earthly ideas, don't harm those who were marked in the forehead with the seal of God by the man with the writer's inkhorn, who pictures Christ as he works to complete the church. Those who do not have the seal or mark of God, will not be able to stand before our Lord in the final judgment, because they will be trying to become a part of the 144,000 through their own doctrines and salvation, and they will be rejected and fall into the Great Company, or they will be a part of the world if their consecration was never accepted.

It turns out that the idea that Jesus is the destroying angel, is a much more likely possibility than what we would at first glance think. For one thing, we see that he is called a destroying angel because he is going to destroy the fallen church and state system and Satan's control over the world. Interestingly we find that when we look in the scriptures for who is going to be doing the destroying at the end of the age, in most references it's the Lord Jesus destroying Satan's system. Don't forget that he must remove and replace the Old Heavens and Earth, with the New Heavens and Earth. Satan can be a destroyer, but not in a permanent sense, unless Satan deceives someone enough to put them into second death. We will supply a list of scriptures in the comments on the last verse of the fifth trumpet, which is verse 11, which will without a doubt show that our Lord is the destroying angel of the abyss.

In the fifth trumpet, we see that it's not the time to destroy the evil system yet, so the angel commands that the locusts can only torment them. In the sixth trumpet, we will see that the punishment and pressure on the church and state system will increase, but not to the point of destruction even then. Only when we reach the seventh trumpet do we hear the command given that it's time to destroy those who destroy the earth. The reason that the evil system could not be destroyed yet at the earlier time, is because the saints were still mixed together with the tares yet, and the destruction could not happen until after the judgment of 1878AD. This is the same as the plagues of Egypt, in which the Israelites were subject to the first three plagues, after which they were not struck by the last 7 plagues, but only the Egyptians were struck. Looking at that picture, the full destruction could not occur until the saints were all separated out in the harvest of the seventh church, and historically we see that separation was finished by 1918AD. If the saints did not separate out by that time, they would be in extreme danger of losing their crown and being spewed out, because the seven bowls of wrath began to be poured out then. The last seven plagues of Egypt, picture the last seven bowls of wrath.

The Bottomless Pit

If we look at the seven places where the word “bottomless pit” is used, we see that it’s associated with things that are locked up or not in existence. Things that are in the pit can come up out of it into the real world again, like the beast that came back up out of the abyss. Things that are cast into or that go into the pit, are likewise removed from the real world and locked up and forgotten, like when Satan is cast into the abyss and locked up. After the 1000 years, we then see him and some of his power temporarily released from the pit in time for the little season.

Revelation 9:1-2) 9:1And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. 2And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

Revelation 9:11And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon. KJV

Revelation 11:7And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. KJV

Revelation 17:8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. KJV

Revelation 20:1-3) 20:1And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. 2And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, 3And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season. KJV

The bottomless pit by itself, is a place that seems to represent a locked up or a state of non-existence. It can, for example, be referring to the grave, because that is what death is, with the dead removed from the land of the living and locked up in the sleep of death in the abyss. That is why we see Jesus with the key to the abyss in Rev Chapter 20, where we see that he has the power to lock Satan up into that abyss for 1000 years. He also has the power with that same key to bring the dead out of the abyss, restoring them back to life. Rev 1:18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. (KJV)

In the two places where we see the terrible beast coming out of the abyss in Revelation, it's showing us "the beast" coming from a non-existent state, back into existence. Judging from Daniel and Revelation, where the symbol beast is used, there is no doubt that it represents civil power. It is very interesting that since Satan brought the evil beast into existence by bringing it out of the abyss, that our Lord brings the locust out of the same symbol of the abyss and the smoke of the furnace that they came out of, and those locusts are to torment them. The locusts grow much bigger by the time of the sixth trumpet, where they are seen as big as horses.

We think that the change to destruction, began to happen in the fifth trumpet, because the Lord took control of the Locusts at that point in history, just as is shown in Joel. We are going to list some scriptures again in a table, to show that Joel 2:1-10 is showing us essentially the same thing as what we see in the fifth trumpet.

Explanation of Joel and Revelation Parallels

As we can see, there is an unmistakable parallel between the two sets of scriptures. Not only is the similarity between them found in this Chapter, but if we look carefully at the rest of Revelation and Joel in the above table, we can see that there are many other places that describe the same events. We notice that many of the same kinds of destructive troubles that came upon the church in the first four trumpets and seals, are similarly described in the first Chapter of Joel. The four waves of destructive locusts that we see in Joel, are symbolically causing the same kinds of total destruction that we see in the first four trumpets. The trees, grass, and water are destroyed in both prophecies. In Joel, we see that the description of God's nation of Israel that was being destroyed, was a prophetic picture of the faithful church being destroyed.

To the Study Group, the remarkable parallel between Joel and the trumpets of Revelation, confirmed to us that the correct understanding of the first four trumpets was showing the decline and destruction of the true church. Just as natural Israel was being destroyed by four waves of trouble back in the Old Testament times, the same thing was happening to spiritual Israel during the first four church periods.

If we examine the third Chapter of Joel, we see that the judgments that we are shown in that Chapter, show us the judgment and punishment of many of the same types of things that we will see being punished in the seven bowls of wrath. The third Chapter of Joel pictures the final judgment and retribution of God against his enemies.

Joel 3:2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehosh'aphat, and I will enter into judgment with them there, on account of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations, and have divided up my land, Commentators disagree as to when and who the literal army described in Joel was, but it doesn't matter for our interpretation. If the prophecy indicates the destruction of the ten tribes, then it occurred earlier with the Assyrians, but if it had to do with the destruction of the two tribes, it was when they were carried away to Babylon. There is actually a reasonable thought that the prophecy of Joel includes the time of the punishment for both parts of the nation. Those two different destructions and punishments may be pictured by the four waves of locusts.

Could be Babylon Because it would Parallel Great Babylon

We suggest that this prophecy represents at least Babylon, because of the symbol of the lion's jaw that is found in Joel 1:6, which is a parallel to the Lions teeth in Rev 9:8. The lion symbol was part of the description of the first beast which came up out of the sea in Daniel, and that beast represented Babylon. A natural Lion is powerful, and that suggests that any kingdom that is represented by a part of a lion, is a powerful kingdom. If we have the entire lion, like we will have when we will have the Lion of the tribe of Judah ruling over the kingdom in the next age, we will then have the most powerful government that will ever exist. Dan 7:4 "The first {was} like a lion and had {the} wings of an eagle. I kept looking until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man; a human mind also was given to it. (NAU)

*Jer 4:6-7 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

Gen 49:9-10 (9 Judah is a lion's whelp; From the prey, my son, thou art gone up: He stooped down, he couched as a lion, And as a lioness; who shall rouse him up? 10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah, Nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, Until Shiloh come: And unto him shall the obedience of the peoples be. ASV

God used foreign armies during the time of Israel, which were allowed to come and punish and teach his people lessons. After the trouble was over, as in the case of Babylon, if the people were willing to repent, he promised in Joel to reward them to the extent that they would not be able to contain all the blessings! In the literal case of Judah, he returned them back to their land and restored the temple.

In the prophetic application of Joel for the church, God gave a great deal of blessing to those of the church who were trying to do the right thing in the fifth through the seventh churches, because they had received a large measure of new truth. Bible understanding and knowledge of God's Plan increased to a higher level than it ever had been before, especially at the time of the seventh church.

God Took Control of the Army Starting in Fifth Church

Even though God allowed it to happen to punish them, the four waves of locusts in Joel were not God's army when they first came against the literal country of Israel. In Joel, the locusts were destroying many things, but one of the things was the wheat of the field, which would symbolize the loss of many of the faithful church. In Joel, the locusts are at first seen as destroying God's nation and its people, and only later are they shown doing God's work after he utters his voice in the fifth trumpet, which is when he comes before the army and takes control of it.

Joel 2:11 The Lord utters his voice at the head of his army; how vast is his host! Numberless are those who obey his command. Truly the day of the Lord is great; terrible indeed — who can endure it? NRSV

Army of Locusts Made up of Many Different Groups & Ideas

That the locusts in Revelation are mentioned separately from those who had the seal of God, shows that the army of locusts was not made up completely of the Faithful Church. A lot of the army was anarchists who wanted a change in the evil system. The church could be a part of the Lord's Great army, because they were also attacking, questioning and tormenting the apostate church system with the truth from the bible. But the army had more than just religious elements in it, because it covered all aspects of society. As time went on, more and more elements of society began to question the Papal authority, and they began to attack the entire system of things. In chapter 19, we will see that the Lord will call to these same vultures, to come and destroy what is left of the evil system, beginning in 1914.

Question About Islam Being a Part of Army

In the Joel account, we believe that it's possible that a part of that army could have been the Islamic attacks against Christendom. They were a thorn in the side of the church and state system, and they had to fight them, and they lost a lot of their territory to Islam during that time. That raised the question, was any part of the locusts that we see in Revelation the same Islamic armies that we see them in Joel. The Study Group decided that was most likely not true. One of the reasons for that conclusion was because the Revelation locusts were commanded not to harm those who had the seal of God in their foreheads, which the Islamic armies of the time would not have obeyed. After the study was over, we found out that Christians could live in Islam but they had to pay a special tax and they had other restrictions, but if they satisfied the Muslims they could still live there. The problem with that making them part of the Revelation locusts, is that while they were conquering the Christian areas, they were killing a lot of Christians who tried to stop them—that definitely seems to eliminate the Islamic hoards from being a part of the locusts. They only tolerated the Christians after they had conquered them, using them as slaves.

The other reason that we thought the Revelation locusts applied mainly to the Papal system, is that the symbols that described the locusts in the fifth trumpet, point more specifically to those who were attacking Papacy over religious ideas. There were others that were attacking Papacy over more than religious ideas, but again in the fifth trumpet, they would have to be someone that would not be trying to harm the saints, in order to be a part of the locusts in Revelation.

This was the time of the Renaissance, and there were many changes brought to society during that time. Here is a quote from Wikipedia that gives an overview of the changes. At the very end of the article, it tells us that the interest in the Greek New Testament helped pave the way for the Protestant Reformation!

“The Renaissance was a cultural movement that profoundly affected European intellectual life in the early modern period. Beginning in Italy, and spreading to the rest of Europe by the 16th century, its influence affected literature, philosophy, art, politics, science, religion, and other aspects of intellectual inquiry. Renaissance scholars employed the humanist method in study, and searched for realism and human emotion in art.”<sup>[13]</sup>

Renaissance thinkers sought out in Europe's monastic libraries and the crumbling Byzantine Empire the literary, historical, and oratorical texts of antiquity, typically written in Latin or ancient Greek, many of which had fallen into obscurity. It is in their new focus on literary and historical texts that Renaissance scholars differed so markedly from the medieval scholars of the Renaissance of the 12th century, who had focused on studying Greek and Arabic works of natural sciences, philosophy and mathematics, rather than on such cultural texts. Renaissance humanists did not reject Christianity; quite the contrary, many of the Renaissance's greatest works were devoted to it, and the Church patronized many works of Renaissance art. However, a subtle shift took place in the way that intellectuals approached religion that was reflected in many other areas of cultural life.<sup>[14]</sup> In addition, many Greek Christian works, including the Greek New Testament, were brought back from Byzantium to Western Europe and engaged Western scholars for the first time since late antiquity. This new engagement with Greek Christian works, and particularly the return to the original Greek of the New Testament promoted by humanists Lorenzo Valla and Erasmus, would help pave the way for the Protestant Reformation.”

These Locusts
Against their Nature
Had Jesus as King Over Them

We see an interesting thing regarding the symbol of the Locusts in Revelation, in that they don't normally have a king over them, but the ones in the fifth trumpet do when the Lord commands them. In nature, each Locust does what he wants to in the pursuit of food. Prov 30:27 the locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;

Army
Only Allowed to Sting
Not Kill

The church and state system wasn't allowed to be destroyed at the time of the fifth trumpet, because it was not the end of the age yet, and they hadn't been fully cut off or condemned in judgment yet. The Lord's army is allowed to make life miserable for the evil system as seen in the stings of the scorpions, but they were not to kill them. That is one argument that could be made regarding the locusts being reformers instead of some of them being the Islamic movement, because the Islamic movement would kill you if you did not meet their requirements. The faithful church was not affected as much by the destructive army of ideas that were being brought out at that time by the Renaissance, because they were more closely following the Lord and the scriptures, and not the traditions of men like the evil system was. That gave them a spiritual protection against the new ideas that were coming into the system at the time, which the fallen church didn't have.

Army Will Be Removed In Time For Kingdom

Later in the Joel account, the Lord promises to drive the army away from his faithful people, implying that some elements of that army are destructive or harmful to the Israelites. Those who made up this army were some discontents from the fallen church system, and there were many other worldly ideas from the Renaissance and the people who came back from the crusades that were questioning everything at that time and after. There were even actual heretics at that time, who were leading some into even worse confusion than the fallen church was already in!

As time, has gone on, we see that the Lord's Great army has gotten less religious in nature, and is demanding and questioning everything. On this end of the age, the church has completely separated from the army, and that has caused the army to become much more secular, which is how Joel pictures it towards the end of Chapter 2. We still see the army of discontents roaming around the world yet today, but we are waiting for its complete removal in the kingdom by the Lord. These seem to be the same ones that are symbolized by the vultures of Chapter 19, which are pictured as attacking the evil system, starting in 1914.

The army today has fallen into even more destructive worldly ideas, such as Atheism, evolution, different kinds of political ideas and, etc. There are still elements of that army that are attacking religious ideas of the fallen system, but since the faithful church has been separated out of the fallen church systems in the harvest time, the faithful are not affected very much at all, because we have faith in the scriptures. While the above things that the army is doing are extremely destructive to the fallen church, they are not as dangerous to the Faithful Church, because we also have the Holy spirit and God's word to help us discern truth from error.

In Joel, the four waves of Locusts are pictured as having turned the land that was originally like the Garden of Eden into a desert—that happened before the Lord took control of them. The church and state system did the same thing as the Joel locusts, when they removed the doctrine of what Christ had done for us, and replaced it with Pagan ideas—that is what created the Abomination of Desolation.

Joel 2:3 A fire consumes before them and behind them a flame burns. The land is like the garden of Eden before them but a desolate wilderness behind them, and nothing at all escapes them. (NAU)

Rev 12:14 The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the desert, where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time, out of the serpent's reach. NIV

Renaissance Was the Beginning of the Trouble For That Evil System

When the people began to become educated or more knowledgeable at about the time of the Renaissance, they could see that there were many things wrong with the medieval system. Many of the problems could be traced back to Papacy and the church councils. The governments were sick of the way things were, and they wanted Papacy to leave them alone, and they wanted to have their political power back. The financial part of society was tired of paying taxes to a corrupt clergy who didn't do anything constructive. The fallen church was involved in both moral and doctrinal cases of abuse, that were becoming more evident to the people as enlightenment began to spread. The common working man could see that the system was corrupt. When the religious part of society got their hands on the scriptures again at that time, they found that much of what they were being told and taught by the fallen church system, was not in God's word.

Since religion was very important to the people at that time, a lot of the complaining and attempts at reform came from that segment of the Lord's army. Wycliffe was involved in this army as a major force in getting the religious part of it organized, and he had some protection from the civil forces at that time. Unfortunately, the people didn't have a strong enough backing from the civil power to make any lasting reforms. As soon as they made any progress, Papacy would get more violent, even to point of killing and torturing them in the inquisition. The inquisition was very active in the period of the fifth church with the intent of crushing the so-called heretics. The inquisition started towards the end of the fourth church and continued during the fifth church, and that is why the fifth seal shows us the dead saints under the altar.

Many Doctrinal Reforms Came From that Time

Many of the doctrinal reforms that were the basis of the Reformation were laid down during this time. When the Reformation began, many of the things that ones like Waldo, Wycliffe, and Hus had written down earlier, were instrumental in stirring up those who participated in the Reformation. There were also reforms in the government, scientific, and even in the financial areas, but our Lord was more interested in the religious efforts that occurred in that system, because he wanted the faithful church to eventually be able to separate and restore the full knowledge of the Gospel. For that reason, we see the religious problems pictured in Revelation, and not so much of the other problems that existed back then in Joel's time.

Not to Harm the Church

The command in the fifth trumpet reminds us of Revelation 7:3, where the four angels were not to harm the land or the sea or the trees until the servants of God were sealed in their foreheads. Just because the Lord was commanding this army not to kill those without the seal of God in the forehead, didn't mean that the church couldn't be persecuted and even killed during that time by that evil church state system. Historically we know that many were indeed physically killed and persecuted by the fallen church as it tried to stop the internal rebellion. We also know that we are not to fear those who can kill the body, since we have a future life waiting, and that was the attitude of the saints at that time. At the same time, there were many that wanted to die, or symbolically consecrate to the Lord during this church period, but they couldn't because of their fear of the evil system.

The Grass Was Not to be Harmed

In considering what the symbol of grass might be that was not to be harmed, we find that symbol used in Isaiah, where Isaiah tells us that the grass represents people. One possibility is that the common people were not to be harmed, but only the church officials who should have known better. Another possibility is that the green grass of the earth had indicated the Jews in the first trumpet. There are two possibilities, the first of which is that it could be the Jews who were scattered all over the world at the time. But the more likely thing is that this represents those who had life in the church. In other words, the Jews had the promise of life at the First Advent and they lost it because they refused to believe, and now the church has that promise life and they are the green grass now during the Gospel Age. The green grass of the Jewish nation will be back at the start of the kingdom after the church is gone, as seen in the Isaiah passage.

*Isa 40:6-8 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withered, the flower faded: because the spirit of the LORD blows upon it: surely the people is grass. 8 The grass withered, the flower faded: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

Trees were not to be Harmed

Regarding the trees in this trumpet, we see that they were not to be harmed either. Trees represent both earthly governments and ecclesiastical systems or their leaders. It was not the time for them to be destroyed yet, because that was not going to happen until the time of the seventh trumpet. Even though the locusts were not to destroy those organizations, those who were involved in the evil system could still be tormented, and historically that is what happened.

Those who don't have the seal of God in the fifth church, can be tormented because they don't belong to God. As we see in Revelation Chapter 13, the evil church system was marked in the forehead with the 666 that identified them with the great falling away. Our Lord had no problem with tormenting those who were in opposition to him and his Faithful Church at that point in history. That is because they had been torturing and killing his saints and in this church, it was the time that Jesus had promised that he was going to start doing something about it. In the sixth church, the retribution is going to get even more serious and in the seventh church he is going to destroy those who were killing his saints, by removing their chance for a crown. During WW1, he also broke apart the church and state system, so that the religious part did not have the use of the civil power anymore.

Wycliffe & His Followers + 150 Years

The Lord taking command of the locust in Joel, happened about 150 years before the Reformation, and that is described in Revelation as five months at a day per year. We get  $5 \times 30 = 150$  and at a day per year that equals 150 years. The 150 years prior to the Reformation is the point at which the Lord began taking control of the army of locusts and began to torment the fallen church. Wycliffe directed the movement at that point, and his followers continued onward for most of the next 150 years after him, at which time those who remained joined the Reformation. Many were killed and persecuted during that entire time, but they didn't give up. The "poor preachers" that went out at that time, carried copies of portions of the Bible with them that had been translated into the language of the people. They were either publicly read or passed these out to the people.

That the power of the scorpions was in their tails or following, shows us a well know historical fact, in that we see that Wycliffe's followers even after he died continued to go among the people and preach. They continued their witnessing until the Papal persecution became so bad, that they were all killed or driven underground just before the Reformation.

Wycliffe Was Protected During his Life

Papacy was not able to directly harm Wycliffe while he was alive, even though they tried to do so. He had protection from some of the civil power, and that was sufficient to stop them from taking him. We know they would have liked to have done so if they could have, because after he had died, they dug up his bones and burned them and threw the ashes into a river. Evidently they had the superstitious idea that if they did that, that God would not be able to resurrect him. That shows that Wycliffe and his followers did indeed torment them very painfully, just as is described in this trumpet.

Wycliffe began to afflict and plague the fallen church system with truth and with the fact that they had lost sight of the true salvation. He taught that Papacy was the anti-Christ, which was a bold statement for the time he lived in. He also translated the scriptures into the language of the common people, and advocated that everyone should have access to them! That caused Papacy much trouble because the people could then see that the false doctrines that the system advocated did not correspond to the scriptures. That was the reason why Papacy banned the reading of scripture by anyone who was not approved by them to do so.

Wycliffe Preached Against The Transubstantiation of the Mass

Wycliffe even recognized that the transubstantiation of the mass was not correct. That idea was ahead of its time, since even Luther accepted the false doctrine of transubstantiation, but Zwingli, who preached at the same time did not accept that false doctrine. Before the time of Wycliffe, there had not been much consistent or open opposition to the church and state system. But when Wycliffe began to bring out the truth against many of the false doctrines, the fallen church system reacted and they sent out many counter preachers of their own to try and stop the doctrines of Wycliffe and his followers. The ideas of Wycliffe and his followers, so tormented the apostate church, that it caused them to strike out in pain at those who were causing the difficulty. They began to torture and even burn at the stake the preachers and others whom they considered to be heretics.

Revelation 9:6

Revelation 9:6 And in those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death flees from them. (NAU)

Are They Suicidal?

This is a puzzling verse at first glance, which almost makes us look for some historical event that made life so miserable that men would seek death literally. There were many bad things happening that could have caused men to seek literal death during that time, but we don't think that is what this verse is trying to tell us. For one thing, if men were to try literally to find death in suicide, they would be able to do so. For that reason, we think a different and symbolic lesson is intended.

Many Could Not Consecrate to Death Because of Fear

We are going to offer a suggestion here that the death spoken of in this verse must be very similar to when we consecrate unto death to the Lord! Just as we give up our life and die regarding our earthly aspirations, we think that the ones that wanted to die here didn't want physical death, but they wanted to die or too free themselves from the power of the church and state system. These were the people who saw that Wycliffe was right in what he was saying about the evil system, but they were not able to get away from the power of the church, because it had such a strong hold on their lives, and because of fear of the powerful system.

The problem was that civil power was not fully supporting of the poor preachers at that time, because they were still afraid of Papacy themselves and so many who wanted to leave the fallen church were afraid to change even though they knew Wycliffe was right. They would have liked to have reformed the system and gotten free of it, but they didn't do so because they knew that they would be literally persecuted or killed. For that reason, many of those who wanted to escape or die from the power of the system, could not do it because the system had too great a hold on them, and they were deathly afraid of its power.

Next Trumpet Supports that Thought

In support of this kind of interpretation, we will see the same thing in the symbol of death used in the sixth trumpet, where the civil power was supporting the reformers much more fully. There the results were different, in that 1/3 were killed or able to die symbolically so that they could get away from the power of the system. Historically many of the people went with Luther and the Reformation, because the civil power was supporting them at that time. In a symbolic sense, they died to the power of the system when they turned to the power of the Lord and the truth. That does not mean that one-third of the people were literally killed, although some were literally killed, but it only means that those who were of the Faithful Church separated themselves from Papacy. The 1/3 that was symbolically killed and removed from the power of the system, joined the Reformation and became the Lord's. The one third is .333, and the number 3 is God's number. Removing one third from a whole number leaves two thirds or .666. That again shows that the Faithful Church which is represented by the one third being removed, separated from the unfaithful Papal system leaving the corrupt 666 system behind.

Unfortunately, in the fifth church, the time had not yet come where people could break completely free for any great length of time, because of the fierce persecution that came against everyone that resisted Papacy. The complete removal and separation of a large number of people from the fallen church system, was not able to happen until the time of the Reformation, which we will see described in the next trumpet. Hence many sought death or removal from the power of the system in this church period, but most couldn't get free because of the systems great power.

Revelation 9:7-10

Revelation 9:7 The appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads appeared to be crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

Revelation 9:8 They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like {the teeth} of lions.

Revelation 9:9 They had breastplates like breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to battle.

Revelation 9:10 They have tails like scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men for five months. (NAU)

Doctrinal Horses

As a symbol horses represent any kind of ideas that move things forward, especially doctrinal ideas, and that was especially true of these locusts. That these horses were prepared for battle is a historical fact, in that Wycliffe and his followers and others who had other complaints about the system, had a war of words with Papacy and the system of government. They in many cases, both spiritually and literally, fought to spread the Biblical word. There were also many worldly ideas that were attacking the Papal system at that same time. The common people of the time were questioning the power of Papacy, and the idea that the evil church was the only access to God. Many of them were of course wrong on what they were advocating as an alternative salvation, but at the same time those ideas tormented and weakened the false church.

This battle was more than just religious ideas, because this was the time of the Renaissance. People were questioning everything, including religion, science, politics, government, and, etc. The crusades that went to the Middle East where Islam was, brought back many new ideas with them, and those ideas spread throughout Western Europe. Those new ideas were both ecclesiastical and secular. If Papacy was obviously wrong about the religious ideas that they were resisting, it was an easy step for the people to realize that Papacy could be wrong about the scientific ideas also.

Crowns on Heads

That the locusts had heads, shows that they had leaders. The crown of gold that they had on their heads, seems to picture that they thought that they were authorized by God to preach his word. They had the crowns because they went around preaching from God's divine authority, the Bible. We get that interpretation regarding the symbolism of the crowns from the golden crowns that were on the heads of the 24 elders, which symbolized the authority of the scriptures. In the 24-elder's situation, we know that God divinely inspired the scriptures, as was symbolized by the 24-elders with crowns on their heads. That would seem like a good reason that these Locusts here are seen with crowns on, in that many of them were preaching from the authority of God's word.

Faces of Men

That they had faces like men, could be looked at in several ways. The first idea is that they were just men. That would fit with the thought that there was more than just the church involved in tormenting the system. The second idea which we like better, is that these were only "like" men because many of them had higher heavenly aspirations, because they were following in the footsteps of the one perfect man that had walked the earth, who is Christ. They are only "like men", in that they are instead new creatures in earthly vessels. In other words, they had the face or countenance of the man Christ, because their faces were reflecting the character of their leader Christ Jesus.

Hair of Women

That the locusts had hair like women, suggests a couple of different interpretation to us. The first of which is because a women can be symbolic of either a covenant or of the church. A woman's hair is her covering for beauty (1 Cor 11:15), but that covering can also imply her subjection to the authority of Christ. If we look at all of these things together, we would say that their hair covering would be the claim of some that they were of God's Faithful Church and that they had his covenant of salvation, and that they were subject to Christ's authority.

The Teeth of Lions

One good possibility regarding the statement that the locusts had teeth of lions, is that it shows us that the message had teeth to it. There was a limited amount of civil power help behind the preachers and the others that were attempting to reform things at the time, and that may be why we see the teeth of lions here, because we don't have a full lion of civil power yet during this church. In the next church the teeth get stronger, and they turn into the head of a lion. A lion has great strength in his jaw and teeth, with which he can tear and rend his prey.

If we look at this historically, we can see that the lion's teeth could simply represent the limited support of the civil power which originally had been supporting the fallen church system, but which had become disillusioned with Papacy and began to support ones like Wycliffe and others who were questioning the evil system in all its aspects. The teeth aspect of the civil power, may be showing us the extent that the civil power was willing to go on the offensive for the poor preachers. That we only have the teeth in this trumpet shows that the civil power was not willing to directly attack the Papal system if they didn't have to, but mostly did a defensive work for those who were advocating reform. Later in the sixth church, the civil power grew much stronger on the Lords side, so that we see the full heads of lions rather than just the teeth. The Civil power was barely supporting the reformers in the fifth trumpet, but by the time of the Reformation the supporting powers threw the full support of their governments behind the Reformation and directly battled with Papacy.

According to the historians, if civil power had not partially supported Wycliffe during this church period, Papacy would have killed him and his movement off before it had a chance to get started. Because of that support, Papacy couldn't do much to him or his followers until after his death. Even while he was alive the civil power that helped him didn't want to press their luck any more than they had to, since if they had gone too far Papacy might have rallied other governments against them to destroy them.

The Breastplates of Iron

There are two possibilities regarding the breastplates that we see here, in that we see that the Faithful Church was to have the armor of God to protect them from Satan's errors. The poor preachers were protected by the truth that they had, and the arrows of error that the adversary shot at them could not penetrate, especially since the breastplates are described as made of iron. 1Thes 5:8 But since we are of {the} day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation. *Eph 6:14 Stand firm therefore, HAVING GIRDED YOUR LOINS WITH TRUTH, and HAVING PUT ON THE BREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS,

We see one other possibility regarding breastplates, because iron can also represent civil power. We get that symbolism from the fact that the Image that Daniel saw had toes which were made of miry clay and of iron. The mixture of iron and clay, was symbolic of the mixture of civil power with church power, and the iron was the civil power part. Since we see an iron breastplate protecting them in this picture, that shows that the civil power was protecting them. That was exactly how things were, in that the civil power didn't do much offensive work at that time, hence only the teeth of lions, but they did protect Wycliffe and his followers from attacks while he was still alive.

The Sound of Wings

The sound of wings is interesting, because similar wording is found in the book of Ezekiel. The mention of the sound of the wings is found in both Chapters 1 and 10, where Ezekiel saw the vision of the Cherubim. That the sound was coming from the wings of the Cherubim in Ezekiel, shows that the message was coming directly from God. In Revelation Chapter 9, we are told that the locusts have sounds of chariots in their wings. That it sounded like horses and chariots' rushing to battle, is the same thing that Ezekiel said the sound he heard was like. We also see the same thing in the battle that is described in Joel, where he says that it also sounded like the noise of chariots and horses. Joel 2:4-5 (4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so do they run. 5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoured the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. ASV

Sound of Chariots

That the message sounded like chariots, indicates that it was organized and the annals of history show that the opposition to the Papacy was an organized and concerted effort. The chariots or organizations had the sound of many horses, which represented doctrines and many different ideas. That they were going to battle indicates they were determined to fight the battle against the system. Horses represent ideas, so if we take Joel into account, we would have to broaden the definition out to include scientific as well as other ideas. God's main focus was on the religious in Revelation, but the prophecy in Joel would have included many worldly ideas that were coming from the Lord's Great army. Wycliffe's followers were using God's truth to do battle with the error of anti-Christ, but others were attacking with worldly ideas. We previously saw in the study of Revelation Chapter 4 and 5, that wings could represent the word of God, and it seems reasonable that it represents the same thing here, and that fits historically with the word of God being given to the people.

Heads & Tails of Locusts

The tails on the locusts in a natural sense, symbolize "a following". Anytime you have an animal with a tail, it is following along behind the animal, and for that reason we can see that a tail would symbolize a following. We also get another proof of our definition of a tail from the scriptures. When Israel first came out of the wilderness, God told the Israelites that if they would do what they should, they would be the heads and other nations would be the tail. He likewise warned them that if they failed to do what they should, they would be the tail and the other nations would be the head.

So if you were the head you would be the leader, but if you were the tail you would be followers. Wycliffe definitely had many followers, some of which continued to follow his teachings and sting Papacy until 150 years later, which brought them to the time of the Reformation.

Deut 28:13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

Besides Wycliffe's followers, the other elements of society continually tried to break free of the evil system, but the time was not ripe yet. Besides the Lollards, many other groups eventually sprang out of this movement. As we will see, when the Reformation came in 1517AD, all 4 elements of society were going to be at least partially freed from being bound at the river Euphrates. Many who had descended from Wycliffe's followers, joined themselves to the Reformation when it started.

150 Years of History

The preaching of truth, continued after Wycliffe had died for almost exactly a period of 150 years. That this was a period of 150 years is debated by some, in that they don't think there was an easily defined period of 150 years. While it's true that it's hard to pin down an exact time on this, we think that the following timeline will show that it was very close to exactly 150 years. The amount of time from Wycliffe's first thoughts in 1370 to the diet of worms in 1521, was almost exactly 150 years. If we date from Wycliffe's excommunication in 1370, and go to Luther's excommunication in 1520, it is exactly 150 years from one excommunication to the other.

John Hus, who was burned at the stake in 1415AD, because of his acceptance of Wycliffe's ideas, had written a book on the new ideas that were brought out by the early reformers, and that book eventually made its way to Luther who read it. Because of those ideas, we see that in 1520AD Luther burned the Papal bull, thus rejecting the authority of the Pope. It took 150 years from the first idea of Wycliffe, until there was a separate church formed by Luther! We could pick other events on either side of the ones we just mentioned, and we would still come out close to 150 at some other key event in Luther's time!

See the timeline below for documentation as to where it was located in history. We might consider that because the 150 years seems to fit with Wycliffe and his followers almost exclusively, the tails of the locusts as described in verse 10, point to him and the time of his "poor preachers".

1346 Wycliffe enters Oxford

1366 Wycliffe publicly acclaimed for condemning abuses of Papacy and its interference in secular affairs.

1369 Gets bachelor of Divinity degree.

1370 John Wycliffe first put forth a debatable doctrine of the Eucharist. This was not a full developed idea yet.

1371 Recognized as Europe's leading theologian.

1372 JOHN WYCLIFFE secured his doctor's degree and immediately became the leading professor at the University of Oxford 1375 didn't get appointments he deserved.

1376 JOHN WYCLIFFE began his work of Reformation. Probably questioned Papal versus civil power.

1377 Pope issues 5 bulls against Wycliffe.

1379 JOHN WYCLIFFE urged Reformation of the church, rejected the doctrine of transubstantiation, and denied the Pope's authority.

1380 JOHN WYCLIFFE was excommunicated and began translating the New Testament from Latin to English.

1382 JOHN WYCLIFFE, the “Morning Star of the Reformation”, founded the Lollards and published his English New Testament, the first complete manuscript. He was expelled from Oxford University for insisting Christ and not the Pope was head of the church, that the Bible instead of the church was the sole authority for the believer, and opposing the dogma of transubstantiation.

1384 JOHN WYCLIFFE died. NICHOLAS of Hereford completed the translation of the Old Testament into English.

1456 Gutenberg prints first Bible on printing press.

1510 Luther visit Rome

1512 Luther gets his doctor of theology.

1517 MARTIN LUTHER, protesting the sale of indulgences by TETZEL, agent of Archbishop ALBERT, posted his “Ninety-five Theses” on the door of his Wittenberg church on October 31st.

1518 MARTIN LUTHER was questioned before Cardinal CAJETAN at the Diet of Augsburg, and refused to retract his views.

1519 understands justification by faith Denies supreme authority.

1519 Came to understand justification by faith. Denies the authority of Popes and councils.

1520 MARTIN LUTHER severed himself from obedience to the Pope after Papal bull. The Swiss Anabaptist movement was founded by CONRAD GREBEL and FELIX MANZ, and in Germany by THOMAS MUNZER. Was given a book by Huss disciples which influenced him greatly. Huss got his ideas from Wycliffe.

1521 MARTIN LUTHER was excommunicated by Pope LEO X at the Diet of Worms and was imprisoned at Wartburg. WILLIAM TYNDALE was ordained a priest.

1522 MARTIN LUTHER translated the New Testament into German. ZWINGLI broke with Rome.

1523 First reformers burned in Belgium.

1525 BALTHASAR HUBMAIER was baptized on Easter Sunday by WILHELM REUBLIN. The Zurich Council prohibited Bible study meetings by Anabaptists. MARTIN LUTHER opposed the Peasant’s revolution, now led by THOMAS MUNZER. MARTIN LUTHER married KATHERINE VonBORA. The Anabaptists were banished from Zurich by the Senate over infant baptism. WILLIAM TYNDALE translated, and PETER SCHOEFFER printed ERASMUS’ Greek New Testament into English and published it in 1526. The first Mennonite congregation was formed in Zurich. The Capuchin Order was founded by MATTEO DiBASCIO in Rome.

1530 The Lutheran church was officially formed at the Diet of Augsburg on June 25th, and the Augsburg Confession, prepared by PHILIP MELANCHTHON, became its official creed.

1545 MARTIN LUTHER completed the translation of the whole Bible into German, based on the original Hebrew and Greek.

Revelation 9:11

Revelation 9:11 They have as king over them, the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek he has the name Apollyon. (NAU)

Abaddon and Apollyon

NT:3Abaddon (ab-ad-dohn'); of Hebrew origin [OT:11]; a destroying angel: KJV - Abaddon.

NT:623Apollu/wn

Apolluon (ap-ol-loo'-ohn); active participle of NT:622; a destroyer (i.e. Satan): KJV - Apollyon.

Our Lord is the Destroyer of Papacies Evil System!

This verse at first glance seems to be a problem verse for our interpretation, in that the meaning of both above words is essentially, “destroyer” or “destroying angel”, or messenger. As we mentioned earlier, if we look deeper into this question, we will see that this isn't a problem and that what our Lord is beginning to do here fits very well with the role of a destroyer—woe, woe, woe! We believe that this angel is the same one who is commanding the locusts in verse 4, telling them not to hurt anyone that has the seal of God in their forehead. That command means that they can sting or torment those who do not have the seal of God. That is another reason that we see this angel as Christ, in that Satan would have given orders to destroy the church and not protect it.

One scripture that helps the interpretation of this angel, is found in Revelation 20:
Revelation 20:1 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

Jesus has the keys of death and Hades, and for that reason he is the one who controls the abyss or the grave. Rev 1:18 and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. NASU

Satan and Papacy both claimed that power falsely, but they didn't have that right or power.

The Destroyer of Evil

The claim is made by some interpreters, that this angel must be Satan, since it names him as “the destroyer”. We looked for scriptures that called Satan a destroyer, but we couldn't find where it directly referred to him with that adjective anywhere. Even in Revelation Chapter 12, where it uses several terms for Satan, it doesn't call him a destroyer.

Revelation 12:9 And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. (NAU)

We searched for the word “destroy”, and a lot of references came up that referred to things that Jesus was or is going to do to his enemies at the end of the age. Those verses show, that the term Destroying angel is much more commonly used of Jesus. Jesus is the destroyer in the sense that he is going to destroy Satan and the fallen church system, and the last enemy that he will destroy is death. See the list of scriptures below.

Pictured by Destroying Angel In Egypt Protected by Blood on Door Post

Remember that the 10 Egyptian plagues were a type of what was happening here in Revelation, and that in Egypt God sent a destroying angel to kill all the firstborn of Egypt, if there was no blood of the Lamb on their door posts. The blood of the Lamb on the doorposts protected the Israelite firstborn and any Egyptians who believed Moses, but the Egyptian firstborn were not protected, because they did not believe.

That is exactly what we see what this destroying angel is doing in symbol, in that those of the apostate church who refuse to accept the truth of the blood of the ransom, are going to be symbolically killed or removed from being first born and lose out on the high calling! The coals of fire that the angel of the altar threw into the earth in Chapter 8, just before the sounding of the first trumpet, is the understanding of the ransom and the sin offering that our Lord offered on the cross, Isaiah 6:5-6. Those who are in opposition to that doctrine, do not have the blood of the Lamb of God on the door posts, and they are in the same position of the one who went to the wedding feast without the wedding garment on.

Belief in the Mass & Not Blood Causes Their Rejection

The fallen church believes in the false doctrine of the transubstantiation of the mass, and doesn't want to accept the doctrine of the ransom—that is the equivalent of not putting the blood on the doorposts. The Faithful Church believes in and has the blood of the Lamb, and they are spared by the angel of death, but the others lose any hope of being of the First Born. The warning to us is to reject anything that tells us that we do not have the blood of Christ to protect us! If we keep the doctrine that our Lord has provided the blood of the ransom to us at the First Advent, then we will be protected from anything that the adversary could do to us to make us fail.

Scriptures Regarding Destroyer

The following is a list of scriptures should make it obvious that Christ is the destroying angel that will destroy the fallen church system.

II Thes 2:8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

Heb 2:14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

James 4:12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judges another?

*1 Cor 15:26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

*I John 3:8 He that committed sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose, the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

*Revelation 11:18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destroy them which destroy the earth.

*Isa 13:9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

Isa 25:7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the Vail that is spread over all nations.

Ezek 28:16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore, I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

Zech 12:9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Revelation 9:12

Revelation 9:12 The first woe is past; behold, two woes are still coming after these things. (NAU)

There are three woes, and the fifth church ends the first of those, leaving two more woes yet to come! This statement is inserted here to emphasize the point that these are actual woes of extreme trouble on the evil system. That there are two more to follow should give us the idea that things are going to go from bad to worse for the church and state system, and all of those who are not following our Lord.

Trumpet 6

Revelation 9:13-15

Revelation 9:13 Then the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, Revelation 9:14 one saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

Revelation 9:15 And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released, so that they would kill a third of mankind.

The Beginning of the Reformation

As seen in Chapter 7, the four angels cover each direction of the compass, the idea being that they affect the whole earth or all of society. The Euphrates originally marked the boundary between Israel and her enemies, "Gen 15:18, Deut 1:7, Josh 1:4". Babylon which is on the Euphrates, would be to the Northeast of Israel, and it is from the North that her enemies came, "Jer 25:9, Ezek 26:7, 39:2".

The Four Horns of the Altar

As we look at the description of the altar in the sixth trumpet, we see that it has four horns on it, and that the voice that gave the command to release the angels came from the horns of the altar. This is the incense altar that was overlaid with gold, and it is the same golden altar that we saw just before the trumpets began to sound. The reason that this is the incense altar, besides it being golden, is because it says that this one was the one before God, which would be the one in the holy. Since that altar and the incense on it represented the 3.5 years of sacrifice by our Lord up to the time of the cross, that is most likely why we see it here again, because starting with the sixth church the Reformation was going to start to restore the lost knowledge of what Christ had accomplished on the cross. The full restoration of knowledge wouldn't be complete until the time of the seventh church, but this time in history is where a major part of the restoration began. Some manuscripts omit four regarding horns, but we think that it's a good assumption that there were four horns, since the golden incense altar had four, and Moses tabernacle was to be a copy of what was in the heavens.

Ex 30:1-3 (1 "Make an altar of acacia wood for burning incense. 2 It is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high — its horns of one piece with it. 3 Overlay the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it. NIV

Horns are symbolic of power, and this altar has a special power that the fallen church system had lost sight of, and of which they are in direct conflict with doctrinally. As we saw earlier in Revelation Chapter 8, the angel added much incense onto the altar, and that was what made the prayers of the saints acceptable. The fire that is used on this altar to burn incense, came off the bronze altar which is in the court, and which represents the earthly sacrifice of our Lord's death. We see the incense altar here because it was used by the high priest to prepare his way into the Most Holy on the Day of Atonement, and that day was when he was offering the blood of first the bullock, and then after that the blood of the Lord's goat. The bullock's blood was the offering that our Lord brought first into the Most Holy for himself and the church, as seen in chapter 5. The blood of the Lord's goat was also taken in afterward and placed on the mercy seat, and that price will be used to open the way of salvation for Israel and all the rest of the people of the world in the next age.

The Papal System Doesn't Understand the Blood Of Christ's Sacrifice

Since the fallen church had lost sight of what Christ had accomplished on the cross, they no longer understood the value of his blood. The Papal church had forgotten that the only way that they would be able to follow Jesus into the Most Holy, would be if they were covered by the blood of the bullock. They also had forgotten that they needed the smoke of the Lord's incense, the sweet savor of which covered them and which made their prayers acceptable to the Heavenly Father. They had lost complete sight of all those important symbols representing what Christ had done for the church, since they only believed in the doctrine and sacrifice of Christ over and over again in the abomination of the Mass, and by this time they had forgotten what the blood of Christ had really accomplished for all ages. This church was so bad regarding salvation doctrines, that it was guilty of selling indulgences to people who thought that they could commit any sin, and that they could then have it forgiven by giving a sum of money to the church. The Reformation did a great deal of work in restoring the power of both altars, the bronze and the golden, by beginning to restore the understanding of the blood and the grace that came from the sacrifice of our Lord.

That was one very important thing that Luther did, in that he had rediscovered that we are saved by God's grace and not works. The 95 theses that Luther nailed on the church door, was against the idea of the indulgences that made a mockery of God's true salvation. The evil systems false doctrines had suggested to the people that the fallen church had the right to sell you forgiveness for a sum of money, no matter what terrible sin you had committed!

Parallels to Joel

Earlier in this study of the trumpets, we mentioned that the trumpets parallel the book of Joel. If we look at Joel we find some very interesting similarities to the voice from the horns of the altar.

There are three voices in Joel 2:5, 2:11 and 3:16. In Joel 2:5, "noise" is the same word as "voice".

Joel 2:5 With a noise as of chariots they leap on the tops of the mountains, like the crackling of a flame of fire consuming the stubble, like a mighty people arranged for battle. (NAU)

Joel 2:11 The LORD utters His voice before His army; surely His camp is very great, for strong is he who carries out His word. The day of the LORD is indeed great and very awesome, and who can endure it?

Joel 3:16 The LORD roars from Zion and utters His voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth tremble. But the LORD is a refuge for His people and a stronghold to the sons of Israel. (NAU)

Each of the three woe trumpets has a voice or voices which are given in their description, whereas trumpets one through four do not. The three voices in Joel are bringing forth scriptural truth before his people, and that suggests very strongly that the voices in the three woe trumpets are also revealing scriptural truth. Revelation 9:4 And it was said unto them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not the seal of God on their foreheads. (ASV)

Revelation 9:13 Then the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, (NAU)

Revelation 11:15 Then the seventh angel sounded; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become {the kingdom} of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever."

We have for sure two obvious trumpets in Joel 2:1, 2:15.

Joel 2:1 Blow a trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm on My holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming; surely it is near, (NAU)

Joel 2:15 Blow a trumpet in Zion, consecrate a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly, (NAU)

Verse 1 in Joel Chapter 2, is for sure the fifth trumpet since we find the same darkness mentioned in the fifth trumpet; Joel 2:2 A day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn is spread over the mountains, {so} there is a great and mighty people; there has never been {anything} like it, nor will there be again after it to the years of many generations. (NAU)

Revelation 9:2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. (KJV)

When we began the study the similarities between Joel and Revelation, we had originally continued the fifth trumpet all the way up to Joel 2:15, because we had thought that the verse 15 trumpet and onward was the sixth trumpet. But as we looked at what was happening from Joel 2:15 and onward, it became obvious that verse 15 had to be the start of the seventh trumpet, because right after that verse we find the gathering of the harvest, the time of trouble and the establishment of the kingdom.

Joel 2:16-20) 16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children and the nursing infants. Let the bridegroom come out of his room and the bride out of her {bridal} chamber.

17 Let the priests, the LORD'S ministers, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, "Spare your people, O LORD, and do not make your inheritance a reproach, a byword among the nations. Why should they among the peoples say, "Where is their God?""

18 Then the LORD will be zealous for His land and will have pity on His people.

19 The LORD will answer and say to His people, "Behold, I am going to send you grain, new wine and oil, and you will be satisfied {in full} with them; and I will never again make you a reproach among the nations. 20 "But I will remove the northern {army} far from you, and I will drive it into a parched and desolate land, and its vanguard into the eastern sea, and its rear guard into the Western sea. And its stench will arise and its foul smell will come up, for it has done great things." (NAU)

Joel 2:27 "Thus you will know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and there is no other; and My people will never be put to shame. (NAU)

Joel 2:28 "It will come about after this that I will pour out My Spirit on all mankind; and your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. (NAU)

Where is the Sixth Trumpet in Joel?

Since the events from verse 16 in Joel and onward fit the seventh trump, we then asked the question, where is the sixth trumpet? The symbols of events of the sixth trumpet are found in Joel, but the actual sixth trumpet is not directly mentioned. It appears that the events of the fifth and the sixth trumpet are presented together, but the sixth is not mentioned as being a trumpet, but it's description is there in Joel.

Lord's Great Army in Joel

The fact that there is both a voice and a great army described in Joel, matches the sixth trumpet exactly. In Revelation, in the description of the sixth trumpet, we find a voice that comes from the four horns of the altar, and we see an extremely large uncountable army which also matches the great uncountable army in Joel. In Joel, it's described as the Lords great army, and it also tells us that it's the great day of our Lord God. That description regarding the great day, also matches the description found in the sixth seal, which we saw earlier was from the time of the Reformation up to 1874AD, or at least from 1799AD and onward. We recommend looking at the parallel table again.

Here in the sixth trumpet, the voice calls to release the 4 angels, because now was the time that the Lords army was going to begin to break free from the oppressive Papal system. Time had run out for the fallen church system, and the beginning of the sixth church was the time for major events to start happening. To confirm that this church period was going to be a major blow to this evil system, we see that by 1799AD the Papal systems control over the civil power was largely overturned, and the church-state system had split into two different churches during the Reformation.

Four Angels in Rev Chap 7 & Here

It's not certain, but it's possible that these are the same angels that we saw at the four corners of the earth, holding back the winds in Revelation 7:1-3. There we saw that those angels oversaw four different parts of society, as represented by the Four Corners of the earth. Those four angels were in charge of keeping the four elements of society, social, political, economic, and religious stable in Chapter 7, and they most likely are doing the same thing here in the midst of the Euphrates.

The biggest difference between the two places, is that they were seen in the four corners of the earth in Chapter 7, and here we see them bound in the river Euphrates. A good possibility for the difference is that the four angels of Chapter 7 were shown keeping control of the four elements of society before the church and state system had gotten full control over the earth. Now we are seeing the four angels locked up in the river of error, because that river symbolizes the power of the church and state system, which had taken control over all four aspects of society. Here in the sixth trumpet, they are shown bound in the river Euphrates, which shows us that all of society had been captured and enslaved by the church and state system by this time.

To begin to release those four angels would imply that the truth and God's true religion that had been lost in the first four trumpet, was now going to be even further restored starting at the time of the Reformation. In the book of Jeremiah, we see that the prophecies that came to Jeremiah, were to be bound up and cast into the Euphrates.

Jeremiah 51:62-64(62 Then shall you say, O LORD, you have spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate forever. 63 And it shall be, when you have made an end of reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates: 64 And you shall say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.; and they will become exhausted. ' ' Thus far are the words of Jeremiah. NASU*

Here we see God's word being released from the binding up that the system had done to it, by their killing of the two prophets in the Great City of Papacy. The truth on many religious subjects was due to begin to be restored from this point onward. This is the taking up of the two prophets into heaven that we will see in Chapter 11.

Four Aspects of Society Being Released Is What Caused Reformation

The reason for the release of the angels, would also be so that the four aspects of society that were bound up in the Euphrates, would begin to be freed from that oppressive system. The important thing that we will see in this trumpet, is that the four elements of society are going to be at least partially released by the truth that was going to be revealed at this time, and that will cause the fallen system to begin to lose control, and the Reformation could then begin. Society had become greatly corrupted in God's eyes by the time of this church, and it was the time for the angels to begin to be released. God was going to begin to use his power to punish the church and state system, and to help the Faithful Church to an even greater extent than what had been already done in the fifth church.

God had hidden the knowledge of the scriptures in plain sight in that system, and that knowledge was going to be released, and that is what is designed to eventually destroy the evil system. Just before the Reformation the scriptures still lay dead in the Great City of Papacy, but they were going to be brought back to life at that time, and they were going to be lifted up into the heavens as the only word and authority of God, as seen in the sixth seal where the Protestant part of the heavens began to replace the Papal. Both Luther and the church of England translated the Bible into the common language of the people, and that is what caused the four angels to begin to be released. That caused the ecclesiastical earthquake of the Reformation, as well as a civil earthquake which was the French Revolution.

The Set Time For the Reformation was Prepared

By the time of the Reformation, not only the people, but a lot of the governments, financial, and religious elements were sick of this evil system, and wanted to be released from the bondage of Papacy. They had gotten tired of the abuses of power and other excesses that had been occurring. As we start this trumpet, we see the four elements of society at the point in history where they were about to begin to break free from Papal oppression. Because the set time had come, God was going to begin to release the 4 angels that represented control over four different aspects of society. Historically we see that all four angels did begin to let the control of all four elements of society loose at that time, and that is why this church period is called the Reformation by even the secular historians. They can see that it was a major upheaval and overthrow of a long-established system. God was going to start to release his people from the bondage of that system. That was the same thing that had happened to literal Israel when it was in bondage to Egypt. Pharaoh or Satan didn't want to let God's people go, but God forced him to let them go.

Euphrates Again in Sixth Bowl of Wrath

In accordance with the pattern we see in Revelation, where each trumpet is related to a corresponding bowl of wrath, if we look at the bowl for the sixth church, we again find that the Euphrates is what the bowl of wrath was poured out upon. That the Euphrates is what is being dried up in the sixth bowl, confirms for us that we are looking at the sixth trumpet correctly. The Euphrates pictures the support of the people for the fallen church system, and all other elements of society that belong to that system, and that support is what the sixth bowl or plague is going to completely dry up. In the time of the Reformation, that support was to be only partially lifted by the split in the church and state system and the breakup of the system. During the time of the sixth bowl of wrath, the release of the world of mankind from Satan's worldwide system, will be fully accomplished and the people will be able to get up on the highway of holiness at the start of the kingdom—without the evil system holding them back.

Prior to this point in history, the church and state system had kept any attempt to reform it from succeeding to any great extent. That is the reason that the four angels are symbolizing the elements of society that they control as pictured as being bound. These are the same elements of society that Peter is talking about in 2 Peter 3:10, and as we see from that scriptural reference, it was not to be until the day of the Lord that the elements of society would be completely melted or destroyed. Here we are going to see the beginning of that destruction, the full extent which will not be finished until when the bowl of wrath, which is directly related to this trumpet, works its full destructive power on the entire system.

But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

In Galatians 4:3, 9, the same word for elements is used regarding the principles of society:
Gal 4:3 So also, when we were children, we were in slavery under the basic principles of the world. (NIV)

Gal 4:9 But now that you know God-- or rather are known by God-- how is it that you are turning back to those weak and miserable principles? Do you wish to be enslaved by them all over again? (NIV)

Galatians shows that the word elements means elements of society, and not mineral elements such as what would be found in the periodic table. That misunderstanding is where some get the idea that the earth is going to burn up. The heavens are symbolic of the ecclesiastical heavens, and the word elements, refers to the elements of society. The symbol earth, represents civil power and other forms of government, and the works therein would refer to things like financial or other related items.

Day of the Lord

Many Bible Students don't think that the day of the Lord arrived until 1874AD, which is at the time of the seventh trump. That thought does not seem to be correct to us, because we see that during the sixth seal, which also opened at the time of the Reformation, that the day of the Lord had arrived already—at least from 1799 and onward. Revelation 6:16-17)16 and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; 17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?" (NAU)

Since the seventh trumpet doesn't begin until 1874AD, it's more correct to say that the day of the Lord is the time of the end. That would then include the time from at least 1799AD onward and perhaps as early as 1517AD and the Reformation. The day of the Lord is still here after 1874AD, and continues to generate further progress towards the kingdom.

Many of the civil power, ecclesiastical, social, and the financial powers, were sick of what was going on by the time of the Reformation, and they wanted freedom. The kings were sick of having to do what the church wanted, and they wanted their power back. The financial system was sick of paying taxes to the corrupt Roman church, which was spending it on luxury and vice. Many in the church like Luther, had become sick of the religious corruption, and saw that the Bible didn't teach the same doctrines as the fallen church did. They wanted religious freedom to worship the way that they saw fit. The people were sick of the torture and oppression that was coming from the evil church system, and they wanted out of it.

In other words, the time was ripe for something major to happen. The Reformation didn't come about just because of the religious corruption and false doctrines, but all of the other elements of society were being released by the angels, and because they all become discontented at the same time, change then became possible.

What was Loosed From Bondage

That the angels needed to be loosed, suggests that something had put them into bondage in the first place. An interesting thought in regard to the binding up of society, is that when we look at the first four trumpets, we see that as each trumpet sounds another part or element of society and of the church was changed into the 666 system by the removal of one-third. See the notes on the first four trumpets for details on what those elements of society symbolize. By the end of the time of the fourth trumpet, we saw that almost anything that could possibly be captured or put into bondage in that evil system, had been taken control of. There were ten items if we only count actual objects, which would indicate the entire system had been put into bondage. The original church system was from God, but Satan had corrupted it by changing it and putting it under the control of the 666 system.

If these were literal objects and we were to look around after the four trumpets had sounded their warnings, there would not have been much left that wasn't under the control of the fallen church system. In the first trumpet, we saw the (1) grass and (2) the trees destroyed. In the second trumpet, we saw (3) the sea and (4) the living creature and (5) the ships of the sea. In the third, (6) the rivers and (7) the springs of water are changed to blood. In the fourth, we see (8) the sun, (9) the moon and (10) the stars, as well as two non-material items (11) the day and (12) the night.

As we will see before we are done, the one-third that were to be killed here, were not literal deaths, but they symbolized those who were going to be freed from this system. It will be a reversal of the changing of all the elements of the system into 666 that had occurred in the first four trumpets. Killing one-third removes one-third or .333, leaving .666 behind in the system. In other words, when the Protestant one-third left the mother church, what they left behind was still 666. The number 3 is God's number, showing that those being killed are changed into those who belong to God. We will explain that more completely a little further onward.

In the above calculation, some might object to using  $1-.333=.666$  as a decimal number because it's said that they did not have decimal numbers back in that time, and so we will show that God has been using this same method all through the Old Testament, but without using it as a decimal. In the book of Zechariah we find this: Zech 13:8-9 (8) "It will come about in all the land," Declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it. 9) "And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' And they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'" NASU

In the Zechariah prophecy, we see that God is defining the two parts that are cut off as bad, and the one part that he takes out and refines in the fire, he is defining them as good. To prove that, we see that they are refined as gold and silver. So, when you see us use the decimal number one third or two thirds anywhere in this book, Zechariah Chapter 13:8-9 is the principle behind that calculation.

The Hour, Day, Month, and the Year

The time elements that are named here, "the hour, day, month, and the year", suggest that there is a set time for these events to take place, or at least to begin. Many time these events to the start of the French Revolution, but we don't think that is the exact point in time that is intended, even though we think the French Revolution is included in the events that occur in the sixth trumpet. The whole starting focus of this trumpet seems to be pointing to the beginning of the Reformation, and all the events that came out of it. The French Revolution was only one of the events that occurred because of the Reformation, and the events that are pointed to in this trumpet. This prophecy is like the great earthquake in the sixth seal, in that we don't think that what happened in that earthquake was limited to only the French Revolution, but it also included the events of the Reformation.

Different Possibilities Regarding the Date of Release

The Study Group discussed several possible solutions to what could be indicated by the hour, day, month, and the year. One of the possibilities was that these different units of time were only indicating a single set point in time for these events to begin. Of that solution, we saw that there were two different possibilities. The first one would have been the start of the Reformation itself. That solution seemed to be a very likely possibility, because that is the time that the sixth trumpet was sounded.

The other possibility that was put forth, was that the start point of the release could have been the French Revolution, because the events that happened there caused a major overturning of the power of the system. The French Revolution, which began in 1789AD, a few years later helped to bring about the breakup of church and state, where we saw the entire system of kings withdrew their support from Papacy in 1799AD. A few years after 1799AD, Napoleon took the crown out of the Popes' hands and crowned himself Emperor, instead of letting the Pope do it, as had been done for almost 1000 years. Again, while those events were very important in breaking the power of the system, they were only a part of what occurred during that time, and so the thought that the events of the sixth trumpet began at the start of the Reformation, seems to be the more correct conclusion.

There was a third possible interpretation, where we tried to assign different key historical events to the four different periods of time that are named here. We made a couple of different attempts to do that, but we were not able to come up with anything that solved all the problems to our satisfaction. In our first attempt, we were trying to assign the dates to events that were going to bring us up to 1914AD, but there was a couple of problems with that. The first problem was that the date of 1914AD was in the seventh trumpet. Because of that it did not seem correct that a sixth trumpet prophecy would be describing events that occurred in the seventh trumpet, although those events might still be correct if we consider that we are looking at the events that would finish off the evil system. The events that we had looked at were (1) the Reformation, (2) the French Revolution which helped bring about the (3) breakup of church and state in 1799AD, and (4) the 1914AD war that started the time of trouble that we are still in now.

In another attempt, we picked the Reformation, the French Revolution including the loss of civil power, the 1914AD war and the final whirlwind that still must occur at the end of the age, which sweeps all the ground up pieces of the Image away. That did have four events, but it has the problem that we would have to explain why we would have two of the four events occur in the seventh church, and not just in the sixth church. That again might still be correct, for the same type of reasoning that we used above for the Reformation to 1914 events.

One Final Possibility & the Most Likely Possibility

The only other thought that we would have about this, that might support having two of the events in the seventh church, would be if we looked at the command to release the angels as just the beginning of the destructive events, which would continue until everything is accomplished, which could go all the way to the final whirlwind. In other words, we would have to look at the sixth and even the seventh bowls continuing the work that began at the Reformation.

In that interpretation, we would have the hour, day, month, and year, pointing forward to key events in the destruction of this evil system. One reason for that conclusion, is that the hour and the day are mentioned as time-periods leading up to the destruction of Great Babylon in Chapter 18. In other words, the hour would simply be referring to the coming hour of judgment that was destined to happen during the harvest time of the seventh church. The day of judgment, is sometimes used to point to 1799, stating that after that time, we have been in the day of judgment, and punishment.

The year is a little more difficult, but in symbolic terms, one year is 360 days, or a day per year, that equals 360 years. From 1517 in Luther's time when he posted the 95 theses, until 1878AD, which is the end of the 1845-year judgment parallel, we have exactly 360 years. That only leaves us one other symbol to explain, and that is the symbol of the month. The month or new moon, is symbolic of the new law, which is destined to be revealed to Israel at the beginning of the millennium. At that time, they will be informed that they have a new moon or New Covenant, that will not only save them, but which will also save all the rest of mankind who are willing to accept that salvation.

Isa 66:23 "And it shall be from new moon to new moon And from sabbath to sabbath, All mankind will come to bow down before Me," says the LORD. NASU

The notes in the companion Bible on this verse, says that the Greek is pointing to a set specific point in time for these events to begin to happen. The release of the angels does cause events to begin at that point which will eventually include all the four time-periods that we just mentioned before they are done, but we do see that the trouble on the system starts at the first set point in time, which was the Reformation. For that reason, this last idea looks more possible as time has gone by and we have looked more closely at it, but we won't rule out the others entirely.

Revelation 9:16

Revelation 9:16 The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them. (NAU)

A Literal Chinese Army?

The army invades on the day of the Lord in Joel 2:1-11. The day of the Lord was mentioned in the sixth seal, and because of that we believe that we should start it at the time of the Reformation. Because of what we have seen in the parallel scriptures in Joel, and the discussion of the verses above, we can be sure that this army is not a literal army of Chinese's troops. Many interpreters would have us believe that this is some future literal Chinese or another army that marches against the Western world, but we will see that it is not as we examine the prophecy.

The thought that the large army of horsemen is a Chinese army, is the result of interpreting the prophecy too literally, and not looking at what is going on in the context of the prophecy. All the things that are found in the Joel prophecy, have to do with literal Israel in the original prophecy, and with God's church in the prophetic application. The horses and horsemen seen in Joel and in the sixth trumpet, are a picture of the spreading of the Reformation's religious truths that were carried to all parts of the world. If there is any possibility of a literal fulfillment, which we will mention in the next couple of paragraphs, they would be fulfilled only in the Joel account, and even there the religious element of the army is most important when the Lord utters his voice before the army.

Actual 200 Million?

How about the number 200 million, is that literal? If we look up the word innumerable, we find that this number does not have to be a literal 200,000,000, it could only imply a large number, a myriad. So, when we look for an interpretation that fits this prophecy, there may or may not be 200,000 in the army—but it does imply a very large number. INNUMERABLE 2. urias ^3461^ denotes either "ten thousand," or, "indefinitely, a myriad, a numberless host," in the plural, <Acts 19:19>; lit. "five ten-thousands," <Revelation. 5:11; 9:16>; in the following, used of vast numbers, <Luke 12:1>, KJV, "an innumerable multitude," RV, "the many thousands" (RV marg., "the myriads"); <Acts 21:20>, "thousands"; <Heb. 12:22>, "innumerable hosts"; <Jude 14>, "ten thousands" (RV, marg., in each place, "myriads"). See COMPANY, THOUSANDS. # Cf. the adjective murios, "ten thousand," <Matt. 18:24; 1 Cor. 4:15; 14:19>. # (from Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words) (Copyright 8 1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

Revelation 9:17-19

Revelation 9:17 And this is how I saw in the vision the horses and those who sat on them: {the riders} had breastplates {the color} of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone; and the heads of the horses are like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceed fire and smoke and brimstone.

Revelation 9:18 A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which proceeded out of their mouths.

Revelation 9:19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and with them they do harm. (NAU)

The fire, smoke, and brimstone, are symbolic of truths that are directly opposite of the three unclean spirits or lies that we see being uttered in Chapter 16. We believe that the lies in Chapter 16 are uttered after this historical time, but they are the same lies that Satan has always uttered throughout history. The fire smoke and brimstone that is being uttered here, are designed to counter the lies of Satan that existed in the sixth church, and to begin to remove them.

As we will see a little further onward in this prophecy, the one-third killed here are in actuality being consecrated to the Lord. The smoke, fire, and brimstone, are almost the same exact plagues that we will see the two prophets authorized to use in Chapter 11. Rev 11:5 And if anyone would harm them, fire pours out from their mouth and consumes their foes; if anyone would harm them, thus he is doomed to be killed. (RSV)

When we are looking at the tails of these horses, what we are seeing here are the tails or followers of the Protestant movement, continuing to inflict damage on the Papal system after the split between them and the mother church. Historically that is definitely true in that the sixth church continued to attack the evil church's errors, and they also brought out many Bible helps all the way up until the time of the seventh church.

The Locusts from Trumpet 5 Are as Big as Horses in the Sixth

The Protestants did fall back into some error during that earlier time, but because both the heads and the tails seem to be mentioned in connection with the killing of the one-third, we would have to say that these are symbols that indicate events or truths that are converting those who belong to the harlot over to Protestantism. We will explain the one-third that died shortly, and it will be seen to be a good thing. It also says that they could cause injury with their tails, but it doesn't mention that they killed with them. That would indicate that the mythical horses seen here in this army, are much more powerful symbolic descendants of the locusts that we saw in the fifth trumpet, and they are still using the tails to torment and sting the fallen system.

That the smoke, fire, and brimstone, can kill here in this church, shows a change from the fifth church. The killing that they are able to do here in this church, is a symbolic killing, which indicates that those killed are being converted over to Protestant beliefs in the sixth church, where in the fifth they were not able to kill or convert them because of their fear of Papacy. While there was literal killing of the saints going on in the sixth church, we don't believe that is what is being indicated by this killing.

Rev 9:18-20 (18 By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed, by the fire and smoke and sulphur issuing from their mouths.

19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; their tails are like serpents, with heads, and by means of them they wound.

20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot either see or hear or walk; (RSV)

The breastplates had the same colors as the fire, smoke, and sulfur which came out of the horses' mouths. That they were the same colors indicates the unified purpose of both horse and rider, in that is they both are trying to accomplish the same things. The breastplates would indicate a form of protection for the riders, and in this church we find historically that the civil power had joined the battle against the Papal system. It doesn't say the breastplates are iron, which would definitely indicate civil power protection, but if we believe that these riders are descended from the locusts in the fifth trumpet, it would be a logical conclusion that these breastplates are still made of iron, and that would symbolize the civil power protection that the Reformation had. Without the help from the civil power, it would not have succeeded. They also have the protection of the new understanding of the bible, because the understanding of the truth was protecting them.

Lions Teeth Have become Lions heads

If we compare the lions' heads in this Chapter with the lions' teeth of the locusts in the fifth trumpet, we see that the lions head here is indicating an increase in strength over what the fifth church had. The symbol of a head is used to indicate a leader, Isa 9:14-15. That these heads are lion-like, gives us some additional thoughts. First, we see that a lion can be used to represent a civil power or ruler. A few examples of this are Jer Chapter 4, and Ezek Chapters 19, 32. We also see the symbol of a lion used in Dan Chapter 7 to describe Babylon. Since the Reformation leaders were allied with the civil power of some of the kings, the symbol of the lion regarding the heads of the horses, seems to fit what happened historically. During the Reformation, many of the kings used their civil power to help the Reformation, and that is what helped it to succeed.

Regarding a second possibility, if we look a little further we can expand upon this idea even more. The ultimate lion will of course be the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, who will rule over the earth with unlimited strength. He will be a full-fledged lion with no parts missing in the next age. That is why we can see a second possibility in the lion's heads here, in that this symbol may be showing us that the leaders of the Reformation were looking to Christ as being their head or leader. The Faithful Church acknowledges the headship of Christ before the world, and in the end, everyone in the world must recognize Jesus as their leader. In the previous church, we only saw the jaw of a lion, but here we see the entire head which could indicate that this church made a great deal of progress in recognizing that they needed to be following the head Christ, and not some man.

Phil 2:9-10) 9 For this reason also, God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name, 10so that at the name of Jesus EVERY KNEE WILL BOW, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, (NAU)

So, while the symbol of lions is most likely pointing us to the civil power that the Reformers used, it should also be reminding us that the reformers recognized Christ as their head. We like that idea, since that was something that the fallen Papal system had lost sight of, especially since they were looking to the Pope as their head. The reformers were pointing to Christ as the one and only true head of the church.

The army that we see here, is different in size and power from the locusts we saw in the fifth church. It has swelled in ranks and in power, and there is no stopping them this time. That we see the same symbol of horses in both Revelation and Joel, indicates that this army was made up of ideas. Horses symbolize ideas or doctrines in the Bible. The ideas could be either ecclesiastical or worldly, and as with natural horses they moved and carried people and events along with them. These ideas were what made the Protestant Reformation move forward and succeed. The people were determined to break free from the Papal system at that time, and they did.

Army That is Here Is made of Many Different Factions

The Lord is more concerned about the doctrinal element of the message in Revelation, but if we look at the army in Joel Chapter 2, we will find that it was made up of more than religious ideas. When the Lord uttered his voice before the army in Chapter 2, we see that he turned it against the church and state system. In other words, through the work of the reformers in the sixth church, both religious and civil, we see the fallen church and state system divide and eventually fight amongst itself. The issues being fought about were both worldly and religious. After the initial conflict of the Reformation and more trouble on this end of the age, we see that the army turned more towards worldly things. Towards the end of Chapter 2 after the church is pictured as complete in Joel, we see that the Lord promises to turn it and its bad ideas away from Israel, so that the blessing of the kingdom can go forth.

The worldlier aspect of the army has become more apparent as time has progressed, until in our time with the Faithful Church separated from it, we see that it is made up of mostly worldly ideas. That army is still attacking the established order of things as we speak. In some situations the conflict has been over needed reforms, but in other situations greed has been the governing factor. That is why the Faithful Church has been advised to stay out of these conflicts as much as possible on this end of the age.

In the fifth and sixth trumpets, the faithful church could agree with the army, because a large part of what the army was complaining about, was about the things which were wrong in the Papal church. But the army does not always do what it should be doing as Luther himself found out, when it turned anarchistic and began to kill and destroy against his wishes. He was horrified by that, but he could do nothing to stop the pent-up rage and anger that turned against the established system, burning, and looting, and killing. That is why we also need to stay separate from the army during the seventh church, because at some point in time the army will turn violently anarchistic again.

Revelation shows us more of the religious side of the army at the time of the Reformation, and that is why we see the lion heads issuing plagues, which seems to represent the basic doctrinal elements that made up the Reformation. All of the society's ideas, both religious and secular were what made up the horses, and that is why they had so much power.

The Plagues are Spoken Words

In verses 17 and 18, we notice that the three plagues of fire, smoke, and sulfur, came out of their mouths, and that would indicate that these plagues are spoken words. Their tails, “or their following”, also inflict injury similar to what we saw in trumpet five. In Revelation 11:5, we see that the two prophets described there also make fire come from their mouth. We don’t believe that the symbols of the prophets and the riders on the horses are the same, but they are using the same truth to inflict injury on their enemies. We notice that King James does not use the word plagues, but it’s in the Greek text and most modern translation use it.

The truth that is represented in those three items, was plagues to the fallen church system, but protection and comfort to the different elements that made up the army, which included the Faithful Church at that time in history. The shields or breastplates that the riders of the horses had, and the fire and brimstone that came out of their mouths, shows that this army was not just on the defensive. In the same sense that “a good defense is a good offense”, the ideas and doctrines this army had were destructive to those who opposed them. That the fire and brimstone came out of their mouths along with smoke, suggests that these were words that exposed and destroyed the Papal church’s errors. When we see smoke, it’s a good indication that something has been burned or destroyed, and what is being destroyed by this fire and brimstone, was the false doctrines that had been built on a faulty foundation by the church and state system, exactly like what we see in 1 Cor Chapter 3.

Brimstone is very like fire, in that it’s considered to be a symbol of utter or complete destruction, and was used in the garbage dump in Jerusalem to destroy anything that was thrown into it. Anything that is destroyed in that manner will not ever be able to return. The Reformation truths were destroying the doctrinal claims that Papacy was making, because the truths issued by these riders were based on God’s word, and not on men’s ideas.

Three Primary Colors

Many translators and commentators feel that the description of the rider’s armor given here represent color more than anything, and if that’s correct we see that the three colors represented here would be the primary colors. We would have red from the fire, blue in the jacinth or hyacinth, and the yellow of sulfur. Just as the three primary colors can be mixed together to form any other color, we saw that it was the same thing with the doctrines that came out in the Reformation. The new ideas were studied and mixed together so well, that a lot of it became the harvest message of the next church. Pastor Russell never claimed originality for all the thoughts that he had, but he said that he gathered many of them from others that had come before him. Many of the ideas that we have today, came from the period of the Reformation, especially the Ana-Baptists and the second day Adventist movement which came later.

- Red would strongly indicate the doctrine of the ransom. That is because the blood of the ransom is red in color.
- Blue is generally understood to represent faithfulness. The upper robe of the high priest was blue.
- The yellow of sulfur seems to call to mind the color of Gold, which represents divine things or Divine nature. Sulfur stinks to fleshly men, just as divine things don't appeal to them either.

The sixth church made a great deal of progress in restoring doctrines that pointed to what our Lord had done for us on the cross. The Papal church system had forgotten what the word "ransom" or "blood atonement" meant, and were preaching instead that if you were to pay money to the church for indulgences, you could be forgiven for anything. The Reformation church also made great progress in faithfulness towards following the Lord and not the Pope, as the Papal system was doing. Most of the things in the fallen church were Pagan and worldly ideas, and not from the Lord. The Reformation succeeded in putting many of the Divine things back into this church, but not all.

That all of this is described as armor, indicates to us the extent to which this church had restored many of the doctrines of the early church, in that they were strengthened to the point where they could withstand the arrows of opposition and persecution from Satan's evil system. That included being able to resist to the point of death, as many of them had to do! We think that even the worldly elements of this army were strengthened by those important truths. Religion was much closer to the common person in those times, and even if they weren't faithful followers of the Lord, these ideas would still have influenced and strengthened them.

Satan is very good at making you think that perhaps you are wrong, and that you should just give up and that the mother system is ok and that it just needed a little reforming. That was what the Papal system did in the Counter-Reformation. Many gave up resisting the Papal system after that, and said that they didn't see that much of a problem with the mother church after the reforms. What they didn't realize is that she has the heart of a harlot, and that whenever she gets a chance she goes back to the same evil practices that she had been doing before.

Who are the 1/3 Killed?

The interpretation of the one-third that was slain here, is the same method of interpreting of the one-third that we saw being removed in the first four trumpets. In the first four trumpets, the one-third showed the Faithful Church being corrupted and changed into the apostate church and that showed that each succeeding stage of the church was going from bad to worse. The one-third being removed resulted in turning each element of society into something bad, (.666), etc. to infinity,  $1 - 1/3 = 2/3$  or .666, etc.

In the situation, here in the sixth trumpet, we have something that was part of a system that was already bad, and we have one-third of it symbolically killed and removed from that system. That means that it was actually taken away from Satan's system and re devoted to the Lord, which symbolically represents 333. We see that  $1/3 = .333$  etc. The number three is God's number, but the Lord Jesus as his representative now has that number and that number indicates that those being killed symbolically belong to him. The ones represented by "one-third" are slain or killed by consecrating themselves to the Lord, and are removed from the power of the system. The system no longer has control of them because they then belonged to God. The two-thirds that were left in the Papal system are still numbered .666, which is the number of the beast that is the church-state system. If you take  $1/3$  away from a whole number, you would still have  $2/3$  of that number left, or in other words 666. God is telling us in symbol, that those who remained in Papacy were still the 666 system, but the others who became Protestants were being converted over to being followers of the Lord.

The Consecration of the One Third

The killing of the one third is the same as those that had wanted to symbolically die to get away from the Papal church system in the fifth trumpet, but couldn't do so at that time because the system kept them from escaping, Rev 9:6. Here they can break free in great numbers, with many but not all consecrating their lives to the Lord. This reminds us of our Lord's command in Matt Chapter 24, where he said that if you were to see "the Abomination of Desolation" standing in the holy place, you were to flee into the mountains of God's arrangement. The Reformation had woken many up to the fact that Papacy was that Abomination, and for that reason they realized that they needed to flee to what was God's true organization at the time. The persecuting power of the evil system was overcome by the large rebellion that had turned against Papacy. Verse 20 says that the rest that weren't killed didn't repent, and that indicates that the one-third killed by being removed from the power of the system did repent.

If you were a faithful Catholic who lived during that time, and you saw those who had been faithful Catholics converting to Luther and the Reformation, you would have thought that they had indeed spiritually died. The Catholic traditional thought of the time and afterward, was that if you left the church that you would die and go to hell. They of course were missing the point that these were dying to the corrupt and false Papal system, and changing over to the true life that is in Christ.

An interesting scripture regarding thirds, is found in Zech where it's giving us the same picture as what the Lord is doing here. We see that this was initially fulfilled at the time of Jesus, because verse 7 is quoted in the new testament regarding Jesus: Zech 13:7-9 7 "Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and against the man, My Associate," declares the LORD of hosts. "Strike the Shepherd that the sheep may be scattered; and I will turn My hand against the little ones.

8 "It will come about in all the land," declares the LORD, "That two parts in it will be cut off {and} perish; but the third will be left in it.

9 "And I will bring the third part through the fire, refine them as silver is refined, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, and I will answer them; I will say, 'They are My people,' and they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'" (NAU)

The shepherd smitten was Jesus, and because of that the New Testament quoted this scripture out of the Old Testament in Matt when Jesus was crucified.

Matt 26:31-32) 31 Then Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away because of Me this night, for it is written, "I WILL STRIKE DOWN THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP OF THE FLOCK SHALL BE SCATTERED.' 32 "But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you to Galilee." (NAU)

We know that this scripture applies again on this end of the age, because of the 1845-year parallel, and because the standard of one-third testing as seen in Zech, is the same all through the ages.

The 2/3 that was cut off above, was the nation of Israel at the First Advent when they rejected the Messiah. In Acts Chapter 3, it tells us that is what happened to them. The Acts and the Zech reference have two prophetic applications, one at the First Advent with Christ, and a second one at the Second Advent with Christ head and body. The judgment that fell upon the Jewish house, has fallen again upon the nominal Christian house at this end of the age.

Acts 3:22-23) 22 For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you must listen to everything he tells you.

23 Anyone who does not listen to him will be completely cut off from among his people.' (NIV)

So, the two-thirds of the nation that are cut off, are not a literal two-thirds, but they are .666 which is a man's or Satan's number. In other words, they failed the testing of the hour and went with man's traditions, and failed to recognize the Messiah. The 1/3 killed represents those who went with the Messiah, and accepted him and became part of the church. As it indicates in the prophecy, they were still subject to further testing as symbolized by the fire, in order that they could completely prove themselves faithful to the Lord.

In the complete application of the prophecy in Zechariah regarding the entire age, we see that the apostate church system came under the same test of the 2/3 versus 1/3. In other words, the same standard of judgment that was applied at the beginning of the age, is applied to the end of the age. The Catholic two-thirds are so bad that the Lord couldn't use them anymore, but the Protestant one-third represented the many who were trying to serve the Lord, and he gave them 360 more years before he was going to separate out the chaff from the wheat a second time during the harvest time. That further testing is continuing even today after the harvest and the final gleaning of the wheat. The one-third that were brought out to the Lord in the 40-year harvest picture, are in a picture seen going through a further testing and refining of the fire, which is what we should expect. Only the best will become one of the 144,000.

Papacy Prettied Herself Up

Papacy like Jezebel, had to "pretty itself up" to keep her people from leaving. That is what Jezebel did in the Old Testament, just before she was cast down by her eunuchs. In the prophetic interpretation of the picture, we see that she prettied herself up in the sixth church after the Reformation had exposed her for what she was, and she is destined to be cast down in the next or seventh church. She is still prettying herself up again during the seventh church, and this time her overthrow will be final and the doctrinal horses will trample and destroy her.

II Kings 9:30-33) 30 When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard {of it} and she painted her eyes and adorned her head and looked out the window. 31 As Jehu entered the gate, she said, "Is it well, Zimri, your master's murderer?" 32 Then he lifted up his face to the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" And two or three officials looked down at him. 33 He said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down, and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her under foot. (NAU)

Here in the sixth trumpet, we see the beginning of her destruction, later in Revelation we will see the final smoke of her burning as that destructive work is completed in Revelation 18:9, 18. The prophecy of the testing of fire, reminds us of 1 Cor 3:1-15, where anything that is not made of correct doctrines and ideas, which is symbolized by non-perishable gold, and silver, will be burned up like hay and stubble.

The brimstone represents the permanent effect of the Reformation. The Protestants who accepted the new doctrines and ideas were permanently affected by them, and hence the brimstone or permanent destruction of many of the old ideas. Those who didn't accept the new ideas at that time, most likely lost any standing that they might have had with the Lord. They are the ones that would not repent, and who are mentioned again in the last few verses of this trumpet.

The power of the Reformation was in the doctrines that came out of the mouths of the heads, such as Luther, Zwingli, the Anabaptists, and others. Historians tell us that some Reformers turned back to doing the same things wrong that the mother system had done, because the movement was taken over by some who became false to the ideas of the original movement. Some even say that even Luther was not faithful to his original ideas, but we will leave that up to the Lord to judge. It may be that some of the things he said and did, were allowed to happen as a test on his followers.

Later on, in Revelation 17:5, we see the exact same problem described to us, in that we see that Papacy was the Mother of all the harlots. Many of the daughter's systems that came out of the Reformation, unfortunately began to do most of the same things wrong that the mother system had done. The doctrine of the mass was not overthrown by most of the Protestant churches, and a lot of them were still involved in church and state.

The Anabaptists

We see a decline in the Reformation in the history of the Anabaptists, who actually had a better grasp of the truth than did Zwingli and Luther. Some of the Anabaptist didn't believe in the Trinity or the hellfire doctrine. They also saw that the original churches they had been in didn't belong to the Lord, and hence they advocated a full immersion baptism, rather than the sprinkling that most of them had gotten as infants. Most of them also saw that Papacy was the Anti-Christ. Many of them even preached about a Second Coming and a 1000-year future kingdom here on earth! Sadly, many of the reform leaders didn't agree with those thoughts because they still had a lot of the errors of the mother system, and they began to persecute and even to kill many of the Anabaptists.

The Reformation started out with good intentions, but in the end the movement was corrupted, and much of the good was diverted. That was why we see that a seventh church, and another separation was necessary. There was also going to be a final judgment of the entire fallen church-state system at the time of the seventh church, and those who did not repent were warned in the message to the seventh church, that they would be spewed out.

Revelation 9:20

Revelation 9:20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so as not to worship demons, and the idols of gold and of silver and of brass and of stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk;

Revelation 9:21 and they did not repent of their murders nor of their sorceries nor of their immorality nor of their thefts. (NAU)

Papacy Did Not Actually Reform

The above statement confirms that the one-third that were killed, weren't killed, but that they were removed out of the power of the fallen system. The two-thirds that weren't killed or weren't removed, are those that stayed with the mother church, and they didn't repent as the above verses describe.

Historically that was true, in that even though the Reformation split off a large part of the Papal systems power and turned it Protestant, the rest of the corrupt system still didn't repent. Most of their false doctrines and ideas remained intact, and they still followed Papacy, and felt that he was Christ's representative on earth. They made some token reforms that made them look better to their own people, but only because they were forced into it. In the Lords' eyes they were still in grievous error.

All the above symbols literally applied to those who remained in error, in that they were worshiping devilish doctrines and not the Lord. The Lord saw their doctrines and ideas as being in the same category as the literal idol statues that the heathen had made in the Old Testament times of Israel. The Papal churches were guilty of erecting literal statues of the saints in their churches, and praying to them, although the idols of the heart are most likely the most grievous error that they had. They were worshiping the literal statues instead of the Lord, and the idols of their heart also kept them from following the true Lord. These literal statues were even made of the materials mentioned above in verse 20, and so we should not have any doubt about what church system is being talked about.

It's also true that they did not repent of their murders, which they have always been quick to carry out if they thought that they could eliminate a heretic and get away with it. They were not as easily able to kill those who opposed them after the Reformation, but they did attack Protestantism with literal armies trying to bring the people back into their fold. The Lord did not allow them any lasting success in that attempt. Unfortunately, many of the Protestants were persecuting their own people, because of the errors that they had kept from the mother church.

That the people could flee to the new world at that same time, made it harder for the fallen church systems to force the people back under their control, and we think that was a big part of the Lord's strategy. If you couldn't reform your church, you could move to the new world where you could in many places worship as you pleased. That is a big part of what broke the power of the evil system, because they couldn't control the people that went to the new world! There were some attempts to regain control of those who went to the new world, but most of the attempts failed because the ones that had come to the new world did not want to be back under that oppressive system. That fear of the old oppressive system is why the constitution and the bill of rights that guaranteed freedom from religion was written in the United States.

In the time of the seventh church, they have pretended that they have repented of the murders that were done in the name of Christ, but history does not agree with them. It's known for sure that during the Second World War, that Papacy didn't oppose Mussolini, nor did they say anything about the Jews and others like the Bible Students that they knew were being murdered in the death camps by Hitler. In Europe, several Catholic leaders led the German soldiers to other religious churches that they wanted eliminated, and then they turned their back while they were being murdered. Some books like "a woman rides the beast", by David Hunt, have documented their involvement in trying to kill off other rival religious factions during that war. From that evidence, it's obvious that they didn't repent at the earlier time, and still have not, at this time! At the end of the war, they also helped the war criminals that had done much of the murdering to escape to South America. So it's obvious, that if they had the power they would again engage in murder to enhance their power and control over the people.

Worshipping the Dead

The dead bones of the supposed saints were placed inside the altars of the churches, with the superstitious belief that the particular saint in the alter, would watch over them, forgetting that they should have been looking to the Lord for that protection. That is the same thing the Israelites did when they worshiped heathen Gods in the time of Israel. In the fallen church system, the Pagans very early in the Christian church had seduced spiritual Israel away from the Lord, by getting them to worship inanimate objects like the statues and bones in the churches. Many of them have even turned to speaking in tongues and consulting spirits, which the faithful church is warned not to do.

Mary Worship

Even now, today, they still have these same symbolic idols. They have even added insult to injury by what is called Mary worship, in that they have gotten to the point where they assign more power to Mary than they do to Christ. They think that Mary can forgive their sins much more easily than Christ can. It's obvious that they have completely lost the truth of what Christ did for everyone. That very serious Abomination has even gone public within the last few years, with an article in Time magazine, Dec 30, 1991, which explained that there are some that want to place Mary higher than Christ regarding salvation. Here is a partial quote from that article.

Handmaid Or Feminist?

"More and more people around the world are worshipping Mary--and it's led to a holy struggle over what she really stands for"

"Behind Vatican II's reconsideration of the Virgin and some of the uneasiness expressed over her populist revival, say feminists, is a concern over making Mary into a competitive divinity, a tradition common to many of the Pagan religions that Christianity superseded. Remarks Warner: "The great terror is that she will be worshipped above her son."

Even for feminists who have no desire to go that far, the idea of a return, however marginal, to that notion of supernatural feminine power is alluring. Says Sandra Schneiders, a professor at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley: "There has been a stupendous upsurge in goddess research and the feminine divinity as an antecedent to the male god. It's not unrelated that the Virgin Mary's popularity has also increased. Judeo-Christianity has been exclusively male, leaving a gap that cries out for feminine divinity."

The thefts that they didn't repent of we suggest is where they have tried to climb up to heaven by another way than by Christ. They have not come to Christ for salvation even now, but have chosen to keep their own invented and worthless way to salvation like the mass.

John 10:1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

Still Was 666

As was mentioned before, the fact that two-thirds were left after the one-third were killed or reformed, shows that the Papal system was still the 666 system, and that the Lord regarded them as such during the sixth church and afterward. They didn't repent of their sorceries, their Satanist doctrines, or even of fornication which was symbolic of their alliance with the civil power.

The Protestant churches that didn't repent of those same kinds of things, are for that reason at the end of the age, lumped into the same judgment as the harlot, and that is why it was necessary to have the harvest at the end of the age.

Chapter 10 Revelation 10:1

Revelation 10:1 I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire; (NAU)

Another Interlude

Like the pattern we saw in the seals, we find an interlude here between the sixth trumpet and the seventh trumpet, with more visions inserted between them.

The Strong Angel is Christ

Who is the strong Angel found here? In this vision, we believe that he represents Christ as a heavenly messenger. One reason that we believe that this angel is Christ, is that the angel's description in Revelation Chapter 10, is very similar to the description of Christ in Rev 1:13-16. Another reason we believe that this is Christ, is because of the things that he is starting to do in this Chapter, which are things that Christ was to be doing just prior to his Second Advent, like judging and punishing the church and state system. We don't believe that the vision starts at the Second Advent, but that it starts earlier, and that these are early beginnings of judgment and revealing of truth from as early as 1521 or as late as 1799 and onward. We will later on, show a chronological parallel that indicates the diet or Worms in 1521 seems to be the correct choice for the start of the coming of the angel, and not 1799 as we originally thought. *Revelation 1:14-16) 14 His head and His hair were white like white wool, like snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire. 15 His feet {were} like burnished bronze, when it has been made to glow in a furnace, and His voice {was} like the sound of many waters. 16 In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; and His face was like the sun shining in its strength. ### Strong Angel of Judgment

The question that comes up regarding this angel, is if he does represent Christ, why is he portrayed as being a strong angel here, rather than as just himself? We think that the answer is that in Chapter five where we studied the strong angel in that Chapter, we saw that strong angel represented God's law or standard of judgment, and that strong angel was using God's word to judge. That angel had passed judgment on mankind up to the time of the First Advent—finding none worthy to open the scroll. The angel was eventually able to pass a favorable judgment on the Lamb—proclaiming him worthy to receive the scroll, because he passed the test and judgment.

Here in Chapter ten, we see this angel a little differently, but we believe he is related to the one in Chapter 5 in the role of judgment. Since Christ had to fulfill the law to meet God's perfect divine standard, the strong angel seen here in Chapter 10, would still represent that perfect standard of God's word that is going to bring judgment on this end of the age. Christ has taken over the judgment role of the strong angel in Chapter 5, and he is coming to execute judgments upon the fallen church and state system, and to reward the faithful of the church. The other reason that he is the strong angel that we see here, is that has been given all authority in heaven and earth, and that includes judgment.

Matt 28:18 And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. NASU

Cloud of Trouble & Blessing

This angel is clothed with a cloud, which symbolizes trouble for sinners, but as we will see later in Revelation, he is also bringing the rain of refreshing waters of truth for the church. He has not arrived in his presence in 1874AD yet, because he is pictured as coming down. Who else could this be but Christ, since we see him similarly portrayed in many other scriptures? At the start of the Second Advent, Christ brought the message of the Divine Plan to the harvest time church, as well as a message of judgment against the fallen church. Both the Divine Plan as well as the judgment of the fallen system was contained in the scroll which is seen in his hand, and he is coming to execute the vengeance of God in the days of the Seventh angel with the trumpet. He is also bringing a fresh understanding of the message of the Gospel and the New Covenant, as symbolized by the rainbow that we see around or over his head.

In this Chapter, we will first see the separating of the Reformation, and then we will see Christ as the coming judge and the agent of Divine retribution that will come at the Second Advent, and when that happens, we will see John being told that he must witness again concerning many people and nations. The command to prophecy again, indicates that at this end of the age, at the end of the 1845-year judgment parallel, there will be a judgment that is exactly like what happened at the First Advent to the Jewish system, except that this time the same kind of judgment was to come against the entire Apostate church systems of the Gospel age.

The Malachi reference below initially applied at the First Advent, and it is applying again in a second application of that prophecy on this end of the age, and that is why we see Christ coming to fulfill this scripture again.

Mal 3:1-3 (1 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appears? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. (KJV)

After he will have accomplished the judgment part of his work and completed the church, he along with the completed church will then reveal the benefits of the New Covenant to the world as symbolized by the rainbow above his head. He has nailed the ordinances of the law to the cross, and for that reason, he was able to institute a better covenant to take its place.

Col 2:13-14) 13 When you were dead in your transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our transgressions,

14 having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us, which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. (NAU)

In Revelation 18:20-21, we will again find the term strong or mighty angel, and we will see that angel is also involved in the judgment and punishment of Babylon, which confirms that the symbol of a strong angel is either using the law, or he at least is angel bringing judgment. Since Jesus has been given all power in heaven and on earth, and he has taken over the role of judgment, we see that he is represented as a judge in that angel also.

Revelation 18:20-21 Rejoice over her, O heaven! Rejoice, saints and Apostles and prophets! God has judged her for the way she treated you."21 Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said: "With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again

The Meaning of the Rainbow

In Revelation Chapter 4 and 5, we saw God's throne with a rainbow around it. In Chapter 4, the Study Group decided that the emerald rainbow was symbolic of the Abrahamic covenant, and we were shown in Chapter 5 that the Abrahamic covenant was finally able to begin to be fulfilled at the First Advent, because of the blood of the Lamb. In Revelation Chapter 10, we see that the rainbow is on or above this angel's head, showing that he is bringing the intellectual knowledge of the true Gospel and the New Covenant with him, since that knowledge was lost in the great falling away that occurred during the Gospel Age. We notice that this rainbow was not said to be limited to a single color like it was in Chapter 4, and as a rainbow with seven colors we see that it has expanded its symbolic role, and it now represents the complete Divine Plan of God, and the knowledge of the New Covenant.

The Abrahamic Covenant was able to be fulfilled, because of the coming at the First Advent of the seed of the promise contained in that covenant, who was Christ. The green rainbow that was seen in Chapter 4, is now seen in this Chapter as having grown into the fully developed promise of salvation to both the stars of heaven and the sand of the sea shore parts of salvation. The benefits of the New Covenant were not going to be given to the world yet in the early days of this angel, but the message about its benefits of restoration and restitution was going to begin to be revealed to the church ahead of time. By the time of the seventh church, the message of salvation has witnessed again to all who would listen about that Covenant and the Divine Plan of the Ages since the harvest time, but both Israel and the world do not believe the message yet.

The events that are pictured in this Chapter, most likely start at the beginning of the time of the end in 1521AD, and they progress onward to the time of the Second Advent and the time of the Seventh trumpet, both of which started in 1874AD. It does not appear that the Chapter covers events in the seventh church period, except that it tells us about the mystery of God being revealed at that time, and John is told that he must witness again over many peoples, and nations, and we know that witness began in 1874AD. The Bible societies and the Adventist movement that came into existence after 1829AD, did a great deal to bring the light of the Bible out to the people, so that by the time of the Seventh church, a great deal of restored truth was already available.

Shining Face Gospel Truth About Salvation

His face, “prosopon” shined like the sun, symbolical of the Gospel truths that he was bringing with him. This vision is reminding us of when Moses came down from the mountain, and his face shined brightly with the light of the Mosaic Law. When he did that, he pictured or symbolized Jesus at the First Advent. We as faithful church members see the light of the Gospel and the light of the New Covenant shining from Jesus, who is pictured by Moses. The message of the New Covenant is much brighter than the Old message of the Law Covenant—which was symbolized by the moon.
